

Your posts

Photos, videos, text and status updates that you've shared on Facebook

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I was set up into a trap outside masjid an-Nur and got gang bashed 8-10 vs 1 due to this deceitful coward Kamal Saleh!

This filthy mushrik who says supporting shirk of democracy is a differed upon matter said I speak "big" online for making takfir upon ANIC, so he invited me to his masjid to explain to him my reasoning of takfir, and by Allāh he refused to answer a single question of mine, both in private and in person!

Next thing you know, he tells me to make takfir upon Omar al-Banna outside and explain myself to him, so I went outside and explained my reasons why I make takfir upon those affiliated with the ANIC organisation, and they told me to go away, without answering a single question of mine, just ignoring me!

And these people were like thugs with the filthiest of tongues, even one guy who pretended to be nice by walking me away towards car park wouldn't let go of pulling my hair, so I told him to stop and the other guy to shut up with his filthy swearing, then out of nowhere while I was off-guard to even fight back due to the guy pulling my hair and myself, 8 boys start swinging punches from all sides, and then putting me to the floor, throwing punches and kicks, while Omar al-Banna was laughing with them.

The stupid guy wouldn't stop holding my hair the whole time, along with the other dogs ripping my shirt, and even saying "homosexual" comments astaghfirAllāh.

Alhamdulillah, I'm not hurt and they were weak cowards, just very crazy and aggressive, the only thing that suffered the most blows was my left hand which was protecting my face alhamdulillah.

Then they just say, he's just a kid, leave him after ganging up on me. Moreover, I injured my knee the night before along with having my left toe recovering, so I wasn't expecting such a fight to take place.

But alhamdulillah, I can now see the true image of hypocrisy within the hearts of these cowards who deserve to be punished for their actions.

When their own shaykh refuses to answer my questions or refute me, what can you expect from his thugs who resort to violence?! I will stand up for the Haqq, irregardless of the consequences.

This mushrik now blocks me from facebook, but I'll be exposing the whole private conversation between me and him later on Inshā'Allāh, may Allāh punish him, Āmīn!

12 July 2018 16:16

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abu Bakr Auburn Next time you go go there let me know

12 July 2018 23:41

Sam Jackson Abu Tankeh I feel like some biryani fam ; do u think 1 of these guys commenting can hook us up with 40 day kurooj ???

12 July 2018 23:41

Miralem Nuhbegovic use are only hearing on side of the story wait and here the other side then come to a conclusion. we know alot of stuff they do is wrong but islamicly u need to hear the other side as well.

12 July 2018 23:42

Abu Tankeh Mmmm bryani... lets go claim some ghaneema fam

12 July 2018 23:42

Sam Jackson

12 July 2018 23:43

Abu Y Gheerah Wow what a comment i just read it miss jihan wth

12 July 2018 23:45

Abu Y Gheerah Raf Ta shut your mouth you spineless scumbag

12 July 2018 23:46

Abu Y Gheerah Sam Jackson use this dipshit raf khara for a meme

12 July 2018 23:47

Umm Maria Aisha So u deleted the thread because it didn't suite you aye. Alhamdulillah we are on the right path . May Allah subhanu wa ta'aala guide u to the haq .

12 July 2018 23:48

Ahmad Kaes Siddiqi Kafir Muslim

12 July 2018 23:48

Sam Jackson done

12 July 2018 23:49

Adam Al-hayek Or let him come with proof before making such accusations?

12 July 2018 23:50

Jihan Ghazzaoui Obviously I stated it wrong . I was meant to say ' Allah knows best who are the real kaffirs that act like they are Muslims but are not Muslims my comment was meant in that term 'Instead of thinking it's funny and cute to mock a sister it's actually a disgrace to see no one on here with no manners / backbiting acting like it's something use are all proud off and use wonder why this ummah is how it is now May Allah save use

12 July 2018 23:51

Billz AR Dawood Robinson run

12 July 2018 23:51

Sam Jackson who thought it was cute to mock you ??????????

12 July 2018 23:52

Dawood Robinson Billz AR I don't run, I roll. Cos I'm in shape, round is a shape right?

12 July 2018 23:52

Jihan Ghazzaoui Umm Maria Aisha not that sister because use new what I meant to say but were mocking me obviously use all have no manners what so ever And need to learn Islam again

12 July 2018 23:52

Sam Jackson but i excuse u now that u explained ur self & won't turn it into a meme

12 July 2018 23:52

Jihan Ghazzaoui Knew *

12 July 2018 23:52

Jihan Ghazzaoui Was

12 July 2018 23:52

Billz AR Dawood Robinson how's Shane

12 July 2018 23:53

Abu Y Gheerah Lol im so Confucius right now

12 July 2018 23:55

Jihan Ghazzaoui Subanallah I just corrected my mistake and use are still going lol no point of wasting my breath with people who don't fear Allah I'll leave it with Allah to deal with use Khayr

12 July 2018 23:55

Umm Maria Aisha But do u even know what your talking about ? 🤔

12 July 2018 23:57

Dawood Robinson Billz AR sacked. Went off his meds, and completely off the wall.

Bogan+No Meds+Ganja+Ice = that acts like a

13 July 2018 00:01

Jihan Ghazzaoui Umm Maria Aisha yes I do and I corrected myself Alhumduillah I am not as arrogant as you I can already tell your manners and you have none it isn't a nice trait to have lolll

13 July 2018 00:02

Bilal Youssef Umm Ameerah wallahi this attitude is the reason why we will never be united, this group is a dog, this is a coward, this is a kafeer etc. WAKE UP! The prophet of allah says we will never claim victory untill we are united ans by the looks of things its never gonna be.

13 July 2018 00:02

Billz AR Dawood Robinson or yea so he deserved the little jab then ahy

13 July 2018 00:04

Ahkam Akram May Allah protect you brother... when you preached the haqq they came to you with their true color..

13 July 2018 00:04

Dawood Robinson Billz AR and then some.

13 July 2018 00:05

Sam Jackson Abu Tankeh im out

13 July 2018 00:07

Umm Maria Aisha Jihan Ghazzaoui it's a trait I have towards people like you , who like to comment and don't know what they are talking about ! ☹

13 July 2018 00:08

Ilyas Mansur ameen

13 July 2018 00:11

Ilyas Mansur Please do make the intention for at least 3 days this month as Moulana Biryani ibn Batana Kabir will be coming to teach us about how to make wudu with air

13 July 2018 00:13

Zayn Ali no im not a hazara.

13 July 2018 01:32

Zayn Ali these cowards come here begging for security run away from the field innit. here to act tough in a suit 🤔🤔 faggot

13 July 2018 01:34

Zayn Ali 4 months khuruj brothers..any takers?

13 July 2018 01:39

Zayn Ali proof is already posted scroll up

13 July 2018 01:40

Abu Tankeh Yeh because the other side are munafikeen by default innit

13 July 2018 02:07

Abu Tankeh Sam Jackson stay fam

13 July 2018 02:09

Mensur Aliu Next time don't go alone to them akhi, cuz they have the tamkeen over you in those situations. If they want to debate let it be another place or in your hood. It is always so, when Ahlul Batil sit with democrats and make excuses for them and praise their "good part" (big Dawah) and shut up their mouths against their Batil. In the end they end at the same row with these filthy democrats. Be patient brother!

13 July 2018 02:18

Bashir Nachabe That half you talk about at least don't go talking shit like you and safwan and LOOOL so all your mashayekh and blind following sheep have photos of them up on facebook you calling the people you follow sheep 🤔 you make no sense at all

13 July 2018 03:06

Ahmed Hussain may allah deal with them

13 July 2018 03:24

Hassan Haibeh I been masjid noor many times. They have no manners and are arrogant

13 July 2018 06:43

Ibn Shaami Our brother Radwan has been temporarily banned from posting/messaging because of the cowards who reported his account. We have seen the evidence, and experienced it for ourselves that these people are indeed transgressors upon themselves. This will all be posted once Radwan is able to post again.

13 July 2018 07:37

Ibn Shaami Wallahi you cowards have only transgressed upon yourselves. By Allah you will be silent once the Dalil is posted, so I suggest you get off your high horse and if you want to insult and give personal attacks, then at least be a man and say it to his face. Smh you all acting like raging bints.

13 July 2018 07:51

Ibn Shaami This jahash can't differentiate between taghout laws and terms of conditions like traffic, personal businesses etc

13 July 2018 07:54

Ibn Shaami They were "aggrovated" because Kamal purposely told them "He was the one who made takfir on my beloved shaykh" speaking about el banna and with many masjid nur boys having thug mentalities, it's not hard to believe so.

13 July 2018 07:59

Ibn Shaami But stay laughing, bi'ithnillah the truth will be shown like it was shown to us last night.

13 July 2018 07:59

I was set up into a trap outside masjid an-Nur and got gang bashed 8-10 vs 1 due to this deceitful coward Kamal Saleh!

This filthy mushrik who says supporting shirk of democracy is a differed upon matter said I speak “big” online for making takfir upon ANIC, so he invited me to his masjid to explain to him my reasoning of takfir, and by Allāh he refused to answer a single question of mine, both in private and in person!

Next thing you know, he tells me to make takfir upon Omar al-Banna outside and explain myself to him, so I went outside and explained my reasons why I make takfir upon those affiliated with the ANIC organisation, and they told me to go away, without answering a single question of mine, just ignoring me!

And these people were like thugs with the filthiest of tongues, even one guy who pretended to be nice by walking me away towards car park wouldn't let go of pulling my hair, so I told him to stop and the other guy to shut up with his filthy swearing, then out of nowhere while I was off-guard to even fight back due to the guy pulling my hair and myself, 8 boys start swinging punches from all sides, and then putting me to the floor, throwing punches and kicks, while Omar al-Banna was laughing with them.

The stupid guy wouldn't stop holding my hair the whole time, along with the other dogs ripping my shirt, and even saying “homosexual” comments astaghfirAllāh.

Alhamdulillah, I'm not hurt and they were weak cowards, just very crazy and aggressive, the only thing that suffered the most blows was my left hand which was protecting my face alhamdulillah.

Then they just say, he's just a kid, leave him after ganging up on me. Moreover, I injured my knee the night before along with having my left toe recovering, so I wasn't expecting such a fight to take place.

But alhamdulillah, I can now see the true image of hypocrisy within the hearts of these cowards who deserve to be punished for their actions.

When their own shaykh refuses to answer my questions or refute me, what can you expect from his thugs who resort to violence?! I will stand up for the Haqq, irregardless of the consequences.

This mushrik now blocks me from facebook, but I'll be exposing the whole private conversation between me and him later on Inshā'Allāh, may Allāh punish him, Āmīn!

12 July 2018 16:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

“US, Canadian, European, South African, Australian and Latin American Muslim preachers are just as fake as their evangelical counterparts among the Christians. All they want is status and money. If they weren't too scared to preach the truth, they'd be too ignorant to do so anyway.

And then there are the jock-strap jockeys among their followers who prop them up like they are preeminent scholars of Islam. Their followers pay the $100s it costs to attend the fake weekend seminars, conferences or online courses. Since they wasted all that money and time, they feel like they have to hate everyone who rightfully criticizes their preachers.

Of course there are the Mid East-based "scholars" and "universities" where these westernized preachers studied or take their cues from. While these Mid East-based individuals and institutions take their cues from the US and Europe.

They tell you- "whoever doesn't have a Shaykh, Shaytan is his Shaykh". Why? Because anyone who dares to crack open an Islamic text not from this century will find out that these westernized Muslim preachers are lying about everything except the rules regarding menstruation and ablution.”

— Shared.

12 July 2018 10:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“US, Canadian, European, South African, Australian and Latin American Muslim preachers are just as fake as their evangelical counterparts among the Christians. All they want is status and money. If they weren't too scared to preach the truth, they'd be too ignorant to do so anyway.

And then there are the jock-strap jockeys among their followers who prop them up like they are preeminent scholars of Islam. Their followers pay the $100s it costs to attend the fake weekend seminars, conferences or online courses. Since they wasted all that money and time, they feel like they have to hate everyone who rightfully criticizes their preachers.

Of course there are the Mid East-based "scholars" and "universities" where these westernized preachers studied or take their cues from. While these Mid East-based individuals and institutions take their cues from the US and Europe.

They tell you- "whoever doesn't have a Shaykh, Shaytan is his Shaykh". Why? Because anyone who dares to crack open an Islamic text not from this century will find out that these westernized Muslim preachers are lying about everything except the rules regarding menstruation and ablution.”

— Shared.

12 July 2018 10:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“US, Canadian, European, South African, Australian and Latin American Muslim preachers are just as fake as their evangelical counterparts among the Christians. All they want is status and money. If they weren't too scared to preach the truth, they'd be too ignorant to do so anyway.

And then there are the jock-strap jockeys among their followers who prop them up like they are preeminent scholars of Islam. Their followers pay the $100s it costs to attend the fake weekend seminars, conferences or online courses. Since they wasted all that money and time, they feel like they have to hate everyone who rightfully criticizes their preachers.

Of course there are the Mid East-based "scholars" and "universities" where these westernized preachers studied or take their cues from. While these Mid East-based individuals and institutions take their cues from the US and Europe.

They tell you- "whoever doesn't have a Shaykh, Shaytan is his Shaykh". Why? Because anyone who dares to crack open an Islamic text not from this century will find out that these westernized Muslim preachers are lying about everything except the rules regarding menstruation and ablution.”

— Shared.

12 July 2018 10:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

This is a beautiful book for those who suffer from Iṛjā' in takfīr, “The sharp word against the one who does not make takfīr of the apostate” (169 pages) by the noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Sultān al-'Uṭaybī (تقبله الله):

Download link below ↓

https://ia801505.us.archive.org/26/items/TheSharpWordAgainstTheOneWho\_201807/The\_Sharp\_Word\_Against\_The\_One\_Who.pdf

12 July 2018 08:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

This is a beautiful book for those who suffer from Iṛjā' in takfīr, “The sharp word against the one who does not make takfīr of the apostate” (169 pages) by the noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Sultān al-'Uṭaybī (تقبله الله):

Download link below ↓

https://ia801505.us.archive.org/26/items/TheSharpWordAgainstTheOneWho\_201807/The\_Sharp\_Word\_Against\_The\_One\_Who.pdf

12 July 2018 08:52

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Vera Xans Radwan Dakkak asalamu alaikom do you also have the arabic version akhi
12 July 2018 09:04

Radwan Dakkak وعليكم السلام ورحمة الله وبركاته <https://justpaste.it/zx11c> It was also recommended by our beloved shaykh, Turkī Ibn Mubārak al-Bin'alī (تقبله الله).
12 July 2018 09:06

Vera Xans djazakallah ghair
12 July 2018 09:12

Ali Alan Nassif Brother, I'm all in for someone that exposes a deviant and if he is committing kufr to be exposed as a kafir, though, lately been seen a lot of annoying posts pointing at people who make takfir on people calling them “takfiris” though I don’t agree the term been thrown at someone that is exposing a deviant and misguiding the mass of people, my question is What is a REAL takfiri? And how does one go against Islam by making such claims ?

12 July 2018 09:46

Radwan Dakkak We observe their principles and reasons, to determine whether it's a rightful takfir or not. For example, I make takfir upon the one who completely abandons salāh, but likewise the khawārij sect make takfir upon whoever abandons salāh, does this make me from the khawārij? Not at all, since the khawārij base their takfir on their principle of "he has committed a sin = kafir", whereas I base my takfir upon this action falling under the nullifiers of Imān, and I don't make takfir upon sins at all. So in short, he must have knowledge on the issue falling under Kufr, and secondly he must have knowledge on the rules to apply this takfir. Just like if someone commits zina, the hukm of Allāh is to call him a zānī, and the one who steals is to be called a thief, likewise with whoever does kufr, we must call him a kafir, and not change the islamic labels around. Now ofcourse there are details related to takfir, and it's not necessary that we study every single aspect of it, especially the very complicated unclear matters, but we're speaking about clear shirk and kufr here, nothing to do with unclear matters. And even in unclear matters, a layman is permitted to research and give fatwās due to his knowledge on the issue, as the majority of scholars stated. You heard that right, even unclear matters that require observation!

12 July 2018 09:54

Haashim Bhat Wani Altaf Javad Bhat Ahmad Shahid

12 July 2018 12:26

This is a beautiful book for those who suffer from Irijā' in takfir, "The sharp word against the one who does not make takfir of the apostate" (169 pages) by the noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Sultān al-'Utaybī (تقبله الله):

Download link below ↓

https://ia801505.us.archive.org/26/items/TheSharpWordAgainstTheOneWho\_201807/The\_Sharp\_Word\_Against\_The\_One\_Who.pdf

12 July 2018 08:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I was told this, "Go get your head checked, seems like you have a chemical imbalance/bipola/a.d.h.d".

My reply to him, "Subhān'Allāh that's not nice brother. All I have for you are these words of poetry; اقبل: إن الإله ذو ولي! قيل: إن الرسول قد تكهن!

!ما نجا الله والرسول معاً — من لسان الوري، فكيف أنا؟

"It has been said; Allāh has begotten a child! It has also been said, the Messenger has become a magician!

Allāh and the Messenger were not spared whatsoever — from the tongues of people, so imagine the case with me?!"

11 July 2018 21:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

The former Muftī, Ibrāhīm Abū Muhammad steps down by exposing ALL the KUFR and SHIRK within his heart!

His religion is democracy, and promoting the kuffār, whilst falling into the clear-cut shirk of tahākum to the Tāghūt!

By Allāh, whoever doesn't call him a kāfir while knowing his reality is a misguided fāsiq, and if the hujjah is established upon the refrainer with his doubts removed, he becomes a kāfir like the muftī...!!

11 July 2018 21:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The former Muftī, Ibrāhīm Abū Muhammad steps down by exposing ALL the KUFR and SHIRK within his heart!

His religion is democracy, and promoting the kuffār, whilst falling into the clear-cut shirk of tahākum to the Tāghūt!

By Allāh, whoever doesn't call him a kāfir while knowing his reality is a misguided fāsiq, and if the hujjah is established upon the refrainer with his doubts removed, he becomes a kāfir like the muftī...!!

Radwan Dakkak added 5 new photos.

□ □ □ □ □

The former Muftī, Ibrāhīm Abū Muhammad steps down by exposing ALL the KUFR and SHIRK within his heart!

His religion is democracy, and promoting the kuffār, whilst falling into the clear-cut shirk of tahākum to the Tāghūt!

By Allāh, whoever doesn't call him a kāfir while knowing his reality is a misguided fāsiq, and if the hujjah is established upon the refrainer with his doubts removed, he becomes a kāfir like the muftī...!!

11 July 2018 21:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

The kāfir Tāghūt muftī who died fell into clear-cut apostasy of supporting the shirk of Democracy, may Allāh raise him up with the Tāghūt Erdogān! And I'll provide two fatwās by some of the major scholars of our times who made takfīr upon such!

While listing the countless amount of nullifiers of Islām the rulers of Saudi have fell into, the Noble Imām and Mujāhid, the Hāfidh of the 6 books of Hadīth, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū 'Abdillāh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله) includes in that list:

“Likewise, congratulating the kuffār for their disbelief and aiding them in that, such as the congratulating of their national unity day, they congratulate them on this, these Tawāghit enjoin each other with congratulations. And he may say, “Pure gratitude, friendship and may you continue to remain the way you are forever.”

Moreover, also congratulating the 'Irāqī government in gaining victory in the voting elections, and this is giving the kuffār the upper-hand authority in governance. The same way they congratulated the Afghānī government, this kāfir Karzai while calling him a muslim ruler.

Even congratulating the Iranian government and others, along with the Christians and the rest of the disbelieving states. Likewise, with inviting and calling people towards Kufr, such as waging war against “terrorism” and compelling the people to make tahākum to the ministry of labor and social development, along with commercial courts, and other Tāghūti courts.”

— Taken from his lecture on “Counter-terrorism” from min. 33:41 —> 34:36.

Shaykh Hamud ibn 'Uqla ash-Shu'aybi (rahimahullah) was asked about the ruling on congratulating the kuffar on their festivals and on winning the elections.

He replied: “All praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of creation. And may the salah and salam [of Allah] be upon our prophet Muhammad, his family, and upon his companions altogether. As for what follows:

Verily, congratulating the kuffar and sending blessings to them for taking office is a shar'i forbiddance. Because that is inclining towards them, muwalah [5] to them, contrary to wala and bara which is an asl from usul ad-Din, due to the fact they are enemies of Allah, His Din, and His messenger.

This is especially the case if the kafir whom he is congratulating is a war criminal, whose hands are still dripping in the blood of the Muslimin, such as the taghut, the president of Russia who said – and refuge is sought with Allah - in defiance to the Lord of creation: ‘We will continue the war, even if we have to fight Allah and He fights us.’

Thus it is obligatory upon every Muslim to hate this, his likes, and to have animosity towards them. As well as make goodly provisions to wage war and jihad against them, and to distance oneself from those who incline towards them and have muwalah to them, because that exposes one to the anger and punishment of Allah.

He (ta'ala) said, ‘And do not incline toward those who do wrong, lest you be touched by the Fire, and you would not have other than Allah any protectors; then you would not be helped’ (Hud: 113).

The noble Quran is full of ayat warning against muwalah to the kafirin and inclining towards them; judging those He (ta'ala) said, ‘Oh you who believe, do not take the Jews and Christians as allies. They are allies of each other, and whoever allies with them from amongst you, then indeed he is from them.’”

“And bara'ah from the kafirin: iman is not established with the slave except with its achievement.

For that reason our father Ibrahim (‘alayhis-salam) disassociated from his father and people. He (ta'ala) said, 'And when Ibrahim said to his father and people: Indeed I am innocent from that which you worship, except for Him who did create Him. Verily, He will guide me' (az-Zukhruf: 26).

And He (ta'ala) said, 'Indeed, there has been a good example in Ibrahim and those with him, when they said to their people: Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allah, we have rejected you, and there has appeared between us and you, hostility and hatred forever until you believe in Allah alone' (al-Mumtahanah: 4).

And the likes of these ayat in the noble Quran are many. Thus how can a Muslim establish these ayat while congratulating and sending blessings to the enemies of Allah and His messengers, and the enemies of humanity..." (End of his words).

[1] The question came after the tawaghit in the Arabian Peninsula congratulated their brother Putin when he won the elections and can be found below.
http://www.ilmway.com/site/maqdis/MS\_16368.html.

[2] This carries the meaning of loyalty, alligience, and similar terms. who ally with them as being from them.

11 July 2018 20:54

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Hamzah AL Muwaahid

11 July 2018 21:09

Ahmad Ibn Abdur-Raheem الله المستعان

11 July 2018 21:23

Muhammad Abdul Bari Hey man...ain't you the one running dawah.to.haq page on Instagram???

11 July 2018 22:47

Radwan Dakkak I don't have insta.

11 July 2018 22:47

Muhammad Abdul Bari Radwan Dakkak come on brother...You run that page..you call almost everyone kaafirs there also

11 July 2018 22:49

Muhammad Abdul Bari Salikat Albi have a look at this pist and his other posts ..He is also from Australia

11 July 2018 22:49

Radwan Dakkak I have never had an instagram account in my life, except when I made it due to a friend wanting me to check it out, didn't last 15 mins on there coz u can't upload a single post without a photo, so I hated it after 1 day and never went back.

11 July 2018 22:57

Abu Y Gheerah Muhammad Abdul Bari do you love Erdogan the Turkish thing

11 July 2018 23:06

Ibn Shaami He doesn't have instagram.

11 July 2018 23:06

Abu Y Gheerah Dawah to haqq is a takfeery ratboy..A pest just like ridvan memeshi lol

11 July 2018 23:06

Bhat Zahid U r calling erdogan a tagoot sums up the filth and hatred you have for Muslim ummah.. People with such mindset can never prove good to ummah

11 July 2018 23:32

Hamzah AL Muwaahid but its ok for erodo-dog to let teh crusaders(USA) build their airbases so they can go bomb the muslims in syria and iraq...wake up bro honestly

11 July 2018 23:52

Hamzah AL Muwaahid im pretty sure it sums up his hates from shills, donkeys and other dogs of the west and the jews...

11 July 2018 23:53

Bhat Zahid Hamz Em u r misled bro.. He z the only Muslim leader who gave warnings to Israel and always talked about Palestinian rights on international platform. U people have really a narrow concept of Islam. U Don't know any thing about democracy in Islam

12 July 2018 00:09

Arshad Khan Bhat Zahid You have no concept of Islam not even narrowest one. Two things that make Erdogan Kafir which are found in Islam: 1. Ruling by other than shariah of Allah. 2.

Helping kuffar like US kill Mulims.

12 July 2018 00:46

Muhammad Abdul Bari Abu Y Gheerah Erdogan is a good Muslim leader

12 July 2018 00:51

Bhat Zahid Arshad Khan he has drawn a jewel from the dirtiest streets and u better know how filthy turkey was and now have a look at turkey now.it z totally different: how can he adopt full shariah when people were in complete darkness of adultery n alcoholism . slowly n steadily he will adopt complete shariah there insha'Allah.he z a strategist not an extremist one like u people who have defamed Islam by creating daesh.. Moreover he isn't supporting USA .he has always resisted against them.

12 July 2018 01:06

Abdullah Muqdish Muhammad Abdul Bari he is a kāfir taghūt!!!

12 July 2018 07:54

Muhammad Abdul Bari Abdullah Muqdish shut up

12 July 2018 12:41

Arshad Khan Bhat Zahid "Moreover he isn't supporting USA .he has always resisted against them." yeah? That shows how much you know about Turkey. lol Turkey is a NATO member. Turkey has given airbase to US from where US planes fly to bomb Muslims in Syria. Now don't say US doesn't bomb Muslims in Syria. Why not support Saudi too? They have been implementing better laws as well.

12 July 2018 16:35

Zayn Ali Please understand the basics of what makes one a muslim before you defend a mushrik

12 July 2018 18:02

Hamzah AL Muwaahid Bhat Zahid "He z the only Muslim leader who gave warnings to Israel" BRAH i had a dream i was chipping trump ey, like no lie, then in the end of my dream i was like DAMN i shoulda told him to fear Allah ta alaa :/ ...BUT nah for REAL MATE TALKS CHEAP.. Erodo-dog can talk talk talk, but if you dont realise it already, WAR IS THEATRICALS BRO unless it comes to dealing with AHUHL sunnah, there is not negotiating with real muslims, its called "bomb dem bek to da stone ayge ya-huck"

12 July 2018 18:07

Hamzah AL Muwaahid Bhat Zahid i have a narrow concept? are you kidding me? i wish we could all sit down and talk, cause i would pop some very basic questions about tawhid and i bet you wouldnt even know the answers to them...

12 July 2018 18:08

Hamzah AL Muwaahid Bhat Zahid bro your talkin up turkey like they crushed the drug and alcohol problem are you kidding me istanbal is like the bridge into europe for drug trafficking, how do they albanian weed cartels get all their pot and hash out into europe LOL? yet how many videos of "daesh" are out there of them burning boxes of ciggarettes and destroying caches of alcohol... bro you read some clickbait crap and believe it tbh

12 July 2018 18:10

Zayn Ali Hamz Em dont waste your time on him.

12 July 2018 18:21

Hamzah AL Muwaahid is he a bot or a troll?

12 July 2018 21:30

Zayn Ali im a troll but i think his a bhat

12 July 2018 21:31

Hamzah AL Muwaahid awww oks, you know i was trolling taht AVI yemeni guy on youtube because some brother over you guys way bashed him and he made a video about it so i was trolling him and no lie after posting a few comments my internet got DDOS attacked and shut down for about 20 mins hahahaha this is like the second time it happened after i was trolling this same dude :O spooooky man hahaha

12 July 2018 21:32

Zayn Ali u need to configure ur router innit.

12 July 2018 21:34

Hamzah AL Muwaahid tru bruv - we gonna buy a new router anyway because we got the standard one the ISP sent us, probaly get a VPN setup with that onion layering thinga me jigg, if you set it up right you can have you IP changing every minute ey.

12 July 2018 21:35

Zayn Ali use a tunnel but either way its tracked to identify ur device. but hey i dnt knw much m not an indian.

12 July 2018 21:38

Hamzah AL Muwaahid how do they get my info through youtube, i thought youtubes security layers where on point like facebook's? clearly not...

12 July 2018 21:39

The kāfir Tāghūt muftī who died fell into clear-cut apostasy of supporting the shirk of Democracy, may Allāh raise him up with the Tāghūt Erdogān! And I'll provide two fatwās by some of the major scholars of our times who made takfir upon such!

While listing the countless amount of nullifiers of Islām the rulers of Saudi have fell into, the Noble Imām and Mujāhid, the Hāfidh of the 6 books of Hadīth, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū 'Abdillāh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله) includes in that list:

“Likewise, congratulating the kuffār for their disbelief and aiding them in that, such as the congratulating of their national unity day, they congratulate them on this, these Tawāghit enjoin each other with congratulations. And he may say, “Pure gratitude, friendship and may you continue to remain the way you are forever.”

Moreover, also congratulating the 'Irāqī government in gaining victory in the voting elections, and this is giving the kuffār the upper-hand authority in governance. The same way they congratulated the Afghānī government, this kāfir Karzai while calling him a muslim ruler.

Even congratulating the Iranian government and others, along with the Christians and the rest of the disbelieving states. Likewise, with inviting and calling people towards Kufr, such as waging war against “terrorism” and compelling the people to make tahākum to the ministry of labor and social development, along with commercial courts, and other Tāghūtī courts.”

— Taken from his lecture on “Counter-terrorism” from min. 33:41 —> 34:36.

Shaykh Hamud ibn 'Uqla ash-Shu'aybi (rahimahullah) was asked about the ruling on congratulating the kuffar on their festivals and on winning the elections.

He replied: “All praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of creation. And may the salah and salam [of Allah] be upon our prophet Muhammad, his family, and upon his companions altogether. As for what follows:

Verily, congratulating the kuffar and sending blessings to them for taking office is a shar'i forbiddance. Because that is inclining towards them, muwalah [5] to them, contrary to wala and bara which is an asl from usul ad-Din, due to the fact they are enemies of Allah, His Din, and His messenger.

This is especially the case if the kafir whom he is congratulating is a war criminal, whose hands are still dripping in the blood of the Muslimin, such as the taghut, the president of Russia who said – and refuge is sought with Allah - in defiance to the Lord of creation: ‘We will continue the war, even if we have to fight Allah and He fights us.’

Thus it is obligatory upon every Muslim to hate this, his likes, and to have animosity towards them. As well as make goodly provisions to wage war and jihad against them, and to distance oneself from those who incline towards them and have muwalah to them, because that exposes one to the anger and punishment of Allah.

He (ta'ala) said, ‘And do not incline toward those who do wrong, lest you be touched by the Fire, and you would not have other than Allah any protectors; then you would not be helped’ (Hud: 113).

The noble Quran is full of ayat warning against muwalah to the kafirin and inclining towards them; judging those He (ta'ala) said, ‘Oh you who believe, do not take the Jews and Christians as allies. They are allies of each other, and whoever allies with them from amongst you, then indeed he is from them.’”

“And bara'ah from the kafirin: iman is not established with the slave except with its achievement. For that reason our father Ibrahim ('alayhis-salam) disassociated from his father and people. He (ta'ala) said, ‘And when Ibrahim said to his father and people: Indeed I am innocent from that which you worship, except for Him who did create Him. Verily, He will guide me’ (az-Zukhruf: 26).

And He (ta'ala) said, ‘Indeed, there has been a good example in Ibrahim and those with him, when they said to their people: Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allah, we have rejected you, and there has appeared between us and you, hostility and hatred forever until you believe in Allah alone’ (al-Mumtahanah: 4).

And the likes of these ayat in the noble Quran are many. Thus how can a Muslim establish these ayat while congratulating and sending blessings to the enemies of Allah and His messengers, and the enemies of humanity...” (End of his words).

[1] The question came after the tawaghit in the Arabian Peninsula congratulated their brother Putin when he won the elections and can be found below.
http://www.ilmway.com/site/maqdis/MS\_16368.html.

[2] This carries the meaning of loyalty, alligience, and similar terms. who ally with them as being from them.

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

ANIC is a Tāghūtī organisation founded upon KUFR!! I call upon all of its members to publicly make tawbah and barā'ah from ANIC!

11 July 2018 20:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

ANIC is a Tāghūtī organisation founded upon KUFR!! I call upon all of its members to publicly make tawbah and barā'ah from ANIC!

11 July 2018 20:20

Radwan Dakkak added 2 new photos.

ANIC is a Tāghūtī organisation founded upon KUFR!!

Many are unaware of the reality of ANIC (Australian National Imams Council), which is run by its president, Suleiman Shady (who permits joining the army, police force and making tahākum). It's an organisation which has abolished the principle of Walā' and Barā', taken democracy as its way of life, whilst engaging in interfaith and much more which will be covered in this brief post Inshā'Allāh.

Tom Zreika is also the co-founder of ANIC who's a kāfir mushrik lawyer, and he wrote an article back in 2006 speaking about the recommendations which the organisation of ANIC strictly upholds.

I provided a link to the document in the footnotes which was released just before the formation of the Australian National Imams Council (ANIC) in 2006 entitled 'Australian Imams: The Way Forward.' [1].

For context, this document was released when the government's discredited "Muslim Reference Group" was discontinued and Sheikh Taj was being ousted as Mufti.

Among the clear nullifiers this co-founder of ANIC has founded the organisation upon include;

Nullifier #1 — “To the fullest extent uphold and promote the rule of law”. ANIC is not just upholding man-made Tāghūtī laws, but promoting them and calling upon the muslim community to adhere to these laws and even make tahākum to it...!!

Nullifier #2 — “Not in any way, shape or form derogate from the full compliance of the laws of Australia”. Allāhul-Musta'ān, they have founded ANIC based upon pure compliance with Australian man-made laws, without even derogating a single aspect of the law, this is clear major shirk of obedience!

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى said those who obey the mushrikīn in permitting the ميثنة, you would be mushrikīn, so imagine someone who obeys a complete man-made Kufr constitution?!

Nullifier #3 — “Not justify the breaking of the laws of Australia”. This implies that if a law prohibited something that's halāl or even wājib in the sharī'ah, then ANIC says it will never justify breaking it subhān'Allāh! This negates major fundamentals of Walā' and Barā' which we'll come too Inshā'Allāh.

Nullifier #4 — “Re-affirm its allegiance to the Nation of Australia, its symbols and insignia”. Allāhu akbar!! Can you imagine someone giving allegiance to the Nation of Quraysh, Abū Jahl, Abū Lahab and the mushrikīn?! This purely falls under the nullifier of giving loyalty, allegiance and support to the kuffār.

Nullifier #5 — “Become a member of an emergency organisation (and promote same) in their locality such as the Bush Fire Service, Surf Life Saving, or any other emergency service provider”. One of the agreements ANIC made with the kuffār is to become members of an emergency organisation and promote it, and this is exactly what the head of ANIC did, the Tāghūt Suleiman Shady (may Allāh curse him), along with the Muftī, giving fatwās that you can join the army and police force!

Nullifier #6 — “Do all things necessary to prevent any radicalisation or the breeding of fanatical opinions”. Lā hawlā walā quwatā ilā billāh, it's as if we see this right in front of our eyes! Look at how they are being funded by the Tawāghīt to spy upon the muslims, setting up de-radicalisation “shuyūkh” in numerous places, to prevent the muslims from believing in what's obligatory within their Dīn of Tawhīd and what it entails of takfīr upon the mushrikīn, while being taught to uphold the laws of Kufr, which is an absolute negator of Walā' and Barā'.

Nullifier #7 — “Conduct themselves in a manner consistent with Australian values”. Now this is explained by what they previously mentioned of upholding and promoting the Kufr man-made law, and ANIC frequently repeats these words in their announcements and letters, wallāhul-mustaʿān.

Moreover, those who join this disbelieving organisation are not exempted from blame whatsoever, no matter what excuse they use, such as the most common preventing other sects from banning books and other weak claims, as maslaha for daʿwah does not permit committing Kufr whatsoever.

The noble Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرهم) says:

“The Haneef is the one who turns away from Shirk. The Muwahhid Haneef, is he who is determined to worship Allāh and avoids polytheism in all of its different types, forms, shades and colours.

He avoids the shirk of the past and present, from worshipping Ahwāʾ (desires), Asnām (statues), Awthān (idols), and making duʿā to other than Allah.

He also has to avoid implementing the ruling of the Tāghūt, and making Tahākum to it (i.e. seeking judgement from the Tāghūt), or joining the disbelieving organizations and what's similar to that.”

Concerning the famous Āyah on those who mocked the reciters of the Qurʾān, Shaykh al-ʿAllāmah ʿAbdul-ʿAziz at-Tuwaylaṭī (تقبله الله) provides outstanding benefits in his amazing commentary upon “Nawāqidh al-Islām” (Nullifier #6), he writes:

“And another benefit it contains is that the one who participates in Kufr and being pleased with it, and sitting with the one who says such words in a fashion that accompanies approving of it, (then) ALL of them are Kuffār, for indeed in the verse Allāh has judged the Kufr of every individual within that group of people who sat by & did not give an exception or excuse to any of them, despite the fact that the one speaking is only 1 person and the rest are simply listeners, and as for “the group that Allāh has pardoned”, then it has been said it was a man who rebuked some of their speech, and it has been said, what is meant is that a group among them repented, and Allāh pardoned them, and the other group remained upon its Kufr and Hypocrisy, so that is the one which is punished (as stated in the Āyah).”

So while the Imāms of Kufr are passing out fatwā on behalf of every single one of your registered names, don't think you will be excused from Kufr for remaining silent, rather it's necessary that you make barāʾah from this KUFR organisation in totality!

Therefore, I call upon all the members of ANIC to make tawbah to Allāh and publicly make barāʾah from this Tāghūt organisation which has harmed muslims in favour of the kuffār!

#ANIC | #KUFR | #TĀGHŪT | #MURJIAH

---

[1] Link to the document —> <http://austrolabe.com/wordpress/wp-content/uploads/2007/03/mufti.pdf>

11 July 2018 20:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

#Breaking | The kāfir Tāghūt muftī of ANIC has died in a coma.

11 July 2018 08:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Breaking | The kāfir Tāghūt muftī of ANIC has died in a coma.

11 July 2018 08:10

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

Adam Mooring Radwan Dakkak osama bin laden funded and helped Pak president Nawaz Shareef to stand and win elections. Is OSAMA bin laden also kaafir and taghuut? Are you a new muslim or a jew Radwan Dakkak ? Asking not assuming.

11 July 2018 11:34

Radwan Dakkak LOL, you're a clown! SBS is simply recording the mufsi speak. Many trees in Sydney, go smack your head on one before questioning my Islām.

11 July 2018 11:35

Adam Mooring Radwan Dakkak so you are going by his speech not his actions or what is in his heart. I dont need a tree. i rather smack on your head little KIDO. Grow up. RADWAN DONKEY.

11 July 2018 11:37

Radwan Dakkak Exactly what the murji'ah would say, if someone insults Allāh, you can't judge him until you split open his heart. In this context, I must open up your brains so u can understand a bit of Tawhid, O confused jahmi!

11 July 2018 11:38

Adam Mooring Radwan Dakkak who insulted Allah? talk in context. You gonna teach me Tawhid? Yea? Cut copy and paste? give me what books you have written or lecture u have done so i can hear and see your work.
11 July 2018 11:39

Radwan Dakkak What a joker, I don't copy paste anything. If you sincerely wanna know what I've written, go through my wall, otherwise if you wanna continue arguing, I'm gonna display a block.
11 July 2018 11:41

Radwan Dakkak Joker asked for a block.
11 July 2018 11:43

Abu Y Gheerah Lmaooooo this Adam dude is a crack up
11 July 2018 11:51

Ilyas Mansur People like this are a stain upon creation that even Nappy-San Oxy won't remove. All you can do is chuck some metho on it and grab the lighter.
11 July 2018 11:52

Ahmad Ibn Abdur-Raheem أله أكبر
11 July 2018 12:18

Zayn Ali brothers are creative these days ☺
11 July 2018 12:27

Mohamad Taleb فانتك الله، خنزير ... اسال الله العظيم ان يشل اركانك وان يخرس لسانك .. وان شاء الله انت واشكالك في الدرك الأسفل من النار.
11 July 2018 12:28

Mohamed Akra Salams A friendly reminder Dont get me wrong I'm not saying you're a Kafir... Just something to think about... food for thought
11 July 2018 13:28

Abdur Rahman Khalid Yeah, that's applicable to Muslims, not mushrikeen.
11 July 2018 13:37

! محمد ابو سفيان خبت وخسنت يا أيها السلفي الاجرب
11 July 2018 14:46

AbdurRahman Umar Ibn Bakr Food for thought
11 July 2018 15:05

Ahmad Ibn Abdur-Raheem SubhānAllāh, akhi Radwan Dakkak where did these people come from, May Allah reward you when you spread the message of Tawhīd these people were no where to be seen. And who is more unjust than one who is reminded of the verses of his Lord but turns away from them and forgets what his hands have put forth? Indeed, We have placed over their hearts coverings, lest they understand it, and in their ears deafness. And if you invite them to guidance - they will never be guided, then - ever. [Surat Al-Kahf, Ayah 57]
11 July 2018 16:27

Hammoudi Abdul Jalil How about leaving the judgment to allah swt as he knows best. La illah ila allah. Just dont talk about him khalas he is gone akhis, weather he did good or bad in his life who are we to talk about this person. If allah swt is the most forgiving then why are we judging this individual. I know nothing about what he has done or what not but think about the reality man,just dont judge and khalas, focus on your self insha'allah
11 July 2018 17:00

Abdullah Koyi Alhamdoelilah Abū Dujānah Al Khurāsānī the grand murtad has died.
11 July 2018 18:13

Hamzah AL Muwaahid Adam Mooring Abdullah ibn Utbah reported: I heard Umar ibn Al-Khattab, may Allah be pleased with him, say, “Verily, in the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, the people would be judged by revelation, but the revelation has ended. Now we judge you according to your outward deeds. Whoever shows us good, we will trust him and favor him and it is not for us to judge his inner secrets, for Allah will hold him accountable for those. Whoever shows us evil, then we will not trust him or believe in him even if he claims his intention is good.” Source: Sahih Bukhari 2498 Grade: Sahih (authentic) according to Al-Bukhari اللَّهُ الرَّحْمَنُ الرَّحِيمُ مُحَمَّدٌ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ وَآلُ مُحَمَّدٍ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْوَحْيُ قَدْ انْقَطَعَ وَإِنَّمَا تَأْخُذُكُمُ الْآيَاتُ بِمَا ظَهَرَ لَنَا مِنْ غَمَائِكُمْ فَمَنْ أَظْهَرَ لَنَا خَيْرًا أَمَّا هَؤُلَاءِ فَفَرْتَاهُ وَلَبَسَ الْبَيِّنَاتِ مِنْ سَرِيرَتِهِ شَيْءٌ اللَّهُ يُخَاسِبُهُ فِي سَرِيرَتِهِ وَمَنْ أَظْهَرَ لَنَا شَوْءًا لَمْ تَأْمَنْهُ وَلَمْ تُضَدِّقْهُ وَإِنْ قَالَ إِنَّ سَرِيرَتَهُ خَسَنَةٌ 2498 صحيح البخاري كِتَابُ الشَّهَادَاتِ بَابُ الشَّهَدَاءِ الْغَدُولِ
11 July 2018 18:57

Hamzah AL Muwaahid Adam Mooring stop acting and speakin upon your emotions mr moderate mozlem, go relearn your islam, RAND FIQH isnt islam mate.
11 July 2018 18:58

Abu Naafi Al-Astrali Takfir is a judicial judgment. There's a process. It's not just "I see action x from person y. I know action x is kufr/shirk, therefore person y is a kaafir/mushrik". I'm not sure who from amongst the mashayikh is teaching about takfir right now, unfortunately, so isn't it fair to say there's a decent amount of ignorance on the issue? There's knowledge and study on the issue, and takfir is a part of Islam, a necessary part as well. But your post, I think, is doing a disservice. Those in your own circle will wholeheartedly agree and those not, well you know full well how they will respond. And I'm certain you knew before you posted. So is it worth it? How much benefit is your post bringing and how much are you pushing people away from an essential component of Islam? How do you think your actions are helping in the grand scheme of things?

11 July 2018 19:49

Abū Dujānah Al Khurāsānī الحمد لله thats an apostate less..

11 July 2018 20:04

James Smithwick Radwan Dakkak You get angry when brother Adam Mooring questions your Islam but you seem to question many other people's Islam.

11 July 2018 20:15

Radwan Dakkak ANIC is a Tāghūṭī organisation founded upon KUFR!! Many are unaware of the reality of ANIC (Australian National Imams Council), which is run by its president, Suleiman Shady (who permits joining the army, police force and making tahākum). It's an organisation which has abolished the principle of Walā' and Barā', taken democracy as its way of life, whilst engaging in interfaith and much more which will be covered in this brief post Inshā'Allāh. Tom Zreika is also the co-founder of ANIC who's a kāfir mushrik lawyer, and he wrote an article back in 2006 speaking about the recommendations which the organisation of ANIC strictly upholds. I provided a link to the document in the footnotes which was released just before the formation of the Australian National Imams Council (ANIC) in 2006 entitled 'Australian Imams: The Way Forward.' [1]. For context, this document was released when the government's discredited "Muslim Reference Group" was discontinued and Sheikh Taj was being ousted as Mufti. Among the clear nullifiers this co-founder of ANIC has founded the organisation upon include; Nullifier #1 — "To the fullest extent uphold and promote the rule of law". ANIC is not just upholding man-made Tāghūṭī laws, but promoting them and calling upon the muslim community to adhere to these laws and even make tahākum to it..!! Nullifier #2 — "Not in any way, shape or form derogate from the full compliance of the laws of Australia". Allāhul-Musta'ān, they have founded ANIC based upon pure compliance with Australian man-made laws, without even derogating a single aspect of the law, this is clear major shirk of obedience! Allāh سبحانه وتعالى said those who obey the mushrikīn in permitting the ميثنة, you would be mushrikīn, so imagine someone who obeys a complete man-made Kufr constitution?! Nullifier #3 — "Not justify the breaking of the laws of Australia". This implies that if a law prohibited something that's ḥalāl or even wājib in the shar'ah, then ANIC says it will never justify breaking it subhān'Allāh! This negates major fundamentals of Walā' and Barā' which we'll come too Inshā'Allāh. Nullifier #4 — "Re-affirm its allegiance to the Nation of Australia, its symbols and insignia". Allāhu akbar!! Can you imagine someone giving allegiance to the Nation of Quraysh, Abū Jahl, Abū Lahab and the mushrikīn?! This purely falls under the nullifier of giving loyalty, allegiance and support to the kuffār. Nullifier #5 — "Become a member of an emergency organisation (and promote same) in their locality such as the Bush Fire Service, Surf Life Saving, or any other emergency service provider". One of the agreements ANIC made with the kuffār is to become members of an emergency organisation and promote it, and this is exactly what the head of ANIC did, the Tāghūṭ Suleiman Shady (may Allāh curse him), along with the Mufti, giving fatwās that you can join the army and police force! Nullifier #6 — "Do all things necessary to prevent any radicalisation or the breeding of fanatical opinions". Lā ḥawlā walā quwatā ilā billāh, it's as if we see this right in front of our eyes! Look at how they are being funded by the Tawāghīṭ to spy upon the muslims, setting up de-radicalisation "shuyūkh" in numerous places, to prevent the muslims from believing in what's obligatory within their Din of Tawḥīd and what it entails of takfīr upon the mushrikīn, while being taught to uphold the laws of Kufr, which is an absolute negator of Walā' and Barā'. Nullifier #7 — "Conduct themselves in a manner consistent with Australian values". Now this is explained by what they previously mentioned of upholding and promoting the Kufr man-made law, and ANIC frequently repeats these words in their announcements and letters, wallāhul-musta'ān. Moreover, those who join this disbelieving organisation are not exempted from blame whatsoever, no matter what excuse they use, such as the most common preventing other sects from banning books and other weak claims, as maslaha for da'wah does not permit committing Kufr whatsoever. The noble Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) says: "The Haneef is the one who turns away from Shirk. The Muwahhid Haneef, is he who is determined to worship Allāh and avoids polytheism in all of its different types, forms, shades and colours. He avoids the shirk of the past and present, from worshipping Ahwā' (desires), Asnām (statues), Awthān (idols), and making du'ā to other than Allāh. He also has to avoid implementing the ruling of the Tāghūṭ, and making Tahākum to it (i.e. seeking judgement from the Tāghūṭ), or joining the disbelieving organizations and what's similar to that." Concerning the famous Āyah on those who mocked the reciters of the Qur'ān, Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Abdul-'Azīz at-Tuwayla'ī (تقيله الله) provides outstanding benefits in his amazing commentary upon "Nawāqidh al-Islām" (Nullifier #6), he writes: "And another benefit it contains is that the one who participates in Kufr and being pleased with it, and sitting with the one who says such words in a fashion that accompanies approving of it, (then) ALL of them are Kuffār, for indeed in the verse Allāh has judged the Kufr of every individual within that group of people who sat by & did not give an exception or excuse to any of them, despite the fact that the one speaking is only 1 person and the rest are simply listeners, and as for "the group that Allāh has pardoned", then it has been said it was a man who rebuked some of their speech, and it has been said, what is meant is that a group among them repented, and Allāh pardoned them, and the other group remained upon its Kufr and Hypocrisy, so that is the one which is punished (as stated in the Āyah).” So while the Imāms of Kufr are passing out fatwā on behalf of every single one of your registered names, don’t think you will be excused from Kufr for remaining silent, rather it’s necessary that you make barā’ah from this KUFR organisation in totality! Therefore, I call upon all the members of ANIC to make tawbah to Allāh and publicly make barā’ah from this Tāghūt organisation which has harmed muslims in favour of the kuffār! #ANIC | #KUFR | #TĀGHŪT | #MURJIAH _____ [1] Link to the document —> <http://australabe.com/wordpress/wp-content/uploads/2007/03/mufti.pdf>

11 July 2018 20:25

Ilyas Mansur Can someone please bring the bug spray? Mortien is preferable.
11 July 2018 20:27

Abu Y Gheerah Keep speaking Haqq Radwan Dakkak even if you have one friend left and the earth is shaking under your feet
11 July 2018 20:32

Ibn Shaami Even when the truth is right underneath their noses, they reject it out of the love the have for these people. The hearts of these people have become more inclined to the creation than the creator.
11 July 2018 20:34

Ahmad Ibn Abdur-Raheem And who is more unjust than one who is reminded of the verses of his Lord but turns away from them and forgets what his hands have put forth? Indeed, We have placed over their hearts coverings, lest they understand it, and in their ears deafness. And if you invite them to guidance - they will never be guided, then - ever. [Surat Al-Kahf, Ayah 57]
11 July 2018 20:35

Abu Y Gheerah Bloody coconut lol
11 July 2018 20:36

Ibn Shaami Allāhu Akbar!!!!
11 July 2018 20:37

Hamzah AL Muwaahid LOL she should go read the story of salman al farsi and the part where he exposed that dead priest who was hording wealth from the people... arggh too many wannabe heroes on facebook, tfeh
11 July 2018 20:45

Hamzah AL Muwaahid James Smithwick thats because radwan has spent alot of time love and effort studying the religion and he knows what his talking about, tehn you get some muppet like yourself or adam barking like dogs speaking based upon your emotions because you got offended that some sell out DOG got called out for being hte DOG he is..... Yeh lets all bury our heads in the sand and let the corrupt people, the people of bidah and shirk propegate and spread their cancer through society Go read the hadith of umar ibn khattab and judging people on the apparent then come back... cheers cobber
11 July 2018 21:04

Saad Muadh you should seen mine, 3-4 hours worth of non sense desire based opinions to support democracy in group alone
11 July 2018 21:42

Saad Muadh whenever a daleel was given they came up with new ways of nafs non sense
11 July 2018 21:42

Saad Muadh sadly i didnt realise one of them was waseelah seeker kafir
11 July 2018 21:43

Saad Muadh I don't understand why people don't want to read surah kafiron and understand how we should stay away from shirk and how to reject it. That surah is so powerful and yet people are complete idiots not to see how taghout is to be rejected
11 July 2018 21:53

James Smithwick Hamz Em Go for a swim at Cottosleo and cool off brother. Preferably when the Great White sharks aren't around.
11 July 2018 22:06

Hamzah AL Muwaahid havent had a shark attack for years dont worry , im not a beach person though sorry thanks for the thought !
11 July 2018 22:07

Hamzah AL Muwaahid plus too many naked women there mate, pretty bad suggestion tbh, if thats what floats your boat go for it but i would advice against being around naked women
11 July 2018 22:08

Zayn Ali sharks n women both have a deadly bite
11 July 2018 22:11

Hamzah AL Muwaahid aint nothing like the fury of a woman scorn lol
11 July 2018 22:27

Abdullah Muqdish It is most definitely worth it.

12 July 2018 07:59

Abdullah Muqdish As if you people ever heard of him hhh
12 July 2018 07:59

Abdullah Koyi yes i did, ik volgde hem een poosje hij was 4maanden de mufti en was hard bezig met interfaith en hard bezig om radicalisme te bestrijden.
12 July 2018 08:51

Abdullah Koyi hij had ook een fatwa gegeven dat moslims mogen opstaan voor een rechter, (taghut) waardoor een zuster die vastzit in problemen kwam.
12 July 2018 08:53

Hamzah Ibn Yahya yeh but nobodys trying to start a war here so im not seeing how thats relevant LOL
13 July 2018 05:06

Hamzah Ibn Yahya Abdullah ibn Utbah reported: I heard Umar ibn Al-Khattab, may Allah be pleased with him, say, “Verily, in the time of the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, the people would be judged by revelation, but the revelation has ended. Now we judge you according to your outward deeds. Whoever shows us good, we will trust him and favor him and it is not for us to judge his inner secrets, for Allah will hold him accountable for those. Whoever shows us evil, then we will not trust him or believe in him even if he claims his intention is good.” Source: Sahih Bukhari 2498 Grade: Sahih (authentic) according to Al-Bukhari
عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُثَيْبَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ يَقُولُ إِنَّ أَنَاسًا كَانُوا يُؤَخِّدُونَ بِالْوَحْيِ فِي عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَإِنَّ الْوَحْيَ قَدْ انْقَطَعَ وَإِنَّمَا تَأْخُذُكُمُ الْآلَانِ بِمَا طَهَّرَ لَنَا مِنْ أَعْمَالِكُمْ فَمَنْ أَطَهَّرَ لَنَا خَيْرًا أَمَّنَاهُ وَفَرَّغْنَاهُ وَلَيْسَ الْإِنْتِزَاعُ مِنْ سَرِيرَتِهِ شَيْءٌ اللَّهُ يُخَابِسُهُ فِي سَرِيرَتِهِ وَمَنْ أَطَهَّرَ لَنَا شَوْءًا لَمْ تَأْمَنْهُ وَلَمْ تُصَدِّقْهُ وَإِنْ قَالَ إِنَّ سَرِيرَتَهُ خَسَنَتْ
13 July 2018 05:07

Hamzah Ibn Yahya sigh, the guy promotes standing in front of a judge... the guy promotes interfaith...and many other things that nullified his islam, OH MAKING THE HALAL HARAM AND THE HARAM HALAL... its actually tiring reading this stupid posts by people like you, you act like everyone else is mis informed when its actually YOU...stop being LAZY and do some research...its exacerbating dealing with people like you, no wonder radwan has little respect for the emotional garbage that appears on his posts.
13 July 2018 05:10

#Breaking | The kāfir Tāghūt muftī of ANIC has died in a coma.

11 July 2018 08:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Men vs Women.

10 July 2018 23:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Men vs Women.

10 July 2018 23:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Introduction | Men vs Women! Who is the better gender? (Summarised version).

In short, both men and women are equal in virtue, but Allāh mentioned that men have more rights in terms of obedience and authority over the wife.

Imām Abū Muhammad Ibn Hazm al-Andalusī (رحمه الله) beautifully sums up this issue in “Al-Fisal” (3/53-57), and I’ll simply share the summary for now:

“And one of the claimers who opposes us concerning this has stated, Allāh (عز وجل) said:

“And the male is not like the female.” [3:36].

So we say by the success of Allāh, therefore according to you (O claimer), you consider yourself better than Maryam, ‘Ā’isha and Fātimah, because you’re a male and they are females.

So if he admits to this, he would be tagged along with stupidity and become a kāfir. But if he asks about the meaning of the Āyah, it would be said to him:

The verse is upon its apparent meaning, and there’s no doubt that the male is NOT like the female, because if he was like the female, he WOULD be a female!

Likewise, the female is NOT like the male, because this is considered a female and that is considered a male, and this has nothing to do with virtue in any case whatsoever.

But if someone objects to that with the statement of Allāh, “But the men have a degree over them [in responsibility and authority].” [2:228]

It would be said to him that this is solely regarding the rights of the husband above the wives, and whoever wants to hold this Āyah upon its outward meaning, then this implies him to view every Jew, and every Majūsī, and every Fāsiq among the men to be better than Umm Mūsa, Umm ‘Īsa, Umm Ishāq, peace be upon them, and to be better than the wives of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his daughters, and this is Kufr for whoever says such a thing according to the consensus of the Ummah.”

10 July 2018 23:35

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

10 July 2018 22:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

10 July 2018 22:57

Radwan Dakkak shared Abū Bakr at-Tarābulsī's post.

10 July 2018 22:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

May Allāh preserve our beloved Imām, and allow us to continue benefitting from his beneficial knowledge.

10 July 2018 20:52

Radwan Dakkak shared Abū Bakr at-Tarābulsī's post.

May Allāh preserve our beloved Imām, and allow us to continue benefitting from his beneficial knowledge.

10 July 2018 20:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allāh preserve our beloved Imām, and allow us to continue benefitting from his beneficial knowledge.

10 July 2018 20:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

ANIC betrayed our sister, may ALLAH deal with them!

10 July 2018 19:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

ANIC betrayed our sister, may ALLAH deal with them!

10 July 2018 18:59

Radwan Dakkak added 5 new photos.

□ □ □ □ □

ANIC betrayed our sister, may ALLAH deal with them!

10 July 2018 18:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

10 July 2018 10:01

Radwan Dakkak shared Abū Bakr at-Tarābulṣī's post.

---

10 July 2018 10:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

10 July 2018 10:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

سبحان الله

10 July 2018 00:01

Radwan Dakkak shared Majestic Animals's video.

---

😊😊😊

9 July 2018 23:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

سبحان الله

9 July 2018 23:59

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://t.me/AbuBakrAtTaraabulsi>
<https://t.me/AbuBakrAtTaraabulsi>

New channel.

9 July 2018 07:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://t.me/AbuBakrAtTaraabulsi>

New channel.

<https://t.me/AbuBakrAtTaraabulsi>

9 July 2018 07:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

facebook.com
Abū Bakr at-Tarābulṣī

As-salāmu ‘alaykum, I'll also be sharing my posts on this page under the kunyā; Abū Bakr at-Tarābulṣī. Feel free to share with others.

<https://www.facebook.com/pg/Ab%C5%AB-Bakr-at-Tar%C4%81bul%C4%AB-247453319140656/about/>

9 July 2018 07:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

facebook.com
Abū Bakr at-Tarābulṣī

As-salāmu ‘alaykum, I'll also be sharing my posts on this page under the kunyā; Abū Bakr at-Tarābulṣī. Feel free to share with others.

<https://www.facebook.com/pg/Ab%C5%AB-Bakr-at-Tar%C4%81bul%C4%AB-247453319140656/about/>

9 July 2018 07:07

Radwan Dakkak shared a Page.

---

facebook.com
Abū Bakr at-Tarābulī

As-salāmu ‘alaykum, I'll also be sharing my posts on this page under the kunyā; Abū Bakr at-Tarābulī. Feel free to share with others.

<https://www.facebook.com/pg/Ab%C5%AB-Bakr-at-Tar%C4%81bul%C4%AB-247453319140656/about/>

9 July 2018 07:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

Realistically speaking, I'm nothing. The way I have abandoned the ummah is devastating to say the least.

8 July 2018 20:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Realistically speaking, I'm nothing. The way I have abandoned the ummah is devastating to say the least.

8 July 2018 20:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Realistically speaking, I'm nothing. The way I have abandoned the ummah is devastating to say the least.

8 July 2018 20:44

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://youtu.be/u3DCdCM0Bjc>
<https://youtu.be/u3DCdCM0Bjc>

What a title 😊 Abu Waleed is funny, may Allāh preserve him.

8 July 2018 19:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

Click for video:

Shaykh praising his wife with heart softening poetry for attaining “masters” in her Hanbalī fiqh studies!

“You became adorned through the Āyāt and sunan, you pre-occupied your time in the nobleness of knowledge, while the rest of the people are pre-occupied in the dunyā and fitan.”

— Highlight of his words to his wife. May Allāh adorn our sisters in Islām with the Qur’ān and Sunnah!

8 July 2018 18:56

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

---

Click for video:

Shaykh praising his wife with heart softening poetry for attaining “masters” in her Hanbalī fiqh studies!

“You became adorned through the Āyāt and sunan, you pre-occupied your time in the nobleness of knowledge, while the rest of the people are pre-occupied in the dunyā and fitan.”

— Highlight of his words to his wife. May Allāh adorn our sisters in Islām with the Qur’ān and Sunnah!

8 July 2018 18:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Click for video:

Shaykh praising his wife with heart softening poetry for attaining “masters” in her Hanbalī fiqh studies!

“You became adorned through the Āyāt and sunan, you pre-occupied your time in the nobleness of knowledge, while the rest of the people are pre-occupied in the dunyā and fitan.”

— Highlight of his words to his wife. May Allāh adorn our sisters in Islām with the Qur’ān and Sunnah!

8 July 2018 18:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Imām Sa’d at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) wrote:

هواك داؤك، فإن خالفته فدواؤك

“Whims are your disease, and your cure is to oppose it.”

— Related by Imām al-Qurtubī (رحمه الله) in his “Tafsīr” (16/168).

8 July 2018 12:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Imām Sa’d at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) mentions in his Tafsīr of the first Āyah of Sūrat al-Munāfiqūn:

ومن عرف بقلبه، وأقر بلسانه، ولم يعمل بأركانه ما فرض الله عليه من غير عذر، كان كإبليس لعنه الله، عرفه وأقر به ولم يعمل بأمره.

“Whoever knows in his heart, and affirms via his tongue, but doesn’t act upon what Allāh has commanded via his limbs without an excuse, then he’s just like Iblis, may Allāh curse him. He knew Him and got closer to Him, but didn’t act upon His command.”

8 July 2018 12:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Imām Sa’d at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) mentions in his Tafsīr of the first Āyah of Sūrat al-Munāfiqūn:

ومن عرف بقلبه، وأقر بلسانه، ولم يعمل بأركانه ما فرض الله عليه من غير عذر، كان كإبليس لعنه الله، عرفه وأقر به ولم يعمل بأمره.

“Whoever knows in his heart, and affirms via his tongue, but doesn’t act upon what Allāh has commanded via his limbs without an excuse, then he’s just like Iblis, may Allāh curse him. He knew Him and got closer to Him, but didn’t act upon His command.”

8 July 2018 12:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Imām Sa’d at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) mentions in his Tafsīr of the first Āyah of Sūrat al-Munāfiqūn:

ومن عرف بقلبه، وأقر بلسانه، ولم يعمل بأركانه ما فرض الله عليه من غير عذر، كان كإبليس لعنه الله، عرفه وأقر به ولم يعمل بأمره.

“Whoever knows in his heart, and affirms via his tongue, but doesn’t act upon what Allāh has commanded via his limbs without an excuse, then he’s just like Iblis, may Allāh curse him. He knew Him and got closer to Him, but didn’t act upon His command.”

8 July 2018 12:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Imām Sa'd at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) wrote:

هواك داؤك، فإن خالفته فدواؤك

“Whims are your disease, and your cure is to oppose it.”

— Related by Imām al-Qurtubī (رحمه الله) in his “Tafsīr” (16/168).

8 July 2018 12:54

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Imām Sa'd at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) wrote:

هواك داؤك، فإن خالفته فدواؤك

“Whims are your disease, and your cure is to oppose it.”

— Related by Imām al-Qurtubī (رحمه الله) in his “Tafsīr” (16/168).

8 July 2018 12:54

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Sorry guys, I had a black out with no electricity or internet to post the clarification. Just busy atm, but I will post it when I have the time tonight إن شاء الله, it's literally finished.

8 July 2018 12:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

After I post a detailed clarification within the next few hours Inshā'Allāh, I'm gonna take a short break and chill away from social media, then come back with the series on the amazing saḥābī Mu'āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyānؓ

7 July 2018 19:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

After I post a detailed clarification within the next few hours Inshā'Allāh, I'm gonna take a short break and chill away from social media, then come back with the series on the amazing saḥābī Mu'āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyānؓ

7 July 2018 19:34

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

After I post a detailed clarification within the next few hours Inshā'Allāh, I'm gonna take a short break and chill away from social media, then come back with the series on the amazing saḥābī Mu'āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyānؓ

7 July 2018 19:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

**Many think abandoning Qur'an = abandoning reciting it, and this is wrong!****

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ)

“It's necessary to contemplate and ponder over it, since Allāh may He be Glorified and Exalted said:

وَقَالَ الرَّسُولُ يَا رَبِّ إِنَّ قَوْمِي اتَّخَذُوا هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ مَهْجُورًا

“And the Messenger has said, “O my Lord, indeed my people have taken this Qur'an as [a thing] abandoned.” [25:30].

Many people think that abandoning the Qur'an is to abandon reciting it, and this is wrong! Abandoning the Qur'an consists of various levels;

Abandoning reciting it, abandoning implementing the Qur'an, abandoning pondering over the Qur'an, abandoning making tahākum to the Qur'an, and abandoning seeking shifā' (cure) through the Qur'an.”

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

**Many think abandoning Qurʻān = abandoning reciting it, and this is wrong!****

Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʻAlwān (فك الله أسره)

“It’s necessary to contemplate and ponder over it, since Allāh may He be Glorified and Exalted said:

وَقَالَ الرَّسُولُ يَا رَبِّ إِنَّ قَوْمِي اتَّخَذُوا هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ مَهْجُورًا

“And the Messenger has said, “O my Lord, indeed my people have taken this Qurʻan as [a thing] abandoned.” [25:30].

Many people think that abandoning the Qurʻān is to abandon reciting it, and this is wrong!
Abandoning the Qurʻān consists of various levels;

Abandoning reciting it, abandoning implementing the Qurʻān, abandoning pondering over the Qurʻān, abandoning making tahākum to the Qurʻān, and abandoning seeking shifāʻ (cure) through the Qurʻān.”

7 July 2018 19:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

**Many think abandoning Qurʻān = abandoning reciting it, and this is wrong!****

Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʻAlwān (فك الله أسره)

“It’s necessary to contemplate and ponder over it, since Allāh may He be Glorified and Exalted said:

وَقَالَ الرَّسُولُ يَا رَبِّ إِنَّ قَوْمِي اتَّخَذُوا هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ مَهْجُورًا

“And the Messenger has said, “O my Lord, indeed my people have taken this Qurʻan as [a thing] abandoned.” [25:30].

Many people think that abandoning the Qurʻān is to abandon reciting it, and this is wrong!
Abandoning the Qurʻān consists of various levels;

Abandoning reciting it, abandoning implementing the Qurʻān, abandoning pondering over the Qurʻān, abandoning making tahākum to the Qurʻān, and abandoning seeking shifāʻ (cure) through the Qurʻān.”

7 July 2018 19:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

#Repost | Excellent way to tell if someone is committing Major Shirk in his oath to other than Allāh!!!

The Imām, al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-ʻAlwān (فك الله أسره) said:

“It’s possible, the brother says if taking an oath (by other than Allah) is widespread in a land where they worship other than Allah, and the one being taken an oath by is among those who is worshipped besides Allah in this land.

So yes, this is an indication that they take an oath (by other than Allah) out of exaltation (i.e. Major Shirk), however do these people worship other than Allah to begin with or are they Muwahhidun overall?

This is to be observed, he may be originally a mushrik by this person that’s worshipped, so the oath he performs may be from the least of his actions (since he does worse shirk), however this results in the intention which you have mentioned.

Whereas if a man was among the Muwahiddeen overall, but did some oaths to other than Allah, in this case he would have fell into minor Shirk. But if there’s an indication that he intends exaltation as we explained yesterday.

Wherein he takes an oath on the emphasizing matters, ya’ni if he wants to emphasize the matter, he would take an oath by the dead. And if wants to undervalue a matter, he takes an oath by Allah.

And if he wants to take an oath truthfully, he takes an oath by the dead. But if he wants to take an oath whilst lying, he takes an oath by Allah, this is an indication that it’s major Shirk, and it’s from the shirk of exaltation.

Just like Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned in “Madārij as-Sālikīn” when he spoke about taking an oath by other than Allah, he mentioned it could be major Shirk, he says the hadīth refers to it as being Minor Shirk, but it could be major shirk if there is exaltation tagged along with it, and the exaltation here is clear if this indication is present.”

7 July 2018 19:05

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Repost | Excellent way to tell if someone is committing Major Shirk in his oath to other than Allāh!!!

The Imām, al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرته) said:

“It’s possible, the brother says if taking an oath (by other than Allah) is widespread in a land where they worship other than Allah, and the one being taken an oath by is among those who is worshipped besides Allah in this land.

So yes, this is an indication that they take an oath (by other than Allah) out of exaltation (i.e. Major Shirk), however do these people worship other than Allah to begin with or are they Muwahhidun overall?

This is to be observed, he may be originally a mushrik by this person that’s worshipped, so the oath he performs may be from the least of his actions (since he does worse shirk), however this results in the intention which you have mentioned.

Whereas if a man was among the Muwahiddeen overall, but did some oaths to other than Allah, in this case he would have fell into minor Shirk. But if there’s an indication that he intends exaltation as we explained yesterday.

Wherein he takes an oath on the emphasizing matters, ya’ni if he wants to emphasize the matter, he would take an oath by the dead. And if wants to undervalue a matter, he takes an oath by Allah.

And if he wants to take an oath truthfully, he takes an oath by the dead. But if he wants to take an oath whilst lying, he takes an oath by Allah, this is an indication that it’s major Shirk, and it’s from the shirk of exaltation.

Just like Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned in “Madārij as-Sālikīn” when he spoke about taking an oath by other than Allah, he mentioned it could be major Shirk, he says the hadīth refers to it as being Minor Shirk, but it could be major shirk if there is exaltation tagged along with it, and the exaltation here is clear if this indication is present.”

7 July 2018 19:03

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Repost | Excellent way to tell if someone is committing Major Shirk in his oath to other than Allāh!!!

The Imām, al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرته) said:

“It’s possible, the brother says if taking an oath (by other than Allah) is widespread in a land where they worship other than Allah, and the one being taken an oath by is among those who is worshipped besides Allah in this land.

So yes, this is an indication that they take an oath (by other than Allah) out of exaltation (i.e. Major Shirk), however do these people worship other than Allah to begin with or are they Muwahhidun overall?

This is to be observed, he may be originally a mushrik by this person that’s worshipped, so the oath he performs may be from the least of his actions (since he does worse shirk), however this results in the intention which you have mentioned.

Whereas if a man was among the Muwahiddeen overall, but did some oaths to other than Allah, in this case he would have fell into minor Shirk. But if there’s an indication that he intends exaltation as we explained yesterday.

Wherein he takes an oath on the emphasizing matters, ya’ni if he wants to emphasize the matter, he would take an oath by the dead. And if wants to undervalue a matter, he takes an oath by Allah.

And if he wants to take an oath truthfully, he takes an oath by the dead. But if he wants to take an oath whilst lying, he takes an oath by Allah, this is an indication that it’s major Shirk, and it’s from the shirk of exaltation.

Just like Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned in “Madārij as-Sālikīn” when he spoke about taking an oath by other than Allah, he mentioned it could be major Shirk, he says the hadīth refers to it as being Minor Shirk, but it could be major shirk if there is exaltation tagged along with it, and the exaltation here is clear if this indication is present.”

7 July 2018 19:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

When you make tawāf around the ka'bah for Allāh, you are directing an act of worship to Allāh alone (Tawhīd).

But when you make tawāf around the grave, especially if this grave belongs to a well-known saint that people exalt and worship besides Allāh, you are directing an act of worship to other than Allāh, even if you claimed it's for Allāh, since the reality shows otherwise and that you're making tawāf to seek nearness through this saint (Shirk).

So be careful from directing acts of worship to other than Allāh, such as in sacrifices, vows and seeking judgement. Purify your 'Ibādah for Allāh alone and stay away from all forms of shirk.

7 July 2018 18:49

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

When you make tawāf around the ka'bah for Allāh, you are directing an act of worship to Allāh alone (Tawhīd).

But when you make tawāf around the grave, especially if this grave belongs to a well-known saint that people exalt and worship besides Allāh, you are directing an act of worship to other than Allāh, even if you claimed it's for Allāh, since the reality shows otherwise and that you're making tawāf to seek nearness through this saint (Shirk).

So be careful from directing acts of worship to other than Allāh, such as in sacrifices, vows and seeking judgement. Purify your 'Ibādah for Allāh alone and stay away from all forms of shirk.

7 July 2018 18:47

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When you make tawāf around the ka'bah for Allāh, you are directing an act of worship to Allāh alone (Tawhīd).

But when you make tawāf around the grave, especially if this grave belongs to a well-known saint that people exalt and worship besides Allāh, you are directing an act of worship to other than Allāh, even if you claimed it's for Allāh, since the reality shows otherwise and that you're making tawāf to seek nearness through this saint (Shirk).

So be careful from directing acts of worship to other than Allāh, such as in sacrifices, vows and seeking judgement. Purify your 'Ibādah for Allāh alone and stay away from all forms of shirk.

7 July 2018 18:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

رزقنا الله تعالى حلاوة الإيمان والتحقيق

7 July 2018 17:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Subhan'Allah, a khutbah you rarely come across.

7 July 2018 16:35

Radwan Dakkak shared Markaz AL Tawheed's post.

Subhan'Allah, a khutbah you rarely come across.

7 July 2018 16:35

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Subhan'Allah, a khutbah you rarely come across.

7 July 2018 16:35

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

#Strangers | Before talking about reviving sunan, we must talk about the necessity of reviving Tawhīd and Kufr bit-Tāghūt.

Defeatists solely assume our time is strange due to some abandoned sunan, whereas the muwahidīn understand that Tawhīd is the greatest priority.

7 July 2018 16:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Strangers | Before talking about reviving sunan, we must talk about the necessity of reviving Tawhīd and Kufr bit-Tāghūt.

Defeatists solely assume our time is strange due to some abandoned sunan, whereas the muwahidīn understand that Tawhīd is the greatest priority.

7 July 2018 15:51

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Strangers | Before talking about reviving sunan, we must talk about the necessity of reviving Tawhīd and Kufr bit-Tāghūt.

Defeatists solely assume our time is strange due to some abandoned sunan, whereas the muwahidīn understand that Tawhīd is the greatest priority.

7 July 2018 15:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

Someone may appear to us to be showing off, but their intentions could in fact be very innocent. We can never *truly* know (even though there may be some signs) unless they themselves expose what is in their hearts. The purpose of learning about riyā' is to purify our own intentions, not to question other people's.

— Shared.

7 July 2018 11:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Someone may appear to us to be showing off, but their intentions could in fact be very innocent. We can never *truly* know (even though there may be some signs) unless they themselves expose what is in their hearts. The purpose of learning about riyā' is to purify our own intentions, not to question other people's.

— Shared.

7 July 2018 11:19

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Someone may appear to us to be showing off, but their intentions could in fact be very innocent. We can never *truly* know (even though there may be some signs) unless they themselves expose what is in their hearts. The purpose of learning about riyā' is to purify our own intentions, not to question other people's.

— Shared.

7 July 2018 11:19

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

I would like to ask for a favour إن شاء الله and forgive me for asking, but I would like to know if anyone is able to burn a CD disc for me so that I can play Shaykh Mahmūd al-Hosary's Tilāwah in my car. Anyone have experience in this? بارك الله فيكم

6 July 2018 19:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

#Khutbah | The pious ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Uthmān Āl-Nāzih (تقبله الله) delivers an outstanding sermon on “Walā’ and Barā’”. O Allāh, how much good have you done. Allāh has tested U to raise you!

6 July 2018 19:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Khutbah | The pious ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Uthmān Āl-Nāzih (تقبله الله) delivers an outstanding sermon on “Walā’ and Barā’”. O Allāh, how much good have you done. Allāh has tested U to raise you!

6 July 2018 19:06

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

#Khutbah | The pious ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Uthmān Āl-Nāzih (تقبله الله) delivers an outstanding sermon on “Walā’ and Barā’”. O Allāh, how much good have you done. Allāh has tested U to raise you!

6 July 2018 19:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I have a serious question about sydney road rules. Is it lawful according to the law to eat/drink while driving and read a book at stop lights? From what I know is that there's nothing wrong with it. I tried searching, but didn't find anything.

Bārak Allāhu feekum.

6 July 2018 15:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Group: THE CORRECT AQEEDAH

Golden Spoon الله يفك أسرهم Wallah, I think sometimes they are living a life better than us.

Pure obedience to Allah ﷻ niyalhom

6 July 2018 18:17

Don't forget on this blessed day of Jum'ah to make du'ā for our beloved Shaykh — I can never forget Allāh's favour upon me of being able to speak with Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd & Sh. ‘Alī al-Khudayr in my dream. They gave me the best advice on Sabr & keeping firm!

6 July 2018 11:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Don't forget on this blessed day of Jum'ah to make du'ā for our beloved Shaykh — I can never forget Allāh's favour upon me of being able to speak with Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd & Sh. ‘Alī al-Khudayr in my dream. They gave me the best advice on Sabr & keeping firm!

6 July 2018 11:53

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Don't forget on this blessed day of Jum'ah to make du'ā for our beloved Shaykh — I can never forget Allāh's favour upon me of being able to speak with Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd & Sh. ‘Alī al-Khudayr in my dream. They gave me the best advice on Sabr & keeping firm!

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Building muscle is important, but what's more important is developing a courageous heart like the mujāhid, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله). He was able to debate 100's of innovators at the same time, may Allāh have mercy upon.

Those with a slim build generally get advised to be quick like Bruce Lee, but instead of looking up to the kuffār, ponder over the skinny Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) who was able to endure 100's of whips and lashes, while remaining persistent and firm upon his 'Aqīdah.

The scholars mention, two people saved Islām after Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), Imām Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه) in the apostate wars when the murtaddīn were getting closer to occupy the Arabian peninsula, and Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) when the Mu'tazilah were about to occupy the muslim world with a Kufr creed, most commonly spreading the belief of "Qur'ān being created".

6 July 2018 11:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Building muscle is important, but what's more important is developing a courageous heart like the mujāhid, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله). He was able to debate 100's of innovators at the same time, may Allāh have mercy upon.

Those with a slim build generally get advised to be quick like Bruce Lee, but instead of looking up to the kuffār, ponder over the skinny Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) who was able to endure 100's of whips and lashes, while remaining persistent and firm upon his 'Aqīdah.

The scholars mention, two people saved Islām after Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), Imām Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه) in the apostate wars when the murtaddīn were getting closer to occupy the Arabian peninsula, and Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) when the Mu'tazilah were about to occupy the muslim world with a Kufr creed, most commonly spreading the belief of "Qur'ān being created".

6 July 2018 11:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Building muscle is important, but what's more important is developing a courageous heart like the mujāhid, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله). He was able to debate 100's of innovators at the same time, may Allāh have mercy upon.

Those with a slim build generally get advised to be quick like Bruce Lee, but instead of looking up to the kuffār, ponder over the skinny Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) who was able to endure 100's of whips and lashes, while remaining persistent and firm upon his 'Aqīdah.

The scholars mention, two people saved Islām after Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), Imām Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه) in the apostate wars when the murtaddīn were getting closer to occupy the Arabian peninsula, and Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) when the Mu'tazilah were about to occupy the muslim world with a Kufr creed, most commonly spreading the belief of "Qur'ān being created".

6 July 2018 11:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vrVj6-WrNmK>

Shaykh Abu 'Ali al-Anbari (تقبله الله) warns against taking your Din from the scholars of Irjaa', yet how many do so today.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vrVj6-WrNmK>

6 July 2018 10:10

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vrVj6-WrNmK>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vrVj6-WrNmK>

Shaykh Abu 'Ali al-Anbari (تقبله الله) warns against taking your Din from the scholars of Irjaa', yet how many do so today.

6 July 2018 10:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

https://www.gofundme.com/family-in-need-of-help-abumisk?pc=fb\_dn\_cpgnstaticsmall\_r

A joint initiative by Brothers Behind BARS and Light Of Guidance

"I was eaten the day the white bull was eaten"

Assalamuaykum, dear Brothers and Sisters we are all aware of the story of the white bull, briefly he was singled out by all the other bulls as the trouble maker the one who is the reason for their situation, so they decided to give him up and turn their back on him, the story is as follows

The story is about three bulls, a white one, a red one and a black one, who lived peacefully in the jungle and who stood up to the threats of a lion through the strength of their unity. One day, the lion went to the red and black bulls and said: "The white bull is attracting the attention of jungle beasts, let me eat him so that you can live in peace." And they agreed to his crime. A while later, the lion whispered to the black bull: "I intend to eat the red bull, and leave you to enjoy the plains by yourself." Once again, the black bull agreed to the crime. When only the black bull was left, the lion talked to him honestly: "It is now your turn to be devoured." The black bull surrendered and said: "I was devoured the day the white bull was eaten."

Moral of the story, don't be fooled to be the last eaten Bull!

The Prophet of Allah (saw) said it beautifully in a hadith that cements what our understanding of brotherhood should be as Abdullah ibn Umar reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said,

"The Muslim is a brother to another Muslim. He does not wrong him, nor surrender him. Whoever fulfills the needs of his brother, Allah will fulfill his needs. Whoever relieves a Muslim from distress, Allah will relieve him from distress on the Day of Resurrection. Whoever covers the faults of a Muslim, Allah will cover his faults on the Day of Resurrection."

Seeing that one of our brothers Abu Misk has been arrested and knowing that his family is struggling to cope both mentally and financially, Brothers Behind BARS and Light Of Guidance have come together to help ease this distress and we call on YOU to do the same.

Help us by donating towards this show of unity and strength, both registered organizations are ready to receive your contributions.

HELP lift the financial burden that Abu Misk's family now have to deal with, let us come together as a Ummah and help the neglected families of the Aseer let us implement the above Hadith and prove to ourselves and to ALLAH(swt) they truly follow our Messenger may Allah's Peace and Blessings be Upon Him, donate now! Do not delay and then find comfort in the words of Allah to the meaning

"The believing men and believing women are allies of one another. They enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong and establish prayer and give charity and obey Allah and His Messenger. Allah will have mercy upon them, for Allah is Almighty and Wise"
(Surat al-Tawba 9:71)

Jazakullah-Khier
Please Share

Don't forget to Like our Pages

<https://www.facebook.com/brothersbehindbars.au/>

<https://www.facebook.com/Light-Of-Guidance-Inc-235218050570335/>

5 July 2018 20:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://www.gofundme.com/family-in-need-of-help-abumisk?pc=fb\_dn\_cpgnstaticsmall\_r

A joint initiative by Brothers Behind BARS and Light Of Guidance

"I was eaten the day the white bull was eaten"

Assalamuaykum, dear Brothers and Sisters we are all aware of the story of the white bull, briefly he was singled out by all the other bulls as the trouble maker the one who is the reason for their situation, so they decided to give him up and turn their back on him, the story is as follows

The story is about three bulls, a white one, a red one and a black one, who lived peacefully in the jungle and who stood up to the threats of a lion through the strength of their unity. One day, the lion went to the red and black bulls and said: "The white bull is attracting the attention of jungle beasts, let me eat him so that you can live in peace." And they agreed to his crime. A while later, the lion whispered to the black bull: "I intend to eat the red bull, and leave you to enjoy the plains by yourself." Once again, the black bull agreed to the crime. When only the black bull was left, the lion talked to him honestly: "It is now your turn to be devoured." The black bull surrendered and said: "I was devoured the day the white bull was eaten.”

Moral of the story, don't be fooled to be the last eaten Bull!

The Prophet of Allah (saw) said it beautifully in a hadith that cements what our understanding of brotherhood should be as Abdullah ibn Umar reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said,

“The Muslim is a brother to another Muslim. He does not wrong him, nor surrender him. Whoever fulfills the needs of his brother, Allah will fulfill his needs. Whoever relieves a Muslim from distress, Allah will relieve him from distress on the Day of Resurrection. Whoever covers the faults of a Muslim, Allah will cover his faults on the Day of Resurrection.”

Seeing that one of our brothers Abu Misk has been arrested and knowing that his family is struggling to cope both mentally and financially, Brothers Behind BARS and Light Of Guidance have come together to help ease this distress and we call on YOU to do the same.

Help us by donating towards this show of unity and strength, both registered organizations are ready to receive your contributions.

HELP lift the financial burden that Abu Misk's family now have to deal with, let us come together as a Ummah and help the neglected families of the Aseer let us implement the above Hadith and prove to ourselves and to ALLAH(swt) they truly follow our Messenger may Allah's Peace and Blessings be Upon Him, donate now! Do not delay and then find comfort in the words of Allah to the meaning

"The believing men and believing women are allies of one another. They enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong and establish prayer and give charity and obey Allah and His Messenger. Allah will have mercy upon them, for Allah is Almighty and Wise"
(Surat al-Tawba 9:71)

Jazakullah-Khier
Please Share

Don't forget to Like our Pages

<https://www.facebook.com/brothersbehindbars.au/>

<https://www.facebook.com/Light-Of-Guidance-Inc-235218050570335/>

5 July 2018 20:27

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://www.gofundme.com/family-in-need-of-help-abumisk?pc=fb\_dn\_cpgnstaticsmall\_r
https://www.gofundme.com/family-in-need-of-help-abumisk?pc=fb\_dn\_cpgnstaticsmall\_r

A joint initiative by Brothers Behind BARS and Light Of Guidance

"I was eaten the day the white bull was eaten"

Assalamu'alaikum, dear Brothers and Sisters we are all aware of the story of the white bull, briefly he was singled out by all the other bulls as the trouble maker the one who is the reason for their situation, so they decided to give him up and turn their back on him, the story is as follows

The story is about three bulls, a white one, a red one and a black one, who lived peacefully in the jungle and who stood up to the threats of a lion through the strength of their unity. One day, the lion went to the red and black bulls and said: "The white bull is attracting the attention of jungle beasts, let me eat him so that you can live in peace." And they agreed to his crime. A while later, the lion whispered to the black bull: "I intend to eat the red bull, and leave you to enjoy the plains by yourself." Once again, the black bull agreed to the crime. When only the black bull was left, the lion talked to him honestly: "It is now your turn to be devoured." The black bull surrendered and said: "I was devoured the day the white bull was eaten."

Moral of the story, don't be fooled to be the last eaten Bull!

The Prophet of Allah (saw) said it beautifully in a hadith that cements what our understanding of brotherhood should be as Abdullah ibn Umar reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said,

“The Muslim is a brother to another Muslim. He does not wrong him, nor surrender him. Whoever fulfills the needs of his brother, Allah will fulfill his needs. Whoever relieves a Muslim from distress, Allah will relieve him from distress on the Day of Resurrection. Whoever covers the faults of a Muslim, Allah will cover his faults on the Day of Resurrection.”

Seeing that one of our brothers Abu Misk has been arrested and knowing that his family is struggling to cope both mentally and financially, Brothers Behind BARS and Light Of Guidance have come together to help ease this distress and we call on YOU to do the same.

Help us by donating towards this show of unity and strength, both registered organizations are ready to receive your contributions.

HELP lift the financial burden that Abu Misks family now have to deal with, let us come together as a Ummah and help the neglected families of the Aseer let us implement the above Hadith and prove to ourselves and to ALLAH(swt) they we truly follow our Messenger may Allah's Peace and Blessings be Upon Him, donate now! Do not delay and then find comfort in the words of Allah to the meaning

"The believing men and believing women are allies of one another. They enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong and establish prayer and give charity and obey Allah and His Messenger. Allah will have mercy upon them, for Allah is Almighty and Wise"
(Surat al-Tawba 9:71)

Jazakullah-Khier
Please Share

Don't forget to Like our Pages

<https://www.facebook.com/brothersbehindbars.au/>

<https://www.facebook.com/Light-Of-Guidance-Inc-235218050570335/>

5 July 2018 20:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

When I tell brothers that I love my sisters in Islām, this includes the natural love Allāh has placed in my heart for them, but it's not just desires.

True love for my sisters in Islām means to also have Ghīrah over them, protecting and honouring them, along with their families. Lowering my gaze from women is a way to honour these sisters and their mahrams.

This is exactly what Mūsā (عليه السلام) did in helping his sisters in Islām, and Allāh rewarded him with a righteous spouse like him.

As they say, be like Yūsuf if you want one like Maryam.

5 July 2018 18:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

When I tell brothers that I love my sisters in Islām, this includes the natural love Allāh has placed in my heart for them, but it's not just desires.

True love for my sisters in Islām means to also have Ghīrah over them, protecting and honouring them, along with their families. Lowering my gaze from women is a way to honour these sisters and their mahrams.

This is exactly what Mūsā (عليه السلام) did in helping his sisters in Islām, and Allāh rewarded him with a righteous spouse like him.

As they say, be like Yūsuf if you want one like Maryam.

5 July 2018 18:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When I tell brothers that I love my sisters in Islām, this includes the natural love Allāh has placed in my heart for them, but it's not just desires.

True love for my sisters in Islām means to also have Ghīrah over them, protecting and honouring them, along with their families. Lowering my gaze from women is a way to honour these sisters and their mahrams.

This is exactly what Mūsā (عليه السلام) did in helping his sisters in Islām, and Allāh rewarded him with a righteous spouse like him.

As they say, be like Yūsuf if you want one like Maryam.

5 July 2018 18:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

What's the point of befriending people who don't emphasise on reciting Qur'ān, seeking knowledge, carefully analysing the ummah's situation overseas and striving to strengthen their 'Aqīdah?!

During some occasions, idle talk may be fine, but the way some friends hang out today without any emphasise on the aforementioned is pathetic.

5 July 2018 17:05

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

What's the point of befriending people who don't emphasise on reciting Qur'ān, seeking knowledge, carefully analysing the ummah's situation overseas and striving to strengthen their 'Aqīdah?!

During some occasions, idle talk may be fine, but the way some friends hang out today without any emphasise on the aforementioned is pathetic.

5 July 2018 17:02

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

What's the point of befriending people who don't emphasise on reciting Qur'ān, seeking knowledge, carefully analysing the ummah's situation overseas and striving to strengthen their 'Aqīdah?!

During some occasions, idle talk may be fine, but the way some friends hang out today without any emphasise on the aforementioned is pathetic.

5 July 2018 17:02

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

Whoever says they hate sins but can't hate sinners, then I make absolute barā'ah from your manhaj of Ijrā'!

5 July 2018 16:18

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Whoever says they hate sins but can't hate sinners, then I make absolute barā'ah from your manhaj of Ijrā'!

5 July 2018 16:14

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Whoever says they hate sins but can't hate sinners, then I make absolute barā'ah from your manhaj of Ijrā'!

5 July 2018 16:14

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

I have a hatred in my heart towards the one who doesn't strive to learn Arabic or seek knowledge, because this makes him a sinner, and part of our walā' and barā' is to hate sinners for their corruption, while loving them for their Īmān and goodness.

5 July 2018 15:50

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

I have a hatred in my heart towards the one who doesn't strive to learn Arabic or seek knowledge, because this makes him a sinner, and part of our walā' and barā' is to hate sinners for their corruption, while loving them for their Īmān and goodness.

5 July 2018 15:48

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

I have a hatred in my heart towards the one who doesn't strive to learn Arabic or seek knowledge, because this makes him a sinner, and part of our walā' and barā' is to hate sinners for their corruption, while loving them for their Īmān and goodness.

5 July 2018 15:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Some of the scholars were asked, what’s better; To make tasbeeh (glorify Allāh who’s free from all imperfection) or make istighfār (seek forgiveness through Allāh’s love and mercy).

So they replied; “The dirty robe is more in need of soap than perfume.”

Seeking forgiveness from our sins is necessary upon everyone, and whoever refuses to make tawbah has a sick heart with self-conceit and pride.

Allāh even ordered Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) to seek forgiveness, and Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) told Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه) to seek forgiveness by saying “O Allāh, I have oppressed myself so much”, despite his Īmān outweighing the Īmān of the entire Ummah of Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم)!

إن الله يحب التوابين

5 July 2018 15:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Some of the scholars were asked, what’s better; To make tasbeeh (glorify Allāh who’s free from all imperfection) or make istighfār (seek forgiveness through Allāh’s love and mercy).

So they replied; “The dirty robe is more in need of soap than perfume.”

Seeking forgiveness from our sins is necessary upon everyone, and whoever refuses to make tawbah has a sick heart with self-conceit and pride.

Allāh even ordered Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) to seek forgiveness, and Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) told Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه) to seek forgiveness by saying “O Allāh, I have oppressed myself so much”, despite his Īmān outweighing the Īmān of the entire Ummah of Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم)!

إن الله يحب التوابين

5 July 2018 15:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Some of the scholars were asked, what’s better; To make tasbeeh (glorify Allāh who’s free from all imperfection) or make istighfār (seek forgiveness through Allāh’s love and mercy).

So they replied; “The dirty robe is more in need of soap than perfume.”

Seeking forgiveness from our sins is necessary upon everyone, and whoever refuses to make tawbah has a sick heart with self-conceit and pride.

Allāh even ordered Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) to seek forgiveness, and Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) told Abū Bakr as-Siddīq (رضي الله عنه) to seek forgiveness by saying “O Allāh, I have oppressed myself so much”, despite his Īmān outweighing the Īmān of the entire Ummah of Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم)!

إن الله يحب التوابين

5 July 2018 15:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

□

#True_Scholars | The noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تقبله الله).

5 July 2018 14:50

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abu Sakeenah Is there any biography of him?
6 July 2018 06:42

#True_Scholars | The noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تقبله الله).

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

John Howard looks like sh anwar a bit
10 July 2018 15:41

#True_Scholars | The noble 'Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تقبله الله).

5 July 2018 14:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Click for video:

**They made walā' and barā' from the affairs of the Khawārij!****

“And the ignorant people aren't aware, they could make walā' and barā' from the affairs of the khawārij, there are deceptions till this day about this matter, as Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) said about the people of his time:

“How astonishing is it that they say about — whoever adheres to the Āthār (reports) and Qur'ān.

You are like the khawārij for indeed — they took the apparent (of the Qur'ān and sunnah) and were not guided by its true meanings.”

We don't deny the presence of the khawārij, however not everyone who speaks about walā' and barā' is from the khawārij.

Because people believe whoever speaks about the Dīn, the aspects of walā' and barā', the obligation of confronting the crusaders, and supporting the mujāhidīn, they say, “this person is from the khawārij”.

And this is pure misguidance and turning others away from the Haqq while promoting whims and desires, and deceiving the worshippers.”

— The noble Hāfidh, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

5 July 2018 08:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Click for video:

**They made walā' and barā' from the affairs of the Khawārij!****

“And the ignorant people aren't aware, they could make walā' and barā' from the affairs of the khawārij, there are deceptions till this day about this matter, as Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) said about the people of his time:

“How astonishing is it that they say about — whoever adheres to the Āthār (reports) and Qur'ān.

You are like the khawārij for indeed — they took the apparent (of the Qur'ān and sunnah) and were not guided by its true meanings.”

We don't deny the presence of the khawārij, however not everyone who speaks about walā' and barā' is from the khawārij.

Because people believe whoever speaks about the Dīn, the aspects of walā' and barā', the obligation of confronting the crusaders, and supporting the mujāhidīn, they say, “this person is from the khawārij”.

And this is pure misguidance and turning others away from the Haqq while promoting whims and desires, and deceiving the worshippers.”

— The noble Hāfidh, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

5 July 2018 08:19

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

**They made walā’ and barā’ from the affairs of the Khawārij!****

“And the ignorant people aren’t aware, they could make walā’ and barā’ from the affairs of the khawārij, there are deceptions till this day about this matter, as Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) said about the people of his time:

“How astonishing is it that they say about — whoever adheres to the Āthār (reports) and Qur’ān.

You are like the khawārij for indeed — they took the apparent (of the Qur’ān and sunnah) and were not guided by its true meanings.”

We don’t deny the presence of the khawārij, however not everyone who speaks about walā’ and barā’ is from the khawārij.

Because people believe whoever speaks about the Dīn, the aspects of walā’ and barā’, the obligation of confronting the crusaders, and supporting the mujāhidīn, they say, “this person is from the khawārij”.

And this is pure misguidance and turning others away from the Haqq while promoting whims and desires, and deceiving the worshippers.”

— The noble Hāfidh, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

5 July 2018 08:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The best deeds which purify the heart from hypocrisy are hidden acts of worship, wherein no one among the creation can see it, except the Creator.

Abū Mūsā al-Ash’arī رضي الله عنه mentioned in the authentic hadīth, “A munāfiq doesn’t pray when no one is watching him except for Allāh”.

4 July 2018 21:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The best deeds which purify the heart from hypocrisy are hidden acts of worship, wherein no one among the creation can see it, except the Creator.

Abū Mūsā al-Ash’arī رضي الله عنه mentioned in the authentic hadīth, “A munāfiq doesn’t pray when no one is watching him except for Allāh”.

4 July 2018 21:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

#Rule | There are two rulings concerning the application of takfīr:

1 — The one who is ignorant about the kufr and rules of takfīr. He isn’t permitted to make takfīr upon an issue he’s ignorant about.

2 — The one who has knowledge about the Kufr and rules of takfīr. He is obliged to make takfīr in such an issue, since this in reality is the hukm of Allāh, therefore it’s necessary to make takfīr upon whoever Allāh made takfīr upon.

So we have two opposites here. It’s harām for an ignorant person to apply takfīr, and it’s obligatory upon the one with knowledge to apply takfīr.

Therefore, if you were to warn against the ignorant person making takfīr, this would be correct. But unfortunately, takfīr is being warned against without elaboration, and such people must make tawbah to Allāh due to how severe this misguidance is.

Moreover, concerning the one who is ignorant about the Kufr and rules of takfīr concerning an issue. We said it’s harām upon him to apply takfīr, but does this mean he’s doing a good thing for being ignorant?

Absolutely not! He must learn what is Kufr and the rules of takfīr in the clear matters, otherwise his abstaining of takfīr will make him a murji’ fāsiq who refrains from takfīr upon clear apostates, and this could even lead him to kufr itself depending upon how clear the kāfir he’s excusing may be!

For example, if someone insults Allāh, and this ignorant person is unsure whether insulting Allāh is Kufr or is afraid to make a judgement upon such an insulter, which makes him refrain from takfīr, he will be considered misguided in his refraining.

And if the proof and consensus is shown to him concerning such clear Kufr, if he still insists on excusing such a kāfir, he will disbelieve due to the establishment of the Hujjah. However, if he still has misconceptions appear to him from the murji'ah due to strong doubts, he wouldn't be a kāfir, but rather a misguided fāsiq.

So pay attention to this important Rule, may Allāh preserve you.

4 July 2018 12:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Rule | There are two rulings concerning the application of takfir:

1 — The one who is ignorant about the kufr and rules of takfir. He isn't permitted to make takfir upon an issue he's ignorant about.

2 — The one who has knowledge about the Kufr and rules of takfir. He is obliged to make takfir in such an issue, since this in reality is the hukm of Allāh, therefore it's necessary to make takfir upon whoever Allāh made takfir upon.

So we have two opposites here. It's harām for an ignorant person to apply takfir, and it's obligatory upon the one with knowledge to apply takfir.

Therefore, if you were to warn against the ignorant person making takfir, this would be correct. But unfortunately, takfir is being warned against without elaboration, and such people must make tawbah to Allāh due to how severe this misguidance is.

Moreover, concerning the one who is ignorant about the Kufr and rules of takfir concerning an issue. We said it's harām upon him to apply takfir, but does this mean he's doing a good thing for being ignorant?

Absolutely not! He must learn what is Kufr and the rules of takfir in the clear matters, otherwise his abstaining of takfir will make him a murji' fāsiq who refrains from takfir upon clear apostates, and this could even lead him to kufr itself depending upon how clear the kāfir he's excusing may be!

For example, if someone insults Allāh, and this ignorant person is unsure whether insulting Allāh is Kufr or is afraid to make a judgement upon such an insulter, which makes him refrain from takfir, he will be considered misguided in his refraining.

And if the proof and consensus is shown to him concerning such clear Kufr, if he still insists on excusing such a kāfir, he will disbelieve due to the establishment of the Hujjah. However, if he still has misconceptions appear to him from the murji'ah due to strong doubts, he wouldn't be a kāfir, but rather a misguided fāsiq.

So pay attention to this important Rule, may Allāh preserve you.

4 July 2018 12:18

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Rule | There are two rulings concerning the application of takfir:

1 — The one who is ignorant about the kufr and rules of takfir. He isn't permitted to make takfir upon an issue he's ignorant about.

2 — The one who has knowledge about the Kufr and rules of takfir. He is obliged to make takfir in such an issue, since this in reality is the hukm of Allāh, therefore it's necessary to make takfir upon whoever Allāh made takfir upon.

So we have two opposites here. It's harām for an ignorant person to apply takfir, and it's obligatory upon the one with knowledge to apply takfir.

Therefore, if you were to warn against the ignorant person making takfir, this would be correct. But unfortunately, takfir is being warned against without elaboration, and such people must make tawbah to Allāh due to how severe this misguidance is.

Moreover, concerning the one who is ignorant about the Kufr and rules of takfir concerning an issue. We said it's harām upon him to apply takfir, but does this mean he's doing a good thing for being ignorant?

Absolutely not! He must learn what is Kufr and the rules of takfir in the clear matters, otherwise his abstaining of takfir will make him a murji' fāsiq who refrains from takfir upon clear apostates, and this could even lead him to kufr itself depending upon how clear the kāfir he's excusing may be!

For example, if someone insults Allāh, and this ignorant person is unsure whether insulting Allāh is Kufr or is afraid to make a judgement upon such an insulter, which makes him refrain from takfir, he will be considered misguided in his refraining.

And if the proof and consensus is shown to him concerning such clear Kufr, if he still insists on excusing such a kāfir, he will disbelieve due to the establishment of the Hujjah. However, if he still has misconceptions appear to him from the murji'ah due to strong doubts, he wouldn't be a kāfir, but rather a misguided fāsiq.

So pay attention to this important Rule, may Allāh preserve you.

4 July 2018 12:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

“The amount of murji'ah unjustly warning against takfir would make one assume that everyone is making takfir upon each other for abandoning sunan, let alone the wājibāt or nullifiers of Islām.”

— Notes from “Sharh nawāqidh al-Islām”.

4 July 2018 11:49

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“The amount of murji'ah unjustly warning against takfir would make one assume that everyone is making takfir upon each other for abandoning sunan, let alone the wājibāt or nullifiers of Islām.”

— Notes from “Sharh nawāqidh al-Islām”.

4 July 2018 11:49

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“The amount of murji'ah unjustly warning against takfir would make one assume that everyone is making takfir upon each other for abandoning sunan, let alone the wājibāt or nullifiers of Islām.”

— Notes from “Sharh nawāqidh al-Islām”.

4 July 2018 11:48

Radwan Dakkak shared At Tawheed's post.

Good advice.

4 July 2018 11:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Good advice.

4 July 2018 11:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

She said my name

4 July 2018 10:09

Radwan Dakkak shared 9 News Sydney's video.

She said my name

4 July 2018 10:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

She said my name

4 July 2018 10:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

اللهم بارك له

4 July 2018 09:41

---

Radwan Dakkak shared Al Bayaan's post.

---

♥ ♥ ♥

4 July 2018 09:41

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

---

The city my family came from in Syria is completely destroyed to the extent that there's no point of even rebuilding it.

Might as well construct a new city next to it and this can be a proof for the future generations to know what the enemies of Islām did in the name of fighting terrorism.

4 July 2018 09:13

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

The city my family came from in Syria is completely destroyed to the extent that there's no point of even rebuilding it.

Might as well construct a new city next to it and this can be a proof for the future generations to know what the enemies of Islām did in the name of fighting terrorism.

4 July 2018 09:13

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

The city my family came from in Syria is completely destroyed to the extent that there's no point of even rebuilding it.

Might as well construct a new city next to it and this can be a proof for the future generations to know what the enemies of Islām did in the name of fighting terrorism.

4 July 2018 09:13

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Hishām said, al-Hassan and Muhammad would both say:

“Do not sit with the people of desires (i.e. innovators), and do not listen to them.”

— Refer to “Tham al-Kalām” (#767) by Al-Harawī and “As-Sunnah” (#600) by Harb al-Kirmānī.

4 July 2018 08:34

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Hishām said, al-Hassan and Muhammad would both say:

“Do not sit with the people of desires (i.e. innovators), and do not listen to them.”

— Refer to “Tham al-Kalām” (#767) by Al-Harawī and “As-Sunnah” (#600) by Harb al-Kirmānī.

4 July 2018 08:34

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Harb said, I asked Ishāq (i.e. Ibn Rāhawayh) on cursing the people of innovation:

Ishāq replied; They are surely deserving of being cursed.

— Refer to “Al-Masā'il” by Harb al-Kirmānī (#1420).

4 July 2018 07:59

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Harb said, I asked Ishāq (i.e. Ibn Rāhawayh) on cursing the people of innovation:

Ishāq replied; They are surely deserving of being cursed.

— Refer to “Al-Masā’il” by Harb al-Kirmānī (#1420).

4 July 2018 07:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

Claim — “All disputes in Fiqh are evil, you must unite upon 1 opinion!!”

Imām Abū Hāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله) eloquently states in response to such claimer:

!(وقد حدث في العالم من بركات رفعكم الخلاف: من الخلاف ما لم يكن بمثله عهد)

“Due to your blessed efforts of eliminating disputes, a worldwide of disputes were ignited that had never been witnessed before.”

— Refer to “Ihyā’ ‘ulūm ad-Dīn” (1/45).

3 July 2018 21:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Claim — “All disputes in Fiqh are evil, you must unite upon 1 opinion!!”

Imām Abū Hāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله) eloquently states in response to such claimer:

!(وقد حدث في العالم من بركات رفعكم الخلاف: من الخلاف ما لم يكن بمثله عهد)

“Due to your blessed efforts of eliminating disputes, a worldwide of disputes were ignited that had never been witnessed before.”

— Refer to “Ihyā’ ‘ulūm ad-Dīn” (1/45).

3 July 2018 21:30

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Claim — “All disputes in Fiqh are evil, you must unite upon 1 opinion!!”

Imām Abū Hāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله) eloquently states in response to such claimer:

!(وقد حدث في العالم من بركات رفعكم الخلاف: من الخلاف ما لم يكن بمثله عهد)

“Due to your blessed efforts of eliminating disputes, a worldwide of disputes were ignited that had never been witnessed before.”

— Refer to “Ihyā’ ‘ulūm ad-Dīn” (1/45).

3 July 2018 21:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

بعض تلخيصات الكتب، أو الشروح على بعض المتون لا يوجد فيها أي فائدة علمية تنفرد بها بل ما فيها موجود في غيرها، إنما كُتبت ليثبت كآنها لغيره اطلاعه على كتابٍ لخصه، أو قدرته على شرح متن معين فحسب!

منقول

3 July 2018 20:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

بعض تلخيصات الكتب، أو الشروح على بعض المتون لا يوجد فيها أي فائدة علمية تنفرد بها بل ما فيها موجود في غيرها، إنما كُتبت ليثبت كآنها لغيره اطلاعه على كتابٍ لخصه، أو قدرته على شرح متن معين فحسب!

منقول

3 July 2018 20:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Abu Nu'aym Ahmad ibn Abdallah al-Asbahani رحمه الله stated:

“A man came to Imam Ahmad and praised him so he replied;

‘I make Allah my witness that I detest you in this speech and if you had known my sins you would have thrown sand over my head’.”

Hilyat al-Awliyya' (9/181)

3 July 2018 18:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Abu Nu'aym Ahmad ibn Abdallah al-Asbahani رحمه الله stated:

“A man came to Imam Ahmad and praised him so he replied;

‘I make Allah my witness that I detest you in this speech and if you had known my sins you would have thrown sand over my head’.”

Hilyat al-Awliyya' (9/181)

3 July 2018 18:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

I have heard that some preachers in the middle east are calling the opening of the borders for the syrian refugees as “Ihsān” (excellence), especially in the past few days where around 100,000+ refugees are displaced and headed to Jordan.

However, this is incorrect. It’s as if the preachers are making it out to seem that the Jordanian govt or Turkish govt is doing a “favour” for the muslim refugees!

Whereas Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

وَإِنْ اسْتَنْصَرُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ فَعَلَيْكُمُ النَّصْرُ

“And if they seek help of you for the religion, then you must help.” [8:72].

Subhān’Allāh, it’s an obligation according to this explicitly clear-cut Āyah from Allāh to support our muslim brothers, not change around the shar’ī terminologies and claim “Ihsān” out of context, wallāhul-musta’ān.

By Allāh, I ask all the sincere open-minded muslims, even those who are free to oppose me. Do you really believe the Jordanian or Turkish govt is doing “Ihsān” to the muslims of Syria when they are part of a global crusader coalition that’s recklessly bombing muslim homes?

Stop thinking with a defeatist inferior mentality wherein you believe muslims must be in-between these two options, “Evil Tāghūt vs Extremely evil Tāghūt”.

Develop a spirit of ‘Izza and courage, and start promoting Tawhīd and Kufr bit-Tāghūt while informing the ummah how much this da’wah is spreading!

May Allāh alleviate their pain and replace EVERY TĀGHŪT with a MUWAHHID, NOT ANOTHER TĀGHŪT, Āmīn.

3 July 2018 14:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I have heard that some preachers in the middle east are calling the opening of the borders for the syrian refugees as “Ihsān” (excellence), especially in the past few days where around 100,000+ refugees are displaced and headed to Jordan.

However, this is incorrect. It’s as if the preachers are making it out to seem that the Jordanian govt or Turkish govt is doing a “favour” for the muslim refugees!

Whereas Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

وَإِنْ اسْتَنْصَرُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ فَعَلَيْكُمُ النَّصْرُ

“And if they seek help of you for the religion, then you must help.” [8:72].

Subhān’Allāh, it’s an obligation according to this explicitly clear-cut Āyah from Allāh to support our muslim brothers, not change around the shar’ī terminologies and claim “Ihsān” out of context, wallāhul-musta’ān.

By Allāh, I ask all the sincere open-minded muslims, even those who are free to oppose me. Do you really believe the Jordanian or Turkish govt is doing “Ihsān” to the muslims of Syria when they are part of a global crusader coalition that’s recklessly bombing muslim homes?

Stop thinking with a defeatist inferior mentality wherein you believe muslims must be in-between these two options, “Evil Tāghūt vs Extremely evil Tāghūt”.

Develop a spirit of ‘Izza and courage, and start promoting Tawhīd and Kufr bit-Tāghūt while informing the ummah how much this da’wah is spreading!

May Allāh alleviate their pain and replace EVERY TĀGHŪT with a MUWAHHID, NOT ANOTHER TĀGHŪT, Āmin.

3 July 2018 14:30

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I have heard that some preachers in the middle east are calling the opening of the borders for the syrian refugees as “Ihsān” (excellence), especially in the past few days where around 100,000+ refugees are displaced and headed to Jordan.

However, this is incorrect. It’s as if the preachers are making it out to seem that the Jordanian govt or Turkish govt is doing a “favour” for the muslim refugees!

Whereas Allāh وتعالى سبحانه says:

وَإِنْ اسْتَنْصَرُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ فَعَلَيْكُمُ النَّصْرُ

“And if they seek help of you for the religion, then you must help.” [8:72].

Subhān’Allāh, it’s an obligation according to this explicitly clear-cut Āyah from Allāh to support our muslim brothers, not change around the shar’ī terminologies and claim “Ihsān” out of context, wallāhul-musta’ān.

By Allāh, I ask all the sincere open-minded muslims, even those who are free to oppose me. Do you really believe the Jordanian or Turkish govt is doing “Ihsān” to the muslims of Syria when they are part of a global crusader coalition that’s recklessly bombing muslim homes?

Stop thinking with a defeatist inferior mentality wherein you believe muslims must be in-between these two options, “Evil Tāghūt vs Extremely evil Tāghūt”.

Develop a spirit of ‘Izza and courage, and start promoting Tawhīd and Kufr bit-Tāghūt while informing the ummah how much this da’wah is spreading!

May Allāh alleviate their pain and replace EVERY TĀGHŪT with a MUWAHHID, NOT ANOTHER TĀGHŪT, Āmin.

3 July 2018 14:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“The overwhelming majority of the scholars divided the lands into two types:

1 — Lands of Kufr, which is what’s governed by other than the Sharī’ah of Allāh, and the symbols of the people of Kufr are displayed.

2 — Lands of Islām, which is what’s governed by the Sharī’ah of Allāh, and the symbols of the people of Islām are displayed, even if there are sins and corrupt indecency found in it, and it turns into dār al-kufr if a kāfir ruler governs it, as mentioned by Ibn Hazm.

As for the land which isn’t absolutely dār Islām nor dār Kufr, then Ibn Taymiyyah mentioned that this is dār murakkabah (a coupled land), wherein the rulings of Islām aren’t applied upon the whole land, and likewise the rulings of Kufr aren’t (applied upon the whole land).”

: جماهير العلماء يقسمون الديار إلى قسمين
أ- ديار كفر : وهي التي تحكم فيها غير شريعة الله ويظهر فيها شعارات أهل الكفر
ب- ديار إسلام : وهي التي تحكم بشريعة الله , ويظهر فيها شعارات أهل الإسلام .ولو وجد فيها معاصي وفجور
, ( وتنتقل إلى دار كفر إذا ساسها حاكمٌ كافر ) كما ذكر ذلك ابن حزم
وأما بالنسبة للدار التي ليست بدار إسلام محض وليست بدار كفر محض فقد ذكر ابن تيمية أنها دار مركبة
. لايجرى فيها أحكام الإسلام من كل وجه وكذا أحكام الكفر

— The noble Hāfidh, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

3 July 2018 12:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“The overwhelming majority of the scholars divided the lands into two types:

1 — Lands of Kufr, which is what’s governed by other than the Shari’ah of Allāh, and the symbols of the people of Kufr are displayed.

2 — Lands of Islām, which is what’s governed by the Shari’ah of Allāh, and the symbols of the people of Islām are displayed, even if there are sins and corrupt indecency found in it, and it turns into dār al-kufr if a kāfir ruler governs it, as mentioned by Ibn Hazm.

As for the land which isn’t absolutely dār Islām nor dār Kufr, then Ibn Taymiyyah mentioned that this is dār murakkabah (a coupled land), wherein the rulings of Islām aren’t applied upon the whole land, and likewise the rulings of Kufr aren’t (applied upon the whole land).”

: جماهير العلماء يقسمون الديار إلى قسمين
أ- ديار كفر : وهي التي تحكم فيها غير شريعة الله ويظهر فيها شعارات أهل الكفر
ب- ديار إسلام : وهي التي تحكم بشريعة الله , ويظهر فيها شعارات أهل الإسلام .ولو وجد فيها معاصي وفجور
, ( وتنتقل إلى دار كفر إذا ساسها حاكمٌ كافر ) كما ذكر ذلك ابن حزم
وأما بالنسبة للدار التي ليست بدار إسلام محض وليست بدار كفر محض فقد ذكر ابن تيمية أنها دار مركبة
. لايجرى فيها أحكام الإسلام من كل وجه وكذا أحكام الكفر

— The noble Hāfidh, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ)

3 July 2018 12:08

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

3 July 2018 11:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

3 July 2018 11:02

Radwan Dakkak shared Xavierr P Bratcher's post.

3 July 2018 10:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

3 July 2018 10:46

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

3 July 2018 10:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

😊 (رحمه الله) Shaykh al-Islām, Hujjat al-Islām, Imām Abū Hāmid al-Ghazālī

3 July 2018 10:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

#Fiqh_Distorters | Ribā in dār al-harb [1] and permitting a revert muslimah to remain married to a kāfir?!

We live in a time where many distort the rulings of Fiqh by taking and cutting words of the scholars out of context, and Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرہ) clarifies this by saying:

“Take two examples to certify that the foundation of the Fiqh “advanced modifiers” is the same foundation of Ibn ar-Rūmī:

First example: Declaring lawful the consuming of Ribā:

They said: It’s permissible for a muslim in the lands of the west who isn’t able to live well and so forth to take a Ribā (interest based) loan from their banks, based upon an opinion among the Hanafiyyah concerning that.

I say: They only attributed this statement to the Hanafiyyah based upon the aforementioned foundation of Ibn ar-Rūmī (i.e. distorting Fiqh), otherwise the Hanafiyyah establish their madhab in this issue upon two matters:

1 — That the Ribā based dealing is between a muslim and kāfir “harbī”.

2 — That if a muslim enters “dār al-harb”, it’s permissible for him to take the wealth of the kuffār in any way possible, among them is “Ribā” if the “profit” was made by the muslim, not by the kāfir.

And these people who cited as evidence the statement of the Hanafiyyah, don’t even view those lands as “dār harb”, nor do they view it permissible for a muslim to usurp the wealth of a kāfir in any way at all.

Nor do they make the “Profit made from the Ribā” go towards the muslim, infact he is the one who gives it to the kāfir, so what kind of opinion is this compared to the opinion of the Hanafiyyah?!

But rather, they simply took a “part” of the Hanafī madhab, and they abandoned the rest, just like “Ibn ar-Rūmī” took a “part” of the Hijāzī madhab, and abandoned the rest (to justify permitting alcohol from the “nabīth” example).

Second example: They permitted for a woman who reverts to Islām to remain with her husband, even if he’s a kāfir, and they attributed this opinion to some of the tābi’in and to Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah.

I say: NO ONE among the muslims has said this statement, infact ALL of them are unanimously agreed upon what has been narrated in the Qur’ān and Sunnah in declaring it impermissible for a muslimah to remain with a kāfir.

But rather Shaykh al-Islām’s opinion, along with others is that the marriage contract isn’t nullified via her Islām. Infact, if her husband becomes a muslim, even after some years, then she can return back to him with the first nikāh (contract), and he doesn’t require a new marriage contract.

But as for her remaining with him, then the Shaykh (Ibn Taymiyyah) doesn’t state this whatsoever, nor other than him, except those upon the foundation of “Ibn ar-Rūmī”, wherein he takes “parts” of his statement, which is the marriage contract not being nullified, while abandoning the rest (of his words, and coming up with falsehood).”

Written by Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) on Thursday, 14/6/1423H.

[1] The Hāfidh and Faqeeh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره) states that this opinion of “permitting Ribā” in dār al-harb is weak, due to the clear evidences on the topic prohibiting “Ribā” at all times, even though it’s the dominant opinion of the Hanafī madhab and an opinion found within the Hanbalī madhab (but the dominant view prohibits it within the Hanbalī madhab, along with the vast majority of scholars). However, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd was simply refuting those who abuse quotes of the scholars while leaving out the rest.

3 July 2018 09:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Fiqh_Distorters | Ribā in dār al-harb [1] and permitting a revert muslimah to remain married to a kāfir?!

We live in a time where many distort the rulings of Fiqh by taking and cutting words of the scholars out of context, and Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) clarifies this by saying:

“Take two examples to certify that the foundation of the Fiqh “advanced modifiers” is the same foundation of Ibn ar-Rūmī:

First example: Declaring lawful the consuming of Ribā:

They said: It’s permissible for a muslim in the lands of the west who isn’t able to live well and so forth to take a Ribā (interest based) loan from their banks, based upon an opinion among the Hanafiyyah concerning that.

I say: They only attributed this statement to the Hanafiyyah based upon the aforementioned foundation of Ibn ar-Rūmī (i.e. distorting Fiqh), otherwise the Hanafiyyah establish their madhab in this issue upon two matters:

1 — That the Ribā based dealing is between a muslim and kāfir “harbī”.

2 — That if a muslim enters “dār al-harb”, it’s permissible for him to take the wealth of the kuffār in any way possible, among them is “Ribā” if the “profit” was made by the muslim, not by the kāfir.

And these people who cited as evidence the statement of the Hanafiyyah, don’t even view those lands as “dār harb”, nor do they view it permissible for a muslim to usurp the wealth of a kāfir in any way at all.

Nor do they make the “Profit made from the Ribā” go towards the muslim, infact he is the one who gives it to the kāfir, so what kind of opinion is this compared to the opinion of the Hanafiyyah?!

But rather, they simply took a “part” of the Hanafī madhab, and they abandoned the rest, just like “Ibn ar-Rūmī” took a “part” of the Hijāzī madhab, and abandoned the rest (to justify permitting alcohol from the “nabīth” example).

Second example: They permitted for a woman who reverts to Islām to remain with her husband, even if he’s a kāfir, and they attributed this opinion to some of the tābi’in and to Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah.

I say: NO ONE among the muslims has said this statement, infact ALL of them are unanimously agreed upon what has been narrated in the Qur’ān and Sunnah in declaring it impermissible for a muslimah to remain with a kāfir.

But rather Shaykh al-Islām’s opinion, along with others is that the marriage contract isn’t nullified via her Islām. Infact, if her husband becomes a muslim, even after some years, then she can return back to him with the first nikāh (contract), and he doesn’t require a new marriage contract.

But as for her remaining with him, then the Shaykh (Ibn Taymiyyah) doesn’t state this whatsoever, nor other than him, except those upon the foundation of “Ibn ar-Rūmī”, wherein he takes “parts” of his statement, which is the marriage contract not being nullified, while abandoning the rest (of his words, and coming up with falsehood).”

Written by Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) on Thursday, 14/6/1423H.

[1] The Hāfidh and Faqeeh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-’Alwān (فك الله أسره) states that this opinion of “permitting Ribā” in dār al-harb is weak, due to the clear evidences on the topic prohibiting “Ribā” at all times, even though it’s the dominant opinion of the Hanafī madhab and an opinion found within the Hanbalī madhab (but the dominant view prohibits it within the Hanbalī madhab, along with the vast majority of scholars). However, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd was simply refuting those who abuse quotes of the scholars while leaving out the rest.

3 July 2018 09:04

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Fiqh_Distorters | Ribā in dār al-harb [1] and permitting a revert muslimah to remain married to a kāfir?!

We live in a time where many distort the rulings of Fiqh by taking and cutting words of the scholars out of context, and Shaykh al-’Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) clarifies this by saying:

“Take two examples to certify that the foundation of the Fiqh “advanced modifiers” is the same foundation of Ibn ar-Rūmī:

First example: Declaring lawful the consuming of Ribā:

They said: It’s permissible for a muslim in the lands of the west who isn’t able to live well and so forth to take a Ribā (interest based) loan from their banks, based upon an opinion among the Hanafiyyah concerning that.

I say: They only attributed this statement to the Hanafiyyah based upon the aforementioned foundation of Ibn ar-Rūmī (i.e. distorting Fiqh), otherwise the Hanafiyyah establish their madhab in this issue upon two matters:

1 — That the Ribā based dealing is between a muslim and kāfir “harbī”.

2 — That if a muslim enters “dār al-harb”, it’s permissible for him to take the wealth of the kuffār in any way possible, among them is “Ribā” if the “profit” was made by the muslim, not by the kāfir.

And these people who cited as evidence the statement of the Hanafiyyah, don’t even view those lands as “dār harb”, nor do they view it permissible for a muslim to usurp the wealth of a kāfir in any way at all.

Nor do they make the “Profit made from the Ribā” go towards the muslim, infact he is the one who gives it to the kāfir, so what kind of opinion is this compared to the opinion of the Hanafiyyah?!

But rather, they simply took a “part” of the Hanafī madhab, and they abandoned the rest, just like “Ibn ar-Rūmī” took a “part” of the Hijāzī madhab, and abandoned the rest (to justify permitting alcohol from the “nabīth” example).

Second example: They permitted for a woman who reverts to Islām to remain with her husband, even if he’s a kāfir, and they attributed this opinion to some of the tābi’in and to Shaykh al-Islām

Ibn Taymiyyah.

I say: NO ONE among the muslims has said this statement, infact ALL of them are unanimously agreed upon what has been narrated in the Qurʾān and Sunnah in declaring it impermissible for a muslimah to remain with a kāfir.

But rather Shaykh al-Islām's opinion, along with others is that the marriage contract isn't nullified via her Islām. Infact, if her husband becomes a muslim, even after some years, then she can return back to him with the first nikāh (contract), and he doesn't require a new marriage contract.

But as for her remaining with him, then the Shaykh (Ibn Taymiyyah) doesn't state this whatsoever, nor other than him, except those upon the foundation of “Ibn ar-Rūmī”, wherein he takes “parts” of his statement, which is the marriage contract not being nullified, while abandoning the rest (of his words, and coming up with falsehood).”

Written by Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) on Thursday, 14/6/1423H.

[1] The Hāfidh and Faqeeh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسره) states that this opinion of “permitting Ribā” in dār al-harb is weak, due to the clear evidences on the topic prohibiting “Ribā” at all times, even though it's the dominant opinion of the Hanafī madhab and an opinion found within the Hanbalī madhab (but the dominant view prohibits it within the Hanbalī madhab, along with the vast majority of scholars). However, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd was simply refuting those who abuse quotes of the scholars while leaving out the rest.

3 July 2018 09:04

Radwan Dakkak shared Markaz AL Tawheed's post.

Excellent initiative, “Hence why I am initiating a campaign and calling upon the government or the higher courts or the prisons to release the muslim prisoners”.

2 July 2018 15:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Excellent initiative, “Hence why I am initiating a campaign and calling upon the government or the higher courts or the prisons to release the muslim prisoners”.

2 July 2018 15:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

A defeatist mentality makes you wanna vomit — Defeatists don't understand that we believers cause more fear in the hearts of the kuffār than anything else in the world. Infact, the kuffār fear us more than Allāh!

2 July 2018 15:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A defeatist mentality makes you wanna vomit — Defeatists don't understand that we believers cause more fear in the hearts of the kuffār than anything else in the world. Infact, the kuffār fear us more than Allāh!

2 July 2018 15:18

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A defeatist mentality makes you wanna vomit — Defeatists don't understand that we believers cause more fear in the hearts of the kuffār than anything else in the world. Infact, the kuffār fear us more than Allāh!

2 July 2018 15:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak #Benefit | The author of the relied upon Hanbalī Fiqh text “Muntahā al-Irādāt”, Imām Ibn al-Najjār (رحمه الله) memorised Ibn Qudāmah's complete book “al-Muqni”, and spent years studying it as mentioned in his biography. This is why they were able to author masterpieces in Fiqh, because they exerted intense efforts to learn and memorise. So the relied upon book for verdicts among the later scholars of the Hanābilah, “Muntahā al-Irādāt” was authored by an Imām with vast knowledge and precision, not out of mere emptiness, may Allāh have mercy upon him.

30 June 2018 20:19

“Al-Mutli’ ‘ala Alfāth al-Muqni’” is a beneficial book to break down the meaning of the words used in Ibn Qudāmah’s Fiqh book “al-Muqni’”. It was written by Imām al-Ba’lī (رحمه الله) who’s an Imām of the arabic language that is affiliated with the Hanbalī madhab.

30 June 2018 20:11

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Radwan Dakkak #Benefit | The author of the relied upon Hanbalī Fiqh text “Muntahā al-Irādāt”, Imām Ibn al-Najjār (رحمه الله) memorised Ibn Qudāmah’s complete book “al-Muqni’”, and spent years studying it. This is why they were able to author masterpieces in Fiqh, because they exerted intense efforts to learn and memorise. So the relied upon book for verdicts among the later scholars of the Hanābilah, “Muntahā al-Irādāt” was authored by an Imām with vast knowledge and precision, not out of mere emptiness, may Allāh have mercy upon him.
30 June 2018 20:16

Adolf Rafael فیک الله باریک Akhi may you please help me any link on Arabic pdf copy of "The Uthmani state and the stand point of the Da'awah of Sheikh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdul Wahhab" by our beloved Shaykh Naasir ibn Fahad فک الله أسره
1 July 2018 16:27

Adolf Rafael جزاک الله خیرا یا اخی الحبیبي
1 July 2018 21:49

“Al-Mutli’ ‘ala Alfāth al-Muqni’” is a beneficial book to break down the meaning of the words used in Ibn Qudāmah’s Fiqh book “al-Muqni’”. It was written by Imām al-Ba’lī (رحمه الله) who’s an Imām of the arabic language that is affiliated with the Hanbalī madhab.

30 June 2018 20:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I gotta say, today was one of the best sunny days of the winter so far.

30 June 2018 19:04

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NkBHPiupU2k&feature=youtu.be>

#Shām | Forewarning to the Plots of the Sahawāt by Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فک الله أسره) Full HD! The Shaykh calls upon the apostate factions in Shām to make tawbah to Allāh and apologise to the muslims for their betrayals!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NkBHPiupU2k&feature=youtu.be>

30 June 2018 14:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NkBHPiupU2k&feature=youtu.be>

#Shām | Forewarning to the Plots of the Sahawāt by Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فک الله أسره) Full HD! The Shaykh calls upon the apostate factions in Shām to make tawbah to Allāh and apologise to the muslims for their betrayals!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NkBHPiupU2k&feature=youtu.be>

30 June 2018 11:16

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NkBHPiupU2k&feature=youtu.be>
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NkBHPiupU2k&feature=youtu.be>

#Shām | Forewarning to the Plots of the Sahawāt by Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرته) Full HD! The Shaykh calls upon the apostate factions in Shām to make tawbah to Allāh and apologise to the muslims for their betrayals!

30 June 2018 11:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

#Shām | Forewarning to the Plots of the Sahawāt by Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرته) Full HD! The Shaykh calls upon the apostate factions in Shām to make tawbah to Allāh and apologise to the muslims for their betrayals!

30 June 2018 11:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Shām | Forewarning to the Plots of the Sahawāt by Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرته) Full HD! The Shaykh calls upon the apostate factions in Shām to make tawbah to Allāh and apologise to the muslims for their betrayals!

30 June 2018 11:05

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

#Shām | Forewarning to the Plots of the Sahawāt by Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرته) Full HD! The Shaykh calls upon the apostate factions in Shām to make tawbah to Allāh and apologise to the muslims for their betrayals!

30 June 2018 11:02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Duʿā doesn't go to waste, however Allāh has the hikmah for the right time to respond, thus it's obligatory to assume well about Him. Verily, the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) was besieged in makkah, and his agony and suffering wasn't uplifted except after 3 years, and he is the best of creation.

الدعاء لا يذهب سدى، لكن لله حكمة في وقت الإجابة، فيجب إحسان الظن به، فقد حُوصِر النبي ﷺ بمكة فلم يرتفع كربه إلا بعد ثلاث سنين وهو خير الخلق.

30 June 2018 00:44

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Secret of steadfastness”

Ibrāhīm al-Harbi said, ‘I heard Ahmad Ibn Hanbal say,

“If you love that Allāh should keep you upon that which you love, then remain upon that which He loves, and the good is in the one who sees no good in himself.”

[Al-Adab Ash-sharʿīyyah (2/30) by Ibn Muflih]

30 June 2018 00:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Secret of steadfastness”

Ibrāhīm al-Harbi said, ‘I heard Ahmad Ibn Hanbal say,

“If you love that Allāh should keep you upon that which you love, then remain upon that which He loves, and the good is in the one who sees no good in himself.”

[Al-Adab Ash-sharʿīyyah (2/30) by Ibn Muflih]

30 June 2018 00:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Refuting the concept of Inter-faith:

The principle of alliance can only be sealed with Allāh, His Messenger, and with the Muslim society at large. Those who claim inter-faith forget the clear statement of the Qurʾān that the People of the Book are allies to one another in their struggle against the Muslim community and that this is part of their nature. They forget that these people are full of hatred for the Muslims, because of their Islām, that they will never be happy with any Muslim until he abandons his religion and follows theirs.

“Those who remain confused about this truth are also lacking in awareness and knowledge of the People of the Book and of the conflict with them. They do not understand the clear and simple Qurʾānic position with regard to the People of the Book, since they confuse the call of Islām to tolerance, participation with, and respect for these communities — within the context of the Muslim society at large.

It is the height of naivety and foolishness to suspect that we share a common road with the People of the Book, a road which we should follow for the sake of the Dīn, to stand side by side, in the face of disbelief and atheism, for they are themselves with the disbelievers and atheists, whenever either of these rise up against the Muslims.

The simple minded say, “Surely we will be able to join hands with the People of the Book against secularism and atheism, since we are all people of religion!” They forget completely the lessons of the Qurʾān, just as much as they forget the lessons of history. It was, after all, the People of the Book who used to say to the disbelievers from along the pagans,

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا تَصِيبًا مِّنَ الْكِتَابِ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْجَنَبِ وَالطَّاغُوتِ وَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هُؤُلَاءِ أَهْدَىٰ مِنَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا سَبِيلًا

“Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Scripture, who believe in superstition and false objects of worship and say about the disbelievers, “These are better guided than the believers as to the way?” [4:51]

It was they who incited the pagans to attack the Muslims at Madīnah and who were their cloak and their shield. It was the People of the Book who pursued with the Crusades for two hundred years, it was they who mounted the Inquisition in Spain, and it was they who drove away the Palestinians and moved the Jews in after them, with the help and co-operation of humanists and secularists. It is the People of the Book who make war on the Muslims in every land, from Ethiopia, to Somalia and across the world, they work hand in hand.

Those who imagine — in their wildest fantasies — that there could ever be between us and the People of the Book any kind of alliance or mutual defence of religion against the secular and atheistic humanist assault, could not have read the Qurʾān. Or, if they have, must then confise the tolerance shown to the disbelievers which is the hallmark of Islām, with alliance with them, which the Qurʾān takes pains to warn us about.

The religion which was revealed to the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is the Religion of Allāh. As for tolerance, it is a matter of human relations, and it does not enter into the domain of correct belief or social organisation. As for those who misunderstand these things, they attempt to play down the absolute certainty which must be in the soul of every Muslim; that Allāh does not accept any other religion than Islām. Indeed, it is the obligation of every Muslim to apply the lessons which Allāh taught us, in Islām, to his own life and to reject any attempt to replace this with anything less than it, or anything which would claim to be equal to it — however insignificant it may be.

Allāh says:

إِنَّ الدِّينَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الْإِسْلَامُ

“Indeed, the religion in the sight of Allah is Islam.” [3:19]

And

وَمَن يَتَّبِعْ غَيْرَ الْإِسْلَامِ دِينًا قُلْنَ يُقْبَلُ مِنْهُ وَهُوَ فِي الْآخِرَةِ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ

“And whoever desires other than Islam as religion - never will it be accepted from him, and he, in the Hereafter, will be among the losers.” [3:85]

In fact, Islām was revealed to correct the beliefs of the People of the Book, as it was also sent to correct the beliefs of the pagans. They were all called to Islām, which is ‘The True Religion’; no other faith than this will be accept, from anyone. The Muslim is obliged to call the People of the Book to Islām, just as he is obliged to call humanists and pagans alike to it.

No Muslim may be permitted to force anyone, whether People of the Book or not, to accept Islām; since faith cannot be forced into the heart. Coercion in religion is prohibited by Islām, and what is prohibited by Islām could never bear fruit.”

[Excerpt from the book “Al-Walā’ wa’l-Barā”, (3/127-131)].

30 June 2018 00:09

Refuting the concept of Inter-faith:

The principle of alliance can only be sealed with Allāh, His Messenger, and with the Muslim society at large. Those who claim inter-faith forget the clear statement of the Qurʾān that the People of the Book are allies to one another in their struggle against the Muslim community and that this is part of their nature. They forget that these people are full of hatred for the Muslims, because of their Islām, that they will never be happy with any Muslim until he abandons his religion and follows theirs.

“Those who remain confused about this truth are also lacking in awareness and knowledge of the People of the Book and of the conflict with them. They do not understand the clear and simple Qurʾānic position with regard to the People of the Book, since they confuse the call of Islām to tolerance, participation with, and respect for these communities — within the context of the Muslim society at large.

It is the height of naivety and foolishness to suspect that we share a common road with the People of the Book, a road which we should follow for the sake of the Dīn, to stand side by side, in the face of disbelief and atheism, for they are themselves with the disbelievers and atheists, whenever either of these rise up against the Muslims.

The simple minded say, “Surely we will be able to join hands with the People of the Book against secularism and atheism, since we are all people of religion!” They forget completely the lessons of the Qurʾān, just as much as they forget the lessons of history. It was, after all, the People of the Book who used to say to the disbelievers from along the pagans,

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا تَصِيبًا مِّنَ الْكِتَابِ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْجَنَّةِ وَالطَّاعُوتِ وَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هَؤُلَاءِ أَهْدَىٰ مِنَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا سَبِيلًا

“Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Scripture, who believe in superstition and false objects of worship and say about the disbelievers, “These are better guided than the believers as to the way?” [4:51]

It was they who incited the pagans to attack the Muslims at Madīnah and who were their cloak and their shield. It was the People of the Book who pursued with the Crusades for two hundred years, it was they who mounted the Inquisition in Spain, and it was they who drove away the Palestinians and moved the Jews in after them, with the help and co-operation of humanists and secularists. It is the People of the Book who make war on the Muslims in every land, from Ethiopia, to Somalia and across the world, they work hand in hand.

Those who imagine — in their wildest fantasies — that there could ever be between us and the People of the Book any kind of alliance or mutual defence of religion against the secular and atheistic humanist assault, could not have read the Qurʾān. Or, if they have, must then confise the tolerance shown to the disbelievers which is the hallmark of Islām, with alliance with them, which the Qurʾān takes pains to warn us about.

The religion which was revealed to the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is the Religion of Allāh. As for tolerance, it is a matter of human relations, and it does not enter into the domain of correct belief or social organisation. As for those who misunderstand these things, they attempt to play down the absolute certainty which must be in the soul of every Muslim; that Allāh does not accept any other religion than Islām. Indeed, it is the obligation of every Muslim to apply the lessons which Allāh taught us, in Islām, to his own life and to reject any attempt to replace this with anything less than it, or anything which would claim to be equal to it — however insignificant it may be.

Allāh says:

إِنَّ الدِّينَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الْإِسْلَامُ

“Indeed, the religion in the sight of Allah is Islam.” [3:19]

And

وَمَن يَتَّبِعْ غَيْرَ الْإِسْلَامِ دِينًا فَلَن يُقْبَلَ مِنْهُ وَهُوَ فِي الْآخِرَةِ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ

“And whoever desires other than Islam as religion - never will it be accepted from him, and he, in the Hereafter, will be among the losers.” [3:85]

In fact, Islām was revealed to correct the beliefs of the People of the Book, as it was also sent to correct the beliefs of the pagans. They were all called to Islām, which is ‘The True Religion’; no other faith than this will be accept, from anyone. The Muslim is obliged to call the People of the Book to Islām, just as he is obliged to call humanists and pagans alike to it.

No Muslim may be permitted to force anyone, whether People of the Book or not, to accept Islām; since faith cannot be forced into the heart. Coercion in religion is prohibited by Islām, and what is prohibited by Islām could never bear fruit.”

[Excerpt from the book “Al-Walā’ wa’l-Barā”, (3/127-131)].

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

□

Look towards the scholars in the trenches, not towards the agents of the Tāghūt in the palaces and hotels!

The noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) gives a short summary about the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله):

“But if you ever stumble across mentioning Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī, may Allāh accept him, then he is the forefront precedent in the various sciences and fields, the one who is precisely skilled in elucidations and mutūn (concise sharī texts).

The one who gathered between Islamic knowledge and practical implementation for years and years! To the extent that even one of the soldiers of ad-Dawlah al-Islāmiyyah said to his brother:

“I was a disbeliever in the Tāghūt since the times of the Tāgūtī rule, Saddām Hussayn!”

It was then said to him, how is that so?

So he replied, “Because my teacher at the time was Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī!”

Yes, the Shaykh was a carrier of the pen and sword even back during those days, infact he was the general religious authority for the “Ansār al-Islām” group — when they were actually Ansār (helpers and supporters) for Islām — then he didn’t delay a single moment until he gave bay’ah to the Amīr of the Istish’hādiyyīn Abā Mus’ab az-Zarqāwī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, during the first stages of the Jihād in ‘Irāq.

And he has remained since that time with the mujāhidīn as a teacher, instructor of guidance, leader and fighter. Neither did imprisonment or being crushed stop him from going forth, nor did withdrawals and losses, and nor did besiegement stop him, until he met his destiny”

— Excerpt from the book, “A summary of the stances taken by the people of knowledge in Qitāl” (pages 6-7).

29 June 2018 23:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Look towards the scholars in the trenches, not towards the agents of the Tāghūt in the palaces and hotels!

The noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) gives a short summary about the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله):

“But if you ever stumble across mentioning Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī, may Allāh accept him, then he is the forefront precedent in the various sciences and fields, the one who is precisely skilled in elucidations and mutūn (concise sharī texts).

The one who gathered between Islamic knowledge and practical implementation for years and years! To the extent that even one of the soldiers of ad-Dawlah al-Islāmiyyah said to his brother:

“I was a disbeliever in the Tāghūt since the times of the Tāgūtī rule, Saddām Hussayn!”

It was then said to him, how is that so?

So he replied, “Because my teacher at the time was Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī!”

Yes, the Shaykh was a carrier of the pen and sword even back during those days, infact he was the general religious authority for the “Ansār al-Islām” group — when they were actually Ansār (helpers and supporters) for Islām — then he didn’t delay a single moment until he gave bay’ah to the Amīr of the Istish’hādiyyīn Abā Mus’ab az-Zarqāwī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, during the first stages of the Jihād in ‘Irāq.

And he has remained since that time with the mujāhidīn as a teacher, instructor of guidance, leader and fighter. Neither did imprisonment or being crushed stop him from going forth, nor did withdrawals and losses, and nor did besiegement stop him, until he met his destiny”

— Excerpt from the book, “A summary of the stances taken by the people of knowledge in Qitāl” (pages 6-7).

29 June 2018 22:33

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Look towards the scholars in the trenches, not towards the agents of the Tāghūt in the palaces and hotels!

The noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) gives a short summary about the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله):

“But if you ever stumble across mentioning Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī, may Allāh accept him, then he is the forefront precedent in the various sciences and fields, the one who is precisely skilled in elucidations and mutūn (concise sharī texts).

The one who gathered between Islamic knowledge and practical implementation for years and years! To the extent that even one of the soldiers of ad-Dawlah al-Islāmiyyah said to his brother:

“I was a disbeliever in the Tāghūt since the times of the Tāgūtī rule, Saddām Hussayn!”

It was then said to him, how is that so?

So he replied, “Because my teacher at the time was Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī!”

Yes, the Shaykh was a carrier of the pen and sword even back during those days, infact he was the general religious authority for the “Ansār al-Islām” group — when they were actually Ansār (helpers and supporters) for Islām — then he didn’t delay a single moment until he gave bay’ah to the Amīr of the Istish’hādiyyīn Abā Mus’ab az-Zarqāwī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, during the first stages of the Jihād in ‘Irāq.

And he has remained since that time with the mujāhidīn as a teacher, instructor of guidance, leader and fighter. Neither did imprisonment or being crushed stop him from going forth, nor did withdrawals and losses, and nor did besiegement stop him, until he met his destiny”

— Excerpt from the book, “A summary of the stances taken by the people of knowledge in Qitāl” (pages 6-7).

29 June 2018 22:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It’s necessary to proclaim the truth, even if the people didn’t follow it, so that atleast it’s stuck in the minds. Because the most dangerous of arguments to be made is for a generation to come and say:

وَمَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا فِي آبَائِنَا الْأَوَّلِينَ

“And we have not heard about this from our early forefathers.” [28:36].

The Haqq is in need of repetition and revision without boredom, and this is exactly what we learn when we ponder over the Qur’ān.

In numerous places within the Qur’ān, you find repetitions in the meaning, so that it can become firmly rooted in your mind. Your heart is like a tree, it gets weak and dies if you don’t maintain it and water it, keeping it strong and firm.

Allāh says, “Indeed, those who disbelieve - it is all the same for them whether you warn them or do not warn them - they will not believe.” [2:6].

Despite this, those mushrikīn were still warned and weren’t abandoned for a single day, as the Haqq must be proclaimed and remain heard in the people’s ears, so that it’s not forgotten.

Infact, one of the main reasons the misguided creeds became more popular than the ‘Aqīdah of the salaf, is because people are generally inclined towards those who speak the most, just look around you and see who are the ones with the largest following, isn’t it the famous and most popular? This is due to the amount of sheep around who don’t strive to search for the truth, and how many verses did Allāh condemn the majority, subhā’Allāh just reflect over how true the words of Allāh really are!

The salaf would speak in a very few amount of words, whereas the theologians and philosophers would speak and debate so much, hence the people were deceived by the popularity of their words and inclined towards deviant creeds (such as ashā’irah and mu’tazilah after the early generations), instead of observing the truth and understanding the wisdom of the salaf in speaking less.

29 June 2018 21:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It’s necessary to proclaim the truth, even if the people didn’t follow it, so that atleast it’s stuck in the minds. Because the most dangerous of arguments to be made is for a generation to come and say:

وَمَا سَمِعْنَا يَهْدًا فِي آبَائِنَا الْأَوَّلِينَ

“And we have not heard about this from our early forefathers.” [28:36].

The Haqq is in need of repetition and revision without boredom, and this is exactly what we learn when we ponder over the Qur’ān.

In numerous places within the Qur’ān, you find repetitions in the meaning, so that it can become firmly rooted in your mind. Your heart is like a tree, it gets weak and dies if you don’t maintain it and water it, keeping it strong and firm.

Allāh says, “Indeed, those who disbelieve - it is all the same for them whether you warn them or do not warn them - they will not believe.” [2:6].

Despite this, those mushrikīn were still warned and weren’t abandoned for a single day, as the Haqq must be proclaimed and remain heard in the people’s ears, so that it’s not forgotten.

Infact, one of the main reasons the misguided creeds became more popular than the ‘Aqīdah of the salaf, is because people are generally inclined towards those who speak the most, just look around you and see who are the ones with the largest following, isn’t it the famous and most popular? This is due to the amount of sheep around who don’t strive to search for the truth, and how many verses did Allāh condemn the majority, subhā’Allāh just reflect over how true the words of Allāh really are!

The salaf would speak in a very few amount of words, whereas the theologians and philosophers would speak and debate so much, hence the people were deceived by the popularity of their words and inclined towards deviant creeds (such as ashā’irah and mu’tazilah after the early generations), instead of observing the truth and understanding the wisdom of the salaf in speaking less.

29 June 2018 20:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I’ll be writing up a short set of series refuting fabrications about the noble Sahābī, Mu’āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyān (رضي الله عنه).

The motive behind this is due to the topic of Mu’āwiyah being brought up every year, and many brothers and sisters from ahlus-sunnah haven’t been taught much about any of the sahābah, let alone the uncle of the believers and scribe of wahī, Mu’āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyān.

Some of the topics that I’ll be addressing in this short series are:

— What they don’t tell you about the fitnah that occurred between ‘Alī and Mu’āwiyah during the battle of Siffin!

— Refuting the fabricated lie that Mu’āwiyah insulted ‘Alī or ordered others to insult ‘Alī.

— Addressing matters related to Khilāfah and how it was surrendered.

— Discussing merits and virtues of Mu’āwiyah (رضي الله عنه).

May Allāh make this short series a coolness to the eyes of the muwahhidīn and means to increase your Yaqīn in the most noble men and women to walk the face of this Earth, wherein numerous popular doubts are removed from Khāl al-Mu’minīn, Mu’āwiyah (رضي الله عنه).

29 June 2018 18:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I’ll be writing up a short set of series refuting fabrications about the noble Sahābī, Mu’āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyān (رضي الله عنه).

The motive behind this is due to the topic of Mu’āwiyah being brought up every year, and many brothers and sisters from ahlus-sunnah haven’t been taught much about any of the sahābah, let alone the uncle of the believers and scribe of wahī, Mu’āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyān.

Some of the topics that I’ll be addressing in this short series are:

— What they don’t tell you about the fitnah that occurred between ‘Alī and Mu’āwiyah during the battle of Siffin!

— Refuting the fabricated lie that Mu’āwiyah insulted ‘Alī or ordered others to insult ‘Alī.

— Addressing matters related to Khilāfah and how it was surrendered.

— Discussing merits and virtues of Mu’āwiyah (رضي الله عنه).

May Allāh make this short series a coolness to the eyes of the muwahhidīn and means to increase your Yaqīn in the most noble men and women to walk the face of this Earth, wherein numerous popular doubts are removed from Khāl al-Mu'minīn, Mu'āwiyah (رضي الله عنه).

29 June 2018 18:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

“Infact, there are entire movements based upon this false hypothesis”

— Imām Anwar al-‘Awlaqī (تقبله الله).

29 June 2018 17:21

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

_____

Yehya Umar Please explain this a bit more..

29 June 2018 18:18

Amjad Ali Khan A false hypothesis that every Muslim should be perfect before we do the ultimate strive directly against the enemies of Allah...

29 June 2018 18:57

“Infact, there are entire movements based upon this false hypothesis”

— Imām Anwar al-‘Awlaqī (تقبله الله).

29 June 2018 17:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in THE CORRECT AQEEDAH.

_____

Group: THE CORRECT AQEEDAH

Sufyan Ath-Thauri Salallahu alayhi wasalam

29 June 2018 17:07

Group: THE CORRECT AQEEDAH

Jeff Robertson ☺brother you cropped out the cute brother who posted this earlier in 2016.

Be good to people innit

29 June 2018 17:11

The other day, this wonderful narration was brought up. And subhān’Allāh just thinking about it now, Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is also considered the *last & final* prophet in *time*, while he is the *first & greatest* in *virtue*.

May the peace and blessings be upon Rasūlullāh

29 June 2018 16:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

The other day, this wonderful narration was brought up. And subhān’Allāh just thinking about it now, Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is also considered the *last & final* prophet in *time*, while he is the *first & greatest* in *virtue*.

May the peace and blessings be upon Rasūlullāh

29 June 2018 16:50

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

_____

_____

Afzal Guman Assalaamualaykum akhi. I just wanted to ask something about ‘allying with the kuffaar. Is it only kufr akbar when you ally with the kuffaar against muslims or is it kufr akbar as well if you take the kuffaar as allies but not against muslims?
29 June 2018 21:23

The other day, this wonderful narration was brought up. And subhān'Allāh just thinking about it now, Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) is also considered the *last & final* prophet in *time*, while he is the *first & greatest* in *virtue*.

May the peace and blessings be upon Rasūlullāh

29 June 2018 16:50

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Salik Wani Which shaykh is that ?

29 June 2018 16:14

Radwan Dakkak He specialises in Tawhīd.

29 June 2018 16:15

Ahmad Ibn Abdur-Raheem May Allah safeguard and protect us from from such Ignorance

29 June 2018 16:20

Amjad Ali Khan You better be nice to him if not he might issue a fatwa against you...be safe than be sorry...

29 June 2018 16:21

Abu Tankeh Sam Jackson

29 June 2018 16:22

Muhammad Husayn Jeff Robertson

29 June 2018 16:23

Jeff Robertson i prefer to criticise his views than him as a person. ☹ his got passion gotta give him credit for that innit

29 June 2018 16:26

Abu Qital Maldifi Lol ☹

29 June 2018 16:36

Jeff Robertson Ali Akyuz

29 June 2018 16:38

Salik Wani He sure can smell tawheed in a person ☹

29 June 2018 16:39

Ibn Shaami The amount of tabs open is triggering my ocd ☹☹

29 June 2018 16:47

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas Over-zealous without knowledge Young in Age Fight and ready to kill muslims and even their kids but spare the idol worshippers , never heard him speak bad about tawaghit in his land

29 June 2018 18:32

Jeff Robertson i try to find good in ppl

29 June 2018 18:35

Khalid Van der Lee Brother i have one serious question. Have that guy any knowledge. When I listened to him I think he must begin by "Makhaarijj al7uroof" he speaks like rap-. Wallaahoe moesta3aan. Or he looks like a gangster formation in streets

29 June 2018 19:19

Abdullah Koyi Wallahi I'm shocked I just realized I have the zebibah (Prayer Bump) Alhamdulliah i started praying 5x A Day in 2014.

29 June 2018 19:23

Ilyas Mansur Same It's hard enough when I'm doing work on one moniter, but seeing it done with no good reason is a cause for an anxiety attack hahaha

29 June 2018 21:58

Ansar Broeders ☹

30 June 2018 01:30

Sheikh muwahhid randomnly pops up on my facebook ☹

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

*Saying Allāh has a body is a vilified innovation within Islām which none of the salaf mentioned*

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān (رحمه الله) mentions in “Ad-Diyā’ ash-Shāriq” (pages 202-205):

“As for his claim (i.e. Dāwūd Ibn Jirjīs), that we make Him as a body, if we affirm what Allāh has affirmed for Himself, then this is not a new invention from the labels of the misguided people.

Moreover, you should know that none of us say that Allāh is a body, for indeed this phrase according to us is an innovation and a newly invented matter within Islām which wasn’t stated by anyone from the righteous predecessors and the first generation.

And the first one who unrestrictedly attributed the phrase of body (to Allāh) were the theologians among the shī’a, such as Hishām Ibn al-Hakam. This is exactly what Ibn Hazm cited, along with others.

Abū al-Hassan al-Ash’arī mentioned in his book “Maqālāt al-Islāmiyyīn wa Ikhtilāf al-Musallīn” (pages 31-35):

“The rawāfīdh among the Imāmiyyah differed concerning Allāh having a body into 6 different sects” (i.e. their own shī’a scholars admitted the early rawāfīdh believed Allāh had a body, whereas the later rawāfīdh negated it by agreeing with the mu’tazilah and jahmiyyah).

Therefore, it has been made clear to you that this madhab — what I intend is the view of Allāh having a body — is the madhab of those misguided innovators, and whoever agreed with them from the followers of the a’immah.

Hence, the madhab of the Wāhhabīyyah is the pure madhab of Ahlus-Sunnah, such as Imām Ahmad and his peers. They do not utter the phrase of “tajsīm” (body), they do not negate it, nor do they affirm it, due to two reasons:

First reason: Because there’s no textual evidence found, neither in the Qur’ān, nor Sunnah, nor is there a narration found from any of the saḥābah and those who followed them with excellence, nor other than them from the Imāms of the muslims. Therefore, it became from the blameworthy innovations.

Second reason: Because its meaning may consist of both Haqq and Bātil.”

29 June 2018 14:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

*Saying Allāh has a body is a vilified innovation within Islām which none of the salaf mentioned*

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān (رحمه الله) mentions in “Ad-Diyā’ ash-Shāriq” (pages 202-205):

“As for his claim (i.e. Dāwūd Ibn Jirjīs), that we make Him as a body, if we affirm what Allāh has affirmed for Himself, then this is not a new invention from the labels of the misguided people.

Moreover, you should know that none of us say that Allāh is a body, for indeed this phrase according to us is an innovation and a newly invented matter within Islām which wasn’t stated by anyone from the righteous predecessors and the first generation.

And the first one who unrestrictedly attributed the phrase of body (to Allāh) were the theologians among the shī’a, such as Hishām Ibn al-Hakam. This is exactly what Ibn Hazm cited, along with others.

Abū al-Hassan al-Ash’arī mentioned in his book “Maqālāt al-Islāmiyyīn wa Ikhtilāf al-Musallīn” (pages 31-35):

“The rawāfīdh among the Imāmiyyah differed concerning Allāh having a body into 6 different sects” (i.e. their own shī’a scholars admitted the early rawāfīdh believed Allāh had a body, whereas the later rawāfīdh negated it by agreeing with the mu’tazilah and jahmiyyah).

Therefore, it has been made clear to you that this madhab — what I intend is the view of Allāh having a body — is the madhab of those misguided innovators, and whoever agreed with them from the followers of the a’immah.

Hence, the madhab of the Wāhhabīyyah is the pure madhab of Ahlus-Sunnah, such as Imām Ahmad and his peers. They do not utter the phrase of “tajsīm” (body), they do not negate it, nor do they affirm it, due to two reasons:

First reason: Because there’s no textual evidence found, neither in the Qur’ān, nor Sunnah, nor is there a narration found from any of the saḥābah and those who followed them with excellence, nor other than them from the Imāms of the muslims. Therefore, it became from the blameworthy innovations.

Second reason: Because its meaning may consist of both Haqq and Bātil.”

29 June 2018 14:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A hadith benefit on when the companion says “We were commanded and forbidden”, does this always imply the Rasul?

The noble ‘Alim and Mujahid, Shaykh Abu Bakr al-Qahtani (تقيله الله) says:

“The point being, is that these narrators, ‘Abdur-rahman Ibn Zayd, Usamah and ‘Abdillah were not from the deeply rooted persistent men of hadith and its people, however they were people of righteousness, worship and abstinence (from worldly pleasures).

This also implies that not everyone who’s a person of piety in his Din, that he’s suitable for other matters, such as narrating hadiths, knowledge, handling the affairs of the people, rather these are abilities and talents, which Allah the exalted and majestic grants to whomever He wishes, and everyone is facilitated to what he’s created for (i.e. there’s no extra burden upon him).

Based upon this, what would the Prophet say to Abi Thar, despite his righteousness and Taqwa:

“There is no one on earth, or under the sky, who speaks more truthfully than Abu Thar.”

But despite that, he said, “O Aba Thar, you are indeed weak.”

And he prevented him from attaining leadership, despite his righteousness and Taqwa.

So if a man is seen as upright and pious, this doesn’t necessitate his precision and suitability for all matters.

Therefore, what’s correct is that this hadith [refer to the last line] is mawquf upon ‘Abdillah Ibn ‘Umar (as stated by Imam Ahmad, Abu Zur’ah, Ad-Daraqutni and others), being from his statement.

The scholars stated, if it’s mawquf, then it takes the hukm of being marfu’, because he said “it was made lawful for us”, this was mentioned by al-Bayhaqi, Ibn Hajr, and others.

So if a Sahabi says, “we were commanded”, or “we were forbidden from the sunnah”, or “it was made lawful for us”, all these expressions are indicative that he acquired it from the Prophet.

The scholars of hadith summarized the discussion concerning these expressions, and there’s a dispute among the scholars, may Allah have mercy upon them.

And we also say, this is not upon that unrestricted citation, which some mention. Not everything that a companion says of, “we were commanded”, or “we were forbidden”, or “it was made lawful for us”, that who’s intended is the Prophet.

Rather, the default basic principle is that the Prophet is intended, if it’s not acceptably valid except to be attributed to the Shari’ah.

However, in some situations as it’s recorded in several narrations, some of the Sahabah would say “we were commanded”, so if it’s said to him, as it’s mentioned in Musannaf Ibn Abi Shaybah from Anas, he said in some rulings, “we were commanded”, so it was said to him:

“Who commanded you”

So Anas replied, “Umar Ibn al-Khattab”.

Because the rightly guided caliphs have a sunnah which was commanded (by the rasul) to follow, their commands and prohibitions would have a reputable and noble position in the Shari’ah, which is renowned.

So the sahabah could say “we were commanded”, i.e. By the (rightly guided) caliphs, the A’immah, such as Abi Bakr, ‘Umar, and so forth.

But the statement, “It was made lawful from us in the sunnah”, is generally referring to the sunnah of the Prophet, his declarations of what’s lawful and what’s prohibited. And this is the meaning of ‘Abdullah Ibn ‘Umar’s statement, “Two kinds of dead meat and two kinds of blood have been lawful to us”.”

- Refer to “The explanation of Bulugh al-Maram” (Lesson 11/13), minute 19:59-23:32.

29 June 2018 12:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A hadith benefit on when the companion says “We were commanded and forbidden”, does this always imply the Rasul?

The noble ‘Alim and Mujahid, Shaykh Abu Bakr al-Qahtani (تقبله الله) says:

“The point being, is that these narrators, ‘Abdur-rahman Ibn Zayd, Usamah and ‘Abdillah were not from the deeply rooted persistent men of hadith and its people, however they were people of righteousness, worship and abstinence (from worldly pleasures).

This also implies that not everyone who's a person of piety in his Din, that he's suitable for other matters, such as narrating hadiths, knowledge, handling the affairs of the people, rather these are abilities and talents, which Allah the exalted and majestic grants to whomever He wishes, and everyone is facilitated to what he's created for (i.e. there's no extra burden upon him).

Based upon this, what would the Prophet say to Abi Thar, despite his righteousness and Taqwa:

“There is no one on earth, or under the sky, who speaks more truthfully than Abu Thar.”

But despite that, he said, “O Aba Thar, you are indeed weak.”

And he prevented him from attaining leadership, despite his righteousness and Taqwa.

So if a man is seen as upright and pious, this doesn't necessitate his precision and suitability for all matters.

Therefore, what's correct is that this hadith [refer to the last line] is mawquf upon ‘Abdillah Ibn ‘Umar (as stated by Imam Ahmad, Abu Zur'ah, Ad-Daraqutni and others), being from his statement.

The scholars stated, if it's mawquf, then it takes the hukm of being marfu', because he said “it was made lawful for us”, this was mentioned by al-Bayhaqi, Ibn Hajr, and others.

So if a Sahabi says, “we were commanded”, or “we were forbidden from the sunnah”, or “it was made lawful for us”, all these expressions are indicative that he acquired it from the Prophet.

The scholars of hadith summarized the discussion concerning these expressions, and there's a dispute among the scholars, may Allah have mercy upon them.

And we also say, this is not upon that unrestricted citation, which some mention. Not everything that a companion says of, “we were commanded”, or “we were forbidden”, or “it was made lawful for us”, that who's intended is the Prophet.

Rather, the default basic principle is that the Prophet is intended, if it's not acceptably valid except to be attributed to the Shari'ah.

However, in some situations as it's recorded in several narrations, some of the Sahabah would say “we were commanded”, so if it's said to him, as it's mentioned in Musannaf Ibn Abi Shaybah from Anas, he said in some rulings, “we were commanded”, so it was said to him:

“Who commanded you”

So Anas replied, “Umar Ibn al-Khattab”.

Because the rightly guided caliphs have a sunnah which was commanded (by the rasul) to follow, their commands and prohibitions would have a reputable and noble position in the Shari'ah, which is renowned.

So the sahabah could say “we were commanded”, i.e. By the (rightly guided) caliphs, the A'immah, such as Abi Bakr, ‘Umar, and so forth.

But the statement, “It was made lawful from us in the sunnah”, is generally referring to the sunnah of the Prophet, his declarations of what's lawful and what's prohibited. And this is the meaning of ‘Abdullah Ibn ‘Umar's statement, “Two kinds of dead meat and two kinds of blood have been lawful to us”.

- Refer to “The explanation of Bulugh al-Maram” (Lesson 11/13), minute 19:59-23:32.

29 June 2018 12:28

Radwan Dakkak shared Mohammed Shaar's post.

Excellent demonstration.

29 June 2018 11:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

29 June 2018 09:42

Radwan Dakkak shared a memory.

---

29 June 2018 09:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Keep your heart open for the muslims, and strive towards attaining the causes which help open your heart for others.

Ponder over the favour of Allāh to His beloved Prophet:

“Did We not expand for you, [O Muhammad], your chest?” [94:1].

What a favour, Rasūlullāh’s heart was the most pure of hearts, full of tranquility, comfort, pleasure and Īmān, صلى الله عليه وسلم.

28 June 2018 20:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Keep your heart open for the muslims, and strive towards attaining the causes which help open your heart for others.

Ponder over the favour of Allāh to His beloved Prophet:

“Did We not expand for you, [O Muhammad], your chest?” [94:1].

What a favour, Rasūlullāh’s heart was the most pure of hearts, full of tranquility, comfort, pleasure and Īmān, صلى الله عليه وسلم.

28 June 2018 20:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

While the shameless people celebrate Erdogān’s victory, Shaykh Ebū Hanzalā (فك الله أسرہ) got sentenced for 14 years in prison by this Tāghūt.

إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون

28 June 2018 17:11

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

While the shameless people celebrate Erdogān’s victory, Shaykh Ebū Hanzalā (فك الله أسرہ) got sentenced for 14 years in prison by this Tāghūt.

إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون

28 June 2018 17:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

:has memorised 9 books of hadīth (فك الله أسرہ) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān

.Sahīh al-Bukhārī — 1

.Sahīh Muslim — 2

.Sunan Abī Dāwūd — 3

.Sunan an-Nasā’ī — 4

.Sunan at-Tirmidhī — 5

.Sunan Ibn Mājah — 6

.Sunan ad-Dārimī — 7

.Muwatta’ Mālik — 8

.(!Musnad al-Imām Ahmad (which on its own consists of ~ 30,000 hadīths — 9

in the 42 min lecture, “The (تقبله الله) Related by his student, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī — .”Seerah of Shaykh al-‘Alwān

28 June 2018 16:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

:has memorised 9 books of hadīth (فك الله أسرته) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān

.Sahīh al-Bukhārī — 1
.Sahīh Muslim — 2
.Sunan Abī Dāwūd — 3
.Sunan an-Nasā’ī — 4
.Sunan at-Tirmidhī — 5
.Sunan Ibn Mājah — 6
.Sunan ad-Dārimī — 7
.Muwatta’ Mālik — 8
.(!Musnad al-Imām Ahmad (which on its own consists of ~ 30,000 hadīths — 9 in the 42 min lecture, “The (تقبله الله) Related by his student, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī —

.”Seerah of Shaykh al-‘Alwān

28 June 2018 16:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□ □

This is an interesting research compiled together by Dr. Hishām from the Usūl al-Fiqh branch of the Shari’ah Faculty in the university of Muhammad Ibn Sa’ūd.

He touches on the Rule of when a حاجة (need) becomes a ضرورة (necessity) and how to practically apply such rulings on the Fiqh of muslim minorities.

This helps us understand specific situations such as when a need becomes intense or communal, which is why fatāwā are found on issues such as taking ribā-based student loans to study, or else we’ll be left without education, and so forth.

This topic is ignored by some and abused by others, i.e. absolutely giving concessions to harām and absolutely giving no concessions to harām, so it’s important to learn it to avoid blank rulings, as it also helps us understand the aspect of ta’wīl in specific matters of takfīr during necessity. May Allāh increase us in beneficial knowledge.

28 June 2018 15:54

Radwan Dakkak added 2 new photos.

□ □

This is an interesting research compiled together by Dr. Hishām from the Usūl al-Fiqh branch of the Shari’ah Faculty in the university of Muhammad Ibn Sa’ūd.

He touches on the Rule of when a حاجة (need) becomes a ضرورة (necessity) and how to practically apply such rulings on the Fiqh of muslim minorities.

This helps us understand specific situations such as when a need becomes intense or communal, which is why fatāwā are found on issues such as taking ribā-based student loans to study, or else we’ll be left without education, and so forth.

This topic is ignored by some and abused by others, i.e. absolutely giving concessions to harām and absolutely giving no concessions to harām, so it’s important to learn it to avoid blank rulings, as it also helps us understand the aspect of ta’wīl in specific matters of takfīr during necessity. May Allāh increase us in beneficial knowledge.

28 June 2018 15:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

The same people who shared hashtags on #Save_Aleppo in 2016, #Help_Idlib in 2017 are the same ones saying #Russia_Worldcup_2018 wasting their time watching football while Russia bombs Busrā al-Harīr!

28 June 2018 13:01

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ahmad Ibn Abdur-Raheem لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله

28 June 2018 14:33

Jeff Robertson disgracing the greatest words one can utter on clothing. innit

28 June 2018 14:55

The same people who shared hashtags on #Save_Aleppo in 2016, #Help_Idlib in 2017 are the same ones saying #Russia_Worldcup_2018 wasting their time watching football while Russia bombs Busrā al-Harīr!

28 June 2018 13:01

Radwan Dakkak shared Muwahid Ibrahim's post.

"I challenge you to a debate on why takfīr is the foundation of the Dīn...

First of all — I'm just gonna end the debate right here. There's no need to even debate..."

What kind of challenge is to ask for a debate, then buckle out immediately in the next sentence? I gotta say, this was his most sensible video I've seen.

28 June 2018 12:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

*Those who warn against takfīr upon the mushrikīn are similar to the homosexuals among the people of Lūt*

The noble Mujāhid and Hāfidh of the 6 books of hadīth, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū 'Abdillāh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله) mentions in a lecture:

"Perhaps a muslim is shown hostility due to the tahārah (purification), noble loftiness and honour he holds, the same way the people of Lūt mentioned to Lūt (عليه السلام):

وَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا أَخْرِجُوهُمْ مِّنْ قَرْيَتِكُمْ ۖ إِنَّهُمْ أَنَاسٌ يَّتَطَهَّرُونَ

"But the answer of his people was only that they said, "Kick them out them from your city! Indeed, they are men who keep themselves pure." [7:82].

So the people of Lūt belittled the family of Lūt due to their tahārah (purification), while they take pride over the family of Lūt via their najāsah (impurity).

They take pride over the family of Lūt via their najāsah (impurity) and committing this atrociously foul act.

And here they are today describing the people of Īmān among the mujāhidīn with descriptions of dignity, loftiness and honour (thinking it's an insult), so they say about them that they are terrorists.

Yes, we are terrorisers (of falsehood), so who are you?! We strike fear in the hearts of our enemies as Allāh commanded us too:

وَأَعِدُّوا لَهُمْ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ قُوَّةٍ وَمِنْ رِبَاطِ الْخَيْلِ تُرْهِبُونَ بِهِ عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ وَعَدُوَّكُمْ وَآخَرِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِمْ

"And prepare against them whatever you are able of power and of steeds of war by which you may terrify the enemy of Allah and your enemy and others besides them." [8:60].

Our lord also informed us that terror found within the hearts of the people of kufr towards the people of Īmān is more severe than their fear in respect to Allāh, as Allāh the most High said:

لَأَتِمُّنَّ أَسَدُ رَهْبَةٍ فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ

"You [believers] are more fearful within their breasts than Allah. That is because they are a people who do not understand." [59:13].

And Allāh promised his servants among the mujāhidīn that they will strike terror in the hearts of the kuffār during combat, as Allāh the most High said:

سَنُلْقِي فِي قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا الرُّعْبَ بِمَا أَشْرَكُوا بِاللَّهِ

"We will cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve for what they have associated with Allah." [3:151].

And Allāh the most High said:

سَنُلْقِي فِي قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا الرُّعْبَ فَاصْرَبُوا فَوْقَ الْأَغْتَابِ وَاصْرَبُوا مِنْهُمْ كُلَّ بَنَانٍ

"I will cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieved, so strike [them] upon the necks and strike from them every fingertip." [8:12].

And He said:

وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الرُّعْبَ قَرِيبًا تَفْقُطُونَ وَتَأْسِرُونَ قَرِيبًا

"And He (i.e. Allāh) casts terror into their hearts [so that] a party you killed, and you took captive a party." [33:26].

And He said:

فَأَتَاهُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَمْ يَحْتَسِبُوا ۖ وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الرُّعْبَ ۚ يُخْرِبُونَ بُيُوتَهُمْ بِأَيْدِيهِمْ وَأَيْدِي الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَاعْتَبِرُوا يَا أُولِيَ الْأَبْصَارِ

"But [the decree of] Allah came upon them from where they had not expected, and He cast terror into their hearts [so] they destroyed their houses by their [own] hands and the hands of the believers. So take warning, O people of insight." [59:2]."

So all those murji'ah and defeatists who accuse the people of Īmān as being "terrorisers and takfiris", this is similar to the homosexuals belittling Prophet Nūh (عليه السلام) for upholding purity.

So we will remain firm by the permission of Allāh on holding tightly onto the purity of Tawhīd and making takfir upon the mushrikīn, even if the misguided fussāq among the murji'ah hate it.

And as Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) mentioned in a clip entitled, "heart-softeners within minutes", that forbidding munkar is considered a communal obligation, and the more courageous you are in standing in the face of evil, the more trials you will go through, so expect the resistance to come your way, but don't let that waver you at all. Be wise, have patience and condemn all forms of munkar with knowledge!

28 June 2018 11:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

*Those who warn against takfīr upon the mushrikīn are similar to the homosexuals among the people of Lūt*

The noble Mujāhidh and Hāfidh of the 6 books of hadīth, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū 'Abdillāh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله) mentions in a lecture:

"Perhaps a muslim is shown hostility due to the tahārah (purification), noble loftiness and honour he holds, the same way the people of Lūt mentioned to Lūt (عليه السلام):

وَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا أَخْرِجُوهُمْ مِّنْ قَرْيَتِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّهُمْ أَتَانَسَ يَتَطَهَّرُونَ

"But the answer of his people was only that they said, "Kick them out them from your city! Indeed, they are men who keep themselves pure." [7:82].

So the people of Lūt belittled the family of Lūt due to their tahārah (purification), while they take pride over the family of Lūt via their najāsah (impurity).

They take pride over the family of Lūt via their najāsah (impurity) and committing this atrociously foul act.

And here they are today describing the people of Īmān among the mujāhidīn with descriptions of dignity, loftiness and honour (thinking it's an insult), so they say about them that they are terrorists.

Yes, we are terrorisers (of falsehood), so who are you?! We strike fear in the hearts of our enemies as Allāh commanded us too:

وَأَعِدُّوا لَهُمْ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ قُوَّةٍ وَمِنْ رِبَاطِ الْخَيْلِ تُرْهِبُونَ بِهِ عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ وَعَدُوَّكُمْ وَآخَرِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِمْ

"And prepare against them whatever you are able of power and of steeds of war by which you may terrify the enemy of Allah and your enemy and others besides them." [8:60].

Our lord also informed us that terror found within the hearts of the people of kufr towards the people of Īmān is more severe than their fear in respect to Allāh, as Allāh the most High said:

لَأَنْتُمْ أَشَدُّ رَهْبَةً فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ

"You [believers] are more fearful within their breasts than Allah. That is because they are a people who do not understand." [59:13].

And Allāh promised his servants among the mujāhidīn that they will strike terror in the hearts of the kuffār during combat, as Allāh the most High said:

سَنُلْقِي فِي قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا الرُّعْبَ بِمَا أَشْرَكُوا بِاللَّهِ

"We will cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve for what they have associated with Allah.” [3:151].

And Allāh the most High said:

سَأُلْقِي فِي قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا الرُّعْبَ فَاصْبِرُوا قَوُّوا أَلْعَتَاقِي وَاصْبِرُوا مِنْهُمْ كُلَّ بَنَانٍ

“I will cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieved, so strike [them] upon the necks and strike from them every fingertip.” [8:12].

And He said:

وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الرُّعْبَ قَرِيبًا مِّمَّا تَفْكُلُونَ وَتَأْسِرُونَ قَرِيبًا

“And He (i.e. Allāh) casts terror into their hearts [so that] a party you killed, and you took captive a party.” [33:26].

And He said:

فَأَتَاهُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَمْ يَحْتَسِبُوا ۖ وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الرُّعْبَ ۚ يُخْرِبُونَ بُيُوتَهُمْ بِأَيْدِيهِمْ وَأَيْدِي الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَاعْتَبِرُوا يَا أُولِيَ الْأَبْصَارِ

“But [the decree of] Allah came upon them from where they had not expected, and He cast terror into their hearts [so] they destroyed their houses by their [own] hands and the hands of the believers. So take warning, O people of insight.” [59:2].”

So all those murji'ah and defeatists who accuse the people of Īmān as being “terrorisers and takfiris”, this is similar to the homosexuals belittling Prophet Nūh (عليه السلام) for upholding purity.

So we will remain firm by the permission of Allāh on holding tightly onto the purity of Tawhīd and making takfīr upon the mushrikīn, even if the misguided fussāq among the murji'ah hate it.

And as Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرهم) mentioned in a clip entitled, “heart-softeners within minutes”, that forbidding munkar is considered a communal obligation, and the more courageous you are in standing in the face of evil, the more trials you will go through, so expect the resistance to come your way, but don't let that waver you at all. Be wise, have patience and condemn all forms of munkar with knowledge!

28 June 2018 11:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Tajwīd | Maryam vs Fir'awn!

See the letter ر, if it is sākin (has a sukūn on it), to determine whether it's pronounced heavy or light, we look at the previous vowel. If it's damma and fatha, it would be heavy, but if it's kasrah, it would be light (Unless there's a heavy letter after it then it would be pronounced heavy, such as مرصاد, قرطاس, etc).

For e.g. The big arrogant “Fir'awn” is pronounced with a light ر.

Whereas the gentle noble woman, “Maryam” is pronounced with a heavy ر.

Miracle of the Qur'ān.

28 June 2018 01:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Tajwīd | Maryam vs Fir'awn!

See the letter ر, if it is sākin (has a sukūn on it), to determine whether it's pronounced heavy or light, we look at the previous vowel. If it's damma and fatha, it would be heavy, but if it's kasrah, it would be light (Unless there's a heavy letter after it then it would be pronounced heavy, such as مرصاد, قرطاس, etc).

For e.g. The big arrogant “Fir'awn” is pronounced with a light ر.

Whereas the gentle noble woman, “Maryam” is pronounced with a heavy ر.

Miracle of the Qur'ān.

28 June 2018 01:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Allāhu_Akbar | *Who is worse, the apostate kāfir or the original kāfir?* Are you upon the Millah of Ādam?!

I was pondering over something which really opened my eyes, and perhaps a scholar of the past may have mentioned this, but I haven't come across it, so this is a thought of mine that I would like to share.

Today, I was thinking about the origins of shirk and kufr.

Now, what's astonishing is that I came to learn that Iblīs was the first among the jinn to disbelieve, and I came to learn that the people of Nūh were the first among the humans to disbelieve.

And as we know, both mankind and jinn comprise of believers and disbelievers, but I never thought about this deeply enough which I'll mention soon, as I never thought about apostates jinns before.

Moving on, who were the first people to disbelieve from us humans? It was the people of Nūh (عليه السلام).

And what do we know about the people of Nūh...?? They were the first people to commit shirk on the face of this earth!

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says, "Mankind was [of] one religion [before their deviation]; then Allah sent the prophets as bringers of good tidings and warners and sent down with them the Scripture in truth to judge between the people concerning that in which they differed." [2:213].

Imām Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله) writes in his Tafsīr of this Āyah:

"Ibn Jarīr (i.e. at-Tabarī) stated, on the authority of Ibn 'Abbās that he said; Between Ādam and Nūh are 10 centuries, all of them were upon the Sharī'ah from Haqq, then they differed, so Allāh sent the prophets as bringers of good tidings and warners."

Then Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله) stated, "It's also the Qirā'ah of 'Abdullāh — The people were upon the millah of Ādam, until they worshipped statues, so Allāh sent to the Nūh (عليه السلام), so he was the first messenger that Allāh sent to the inhabitants of the Earth."

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (28/603-604):

"That is because the people after Ādam (عليه السلام) and before Nūh (عليه السلام) were upon Tawhīd and Ikhḷās, the same way their father Ādam (عليه السلام), the father of mankind was, until they innovated shirk and worshipping idols, an innovation they came up with on their own...

And most of them (people of Nūh) were blind-followers to their leaders, and turned away from the path of guidance, so Allāh send His prophet Nūh (عليه السلام) to invite them towards worshipping Allāh alone, without ascribing any partners onto Him, and forbidding them from worshipping anything else besides Him, even if they claimed that they only worship them so that they bring them nearer to Allāh in position, while taking them as intermediaries." [End Quote].

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr al-'Asqalānī (رحمه الله) also mentions in "Fath al-Bārī" (8/535):

"It's narrated in Saḥīh al-Bukhārī on the authority of Ibn 'Abbās that he said:

All the idols which were worshiped by the people of Noah were worshiped by the Arabs later on — The names (of the idols) formerly belonged to some pious men of the people of Nūh, and when they died shayṭān inspired their people to prepare and place idols at the places where they used to sit, and to call those idols by their names. The people did so, but the idols were not worshiped till those people (who initiated them) had died and knowledge was lost and forgotten, then people began worshipping them." [End Quote].

Allāhu Akbar, ponder over all this and look at how Ibn 'Abbās mentions, "But the idols were not worshiped till those people (who initiated them) had died and knowledge was lost and forgotten, then people began worshipping them."

This shows that they fell into shirk out of pure ignorance, even without a messenger, yet despite that they were not excused due to ignorance. And as Ibn Taymiyyah mentioned, "And most of them (people of Nūh) were blind-followers to their leaders". Yet that was not a valid excuse for them, as many like to claim, "being deceived by leaders is an excuse!".

Infact, they were ALL upon Tawhīd for 10 generations as it's mentioned, so they are considered apostates! So let no one come along and say "The one who ascribes himself to Islām is excused due to ignorance for committing shirk, unlike the original kāfir", these people were ascribed to Tawhīd for 10 centuries! What more "ascribing" to Tawhīd do you want than this? Between Ādam and Nūh, 10 centuries of Tawhīd!

Then when these people committed shirk when knowledge was "LOST and FORGOTTEN", Allāh sent Nūh to them, and despite Nūh preaching for hundreds of years, only 85 of his people accepted his message.

Imām Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله) mentions in his Tafsīr of Allāh's words, "And said, 'Never leave your gods and never leave Wadd or Suwa' or Yaghuth and Ya'uq and Nasr.'" [71:23].

"Ibn Jarir recorded from Muhammad bin Qays that he said concerning Yaghuth, Ya'uq and Nasr, "They were righteous people between the time of Adam and Nuh, and they had followers who used to adhere to their guidance. Then, when they died, their companions who used to follow them said, "If we make images of them, it will increase our desire to perform worship when we remember them.”

So they made images of them. Then, when those people died and other people came after them, Iblis approached them and said, “They (your predecessors) used to worship these statues and they were granted rain by their worship of them.” Thus, they (the latter people) worshipped them.”” [End Quote].

Subhān’Allāh, we also come to learn that the first mushrikin who apostated from Islām came up with ta’wīlāt (misinterpretations), as they said: “If we make images of them, it will increase our desire to perform worship when we remember them.”

Subhān’Allāh, I swear by Allāh that if a mushrik apostate who ascribes himself to Islām today was to come up with this excuse, those murji’ah who go into exaggeration in giving excuses for ignorance and ta’wīl would excuse them, wallāhul-musta’ān!

Returning back to the krust of the topic, the reason I mentioned I never thought about apostate jinns before, is due to it being something that never crossed my mind.

But now I have certainty that Iblīs among the jinn was a muwahhid who worshipped Allāh among the angels in heaven. This means that Iblīs is an apostate, because he disbelieved after having Īmān!

Therefore, we come to learn that the FIRST among the JINN to commit SHIRK was an APOSTATE (i.e. Iblīs who was created before humans), not an ORIGINAL DISBELIEVER!

And we also come to learn that the FIRST among the INS (humans) to commit SHIRK was an APOSTATE (from the people of Nūh), not an ORIGINAL DISBELIEVER!

Subhān’Allāh al-’Athīm, the first to DISBELIEVE in Allāh in the Heavens and the Earth was a kāfir murtad, yet when you make takfir upon kuffār murtaddīn in this day and age, it’s as if the heaven and earth, along with the THRONE of Allāh SHAKES!!!

To wrap it up, the apostate kāfir is worse than the original kāfir according to consensus, and he’s even more harmful due to being an internal enemy. The original kāfir may live under Islamic rule, unlike the apostate!

27 June 2018 23:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Allāhu_Akbar | *Who is worse, the apostate kāfir or the original kāfir?* Are you upon the Millah of Ādam?!

I was pondering over something which really opened my eyes, and perhaps a scholar of the past may have mentioned this, but I haven’t come across it, so this is a thought of mine that I would like to share.

Today, I was thinking about the origins of shirk and kufr.

Now, what’s astonishing is that I came to learn that Iblīs was the first among the jinn to disbelieve, and I came to learn that the people of Nūh were the first among the humans to disbelieve.

And as we know, both mankind and jinn comprise of believers and disbelievers, but I never thought about this deeply enough which I’ll mention soon, as I never thought about apostates jinns before.

Moving on, who were the first people to disbelieve from us humans? It was the people of Nūh (عليه السلام).

And what do we know about the people of Nūh...?? They were the first people to commit shirk on the face of this earth!

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says, “Mankind was [of] one religion [before their deviation]; then Allah sent the prophets as bringers of good tidings and warners and sent down with them the Scripture in truth to judge between the people concerning that in which they differed.” [2:213].

Imām Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله) writes in his Tafsīr of this Āyah:

“Ibn Jarīr (i.e. at-Tabarī) stated, on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās that he said; Between Ādam and Nūh are 10 centuries, all of them were upon the Sharī’ah from Haqq, then they differed, so Allāh sent the prophets as bringers of good tidings and warners.”

Then Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله) stated, “It’s also the Qirā’ah of ‘Abdullāh — The people were upon the millah of Ādam, until they worshipped statues, so Allāh sent to the Nūh (عليه السلام), so he was the first messenger that Allāh sent to the inhabitants of the Earth.”

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/603-604):

“That is because the people after Ādam (عليه السلام) and before Nūh (عليه السلام) were upon Tawhīd and Ikhlās, the same way their father Ādam (عليه السلام), the father of mankind was, until they innovated shirk and worshipping idols, an innovation they came up with on their own...

And most of them (people of Nūh) were blind-followers to their leaders, and turned away from the path of guidance, so Allāh send His prophet Nūh (عليه السلام) to invite them towards worshipping Allāh alone, without ascribing any partners onto Him, and forbidding them from worshipping anything else besides Him, even if they claimed that they only worship them so that they bring them nearer to Allāh in position, while taking them as intermediaries.” [End Quote].

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr al-‘Asqalānī (رحمه الله) also mentions in “Fath al-Bārī” (8/535):

“It’s narrated in Sahīh al-Bukhārī on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās that he said:

All the idols which were worshiped by the people of Noah were worshiped by the Arabs later on — The names (of the idols) formerly belonged to some pious men of the people of Nūh, and when they died shaytān inspired their people to prepare and place idols at the places where they used to sit, and to call those idols by their names. The people did so, but the idols were not worshiped till those people (who initiated them) had died and knowledge was lost and forgotten, then people began worshipping them.” [End Quote].

Allāhu Akbar, ponder over all this and look at how Ibn ‘Abbās mentions, “But the idols were not worshiped till those people (who initiated them) had died and knowledge was lost and forgotten, then people began worshipping them.”

This shows that they fell into shirk out of pure ignorance, even without a messenger, yet despite that they were not excused due to ignorance. And as Ibn Taymiyyah mentioned, “And most of them (people of Nūh) were blind-followers to their leaders”. Yet that was not a valid excuse for them, as many like to claim, “being deceived by leaders is an excuse!”.

Infact, they were ALL upon Tawhīd for 10 generations as it’s mentioned, so they are considered apostates! So let no one come along and say “The one who ascribes himself to Islām is excused due to ignorance for committing shirk, unlike the original kāfir”, these people were ascribed to Tawhīd for 10 centuries! What more “ascribing” to Tawhīd do you want than this? Between Ādam and Nūh, 10 centuries of Tawhīd!

Then when these people committed shirk when knowledge was “LOST and FORGOTTEN”, Allāh sent Nūh to them, and despite Nūh preaching for hundreds of years, only 85 of his people accepted his message.

Imām Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله) mentions in his Tafsīr of Allāh’s words, “And said, 'Never leave your gods and never leave Wadd or Suwa' or Yaghuth and Ya'uq and Nasr.” [71:23].

“Ibn Jarir recorded from Muhammad bin Qays that he said concerning Yaghuth, Ya`uq and Nasr, “They were righteous people between the time of Adam and Nuh, and they had followers who used to adhere to their guidance. Then, when they died, their companions who used to follow them said, “If we make images of them, it will increase our desire to perform worship when we remember them.”

So they made images of them. Then, when those people died and other people came after them, Iblis approached them and said, “They (your predecessors) used to worship these statues and they were granted rain by their worship of them.” Thus, they (the latter people) worshipped them.”” [End Quote].

Subhān’Allāh, we also come to learn that the first mushrikīn who apostated from Islām came up with ta’wīlāt (misinterpretations), as they said: “If we make images of them, it will increase our desire to perform worship when we remember them.”

Subhān’Allāh, I swear by Allāh that if a mushrik apostate who ascribes himself to Islām today was to come up with this excuse, those murji’ah who go into exaggeration in giving excuses for ignorance and ta’wīl would excuse them, wallāhul-musta’ān!

Returning back to the krust of the topic, the reason I mentioned I never thought about apostate jinns before, is due to it being something that never crossed my mind.

But now I have certainty that Iblīs among the jinn was a muwahhid who worshipped Allāh among the angels in heaven. This means that Iblīs is an apostate, because he disbelieved after having Īmān!

Therefore, we come to learn that the FIRST among the JINN to commit SHIRK was an APOSTATE (i.e. Iblīs who was created before humans), not an ORIGINAL DISBELIEVER!

And we also come to learn that the FIRST among the INS (humans) to commit SHIRK was an APOSTATE (from the people of Nūh), not an ORIGINAL DISBELIEVER!

Subhān’Allāh al-‘Athīm, the first to DISBELIEVE in Allāh in the Heavens and the Earth was a kāfir murtad, yet when you make takfir upon kuffār murtaddīn in this day and age, it’s as if the heaven and earth, along with the THRONE of Allāh SHAKES!!!

To wrap it up, the apostate kāfir is worse than the original kāfir according to consensus, and he’s even more harmful due to being an internal enemy. The original kāfir may live under Islamic rule, unlike the apostate!

27 June 2018 23:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shirkī path network being pleased with making tahākum to the Tāghūt take the same hukm as the one who makes tahākum, i.e. the ex-Muftī democratic interfaith promoting mushrik and his wicked ally of the Shaytān, shirk Shādy.

And over a defamation case?! Allāh mentions in numerous Āyāt about the harm the kuffār would cause the believers, along with the names our beloved Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) was called, yet the scholars have unanimously agreed that being defamed is not a concession to commit kufr, infact you can't even commit harām due to that!

May Allāh punish the mushrikīn and bring the muslims back to their Tawhīd.

27 June 2018 16:02

Radwan Dakkak shared OnePath Network's video.

Shirkī path network being pleased with making tahākum to the Tāghūt take the same hukm as the one who makes tahākum, i.e. the ex-Muftī democratic interfaith promoting mushrik and his wicked ally of the Shaytān, shirk Shādy.

And over a defamation case?! Allāh mentions in numerous Āyāt about the harm the kuffār would cause the believers, along with the names our beloved Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) was called, yet the scholars have unanimously agreed that being defamed is not a concession to commit kufr, infact you can't even commit harām due to that!

May Allāh punish the mushrikīn and bring the muslims back to their Tawhīd.

27 June 2018 15:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Beautiful.

27 June 2018 15:06

Radwan Dakkak shared SifatuSafwa.com (librairie musulmane)'s post.

Beautiful.

27 June 2018 15:05

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

27 June 2018 14:54

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

_____

Jeff Robertson Brother did you inbox the person before posting this? I can not see it
27 June 2018 16:30

Abu Marwan Get off the coke
27 June 2018 20:04

Jeff Robertson Petrol is expensive brother coke isnt
27 June 2018 20:13

Abu Marwan I like fanta
27 June 2018 20:14

Jeff Robertson Now that's just lit innit
27 June 2018 20:17

Abu Marwan Go on what's app
27 June 2018 20:17

Abu Marwan NOW
27 June 2018 20:17

Jeff Robertson Phone dead using work phone innit
27 June 2018 20:24

Abu Marwan Jeff Robertson ok invest in a charger lil ted

27 June 2018 20:27

Jeff Robertson I got a cable for $30 got ripped innit

27 June 2018 20:33

27 June 2018 14:54

Radwan Dakkak shared AbuAmaan Haqq's post.

27 June 2018 11:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

27 June 2018 11:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

:says about takfīr (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn Taymiyyah

At times it's perceived to be certain, sometimes it's perceived to be highly assumed, and at other" times hesitation occurs in it, and whenever there's hesitation, refraining from takfīr is given precedence, while rushing into takfīr only occurs within the habitual nature of those whom are ".overcome by ignorance stated, if you're (فك الله أسره) and Sh. 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) Likewise, Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd unsure about a particular instance, then refraining from takfīr is given precedence, as there's .nothing like keeping safe

27 June 2018 10:02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

:says about takfīr (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn Taymiyyah

At times it's perceived to be certain, sometimes it's perceived to be highly assumed, and at other" times hesitation occurs in it, and whenever there's hesitation, refraining from takfīr is given precedence, while rushing into takfīr only occurs within the habitual nature of those whom are ".overcome by ignorance stated, if you're (فك الله أسره) and Sh. 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) Likewise, Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd unsure about a particular instance, then refraining from takfīr is given precedence, as there's .nothing like keeping safe

27 June 2018 10:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://youtu.be/CQyMq34s93E>

The best legend of Tajwīd, Shaykh al-Hosary. May Allāh have wide and immense mercy upon him!

He truly makes you appreciate the beauty of علم التجويد (the science of Tajwīd).

<https://youtu.be/CQyMq34s93E>

26 June 2018 21:36

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://youtu.be/CQyMq34s93E>

<https://youtu.be/CQyMq34s93E>

The best legend of Tajwīd, Shaykh al-Hosary. May Allāh have wide and immense mercy upon him!

He truly makes you appreciate the beauty of علم التجويد (the science of Tajwīd).

26 June 2018 21:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Been so long since I've listened to it, subhān'Allāh...

26 June 2018 18:08

Radwan Dakkak shared Al-risālah's video.

Been so long since I've listened to it, subhān'Allāh ☺

26 June 2018 18:07

Radwan Dakkak shared Khoder Soueid's post.

Ahsant.

26 June 2018 18:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Ahsant.

26 June 2018 18:00

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

محمد ابو سفيان Al erDOGanchyah be like.

26 June 2018 10:08

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Rokaya Fay Why do Muslims speak against one another publicly? Subhanallah even though you may be right but humiliating this brother isn't the best way to go about sharing your knowledge or opinion.

26 June 2018 11:48

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Umm Abdur-Raḥmān Ḥassan Khalīf Allaah warns every Muslim against speaking without knowledge, as He says (interpretation of the meaning): “And follow not (O man, i.e., say not, or do not, or witness not) that of which you have no knowledge. Verily, the hearing, and the sight, and the heart of each of those ones will be questioned (by Allāh)” [al-Israa’ 17:36]

26 June 2018 18:38

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Egemen Aksoylu You should read about the life of abdulqadir al-jaziri brother and then criticise someone waging war against muslims

27 June 2018 07:05

Belal Assaad has negated his Tawhīd — Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Hamad al-Humaydī (تقيله الله) called the Tawāghīt kuffār for praising the democratic shirkī elections in 'Irāq.

How can he praise and congratulate others for committing shirk and using a method of shaytān by electing a Tāghūt who calls for secularism and rules by man-made laws.

This is different to someone who is simply pleased with Erdogan remaining power over other hardcore secularists, while making barā'ah from the system of democracy.

Yes, it's true that Erdogān helped bring back the athān and hijāb, but this doesn't mean anything with his explicit nullifiers of Islām.

When the crusaders occupied Andalus, being a muslim was a crime, let alone having the hijāb banned. However, nowadays there are muslims living in occupied Andalus with more rights. Does this mean we're pleased with the Tawāghīt? Ofcourse not.

Likewise with Erdogān, so don't be fooled by this talk about “he's making the country more Islamic”, while he wages war with his allies against Islām and its people.

As for further details regarding the ruling on voting, I will be publishing a beneficial clarification tomorrow and a detailed summary on how to deal with each situation accordingly when it comes to applying rulings.

And Allāh knows best.

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Arshad Khan Can you please clarify if congratulating him on his win is always kufr? Like don't we need to see if the person was ignorant about his ruling system or had some misunderstanding?

26 June 2018 02:54

ابراهيم نايل Pls make a call to iblees and check if he is jaahil about the kufuru he made.pls varify it before making takfir on iblees.thanks in advance

26 June 2018 03:34

Abū Ubayd Al Qāsim Is this person in the same boat as feiz muhammad?

26 June 2018 03:57

Deniz Topal Chill akhi

26 June 2018 04:50

Abu Taymullah Kaaaafir

26 June 2018 05:40

Jeff Robertson ask them not here.

26 June 2018 07:19

Jeff Robertson humble mistake? spelling ErDOGan incorrectly as well innit

26 June 2018 07:20

Muhammad Deen Scholars don't get the excuse of ignorance like a layperson would

26 June 2018 07:26

Radwan Dakkak Feiz Muhammad is against voting.

26 June 2018 08:26

Jeff Robertson amazing how people support this man. they forget his relations with israel, his hosting of kufr soldiers, his dealings with russia, his backing of murtad forces in syria.

26 June 2018 08:50

Jeff Robertson no words needed for this innit

26 June 2018 09:04

Abū Ubayd Al Qāsim Jeff Robertson i can not ask them i do not live there.

26 June 2018 09:56

Jeff Robertson ok khair brother.

26 June 2018 09:58

محمد ابو سفيان Did you miss another key word he wrote..? “Our Beloved”.

26 June 2018 10:06

Arshad Khan ابراهيم نايل Perhaps you could have made your comment useful like brother Muhammad Deen. You made stupid comment just to get likes and to make fun of mine. Those who gave you likes and laughs are idiots lie you. My comment was a genuine question that was not defending anyone but was merely trying to clarify the doubt.

26 June 2018 16:44

Arshad Khan Muhammad Deen Jazak Allah khair brother.

26 June 2018 16:45

Abu Marwan I use to like him 😊😊

26 June 2018 18:04

Jeff Robertson i like some of his speeches 😊

26 June 2018 18:06

Abu Marwan Did u offer him coke

26 June 2018 18:07

Jeff Robertson no

26 June 2018 18:09

Abu Marwan That's your problem

26 June 2018 18:23

Jeff Robertson why can't u like him now?

26 June 2018 19:26

Afzal Guman Its keeps amazing me that these so called 'ulema' who have more knowledge than most of us are yet traitors and pomote shirk while many laymen people who just have

- basic knowledge understand that Erdogan is taghut...no wonder why we are still being humiliated while we have so many ulema...its like going to the doctor for a cure but you keep getting sick you wont get better...you shoul start realize that the doctor is a sellout and wants to keep you sick so you keep buy medicines...same with ulema we have so many of them yet the ummah is still being humiliated everyday this meana that most ulema are traitors and hidd the solution and they follow shaytan while a small group of ulema are on haqq.
- 26 June 2018 23:40
- Amjad Ali Khan another one bites the dust in terms of aqeedah...what a great man he was...i used to listen to his lectures...almost like Anwar Awlaki...but he has made a great mistake...may Allah help this ummah very soon..
- 27 June 2018 02:55
- ابراهيم نايل Arshad Khan Good one brother..I never meant to hurt you . Forgive me akhi if you think so.
- 27 June 2018 03:26
- Jeff Robertson grt analogy brother!
- 28 June 2018 08:54
- Jeff Robertson ignorance > demand > popularity > $ :)
- 28 June 2018 08:55

Belal Assaad has negated his Tawhīd — Shaykh al-ʿAllāmah Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله) called the Tawāghīt kuffār for praising the democratic shirkī elections in 'Irāq.

How can he praise and congratulate others for committing shirk and using a method of shaytān by electing a Tāghūt who calls for secularism and rules by man-made laws.

This is different to someone who is simply pleased with Erdogan remaining power over other hardcore secularists, while making barā'ah from the system of democracy.

Yes, it's true that Erdogān helped bring back the athān and hijāb, but this doesn't mean anything with his explicit nullifiers of Islām.

When the crusaders occupied Andalus, being a muslim was a crime, let alone having the hijāb banned. However, nowadays there are muslims living in occupied Andalus with more rights. Does this mean we're pleased with the Tawāghīt? Ofcourse not.

Likewise with Erdogān, so don't be fooled by this talk about "he's making the country more Islamic", while he wages war with his allies against Islām and its people.

As for further details regarding the ruling on voting, I will be publishing a beneficial clarification tomorrow and a detailed summary on how to deal with each situation accordingly when it comes to applying rulings.

And Allāh knows best.

26 June 2018 02:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

READ THIS!!!

The famous Imam Al-Qarafi Al-Maliki (684 AH) stated in his famous encyclopaedia of fiqh, Al-Dhakhīrah:

"How many truths (!) are obscure to jurists and judges in numerous matters of fiqh simply because of being ignorant of arithmetic, medicine and engineering. Therefore, it is necessary for those who have high aspirations [for knowledge] not to abandon learning about various sciences as much as possible"

Hmmm.....What do you think he would have said about scholars today regarding technology if he were alive in this Digital Age?

This is why years ago while studying the Islamic Sciences in Cairo, I started to take computer coding and technology seriously as a side study. Cause this is the age.

#DigitalAgeProductivity

Arabic text:

وكم يخفى على الفقهاء والحكام الحق في كثير من المسائل بسبب الجهل بالحساب والطب والهندسة ; فينبغي لذوي الهمم العلية أن لا يتركوا الاطلاع على العلوم ما أمكنهم ذلك

— Shared.

25 June 2018 15:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

READ THIS!!!

The famous Imam Al-Qarafi Al-Maliki (684 AH) stated in his famous encyclopaedia of fiqh, Al-Dhakhīrah:

"How many truths (!) are obscure to jurists and judges in numerous matters of fiqh simply because of being ignorant of arithmetic, medicine and engineering. Therefore, it is necessary for those who have high aspirations [for knowledge] not to abandon learning about various sciences as much as possible"

Hmmm.....What do you think he would have said about scholars today regarding technology if he were alive in this Digital Age?

This is why years ago while studying the Islamic Sciences in Cairo, I started to take computer coding and technology seriously as a side study. Cause this is the age.

#DigitalAgeProductivity

Arabic text:

وكم يخفى على الفقهاء والحكام الحق في كثير من المسائل بسبب الجهل بالحساب والطب والهندسة ;
فينبغي لذوي الهمم العلية أن لا يتركوا الاطلاع على العلوم ما أمكنهم ذلك

— Shared.

25 June 2018 15:35

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Success is growth, everyday. If you go a couple days without feeling like you've changed something, if you've gone a couple days feeling like you're kinda the same as you were yesterday, then you get disgusted and you get frustrated, like a man who hasn't had a meal, you get frustrated, and you desire that growth.

So why haven't I grown today? Why didn't I grow yesterday? What kept me back? Did I go back to some sort of comfortable pattern?

When you're in the gym, don't count your reps, just push until it hurts, and once it hurts, then start counting your reps. That's why when they asked Muhammad 'Alī how many push-ups he does, he said; I don't know...I only start counting when it hurts.

So that's how we grow, that's how we succeed. As we push and push and push and go, and once it starts hurting, once the resistance starts coming, that's when we start counting, that's when we start to matter.

So don't dodge the fear, don't dodge the pain, don't dodge the resistance, don't dodge the attack that is coming against you, look at it with opportunity, look at it as an opportunity to find victory!

Victory is found in the struggle, the struggle is not to be avoided, the struggle is to be confronted, the struggle is to be welcomed with joy, that you finally have an opportunity to show Allāh, and then to show the world that you're ready for this fight.

That you know you got your eyes on the prize, you know what your goal is, you know what your dream is, and you're going to demonstrate to Allāh, and then to the world, that aint no amount of struggle, aint no high of an obstacle, aint no strong army of hate and doubt gonna get in your way from this victory that is destined for your life, for this victory that is destined by you accomplishing your dream, you will accomplish your dream! Because your dream is never going to give up on you, it will stay with you.

So army of doubters, army of haters, army of all those who said I never could, army of that voice inside of me that's tried to kept me down, army of that voice inside of me that's strived to kept me down, all of you will be slain one by one, because victory is mine.

— "Victory is mine".

24 June 2018 08:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Success is growth, everyday. If you go a couple days without feeling like you've changed something, if you've gone a couple days feeling like you're kinda the same as you were yesterday, then you get disgusted and you get frustrated, like a man who hasn't had a meal, you get frustrated, and you desire that growth.

So why haven't I grown today? Why didn't I grow yesterday? What kept me back? Did I go back to some sort of comfortable pattern?

When you're in the gym, don't count your reps, just push until it hurts, and once it hurts, then start counting your reps. That's why when they asked Muhammad 'Alī how many push-ups he does, he said; I don't know...I only start counting when it hurts.

So that's how we grow, that's how we succeed. As we push and push and push and go, and once it starts hurting, once the resistance starts coming, that's when we start counting, that's when we start to matter.

So don't dodge the fear, don't dodge the pain, don't dodge the resistance, don't dodge the attack that is coming against you, look at it with opportunity, look at it as an opportunity to find victory!

Victory is found in the struggle, the struggle is not to be avoided, the struggle is to be confronted, the struggle is to be welcomed with joy, that you finally have an opportunity to show Allāh, and then to show the world that you're ready for this fight.

That you know you got your eyes on the prize, you know what your goal is, you know what your dream is, and you're going to demonstrate to Allāh, and then to the world, that aint no amount of struggle, aint no high of an obstacle, aint no strong army of hate and doubt gonna get in your way from this victory that is destined for your life, for this victory that is destined by you accomplishing your dream, you will accomplish your dream! Because your dream is never going to give up on you, it will stay with you.

So army of doubters, army of haters, army of all those who said I never could, army of that voice inside of me that's tried to kept me down, army of that voice inside of me that's strived to kept me down, all of you will be slain one by one, because victory is mine.

— "Victory is mine".

24 June 2018 08:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

"It was the best Ramadan I have ever had."

- Umm Baraa'

May Allah keep her firm and hasten her release, as well as all the prisoners

23 June 2018 17:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

"It was the best Ramadan I have ever had."

- Umm Baraa'

May Allah keep her firm and hasten her release, as well as all the prisoners

23 June 2018 17:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Exposed | Stay away from this filthy nationalist pakistani army loving kāfir! This fake 'muwahhid' (Abu Muhammad ash-Shami, aka Shahzaib Sattar Arain) who pretends to claim Tawhīd is in reality a fāsiq, thālim, kāfir who abuses and plays around with women and even males like himself.

He has no shame to free-mix in public and boast about his sins, while he dresses up in a thobe.

Don't be fooled by those who claim to love Tawhīd and hate fakes, when they are the biggest fakes themselves. What Tawhīd do you have in going to GAY clubs?!

This low-life dog married 3 muslimah's, made them pregnant, didn't even provide for them and completely abandoned them!!

Let others know, may Allāh punish this dog!

22 June 2018 16:54

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

It's not permissible to call a singer or an immodestly dressed woman who publicly displays her adornments as a "prostitute". Even though this is a light phrase upon the tongues of many, such accusations are to be taken seriously and to be condemned, unless there's clear evidence of that claim, whether by testimony or acknowledgement.

22 June 2018 11:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's not permissible to call a singer or an immodestly dressed woman who publicly displays her adornments as a "prostitute". Even though this is a light phrase upon the tongues of many, such accusations are to be taken seriously and to be condemned, unless there's clear evidence of that claim, whether by testimony or acknowledgement.

22 June 2018 11:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

If there's anything I regret is not spending more time with those wonderful brothers who have been taken away from their families and undergo the harshest of trials. May Allah ease their affairs and purify them.

21 June 2018 13:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

If there's anything I regret is not spending more time with those wonderful brothers who have been taken away from their families and undergo the harshest of trials. May Allah ease their affairs and purify them.

21 June 2018 13:44

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The solution to all our difficulties are found within the words we preach. #Experience

21 June 2018 13:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The solution to all our difficulties are found within the words we preach. #Experience

21 June 2018 13:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

LOL

21 June 2018 10:08

Radwan Dakkak shared Nabeel Nisar Sheikh's post.

LOL

21 June 2018 10:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

*A beautiful verse which negates ignorance being an excuse in major shirk*

Allah says in Surat al-Hujurat, "O you who have believed, do not raise your voices above the voice of the Prophet or be loud to him in speech like the loudness of some of you to others, lest your deeds become nullified while you don't even realise." [49:2].

This wonderful Ayah clearly shows that an individual's deeds may become nullified without even realizing. Meaning, he would become a kafir mushrik, whether he has knowledge or not, whether he displays arrogance to the text or not, whether he blind follows or not.

Imam at-Tabari mentioned in his Tafsir of this Ayah, "Allah's words; "While you don't even realise", He is saying: While you don't have knowledge or even perceive it." [End Quote]

Imam Ibn al-Qayyim stated in "I'laam al-Muwaqqi'een" (1/51):

"So if having them raise their voices above his (i.e. the Prophet's) is a cause for the nullification of their deeds, then imagine giving precedence to their opinions, minds, tastes of their desires, politics and traditions over what he (Rasulullah) has come with and raised them above it, isn't this more deserving of rendering their deeds nullified?!" [End Quote]

Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm also mentions in "Al-Fisal" (3/220):

"This is an explicitly clear text and announcement for the believers that their Imaan (faith) becomes invalidated in totality and their deeds are nullified by raising their voices above the voice of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) without any denial (in opposing Allah's commands) from them doing that whatsoever to begin with, because if they performed it out of denial, "they would have felt and perceive it", and Allah the most High informed us that this occurs "while they don't perceive it", so it's correct to say that the actions which stem from the body has acts which constitute Kufr which invalidate the Imaan of its doer in totality, and it has acts which don't constitute Kufr." [End Quote]

Imam al-Baghawi mentioned in his Tafsir, "Allah's statement, "That your deeds become nullified", i.e. lest your deeds become nullified. And it has been said; In fear of your deeds becoming nullified, "while you don't even realise." [End Quote]

So whether the Ayah means "lest your deeds become nullified" or "in fear of your deeds becoming nullified", the point is that the individual's deeds are being nullified while he does not realise.

Hence, Imam Ibn Kathir stated in his Tafsir upon this verse:

"Allah's statement, "lest your deeds become nullified while you don't even realise", meaning; We only forbid you from raising your voice in his presence out of fear that he would become angry due to that, so that Allah would become angry on His behalf, which would result in Allah nullifying his deeds without even realising, as it's narrated in the Sahih:

"A slave (of Allah) may utter a word which pleases Allah without paying attention to it, and because of that Allah will raise him to degrees (of reward): a slave (of Allah) may utter a word (carelessly) which displeases Allah without paying attention to it, and because of that he will be thrown into the Hell-Fire." [End Quote]

And Imam Ibn Kathir's quote is beautiful because he brought a wonderful authentic hadith as additional proof to support this Ayah, as Rasulullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

"A slave (of Allah) may utter a word (carelessly) which displeases Allah without paying attention to it, and because of that he will be thrown into the Hell-Fire." [Sahih al-Bukhari].

The relevant part of the hadith is "may utter a word (carelessly) which displeases Allah without paying attention to it", so he was thrown in the hell-fire without even perceiving, subhan'Allah.

So this Ayah is a wonderful and clear evidence to show that ignorance and blind-following isn't an excuse in major shirk. Infact, the reason Rasulullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would tell the mushrikeen to unify Allah in worship and "not follow their fore-fathers", is because the general excuse they would use is to blind-follow their forefathers in their shirk, and that was not accepted from them whatsoever, as Al-Hafidh Ibn Hajr al-'Asqalani mentioned in the 1st volume of "Fath al-Baari".

And Allah knows best.

20 June 2018 22:05

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Salik Wani So, Does one have to directly make takfeer or tell the person if you're not going to stop believing/doing this than you're a kafir ?

20 June 2018 22:33

Radwan Dakkak That would return back to wisdom in da'wah. It's not necessary that you directly call him a kafir when giving Da'wah, since if he hears the word "kafir" from you, he may never want to hear another word that leaves your mouth. This is simply referring to what you consolidate in your heart, that you view him as a mushrik and you want the best for him, i.e. Tawhid and to disbelieve in shirk.

20 June 2018 22:43

Salik Wani So one has to believe that this particular person is a kafir even before giving dawah ? Right.

20 June 2018 22:47

Radwan Dakkak Correct 🍌

20 June 2018 22:48

Salik Wani Jazak Allahu khair bro, may Allah bless you and reward you. Allahuma aameen. And also keep expoosing deviant ideologies and people who are stubborn about these deviations, especially those with a large following.

20 June 2018 22:50

Salik Wani Don't let what people say affect you.

20 June 2018 22:51

Radwan Dakkak If the intentions are purely for the truth, free from a personal agenda, then the words of people will have no affect. Ameen wa iyyak for the wise reminder.

20 June 2018 22:53

*A beautiful verse which negates ignorance being an excuse in major shirk*

Allah says in Surat al-Hujurat, "O you who have believed, do not raise your voices above the voice of the Prophet or be loud to him in speech like the loudness of some of you to others, lest your deeds become nullified while you don't even realise." [49:2].

This wonderful Ayah clearly shows that an individual's deeds may become nullified without even realizing. Meaning, he would become a kafir mushrik, whether he has knowledge or not, whether he displays arrogance to the text or not, whether he blind follows or not.

Imam at-Tabari mentioned in his Tafsir of this Ayah, "Allah's words; "While you don't even realise", He is saying: While you don't have knowledge or even perceive it." [End Quote]

Imam Ibn al-Qayyim stated in "I'laam al-Muwaqqi'een" (1/51):

"So if having them raise their voices above his (i.e. the Prophet's) is a cause for the nullification of their deeds, then imagine giving precedence to their opinions, minds, tastes of their desires, politics and traditions over what he (Rasulullah) has come with and raised them above it, isn't this more deserving of rendering their deeds nullified?!" [End Quote]

Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm also mentions in "Al-Fisal" (3/220):

"This is an explicitly clear text and announcement for the believers that their Imaan (faith) becomes invalidated in totality and their deeds are nullified by raising their voices above the voice of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) without any denial (in opposing Allah's commands) from them doing that whatsoever to begin with, because if they performed it out of denial, "they would have felt and perceive it", and Allah the most High informed us that this occurs "while they don't perceive it", so it's correct to say that the actions which stem from the body has acts which constitute Kufr which invalidate the Imaan of its doer in totality, and it has acts which don't constitute Kufr." [End Quote]

Imam al-Baghawi mentioned in his Tafsir, "Allah's statement, "That your deeds become nullified", i.e. lest your deeds become nullified. And it has been said; In fear of your deeds becoming nullified, "while you don't even realise." [End Quote]

So whether the Ayah means "lest your deeds become nullified" or "in fear of your deeds becoming nullified", the point is that the individual's deeds are being nullified while he does not realise.

Hence, Imam Ibn Kathir stated in his Tafsir upon this verse:

"Allah's statement, "lest your deeds become nullified while you don't even realise", meaning; We only forbid you from raising your voice in his presence out of fear that he would become angry due to that, so that Allah would become angry on His behalf, which would result in Allah nullifying his deeds without even realising, as it's narrated in the Sahih:

"A slave (of Allah) may utter a word which pleases Allah without paying attention to it, and because of that Allah will raise him to degrees (of reward): a slave (of Allah) may utter a word (carelessly) which displeases Allah without paying attention to it, and because of that he will be thrown into the Hell-Fire." [End Quote]

And Imam Ibn Kathir's quote is beautiful because he brought a wonderful authentic hadith as additional proof to support this Ayah, as Rasulullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

"A slave (of Allah) may utter a word (carelessly) which displeases Allah without paying attention to it, and because of that he will be thrown into the Hell-Fire." [Sahih al-Bukhari].

The relevant part of the hadith is "may utter a word (carelessly) which displeases Allah without paying attention to it", so he was thrown in the hell-fire without even perceiving, subhan'Allah.

So this Ayah is a wonderful and clear evidence to show that ignorance and blind-following isn't an excuse in major shirk. Infact, the reason Rasulullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would tell the mushrikeen to unify Allah in worship and "not follow their fore-fathers", is because the general excuse they would use is to blind-follow their forefathers in their shirk, and that was not accepted from them whatsoever, as Al-Hafidh Ibn Hajr al-Asqalani mentioned in the 1st volume of "Fath al-Baari".

And Allah knows best.

20 June 2018 22:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

After learning who the truthful scholars are from the misguided ones, don't fall into the trap of talking about the bad ones over and over again.

If there's anything that's really lacking among the vast majority of us, is that we need to preserve our time and place barakah in it by constantly revising the Qur'an and memorising its letters, along with studying Islamic texts, not to socialise.

Instead of constantly mocking deviants, look at how active they are in studying texts and try to excel them while thanking Allah that He has saved you from following their footsteps.

20 June 2018 21:26

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

After learning who the truthful scholars are from the misguided ones, don't fall into the trap of talking about the bad ones over and over again.

If there's anything that's really lacking among the vast majority of us, is that we need to preserve our time and place barakah in it by constantly revising the Qur'an and memorising its letters, along with studying Islamic texts, not to socialise.

Instead of constantly mocking deviants, look at how active they are in studying texts and try to excel them while thanking Allah that He has saved you from following their footsteps.

20 June 2018 21:26

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allah protect the sweet, kind-hearted people and give us more of them.

20 June 2018 19:35

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allah protect the sweet, kind-hearted people and give us more of them.

20 June 2018 19:35

---

Radwan Dakkak shared MATW Project's video.

May Allah have mercy upon Ali Banat and reward him for the ongoing Sadaqah. Such a wonderful sight to see them enjoy Eid.

20 June 2018 17:23

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allah have mercy upon Ali Banat and reward him for the ongoing Sadaqah. Such a wonderful sight to see them enjoy Eid.

20 June 2018 17:23

---

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.gofundme.com/donation4razfamily>
<https://www.gofundme.com/donation4razfamily>

Assalamu Alaykum Warahmatullāhi Wabarakatuhu..

We have opened up a fund page for our brother Abu Misk to help him and his family with the fees that will come to be (court etc) we haven't mentioned anything about it on gofundme in hopes to keep it up so it wont get shut down, Bi'ithnillah. Please, when giving in a donation, keep the comments about court away and make it for the family InshaAllah. The story in the description is nothing but the truth and the family are not able to afford what is coming up. For the sake of Allah my brothers, give what you can.

May Allah make jahannam haram for you and plant you a seed in Jannah for every cent donated. BarakAllahu Fikum ya ikhwah, share this around InshāAllah!

20 June 2018 17:06

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

When was Kitab at-Tawhid authored?

Shaykh ‘Abdul-Latif Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahman Ibn Hassan Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhab in “Majmu’at ar-Rasa’i” mentioned in the seerah of Imam Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhab, that he authored Kitab at-Tawhid after his father passed away in “Huraymala” 1153H.

However, Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahman Ibn Hassan stated "He authored Kitab at-Tawhid in al-Basrah, wherein its virtue by authoring it was testified by the close ones and those from afar, he compiled it using the books which were in the schools of Basrah from the books of hadith..."

To reconcile between both opinions, many scholars stated that this shows that he started compiling the book in Basrah, and then it states in his Seerah, he came back to Huraymala’ where he eventually finalized it, revised it, edited it and published it in Najd.

So he began authoring Kitab at-Tawhid in Basrah, but finalized it in Huraymala’ and published it there as Imam ‘Abdul-Latif stated.

In any case, what’s most important is to understand that this book brought a lot of people during his time back to Tawhid and abandoning Shirk and innovations. May Allah enable us to continue studying and revising the books of Tawhid and clarifying its details to the masses.

20 June 2018 14:52

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When was Kitab at-Tawhid authored?

Shaykh ‘Abdul-Latif Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahman Ibn Hassan Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhab in “Majmu’at ar-Rasa’i” mentioned in the seerah of Imam Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhab, that he authored Kitab at-Tawhid after his father passed away in “Huraymala” 1153H.

However, Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahman Ibn Hassan stated "He authored Kitab at-Tawhid in al-Basrah, wherein its virtue by authoring it was testified by the close ones and those from afar, he compiled it using the books which were in the schools of Basrah from the books of hadith..."

To reconcile between both opinions, many scholars stated that this shows that he started compiling the book in Basrah, and then it states in his Seerah, he came back to Huraymala’ where he eventually finalized it, revised it, edited it and published it in Najd.

So he began authoring Kitab at-Tawhid in Basrah, but finalized it in Huraymala’ and published it there as Imam ‘Abdul-Latif stated.

In any case, what’s most important is to understand that this book brought a lot of people during his time back to Tawhid and abandoning Shirk and innovations. May Allah enable us to continue studying and revising the books of Tawhid and clarifying its details to the masses.

20 June 2018 14:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"The first thing you will be asked about on judgement day is your Salah".

Despite the importance of this, I think most preachers have forgotten that you need to be a muwahhid in order to be asked about your Salah.

Imagine studying the branches of your religion (i.e. Fiqh), but you don't know Tawhid. Do you think your branches will suffice you without a firm root?

So whoever doesn't stress on studying Tawhid is in reality only deceiving himself, and all the minor Fiqh matters will not help him. Yes, ensure your Salah is upright, but don't forget your Tawhid.

19 June 2018 23:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"The first thing you will be asked about on judgement day is your Salah".

Despite the importance of this, I think most preachers have forgotten that you need to be a muwahhid in order to be asked about your Salah.

Imagine studying the branches of your religion (i.e. Fiqh), but you don't know Tawhid. Do you think your branches will suffice you without a firm root?

So whoever doesn't stress on studying Tawhid is in reality only deceiving himself, and all the minor Fiqh matters will not help him. Yes, ensure your Salah is upright, but don't forget your Tawhid.

19 June 2018 23:08

Ahmad Ibn Abdur-Raheem Unfollowed, subhānAllah I never caught on to that post
19 June 2018 22:38

Jay Jerico .
20 June 2018 03:09

Ibrahim Yahya Aqhi I think there is some misunderstanding.... The sheikh in not a murji'ah for sure....
20 June 2018 05:46

Ibrahim Yahya Aqhi... The sheikh say you never reached to correct him if he made a mistake...
20 June 2018 05:48

ابو عمر الانصاري By Allah I advice us all never to take quick actions on any issue get to understand well and clarify before you take action. Sheikh Suleiman anwar try as much as he can. Allah knows best Salam
20 June 2018 07:40

Samantha Yasmin I, personally encountered his irja' when I asked him regarding voting wallahi wallahi he gave me fatawa saying: if you fear that you will be imprisoned, or be taking your wealth, or fearing to lose one of your family members then know that you are allowed to vote. Like subhanAllaah thus, doesnt even go under coercion... when I asked him to clarify it as I cannot believe, he then told me you asked me and I gave you answers so do not question me. When I told him that it wasnt ikrah etc he told me he doesnt take knowledge from laymen and called me ignorant. SubhanAllaah the next thing was he blocked me. Is this part of shuroot of being 'alim? How arrogant of him
20 June 2018 08:09

Ibrahim Musone I do not possess much knowledge but I have been fortunate enough to have lived for many years in very close proximity to some of the most knowledgeable people of this Ummah and the most devoted to Allah, and I am not talking about Sheikh Abu Qatada, Sheikh Khalid al Fawaz, Sheikh Adel Abdul Bari, Sheikh Abu Hamza, and so forth, so I know a thing or two about people of knowledge. Radwan Dakkak is a charlatan! He says, and I quote, "However, to give my opinion on Suleiman Anwar, and I'm not specifying him in specific," 🙄 if that is not specification please tell what is specification! 🙄 Furthermore, the English is really very poor, and I would be ashamed if I wrote that badly in any of the languages I speak. However, let us move on Again, I quote," I'm not the type of person who likes to search for faults..." 🙄🙄🙄 so it obviously happened to just fall on his lap, poor thing But that's not all, and I quote: "NOTE: Allah will definitely ask you about making takfeer upon the kufar." to which we have only one thing to say, please produce your evidence from the Qur'an or Sunnah or ijma, short of which we will accept a public retraction. Another quote, "I remember causing a lot of controversy when I warned brothers and sisters from taking from Suleiman Anwar, hence I even deleted my post to avoid Fitnah as the matter wasn't clear to many." but now he changes his mind and wholeheartedly seeks to create as much fitnah as possible by abusing his elder in Islam and his superior in knowledge! Forgive me brother for thinking that there is nothing you love more than fitnah At last, since, as you state yourself that you are most devoted to Tawhid and Manhaj, could you please name your scholars "Whether you like my words or not, that doesn't concern me." Forgive me for using your own words Radwan
20 June 2018 09:05

Jeff Robertson Brother this is getting personal as the person you stated has responded.
20 June 2018 09:22

Jeff Robertson who did u ask Samantha?
20 June 2018 09:27

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas .
20 June 2018 09:51

Ilyas Mansur The guy practically made indirect takfir upon you
20 June 2018 09:52

Jeff Robertson seen my response to him?
20 June 2018 09:52

Ilyas Mansur Nope
20 June 2018 09:54

Jeff Robertson 😊
20 June 2018 09:57

Radwan Dakkak Brothers, there's a much bigger problem than this post of his. It's an overall framework which has been observed from him, and that he's in reality a blind-follower without firm knowledge. The last thing I want to hear is "Why are you confusing the muslims". I've made myself clear that he is not a person to be taking knowledge from, and whoever does so will have inconsistencies and end up making emotional takfeer and misapplying verses to suit his whims, etc. It has reached an extent where there's no need to private message, and if anything I should have left my post from last year up.

20 June 2018 10:16

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas its not worthy replying keep doing good works in sha Allah.May ALLAH keep up steadfast upon the straight path ameen
20 June 2018 10:20

Ibrahim Musone You are so arrogant and ill mannered that I feel sorry for you and thank Allah you are in no way related to me. I have never seen even a kafir of your age use such terms regard another kafir who could be his grandfather. Shame on you!
20 June 2018 10:21

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas Know The real people of knowledge are not arrogant in their speech and response to their critics .
20 June 2018 10:24

Jeff Robertson real scholars dnt speak without knowledge. some think they know where intelligence officers work. some are hypocrites by their speech.
20 June 2018 10:30

Ibrahim Musone Judy Blume, where did say that he is a kafir?
20 June 2018 10:33

Ibrahim Musone Mind you, I do hate him for the sake of Allah though
20 June 2018 10:34

Radwan Dakkak He's simply saying I have the worst manners in addressing my elders. Khayr, I've had my say and clarified that suleiman anwar has no authority in speaking about matters of manhaj, despite his age and experience in other matters.
20 June 2018 10:36

Ibrahim Musone It is English Judy Blume, I have never even seen a kafir means even a kafir who has manners does not behave like that And don't get this twisted jazakillahu khair, it's not about the Sheikh, even though it would be amply justified that it was about him.
20 June 2018 10:38

Abū Ubayd Al Qāsim Ibrahim Musone are you khalid yasin younger brother? Hahaha
20 June 2018 10:41

Jeff Robertson Ibrahim do you have connections with intelligence officers to know the conditions of brother Radwan? and where does Suleiman Anwar live?
20 June 2018 11:02

Jay Jerico u deleted it @jeff
20 June 2018 12:52

Ilyas Mansur Jay Jerico No, the guy deletes or blocks anyone who disagrees with him in the slightest he done it to me because i quoted Rabi'ah bin Amr radiyAllahu anhu.
20 June 2018 12:54

Jeff Robertson he deleted his own hypocrisy.
20 June 2018 13:12

Jay Jerico Despite my observations of this, i construed that as "oh hes elderly, busy n probably doesn't want to be drawn into a protracted argument." Kindda HusnDhan thing u know. I do this all the while being mindful of post 9/11 pOtential R@NDy $ch01ars/Mu11a Brad1eys around every other corner. We all know Kufaar "initialy" want S00fy Izlam. N after that 85:8 lurking not so deep in their hearts n meanwhile underhandly making us ppl of the ditch. Ps: In no way Im suggesting SSA is from randy dudes. He seems to have his peculiar ways. But ppl of knowledge should b more accomodating n forth coming. May Allah guide n unite us all upon Haqq.
20 June 2018 13:27

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas Ibrahim Musone ,,,,,,Do you condemn all Muslims youths who speak bad against the likes of Salih Al-Fawzan, al sheikh etc. I reckon these so called scholars can be our grandfathers.
20 June 2018 16:29

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas He can be a kid but he speaks the haqq, don't you all see that ? may ALLAH keep him steadfast and increase his knowledge ,ameen. Don't you see the irja' wrote down in the latest posts by ' sheikh Suleyman Anwar ' ? Why do you call other people ' coconuts, madkhalis, moderate Muslims etc' when they speak good about the 'scholars ' like Salih Al Fawzan, rabe' al Madkhali , Ibn baaz etc?
20 June 2018 16:39

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas Telling Muslims youths can't question the things you say because you have more knowledge,certificates, age and spent years studying the deen is not a character of Righteous scholars. How do you tell Muslims can't ask you ,if they haven't memorized juz 'amma, 40 hadiths by An-nawawi?
20 June 2018 16:43

appear to be knowledgeable due to the possible years of study they have undertaken in arabic and fiqh, but in reality they are among the most ignorant people in terms of 'Aqidah and Manhaj.

There are many matters related to Manhaj (especially takfeer) which may become difficult to understand, so instead of exhausting efforts to learn it, ALL OF THEM rather choose to abandon it and then lie upon Allah by claiming you won't be asked about it, except whomever Allah has mercy upon.

NOTE: Allah will definitely ask you about making takfeer upon the kuffar, murtaddin and Tawagheet, however the extremists who believe it's a condition for one's Islam and Kufr bit-Taghut to make takfeer upon every single mushrik are just as bad as the murji'ah who claim Allah won't ask you about making takfeer upon the mushrikeen.

Remember, the path of Ahlus-sunnah is in-between 2 extremes:

1 - The murji'ah took away takfeer from the hands of every muslim, irregardless of the issue (even in the clear cut matters).

2 - The extremists placed takfeer in the hands of everyone, irregardless of the issue (delving into complicated matters without 'ilm).

Whether you like my words or not, that doesn't concern me. What concerns me is the truth and simplifying knowledge for my brothers and sisters, especially in an area that I'm most devoted too, i.e. Tawhid and Manhaj.

19 June 2018 21:51

---

Radwan Dakkak shared Sheikh Suleiman Anwar's post.

---

Matters of MISGUIDANCE - I declare myself free from such misguided words of the murji'ah creed.

I remember causing alot of controversy when I warned brothers and sisters from taking from Suleiman Anwar, hence I even deleted my post to avoid Fitnah as the matter wasn't clear to many.

I'm not the type of person who likes to search for faults, because if I was bothered with that, I would have devoted all my time and efforts to exposing every single deviant I see around.

However, to give my opinion on Suleiman Anwar, and I'm not specifying him in specific, this includes the vast majority of so called shuyukh and students of knowledge around the world. They appear to be knowledgeable due to the possible years of study they have undertaken in arabic and fiqh, but in reality they are among the most ignorant people in terms of 'Aqidah and Manhaj.

There are many matters related to Manhaj (especially takfeer) which may become difficult to understand, so instead of exhausting efforts to learn it, ALL OF THEM rather choose to abandon it and then lie upon Allah by claiming you won't be asked about it, except whomever Allah has mercy upon.

NOTE: Allah will definitely ask you about making takfeer upon the kuffar, murtaddin and Tawagheet, however the extremists who believe it's a condition for one's Islam and Kufr bit-Taghut to make takfeer upon every single mushrik are just as bad as the murji'ah who claim Allah won't ask you about making takfeer upon the mushrikeen.

Remember, the path of Ahlus-sunnah is in-between 2 extremes:

1 - The murji'ah took away takfeer from the hands of every muslim, irregardless of the issue (even in the clear cut matters).

2 - The extremists placed takfeer in the hands of everyone, irregardless of the issue (delving into complicated matters without 'ilm).

Whether you like my words or not, that doesn't concern me. What concerns me is the truth and simplifying knowledge for my brothers and sisters, especially in an area that I'm most devoted too, i.e. Tawhid and Manhaj.

19 June 2018 21:44

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

May Allah accept from him, Ameen.

19 June 2018 16:27

---

Radwan Dakkak shared Light Of Guidance Inc's post.

---

May Allah accept from him, Ameen.

19 June 2018 16:27

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

I love using the example of trials going away the same way clouds in the sky eventually disappear, but subhan'Allah after learning that a cloud weighs around 1.1 million pounds, I just realised how heavy a cloud is! And why is this relevant to trials? Because if the clouds which weigh 1.1 million pounds eventually goes away, then no matter how heavy trials become, they will eventually go away.

19 June 2018 15:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I love using the example of trials going away the same way clouds in the sky eventually disappear, but subhan'Allah after learning that a cloud weighs around 1.1 million pounds, I just realised how heavy a cloud is! And why is this relevant to trials? Because if the clouds which weigh 1.1 million pounds eventually goes away, then no matter how heavy trials become, they will eventually go away.

19 June 2018 15:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shaykh Bishr ibn Fahd al-Bishr said:

إذن هذه العلمانية التي تحكم غير الشريعة؛ فتحل ما حرم الله؛ وتحرم ما أحل الله؛ أقول: يجب الكفر بها؛ فإنها طاغوت ! ويجب بغضها؛ ويجب بغض العلمانيين؛ ويجب بغض أولئك الذين يقومون بهذا الأمر من الطواغيت الظلمة الذين يحكمون المسلمين بغير شريعة الرحمن

"Hence, this is secularism which governs by other than the Shari'ah; So it declares lawful what Allah has forbidden, and it forbids what Allah has declared lawful, I say: It's necessary to disbelieve in it, for indeed it's a Taghut! It's also necessary to hate it, and to hate the secularists, and to hate those who take charge of this command from the oppressive Tawagheet who govern the muslims by other than the Shari'ah of ar-Rahmaan".

19 June 2018 14:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shaykh Bishr ibn Fahd al-Bishr said:

إذن هذه العلمانية التي تحكم غير الشريعة؛ فتحل ما حرم الله؛ وتحرم ما أحل الله؛ أقول: يجب الكفر بها؛ فإنها طاغوت ! ويجب بغضها؛ ويجب بغض العلمانيين؛ ويجب بغض أولئك الذين يقومون بهذا الأمر من الطواغيت الظلمة الذين يحكمون المسلمين بغير شريعة الرحمن

"Hence, this is secularism which governs by other than the Shari'ah; So it declares lawful what Allah has forbidden, and it forbids what Allah has declared lawful, I say: It's necessary to disbelieve in it, for indeed it's a Taghut! It's also necessary to hate it, and to hate the secularists, and to hate those who take charge of this command from the oppressive Tawagheet who govern the muslims by other than the Shari'ah of ar-Rahmaan".

19 June 2018 14:37

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Loloy Molde Allahu akbar!! Permission to share Akhi
19 June 2018 12:32

Radwan Dakkak I shared it myself.
19 June 2018 12:42

Ahmad Ibn Abdur-Raheem SubhānAllah
19 June 2018 14:32

Abu Marwan Subhan Allaah
19 June 2018 17:40

WHAT IS THE WEIGHT OF CLOUDS

ALHAMDULILLAH RABBIL ALAAMEEN.

In Surah Baqarah verse no: 164

Allaah ﷻ is saying people who think about heavens & Earth , how big is star, Sun, Galaxy, alternation of night & day, dropping rain from sky giving Life to Earth after it's death, changing the direction of winds, clouds held between sky & Earth are sure Sign for people of understanding.

SubhanAllah Allaah Azza-Wa-Jal himself giving this people certificate of knowledge, wisdom.

But some people call them insane, crazy, mad. It seems their heart is locked. They cannot see the truth. Heavy clouds ☙ flying over there head they don't even think who is the One controlling this, did you ever ask yourself how heavy is this clouds?

well it's quite shocking that weight of the average cumulus cloud is 1.1 million pounds ,That's the equivalent of 100 elephants.

See you not that Allaah drives the clouds gently, then joins them together, then makes them into a heap of layers, and you see the rain comes forth from between them. And He sends down from the sky hail (like) mountains, (or there are in the heaven mountains of hail from where He sends down hail), and strike therewith whom He will, and averts it from whom He wills. The vivid flash of its (clouds) lightning nearly blinds the sight.
[Tafsir At-Tabari]

(An-Nur 24:43)

Allaah is He Who sends the winds, so they raise clouds, and spread them along the sky as He wills, and then break them into fragments, until you see rain drops come forth from their midst! Then when He has made them fall on whom of His slaves as He will, lo! they rejoice!

(Ar-Rum 30:48)

Allaahu Akbaar
Allaahu Akbaar
Allaahu Akbaar

It's not us that we are insane, it's them after having all this Sign from Ar-rahman how come they disbelief in Allaah Azza-Wa-Jal.

~ Shared.

19 June 2018 12:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ahmed Syed Allahu akbar!

19 June 2018 18:08

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Shaikh Khaled Glory is to ALLAH subhanautalah Allahu Akbar

19 June 2018 18:13

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Judy Blume Subhanallah

19 June 2018 21:47

WHAT IS THE WEIGHT OF CLOUDS

ALHAMDULILLAH RABBIL ALAAMEEN.

In Surah Baqarah verse no: 164

Allaah ☐is saying people who think about heavens & Earth , how big is star, Sun, Galaxy, alternation of night & day, dropping rain from sky giving Life to Earth after it's death, changing the direction of winds, clouds held between sky & Earth are sure Sign for people of understanding.

SubhanAllah Allaah Azza-Wa-Jal himself giving this people certificate of knowledge, wisdom.

But some people call them insane, crazy, mad. It seems their heart is locked. They cannot see the truth. Heavy clouds ☙ flying over there head they don't even think who is the One controlling this, did you ever ask yourself how heavy is this clouds?

well it's quite shocking that weight of the average cumulus cloud is 1.1 million pounds ,That's the equivalent of 100 elephants.

See you not that Allaah drives the clouds gently, then joins them together, then makes them into a heap of layers, and you see the rain comes forth from between them. And He sends down from the sky hail (like) mountains, (or there are in the heaven mountains of hail from where He sends down hail), and strike therewith whom He will, and averts it from whom He wills. The vivid flash of its (clouds) lightning nearly blinds the sight.
[Tafsir At-Tabari]

(An-Nur 24:43)

Allaah is He Who sends the winds, so they raise clouds, and spread them along the sky as He wills, and then break them into fragments, until you see rain drops come forth from their midst! Then when He has made them fall on whom of His slaves as He will, lo! they rejoice!

(Ar-Rum 30:48)

Allaahu Akbaar
Allaahu Akbaar
Allaahu Akbaar

It's not us that we are insane, it's them after having all this Sign from Ar-rahman how come they disbelief in Allaah Azza-Wa-Jal.

~ Shared.

19 June 2018 12:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

صدق الامام ابن القيم

18 June 2018 19:54

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

صدق الامام ابن القيم

18 June 2018 19:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"And when you are greeted with a greeting, greet [in return] with one better than it or [at least] return it [in a like manner]. Indeed, Allah is ever, over all things, an Accountant." [4:86].

Shaykh al-'Alwan mentioned in the explanation of "Sahih al-Bukhari" that this is a command from Allah to return a greeting with the same manner at the very least in return.

So if someone says, asalamu 'alaykum wa rahmatullahi wa barakaatuhu, and you reply "wa 'alaykum asalam", you will be sinful for this and opposing the command of Allah.

You might ask, how can I return a better greeting after "wa barakaatuhu", well you can reply to the full salams, and then say "wa marhaban" for example.

P.S. You should avoid greeting someone with the words "salams", and from my observations in reading the letters by the Imams of Najd, they will begin by giving the full salams in many cases and make du'a to the person they're speaking too, and at the end of the letter, they may write "wa-salaam", so if you write "salaams" at the end of a letter or message, that's fine Insha'Allah.

18 June 2018 19:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"And when you are greeted with a greeting, greet [in return] with one better than it or [at least] return it [in a like manner]. Indeed, Allah is ever, over all things, an Accountant." [4:86].

Shaykh al-'Alwan mentioned in the explanation of "Sahih al-Bukhari" that this is a command from Allah to return a greeting with the same manner at the very least in return.

So if someone says, asalamu 'alaykum wa rahmatullahi wa barakaatuhu, and you reply "wa 'alaykum asalam", you will be sinful for this and opposing the command of Allah.

You might ask, how can I return a better greeting after "wa barakaatuhu", well you can reply to the full salams, and then say "wa marhaban" for example.

P.S. You should avoid greeting someone with the words "salams", and from my observations in reading the letters by the Imams of Najd, they will begin by giving the full salams in many cases and make du'a to the person they're speaking too, and at the end of the letter, they may write "wa-salaam", so if you write "salaams" at the end of a letter or message, that's fine Insha'Allah.

18 June 2018 19:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

:said (رضي الله عنه) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab'

If you see that someone has slipped, correct him, pray for him, and don't help Shaytān against him"
".by insulting him

.[(Tafṣīr Al-Qurtubī (Vol.15, Pg.256]

17 June 2018 22:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

:said (رضي الله عنه) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab'

If you see that someone has slipped, correct him, pray for him, and don't help Shaytān against him"
".by insulting him

.[(Tafṣīr Al-Qurtubī (Vol.15, Pg.256]

17 June 2018 22:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"The teacher who teaches you how the scholars understood the texts is being sincere with you and will benefit you. The one who teaches you his personal understanding of the texts when he hasn't reached high levels of scholarship, is being unfair to you, is thinking too highly of himself, and is lacking in wara' (consciousness of Allah)."

— Shared.

17 June 2018 07:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"The teacher who teaches you how the scholars understood the texts is being sincere with you and will benefit you. The one who teaches you his personal understanding of the texts when he hasn't reached high levels of scholarship, is being unfair to you, is thinking too highly of himself, and is lacking in wara' (consciousness of Allah)."

— Shared.

17 June 2018 07:37

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS's post.

Don't forget your brother and the rest of the muwahideen and muwahidaat in your du'a. اللهم فك قيد
عبدك أبو مسك

16 June 2018 16:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Don't forget your brother and the rest of the muwahideen and muwahidaat in your du'a. اللهم فك قيد
عبدك أبو مسك

16 June 2018 16:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Before anyone speaks in a bad fashion about women in general, let him start with his mother, aunty, sister and daughter. Enough with the generalising and look at yourself before belittling your sisters in the Din. My honourable mother, may Allah preserve her would always tell me to admit my mistakes and stand with the Haqq, even if it's against myself. So when I see generalisations made against the believing women of this Ummah, I cannot accept this whatsoever, so fear Allah.

15 June 2018 21:16

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Before anyone speaks in a bad fashion about women in general, let him start with his mother, aunty, sister and daughter. Enough with the generalising and look at yourself before belittling your sisters in the Din. My honourable mother, may Allah preserve her would always tell me to admit my mistakes and stand with the Haqq, even if it's against myself. So when I see generalisations made against the believing women of this Ummah, I cannot accept this whatsoever, so fear Allah.

15 June 2018 21:15

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Ghirah is a sign of Imaan, the same way Hayaa' is a branch of Imaan. These two qualities go hand-in-hand together subhan'Allah. Having Ghirah is a great quality, but we must also be careful in taking it to extremes by constantly over thinking about it (the same way the Sahabi was angry with the one who said he would refuse the women to pray in the mosque after hearing Rasulullah said not to prevent them from that), and if you make 'constant' du'a to Allah, He will open your heart subhan'Allah. The reason being is because exaggerated protective jealousy causes unrest and negative assumptions about others who you truly know are purely sincere and truthful, and the Sahabiyyat such as the wife of az-Zubayr Ibn al-'Awwam would be very understanding of the Ghirah of their spouses, hence she even refused to ride with the Rasul and decided to carry a huge load back home, and az-Zubayr preferred she would accept the lift by the Rasul (since the scholars mention Rasulullah is given an exception concerning this, as he would give salams to the Sahabiyyat and so forth, unlike the case with young men and women doing so which must be avoided).

Alhamdulillah for the one who opens the hearts, and Allah knows best.

15 June 2018 19:28

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Ghirah is a sign of Imaan, the same way Hayaa' is a branch of Imaan. These two qualities go hand-in-hand together subhan'Allah. Having Ghirah is a great quality, but we must also be careful in taking it to extremes by constantly over thinking about it (the same way the Sahabi was angry with the one who said he would refuse the women to pray in the mosque after hearing Rasulullah said not to prevent them from that), and if you make 'constant' du'a to Allah, He will open your heart subhan'Allah. The reason being is because exaggerated protective jealousy causes unrest and negative assumptions about others who you truly know are purely sincere and truthful, and the Sahabiyyat such as the wife of az-Zubayr Ibn al-'Awwam would be very understanding of the Ghirah of their spouses, hence she even refused to ride with the Rasul and decided to carry a huge load back home, and az-Zubayr preferred she would accept the lift by the Rasul (since the scholars mention Rasulullah is given an exception concerning this, as he would give salams to the Sahabiyyat and so forth, unlike the case with young men and women doing so which must be avoided).

Alhamdulillah for the one who opens the hearts, and Allah knows best.

15 June 2018 19:28

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

May Allah accept all your good intentions, Salah, Siyam, Ruku', - ان شاء الله Tomorrow is Eid Sujud, Du'a and every righteous obligatory and voluntary deed. May Allah allow us to witness !another Ramadan, Ameen

14 June 2018 21:41

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

May Allah accept all your good intentions, Salah, Siyam, Ruku', - ان شاء الله Tomorrow is Eid Sujud, Du'a and every righteous obligatory and voluntary deed. May Allah allow us to witness !another Ramadan, Ameen

14 June 2018 21:41

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

It reached a stage where Imam at-Tabari CURSED those who misquoted him and oppressed him in this DUNYA & AKHIRAH!

The noble Mujahid and 'Alim, Shaykh Abu 'Ali al-Anbari (may Allah accept him) mentions in "Al-Intisaar min Jahalat al-Ansar" (page 12/13):

"So ponder over this O you who misquotes the people with what's contrary to their speech, for indeed by Allah I fear for you a painful day.

And Imam Abu Ja'far at-Tabari wrote a COMPLETE chapter in refuting those who attributed to him what's contrary to what he believes and views in the sight of Allah, so he said:

"Whoever narrates from us anything else contrary to this, or added to us anything else, then he is a slanderous transgressing liar, he is entitled and deserving of the wrath of Allah, and upon him is the ANGER of Allah and His CURSE in both worlds!"

There's no doubt that the general basic principle is to make du'a for them with guidance, except that oppression could cause an individual to come out with some enormous matters.

And it's sufficient for you that you find an Imam who's a Mujaddid (reviver) like Imam at-Tabari (may Allah have mercy upon him) who resorts out of necessity to curse whoever misquote him contrary to what he's said.

And he did not do that except due to the confining oppression and being accused of holding Rafidhi beliefs. His situation is just like Imam al-Bukhari who was accused by some of the fanatic Hanabilah as being a Mu'tazili.

And from the most astonishing of incidents, is that a student of An-Nawawi (May Allah have mercy upon him) would hold a paper with him confirming the validity of his Islam via the Qadhi of the state during his time, in fear of being attacked and being made takfeer upon, wallahul-musta'an"

So those who love to habitually misquote and oppress the scholars of Haqq, especially without giving the scholar the chance to respond, I fear for you a painful punishment on a terrifying day!

3 June 2018 10:18

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It reached a stage where Imam at-Tabari CURSED those who misquoted him and oppressed him in this DUNYA & AKHIRAH!

The noble Mujahid and 'Alim, Shaykh Abu 'Ali al-Anbari (may Allah accept him) mentions in "Al-Intisaar min Jahalat al-Ansar" (page 12/13):

"So ponder over this O you who misquotes the people with what's contrary to their speech, for indeed by Allah I fear for you a painful day.

And Imam Abu Ja'far at-Tabari wrote a COMPLETE chapter in refuting those who attributed to him what's contrary to what he believes and views in the sight of Allah, so he said:

"Whoever narrates from us anything else contrary to this, or added to us anything else, then he is a slanderous transgressing liar, he is entitled and deserving of the wrath of Allah, and upon him is the ANGER of Allah and His CURSE in both worlds!"

There's no doubt that the general basic principle is to make du'a for them with guidance, except that oppression could cause an individual to come out with some enormous matters.

And it's sufficient for you that you find an Imam who's a Mujaddid (reviver) like Imam at-Tabari (may Allah have mercy upon him) who resorts out of necessity to curse whoever misquote him contrary to what he's said.

And he did not do that except due to the confining oppression and being accused of holding Rafidhi beliefs. His situation is just like Imam al-Bukhari who was accused by some of the fanatic Hanabilah as being a Mu'tazili.

And from the most astonishing of incidents, is that a student of An-Nawawi (May Allah have mercy upon him) would hold a paper with him confirming the validity of his Islam via the Qadhi of the state during his time, in fear of being attacked and being made takfeer upon, wallahul-musta'an"

So those who love to habitually misquote and oppress the scholars of Haqq, especially without giving the scholar the chance to respond, I fear for you a painful punishment on a terrifying day!

3 June 2018 10:17

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

#Reverse_Psychology | That moment when the kafir agent gets busted watching our video 😊

Sorry, I just had to share this :) But it's okay, we're nice people, no restrictions on what you watch, as long as it's beneficial so you can learn something =)

2 June 2018 22:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

#Reverse_Psychology | That moment when the kafir agent gets busted watching our video 😊

Sorry, I just had to share this :) But it's okay, we're nice people, no restrictions on what you watch, as long as it's beneficial so you can learn something =)

2 June 2018 22:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Seerah | Don't forget that 'Ali was martyred by the Khaariji evil-doer 'Abdir-Rahman Ibn Muljim while praying Fajr on Jum'ah, 17th of Ramadan, 40 A.H.

I just want to take this opportunity to say, what a great example 2 rightly guided caliphs left behind for the ummah to follow, the two beloved friends and companions, 'Umar and 'Ali were both martyred while praying Fajr in the masjid.

Yes, sharing knowledge is important and a necessity, but don't forget that there's no firm knowledge without memorization (and excelling in this will distinguish you from others). Memorize your daily portion of the Qur'an, Hadith and concise texts (whether in Fiqh or 'Aqidah), and don't forget to spend time in worship, with the condition that you try to enjoy it with concentration.

This is a reminder to myself before anyone else, and I'll consider this my last post till the end of Ramadan Insha'Allah.

Seek #Laylatul_Qadr

1 June 2018 09:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Seerah | Don't forget that 'Ali was martyred by the Khaariji evil-doer 'Abdir-Rahman Ibn Muljim while praying Fajr on Jum'ah, 17th of Ramadan, 40 A.H.

I just want to take this opportunity to say, what a great example 2 rightly guided caliphs left behind for the ummah to follow, the two beloved friends and companions, 'Umar and 'Ali were both martyred while praying Fajr in the masjid.

Yes, sharing knowledge is important and a necessity, but don't forget that there's no firm knowledge without memorization (and excelling in this will distinguish you from others). Memorize your daily portion of the Qur'an, Hadith and concise texts (whether in Fiqh or 'Aqidah), and don't forget to spend time in worship, with the condition that you try to enjoy it with concentration.

This is a reminder to myself before anyone else, and I'll consider this my last post till the end of Ramadan Insha'Allah.

Seek #Laylatul_Qadr

1 June 2018 09:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

A comprehensive lesson on the fiqh of I'tikaaf (1hr 40mins) by Sh. Haytham Sayfaddin - Very beneficial for those intending to spend the last 10 nights of Ramadan in the masjid striving to attain the rewards of Laylatul-Qadr.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VfePFL08C4w&t=74s>

1 June 2018 01:11

Radwan Dakkak shared Haytham Sayfaddīn's post.

---

A comprehensive lesson on the fiqh of I'tikaaf (1hr 40mins) by Sh. Haytham Sayfaddin - Very beneficial for those intending to spend the last 10 nights of Ramadan in the masjid striving to attain the rewards of Laylatul-Qadr.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VfePFL08C4w&t=74s>

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Misconception: Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan has fell into Fisq because he didn't perform Jihad.

Short response: Allahu akbar!!! How can a random person on social media who can't even recite Al-Fatihah properly start slandering the 'Ulama' who have given their lives for this Din!

But as Ibn Taymiyyah said, going into extremes in opposing the opponent can resort to deviation, and I can never be unfair to anyone, so I must acknowledge that Shaykh al-'Alwan didn't fight Jihad physically on a battlefield against the kuffar, but is this only what Jihad is?

What about the hadith of Rasulullah where he said the greatest Jihad is to speak a word of truth infont of a tyrant ruler, and the Jihad of the tongue which caused shaykh al-'Alwan to be imprisoned for almost 2 decades, yet someone who has no knowledge about Islam has the audacity to slander him for not making Jihad?!

He has infact performed one of the greatest forms of Jihad by teaching the correct teachings of Islam, and explaining the books of Tawhid, Tafsir, Hadith, Fiqh, Usul and benefiting the ummah with his amazing knowledge.

The mujahideen themselves honoured him such as Shaykh Usamah and Shaykh Abu Mus'ab, who would share his Fatawah on the ground, and Shaykh al-'Alwan strived to support them with his opinions and wealth.

Unlike those who betrayed the mujahideen, Shaykh al-'Alwan remained firm as a mountain in defending the honour of the Mujahideen and exposing the murtaddin and sahawat.

So what remains is the final type of Jihad which is "physical battles", and before slandering him, why don't we ask ourselves that do you think the Tawagheet would easily allow him to move freely?! They had him under their watch many decades ago due to his outright support for the mujahideen, and his harsh stances against the Tawagheet and clarifying matters related to Hakimiyah.

Let alone the fact that he's a sincere 'Alim, and that's a preventative from Fisq being applied upon him, if we even agree for argument sake he fell into Fisq. Read the following words:

Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm mentions in "al-Fisal" (3/58-59):

"We found them citing as evidence, that 'Ali is the companion with the most Jihad, and striking the kuffar, and hitting (them), and Jihad is the greatest of deeds.

And this is incorrect, because Jihad is divided into 3 types:

1. Calling towards Allah with one's tongue.
2. Jihad at times of war with one's opinion and planning.
3. Jihad with one's hand in striking and hitting (the enemy).

So we found that Jihad via the tongue isn't preceded by anyone after Rasulullah than Abu Bakr and 'Umar.

As for Abu Bakr, then indeed the major Sahabah entered into Islam through his hands, and this is the greatest deed, and 'Ali doesn't have a great share in this.

As for 'Umar, then ever since he became muslim, Islam was honoured and Allah was worshipped in Makkah openly, and he fought the mushrikeen in makkah with his hands, so he hit and was hit until he overcame them, so they abandoned him, hence Allah was worshipped out in the open, and this is from the greatest forms of Jihad.

And these two men (Abu Bakr and 'Umar) were unified in these two Jihad's which no one can come close too, and 'Ali doesn't have a share of this to begin with.

What remains is the second type (of Jihad), which is via one's opinion and consulting, so we saw that it's purely found among Abu Bakr, then 'Umar.

Lastly, what remains is the third type (of Jihad), which is to strike, hit and combat, so we found it to be the lower level of Jihad (from these 3 types) with necessary proof, which is that Rasulullah is no doubt according to every muslim is exclusive to every virtue, and we found his Jihad for the most part in his actions and circumstances to be in the first 2 types, from calling towards Allah and planning and intending (to plot against the enemies).

And the least of his actions was striking and hitting and combat, not due to cowardliness, rather the Prophet was from the most courageous of all people on the face of this Earth, both physically, with strength and the most complete in bravery.

However, he would go for the best, then the next best among the deeds, so he would give it precedence, and pre-occupy himself with it, and he found him on the day of Badr, Abu Bakr wouldn't separate himself from his presence out of selflessness for the worth of Rasulullah in his eyes, preserving his opinion (and advice) during the war, and the pleasure of being in his place.

Also, perhaps 'Umar was associated in doing that as well, and he was singled out in this place besides 'Ali, and besides the rest of the Sahabah except in rare occasions.

Then we observed into this type of Jihad which is striking (the enemy), hitting and combat, so we found that 'Ali wasn't alone in preceding others in it, rather others accompanied him in that, with the participation of pure firmness, such as Talha, Zubayr, Sa'd, and those who were killed in the beginning of Islam, such as Hamzah, 'Ubaydah Ibn al-Harith Ibn al-Muttalib, Mus'ab Ibn 'Umayr, and from the Ansar, Sa'd Ibn Mu'ath, Simak Ibn Kharashah and others.

And we found Abu Bakr and 'Umar participate in that with a good share, even though they didn't have a share (in fighting) like these companions, and that's only due to them being pre-occupied with what's more virtuous from accompanying Rasulullah and a supporting adviser during the time of war, and Rasulullah dispatched Abu Bakr and 'Umar to delegations more than what he sent 'Ali for, as he sent Abu Bakr to Bani Fazara and others, and he sent 'Umar to Bani Fulan, and we don't know of any delegations 'Ali was sent too except to a few fortresses of khaybar and he opened it, even though he sent Abu Bakr and 'Umar before him, but they didn't open it, so the greatest types of Jihad was purely attained by Abu Bakr and 'Umar, and 'Ali has accompanied them with the lower form of Jihad (from these 3 types) with other congregations".

~ End Quote of Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm.

Note: The purpose of Jihad is to raise the word of Allah the highest, so ofcourse this is given precedence, and planning and consulting with the companions is giving precedence due to the obvious reason as well, but all these actions are connected with the physical fighting, and without the physical fighting, the enemies will take over the lands of Islam as it's well-known.

So Jihad is more than simply physically fighting, and this must be taken into consideration, as our 'Ulama' in prison are among the best of Mujahideen who stood by those in the trenches from day 1, giving all their wealth and support with their opinions and advice to the mujahideen, so those who slander must fear Allah and ask themselves what they have done for the Din of Allah!

And Allah knows best.

1 June 2018 00:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Misconception: Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan has fell into Fisq because he didn't perform Jihad.

Short response: Allahu akbar!!! How can a random person on social media who can't even recite Al-Fatihah properly start slandering the 'Ulama' who have given their lives for this Din!

But as Ibn Taymiyyah said, going into extremes in opposing the opponent can resort to deviation, and I can never be unfair to anyone, so I must acknowledge that Shaykh al-'Alwan didn't fight Jihad physically on a battlefield against the kuffar, but is this only what Jihad is?

What about the hadith of Rasulullah where he said the greatest Jihad is to speak a word of truth infont of a tyrant ruler, and the Jihad of the tongue which caused shaykh al-'Alwan to be imprisoned for almost 2 decades, yet someone who has no knowledge about Islam has the audacity to slander him for not making Jihad?!

He has infact performed one of the greatest forms of Jihad by teaching the correct teachings of Islam, and explaining the books of Tawhid, Tafsir, Hadith, Fiqh, Usul and benefiting the ummah with his amazing knowledge.

The mujahideen themselves honoured him such as Shaykh Usamah and Shaykh Abu Mus'ab, who would share his Fatawah on the ground, and Shaykh al-'Alwan strived to support them with his opinions and wealth.

Unlike those who betrayed the mujahideen, Shaykh al-'Alwan remained firm as a mountain in defending the honour of the Mujahideen and exposing the murtaddin and sahawat.

So what remains is the final type of Jihad which is "physical battles", and before slandering him, why don't we ask ourselves that do you think the Tawagheet would easily allow him to move freely?! They had him under their watch many decades ago due to his outright support for the mujahideen, and his harsh stances against the Tawagheet and clarifying matters related to Hakimiyyah.

Let alone the fact that he's a sincere 'Alim, and that's a preventative from Fisq being applied upon him, if we even agree for argument sake he fell into Fisq. Read the following words:

Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm mentions in "al-Fisal" (3/58-59):

"We found them citing as evidence, that 'Ali is the companion with the most Jihad, and striking the kuffar, and hitting (them), and Jihad is the greatest of deeds.

And this is incorrect, because Jihad is divided into 3 types:

1. Calling towards Allah with one's tongue.
2. Jihad at times of war with one's opinion and planning.
3. Jihad with one's hand in striking and hitting (the enemy).

So we found that Jihad via the tongue isn't preceded by anyone after Rasulullah than Abu Bakr and 'Umar.

As for Abu Bakr, then indeed the major Sahabah entered into Islam through his hands, and this is the greatest deed, and 'Ali doesn't have a great share in this.

As for 'Umar, then ever since he became muslim, Islam was honoured and Allah was worshipped in Makkah openly, and he fought the mushrikeen in makkah with his hands, so he hit and was hit until he overcame them, so they abandoned him, hence Allah was worshipped out in the open, and this is from the greatest forms of Jihad.

And these two men (Abu Bakr and 'Umar) were unified in these two Jihad's which no one can come close too, and 'Ali doesn't have a share of this to begin with.

What remains is the second type (of Jihad), which is via one's opinion and consulting, so we saw that it's purely found among Abu Bakr, then 'Umar.

Lastly, what remains is the third type (of Jihad), which is to strike, hit and combat, so we found it to be the lower level of Jihad (from these 3 types) with necessary proof, which is that Rasulullah is no doubt according to every muslim is exclusive to every virtue, and we found his Jihad for the most part in his actions and circumstances to be in the first 2 types, from calling towards Allah and planning and intending (to plot against the enemies).

And the least of his actions was striking and hitting and combat, not due to cowardliness, rather the Prophet was from the most courageous of all people on the face of this Earth, both physically, with strength and the most complete in bravery.

However, he would go for the best, then the next best among the deeds, so he would give it precedence, and pre-occupy himself with it, and he found him on the day of Badr, Abu Bakr wouldn't separate himself from his presence out of selflessness for the worth of Rasulullah in his eyes, preserving his opinion (and advice) during the war, and the pleasure of being in his place.

Also, perhaps 'Umar was associated in doing that as well, and he was singled out in this place besides 'Ali, and besides the rest of the Sahabah except in rare occasions.

Then we observed into this type of Jihad which is striking (the enemy), hitting and combat, so we found that 'Ali wasn't alone in preceding others in it, rather others accompanied him in that, with the participation of pure firmness, such as Talha, Zubayr, Sa'd, and those who were killed in the beginning of Islam, such as Hamzah, 'Ubaydah Ibn al-Harith Ibn al-Muttalib, Mus'ab Ibn 'Umayr, and from the Ansar, Sa'd Ibn Mu'ath, Simak Ibn Kharashah and others.

And we found Abu Bakr and 'Umar participate in that with a good share, even though they didn't have a share (in fighting) like these companions, and that's only due to them being pre-occupied with what's more virtuous from accompanying Rasulullah and a supporting adviser during the time of war, and Rasulullah dispatched Abu Bakr and 'Umar to delegations more than what he sent 'Ali for, as he sent Abu Bakr to Bani Fazara and others, and he sent 'Umar to Bani Fulan, and we don't know of any delegations 'Ali was sent too except to a few fortresses of khaybar and he opened it, even though he sent Abu Bakr and 'Umar before him, but they didn't open it, so the greatest types of Jihad was purely attained by Abu Bakr and 'Umar, and 'Ali has accompanied them with the lower form of Jihad (from these 3 types) with other congregations".

~ End Quote of Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm.

Note: The purpose of Jihad is to raise the word of Allah the highest, so ofcourse this is given precedence, and planning and consulting with the companions is giving precedence due to the obvious reason as well, but all these actions are connected with the physical fighting, and without the physical fighting, the enemies will take over the lands of Islam as it's well-known.

So Jihad is more than simply physically fighting, and this must be taken into consideration, as our 'Ulama' in prison are among the best of Mujahideen who stood by those in the trenches from day 1, giving all their wealth and support with their opinions and advice to the mujahideen, so those who slander must fear Allah and ask themselves what they have done for the Din of Allah!

And Allah knows best.

1 June 2018 00:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Personal | Today is a new day. Allah has given me the biggest sign, and I can't believe I never thought about this! I never realised how much Allah has helped me, and it's my fault for being so heedless, because everything just falls right in place!!!

I would always dream about this and always speak to myself about it while growing up, and what's astonishing is that I'm actually living the dream I would think about without even realising, how is that even possible...

The biggest sign from Allah is that every single thing I told myself and dreamt about from the beginning of my life is something that I've always been determined to chase for, I've never stopped or given up, and this is the commitment which I was oblivious about (most likely due to all the obstacles in the way), and commitment means to stand absolutely true to your word and sticking to it, not just saying something when you feel good, then changing your mind when your mood changes, no this is constant and throughout my life. Even if I tried to quit, I wouldn't be able too, because Allah is so merciful, He has never forsaken me, and the best proof for that is even during the lowest moments of my life, even when one may call it having the lowest of energy to do anything, Allah has never disabled me from doing what I love, infact I have done some of the most greatest things while lying down without being separated from a task of mine, how can I deny the favours of my lord?!

People may see me as a problem, but why does that matter when Allah has seen me as an opportunity to be used. For this reason, when you are insulted unjustly, think well of yourself because Allah is with you, and if you are praised, then humble your heart and look at your shortcomings you need to work on. Always be kind and grateful.

Many people look down upon disabled people and those whose wounds and pain are shown on the outside, but subhan'Allah, before looking down upon those with apparent wounds, you may have a huge wound and disability right in the middle of your HEART within yourself which is stopping you from achieving the best you can. Are you really telling me you're aiming for the highest? Rasulullah said if you do something, then excel in it. Hence, aiming low and succeeding is something to be ashamed about! Aim for the best, even if you stumble along the way, Allahu akbar!

Do you think you can simply dream about something, then sit down and receive it? No way, you gotta work hard for that and stay devoted to what you love, every single day your intentions, speech and actions are proving your commitment to the dream you search for.

If you think you can receive everything you want without any hard work or challenges or calamities or difficulties, then you will be stuck in your dream without actualising, because every single Prophet and pious person praised in the Qur'an was only praised after suffering calamities as Imam Ibn al-Qayyim eloquently stated.

Furthermore, even if you were able to attain what you wish for without hard work, you will be da'eef (weak), and when some difficulty comes by your way, you won't be able to handle it. So there is a wisdom behind trials, the pain is what strengthens you and builds you as an individual. You need to resist and overcome obstacles to develop that strength, you need to challenge yourself. Unlike some who try to act like Ibn Taymiyyah when they didn't go through the struggles of Ibn Taymiyyah, they didn't even build the foundations Ibn Taymiyyah built before being able to remain steadfast throughout his trials, so before throwing yourself into destruction, know your limits as the scholars say.

You might not see the wisdom of any pain or struggle now, but if you never had this, by Allah you will never attain 5% of the courage and strength Imam Ibn Taymiyyah had, in order to inspire the ummah and unite them under the flag of La ilaha ila Allah.

Never complain about your struggles or let it hold you back, enough of trying to be felt sorry for, enough of pointing fingers at anyone. Allah never ordered you to do this, rather the contrary is true, He ordered the Rasul to proclaim the truth and remain steadfast upon that, so follow his footsteps and don't back away. What's most important is not to simply overcome struggles, but to die steadfast upon the truth.

Start making a change today, especially in seeking knowledge. Don't let your age stop you from attaining knowledge, Shaykh Nasir al-Fahd memorised the Qur'an in 3 months when he was 24 years old, he memorised 9 books of hadiths in his 20's/30's, so what is your excuse?

Many friends think I show too much emotions to the muslimen and go into exaggeration in hugging them & making du'a for them, but only Allah knows how shy I am in expressing alot more love and emotions to my muslim brothers in order to help them make a difference to their self, family and ummah. Ponder over this Ayah, and just keep reading it over and over again, how blessed is the one who fears Allah:

"Fear Allāh and Allāh shall teach you." [2:282]

This is a sign of Allah which has affected me deeply, and I hope it opens the eyes of many muslims and helps in any way, shape or form!

31 May 2018 23:02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Personal | Today is a new day. Allah has given me the biggest sign, and I can't believe I never thought about this! I never realised how much Allah has helped me, and it's my fault for being so heedless, because everything just falls right in place!!!

I would always dream about this and always speak to myself about it while growing up, and what's astonishing is that I'm actually living the dream I would think about without even realising, how is that even possible...

The biggest sign from Allah is that every single thing I told myself and dreamt about from the beginning of my life is something that I've always been determined to chase for, I've never stopped or given up, and this is the commitment which I was oblivious about (most likely due to all the obstacles in the way), and commitment means to stand absolutely true to your word and sticking to it, not just saying something when you feel good, then changing your mind when your mood changes, no this is constant and throughout my life. Even if I tried to quit, I wouldn't be able to, because Allah is so merciful, He has never forsaken me, and the best proof for that is even during the lowest moments of my life, even when one may call it having the lowest of energy to do anything, Allah has never disabled me from doing what I love, infact I have done some of the most greatest things while lying down without being separated from a task of mine, how can I deny the favours of my lord?!

People may see me as a problem, but why does that matter when Allah has seen me as an opportunity to be used. For this reason, when you are insulted unjustly, think well of yourself because Allah is with you, and if you are praised, then humble your heart and look at your shortcomings you need to work on. Always be kind and grateful.

Many people look down upon disabled people and those whose wounds and pain are shown on the outside, but subhan'Allah, before looking down upon those with apparent wounds, you may have a huge wound and disability right in the middle of your HEART within yourself which is stopping you from achieving the best you can. Are you really telling me you're aiming for the highest? Rasulullah said if you do something, then excel in it. Hence, aiming low and succeeding is something to be ashamed about! Aim for the best, even if you stumble along the way, Allahu akbar!

Do you think you can simply dream about something, then sit down and receive it? No way, you gotta work hard for that and stay devoted to what you love, every single day your intentions, speech and actions are proving your commitment to the dream you search for.

If you think you can receive everything you want without any hard work or challenges or calamities or difficulties, then you will be stuck in your dream without actualising, because every single Prophet and pious person praised in the Qur'an was only praised after suffering calamities as Imam Ibn al-Qayyim eloquently stated.

Furthermore, even if you were able to attain what you wish for without hard work, you will be da'eef (weak), and when some difficulty comes by your way, you won't be able to handle it. So there is a wisdom behind trials, the pain is what strengthens you and builds you as an individual. You need to resist and overcome obstacles to develop that strength, you need to challenge yourself. Unlike some who try to act like Ibn Taymiyyah when they didn't go through the struggles of Ibn Taymiyyah, they didn't even build the foundations Ibn Taymiyyah built before being able to remain steadfast throughout his trials, so before throwing yourself into destruction, know your limits as the scholars say.

You might not see the wisdom of any pain or struggle now, but if you never had this, by Allah you will never attain 5% of the courage and strength Imam Ibn Taymiyyah had, in order to inspire the ummah and unite them under the flag of La ilaha ila Allah.

Never complain about your struggles or let it hold you back, enough of trying to be felt sorry for, enough of pointing fingers at anyone. Allah never ordered you to do this, rather the contrary is true, He ordered the Rasul to proclaim the truth and remain steadfast upon that, so follow his footsteps and don't back away. What's most important is not to simply overcome struggles, but to die steadfast upon the truth.

Start making a change today, especially in seeking knowledge. Don't let your age stop you from attaining knowledge, Shaykh Nasir al-Fahd memorised the Qur'an in 3 months when he was 24 years old, he memorised 9 books of hadiths in his 20's/30's, so what is your excuse?

Many friends think I show too much emotions to the muslims and go into exaggeration in hugging them & making du'a for them, but only Allah knows how shy I am in expressing alot more love and emotions to my muslim brothers in order to help them make a difference to their self, family and ummah. Ponder over this Ayah, and just keep reading it over and over again, how blessed is the one who fears Allah:

"Fear Allāh and Allāh shall teach you." [2:282]

This is a sign of Allah which has affected me deeply, and I hope it opens the eyes of many muslims and helps in any way, shape or form!

31 May 2018 22:57

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A praiseworthy way to attain Jannah is to surround yourself with those on the same mission as you and compete with each other in doing more good deeds.

30 May 2018 22:30

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A praiseworthy way to attain Jannah is to surround yourself with those on the same mission as you and compete with each other in doing more good deeds.

30 May 2018 22:30

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Kids love me lol. While walking my lil brother in a fun way, another young boy leaves his mum and wanted to give me a hug, how cute.

30 May 2018 19:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Stay far away from this page with 30,000+ likes! I have seen ghuluw being shared on it previously, but now they just took it too far, making takfeer upon Imam Ibn Taymiyyah, Imam Ibn al-Qayyim and Imam Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhab.

30 May 2018 12:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

May the curse of Allah be upon the chinese kuffar who are oppressing our uyghur brothers and sisters in Turkestan.

29 May 2018 23:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://t.me/NasirAlFahd>

I kinda lost track of the channels I lost, but I'm so proud of a beautiful knowledgeable brother who made 2 channels for me. He's in his very early teens and the son of a noble shaykh, may Allah keep his father steadfast and free him ♥

Shaykh Nasir al-Fahd's channel:

<https://t.me/NasirAlFahd>

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan's channel:

<https://t.me/SulaymanAlAlwan>

The niyyah is to share the scholarly works after this blessed month Insha'Allah.

29 May 2018 22:35

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://t.me/NasirAlFahd>

<https://t.me/NasirAlFahd>

I kinda lost track of the channels I lost, but I'm so proud of a beautiful knowledgeable brother who made 2 channels for me. He's in his very early teens and the son of a noble shaykh, may Allah keep his father steadfast and free him ♥

Shaykh Nasir al-Fahd's channel:

<https://t.me/NasirAlFahd>

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan's channel:

<https://t.me/SulaymanAlAlwan>

The niyyah is to share the scholarly works after this blessed month Insha'Allah.

29 May 2018 22:35

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan was asked about those who speak ill about Mu'awiyah, so the Shaykh responds:

"This is playing around with the Shari'ah, and playing around with what the muslims have unanimously agreed upon.

I have calculated around 50 scholars among the firmly grounded 'Ulama' who cited an Ijma' that ALL of the Sahabah are trustworthy and just, and numerous scholars have cited an agreement that each individual among the Sahabah are upright.

And the statement that Allah declared some of them Fasiq is incorrect, "If a Fasiq comes to you with news..." [1], there's nothing at all which is authentically confirmed concerning the cause of revelation of this Ayah.

Whoever makes such a claim must come forth with proof. Some reports and hadiths have been narrated concerning the topic, but nothing whatsoever is authentic at all.

The salaf from what Allah has gifted them of knowledge and intelligence, they say: "Mu'awiyah is the door nob, whoever speaks ill about him would have the audacity to speak about those who come afterwards."

This statement is authentically confirmed from Wakee' with the most authentic of chains, and it's confirmed from a group amongst the Imams of the Salaf.

It's well-known that Wakee' is from the most precise and intelligent scholars, from the major Imams, among the shuyukh of Imam Ahmad, and he's from the scholars of the 2nd century from the best generations.

This statement has also been narrated from al-Hassan al-Basri and numerous scholars, and this in reality is the disease which alot of ahlul-bida' have fell into.

They speak about Mu'awiyah with transgression and hatred just so they can reach the one who comes after, and this is clear. Just like the one the brother asks about (a deviant like Hassan Farhaan al-Maliki), he would only speak ill about Mu'awiyah, then he would have the audacity to speak ill about Abu Hurayrah, then Khalid Ibn al-Walid, and thereafterwards he even spoke ill about Abu Bakr!"

---

[1] Translator's Note: It's possible that a companion can fall into Fisq, but they would repent to Allah (to remove Fisq from their name) and had impediments of being cursed in specific situations. Those that call "al-Walid Ibn 'Uqba" a Fasiq for spreading false news need to fear Allah, since all the narrations state that he spread it out of suspicioun mistakenly, and all the biographers considered him a noble companion. Even Fakhr ad-Din ar-Razi stated, "Certainly, unrestrictedly applying the term Fasiq upon al-Walid is something that's far-fetched, because he erred, was suspicious, hence made a mistake, and the mistaken one is not called a Fasiq."

29 May 2018 11:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan was asked about those who speak ill about Mu'awiyah, so the Shaykh responds:

"This is playing around with the Shari'ah, and playing around with what the muslims have unanimously agreed upon.

I have calculated around 50 scholars among the firmly grounded 'Ulama' who cited an Ijma' that ALL of the Sahabah are trustworthy and just, and numerous scholars have cited an agreement that each individual among the Sahabah are upright.

And the statement that Allah declared some of them Fasiq is incorrect, "If a Fasiq comes to you with news..." [1], there's nothing at all which is authentically confirmed concerning the cause of revelation of this Ayah.

Whoever makes such a claim must come forth with proof. Some reports and hadiths have been narrated concerning the topic, but nothing whatsoever is authentic at all.

The salaf from what Allah has gifted them of knowledge and intelligence, they say: "Mu'awiyah is the door nob, whoever speaks ill about him would have the audacity to speak about those who come afterwards."

This statement is authentically confirmed from Wakee' with the most authentic of chains, and it's confirmed from a group amongst the Imams of the Salaf.

It's well-known that Wakee' is from the most precise and intelligent scholars, from the major Imams, among the shuyukh of Imam Ahmad, and he's from the scholars of the 2nd century from the best generations.

This statement has also been narrated from al-Hassan al-Basri and numerous scholars, and this in reality is the disease which alot of ahlul-bida' have fell into.

They speak about Mu'awiyah with transgression and hatred just so they can reach the one who comes after, and this is clear. Just like the one the brother asks about (a deviant like Hassan Farhaan al-Maliki), he would only speak ill about Mu'awiyah, then he would have the audacity to speak ill about Abu Hurayrah, then Khalid Ibn al-Walid, and thereafterwards he even spoke ill about Abu Bakr!"

---

[1] Translator's Note: It's possible that a companion can fall into Fisq, but they would repent to Allah (to remove Fisq from their name) and had impediments of being cursed in specific situations. Those that call "al-Walid Ibn 'Uqba" a Fasiq for spreading false news need to fear Allah, since all the narrations state that he spread it out of suspicioun mistakenly, and all the biographers considered him a noble companion. Even Fakhr ad-Din ar-Razi stated, "Certainly, unrestrictedly applying the term Fasiq upon al-Walid is something that's far-fetched, because he erred, was suspicious, hence made a mistake, and the mistaken one is not called a Fasiq."

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://www.hhugs.org.uk/2018/05/walids-story/>

This is our brother Walid's story who suffered alot wallahul-musta'an. Click the link:

<https://www.hhugs.org.uk/2018/05/walids-story/>

28 May 2018 23:25

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://www.hhugs.org.uk/2018/05/walids-story/>

<https://www.hhugs.org.uk/2018/05/walids-story/>

This is our brother Walid's story who suffered alot wallahul-musta'an. Click the link:

28 May 2018 23:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

I'm not able to publicly speak my heart out in every matter, but I feel like something needs to change online.

Whenever a brother asks me, "there are 2 opinions, which is stronger?" or tries to seek my personal opinion, my heart really dislikes this, especially today.

In my past, I made the mistake of hastening to speak about a matter and say things like "Malik was mistaken, this is what appears to be stronger", but nowadays I feel too shy to even go near such.

The more I learnt how valuable and honourable knowledge is, and the more I learnt how little I am, how dare a person like myself rush to speak about a matter.

For this reason, I consider any question which involves asking my personal opinion (without returning back to the scholars) as a question of Fitnah and I see this as a huge calamity and test from Allah, and I say this deeply from the bottom of my heart.

Yes, all praise belongs to Allah, I love to share knowledge with the condition that I've got a Salaf in every single opinion I share (even though many opinions I hold may be weak, but I must have an Imam preceding me), but I try my best to share knowledge with pure fairness and justice, without fanaticism to any Imam or enforcing a particular view (unless it was explicit or causes deviation for opposing it).

This is solely what I'm doing, as I fear rushing to "teach" any time soon, because I know this prohibits a person from attaining much more knowledge and success.

It must be said that social media is a place where many unjustly target the truthful scholars of the ummah, subhan'Allah! No respect is shown to the 'Ulama', and promoting oneself and personal opinions is the norm, while they haven't memorised the Qur'an and 10,000's of Hadiths, wallahul-musta'an.

Ibn Taymiyyah says it's from the greatest of obligations to defend the scholars of this ummah from takfeer, even if it was solely done out of defence for his honour without proof, because if someone tries to defame all the scholars, this is a call towards understanding the shari'ah on our own, since simply studying from a truthful scholar would be considered "zealousness" or "shameful".

May Allah protect us from being unfair and unjust to anyone, and allow us to realise our own limits.

28 May 2018 22:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

I'm not able to publicly speak my heart out in every matter, but I feel like something needs to change online.

Whenever a brother asks me, "there are 2 opinions, which is stronger?" or tries to seek my personal opinion, my heart really dislikes this, especially today.

In my past, I made the mistake of hastening to speak about a matter and say things like "Malik was mistaken, this is what appears to be stronger", but nowadays I feel too shy to even go near such.

The more I learnt how valuable and honourable knowledge is, and the more I learnt how little I am, how dare a person like myself rush to speak about a matter.

For this reason, I consider any question which involves asking my personal opinion (without returning back to the scholars) as a question of Fitnah and I see this as a huge calamity and test from Allah, and I say this deeply from the bottom of my heart.

Yes, all praise belongs to Allah, I love to share knowledge with the condition that I've got a Salaf in every single opinion I share (even though many opinions I hold may be weak, but I must have an Imam preceding me), but I try my best to share knowledge with pure fairness and justice, without fanaticism to any Imam or enforcing a particular view (unless it was explicit or causes deviation for opposing it).

This is solely what I'm doing, as I fear rushing to "teach" any time soon, because I know this prohibits a person from attaining much more knowledge and success.

It must be said that social media is a place where many unjustly target the truthful scholars of the ummah, subhan'Allah! No respect is shown to the 'Ulama', and promoting oneself and personal opinions is the norm, while they haven't memorised the Qur'an and 10,000's of Hadiths, wallahul-musta'an.

Ibn Taymiyyah says it's from the greatest of obligations to defend the scholars of this ummah from takfeer, even if it was solely done out of defence for his honour without proof, because if someone tries to defame all the scholars, this is a call towards understanding the shari'ah on our own, since simply studying from a truthful scholar would be considered "zealousness" or "shameful".

May Allah protect us from being unfair and unjust to anyone, and allow us to realise our own limits.

28 May 2018 22:27

Radwan Dakkak shared Imam Tawhidi's video.

Yes, we won't forget that the filthy Mufti of the Nusayriyyah threatened sending an army of suicide bombers! Iran also threatened wiping Israel off the map for years and years. The truth is that "wiping Israel" according to these kuffar means to massacre as many muslims from ahlus-sunnah as possible, while receiving assistance from the same kuffar (they threaten)!

28 May 2018 19:14

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

#Exposed_Truth

To the government scholars and so called "muslim" arab rulers!

If the measurement of Jihad and Iman was dependant upon fighting jews..!

Hitler would be Amir al-Mu'mineen!

27 May 2018 13:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali not a single bullet fired by these munafiqs

27 May 2018 18:03

#Exposed_Truth

To the government scholars and so called "muslim" arab rulers!

If the measurement of Jihad and Iman was dependant upon fighting jews..!

Hitler would be Amir al-Mu'mineen!

27 May 2018 13:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Will be very inactive for the rest of the month. *Just reminding so people know why I can't respond*.

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

The shaykh also mentioned this in his explanation of "Al-'Aqidah al-Wasitiyyah" - This applies to everyone who goes through a trial, it can either break you or make you, and this all returns back to how we deal with the situation, if we remember Allah, Allah will remember us.

"Some people when they get imprisoned, they say "Oh my Lord, release me!". And this is wrong. But rather you should say, "Oh my Lord, make me firm..." Because how many people got imprisoned and came out of the prison after losing his Aqeedah and as deviated, misguided, apostate, corrupt, or as a disgrace to the people of truth. So ask Allah for firmness firstly and after that there is no problem if you ask for being released".

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan فك الله أسره

From the lecture "Steadfastness upon the truth"

26 May 2018 13:59

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

The shaykh also mentioned this in his explanation of "Al-'Aqidah al-Wasitiyyah" - This applies to everyone who goes through a trial, it can either break you or make you, and this all returns back to how we deal with the situation, if we remember Allah, Allah will remember us.

"Some people when they get imprisoned, they say "Oh my Lord, release me!". And this is wrong. But rather you should say, "Oh my Lord, make me firm..." Because how many people got imprisoned and came out of the prison after losing his Aqeedah and as deviated, misguided, apostate, corrupt, or as a disgrace to the people of truth. So ask Allah for firmness firstly and after that there is no problem if you ask for being released".

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan فك الله أسره

From the lecture "Steadfastness upon the truth"

26 May 2018 13:58

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

26 May 2018 13:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iHsVUeTbuBo&feature=youtu.be>

#Youtube | Recitation of Surat al-Baqarah, Ayah 183-186 by Shaykh Husayn Bilal, may Allah hasten his release.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iHsVUeTbuBo&feature=youtu.be>

26 May 2018 13:22

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iHsVUeTbuBo&feature=youtu.be>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iHsVUeTbuBo&feature=youtu.be>

#Youtube | Recitation of Surat al-Baqarah, Ayah 183-186 by Shaykh Husayn Bilal, may Allah hasten his release.

26 May 2018 13:21

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

---

Click for video:
□

Recitation of Surat al-Baqarah, Ayah 183-186 by Shaykh Husayn Bilal, may Allah hasten his release.

26 May 2018 13:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

It's perfectly fine to ask questions related to the Din, but I personally dislike it when comparisons are made in different situations such as "who's worse, the one who doesn't pray any Salah or the criminal who kills 1,000,000 people?" (the benefit from this is almost like arguing whether Salah is better than the Ka'bah or whether Ramadan is better than Makkah).

The reason I say this, is because there are people who exist that openly say that the 1st level of Jannah is enough, so saying Shahadah, performing salah, giving zakat, fasting ramadan, making hajj once in a lifetime is all they think about, even if they constantly hurt others and transgress against them:

Such as boycotting your whole family, oppressing and confining the innocent, purposely cutting out electricity or water upon them (even while showering), restricting what they can touch and where they can move without Haqq, and so forth.

What's the point of praying 5 times a day and holding onto the pillars of Islam if you're going to transgress against the rights of others. And if such a person was praying, where is his khushu' to deter him from oppressing others.

But to answer the question, according to the strong view that "completely" abandoning Salah is major kufr (even according to those who see it as not kufr, it's the worst sin ever), so yes he would be worse than a murderer, as the worst muslim is better than the best kafir, even though the murderer has transgressed against the Haqq of others (unlike the abandoner of Salah), so in terms of spreading evil among society, the murderer's corruption is worse (unlike taarik as-salah who's dealt with as a munafiq according to Ibn Taymiyyah and others), wallahul-musta'an.

26 May 2018 12:37

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's perfectly fine to ask questions related to the Din, but I personally dislike it when comparisons are made in different situations such as "who's worse, the one who doesn't pray any Salah or the criminal who kills 1,000,000 people?" (the benefit from this is almost like arguing whether Salah is better than the Ka'bah or whether Ramadan is better than Makkah).

The reason I say this, is because there are people who exist that openly say that the 1st level of Jannah is enough, so saying Shahadah, performing salah, giving zakat, fasting ramadan, making hajj once in a lifetime is all they think about, even if they constantly hurt others and transgress against them:

Such as boycotting your whole family, oppressing and confining the innocent, purposely cutting out electricity or water upon them (even while showering), restricting what they can touch and where they can move without Haqq, and so forth.

What's the point of praying 5 times a day and holding onto the pillars of Islam if you're going to transgress against the rights of others. And if such a person was praying, where is his khushu' to deter him from oppressing others.

But to answer the question, according to the strong view that "completely" abandoning Salah is major kufr (even according to those who see it as not kufr, it's the worst sin ever), so yes he would be worse than a murderer, as the worst muslim is better than the best kafir, even though the murderer has transgressed against the Haqq of others (unlike the abandoner of Salah), so in terms of spreading evil among society, the murderer's corruption is worse (unlike taarik as-salah who's dealt with as a munafiq according to Ibn Taymiyyah and others), wallahul-musta'an.

26 May 2018 12:35

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Subhan'Allah so much happened in the morning, but Allah is watching everything alhamdulillah, and the great news is that even though I had to stay home, I got to read amazing words by Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm (even though I was called crazy to read, but too bad).

I continued reading and came across the issue of how to determine the virtue of the Sahabah in his book "al-Fisal", volume 3 from pages 53-77, he clarifies the "Male vs Female" gender issue exceptionally well, and also shows how Abu Bakr is the best companion (in 25 pages!). It's so long, but I must share it soon insha'Allah.

This great Imam has words which can really make you laugh in a good way, May Allah have mercy upon him :)

26 May 2018 11:54

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Subhan'Allah so much happened in the morning, but Allah is watching everything alhamdulillah, and the great news is that even though I had to stay home, I got to read amazing words by Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm (even though I was called crazy to read, but too bad).

I continued reading and came across the issue of how to determine the virtue of the Sahabah in his book "al-Fisal", volume 3 from pages 53-77, he clarifies the "Male vs Female" gender issue exceptionally well, and also shows how Abu Bakr is the best companion (in 25 pages!). It's so long, but I must share it soon insha'Allah.

This great Imam has words which can really make you laugh in a good way, May Allah have mercy upon him :)

26 May 2018 11:54

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Many people oppress the scholars of Haqq by attributing poorly translated statements to them without knowing their principles on a matter nor knowing the situation described to them in a specific circumstance.

I have promised to clarify very important Manhaj matters, because this is a trust from Allah to reveal the knowledge and not conceal it. Alhamdulillah, there are many matters I've clarified to brothers in detail privately which I haven't openly come out with, and there's a greater wisdom for that, as many major matters related to Manhaj and 'Aqidah need to be clarified in a complete book for the general public, not a simple post to be abused. As Ibn al-Qayyim stated something along the lines of, how many times was elaboration unnecessary, and how many times did lack of elaboration cause issues in misunderstanding a matter.

If you want a better result and greater rewards, you need to be patient without rushing anything, despite the urgent necessity of it, and this is what I've learnt over time. Everyone comes up with opinions on controversial topics and the opinions are many, but that doesn't concern a believer who's aim is to adhere to precise scholarly opinions backed by the Qur'an and Sunnah.

25 May 2018 21:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Many people oppress the scholars of Haqq by attributing poorly translated statements to them without knowing their principles on a matter nor knowing the situation described to them in a specific circumstance.

I have promised to clarify very important Manhaj matters, because this is a trust from Allah to reveal the knowledge and not conceal it. Alhamdulillah, there are many matters I've clarified to brothers in detail privately which I haven't openly come out with, and there's a greater wisdom for that, as many major matters related to Manhaj and 'Aqidah need to be clarified in a complete book for the general public, not a simple post to be abused. As Ibn al-Qayyim stated something along the lines of, how many times was elaboration unnecessary, and how many times did lack of elaboration cause issues in misunderstanding a matter.

If you want a better result and greater rewards, you need to be patient without rushing anything, despite the urgent necessity of it, and this is what I've learnt over time. Everyone comes up with opinions on controversial topics and the opinions are many, but that doesn't concern a believer who's aim is to adhere to precise scholarly opinions backed by the Qur'an and Sunnah.

25 May 2018 21:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali Tweet prob deleted now

25 May 2018 20:38

The murji'ah love to call our Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan an "extremist" , but look at what 'Abdul-Karim al-Khudayr said 6 years ago before joining "The Permanent Committee for Scholarly Research and Iftaa" (which the murji'ah love):

Walid al-'Asimi said, "The name of al-'Allamah al-'Alwan was mentioned in the gathering of Sh. 'Abdul-Karim al-Khudayr while I was present, so the Shaykh said; The path of al-'Alwan is the path of attaining leadership in the Ummah, as leadership doesn't come under Air-conditioners!"

~ Date 29/6/2012.

25 May 2018 20:35

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Khalid Van der Lee Also have Shaykh AbdulKarim alKhudayr a good structure for seeking knowledge. Also audio in most subject.

25 May 2018 20:41

Abu Khattab Al Kashmiri ☺

25 May 2018 21:40

Abu Musleem Khawlany Allahu akbar....

26 May 2018 06:25

The murji'ah love to call our Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan an "extremist" , but look at what 'Abdul-Karim al-Khudayr said 6 years ago before joining "The Permanent Committee for Scholarly Research and Iftaa" (which the murji'ah love):

Walid al-'Asimi said, "The name of al-'Allamah al-'Alwan was mentioned in the gathering of Sh. 'Abdul-Karim al-Khudayr while I was present, so the Shaykh said; The path of al-'Alwan is the path of attaining leadership in the Ummah, as leadership doesn't come under Air-conditioners!"

~ Date 29/6/2012.

25 May 2018 20:34

Radwan Dakkak shared Khoder Soueid's post.

One of the few Shaykhs who's words have always comforted my heart for the past 4 years due to his pure Manhaj, may Allah preserve him and bless his family.

25 May 2018 18:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

One of the few Shaykhs who's words have always comforted my heart for the past 4 years due to his pure Manhaj, may Allah preserve him and bless his family.

25 May 2018 18:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

25 May 2018 15:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Self-reminder, make the most out of Ramadan without looking at social media and get to jum'ah early to taste the sweetness of 'Ibadah and its rewards:

It was narrated that Abu Hurayrah (may Allaah be pleased with him) said: The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "Whoever comes (to the mosque) in the first hour, it is as if he sacrificed a camel. Whoever comes at the second hour, it is as if he sacrificed a cow. Whoever comes at the third hour, it is as if he sacrificed a horned ram. Whoever comes at the fourth hour, it is as if he sacrificed a chicken. Whoever comes at the fifth hour, it is as if he sacrificed an egg. Then when the imam comes out, the angels come in to listen to the reminder (khutbah)."

Narrated by al-Bukhaari, 841; Muslim, 850

The scholars differed as to the definition of these hours. There are three opinions.

1 – That they start when dawn breaks

2 – That they start when the sun rises. This is the view of al-Shaafa'i, Ahmad, and others.

3 – That these 'hours' all fall within one period of time, which is after the sun has passed its zenith. This is the view of Maalik, and was favoured by some of the Shaafa'is.

The third view is weak, and was refuted by many.

25 May 2018 07:54

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Self-reminder, make the most out of Ramadan without looking at social media and get to jum'ah early to taste the sweetness of 'Ibadah and its rewards:

It was narrated that Abu Hurayrah (may Allaah be pleased with him) said: The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: “Whoever comes (to the mosque) in the first hour, it is as if he sacrificed a camel. Whoever comes at the second hour, it is as if he sacrificed a cow. Whoever comes at the third hour, it is as if he sacrificed a horned ram. Whoever comes at the fourth hour, it is as if he sacrificed a chicken. Whoever comes at the fifth hour, it is as if he sacrificed an egg. Then when the imam comes out, the angels come in to listen to the reminder (khutbah).”

Narrated by al-Bukhaari, 841; Muslim, 850

The scholars differed as to the definition of these hours. There are three opinions.

1 – That they start when dawn breaks

2 – That they start when the sun rises. This is the view of al-Shaafa’i, Ahmad, and others.

3 – That these ‘hours’ all fall within one period of time, which is after the sun has passed its zenith. This is the view of Maalik, and was favoured by some of the Shaafa’is.

The third view is weak, and was refuted by many.

25 May 2018 07:54

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Salah is the coolness to the eyes of every believer, especially an oppressed believer. May Allah deal with the oppressors throughout the world, especially since our brothers and sisters are being oppressed everywhere, how can one have the audacity to oppress, especially those who strive for this Din, despite their shortcomings and faults. This is a rhetorical question, since Allah has already given us the answer to that, alhamdulillah 🕌

25 May 2018 07:41

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Salah is the coolness to the eyes of every believer, especially an oppressed believer. May Allah deal with the oppressors throughout the world, especially since our brothers and sisters are being oppressed everywhere, how can one have the audacity to oppress, especially those who strive for this Din, despite their shortcomings and faults. This is a rhetorical question, since Allah has already given us the answer to that, alhamdulillah 🕌

25 May 2018 07:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allah protect my heart from poisonous environments that wish to take away my Islam in totality, and only allow these trials to make me firmer upon my 'Ibadah and adhering onto the commandments of Allah till I die, Allahumma Amin!

24 May 2018 18:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allah protect my heart from poisonous environments that wish to take away my Islam in totality, and only allow these trials to make me firmer upon my 'Ibadah and adhering onto the commandments of Allah till I die, Allahumma Amin!

24 May 2018 18:20

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Wallahi I don't tolerate being disrespected by anyone. As anyone who tries to disrespect me, I can shame them from every angle, and give them their worst nightmare. Let everyone take this as a threat, because I'm a serious person who doesn't play any games! Fear Allah and avoid insulting your own brothers in the Din, lest you get punished in hellfire.

24 May 2018 17:54

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Wallahi I don't tolerate being disrespected by anyone. As anyone who tries to disrespect me, I can shame them from every angle, and give them their worst nightmare. Let everyone take this as a threat, because I'm a serious person who doesn't play any games! Fear Allah and avoid insulting your own brothers in the Din, lest you get punished in hellfire.

24 May 2018 17:54

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Ramadan Reminder

If you've oppressed your wife, neglected your children or been disobedient to your parents standing up every night in prayer for taraweeh is nowhere near as important than to seek forgiveness from those you've wronged.

Allah's Pleasure cannot be sought whilst people are unhappy with you particularly your family

~ Shared.

24 May 2018 13:02

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Ramadan Reminder

If you've oppressed your wife, neglected your children or been disobedient to your parents standing up every night in prayer for taraweeh is nowhere near as important than to seek forgiveness from those you've wronged.

Allah's Pleasure cannot be sought whilst people are unhappy with you particularly your family

~ Shared.

24 May 2018 13:01

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

High amounts of stress is really hurtful, especially if it has lasted for so many years, but the Ayah on Allah's victory always needs to be kept in mind.

Alhamdulillah, I can finally take a rest today, as a support worker is going to help lessen that burden from now on. May Allah ease my pain, Ameen!

24 May 2018 09:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

High amounts of stress is really hurtful, especially if it has lasted for so many years, but the Ayah on Allah's victory always needs to be kept in mind.

Alhamdulillah, I can finally take a rest today, as a support worker is going to help lessen that burden from now on. May Allah ease my pain, Ameen!

24 May 2018 09:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

When the slave of Allah acts upon the commandments of Allah and avoids the prohibitions of Allah, the Shaytan becomes furious and intends to burden him, wallahul-musta'an.

Allah said, "Or think you that you will enter Paradise without such (trials) as came to those who passed away before you? They were afflicted with severe poverty and ailments and were so shaken that even the Messenger and those who believed along with him said, 'When (will come) the Help of Allah?' Yes! Certainly, the Help of Allah is near!" [2:214].

Imam Ibn Jareer at-Tabari (may Allah have mercy on him) said:

What this means is: Or do you think that you, O believers in Allah and His Messenger, will enter Paradise without anything befalling you like that which befell those who came before you among the followers of the Prophets and Messengers, of hardship, trials and tests? You will be tested as they were tested, with "severe poverty", which is severe hardship and want, and "ailments", which is pain and sickness. But you have not yet been shaken as they were shaken, i.e., you have not yet suffered extreme fear and terror at the hands of your enemy, so that you think that the help of Allah is slow in coming and you say “When will Allah help us?” Then Allah told them that His help was near to them, and that He would cause them to prevail over the enemy and defeat them. Then He fulfilled what He had promised them, and made their word supreme, and extinguished the flames of war lit by those who disbelieved.

End quote from Tafseer at-Tabari (4/288)

24 May 2018 09:03

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When the slave of Allah acts upon the commandments of Allah and avoids the prohibitions of Allah, the Shaytan becomes furious and intends to burden him, wallahul-musta'an.

Allah said, “Or think you that you will enter Paradise without such (trials) as came to those who passed away before you? They were afflicted with severe poverty and ailments and were so shaken that even the Messenger and those who believed along with him said, ‘When (will come) the Help of Allah?’ Yes! Certainly, the Help of Allah is near!” [2:214].

Imam Ibn Jareer at-Tabari (may Allah have mercy on him) said:

What this means is: Or do you think that you, O believers in Allah and His Messenger, will enter Paradise without anything befalling you like that which befell those who came before you among the followers of the Prophets and Messengers, of hardship, trials and tests? You will be tested as they were tested, with “severe poverty”, which is severe hardship and want, and “ailments”, which is pain and sickness. But you have not yet been shaken as they were shaken, i.e., you have not yet suffered extreme fear and terror at the hands of your enemy, so that you think that the help of Allah is slow in coming and you say “When will Allah help us?” Then Allah told them that His help was near to them, and that He would cause them to prevail over the enemy and defeat them. Then He fulfilled what He had promised them, and made their word supreme, and extinguished the flames of war lit by those who disbelieved.

End quote from Tafseer at-Tabari (4/288)

24 May 2018 09:03

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm said:

ولو أن امرأ قال: لا نأخذ إلا ما وجدنا في القرآن لكان كافراً بإجماع الأمة

"If someone says, we only take what's found in the Qur'an, he would be a kafir according to the consensus of the ummah."

- Refer to "Al-Ihkaam Fi Usul al-Ahkaam" (2/80).

24 May 2018 08:37

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm said:

ولو أن امرأ قال: لا نأخذ إلا ما وجدنا في القرآن لكان كافراً بإجماع الأمة

"If someone says, we only take what's found in the Qur'an, he would be a kafir according to the consensus of the ummah."

- Refer to "Al-Ihkaam Fi Usul al-Ahkaam" (2/80).

24 May 2018 08:37

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Bad dreams are from Shaytan!

It was narrated that Abu Qutaadah said: The Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: “Good dreams come from Allaah and bad dreams come from the Shaytaan. If anyone sees a bad dream that scares him, let him spit drily to his left and seek refuge with Allaah from its evil, then it will not harm him.”

(Narrated by al-Bukhaari, 3292)

It was narrated that Abu Salamah said: I used to see such terrible dreams that that I began to shake and have a fever, but did not cover myself with a cloak until I met Abu Qutaadah, and I mentioned that to him. He said, "I heard the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) say, 'Good dreams come from Allaah and bad dreams come from the Shaytaan. If anyone sees a bad dream that he dislikes, let him spit drily to his left three times and seek refuge with Allaah from its evil, then it will not harm him.'"

(Narrated by Muslim, 2261)

It was narrated from Jaabir that the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "If any one of you sees a dream that he dislikes, let him spit drily to his left three times and seek refuge with Allaah from the Shaytaan three times, and turn over onto his other side."

(Narrated by Muslim, 2262).

The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) told us the difference between good dreams and bad dreams. It was narrated from Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri that he heard the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) say: "If any one of you sees a dream that he likes, it is from Allaah, so let him praise Allaah for it and tell people about it. But if he sees something other than that, that he dislikes, it is from the Shaytaan, so let him seek refuge with Allaah from its evil and not mention it to anyone, for it will not harm him."

(Narrated by al-Bukhaari, 7045).

So it is clear that good dreams come from Allaah and bad dreams which a person dislikes come from the Shaytaan, so he has to seek refuge with Allaah from their evil.

It was narrated that Abu Hurayrah said: the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "If any one of you sees something that he dislikes, let him get up and pray, and not tell people about it."

(Narrated by Muslim, 2263).

It was narrated from Jaabir that a Bedouin came to the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) and said, "I dreamt that my head was cut off and I was chasing it." The Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) rebuked him and said: "Do not tell anyone how the Shaytaan is messing about with you in your dreams."

(Narrated by Muslim, 2268)

So we may sum up from these ahaadeeth the most important points about what a person should do if he sees a dream that he dislikes, as follows:

- 1- He should know that this dream is from the Shaytaan who wants to cause him grief, so he should annoy the Shaytaan by not paying any attention to him.
- 2- He should seek refuge with Allaah from the accursed Shaytaan.
- 3- He should seek refuge with Allaah from the evil of this dream.
- 4- He should spit drily to his left three times, i.e., blowing with a little bit of saliva.
- 5- He should not tell anyone about it.
- 6- He should turn over from the side on which he was sleeping, so if he was lying on his left side he should turn over to his right side, and vice versa.
- 7- He should get up and pray.

If a person adheres to this etiquette, then we hope that this bad dream will not harm him, as it says in the texts. And Allaah knows best. |

~ Islamqa.

24 May 2018 08:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Bad dreams are from Shaytan!

It was narrated that Abu Qutaadah said: The Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "Good dreams come from Allaah and bad dreams come from the Shaytaan. If anyone sees a bad dream that scares him, let him spit drily to his left and seek refuge with Allaah from its evil, then it will not harm him."

(Narrated by al-Bukhaari, 3292)

It was narrated that Abu Salamah said: I used to see such terrible dreams that that I began to shake and have a fever, but did not cover myself with a cloak until I met Abu Qutaadah, and I mentioned that to him. He said, "I heard the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) say, 'Good dreams come from Allaah and bad dreams come from the Shaytaan. If anyone sees a bad dream that he dislikes, let him spit drily to his left three times and seek refuge with Allaah from its evil, then it will not harm him.”

(Narrated by Muslim, 2261)

It was narrated from Jaabir that the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: “If any one of you sees a dream that he dislikes, let him spit drily to his left three times and seek refuge with Allaah from the Shaytaan three times, and turn over onto his other side.”

(Narrated by Muslim, 2262).

The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) told us the difference between good dreams and bad dreams. It was narrated from Abu Sa’eed al-Khudri that he heard the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) say: “If any one of you sees a dream that he likes, it is from Allaah, so let him praise Allaah for it and tell people about it. But if he sees something other than that, that he dislikes, it is from the Shaytaan, so let him seek refuge with Allaah from its evil and not mention it to anyone, for it will not harm him.”

(Narrated by al-Bukhaari, 7045).

So it is clear that good dreams come from Allaah and bad dreams which a person dislikes come from the Shaytaan, so he has to seek refuge with Allaah from their evil.

It was narrated that Abu Hurayrah said: the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: “If any one of you sees something that he dislikes, let him get up and pray, and not tell people about it.”

(Narrated by Muslim, 2263).

It was narrated from Jaabir that a Bedouin came to the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) and said, “I dreamt that my head was cut off and I was chasing it.” The Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) rebuked him and said: “Do not tell anyone how the Shaytaan is messing about with you in your dreams.”

(Narrated by Muslim, 2268)

So we may sum up from these ahaadeeth the most important points about what a person should do if he sees a dream that he dislikes, as follows:

- 1- He should know that this dream is from the Shaytaan who wants to cause him grief, so he should annoy the Shaytaan by not paying any attention to him.
- 2- He should seek refuge with Allaah from the accursed Shaytaan.
- 3- He should seek refuge with Allaah from the evil of this dream.
- 4- He should spit drily to his left three times, i.e., blowing with a little bit of saliva.
- 5- He should not tell anyone about it.
- 6- He should turn over from the side on which he was sleeping, so if he was lying on his left side he should turn over to his right side, and vice versa.
- 7- He should get up and pray.

If a person adheres to this etiquette, then we hope that this bad dream will not harm him, as it says in the texts. And Allaah knows best.

~ Islamqa.

24 May 2018 08:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Hating sins and sinners is part of our wala' & bara' by the consensus of ahlus-sunnah (as stated by Ibn Taymiyyah), and it's prescribed to get closer to Allah by hating sins and being harsh against sinners!

Imam Ahmad was asked, "Was Ibn Abi Thi'b a Qadari? So Imam Ahmad replied, whoever would strictly emphasise on sins, the people would (loosely and unjustly) say; This person is a Qadari."

قيل للإمام أحمد بن حنبل: «ابن أبي ذئب كان قدريا؟ فقال: الناس كل من شدد عليهم المعاصي، قالوا: هذا قدري».

And Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah mentions in "Minhaj as-Sunnah", that due to Al-Hassan al-Basri being very harsh against sinners, he was accused of being a "Qadari" (a sect which believes their own actions are created - hence the extra cautiousness).

In "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/416), Hamad Ibn 'Atiq says:

"It's mentioned from 'Isa (عليه السلام) that he said; Attain the love of Allah between you by hating the sinners, and get closer to Allah by avoiding them, and seek the pleasure of Allah by drawing your wrath upon them."

This is a general ruling, and the way of the salaf to boycott sinners and innovators, but it's also required from us to determine whether there's a greater benefit in avoiding them or not. However, if we are to advise them, we don't take them as friends as it's also mentioned in Ad-durar as-Saniyyah.

And at the same time, we need to remember that our intention in boycotting any type of innovator or sinner, is to enable them to make Tawbah and return back to Allah, whether it may be quitting listening to filthy music, engaging in cursed Riba and so forth. And if they make Tawbah, who are we to refuse it when Allah has accepted it?!

24 May 2018 07:17

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Hating sins and sinners is part of our wala' & bara' by the consensus of ahlus-sunnah (as stated by Ibn Taymiyyah), and it's prescribed to get closer to Allah by hating sins and being harsh against sinners!

Imam Ahmad was asked, "Was Ibn Abi Thi'b a Qadari? So Imam Ahmad replied, whoever would strictly emphasise on sins, the people would (loosely and unjustly) say; This person is a Qadari."

قيل للإمام أحمد بن حنبل: «ابن أبي ذئب كان قدرياً؟ فقال: الناس كل من شدد عليهم المعاصي، قالوا: هذا قدري».

And Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah mentions in "Minhaj as-Sunnah", that due to Al-Hassan al-Basri being very harsh against sinners, he was accused of being a "Qadari" (a sect which believes their own actions are created - hence the extra cautiousness).

In "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/416), Hamad Ibn 'Atiq says:

"It's mentioned from 'Isa (عليه السلام) that he said; Attain the love of Allah between you by hating the sinners, and get closer to Allah by avoiding them, and seek the pleasure of Allah by drawing your wrath upon them."

This is a general ruling, and the way of the salaf to boycott sinners and innovators, but it's also required from us to determine whether there's a greater benefit in avoiding them or not. However, if we are to advise them, we don't take them as friends as it's also mentioned in Ad-durar as-Saniyyah.

And at the same time, we need to remember that our intention in boycotting any type of innovator or sinner, is to enable them to make Tawbah and return back to Allah, whether it may be quitting listening to filthy music, engaging in cursed Riba and so forth. And if they make Tawbah, who are we to refuse it when Allah has accepted it?!

24 May 2018 07:17

Radwan Dakkak shared Palestinian Vines's post.

This is too true (I've also taken notes myself :D). My grandfather would spend hours telling me 1 story (when I swear I could probably summarise it in 15 mins). It's absolutely amazing how long one can revolve around the bush until reaching the actual point of the story lol!

23 May 2018 21:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The one who is attached to his creator is honored while the one who is attached to the creation is humiliated. And the humiliated one is: the one who softens his heart for other than Allah and the one who sought refuge for his heart with someone other than Allah.

من تعلق بالخالق كان عزيزاً ومن تعلق بالمخلوق كان ذليلاً فالذليل : من رق قلبه لغير الله ، ومن لجأ فؤاده إلى غير الله .

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan

23 May 2018 21:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The one who is attached to his creator is honored while the one who is attached to the creation is humiliated. And the humiliated one is: the one who softens his heart for other than Allah and the one who sought refuge for his heart with someone other than Allah.

من تعلق بالخالق كان عزيزاً ومن تعلق بالمخلوق كان ذليلاً فالذليل : من رق قلبه لغير الله ، ومن لجأ فؤاده

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

How sound is the hadeeth, “Every time the Qur’aan is completed there is a du’aa’ that is answered”?

Praise be to Allaah.

This hadeeth is mawdoo’ (fabricated). It was narrated by Abu Na’eem in al-Hilyah and by others. Its isnaad includes Yahyaa ibn Haashim al-Simsaar.

Imaam al-Nasaa’i said concerning him: “His hadeeth is to be rejected.”

Yahyaa ibn Ma’een said: “He is a liar.”

Ibn ‘Adiyy said: “He used to fabricate and plagiarize hadeeth.”

Du’aa’ upon completing the Qur’aan may be said in either of two situations:

1. During prayer, which is bid’ah (a reprehensible innovation). Acts of worship are based on what is prescribed in Islam (shar’) and on following (the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him)). No one has the right to worship Allaah except in the manner that He has prescribed or according to the Sunnah of our Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him).

Anything other than that is an innovation in the religion. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: “Whoever innovates anything in this matter of ours (Islam) that is not a part of it will have it rejected.” (Agreed upon, from the hadeeth of ‘Aa’ishah).

Al-Shaatibi mentioned in al-I’tisaam and Shaykh al-Islam [Ibn Taymiyah] mentioned in al-Iqtidaa’ an important guideline for telling bid’ah from other things. This is: if the reason and motive for doing a thing existed at the time of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) and the time of the Sahaabah, and they did not do it, although there was nothing to stop them from doing it, then it is bid’ah – such as giving the adhaan for Eid prayers and for prayers for rain (salaat al-istisqaa’), and so on.

Making du’aa’ for completing the Qur’aan during prayer comes under this heading. In Ramadaan, the Sahaabah would stand in prayer for a long time, leaning on sticks because it was so long. In this manner they would complete the Qur’aan more than once, but it was not narrated that any of them made du’aa’ after completing it.

Imaam Maalik (may Allaah have mercy on him) said: I did not hear that he made du’aa’ upon completing the Qur’aan, or any of the other things that people do. This was quoted from him by Ibn al-Haaj in al-Madkhal.

2. The second case is when du’aa’ is made straight after completing the Qur’aan, not during prayer. This was narrated from Anas ibn Maalik with a saheeh isnaad, and it is narrated from a group of scholars, but I do not know of any proven marfoo’ report [i.e., one which goes back to the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him)] concerning that. And Allaah knows best.

Shaykh Sulaymaan ibn Naasir al-‘Alwaan
Published Date: 2001-04-02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

How sound is the hadeeth, “Every time the Qur’aan is completed there is a du’aa’ that is answered”?

Praise be to Allaah.

This hadeeth is mawdoo’ (fabricated). It was narrated by Abu Na’eem in al-Hilyah and by others. Its isnaad includes Yahyaa ibn Haashim al-Simsaar.

Imaam al-Nasaa’i said concerning him: “His hadeeth is to be rejected.”

Yahyaa ibn Ma’een said: “He is a liar.”

Ibn ‘Adiyy said: “He used to fabricate and plagiarize hadeeth.”

Du’aa’ upon completing the Qur’aan may be said in either of two situations:

1. During prayer, which is bid’ah (a reprehensible innovation). Acts of worship are based on what is prescribed in Islam (shar’) and on following (the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him)). No one has the right to worship Allaah except in the manner that He has prescribed or according to the Sunnah of our Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him).

Anything other than that is an innovation in the religion. The Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "Whoever innovates anything in this matter of ours (Islam) that is not a part of it will have it rejected." (Agreed upon, from the hadeeth of 'Aa'ishah).

Al-Shaatibi mentioned in al-I'tisaam and Shaykh al-Islam [Ibn Taymiyah] mentioned in al-Iqtidaa' an important guideline for telling bid'ah from other things. This is: if the reason and motive for doing a thing existed at the time of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) and the time of the Sahaabah, and they did not do it, although there was nothing to stop them from doing it, then it is bid'ah – such as giving the adhaan for Eid prayers and for prayers for rain (salaat al-istisqaa'), and so on.

Making du'aa' for completing the Qur'aan during prayer comes under this heading. In Ramadaan, the Sahaabah would stand in prayer for a long time, leaning on sticks because it was so long. In this manner they would complete the Qur'aan more than once, but it was not narrated that any of them made du'aa' after completing it.

Imaam Maalik (may Allaah have mercy on him) said: I did not hear that he made du'aa' upon completing the Qur'aan, or any of the other things that people do. This was quoted from him by Ibn al-Haaj in al-Madkhal.

2. The second case is when du'aa' is made straight after completing the Qur'aan, not during prayer. This was narrated from Anas ibn Maalik with a saheeh isnaad, and it is narrated from a group of scholars, but I do not know of any proven marfoo' report [i.e., one which goes back to the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him)] concerning that. And Allaah knows best.

Shaykh Sulaymaan ibn Naasir al-'Alwaan
Published Date: 2001-04-02

23 May 2018 18:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Who wants to translate this simple response on the difference between Tawalli and Muwaalaat? Tafaddalu, the source is "Ad-durar as-Saniyyah", volume 8, page 422.

23 May 2018 11:20

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Khalid Van der Lee من اقول الشيخ عبد اللطيف ال الشيخ رحمهم لله

23 May 2018 12:29

Abdullah Abd Ar Rahman Please correct me: „He was asked: about the difference between al-Muwālāh and at-Tawallī? So he answered: At-Tawallī is Kufr, that takes one out of the Millah (i.e. Islām), and it is like defending them and helping them with one’s wealth, body, and views. And al-Muwālāh is a major sin from the major sins. As wetting the ink (pen), or to nib the pen, or the smiling for them, if the whip is raised for them.“

23 May 2018 13:32

Abū Ḥafṣ Al-Ḥanbalī

24 May 2018 05:50

Who wants to translate this simple response on the difference between Tawalli and Muwaalaat? Tafaddalu, the source is "Ad-durar as-Saniyyah", volume 8, page 422.

23 May 2018 11:20

Radwan Dakkak shared his post.

A beautiful response against the claim that you need to drink water when breaking your fast in order to say the Thikr, "The thirst is gone..."

23 May 2018 10:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A beautiful response against the claim that you need to drink water when breaking your fast in order to say the Thikr, "The thirst is gone..."

23 May 2018 10:28

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IPG8\_yW2YE8&feature=youtu.be
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IPG8\_yW2YE8&feature=youtu.be

Wonderful Tajweed of Surat Aal-Imran

23 May 2018 08:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IPG8\_yW2YE8&feature=youtu.be

Wonderful Tajweed of Surat Aal-Imran

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IPG8\_yW2YE8&feature=youtu.be

23 May 2018 08:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Encourage your children to fast, as much as possible, and keep them distracted with toys and games if it helps, and reward them for keeping their fasts.

It was narrated that al-Rubayyi' bint Mu'awwidh رضي الله عنها said: "We used to fast and make our children fast, [and take them to the mosques] and make toys for them out of wool, then if one of them cried for food we would give him that toy until iftar."

Narrated by al-Bukhari. The words in square brackets were narrated by Muslim.

~ Shared.

22 May 2018 20:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

'Abdur-Rahman Ibn 'Awf was literally a millionaire and an expert businessman, and when he gave up everything fee saheelillah and made hijrah to Madinah, he was broke with nothing.

Another companion even offered him so much, but he refused, and went to do business as a merchant, and became a millionaire again.

The point behind mentioning this isn't to solely say "Wow, he is good at getting rich". Even though that's true, there's more to it.

Just imagine he accepted the offer by that companion, and then sat down and relaxed, depending upon others. He wouldn't be a millionaire right?

But rather he chose to become dedicated and aim high in this dunya, not just high, but aim for the best, and most importantly, he did it ALL for the sake of Allah. This is the Yaqeen he had, and with his wealth, he helped the ummah of Muhammad so much.

Remember, it's not about the wealth or becoming rich, but rather it's about the principle he adopted. His dedication, his devotion, his certainty, his passion, everything about his personality was amazing.

What we can also derive from this, is that if you go with the flow and just blind-follow your local Imam without opening up your vision and aiming world-wide, do you think you're going to achieve much? Certainly not!

Yes, you may work throughout your life, and Allah will provide you with Rizq, however Allah provides Rizq to everyone, both the muslim and kafir. As Imam Anwar al-Awlaqi (may Allah accept him) stated, you as a muslim gotta work double the effort.

You gotta work in dunya, but at the same time work for Akhirah, and this is what makes you special and distinguishes you from the mushrikeen.

Do you think going with the flow and making money in this dunya is all this life is about? Alright, you might say "Look, I make du'a", subhan'Allah you make du'a to Allah while you are disobeying Allah?!! You tell your children to break their fast over a simple exam, you indulge in Riba, you don't bother seeking knowledge about the Din!

Then in the end of the day, you say "I make du'a, and may Allah give success to my children", subhan'Allah what success are you talking about after you are clearly disobeying Allah and belittling

His commands?!

This is a reminder to the overwhelming majority of muslims who chase this dunya, and as we know in many hadiths, Rasulullah said whoever chases the dunya, he will be ruined.

But at the same time, don't misquote me and say I'm completely dissing the dunya, because I do acknowledge the words which I repeat in every Salah, "O Allah, grant me goodness in this dunya, and goodness in the akhirah, and protect us from the punishment of hellfire".

So aim high my dear brothers and sisters, and don't even bother complaining about "haters", forget about your complaining and use your haters to be nothing but motivators for you and your goals, and Allah knows best.

22 May 2018 19:55

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

'Abdur-Rahman Ibn 'Awf was literally a millionaire and an expert businessman, and when he gave up everything fee sabeelillah and made hijrah to Madinah, he was broke with nothing.

Another companion even offered him so much, but he refused, and went to do business as a merchant, and became a millionaire again.

The point behind mentioning this isn't to solely say "Wow, he is good at getting rich". Even though that's true, there's more to it.

Just imagine he accepted the offer by that companion, and then sat down and relaxed, depending upon others. He wouldn't be a millionaire right?

But rather he chose to become dedicated and aim high in this dunya, not just high, but aim for the best, and most importantly, he did it ALL for the sake of Allah. This is the Yaqeen he had, and with his wealth, he helped the ummah of Muhammad so much.

Remember, it's not about the wealth or becoming rich, but rather it's about the principle he adopted. His dedication, his devotion, his certainty, his passion, everything about his personality was amazing.

What we can also derive from this, is that if you go with the flow and just blind-follow your local Imam without opening up your vision and aiming world-wide, do you think you're going to achieve much? Certainly not!

Yes, you may work throughout your life, and Allah will provide you with Rizq, however Allah provides Rizq to everyone, both the muslim and kafir. As Imam Anwar al-Awlaqi (may Allah accept him) stated, you as a muslim gotta work double the effort.

You gotta work in dunya, but at the same time work for Akhirah, and this is what makes you special and distinguishes you from the mushrikeen.

Do you think going with the flow and making money in this dunya is all this life is about? Alright, you might say "Look, I make du'a", subhan'Allah you make du'a to Allah while you are disobeying Allah?!! You tell your children to break their fast over a simple exam, you indulge in Riba, you don't bother seeking knowledge about the Din!

Then in the end of the day, you say "I make du'a, and may Allah give success to my children", subhan'Allah what success are you talking about after you are clearly disobeying Allah and belittling His commands?!

This is a reminder to the overwhelming majority of muslims who chase this dunya, and as we know in many hadiths, Rasulullah said whoever chases the dunya, he will be ruined.

But at the same time, don't misquote me and say I'm completely dissing the dunya, because I do acknowledge the words which I repeat in every Salah, "O Allah, grant me goodness in this dunya, and goodness in the akhirah, and protect us from the punishment of hellfire".

So aim high my dear brothers and sisters, and don't even bother complaining about "haters", forget about your complaining and use your haters to be nothing but motivators for you and your goals, and Allah knows best.

22 May 2018 19:54

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

"Giving people the silent treatment is emotional abuse. Some people are programed during childhood to deal with conflict with silent treatment and they believe it's a good way to express anger and avoid confrontation at the same time. But in reality, it is a maladaptive pattern that destroys relationships and trust. When you don't talk to someone about problems between you, you can rest assured that shaytan will be talking to them about you and convincing them of all sorts of things that are far from the truth."

Subhan'Allah, this is very true. Whenever a problem arises, the best thing to do is to clarify it with "that" person, instead of trying to ignore it which only makes it worse. And when everything is clarified, your heart will feel at rest. But refusing to talk (for sometimes weeks and months) and keeping it in isn't healthy whatsoever, trust me it's not worth it. If you immediately solve an issue on the spot, imagine the weeks/months you can enjoy together delightfully at ease, instead of allowing shaytan and his minions to break up a friendship/marriage, or be at odds.

May Allah grant us goodness in this world and the next.

22 May 2018 18:12

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

"Giving people the silent treatment is emotional abuse. Some people are programed during childhood to deal with conflict with silent treatment and they believe it's a good way to express anger and avoid confrontation at the same time. But in reality, it is a maladaptive pattern that destroys relationships and trust. When you don't talk to someone about problems between you, you can rest assured that shaytan will be talking to them about you and convincing them of all sorts of things that are far from the truth."

Subhan'Allah, this is very true. Whenever a problem arises, the best thing to do is to clarify it with "that" person, instead of trying to ignore it which only makes it worse. And when everything is clarified, your heart will feel at rest. But refusing to talk (for sometimes weeks and months) and keeping it in isn't healthy whatsoever, trust me it's not worth it. If you immediately solve an issue on the spot, imagine the weeks/months you can enjoy together delightfully at ease, instead of allowing shaytan and his minions to break up a friendship/marriage, or be at odds.

May Allah grant us goodness in this world and the next.

22 May 2018 18:11

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

My arabic language...

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

Arabic language, the words cannot describe how beautiful it is.

With it, the poetry began to sing the most beautiful of rhythms.

It's the elegance that touches the hearts with its sounds and tones.

It's like the balm that mends and cures the broken hearts.

In its phrases the souls fall in love...

Impressive with its letters, words, eloquence and meanings.

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

Arabic language, the words cannot describe how beautiful it is

With it, the poetry began to sing the most beautiful of rhythms.

How would I say when it comes to praise it...?

It is like the oceans that bring the pearls and corals.

Arabic language, Oh I would that my words were fulfilled...!!

And with it, we have learnt the religion of Allah.

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

Arabic language, the words cannot describe how beautiful it is

With it, the poetry began to sing the most beautiful of rhythms.

And when we just recite a verse from Qur'an, we feel the happiness and the guidance.

And its eloquence in speech distinguishes from other languages...

Isn't it enough honour to be written and the chosen language of the last revelation (Qur'an).

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

• Source: The Nasheed, "My Arabic Language" by Muhammad al-Muqit.

22 May 2018 10:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

My arabic language...

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

Arabic language, the words cannot describe how beautiful it is.

With it, the poetry began to sing the most beautiful of rhythms.

It's the elegance that touches the hearts with its sounds and tones.

It's like the balm that mends and cures the broken hearts.

In its phrases the souls fall in love...

Impressive with its letters, words, eloquence and meanings.

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

Arabic language, the words cannot describe how beautiful it is

With it, the poetry began to sing the most beautiful of rhythms.

How would I say when it comes to praise it...?

It is like the oceans that bring the pearls and corals.

Arabic language, Oh I would that my words were fulfilled...!!

And with it, we have learnt the religion of Allah.

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

Arabic language, the words cannot describe how beautiful it is

With it, the poetry began to sing the most beautiful of rhythms.

And when we just recite a verse from Qur'an, we feel the happiness and the guidance.

And its eloquence in speech distinguishes from other languages...

Isn't it enough honour to be written and the chosen language of the last revelation (Qur'an).

My Arabic language, sufficient for me as it's my language and my eloquence..

My Arabic language is my heart, my soul, my words and my tongue.

• Source: The Nasheed, "My Arabic Language" by Muhammad al-Muqit.

22 May 2018 10:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Highly recommended to install this app. You read a verse from the Qur'an everytime you unlock your phone. May Allah reward the one who came up with this idea.

22 May 2018 08:42

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Highly recommended to install this app. You read a verse from the Qur'an everytime you unlock your phone. May Allah reward the one who came up with this idea.

22 May 2018 08:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://ia601907.us.archive.org/31/items/TheSeventhNullifierMagic/The%20Seventh%20Nullifier%20-%20Magic.pdf>

The Seventh Nullifier - Magic - Shaykh Abdur-Rahman bin Naasir Al-Barrak

Beneficial read (6 pages).

<https://ia601907.us.archive.org/31/items/TheSeventhNullifierMagic/The%20Seventh%20Nullifier%20-%20Magic.pdf>

22 May 2018 08:11

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://ia601907.us.archive.org/31/items/TheSeventhNullifierMagic/The%20Seventh%20Nullifier%20-%20Magic.pdf>

<https://ia601907.us.archive.org/31/items/TheSeventhNullifierMagic/The%20Seventh%20Nullifier%20-%20Magic.pdf>

The Seventh Nullifier - Magic - Shaykh Abdur-Rahman bin Naasir Al-Barrak

Beneficial read (6 pages).

22 May 2018 08:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://t.me/FollowersoftheMessengers>

New channel. Don't forget to utilise this month in reciting as much Qur'an while pondering over its meanings (just saying the obvious). May Allah accept from us.

<https://t.me/FollowersoftheMessengers>

22 May 2018 08:05

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://t.me/FollowersoftheMessengers>

<https://t.me/FollowersoftheMessengers>

New channel. Don't forget to utilise this month in reciting as much Qur'an while pondering over its meanings (just saying the obvious). May Allah accept from us.

22 May 2018 08:04

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Everyone has their own way of memorising Qur'an which is perfectly fine. But there's 1 way I can recommend to improve your vocabulary and understanding (while doing revision), which is to recite the Qur'an whilst reading the english translation.

That way, you will hit 2 birds with 1 stone. What I mean is that when you revise a Surah that you've memorised, invest in an English-Arabic translation of the Qur'an, and while reciting the Qur'an, read the English translation until the meaning gets stuck in your head Insha'Allah.

And keep in mind that you know which words match the sentence, and this will help build your vocabulary (which we call Fiqh al-Lugha).

Wallahu a'lam.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Everyone has their own way of memorising Qur'an which is perfectly fine. But there's 1 way I can recommend to improve your vocabulary and understanding (while doing revision), which is to recite the Qur'an whilst reading the english translation.

That way, you will hit 2 birds with 1 stone. What I mean is that when you revise a Surah that you've memorised, invest in an English-Arabic translation of the Qur'an, and while reciting the Qur'an, read the English translation until the meaning gets stuck in your head Insha'Allah.

And keep in mind that you know which words match the sentence, and this will help build your vocabulary (which we call Fiqh al-Lugha).

Wallahu a'lam.

21 May 2018 17:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah said:

كُلُّ مَنْ عَلِمَ أَنْ غَدَاً مِنْ رَمَضَانَ ، وَهُوَ يُرِيدُ صَوْمَهُ ، فَقَدْ نَوَى صَوْمَهُ

"Everybody who knows that the following day is Ramadan, and he intends to fast it, then he has made his intention for Siyam".

~ Refer to "Al-Fatawa al-Kubra" (2/469)

21 May 2018 15:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah said:

كُلُّ مَنْ عَلِمَ أَنْ غَدَاً مِنْ رَمَضَانَ ، وَهُوَ يُرِيدُ صَوْمَهُ ، فَقَدْ نَوَى صَوْمَهُ

"Everybody who knows that the following day is Ramadan, and he intends to fast it, then he has made his intention for Siyam".

~ Refer to "Al-Fatawa al-Kubra" (2/469)

21 May 2018 15:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Alhamdulillah I've made the most out of my difficult circumstances, and I can't complain. But I always felt there were many things I was missing out on, which if I was given the opportunity, I would excel in. And Subhan'Allah, I don't wanna sound boring by repeating the virtues of Sabr, but it's so true that if your niyyah is true, even if it takes years of waiting, Allah will allow you to break through all the obstacles in your way.

Just recently, I met a wonderful teacher who has a nice manhaj alhamdulillah, and I've never heard anyone tell me this before in my life, and I felt like I was waiting a decade to simply hear these words. It was midnight in his home, and he tells me that he wants to spend years going through Tajweed and teach me the Qiraa'at (various recitations of the Qur'an) and give me an Ijaazah in it.

Only Allah knows how excited I was inside me to hear such words, may Allah bless him for being so kind.

21 May 2018 14:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Alhamdulillah I've made the most out of my difficult circumstances, and I can't complain. But I always felt there were many things I was missing out on, which if I was given the opportunity, I would excel in. And Subhan'Allah, I don't wanna sound boring by repeating the virtues of Sabr, but it's so true that if your niyyah is true, even if it takes years of waiting, Allah will allow you to break through all the obstacles in your way.

Just recently, I met a wonderful teacher who has a nice manhaj alhamdulillah, and I've never heard anyone tell me this before in my life, and I felt like I was waiting a decade to simply hear these words. It was midnight in his home, and he tells me that he wants to spend years going through Tajweed and teach me the Qiraa'aat (various recitations of the Qur'an) and give me an Ijaazah in it.

Only Allah knows how excited I was inside me to hear such words, may Allah bless him for being so kind.

21 May 2018 14:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Waking up for Suhur is part of our Wala' & Bara' 📖

"The difference distinguishing our fast from the fast of the people of the Book (jews and christians) is the suhur meal." [Sahih Muslim].

Alhamdulillah for being different and opposing the mushrikeen! Let your children know this Insha'Allah.

21 May 2018 09:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Waking up for Suhur is part of our Wala' & Bara' 📖

"The difference distinguishing our fast from the fast of the people of the Book (jews and christians) is the suhur meal." [Sahih Muslim].

Alhamdulillah for being different and opposing the mushrikeen! Let your children know this Insha'Allah.

21 May 2018 09:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://t.me/IlmAndThabaat>

Back again, Barak Allahu feekum.

<https://t.me/IlmAndThabaat>

21 May 2018 09:17

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://t.me/IlmAndThabaat>

<https://t.me/IlmAndThabaat>

Back again, Barak Allahu feekum.

21 May 2018 09:17

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hfnYvCIZZ1c>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hfnYvCIZZ1c>

That was a bit painful. Woke up to a stiff neck in the middle of the night (around suhoor time I think), and just realised that pillows can be a big cause to it, including how you slept ofcourse.

21 May 2018 08:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

It's important to differentiate between 'Uqubah (punishment) and Museebah (calamity), and as a believer, every hardship & calamity is considered good with the condition that he's patient. And every delightful time is considered good for a believer with the condition that he's thankful. And from experience, calamities only brought about sweet results and dreams coming true.

Even during the hardest times of your life when you're almost helpless, if Allah uses you to support the Din, I believe that's the greatest blessing and dream come true. Scars will remain here and there, but the strength of Imaan outweighs and overcomes all hurtful experiences (trying your best to forget them and look forward). If it wasn't for calamities, we wouldn't be the same person that we are today, and a sign that Allah loves you, is that He keeps you steadfast and answers your sincere du'a, whereas the one who isn't sincere in private would stumble and fall over, we ask Allah for well-being and good-health.

It was narrated that ‘Ā’ishah said: “When the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) prayed, he would stand for so long that his feet would become swollen.

‘Ā’ishah said: “O Messenger of Allāh, why are you doing this when Allāh has forgiven your past and future sins?”

He said: “O ‘Ā’ishah, should I not be a thankful slave?”

[Narrated by al-Bukhārī (4557) and Muslim (2820)].

20 May 2018 17:03

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's important to differentiate between 'Uqubah (punishment) and Museebah (calamity), and as a believer, every hardship & calamity is considered good with the condition that he's patient. And every delightful time is considered good for a believer with the condition that he's thankful. And from experience, calamities only brought about sweet results and dreams coming true.

Even during the hardest times of your life when you're almost helpless, if Allah uses you to support the Din, I believe that's the greatest blessing and dream come true. Scars will remain here and there, but the strength of Imaan outweighs and overcomes all hurtful experiences (trying your best to forget them and look forward). If it wasn't for calamities, we wouldn't be the same person that we are today, and a sign that Allah loves you, is that He keeps you steadfast and answers your sincere du'a, whereas the one who isn't sincere in private would stumble and fall over, we ask Allah for well-being and good-health.

It was narrated that ‘Ā’ishah said: “When the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) prayed, he would stand for so long that his feet would become swollen.

‘Ā’ishah said: “O Messenger of Allāh, why are you doing this when Allāh has forgiven your past and future sins?”

He said: “O ‘Ā’ishah, should I not be a thankful slave?”

[Narrated by al-Bukhārī (4557) and Muslim (2820)].

20 May 2018 17:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.youcaring.com/supportstrugglingfamilies-1161370>

Full amount raised walhamdulillah!!!

<https://www.youcaring.com/supportstrugglingfamilies-1161370>

20 May 2018 15:08

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youcaring.com/supportstrugglingfamilies-1161370>

<https://www.youcaring.com/supportstrugglingfamilies-1161370>

Full amount raised walhamdulillah!!!

20 May 2018 15:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Don't let a post from social media which states "don't complete the qur'an every 3 days" prevent you from reading alot of Qur'an, because the one who is issuing verdicts without authentic knowledge has fell into the trap of Shaytan!!

The scholars of Hadith who have tasted the sweetness of Tahqiq (scholarship) and Iman (faith) have verified that Imam ash-Shafi'ee and others among the Salaf would read the Qur'an 60 times in the month of Ramadan!

The irony behind social media, where random self-proclaimed salafi's indirectly speak against the Salaf of this ummah. Utilize the month of Ramadan away from social media (and read as much Qur'an as you like), so that you don't have to stumble across posts like these which only cause hardness to one's heart due to the words being spoken so loosely without knowledge!

Ibn Rajab al-Hanbali (may Allah have mercy on him) said:

Qataadah regularly used to complete the Qur'an every seven days, and in Ramadan he would complete it every three days, and in the last ten nights of Ramadan he would complete it every single night. In Ramadan ash-Shaafa'i used to complete the Qur'an sixty times [i.e., twice a day], reciting it outside of prayer. Something similar was also narrated from Abu Haneefah.

The prohibition on reading the entire Qur'an in less than three days is to be understood as referring to doing that persistently. But at auspicious times, such as the month of Ramadan, and especially on the nights on which Laylat al-Qadr is sought, or in auspicious places, such as Makkah for those who go there and are not residents, then it is mustahabb to read a great deal of Qur'an so as to make the most of that time or that place. This is the view of Ahmad, Ishaaq and other leading scholars, and is indicated by the actions of other scholars, as mentioned above.

Lataa'if al-Ma'aarif, p. 171

20 May 2018 14:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Don't let a post from social media which states "don't complete the qur'an every 3 days" prevent you from reading alot of Qur'an, because the one who is issuing verdicts without authentic knowledge has fell into the trap of Shaytan!!

The scholars of Hadith who have tasted the sweetness of Tahqiq (scholarship) and Iman (faith) have verified that Imam ash-Shafi'ee and others among the Salaf would read the Qur'an 60 times in the month of Ramadan!

The irony behind social media, where random self-proclaimed salafi's indirectly speak against the Salaf of this ummah. Utilize the month of Ramadan away from social media (and read as much Qur'an as you like), so that you don't have to stumble across posts like these which only cause hardness to one's heart due to the words being spoken so loosely without knowledge!

Ibn Rajab al-Hanbali (may Allah have mercy on him) said:

Qataadah regularly used to complete the Qur'an every seven days, and in Ramadan he would complete it every three days, and in the last ten nights of Ramadan he would complete it every single night. In Ramadan ash-Shaafa'i used to complete the Qur'an sixty times [i.e., twice a day], reciting it outside of prayer. Something similar was also narrated from Abu Haneefah.

The prohibition on reading the entire Qur'an in less than three days is to be understood as referring to doing that persistently. But at auspicious times, such as the month of Ramadan, and especially on the nights on which Laylat al-Qadr is sought, or in auspicious places, such as Makkah for those who go there and are not residents, then it is mustahabb to read a great deal of Qur'an so as to make the most of that time or that place. This is the view of Ahmad, Ishaaq and other leading scholars, and is indicated by the actions of other scholars, as mentioned above.

Lataa'if al-Ma'aarif, p. 171

20 May 2018 14:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It's incorrect by consensus to merely state "avoiding shirk makes you a muslim", rather you must avoid shirk with "intention and knowledge", as Allah said:

نُمَّ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ أَنْ اتَّبِعْ مِلَّةَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ حَنِيفًا ۖ وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ

"Then We revealed to you, [O Muhammad], to follow the millah of Ibrahim Hanifan (inclining towards truth); and he was not among the mushrikeen" [16:123].

Imam Ibn Kathir mentions in the Tafsir of "to follow the millah of Ibrahim Haneefan":

"The Haneef is the one who turns away from Shirk with INTENTION, i.e. abandoning it with BASEERAH (insight)."

And he also said, "The one who turns away with INTENT from shirk towards Tawheed."

Because as we know, La ilaha ila Allah is only accepted if someone says it while having knowledge about its meaning, and acting upon what it necessitates.

But as for many who claim to be muslim and avoid the shirk of calling upon the dead, the shirk of making tahakum to the Taghut, without INTENT and KNOWLEDGE (i.e. knowing that it's false and making bara'ah from it), then he is considered a mushrik kafir by Ijma', and he doesn't know the meaning of La ilaha ila Allah.

Intention and Knowledge are core fundamental principles of Islam, which is why Rasulullah said, "Indeed, actions are according to their intentions", and Allah said, "Know that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allah."

This is a command from Allah to learn Tawheed and Shirk, and even those who avoid shirk with "intention and knowledge" and alhamdulillah are muslims, but fall into Irjaa' by making excuses for murtaddin and mushrikeen, and rather focus on the dunya instead of learning their deen, these people will be punished by Allah due to their shortcomings in searching for the Haqq and actualising their Tawheed by making complete bara'ah from the Tawagheet and their allies.

Returning back to the issue of avoiding shirk without an intention. This is like someone who avoids murder, stealing and fornication, not due to intention, but simply because he's impotent to carry out these crimes, so what benefit is there in such an avoidance, if you don't do so out of "intent and knowledge".

Or since it's Ramadan, a good example would be someone who doesn't eat or drink during the day of Ramadan "without the intention of fasting", but simply because he wants to fit in, or doesn't even care about the blessed month, he will receive no Ajr for his avoidance of food and water, wallahul-musta'an.

And Allah knows best.

20 May 2018 12:54

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's incorrect by consensus to merely state "avoiding shirk makes you a muslim", rather you must avoid shirk with "intention and knowledge", as Allah said:

ثُمَّ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ أَنْ اتَّبِعْ مِلَّةَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ حَنِيفًا ۖ وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ

"Then We revealed to you, [O Muhammad], to follow the millah of Ibrahim Hanifan (inclining towards truth); and he was not among the mushrikeen" [16:123].

Imam Ibn Kathir mentions in the Tafsir of "to follow the millah of Ibrahim Haneefan":

"The Haneef is the one who turns away from Shirk with INTENTION, i.e. abandoning it with BASEERAH (insight)."

And he also said, "The one who turns away with INTENT from shirk towards Tawheed."

Because as we know, La ilaha ila Allah is only accepted if someone says it while having knowledge about its meaning, and acting upon what it necessitates.

But as for many who claim to be muslim and avoid the shirk of calling upon the dead, the shirk of making tahakum to the Taghut, without INTENT and KNOWLEDGE (i.e. knowing that it's false and making bara'ah from it), then he is considered a mushrik kafir by Ijma', and he doesn't know the meaning of La ilaha ila Allah.

Intention and Knowledge are core fundamental principles of Islam, which is why Rasulullah said, "Indeed, actions are according to their intentions", and Allah said, "Know that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allah."

This is a command from Allah to learn Tawheed and Shirk, and even those who avoid shirk with "intention and knowledge" and alhamdulillah are muslims, but fall into Irjaa' by making excuses for murtaddin and mushrikeen, and rather focus on the dunya instead of learning their deen, these people will be punished by Allah due to their shortcomings in searching for the Haqq and actualising their Tawheed by making complete bara'ah from the Tawagheet and their allies.

Returning back to the issue of avoiding shirk without an intention. This is like someone who avoids murder, stealing and fornication, not due to intention, but simply because he's impotent to carry out these crimes, so what benefit is there in such an avoidance, if you don't do so out of "intent and knowledge".

Or since it's Ramadan, a good example would be someone who doesn't eat or drink during the day of Ramadan "without the intention of fasting", but simply because he wants to fit in, or doesn't even care about the blessed month, he will receive no Ajr for his avoidance of food and water, wallahul-musta'an.

And Allah knows best.

20 May 2018 12:54

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

UPDATE ON BROTHER JIBREEL'S DEPORTATION

The Kuffar did not deport our brother as they said they would but have instead imprisoned him in a different prison for a whole year. May Allah deal with them as He sees fit.

SubhanAllah, the brother is going through a lot of hardship. They are depriving him of his medicine, are not providing him with answers and are preventing him from access to legal help.

For everyone who has donated to his cause, may Allah reward you and grant you the highest levels of Jannah. Your donations are not in vain and Insha'Allah we will deliver the money to the brother. He needs it now more than ever.

We still have 4 days left to raise the funds. Please donate whatever you can in this blessed month to this beautiful brother so that Allah may ease your affairs on a day you will be in need.

Justgiving.com/crowdfunding/aseerjibreel

20 May 2018 09:28

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS UK's post.

---

UPDATE ON BROTHER JIBREEL'S DEPORTATION

The Kuffar did not deport our brother as they said they would but have instead imprisoned him in a different prison for a whole year. May Allah deal with them as He sees fit.

SubhanAllah, the brother is going through a lot of hardship. They are depriving him of his medicine, are not providing him with answers and are preventing him from access to legal help.

For everyone who has donated to his cause, may Allah reward you and grant you the highest levels of Jannah. Your donations are not in vain and Insha'Allah we will deliver the money to the brother. He needs it now more than ever.

We still have 4 days left to raise the funds. Please donate whatever you can in this blessed month to this beautiful brother so that Allah may ease your affairs on a day you will be in need.

Justgiving.com/crowdfunding/aseerjibreel

20 May 2018 09:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm mentions in "Al-Fisal" (3/36) that giving a little bit of sadaqah, striving in the path of Allah, and doing a LITTLE bit of worship during times of hardship and trials is more rewarding than someone doing ALOT of these acts of worship when one is comfortable and rich, etc.

I just thought that this was an amazing piece of advice to share subhan'Allah. Give what you have, even if it's a little bit. Do your best during the hardest of times, because Allah will give you so much ajr!

19 May 2018 20:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Imam Abu Muhammad Ibn Hazm mentions in "Al-Fisal" (3/36) that giving a little bit of sadaqah, striving in the path of Allah, and doing a LITTLE bit of worship during times of hardship and trials is more rewarding than someone doing ALOT of these acts of worship when one is comfortable and rich, etc.

I just thought that this was an amazing piece of advice to share subhan'Allah. Give what you have, even if it's a little bit. Do your best during the hardest of times, because Allah will give you so much ajr!

19 May 2018 20:32

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<http://www.mediafire.com/file/ah7k0qcpax439k6/%D8%B4%D8%B1%D8%AD+%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%B9%D9%82%D9%8A%D8%AF%D8%A9+%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%B7%D8%AD%D8%A7%D9%88%D9%8A%D8%A9.pdf>

<http://www.mediafire.com/file/ah7k0qcpax439k6/%D8%B4%D8%B1%D8%AD+%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%B9%D9%82%D9%8A%D8%AF%D8%A9+%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%B7%D8%AD%D8%A7%D9%88%D9%8A%D8%A9.pdf>

#LINK The explanation of "al-'Aqidah at-Tahawiyyah" (409 pages) by Shaykh al-'Allamah, the Ustadh Humud Ibn 'Uqla' ash-Shu'aybi (may Allah have mercy upon him).

19 May 2018 09:45

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/12kdRfDmVUM6Njn0xOgM3t8FlliQoh1Ms/view?usp=sharing>
<https://drive.google.com/file/d/12kdRfDmVUM6Njn0xOgM3t8FlliQoh1Ms/view?usp=sharing>

A collection of works left behind by Shaykh al-'Allamah Humud Ibn 'Uqla' ash-Shu'aybi (1053 pages), along with letters of the scholars and newspapers making apologies to the Shaykh, may Allah have mercy upon this great Imam of Tawheed.

19 May 2018 09:43

Radwan Dakkak shared The Ideal Muslimah's post.

Ameen ☺

19 May 2018 09:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Ameen ☺

19 May 2018 09:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

19 May 2018 08:33

Radwan Dakkak shared a memory.

19 May 2018 08:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLemj-ewSOdOROpKWOH4hoS35W21c9HP-B>

This is an excellent series on the explanation of the text "al-Ajrumiyyah", 39 videos by Abu Taubah (Allah knows best about his situation today, but the lessons are beneficial).

Note: Before getting deep into grammar, one must build up his vocabulary beforehand (read english/arabic dictionaries), read the Arabic-English translation of the Qur'an, especially during the month of Ramadan. But there's still benefit in going through this series and taking notes Insha'Allah.

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLemj-ewSOdOROpKWOH4hoS35W21c9HP-B>

19 May 2018 07:59

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLemj-ewSOdOROpKWOH4hoS35W21c9HP-B>
<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLemj-ewSOdOROpKWOH4hoS35W21c9HP-B>

This is an excellent series on the explanation of the text "al-Ajrumiyyah", 39 videos by Abu Taubah (Allah knows best about his situation today, but the lessons are beneficial).

Note: Before getting deep into grammar, one must build up his vocabulary beforehand (read english/arabic dictionaries), read the Arabic-English translation of the Qur'an, especially during the month of Ramadan. But there's still benefit in going through this series and taking notes Insha'Allah.

19 May 2018 07:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

In relation to Sūrah Al-Falaq and An-Nās, Ibn Qayyim (رحمه الله) stated that:

“The effectiveness of these Sūrahs is great to repel magic, evil eye, and the rest of the evils and the need for a slave to seek Allāh's protection from these two Sūrahs is greater than his need for eating and drinking.” [Al-Fawa'id, 2/426].

Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) said: “The last two Sūrahs of the Qur'ān are guardians against these three things: evil eye, jealousy and magic, and there are several hadīths pertaining to that.”

18 May 2018 21:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

In relation to Sūrah Al-Falaq and An-Nās, Ibn Qayyim (رحمه الله) stated that:

“The effectiveness of these Sūrahs is great to repel magic, evil eye, and the rest of the evils and the need for a slave to seek Allāh’s protection from these two Sūrahs is greater than his need for eating and drinking.” [Al-Fawa’id, 2/426].

Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) said: “The last two Sūrahs of the Qur’ān are guardians against these three things: evil eye, jealousy and magic, and there are several hadīths pertaining to that.”

18 May 2018 21:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The munafiqeen and defenders of the Tawagheet have continued to criticise the mujahideen in 'Iraq and elsewhere for years and years. They have no Haya' to stop subhan'Allah!!!!

One of the greatest contemporary scholars in knowledge and action, the noble Hafidh and Mujahid, Shaykh al-'Allamah Hamad al-Humaydi (May Allah accept him) once mentioned in a lecture:

That the saudi Tawagheet removed the hukm of Riddah for 100 years!!! They replaced the order of Rasulullah "Whoever replaces his Din, then execute him", because they know very well, YOU FILTHY TAWAGHEET ARE THE FIRST PEOPLE WHO ARE MOST DESERVING OF THE APOSTASY PUNISHMENT O KUFFAR MURTADDIN!!!!

18 May 2018 20:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The munafiqeen and defenders of the Tawagheet have continued to criticise the mujahideen in 'Iraq and elsewhere for years and years. They have no Haya' to stop subhan'Allah!!!!

One of the greatest contemporary scholars in knowledge and action, the noble Hafidh and Mujahid, Shaykh al-'Allamah Hamad al-Humaydi (May Allah accept him) once mentioned in a lecture:

That the saudi Tawagheet removed the hukm of Riddah for 100 years!!! They replaced the order of Rasulullah "Whoever replaces his Din, then execute him", because they know very well, YOU FILTHY TAWAGHEET ARE THE FIRST PEOPLE WHO ARE MOST DESERVING OF THE APOSTASY PUNISHMENT O KUFFAR MURTADDIN!!!!

18 May 2018 20:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"How did the Sahāba have that jealousy? Because they knew when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had heard that in the outskirts of Madinah a woman was mocked. What did the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم do? And how was she mocked? You know the detail of how she was mocked? A Jewish man in the outskirts of Madinah told her: “uncover your face”. And she refused. Niqāb, she’s a niqābi. He told her “uncover your face”, she refused. And then the Jew tied part of her bottom dress with her upper dress so when she stood up, her private parts showed. So she said - you know she called for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم - she shouted and that’s when one of the Prophet’s companions seen her. On the spot he [the Sahābī] chopped his neck off. They [the Jews] overwhelmed the Sahābī, they killed the Sahābī and then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heard about it. What did he say? Did he say, “you know, she’s a big mistake, she made a big mistake. She should have shown him the face. The face is not ‘awrah, it’s okay. Don’t worry about it.” No! He sends an army and he surrounded that tribe and if they were to fight him, he would have annihilated them."

- Shaykh Ahmad Mūsā Jibrīl حفظه الله

18 May 2018 18:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"How did the Sahāba have that jealousy? Because they knew when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had heard that in the outskirts of Madinah a woman was mocked. What did the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم do? And how was she mocked? You know the detail of how she was mocked? A Jewish man in the outskirts of Madinah told her: “uncover your face”. And she refused. Niqāb, she’s a niqābi. He told her “uncover your face”, she refused. And then the Jew tied part of her bottom dress with her upper dress so when she stood up, her private parts showed. So she said - you know she called for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم - she shouted and that’s when one of the Prophet’s companions seen her. On the spot he [the Sahābī] chopped his neck off. They [the Jews] overwhelmed the Sahābī, they killed the Sahābī and then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heard about it. What did he say? Did he say, “you know, she’s a big mistake, she made a big mistake. She should have shown him the face. The face is not ‘awrah, it’s okay. Don’t worry about it.” No! He sends an army and he surrounded that tribe and if they were to fight him, he would have annihilated them."

18 May 2018 18:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allah accept the noble mujahid, Shaykh Abu Mus'ab. He truly looked after the widows and orphans in 'Iraq, unlike how they're abandoned these days. In the seerah of Shaykh Abu Mus'ab, he is among those with the most gheerah for the believing men and women, not only his mahaarim, but every single Muslimah!!

The shaykh captured many purpetrators, which caused complete cities to side with him, may Allah accept him for all the hearts he soothed,

18 May 2018 18:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allah accept the noble mujahid, Shaykh Abu Mus'ab. He truly looked after the widows and orphans in 'Iraq, unlike how they're abandoned these days. In the seerah of Shaykh Abu Mus'ab, he is among those with the most gheerah for the believing men and women, not only his mahaarim, but every single Muslimah!!

The shaykh captured many purpetrators, which caused complete cities to side with him, may Allah accept him for all the hearts he soothed.

18 May 2018 18:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A hadith benefit on when the companion says "We were commanded and forbidden", does this always imply the Rasul?

The noble 'Alim and Mujahid, Shaykh Abu Bakr al-Qahtani (تقبله الله) says:

"The point being, is that these narrators, 'Abdur-rahman Ibn Zayd, Usamah and 'Abdillah were not from the deeply rooted persistent men of hadith and its people, however they were people of righteousness, worship and abstinence (from worldly pleasures).

This also implies that not everyone who's a person of piety in his Din, that he's suitable for other matters, such as narrating hadiths, knowledge, handling the affairs of the people, rather these are abilities and talents, which Allah the exalted and majestic grants to whomever He wishes, and everyone is facilitated to what he's created for (i.e. there's no extra burden upon him).

Based upon this, what would the Prophet say to Abi Thar, despite his righteousness and Taqwa:

"There is no one on earth, or under the sky, who speaks more truthfully than Abu Thar."

But despite that, he said, "O Aba Thar, you are indeed weak."

And he prevented him from attaining leadership, despite his righteousness and Taqwa.

So if a man is seen as upright and pious, this doesn't necessitate his precision and suitability for all matters.

Therefore, what's correct is that this hadith [refer to the last line] is mawquf upon 'Abdillah Ibn 'Umar (as stated by Imam Ahmad, Abu Zur'ah, Ad-Daraqutni and others), being from his statement.

The scholars stated, if it's mawquf, then it takes the hukm of being marfu', because he said "it was made lawful for us", this was mentioned by al-Bayhaqi, Ibn Hajr, and others.

So if a Sahabi says, "we were commanded", or "we were forbidden from the sunnah", or "it was made lawful for us", all these expressions are indicative that he acquired it from the Prophet.

The scholars of hadith summarized the discussion concerning these expressions, and there's a dispute among the scholars, may Allah have mercy upon them.

And we also say, this is not upon that unrestricted citation, which some mention. Not everything that a companion says of, "we were commanded", or "we were forbidden", or "it was made lawful for us", that who's intended is the Prophet.

Rather, the default basic principle is that the Prophet is intended, if it's not acceptably valid except to be attributed to the Shari'ah.

However, in some situations as it's recorded in several narrations, some of the Sahabah would say "we were commanded", so if it's said to him, as it's mentioned in Musannaf Ibn Abi Shaybah from

Anas, he said in some rulings, “we were commanded”, so it was said to him:

“Who commanded you”

So Anas replied, “Umar Ibn al-Khattab”.

Because the rightly guided caliphs have a sunnah which was commanded (by the rasul) to follow, their commands and prohibitions would have a reputable and noble position in the Shari’ah, which is renowned.

So the sahabah could say “we were commanded”, i.e. By the (rightly guided) caliphs, the A’immah, such as Abi Bakr, ‘Umar, and so forth.

But the statement, “It was made lawful from us in the sunnah”, is generally referring to the sunnah of the Prophet, his declarations of what’s lawful and what’s prohibited. And this is the meaning of ‘Abdullah Ibn ‘Umar’s statement, “Two kinds of dead meat and two kinds of blood have been lawful to us”.

- Refer to “The explanation of Bulugh al-Maram” (Lesson 11/13), minute 19:59-23:32.

18 May 2018 17:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A hadith benefit on when the companion says “We were commanded and forbidden”, does this always imply the Rasul?

The noble ‘Alim and Mujahid, Shaykh Abu Bakr al-Qahtani (تقبله الله) says:

“The point being, is that these narrators, ‘Abdur-rahman Ibn Zayd, Usamah and ‘Abdillah were not from the deeply rooted persistent men of hadith and its people, however they were people of righteousness, worship and abstinence (from worldly pleasures).

This also implies that not everyone who’s a person of piety in his Din, that he’s suitable for other matters, such as narrating hadiths, knowledge, handling the affairs of the people, rather these are abilities and talents, which Allah the exalted and majestic grants to whomever He wishes, and everyone is facilitated to what he’s created for (i.e. there’s no extra burden upon him).

Based upon this, what would the Prophet say to Abi Thar, despite his righteousness and Taqwa:

“There is no one on earth, or under the sky, who speaks more truthfully than Abu Thar.”

But despite that, he said, “O Aba Thar, you are indeed weak.”

And he prevented him from attaining leadership, despite his righteousness and Taqwa.

So if a man is seen as upright and pious, this doesn’t necessitate his precision and suitability for all matters.

Therefore, what’s correct is that this hadith [refer to the last line] is mawquf upon ‘Abdillah Ibn ‘Umar (as stated by Imam Ahmad, Abu Zur’ah, Ad-Daraqutni and others), being from his statement.

The scholars stated, if it’s mawquf, then it takes the hukm of being marfu’, because he said “it was made lawful for us”, this was mentioned by al-Bayhaqi, Ibn Hajr, and others.

So if a Sahabi says, “we were commanded”, or “we were forbidden from the sunnah”, or “it was made lawful for us”, all these expressions are indicative that he acquired it from the Prophet.

The scholars of hadith summarized the discussion concerning these expressions, and there’s a dispute among the scholars, may Allah have mercy upon them.

And we also say, this is not upon that unrestricted citation, which some mention. Not everything that a companion says of, “we were commanded”, or “we were forbidden”, or “it was made lawful for us”, that who’s intended is the Prophet.

Rather, the default basic principle is that the Prophet is intended, if it’s not acceptably valid except to be attributed to the Shari’ah.

However, in some situations as it’s recorded in several narrations, some of the Sahabah would say “we were commanded”, so if it’s said to him, as it’s mentioned in Musannaf Ibn Abi Shaybah from Anas, he said in some rulings, “we were commanded”, so it was said to him:

“Who commanded you”

So Anas replied, “Umar Ibn al-Khattab”.

Because the rightly guided caliphs have a sunnah which was commanded (by the rasul) to follow, their commands and prohibitions would have a reputable and noble position in the Shari’ah, which is renowned.

So the sahabah could say “we were commanded”, i.e. By the (rightly guided) caliphs, the A’immah, such as Abi Bakr, ‘Umar, and so forth.

But the statement, “It was made lawful from us in the sunnah”, is generally referring to the sunnah of the Prophet, his declarations of what’s lawful and what’s prohibited.
And this is the meaning of ‘Abdullah Ibn ‘Umar’s statement, “Two kinds of dead meat and two kinds of blood have been lawful to us”.”

- Refer to “The explanation of Bulugh al-Maram” (Lesson 11/13), minute 19:59-23:32.

18 May 2018 17:11

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20171217

An important lecture entitled, "Matters related to Riba which are widespread between the people" by the noble Imam, Shaykh Abu Malik at-Tamimi (تقبله الله):

It's only in Arabic, but Insha'Allah it can be a project for the near-future.

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20171217

18 May 2018 16:05

---

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20171217

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20171217

An important lecture entitled, "Matters related to Riba which are widespread between the people" by the noble Imam, Shaykh Abu Malik at-Tamimi (تقبله الله):

It's only in Arabic, but Insha'Allah it can be a project for the near-future.

18 May 2018 16:05

---

Radwan Dakkak shared 3am Thoughts's post.

Amazing!

18 May 2018 15:22

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Amazing!

18 May 2018 15:22

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I miss the feeling of travelling 45 mins to pray taraweesh everyday when I was younger. Insha'Allah after a good 5 years, I can get into that rhythm today 🙏🙏🙏

18 May 2018 13:00

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I miss the feeling of travelling 45 mins to pray taraweesh everyday when I was younger. Insha'Allah after a good 5 years, I can get into that rhythm today 🙏🙏🙏

18 May 2018 12:59

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allah free him soon!

18 May 2018 11:14

---

Radwan Dakkak shared DOAM - Documenting Oppression Against Muslims's post.

May Allah free him soon!

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Ibn Qudaamah, may Allaah have mercy upon him said in his "Al-Mughni",

"If the fasting person during Wudoo' (ablution) rinses his mouth or snuffs water into his nostrils, and some of it goes into his/her throat unintentionally and without exaggeration, the fast will still be valid. The same opinion was adopted by Al-Awza'i, Is'haaq and Ash-Shaafi'i in one of his two opinions; and it is also narrated from Ibn 'Abbaas.

17 May 2018 15:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Ibn Qudaamah, may Allaah have mercy upon him said in his "Al-Mughni",

"If the fasting person during Wudoo' (ablution) rinses his mouth or snuffs water into his nostrils, and some of it goes into his/her throat unintentionally and without exaggeration, the fast will still be valid. The same opinion was adopted by Al-Awza'i, Is'haaq and Ash-Shaafi'i in one of his two opinions; and it is also narrated from Ibn 'Abbaas.

17 May 2018 15:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The famous grammarian "Seebawayh" is originally known as Abī Bishr ‘Amr Ibn ‘Uthmān Ibn Qanbar:

His nickname, "Seebawayh" means "The fragrance of an apple" in Persian.

17 May 2018 11:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The famous grammarian "Seebawayh" is originally known as Abī Bishr ‘Amr Ibn ‘Uthmān Ibn Qanbar:

His nickname, "Seebawayh" means "The fragrance of an apple" in Persian.

17 May 2018 11:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

For the benefit:

Q. As salamualaikum warahmatullah, a brother asked me a great question regarding disease of nationalism, How come assabyah wasnt included as a nullifier of Islam? If anyone has an answer to this, please do share In sha Allah. JAzakAllah Khair.

A. If you're referring to the 10 nullifiers of Islam by Imam Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhab, then the simple response is that the shaykh didn't include every nullifier of Islam within his small Risalah which we learn and study till this day.

Moreover, nationalism as a concept is without a doubt a Taghut that's worshipped besides Allah, such as Hamas, who make the civilians vulnerable to sniper shots while "peacefully" protesting against the enemies and occupiers of al-Quds (not a single protest except you feel the nationalism and the watani flags), while at the same time, hamas unleashed their weapons against masjid ibn taymiyyah and imprisoned the salafi brothers, wallahul-musta'an.

However it's important to note that there are some forms of nationalism or racism which are found within individuals that don't negate his Tawheed, such as when Abi Thar mentioned in the authentic hadith to bilal, "You are the son of a black woman", so bilal went to the rasul about that, and rasulullah scolded Abi Thar al-Ghafaari and said, "You're a man who still has jaahiliyyah in you".

Subhan'Allah writing this up almost made me cry due to knowing how amazing this great sahabi, Abi Thar is, but even the sahabah are not infallible and fall into sins, which Allah mentions in the Qur'an, so that we can learn from.

Imagine ya akhi!!! 1 sin caused the sahabah to suffer defeat at uhud, imagine us!!!! Those who make bara'ah from mujahideen, those who listen to music, those who drink alcohol, those who take drugs, those who shave their beards, those who make isbaal, those who get amazed by their deeds, those who make tahakum to the Taghut!!!

We are deserving of punishment!!! But wallahi it's the mercy of Allah who gives us so many chances to repent and change ourselves for the better.

What a perfect time to repent to Allah on the 1st night of Ramadan, may Allah bless you my dear brother, and I hope this answer helps, despite it going off topic.

16 May 2018 22:45

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

As-salamu 'alaykum, there's a wonderful muwahhid brother from the UK who's looking for any halal job as he's struggling and under alot of pressure, so if any of you guys are able to help out, let me know Insha'Allah.

16 May 2018 21:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/194BtxsI5T7KdHkAKVMkXPY72cHx8pU-qxRo1nawCUaE/edit#gid=0>

Ramadan Mubarak - This is a beneficial incomplete spreadsheet on the times different mosques/musallah's pray for those in Sydney, NSW:

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/194BtxsI5T7KdHkAKVMkXPY72cHx8pU-qxRo1nawCUaE/edit#gid=0>

16 May 2018 18:58

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/194BtxsI5T7KdHkAKVMkXPY72cHx8pU-qxRo1nawCUaE/edit#gid=0>

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/194BtxsI5T7KdHkAKVMkXPY72cHx8pU-qxRo1nawCUaE/edit#gid=0>

Ramadan Mubarak - This is a beneficial incomplete spreadsheet on the times different mosques/musallah's pray for those in Sydney, NSW:

16 May 2018 18:57

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://youtu.be/loBgykIQemU>

<https://youtu.be/loBgykIQemU>

Tawhīd and Islām (part 2/2) by the noble Hāfidh, Shaykh 'Abdul Jabbār Shākir (فك الله أسرہ).

Lecture is in Urdu with english subtitles.

16 May 2018 11:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://youtu.be/loBgykIQemU>

Tawhīd and Islām (part 2/2) by the noble Hāfidh, Shaykh 'Abdul Jabbār Shākir (فك الله أسرہ).

Lecture is in Urdu with english subtitles.

<https://youtu.be/loBgykIQemU>

16 May 2018 11:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://youtu.be/ZXamVig0Gal>

Tawhīd and Islām (part 1/2) by the noble Hāfidh, Shaykh 'Abdul Jabbār Shākir (فك الله أسرہ).

Lecture is in Urdu with english subtitles.

<https://youtu.be/ZXamVig0Gal>

16 May 2018 11:39

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://youtu.be/ZXamVig0Gal>
<https://youtu.be/ZXamVig0Gal>

Tawhīd and Islām (part 1/2) by the noble Hāfidh, Shaykh 'Abdul Jabbār Shākīr (فك الله أسره).

Lecture is in Urdu with english subtitles.

16 May 2018 11:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"Whoever from the 'Ulamā' fights the Mujāhidīn does not deserve to be looked at in the face, never mind taking knowledge from him."

~ Shaykh al-'Allāmah Nāṣir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره).

16 May 2018 11:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"Whoever from the 'Ulamā' fights the Mujāhidīn does not deserve to be looked at in the face, never mind taking knowledge from him."

~ Shaykh al-'Allāmah Nāṣir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره).

16 May 2018 11:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I've never seen a biography among the contemporary scholars like that of the noble Imām and Hāfidh, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū 'Abdillāh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله):

He is like Shaykh Nasir al-Fahd and Shaykh Khalid ar-Rashid put together, subhan'Allah!!!

16 May 2018 10:40

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I've never seen a biography among the contemporary scholars like that of the noble Imām and Hāfidh, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū 'Abdillāh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله):

He is like Shaykh Nasir al-Fahd and Shaykh Khalid ar-Rashid put together, subhan'Allah!!!

16 May 2018 10:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“You won’t improve your level of humility until you accept the truth from the one you love and the one you hate!”

— Imām Ibn Al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) in
“Madārij al-Sālikīn”, (2/337).

16 May 2018 00:01

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“You won’t improve your level of humility until you accept the truth from the one you love and the one you hate!”

— Imām Ibn Al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) in
“Madārij al-Sālikīn”, (2/337).

16 May 2018 00:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Global moonsighting is the official position of the Hanbali Madhab, i.e. the first country that views the moon, then everyone in the world fasts since the moon is 1 and the same. So for example, if someone from Sham saw the moon and announced it, fasting is wajib upon the whole world. As for those who go by the reputable local moonsighting opinion, that's completely valid and strong as well, and Allah permitted the ummah to differ on this issue since the time of the Sahabah, so let no one flex their muscles and try to "unite the ummah under 1 opinion", because that's only going to cause more problems.

So if you follow the global moonsighting position, that's cool, but you just gotta be careful from starting fitnah. So when you hear about any announcement, start your fast and have your iftaar beautifully. It's not required that you run to a local moonsighting mosque and shout "Hey everyone, I'm fasting today and going to have an amazing iftaar, I can't wait for 'Id...." and so forth.

Just keep it to yourself habibi and try your best to avoid any moon wars, barak Allahu feek.

15 May 2018 18:15

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Global moonsighting is the official position of the Hanbali Madhab, i.e. the first country that views the moon, then everyone in the world fasts since the moon is 1 and the same. So for example, if someone from Sham saw the moon and announced it, fasting is wajib upon the whole world. As for those who go by the reputable local moonsighting opinion, that's completely valid and strong as well, and Allah permitted the ummah to differ on this issue since the time of the Sahabah, so let no one flex their muscles and try to "unite the ummah under 1 opinion", because that's only going to cause more problems.

So if you follow the global moonsighting position, that's cool, but you just gotta be careful from starting fitnah. So when you hear about any announcement, start your fast and have your iftaar beautifully. It's not required that you run to a local moonsighting mosque and shout "Hey everyone, I'm fasting today and going to have an amazing iftaar, I can't wait for 'Id...." and so forth.

Just keep it to yourself habibi and try your best to avoid any moon wars, barak Allahu feek.

15 May 2018 18:14

---

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS Canada's post.

---

Alhamdulillah, this is great news.

15 May 2018 15:15

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Alhamdulillah, this is great news.

15 May 2018 15:14

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Observation | The important but dangerous and controversial topic of takfeer is constantly brought up. But what I can say out of everything I've read from different sects ascribed to Islam that the Salafi 'Aqidah is among the most balanced and purely accurate methodologies when it comes to Takfeer. Because as Ibn Taymiyyah and Ibn al-Qayyim said, Takfeer is the right of Allah and His Messenger, thus we are making takfeer purely based upon what the Qur'an and Sunnah says, along with the guidelines derived by the scholars.

But if you look at the people of innovation, they make takfeer based upon the "lazim" (implications) of one's statement (for e.g. saying Iman is belief in the heart necessitates calling Iblees a muslim - Ahlus-sunnah would not make takfeer upon this mere implication as the one who says Iman is belief in the heart doesn't adhere to it). Whereas the people of innovation differ and even make the basis of takfeer return back to their intellect instead of the textual evidences.

By Allah, if I was to give you a glimpse of the extremism and innaccuracy of takfeer found within every deviant sect, which even made takfeer upon each other based upon MINOR disputes (among each other), NO ONE would ever accuse Imam Ibn Taymiyyah or Imam Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhab as being "extreme".

This doesn't mean Ibn Taymiyyah didn't make any mistake in applying takfeer upon specific people (or infact even make a mistake in excusing some people), and you're free to disagree on this, but the foundation of takfeer according to Ahlus-Sunnah is the most pure form of takfeer, because it's the 'Aqidah of Rasulullah and his companions, may Allah be pleased with them all.

And Allah knows best.

15 May 2018 13:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Observation | The important but dangerous and controversial topic of takfeer is constantly brought up. But what I can say out of everything I've read from different sects ascribed to Islam that the Salafi 'Aqidah is among the most balanced and purely accurate methodologies when it comes to Takfeer. Because as Ibn Taymiyyah and Ibn al-Qayyim said, Takfeer is the right of Allah and His Messenger, thus we are making takfeer purely based upon what the Qur'an and Sunnah says, along with the guidelines derived by the scholars.

But if you look at the people of innovation, they make takfeer based upon the "lazim" (implications) of one's statement (for e.g. saying Iman is belief in the heart necessitates calling Iblees a muslim - Ahlus-sunnah would not make takfeer upon this mere implication as the one who says Iman is belief in the heart doesn't adhere to it). Whereas the people of innovation differ and even make the basis of takfeer return back to their intellect instead of the textual evidences.

By Allah, if I was to give you a glimpse of the extremism and innaccuracy of takfeer found within every deviant sect, which even made takfeer upon each other based upon MINOR disputes (among each other), NO ONE would ever accuse Imam Ibn Taymiyyah or Imam Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhab as being "extreme".

This doesn't mean Ibn Taymiyyah didn't make any mistake in applying takfeer upon specific people (or infact even make a mistake in excusing some people), and you're free to disagree on this, but the foundation of takfeer according to Ahlus-Sunnah is the most pure form of takfeer, because it's the 'Aqidah of Rasulullah and his companions, may Allah be pleased with them all.

And Allah knows best.

15 May 2018 13:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

"It's not astonishing to know about the one who deviated how he deviated, rather what's astonishing is to know how the steadfast one remained steadfast."

- One of the golden quotes I remember reading from "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah".

14 May 2018 18:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

"It's not astonishing to know about the one who deviated how he deviated, rather what's astonishing is to know how the steadfast one remained steadfast."

- One of the golden quotes I remember reading from "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah".

14 May 2018 18:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<http://www.mediafire.com/file/besskr9b1z1dvsl/Fatawa%20al-Hayriyyah.pdf>

Allāhu akbar, Allāhu akbar, Allāhu akbar!!

The amazing book, "Fatāwā al-Ḥāʾiriyyah" (176 pages) by the noble Imām and Hāfidh, Shaykh al-ʿAllāmah Nāṣir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) is FINALISED & COMPLETE!!

Spread it everywhere to attain the ajr, may Allāh allow this book to be a source of benefit for ALL the muslims to understand the correct ʿAqīdah & Manhaj!

Download link below:

<http://www.mediafire.com/file/besskr9b1z1dvsl/Fatawa%20al-Hayriyyah.pdf>

14 May 2018 15:24

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<http://www.mediafire.com/file/besskr9b1z1dvsl/Fatawa%20al-Hayriyyah.pdf>

<http://www.mediafire.com/file/besskr9b1z1dvsl/Fatawa%20al-Hayriyyah.pdf>

Allāhu akbar, Allāhu akbar, Allāhu akbar!!

The amazing book, "Fatāwā al-Ḥāʾiriyyah" (176 pages) by the noble Imām and Hāfidh, Shaykh al-ʿAllāmah Nāṣir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) is FINALISED & COMPLETE!!

Spread it everywhere to attain the ajr, may Allāh allow this book to be a source of benefit for ALL the muslims to understand the correct ‘Aqīdah & Manhaj!

Download link below:

14 May 2018 15:24

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

14 May 2018 11:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

14 May 2018 11:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

If Allah permits me to get married one day, there's nothing I would look more forward too than enjoying the feeling of reciting Qur'an in Salah with a like-minded person next to me. It's not just simply praying for the sake of it, but enjoying that connection with Allah (سبحانه وتعالى) and basing everything upon the pleasure of Allah. This is what distinguishes a blessed marriage from any other marriage out there.

“I dare a husband and wife who do this (night prayer) consistently and faithfully for the sake of Allāh and not have the happiest marriage ever. Prove me wrong and I'm going to say wallāhi to it.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

14 May 2018 10:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

If Allah permits me to get married one day, there's nothing I would look more forward too than enjoying the feeling of reciting Qur'an in Salah with a like-minded person next to me. It's not just simply praying for the sake of it, but enjoying that connection with Allah (سبحانه وتعالى) and basing everything upon the pleasure of Allah. This is what distinguishes a blessed marriage from any other marriage out there.

“I dare a husband and wife who do this (night prayer) consistently and faithfully for the sake of Allāh and not have the happiest marriage ever. Prove me wrong and I'm going to say wallāhi to it.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

14 May 2018 10:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

When you see that girl with a messed up reputation at uni putting on the hijab and praying in Ramadan - that isn't 'trying to acting holy.' That's the essence of Iman. When you see the guy give up the club, put down the bottle, and replace listening to rap tunes with the Book of Allāh in Ramadan - that isn't fake. That's the pinnacle of faith. When you see people taking the Qur'an off that dusty shelf and reciting it for the first time in the year - that isn't being 'typical'. That's true belief. When you see a person sharing Islamic posts in the month despite their shortcomings - that's not double standards. That's a sign that a light exists in the heart. When you see that person without tajwid reciting without a beautiful voice - that's not embarrassing. That's a testification of the beauty that lives within in their souls. When you see Mosques which are empty all year round fill up during the blessed month - that's not hypocrisy. That's a sign that truth still exists within the community.

Perhaps this year a single action of that person you label as a 'Ramadan Muslim' will surpass all of the worship and good deeds that you spent a life time doing. We all had a moment in life when things clicked and we were blessed with guidance. If Allāh can forgive prostitutes, mass murderers, and thieves and give them Jannah due to sincerity then you think that girl without the jilbab, the brother without tajwid, those men without beards, those guys who didn't pray, and the 'Ramadan Muslims' can't be forgiven and given guidance due to sincerity?

- Shared.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When you see that girl with a messed up reputation at uni putting on the hijab and praying in Ramadan - that isn't 'trying to acting holy.' That's the essence of Iman. When you see the guy give up the club, put down the bottle, and replace listening to rap tunes with the Book of Allāh in Ramadan - that isn't fake. That's the pinnacle of faith. When you see people taking the Qur'an off that dusty shelf and reciting it for the first time in the year - that isn't being 'typical'. That's true belief. When you see a person sharing Islamic posts in the month despite their shortcomings - that's not double standards. That's a sign that a light exists in the heart. When you see that person without tajwid reciting without a beautiful voice - that's not embarrassing. That's a testification of the beauty that lives within in their souls. When you see Mosques which are empty all year round fill up during the blessed month - that's not hypocrisy. That's a sign that truth still exists within the community.

Perhaps this year a single action of that person you label as a 'Ramadan Muslim' will surpass all of the worship and good deeds that you spent a life time doing. We all had a moment in life when things clicked and we were blessed with guidance. If Allāh can forgive prostitutes, mass murderers, and thieves and give them Jannah due to sincerity then you think that girl without the jilbab, the brother without tajwid, those men without beards, those guys who didn't pray, and the 'Ramadan Muslims' can't be forgiven and given guidance due to sincerity?

- Shared.

13 May 2018 15:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://t.me/NaasiralFahd>

New channel for Shaykh Nasir al-Fahd. The biggest surprise and accomplishment will be shared tonight Insha'Allah! May Allah accept this in our good scales on judgement day. We can never stop praising and thanking Allah for everything, and Rasulullah said in the authentic hadith, "Whoever is not grateful to the people, is not grateful to Allah", so Insha'Allah this accomplishment can be a sincere gratitude for our beloved Shaykh who has the 9 books of hadiths memorised in his heart, along with dozens of books of 'Aqeedah and Fiqh, and we are only compelled to show so much gratitude for his mother, for giving birth to an Imam like him.

Don't forget the mother of our Shaykh Faris az-Zahrani who was sent to hospital due to the beatings she received by the Tawagheet, and everything that our beloved scholars endured will only be a purification for them. May Allah allow us to be grateful towards our own mothers and fathers for the good they've provided us with, even Ibrahim ('alayhi as-salam) would speak to his mushrik father (Aazar) with respect (Ya abati), so the more you are patient, Allah will reward you. May Allah allow us to be just in speech, and give credit where it's due.

Channel below:
<https://t.me/NaasiralFahd>

13 May 2018 09:50

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://t.me/NaasiralFahd>
<https://t.me/NaasiralFahd>

New channel for Shaykh Nasir al-Fahd. The biggest surprise and accomplishment will be shared tonight Insha'Allah! May Allah accept this in our good scales on judgement day. We can never stop praising and thanking Allah for everything, and Rasulullah said in the authentic hadith, "Whoever is not grateful to the people, is not grateful to Allah", so Insha'Allah this accomplishment can be a sincere gratitude for our beloved Shaykh who has the 9 books of hadiths memorised in his heart, along with dozens of books of 'Aqeedah and Fiqh, and we are only compelled to show so much gratitude for his mother, for giving birth to an Imam like him.

Don't forget the mother of our Shaykh Faris az-Zahrani who was sent to hospital due to the beatings she received by the Tawagheet, and everything that our beloved scholars endured will only be a purification for them. May Allah allow us to be grateful towards our own mothers and fathers for the good they've provided us with, even Ibrahim ('alayhi as-salam) would speak to his mushrik father (Aazar) with respect (Ya abati), so the more you are patient, Allah will reward you. May Allah allow us to be just in speech, and give credit where it's due.

Channel below:

13 May 2018 09:49

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

12 Rights of a Wife upon Her Husband:

1. To spend upon her, to feed her. Not to be excessive in this and not to be stingy.
2. To be kind to her.

The Prophet (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa-sallam) said: "The best among you is the one who is the best towards his wife."

3. Not to harm her.

4. To be loving to her, examples:

(A) Loving to her with your tongue. Nice words, tell her you love her. Tell her how good she looks.

(B) If your wife asks you to get her something and you can't get it, say I'll get it in shaa' Allāh.

(C) That the man beautifies himself with that which is reasonable, (not intimating women).

(D) From being loving to your wife is that you help her with housework. This is from the example of the prophet (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa-sallam)

(E) That he is to be playful with his wife.

(F) Sharing food with her.

(G) To cuddle with her.

(H) Sleep under the same cover.

(I) they would bathe together:

On the authority of 'Ā'ishah (raḍī Allāhu ‘anhu) who said: "I used to bathe with the Prophet from a single container of water which was placed between us such that our hands collided inside it. He used to race me such that I would say: "Leave some for me, leave some for me!" She added: "We were in a state of Janaabah (i.e. the state of having slept together)."[Al-Bukhārī and Muslim].

5. That the men must not curse or swear at his wife, or insult her appearance.

6. A man must not boycott her and if he does (for a valid reason) he should do it inside of the home.

7. A man should not expose the secrets of his wife

"Verily among the worst people before Allāh on the Day of Judgement is a man who approaches his wife sexually and she responds and then he spreads her secrets." [Muslim, Ibn Abī Shaybah, Aḥmad and others].

8. A man should not hate his wife. Exalt the good and minimise her shortcomings.

A man should not be angry at her faults and should look at her good. To look only good in her.

9. That he should make things easy upon her e.g. The chores and what he requires from her.

10. He should have the best manners with his wife. His wife should see the best of his manners. It is said that some men have the best manners out in the market, but when he goes home he is a ferocious lion! Kind to strange women in the markets but not to his wife in the home. The best of you are the best of you to your wives. There is no good in you if you want to help your friends but not your wife, there is no good in you if you are kind to your friends and not your wife. Combine the two, and that is good.

11. That the husband should be a reason for his wife to be saved from the hellfire. He should teach her and order her to forbid the evil and enjoy the good. Forbidding her from that which will lead to hell fire.

O you who have believed, protect yourselves and your families from a fire whose fuel is people and stones, over which are [appointed] angels, harsh and severe; they do not disobey Allāh in what He commands them but do what they are commanded.

12. That the man should have some type of jealousy for his wife.

Jealousy of protecting her from evil, not for her to be exposed to strange men, not for her to speak to strange men etc. but not the abusive jealousy.

— Shared 📌

12 May 2018 18:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

12 Rights of a Wife upon Her Husband:

1. To spend upon her, to feed her. Not to be excessive in this and not to be stingy.
2. To be kind to her.

The Prophet (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa-sallam) said: "The best among you is the one who is the best towards his wife."

3. Not to harm her.

4. To be loving to her, examples:

(A) Loving to her with your tongue. Nice words, tell her you love her. Tell her how good she looks.

(B) If your wife asks you to get her something and you can't get it , say I'll get it in shaa' Allāh.

(C) That the man beautifies himself with that which is reasonable, (not intimating women).

(D) From being loving to your wife is that you help her with housework. This is from the example of the prophet (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa-sallam)

(E) That he is to be playful with his wife.

(F) Sharing food with her.

(G) To cuddle with her.

(H) Sleep under the same cover.

(I) they would bathe together:

On the authority of 'Ā'ishah (raḍī Allāhu ‘anhu) who said: "I used to bathe with the Prophet from a single container of water which was placed between us such that our hands collided inside it. He used to race me such that I would say: "Leave some for me, leave some for me!" She added: `We were in a state of Janaabah (i.e. the state of having slept together)."[Al-Bukhārī and Muslim].

5. That the men must not curse or swear at his wife, or insult her appearance.

6. A man must not boycott her and if he does (for a valid reason) he should do it inside of the home.

7. A man should not expose the secrets of his wife

"Verily among the worst people before Allāh on the Day of Judgement is a man who approaches his wife sexually and she responds and then he spreads her secrets." [Muslim, Ibn Abī Shaybah, Aḥmad and others].

8. A man should not hate his wife. Exalt the good and minimise her shortcomings.

A man should not be angry at her faults and should look at her good. To look only good in her.

9. That he should make things easy upon her e.g. The chores and what he requires from her.

10. He should have the best manners with his wife. His wife should see the best of his manners. It is said that some men have the best manners out in the market , but when he goes home he is a ferocious lion! Kind to strange women in the markets but not to his wife in the home. The best of you are the best of you to your wives. There is no good in you if you want to help your friends but not your wife, there is no good in you if you are kind to your friends and not your wife. Combine the two , and that is good.

11. That the husband should be a reason for his wife to be saved from the hellfire. He should teach her and order her to forbid the evil and enjoy the good. Forbidding her from that which will lead to hell fire.

O you who have believed, protect yourselves and your families from a fire whose fuel is people and stones, over which are [appointed] angels, harsh and severe; they do not disobey Allāh in what He commands them but do what they are commanded.

12. That the man should have some type of jealousy for his wife.

Jealousy of protecting her from evil, not for her to be exposed to strange men , not for her to speak to strange men etc. but not the abusive jealousy.

— Shared 📌

12 May 2018 18:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. Assalamu Alaykum brother, can you please help me. Why does Ibn Taymiyyah call Nusayriyyah murtaddeen, then in the books of fiqh fuqaha define murtad as someone doing kufr after he had Islam. This looks like a contradiction, does this mean nusayriyyah were considered muslims? JazakAllah khayr.

A. Wa ‘alaykum as-salām, wa iyyāk akhil-karīm. The simple response is that the Fuqahā’ who would mention a list of actions, statements and beliefs which are kufr under باب حكم المرتد (Chapter, the ruling on the apostate), they are referring to individual cases of apostasy, i.e. What causes a muslim to become an apostate.

They wouldn't refer to the Tawā'if al-Mumtani'ah (such as the Rāfidah mushrikīn, Nusayriyyah, Ahmadiyyah) who are considered as kuffār murtaddīn, as they utter the shahādah and ascribe to Islām, even though at the same time, they were never considered “muslims” due to their shirk.

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) clarifies this in his lecture of those who condemned the mujāhideen in dealing with those Nusayrī truck drivers in Anbār by saying:

“Even in a sharī point of view he hasn't understood it to begin with. He hasn't understood the difference between the individual who is grabbed for apostasy and the tawāif mumtani'ah (those in the resisting groups).

And that's why all the nullifiers of Islām that were authored, such as the ten nullifiers of Islām by Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb and what Ibn Taymiyyah mentions from the nullifiers of Islām, and what is mentioned by those who came before and after him, they mostly speak about the individual who is grabbed for apostasy.

And what has been narrated from ‘Umar, “Why didn't you seek their repentance?” Because this was one grabbed for apostasy, they wouldn't speak about the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah.

The tāifah mumtani'ah is taken from the sīrah of Abī Bakr as-Siddīq, and ibn Taymiyyah clarified it explicitly in the chapter of jihād from "al-Fatāwā", he said about these groups: "There's nothing wrong in finishing off their wounded and following those who run away amongst them (in battle)"

This is what concerns the tāifah mumtani'ah, the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah differs to the rulings upon the individual cases of apostasy so this person didn't differentiate between the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah, and other than them."

— End Quote from Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

Therefore, it's important to keep in mind that there's a difference between speaking about what causes a muslim to become a kāfir (such as in the books of Fiqh), and the rulings upon the resisting groups who are considered kuffār murtaddīn, despite never being muslims to begin with.

Inshā'Allāh this is clear, and Allāh knows best.

12 May 2018 16:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. Assalamu Alaykum brother, can you please help me. Why does Ibn Taymiyyah call Nusayriyyah murtaddeen, then in the books of fiqh fuqaha define murtad as someone doing kufr after he had Islam. This looks like a contradiction, does this mean nusayriyyah were considered muslims? JazakAllah khayr.

A. Wa ‘alaykum as-salām, wa iyyāk akhil-karīm. The simple response is that the Fuqahā’ who would mention a list of actions, statements and beliefs which are kufr under باب حكم المرتد (Chapter, the ruling on the apostate), they are referring to individual cases of apostasy, i.e. What causes a muslim to become an apostate.

They wouldn't refer to the Tawā'if al-Mumtani'ah (such as the Rāfidah mushrikīn, Nusayriyyah, Ahmadiyyah) who are considered as kuffār murtaddīn, as they utter the shahādah and ascribe to Islām, even though at the same time, they were never considered “muslims” due to their shirk.

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) clarifies this in his lecture of those who condemned the mujāhideen in dealing with those Nusayrī truck drivers in Anbār by saying:

“Even in a sharī point of view he hasn't understood it to begin with. He hasn't understood the difference between the individual who is grabbed for apostasy and the tawāif mumtani'ah (those in the resisting groups).

And that's why all the nullifiers of Islām that were authored, such as the ten nullifiers of Islām by Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb and what Ibn Taymiyyah mentions from the nullifiers of Islām, and what is mentioned by those who came before and after him, they mostly speak about the individual who is grabbed for apostasy.

And what has been narrated from ‘Umar, “Why didn't you seek their repentance?” Because this was one grabbed for apostasy, they wouldn't speak about the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah.

The tāifah mumtani'ah is taken from the sīrah of Abī Bakr as-Siddīq, and ibn Taymiyyah clarified it explicitly in the chapter of jihād from "al-Fatāwā", he said about these groups: "There's nothing wrong in finishing off their wounded and following those who run away amongst them (in battle)"

This is what concerns the tāifah mumtani'ah, the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah differs to the rulings upon the individual cases of apostasy so this person didn't differentiate between the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah, and other than them.”

— End Quote from Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

Therefore, it's important to keep in mind that there's a difference between speaking about what causes a muslim to become a kāfir (such as in the books of Fiqh), and the rulings upon the resisting groups who are considered kuffār murtaddīn, despite never being muslims to begin with.

Inshā'Allāh this is clear, and Allāh knows best.

12 May 2018 16:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

#Book | May Allāh hasten the release of this wonderful book by Sh. Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) entitled, “Commentary on the third nullifier” — Which is a transcript of two amazing lessons

12 May 2018 14:44

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Sultan Albani Also the one about 'the commentary of the 10 Nullifiers' : p
12 May 2018 14:47

Radwan Dakkak Haha, may Allāh allow us to finish the Shaykh's sharh on all 10 nawāqidh in English & Albanian ☺
12 May 2018 14:50

Sultan Albani آمين
12 May 2018 15:43

#Book | May Allāh hasten the release of this wonderful book by Sh. Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) entitled, “Commentary on the third nullifier” — Which is a transcript of two amazing lessons

12 May 2018 14:44

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://t.me/AbaaMaalik>

New channel for Sh. Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله). May Allāh allow us to show gratitude for the martyred and imprisoned scholars who acted upon their knowledge.

Yesterday, I was listening to an Āyah in Sūrat al-Anfāl which really hit me hard due to how true it is, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِن تَتَّقُوا اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ فُرْقَانًا وَيُكَفِّرْ عَنْكُمْ سَيِّئَاتِكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ

“O you who have believed, if you fear Allāh, He will grant you a فرقانا (criterion — to differentiate between Haqq and Bātil), and will remove from you your misdeeds and forgive you. And Allah is the possessor of great bounty.” [8:29].

And this is exactly what I see from our scholars, may Allāh have mercy upon those among them who have attained shahādah, and may Allāh preserve those who are living with a long life full of good deeds, and may their mothers be raised to Firdaws for all the hardships they endured.

Link to the channel below ↓
<https://t.me/AbaaMaalik>

12 May 2018 14:37

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://t.me/AbaaMaalik>
<https://t.me/AbaaMaalik>

New channel for Sh. Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله). May Allāh allow us to show gratitude for the martyred and imprisoned scholars who acted upon their knowledge.

Yesterday, I was listening to an Āyah in Sūrat al-Anfāl which really hit me hard due to how true it is, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِن تَتَّقُوا اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ فُرْقَانًا وَيُكَفِّرْ عَنْكُمْ سَيِّئَاتِكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ

“O you who have believed, if you fear Allāh, He will grant you a فرقانا (criterion — to differentiate between Haqq and Bātil), and will remove from you your misdeeds and forgive you. And Allah is the possessor of great bounty.” [8:29].

And this is exactly what I see from our scholars, may Allāh have mercy upon those among them who have attained shahādah, and may Allāh preserve those who are living with a long life full of good deeds, and may their mothers be raised to Firdaws for all the hardships they endured.

Link to the channel below ↓

12 May 2018 14:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I want to gently touch on the meaning of this #Rule:

الضَّرُورَةُ تُقَدَّرُ بِقَدْرِهَا

“Necessity should be properly estimated (without exaggeration).”

To explain it with 1 example; If you’re dying from thirst, you are permitted to drink a little bit of harām fluids required to survive if that’s the only option, but you cannot exceed that limit (i.e. go into exaggeration).

And in such a situation, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى will pardon you and not hold you to account:

إِنَّمَا حَرَّمَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَيْتَةَ وَالدَّمَ وَلَحْمَ الْخِنْزِيرِ وَمَا أُهِلَّ بِهِ لِغَيْرِ اللَّهِ ۖ فَمَنِ اضْطُرَّ غَيْرَ بَاغٍ وَلَا عَادٍ فَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

“He has only forbidden to you dead animals, blood, the flesh of swine, and that which has been dedicated to other than Allah . But whoever is compelled [by necessity — اضطر], neither desiring [it] nor transgressing [its limit], there is no sin upon him. Indeed, Allah is Forgiving and Merciful.” [2:173].

And Allāh knows best.

12 May 2018 14:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I want to gently touch on the meaning of this #Rule:

الضَّرُورَةُ تُقَدَّرُ بِقَدْرِهَا

“Necessity should be properly estimated (without exaggeration).”

To explain it with 1 example; If you’re dying from thirst, you are permitted to drink a little bit of harām fluids required to survive if that’s the only option, but you cannot exceed that limit (i.e. go into exaggeration).

And in such a situation, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى will pardon you and not hold you to account:

إِنَّمَا حَرَّمَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَيْتَةَ وَالدَّمَ وَلَحْمَ الْخِنْزِيرِ وَمَا أُهِلَّ بِهِ لِغَيْرِ اللَّهِ ۖ فَمَنِ اضْطُرَّ غَيْرَ بَاغٍ وَلَا عَادٍ فَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

“He has only forbidden to you dead animals, blood, the flesh of swine, and that which has been dedicated to other than Allah . But whoever is compelled [by necessity — اضطر], neither desiring [it] nor transgressing [its limit], there is no sin upon him. Indeed, Allah is Forgiving and Merciful.” [2:173].

And Allāh knows best.

12 May 2018 14:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Umar Mahdī Zaydān (تقبله الله) was asked about the Habashī sect, so he replied by saying:

The ahbāsh (pl. of habashī) are from the ghlāt al-Jahmiyyah, they are known for making tawāf around the graves, well-known for allying with the Tawāghīt who rule by other than what Allāh has revealed, especially the Nusayriyyah, and they haven't left a single door of kufr, except that they rammed through it.

Therefore, the ruling upon the ahbāsh is that they're all kuffār, both their heads and their masses.

— Refer to “The explanation of al-‘Aqīdah as-Saffārīniyyah”, the Q&A session after lesson (81/135), minute 25:30.

12 May 2018 13:33

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Umar Maḥdī Zaydān (تقبله الله) was asked about the Habashī sect, so he replied by saying:

The ahbāsh (pl. of habashī) are from the ghulāt al-Jahmiyyah, they are known for making tawāf around the graves, well-known for allying with the Tawāghīṭ who rule by other than what Allāh has revealed, especially the Nusayriyyah, and they haven't left a single door of kufr, except that they rammed through it.

Therefore, the ruling upon the ahbāsh is that they're all kuffār, both their heads and their masses.

— Refer to “The explanation of al-‘Aqīdah as-Saffārīniyyah”, the Q&A session after lesson (81/135), minute 25:30.

12 May 2018 13:32

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

This is the perfect time to be memorising and understanding the book of Allāh. Recite the Qur’ān in a spot that’s most comfortable and enjoy it.

We shouldn't even bother looking at social media, we should irresistibly love looking at the Qur’ān.

Everyone sets goals for themselves, and one of my goals is to only come on social media to post some benefits and quickly leave.

The shoes outside the masājīd for fajr are better than the crowns on the heads of sleeping kings!

12 May 2018 07:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

This is the perfect time to be memorising and understanding the book of Allāh. Recite the Qur’ān in a spot that’s most comfortable and enjoy it.

We shouldn't even bother looking at social media, we should irresistibly love looking at the Qur’ān.

Everyone sets goals for themselves, and one of my goals is to only come on social media to post some benefits and quickly leave.

The shoes outside the masājīd for fajr are better than the crowns on the heads of sleeping kings!

12 May 2018 07:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Hanbalī_Fiqh

Fiqh Lesson — (Part 9) 📖

We will be continuing what’s considered makrūh and harām in the topic of answering the call to nature during this lesson Inshā’Allāh.

- First makrūh — As we mentioned in the previous lesson, among the disliked matters is entering the bathroom with something that contains the Thikr of Allāh, or something that’s to be respected.

For example, if you enter the bathroom with a book that mentions the name of Allāh, or a small booklet of Athkār, then it’s considered disliked to enter the bathroom with it, unless there’s a need to do so.

- Second makrūh — Speaking, i.e. talking while answering the call to nature, this is considered disliked due to what has been narrated in the ḥadīth concerning this.

- Third makrūh — Touching one’s private part with the right hand. So it’s considered disliked for anyone to touch their private part with the right hand while answering the call to nature.

It's very important to note that this ruling is only regarding touching one's private part while answering the call to nature. As for touching the private part with the right hand in other cases, there's absolutely nothing wrong with this.

- Fourth makrūh — Using the right hand to clean yourself. So if you're in the toilet, it's disliked to use your right hand to clean yourself, and that's pretty straight forward.

Therefore, it's considered disliked to touch your private part with the right hand, and it's also considered disliked to clean yourself with the right hand.

But you might ask a valid question, when you clean yourself, doesn't this necessitate using your right hand to touch your private part?

The simple response is "No", that's not the case. Since you can hold a tissue, so that your hand doesn't touch your private part directly, but rather there's a barrier, hence the tissue is touching it instead (back in the old days, they would use small stones instead of tissues).

So if you're able to make istinjā' without using your right, that's what's required. But if you're not able too and there's a حاجة (need) to use your right hand, then always keep this rule in your mind, whenever there's a need, the ruling changes from being makrūh to permissible.

- Fifth makrūh — Urinating in a wide open hole. So if someone was in a desert for instance, and there was a wide open hole, then it's considered makrūh (disliked) to intentionally urinate towards it to fulfil one's need. Rather, he should find an area that's levelled, not turning towards these open holes and pits.

- Sixth makrūh — Urinating in a cup or any other utensil without a need. But if there's a need to do so, then again, the ruling of it being disliked is removed, and it's absolutely fine to do so, especially for medical reasons.

So these are the makrūh matters, and we'll continue with the harām matters Inshā'Allāh.

- First harām — We mentioned in the previous lesson that entering the toilet with a mus'haf is considered harām, because exalting it is considered wājib, hence it's never allowed to enter the bathroom with it, and even to avoid the possibility of impurities to befall upon it.

Shaykh 'Alā' ad-Dīn al-Mirdāwī (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Al-Insāf", "No rational person would doubt its prohibition".

- Second harām — Facing the qiblah or turning one's back to the qiblah while answering the call to nature, unless there's a wall.

What does this mean? Basically, it means that according to the sharī'ah, it's impermissible to face the direction of the qiblah while answering the call to nature, and it's also impermissible to face the opposite direction of the qiblah (i.e. turning one's back to the qiblah).

So he's got two directions to face, either right or left of the qiblah (or "east and west" to be precise). And there's a hadīth which prohibits facing and turning one's back to the qiblah.

But as for being inside buildings, then there's nothing wrong with facing the qiblah or turning one's back towards it, because there's a wall (barrier).

And what's the proof for this? The evidence used to show that it's permissible is via the actions of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) when he answered the call to nature in the building while turning his back towards the qiblah.

Likewise, if someone was in the desert, and the qiblah was in front of you for example, however there's a huge rock between you and the qiblah, and he faced the direction of a rock that's close to him, or even faced the direction of a car close to him, then this is not considered harām.

It's also important to note that this issue is among the major differed upon matters, but getting into details and differences of opinion is outside the scope of our lessons.

I hope this is very clear, and one of the advices the scholars would give in helping one to retain what he has memorised is to implement his knowledge.

Therefore, revise these topics and try your best to act upon it, and in fact raising your voice when making a Thikr is prescribed. For example, when you leave the bathroom, say "Ghufrānak", so that way your spouse and children will follow suit.

We'll cut the lesson short at that and continue what's considered harām in the next lesson Inshā'Allāh, and Allāh knows best.

— Refer to "Sharh an-Nathm al-Jalī fil-Fiqh al-Hanbalī".

11 May 2018 22:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Hanbalī_Fiqh

We will be continuing what's considered makrūh and harām in the topic of answering the call to nature during this lesson Inshā'Allāh.

- First makrūh — As we mentioned in the previous lesson, among the disliked matters is entering the bathroom with something that contains the Thikr of Allāh, or something that's to be respected.

For example, if you enter the bathroom with a book that mentions the name of Allāh, or a small booklet of Athkār, then it's considered disliked to enter the bathroom with it, unless there's a need to do so.

- Second makrūh — Speaking, i.e. talking while answering the call to nature, this is considered disliked due to what has been narrated in the hadīth concerning this.

- Third makrūh — Touching one's private part with the right hand. So it's considered disliked for anyone to touch their private part with the right hand while answering the call to nature.

It's very important to note that this ruling is only regarding touching one's private part while answering the call to nature. As for touching the private part with the right hand in other cases, there's absolutely nothing wrong with this.

- Fourth makrūh — Using the right hand to clean yourself. So if you're in the toilet, it's disliked to use your right hand to clean yourself, and that's pretty straight forward.

Therefore, it's considered disliked to touch your private part with the right hand, and it's also considered disliked to clean yourself with the right hand.

But you might ask a valid question, when you clean yourself, doesn't this necessitate using your right hand to touch your private part?

The simple response is "No", that's not the case. Since you can hold a tissue, so that your hand doesn't touch your private part directly, but rather there's a barrier, hence the tissue is touching it instead (back in the old days, they would use small stones instead of tissues).

So if you're able to make istinjā' without using your right, that's what's required. But if you're not able too and there's a حاجة (need) to use your right hand, then always keep this rule in your mind, whenever there's a need, the ruling changes from being makrūh to permissible.

- Fifth makrūh — Urinating in a wide open hole. So if someone was in a desert for instance, and there was a wide open hole, then it's considered makrūh (disliked) to intentionally urinate towards it to fulfil one's need. Rather, he should find an area that's levelled, not turning towards these open holes and pits.

- Sixth makrūh — Urinating in a cup or any other utensil without a need. But if there's a need to do so, then again, the ruling of it being disliked is removed, and it's absolutely fine to do so, especially for medical reasons.

So these are the makrūh matters, and we'll continue with the harām matters Inshā'Allāh.

- First harām — We mentioned in the previous lesson that entering the toilet with a mus'haf is considered harām, because exalting it is considered wājib, hence it's never allowed to enter the bathroom with it, and even to avoid the possibility of impurities to befall upon it.

Shaykh 'Alā' ad-Dīn al-Mirdāwī (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Al-Insāf", "No rational person would doubt its prohibition".

- Second harām — Facing the qiblah or turning one's back to the qiblah while answering the call to nature, unless there's a wall.

What does this mean? Basically, it means that according to the sharī'ah, it's impermissible to face the direction of the qiblah while answering the call to nature, and it's also impermissible to face the opposite direction of the qiblah (i.e. turning one's back to the qiblah).

So he's got two directions to face, either right or left of the qiblah (or "east and west" to be precise). And there's a hadīth which prohibits facing and turning one's back to the qiblah.

But as for being inside buildings, then there's nothing wrong with facing the qiblah or turning one's back towards it, because there's a wall (barrier).

And what's the proof for this? The evidence used to show that it's permissible is via the actions of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) when he answered the call to nature in the building while turning his back towards the qiblah.

Likewise, if someone was in the desert, and the qiblah was in front of you for example, however there's a huge rock between you and the qiblah, and he faced the direction of a rock that's close to him, or even faced the direction of a car close to him, then this is not considered harām.

It's also important to note that this issue is among the major differed upon matters, but getting into details and differences of opinion is outside the scope of our lessons.

I hope this is very clear, and one of the advices the scholars would give in helping one to retain what he has memorised is to implement his knowledge.

Therefore, revise these topics and try your best to act upon it, and infact raising your voice when making a Thikr is prescribed. For example, when you leave the bathroom, say “Ghufrānak”, so that way your spouse and children will follow suit.

We'll cut the lesson short at that and continue what's considered harām in the next lesson Inshā'Allāh, and Allāh knows best.

— Refer to “Sharh an-Nathm al-Jalī fil-Fiqh al-Hanbalī”.

11 May 2018 22:44

Radwan Dakkak shared Muslim Ibn Abdullah's post.

First time I hear that. What's up with the du'aat of the UK lol, they're fried :D

10 May 2018 20:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The true Fuqahā' would be harsh upon major shirk, minor shirk, major sins and even minor sins, because they knew that by remaining silent and lenient on these matters, it only only brings about mischief and evil.

But at the same time, they would remind the muslims of having hope in Allāh and that Allāh loves the repentance of His slave. Then they will remind the muslims of the 1st hadīth in sunan ad-Dārimī that whoever returns back to a sin, he would receive the punishment for that sin twice, which will help actualise the condition of their Tawbah by not returning back to it.

As Imām Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) explained, the khawārij went into extremes in fear (Allāh being severe in punishment), and the murji'ah went into extremes in hope (Allāh being the most merciful and forgiving), and both sects were destroyed by this, hence balancing between the wing of fear and hope is the way of ahlus-sunnah wal-jamā'ah.

والله أعلم

10 May 2018 18:16

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The true Fuqahā' would be harsh upon major shirk, minor shirk, major sins and even minor sins, because they knew that by remaining silent and lenient on these matters, it only only brings about mischief and evil.

But at the same time, they would remind the muslims of having hope in Allāh and that Allāh loves the repentance of His slave. Then they will remind the muslims of the 1st hadīth in sunan ad-Dārimī that whoever returns back to a sin, he would receive the punishment for that sin twice, which will help actualise the condition of their Tawbah by not returning back to it.

As Imām Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) explained, the khawārij went into extremes in fear (Allāh being severe in punishment), and the murji'ah went into extremes in hope (Allāh being the most merciful and forgiving), and both sects were destroyed by this, hence balancing between the wing of fear and hope is the way of ahlus-sunnah wal-jamā'ah.

والله أعلم

10 May 2018 18:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

This Āyah is frequently used to prove the disbelief of those who ally with the kuffār, however I simply want to focus on the words “they are allies of one another”, so that we can get a better understanding when reciting this Āyah over and over again.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says, “O you who have believed, do not take the Jews and the Christians as allies. They are [in fact] allies of one another. And whoever is an ally to them among you - then indeed, he is [one] of them. Indeed, Allah guides not the wrongdoing people.” [5:51].

Imām ash-Shawkānī (رحمه الله) mentions in his outstanding Tafsīr book entitled, “Fath al-Qadīr” (page 378):

“Allāh's statement, “They are allies of one another”, is a reasoning of the prohibition (for the muslims to take them as allies).

And what it means is that some of the jews are allies of others among their own, and that some of the christians are allies of others among their own.

The word “الْبعض” (i.e. some “are allies”) doesn’t mean one of the two groups among the jews and christians, and the other “بعض” (i.e. “some”) doesn’t refer to the other one of the two groups (i.e. doesn’t mean the jews and christians are allies of one another), due to the definite proof that these two groups have hostility and discord between each other.

“The Jews say “The Christians have nothing [true] to stand on,” and the Christians say, “The Jews have nothing to stand on.” [2:113].

However, it has been said that each of these two groups (the jews and christians) ally with each other and collaborate together, and support one another in having hostility to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), and having enmity towards what he came with, even though they (i.e. the jews and christians) within themselves oppose and hate each other.

And the point of view behind the reasoning for the prohibition (of taking them as allies) by this phrase is that it necessitates that this alliance is from the habitual nature of these kuffār, it has nothing to do with you.

So do not perform what they are doing, or else you will become like them. And for this reason, he ended this explanative phrase with a result by doing such an act, so Allāh said:

“And whoever is an ally to them among you - then indeed, he is [one] of them.”

Meaning, certainly he is considered one of them and among their ranks, and this is a severe impending threat, for indeed the sin which necessitates Kufr, it is something which has reached a limit wherein there’s nothing past that limit.

And Allāh’s statement (at the end of the verse), “Indeed, Allah guides not the wrongdoing people.”

This is a reasoning hanged upon the phrase which came before it; Meaning, the reason they fell into Kufr was due to Allāh سبحانه وتعالى not giving guidance to the one who has wronged (oppressed) himself, on doing something which necessitates Kufr, such as whoever allies with the disbelievers.”

10 May 2018 17:49

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

This Āyah is frequently used to prove the disbelief of those who ally with the kuffār, however I simply want to focus on the words “they are allies of one another”, so that we can get a better understanding when reciting this Āyah over and over again.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says, “O you who have believed, do not take the Jews and the Christians as allies. They are [in fact] allies of one another. And whoever is an ally to them among you - then indeed, he is [one] of them. Indeed, Allah guides not the wrongdoing people.” [5:51].

Imām ash-Shawkānī (رحمه الله) mentions in his outstanding Tafsīr book entitled, “Fath al-Qadīr” (page 378):

“Allāh’s statement, “They are allies of one another”, is a reasoning of the prohibition (for the muslims to take them as allies).

And what it means is that some of the jews are allies of others among their own, and that some of the christians are allies of others among their own.

The word “الْبعض” (i.e. some “are allies”) doesn’t mean one of the two groups among the jews and christians, and the other “بعض” (i.e. “some”) doesn’t refer to the other one of the two groups (i.e. doesn’t mean the jews and christians are allies of one another), due to the definite proof that these two groups have hostility and discord between each other.

“The Jews say “The Christians have nothing [true] to stand on,” and the Christians say, “The Jews have nothing to stand on.” [2:113].

However, it has been said that each of these two groups (the jews and christians) ally with each other and collaborate together, and support one another in having hostility to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), and having enmity towards what he came with, even though they (i.e. the jews and christians) within themselves oppose and hate each other.

And the point of view behind the reasoning for the prohibition (of taking them as allies) by this phrase is that it necessitates that this alliance is from the habitual nature of these kuffār, it has nothing to do with you.

So do not perform what they are doing, or else you will become like them. And for this reason, he ended this explanative phrase with a result by doing such an act, so Allāh said:

“And whoever is an ally to them among you - then indeed, he is [one] of them.”

Meaning, certainly he is considered one of them and among their ranks, and this is a severe impending threat, for indeed the sin which necessitates Kufr, it is something which has reached a limit wherein there's nothing past that limit.

And Allāh's statement (at the end of the verse), "Indeed, Allah guides not the wrongdoing people."

This is a reasoning hanged upon the phrase which came before it; Meaning, the reason they fell into Kufr was due to Allāh وَتَعَالَىٰ سُبْحَانَهُ not giving guidance to the one who has wronged (oppressed) himself, on doing something which necessitates Kufr, such as whoever allies with the disbelievers."

10 May 2018 17:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Being sad at times is normal, but remaining sad is not. If you truly had good intentions and enjoyed Salāh and the remembrance of Allāh, you cannot "remain sad", knowing how short this life will be.

Purify your intentions my brothers and sisters, because everything starts off with an intention. The best thing I've come across till this day which purifies my intentions is not simply thinking about how much knowledge I am lacking in 'Aqīdah, Fiqh, Arabic and Hadīth, but rather imagining my soul being taken at any moment by the angel of death and being buried in the grave is what frightens me and literally forces me to purify my intentions.

How amazing is it that Allāh has made the grave a perfect reminder and purifier which gives life to the heart!

And Allāh knows best.

10 May 2018 13:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Being sad at times is normal, but remaining sad is not. If you truly had good intentions and enjoyed Salāh and the remembrance of Allāh, you cannot "remain sad", knowing how short this life will be.

Purify your intentions my brothers and sisters, because everything starts off with an intention. The best thing I've come across till this day which purifies my intentions is not simply thinking about how much knowledge I am lacking in 'Aqīdah, Fiqh, Arabic and Hadīth, but rather imagining my soul being taken at any moment by the angel of death and being buried in the grave is what frightens me and literally forces me to purify my intentions.

How amazing is it that Allāh has made the grave a perfect reminder and purifier which gives life to the heart!

And Allāh knows best.

10 May 2018 13:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I get very upset whenever anyone discourages me from reciting Qur'ān and claims I might die early or become crazy if I recite too much. I have feelings subhān'Allāh, please don't disrespect the words of Allāh. Allow me to do what I like to do, even if it might be considered extreme in your eyes.

Also, I really love it when someone sees the Mus'haf and touches it gently and carefully, and always speaks in a respectful tone whenever the Mus'haf is mentioned in any context. Please be soft and honour the words of Allāh, this is the uncreated speech of Allāh, we all receive guidance from it.

May Allāh keep my body healthy both spiritually and physically, Āmīn.

10 May 2018 12:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I get very upset whenever anyone discourages me from reciting Qur'ān and claims I might die early or become crazy if I recite too much. I have feelings subhān'Allāh, please don't disrespect the words of Allāh. Allow me to do what I like to do, even if it might be considered extreme in your eyes.

Also, I really love it when someone sees the Mus'haf and touches it gently and carefully, and always speaks in a respectful tone whenever the Mus'haf is mentioned in any context. Please be soft and honour the words of Allāh, this is the uncreated speech of Allāh, we all receive guidance from it.

May Allāh keep my body healthy both spiritually and physically, Āmīn.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. Nice and all bro as an entertaining story , but u sure that this really happened ?
Or u just sharing it as a funny thing ?

A. It's a well-known authentically recorded incident, the king of 'Irāq chose Imām al-Bāqillānī (رحمه الله) to debate the christians in Constantinople, in the year 371H, since he was one of the best scholars during his time, and such a skilled debater, I'll also mention another part of his debate:

When Abū Bakr met to debate a christian priest, the christian asked him: "You muslims have fanaticism to your own kind."

فقال النصراني: أأنتم المسلمون عندكم عنصرية

Al-Bāqillānī (رحمه الله) replied, "How is that so?"

قال الباقلائي: وما ذاك؟

The christian said, "You permit for yourselves to marry a kitābiyyah — jew or christian — but you do not permit for others to marry your daughters.

قال النصراني: تبيحون لأنفسكم زواج الكتابية - اليهودية أو النصرانية- ولا تبيحون لغيركم الزواج ببناتكم

So the Imām said to him, "We can marry a jewish woman because we believed in Mūsā, and we can marry a christian woman because we believed in 'Īsa, so whenever you believe in Muhammad, we will marry our daughters to you."

قال له الإمام: نحن نتزوج اليهودية لأننا آمنّا بموسى، ونتزوج النصرانية لأننا آمنّا بيسى، وأنتم متى ما آمنتم بمحمد زوجناكم بناتنا

So the one who disbelieved became absolutely speechless.

فبهت الذي كفر

10 May 2018 06:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Some brothers just need to settle down and stop acting like a wanna be official spokesman for the mujahideen in their bedrooms.

9 May 2018 21:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The king of rome purposely designed a door very short so that everyone who enters would bow down to him, but Imām Abū Bakr al-Bāqillānī (رحمه الله) humiliates the roman king:

"When al-Bāqillānī attended, he noticed the trap (of the slanted door), so he turned his body backwards and bended over, then entered through the door while walking backwards, allowing his bottom to face the roman king, instead of showing his face!

At this point, the king knew that he was in front of a cunning person. Al-Bāqillānī entered and greeted them, but he did not give salāms to them (due to the prohibition of the Rasūl on initiating ahlul-kitāb with salāms), then he turned to the major priest and said to him:

"How are you doing, and how is your family and children?"

The roman king bursted in anger and said, "Don't you know that our priests do not marry, nor do they beget children?"

So Abū Bakr (al-Bāqillānī) said, "Allāhu akbar! You disassociate your priests from marriage and having children, then you accuse your lord of being married to Maryam and begetting 'Īsa as a child?"

So the king bursted in more anger! Then the king said, without any shame, "What is your opinion about what 'Ā'isha did?"

Abū Bakr replied, "If 'Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها) has been accused (the hypocrites and Rāfidah accused her of zinā), then Maryam has also been accused (the jews accused her of zinā), and they are both pure chaste women.

However, 'Ā'isha got married and she didn't beget a child, but as for Maryam, she begot a child without a marriage! So who is more deserving of the FALSE accusation, and God Forbid them from that, may Allāh be pleased with them both?"

So the king became so crazy!

The king asked, “Did your Prophet fight battles?!”

Abū Bakr replied, “Yes”.

The king asked, “Did he used to fight on the frontline?!”

Abū Bakr replied, “Yes”.

The king asked, “Did he used to gain victory?!”

Abū Bakr replied, “Yes”.

The king asked, “Did he used to suffer defeats?!”

Abū Bakr replied, “Yes”

The king said, “Astonishing! A prophet who suffers defeat?”

Abū Bakr replied, “A god who gets crucified?!”

So the one who disbelieved become shockingly dumbfounded!!”

— Refer to “Tārīkh Baghdād” (5/379) by Al-Khatīb al-Baghdādī (رحمه الله).

9 May 2018 20:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The king of rome purposely designed a door very short so that everyone who enters would bow down to him, but Imām Abū Bakr al-Bāqillānī (رحمه الله) humiliates the roman king:

“When al-Bāqillānī attended, he noticed the trap (of the slanted door), so he turned his body backwards and bended over, then entered through the door while walking backwards, allowing his bottom to face the roman king, instead of showing his face!

At this point, the king knew that he was infront of a cunning person. Al-Bāqillānī entered and greeted them, but he did not give salāms to them (due to the prohibition of the Rasūl on initiating ahlul-kitāb with salāms), then he turned to the major priest and said to him:

“How are you doing, and how is your family and children?”

The roman king bursted in anger and said, “Don't you know that our priests do not marry, nor do they beget children?”

So Abū Bakr (al-Bāqillānī) said, “Allāhu akbar! You disassociate your priests from marriage and having children, then you accuse your lord of being married to Maryam and begetting ‘Īsa as a child?”

So the king bursted in more anger! Then the king said, without any shame, “What is your opinion about what ‘Ā'isha did?”

Abū Bakr replied, “If ‘Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها) has been accused (the hypocrites and Rāfidah accused her of zinā), then Maryam has also been accused (the jews accused her of zinā), and they are both pure chaste women.

However, ‘Ā'isha got married and she didn't beget a child, but as for Maryam, she begot a child without a marriage! So who is more deserving of the FALSE accusation, and God Forbid them from that, may Allāh be pleased with them both?”

So the king became so crazy!

The king asked, “Did your Prophet fight battles?!”

Abū Bakr replied, “Yes”.

The king asked, “Did he used to fight on the frontline?!”

Abū Bakr replied, “Yes”.

The king asked, “Did he used to gain victory?!”

Abū Bakr replied, “Yes”.

The king asked, “Did he used to suffer defeats?!”

Abū Bakr replied, “Yes”

The king said, “Astonishing! A prophet who suffers defeat?”

Abū Bakr replied, “A god who gets crucified?!”

So the one who disbelieved become shockingly dumbfounded!!”

— Refer to “Tārīkh Baghdād” (5/379) by Al-Khatīb al-Baghdādī (رحمه الله).

9 May 2018 20:45

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ahkam Akram wow u play cricket... masha Allah

9 May 2018 19:49

Radwan Dakkak Put an end to cricket 4 years ago, I play a few other sports and competitions right now, but just for fun.

9 May 2018 19:58

Muhammad Sauvlat Kashmir wilow is famous ..huh

9 May 2018 20:41

Zayn Ali my first bat was a slazenger "master blaster" that i found under a house. it was english willow n heavy like 3kg+ its retro that i can't find any images on google. 😊carrying the bat to school was a workout itself

9 May 2018 20:58

Zayn Ali btw inbox me details if u are planning to sell or give away half broken bats i can fix em.

9 May 2018 21:01

Would be a nice set of kashmir willow to get 😊 I got around 20 half-broken bats 😊

9 May 2018 19:13

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Being overly-jealous can be a struggle, which is why it helps so much if a mahram is understanding and has a strong sense of hayā’.

9 May 2018 07:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Being overly-jealous can be a struggle, which is why it helps so much if a mahram is understanding and has a strong sense of hayā’.

9 May 2018 07:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shaytān wasn't only the first racist (thinking he is superior to Ādam's image) and a rationalist (giving preference to the ‘Aql over the command of Allāh), but he was also the first one to refuse the Khilāfah of Ādam (عليه السلام).

Allāh وتعالى سبحانه says to the angels before creating Ādam, “And [mention, O Muhammad], when your Lord said to the angels, "Indeed, I will make upon the earth a Khalīfah (successive authority).” [2:30].

Therefore, everyone who is falling into the major sins of being a racist, a rationalist, and disobedient to the Khalīfah of the muslims, then he is following the footsteps of Shaytān.

8 May 2018 15:58

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shaytān wasn't only the first racist (thinking he is superior to Ādam's image) and a rationalist (giving preference to the ‘Aql over the command of Allāh), but he was also the first one to refuse the Khilāfah of Ādam (عليه السلام).

Allāh وتعالى سبحانه says to the angels before creating Ādam, “And [mention, O Muhammad], when your Lord said to the angels, "Indeed, I will make upon the earth a Khalīfah (successive authority).”

[2:30].

Therefore, everyone who is falling into the major sins of being a racist, a rationalist, and disobedient to the Khalifah of the muslims, then he is following the footsteps of Shaytān.

8 May 2018 15:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□ □

#Taste | Have you ever imagined tasting the fruits in Jannah? Well, allow this beautiful Āyah sink in deeply and relax:

The noble pious Imām of the Salaf, Abū Muhammad Sa'd Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Yūnus Ibn 'Īsā Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Rafī' at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) was asked about Allāh's statement:

“And give good tidings to those who believe and do righteous deeds that they will have gardens [in Paradise] beneath which rivers flow. Whenever they are provided with a provision of fruit therefrom, they will say, "This is what we were provided with before." And it is given to them in likeness. And they will have therein purified spouses, and they will abide therein eternally.” [2:25].

Imām Sa'd Ibn 'Abdillāh at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) responded by saying:

“Nothing that's found in Jannah from a bed, utensil, clothing, perfume, bird, crops, and all the fruits you can imagine in the world which is similar to that (in Jannah), except for the name alone.

For that reason, the pomegranate of Jannah doesn't resemble the pomegranate of the Dunyā, except by its name alone. Likewise with dates, grapes and so forth.

And what Allāh intended by His statement, “متشابهاً” (in likeness), i.e. similar in colour, different in taste.

For that reason, the angels will come to the pious people in Jannah with an apple for lunch, then they will come forth with an apple for dinner, and the pious people will say, “this is the same as that” (i.e. both appear similar), but the angels will say to them, “taste it”, so when they taste it, they will feel a different taste than the first apple they ate.”

— Refer to “Tafsīr at-Tusturī” (page 90).

8 May 2018 15:30

Radwan Dakkak added 2 new photos.

□ □

#Taste | Have you ever imagined tasting the fruits in Jannah? Well, allow this beautiful Āyah sink in deeply and relax:

The noble pious Imām of the Salaf, Abū Muhammad Sa'd Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Yūnus Ibn 'Īsā Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Rafī' at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) was asked about Allāh's statement:

“And give good tidings to those who believe and do righteous deeds that they will have gardens [in Paradise] beneath which rivers flow. Whenever they are provided with a provision of fruit therefrom, they will say, "This is what we were provided with before." And it is given to them in likeness. And they will have therein purified spouses, and they will abide therein eternally.” [2:25].

Imām Sa'd Ibn 'Abdillāh at-Tusturī (رحمه الله) responded by saying:

“Nothing that's found in Jannah from a bed, utensil, clothing, perfume, bird, crops, and all the fruits you can imagine in the world which is similar to that (in Jannah), except for the name alone.

For that reason, the pomegranate of Jannah doesn't resemble the pomegranate of the Dunyā, except by its name alone. Likewise with dates, grapes and so forth.

And what Allāh intended by His statement, “متشابهاً” (in likeness), i.e. similar in colour, different in taste.

For that reason, the angels will come to the pious people in Jannah with an apple for lunch, then they will come forth with an apple for dinner, and the pious people will say, “this is the same as that” (i.e. both appear similar), but the angels will say to them, “taste it”, so when they taste it, they will feel a different taste than the first apple they ate.”

— Refer to “Tafsīr at-Tusturī” (page 90).

8 May 2018 15:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

8 May 2018 11:29

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

8 May 2018 11:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

“Before asking a question, learn the etiquettes on how to ask a question — If you ask questions in a sarcastic, argumentative way, or expect an immediate response or else result to accusing them, you deserve a BLOCK”

Some of the salaf travelled for 4 months to ask an Imām a question, and sometimes that answer would be “I don’t know”, and he returns back home.

Today, someone would want to socialise with you everyday, and you try to give them time (along with others), but if one day they send a message, and you don’t reply back, the response is:

“Why don’t you love me anymore”.

Wallāhi, this is one of the worst things you can say to someone, because it makes them feel regretful despite having a legitimate excuse in not responding.

If you want to ask a question, first learn the manners of asking a question. Atleast be grateful that you don’t have to travel 4 months to even ask your question, let alone receive a response which isn’t “I don’t know”.

And if you find someone is not responding back to you, don’t keep spamming them even more, wallāhul-musta’ān.

Don’t be an oppressor O questioner, you may be sitting comfortably after having breakfast, lunch, dinner, hanged out with friends, went to the gym, and the person you asked might’ve been helping someone all day, without even having a meal at all, and despite that he may still give you the courtesy to answer your question in a hungry state, while you are comfortable and relaxed.

8 May 2018 11:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

“Before asking a question, learn the etiquettes on how to ask a question — If you ask questions in a sarcastic, argumentative way, or expect an immediate response or else result to accusing them, you deserve a BLOCK”

Some of the salaf travelled for 4 months to ask an Imām a question, and sometimes that answer would be “I don’t know”, and he returns back home.

Today, someone would want to socialise with you everyday, and you try to give them time (along with others), but if one day they send a message, and you don’t reply back, the response is:

“Why don’t you love me anymore”.

Wallāhi, this is one of the worst things you can say to someone, because it makes them feel regretful despite having a legitimate excuse in not responding.

If you want to ask a question, first learn the manners of asking a question. Atleast be grateful that you don’t have to travel 4 months to even ask your question, let alone receive a response which isn’t “I don’t know”.

And if you find someone is not responding back to you, don’t keep spamming them even more, wallāhul-musta’ān.

Don’t be an oppressor O questioner, you may be sitting comfortably after having breakfast, lunch, dinner, hanged out with friends, went to the gym, and the person you asked might’ve been helping someone all day, without even having a meal at all, and despite that he may still give you the courtesy to answer your question in a hungry state, while you are comfortable and relaxed.

8 May 2018 11:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Internet | After observing our beloved scholars and how they dealt with the internet and social platforms (forums, etc), 3 things will stand out:

1 — They took full advantage of the internet to teach and clarify the Haqq, authoring books, sharing articles, audios, videos, and answering Q&A's on their websites etc.

2 — They would not use social media to speak about their personal life and say things like “the weather is beautiful”, this didn't exist in their vocabulary whatsoever.

3 — This final point is what differentiates our beloved scholars from everyone else. Their outstanding knowledge and memory is one factor, but the major factor which really separates them from the rest is their devotion and care for the ummah, constantly being on top of current affairs, hence their incredible insight and fatāwā on contemporary matters that arise in the ummah (wallāhi your heart will trust their words over 100 sell out scholars).

These are 3 things I've derived from the activity of the scholars on the Internet, so ask yourself if you are following their footsteps.

7 May 2018 17:51

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Internet | After observing our beloved scholars and how they dealt with the internet and social platforms (forums, etc), 3 things will stand out:

1 — They took full advantage of the internet to teach and clarify the Haqq, authoring books, sharing articles, audios, videos, and answering Q&A's on their websites etc.

2 — They would not use social media to speak about their personal life and say things like “the weather is beautiful”, this didn't exist in their vocabulary whatsoever.

3 — This final point is what differentiates our beloved scholars from everyone else. Their outstanding knowledge and memory is one factor, but the major factor which really separates them from the rest is their devotion and care for the ummah, constantly being on top of current affairs, hence their incredible insight and fatāwā on contemporary matters that arise in the ummah (wallāhi your heart will trust their words over 100 sell out scholars).

These are 3 things I've derived from the activity of the scholars on the Internet, so ask yourself if you are following their footsteps.

7 May 2018 17:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://justpaste.it/uwxid>

Mashallah, a brother directed me to an abridged translation of Shaykh Walid as-Sinani's biography - The tawagheet forced him to make an interview with the intention to humiliate him (as an extremist), but that only backfired and made him become famous, and love in the hearts of the muslims increased for him.

<https://justpaste.it/uwxid>

7 May 2018 15:38

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://justpaste.it/uwxid>

<https://justpaste.it/uwxid>

Mashallah, a brother directed me to an abridged translation of Shaykh Walid as-Sinani's biography - The tawagheet forced him to make an interview with the intention to humiliate him (as an extremist), but that only backfired and made him become famous, and love in the hearts of the muslims increased for him.

7 May 2018 15:38

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1zvZ5bug0nIPJnpk9iRAwpMLquoguDaWL59LvY2Yd0G4/mobilbasic>

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1zvZ5bug0nIPJnpk9iRAwpMLquoguDaWL59LvY2Yd0G4/mobilbasic>

#Biography | Two biographies written about Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī (فك الله أسره):

1 — <https://justpaste.it/36co>

2 —

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1zvZ5bug0nIPJnpk9iRAwpMLquoguDaWL59Lvy2Yd0G4/mobilbasic>

7 May 2018 15:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1zvZ5bug0nIPJnpk9iRAwpMLquoguDaWL59Lvy2Yd0G4/mobilbasic>

#Biography | Two biographies written about Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī (فك الله أسره):

1 — <https://justpaste.it/36co>

2 —

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1zvZ5bug0nIPJnpk9iRAwpMLquoguDaWL59Lvy2Yd0G4/mobilbasic>

7 May 2018 15:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

#Rare | This is the only booklet (6 pages) I've found from the Imām of Sabr, Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī (فك الله أسره), which is an essay on “The ‘uluw of Allāh above His creation”.

Download link ↓

<https://ia800508.us.archive.org/8/items/alooallah/alooallah.pdf>

7 May 2018 15:18

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

#Rare | This is the only booklet (6 pages) I've found from the Imām of Sabr, Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī (فك الله أسره), which is an essay on “The ‘uluw of Allāh above His creation”.

Download link ↓

<https://ia800508.us.archive.org/8/items/alooallah/alooallah.pdf>

7 May 2018 15:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

When Imam Malik was teaching one day, an elephant entered into the town, and elephants are an extremely rare sight in Arabia, so everyone suddenly got up and ran outside, except for a young Yahya ibn Yahya al-Laythi, who was the remaining student sitting down.

Imam Malik said: you do not have elephants in Spain. Why didn't you go with the rest and see?

Yahya said: I came all the way from Spain to see Malik, not elephants.

Imam Malik then called him Al-'Āqil - the wise man of Spain

Yahya ibn Yahya al-Laythi was thereafter given the barakah of passing on the most sound collection of Malik's magnum opus, al-Muwatta.

- Shared.

7 May 2018 13:20

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When Imam Malik was teaching one day, an elephant entered into the town, and elephants are an extremely rare sight in Arabia, so everyone suddenly got up and ran outside, except for a young Yahya ibn Yahya al-Laythi, who was the remaining student sitting down.

Imam Malik said: you do not have elephants in Spain. Why didn't you go with the rest and see?

Yahya said: I came all the way from Spain to see Malik, not elephants.

Imam Malik then called him Al-'Āqil - the wise man of Spain

Yahya ibn Yahya al-Laythi was thereafter given the barakah of passing on the most sound collection of Malik's magnum opus, al-Muwatta.

- Shared.

7 May 2018 13:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

was asked about the incident of Bukhārī being tested (فك الله أسرهِ) Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān with a whole bunch of purposely mixed up chains of narrations in different hadīths, and Bukhārī memorised all the wrong chains presented to him on the spot, then even re-arranged them in the .correct places where they belong

:responds by saying (فك الله أسرهِ) So Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān

This incident was mentioned by several scholars, it doesn't have an authentic chain, as there are" some unknown narrators in the chains of narration. It was recorded by Al-Khatīb in "Tārikh Baghdād", and the likes of these incidents are mentioned, and there's nothing to prevent one from .doing so

The brother asks about the issue of Bukhārī being tested when he was given a list of muddled up Asānīd (different chains of narrations mixed up), so he re-arranged them all-together, by returning .the chain of narration back to the correct text and vice versa, and his well-known story

It was mentioned by Al-Khatīb al-Baghdādī in "Tārikh Baghdād", and others among the scholars, and there are some unknown narrators in the Asānīd, but it's a recorded incident, and the chains of ".narrations aren't to be dealt with strictly in the likes of these matters

.Refer to "The explanation of Sahīh al-Bukhārī", Lesson (7/47), minute 45:30 —

7 May 2018 09:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

was asked about the incident of Bukhārī being tested (فك الله أسرهِ) Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān with a whole bunch of purposely mixed up chains of narrations in different hadīths, and Bukhārī memorised all the wrong chains presented to him on the spot, then even re-arranged them in the .correct places where they belong

:responds by saying (فك الله أسرهِ) So Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān

This incident was mentioned by several scholars, it doesn't have an authentic chain, as there are" some unknown narrators in the chains of narration. It was recorded by Al-Khatīb in "Tārikh Baghdād", and the likes of these incidents are mentioned, and there's nothing to prevent one from .doing so

The brother asks about the issue of Bukhārī being tested when he was given a list of muddled up Asānīd (different chains of narrations mixed up), so he re-arranged them all-together, by returning .the chain of narration back to the correct text and vice versa, and his well-known story

It was mentioned by Al-Khatīb al-Baghdādī in "Tārikh Baghdād", and others among the scholars, and there are some unknown narrators in the Asānīd, but it's a recorded incident, and the chains of ".narrations aren't to be dealt with strictly in the likes of these matters

.Refer to "The explanation of Sahīh al-Bukhārī", Lesson (7/47), minute 45:30 —

7 May 2018 09:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

حَيُّ مَتَاعِ الدُّنْيَا الْمَرْأَةُ الصَّالِحَةُ#

اللهم إني أسألك بأني أشهد أنك أنت الذي لا إله إلا أنت الأحد الصّمد الذي لم يلد ولم يولد ولم يكن له كفواً

احد.
اقض حاجتي .. آنس وحدتي .. فَرَّجْ كربتي .. اجعل لي رفيقاً صالحاً كي نَسَبَّحَكَ كثيراً ونذكرك كثيراً، فأنت بي بصيراً يا مجيب المضطر إذا دعاك .. احلل عقدي .. آمِن روعتي .. يا إلهي من لي ألجأ إليه إذا لم ألجأ إلى الرُّكن الشَّدِيد الَّذِي إذا دُعِيَ أجاب. هب لي من لدنك زوجاً صالحاً .. اجعل بيننا المودَّة والرَّحمة والسَّكَنَ..فأنت على كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قدير .. يا من قلت للشَّيْءِ كن فيكون .. ربَّنَا آتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً .. وَقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

وصلِّي اللهمَّ على سيِّدنا محمَّد وعلى آلِهِ وصحبه وسلم

6 May 2018 22:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

حَيْثُ مَتَاعِ الدُّنْيَا_الْمَرْأَةُ_الصَّالِحَةُ#

اللهمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ بِأَنِّي أَشْهَدُ أَنَّكَ أَنْتَ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ الْوَاحِدُ الصَّمَدُ الَّذِي لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ.
اقض حاجتي .. آنس وحدتي .. فَرَّجْ كربتي .. اجعل لي رفيقاً صالحاً كي نَسَبَّحَكَ كثيراً ونذكرك كثيراً، فأنت بي بصيراً يا مجيب المضطر إذا دعاك .. احلل عقدي .. آمِن روعتي .. يا إلهي من لي ألجأ إليه إذا لم ألجأ إلى الرُّكن الشَّدِيد الَّذِي إذا دُعِيَ أجاب. هب لي من لدنك زوجاً صالحاً .. اجعل بيننا المودَّة والرَّحمة والسَّكَنَ..فأنت على كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قدير .. يا من قلت للشَّيْءِ كن فيكون .. ربَّنَا آتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً .. وَقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

وصلِّي اللهمَّ على سيِّدنا محمَّد وعلى آلِهِ وصحبه وسلم

6 May 2018 22:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Hanbali_Fiqh

Fiqh Lesson — (Part 8.) ﴿٨﴾

The topic we will be covering is آداب قضاء الحاجة (the etiquettes in answering the call to nature).

In this chapter, there are sunan, disliked and forbidden matters, so we'll start off with the sunan إن شاء الله.

- First Sunnah — When you enter the bathroom, you start off with the du'ā:

بسم الله، اللهم إني أعوذ بك من الخبث والخبائث

"Bismillāh [1], I seek in refuge in You O Allāh from الخبث and الخبائث."

The word الخُبْث (al-khubuth — with a dammah on the خ and ب) means the male Jinns, and the خبائث are the female Jinns.

As for the word الخُبْث (al-khubth — with a sukūn on the ب), it means the Shaytān, and as for الخبائث, it refers to the impurities that come from urine and excrements.

This explains the narration we have from Ibn Abī Shaybah, "That whenever the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would enter the bathroom, he would say, I seek refuge in Allāh from الخبيث and الخبائث."

This narrations mentions الخبيث (al-Khabeeth — i.e. the wicked one, Shaytān), and it has also been said that الخبث means evil, and it has also been said that it means kufr.

And there's nothing wrong from collecting all of these meanings together, and to seek refuge from all of them at the same time, as there's narrations from Huthayfah and Ibn Mas'ūd where they would seek refuge with these things by mentioning them in a single du'ā.

- Second Sunnah — Whenever you want to answer the call to nature, enter the bathroom with your left foot.
- Third Sunnah — When answering the call of nature, you should try to be further away from people, whether you're in the desert or bathroom (this can even apply in public toilets, try to be away from others).

Now there are two reasons this is done:

1. This is more concealing for his 'awrah, and as we all know, covering the 'Awrah is wājib, however trying to be further away from people is recommended.
2. So that you can distance yourself from harming others, whether it's via your smell or noise and so forth. There's a hadīth which mentions that whenever Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would answer the call to nature, he would distance himself far away from people.

- Fourth Sunnah — To wear shoes when entering the bathroom. Ya'nī, to put on some footgear, slippers, thongs, even boots if you want. So if you're from egypt, put your "shib shib" on, or if you're from shām, "put your shahayta on", or if you're from 'Irāq, put your "qundarah" on (which in lebanese dialect refers to female high heels). In any case, Inshā'Allāh the point is clear.

The reason this is performed is to preserve cleanliness and Tahārah, avoiding anything which maligns such, and there's a hadīth narrated in respect to this, but it has been criticised by the muhadithīn.

- Fifth Sunnah — To step out of the bathroom using your right foot, because the right (hand/foot) is used for noble things, whereas the left (hand/foot) is used for what's opposite to that.

And when you leave the bathroom with your right foot, you say the “Ghufrānak”, as it's narrated in the hadīth:

“When the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) came out of the privy, he used to say, “Ghufranaka (O Allah! Grant me Your forgiveness).”

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله) stated in bulūgh al-marām that Imām Abū Hātim (رحمه الله) authenticated this hadīth:

However, Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرهم) states that what's present from the words of Abū Hātim (رحمه الله) is that he said, “This is the most authentic hadīth in the chapter”.

And as all the students of hadīth would know, this doesn't mean he authenticates it (as weak narrations may be the strongest in the chapter), and there's no way Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله), a man of his calibre would've understood that statement as being authenticating the hadīth.

That's why there's a possibility that Ibn Hajr had a transcript which stated Abū Hātim graded it saḥīḥ, or that he made an error as no one is infallible.

The scholars disputed over the authenticity of this hadīth, Imām al-Dāraqtūnī (رحمه الله) defected it in his book “al-Afrād” because of the Tafarrud (singular narration) of Yūsuf Ibn Abī Burdah (who's sadūq, truthful).

Likewise Imām Abū al-Faraj al-Jawzī (رحمه الله) defected the hadīth of “ghufrānak” for the same reason as Imām ad-Dāraqtūnī (رحمه الله).

However the majority of the Muhadithīn have accepted this narration of his, and therefore Inshā'Allāh there's no blame on acting upon it. I have received a response concerning the opinions of contemporary scholars of hadīth, and some of them were hesitant as this is a close call, but in any case we will stick with the majority Inshā'Allāh.

There's also narration in “sunan Ibn Mājah” and elsewhere where the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would say:

الحمد لله الذي أذهب عني الأذى وعافاني.

“Praise is to Allāh Who has relieved me of impurity and given me good health).”

However this addition has much more criticism to it, Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله) graded it “Hassan”, although Nūr ad-Dīn al-Haythamī (رحمه الله) stated in “Mujma' az-Zawā'id”:

“It contains Ismā'īl Ibn Muslim who is unanimously agreed upon concerning his weakness”. Hence, Imām an-Nawawī (رحمه الله) stated in “Al-Majmū'” that this hadīth is weak.

In any case, despite its weakness, can we still act upon it? Again, there is a strong dispute concerning acting upon weak hadīths in فضائل الأعمال (acts of encouragement and athkār).

The majority say it's permissible under the condition that it's not very weak or agreed upon by the scholars as being weak, whereas a large group of scholars have stated there's no difference between acting upon weak hadīths in Fadā'il al-A'māl and weak hadīths concerning ḥalāl/harām and 'Aqidah (thus they say one should stick to the hassan/saḥīḥ narrations).

We will now speak about some makrūh (disliked) matters pertaining answering the call to nature.

Among the disliked matters is entering the bathroom with something that contains the Thikr of Allāh, or something that's to be respected.

For example, if you enter the bathroom with a book that mentions the name of Allāh, or a small booklet of Athkār, then it's considered disliked to enter the bathroom with it, unless there's a need to do so.

Whenever there's a need to do so, it would drop off the ruling of being “makrūh” and become mubāḥ (lawful).

But as for the Mus'ḥaf, that's ḥarām, because exalting it is considered wājib, hence it's never allowed to enter the bathroom with it, and even to avoid the possibility of impurities to befall upon it.

Shaykh 'Alā' ad-Dīn al-Mirdāwī (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Al-Insāf”, “No rational person would doubt its prohibition”.

In the next lesson, we will further discuss what's considered makrūh and ḥarām during the state of answering the call to nature, and Allāh knows best.

[1] There’s also a dispute concerning the addition “bismillāh”, as several muhadithīn stated it’s not authentic.

6 May 2018 20:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Hanbali_Fiqh

Fiqh Lesson — (Part 8.) ﷻ

The topic we will be covering is آداب قضاء الحاجة (the etiquettes in answering the call to nature).

In this chapter, there are sunan, disliked and forbidden matters, so we’ll start off with the sunan إن شاء الله.

- First Sunnah — When you enter the bathroom, you start off with the du’ā:

بسم الله، اللهم إني أعوذ بك من الخبث والخبائث

“Bismillāh [1], I seek in refuge in You (O Allāh) from الخبث and الخبائث.”

The word الخُبْث (al-khubuth — with a dammah on the خ and ب) means the male Jinns, and the خبائث are the female Jinns.

As for the word الخُبْث (al-khubth — with a sukūn on the ب), it means the Shaytān, and as for الخبائث, it refers to the impurities that come from urine and excrements.

This explains the narration we have from Ibn Abī Shaybah, “That whenever the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would enter the bathroom, he would say, I seek refuge in Allāh from الخبيث and الخبائث”.

This narrations mentions الخبيث (al-Khabeeth — i.e. the wicked one, Shaytān), and it has also been said that الخبث means evil, and it has also been said that it means kufr.

And there’s nothing wrong from collecting all of these meanings together, and to seek refuge from all of them at the same time, as there’s narrations from Huthayfah and Ibn Mas’ūd where they would seek refuge with these things by mentioning them in a single du’ā.

- Second Sunnah — Whenever you want to answer the call to nature, enter the bathroom with your left foot.

- Third Sunnah — When answering the call of nature, you should try to be further away from people, whether you’re in the desert or bathroom (this can even apply in public toilets, try to be away from others).

Now there are two reasons this is done:

1. This is more concealing for his ‘awrah, and as we all know, covering the ‘Awrah is wājib, however trying to be further away from people is recommended.

2. So that you can distance yourself from harming others, whether it’s via your smell or noise and so forth. There’s a hadīth which mentions that whenever Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would answer the call to nature, he would distance himself far away from people.

- Fourth Sunnah — To wear shoes when entering the bathroom. Ya’nī, to put on some footgear, slippers, thongs, even boots if you want. So if you’re from egypt, put your “shib shib” on, or if you’re from shām, “put your shahayta on”, or if you’re from ‘Irāq, put your “qundarah” on (which in lebanese dialect refers to female high heels). In any case, Inshā’Allāh the point is clear.

The reason this is performed is to preserve cleanliness and Tahārah, avoiding anything which maligns such, and there’s a hadīth narrated in respect to this, but it has been criticised by the muhadithīn.

- Fifth Sunnah — To step out of the bathroom using your right foot, because the right (hand/foot) is used for noble things, whereas the left (hand/foot) is used for what’s opposite to that.

And when you leave the bathroom with your right foot, you say the “Ghufrānak”, as it’s narrated in the hadīth:

“When the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) came out of the privy, he used to say, “Ghufranaka (O Allah! Grant me Your forgiveness).”

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله) stated in bulūgh al-marām that Imām Abū Hātim (رحمه الله) authenticated this hadīth:

However, Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرته) states that what’s present from the words of Abū Hātim (رحمه الله) is that he said, “This is the most authentic hadīth in the chapter”.

And as all the students of hadīth would know, this doesn't mean he authenticates it (as weak narrations may be the strongest in the chapter), and there's no way Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله), a man of his calibre would've understood that statement as being authenticating the hadīth.

That's why there's a possibility that Ibn Hajr had a transcript which stated Abū Hātim graded it saḥīḥ, or that he made an error as no one is infallible.

The scholars disputed over the authenticity of this hadīth, Imām al-Dāraquṭnī (رحمه الله) defected it in his book "al-Afrād" because of the Tafarrud (singular narration) of Yūsuf Ibn Abī Burdah (who's sadūq, truthful).

Likewise Imām Abū al-Faraj al-Jawzī (رحمه الله) defected the hadīth of "ghufrānak" for the same reason as Imām ad-Dāraquṭnī (رحمه الله).

However the majority of the Muhadithin have accepted this narration of his, and therefore Inshā'Allāh there's no blame on acting upon it. I have received a response concerning the opinions of contemporary scholars of hadīth, and some of them were hesitant as this is a close call, but in any case we will stick with the majority Inshā'Allāh.

There's also narration in "sunan Ibn Mājah" and elsewhere where the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would say:

الحمد لله الذي أذهب عني الأذى وعافاني.

"Praise is to Allāh Who has relieved me of impurity and given me good health)."

However this addition has much more criticism to it, Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله) graded it "Hassan", although Nūr ad-Dīn al-Haythamī (رحمه الله) stated in "Mujma' az-Zawā'id":

"It contains Ismā'īl Ibn Muslim who is unanimously agreed upon concerning his weakness". Hence, Imām an-Nawawī (رحمه الله) stated in "Al-Majmū'" that this hadīth is weak.

In any case, despite its weakness, can we still act upon it? Again, there is a strong dispute concerning acting upon weak hadīths in فضائل الأعمال (acts of encouragement and athkār).

The majority say it's permissible under the condition that it's not very weak or agreed upon by the scholars as being weak, whereas a large group of scholars have stated there's no difference between acting upon weak hadīths in Fadā'il al-A'māl and weak hadīths concerning ḥalāl/harām and 'Aqīdah (thus they say one should stick to the hassan/sahih narrations).

We will now speak about some makrūh (disliked) matters pertaining answering the call to nature.

Among the disliked matters is entering the bathroom with something that contains the Thikr of Allāh, or something that's to be respected.

For example, if you enter the bathroom with a book that mentions the name of Allāh, or a small booklet of Athkār, then it's considered disliked to enter the bathroom with it, unless there's a need to do so.

Whenever there's a need to do so, it would drop off the ruling of being "makrūh" and become mubāh (lawful).

But as for the Mus'haf, that's harām, because exalting it is considered wājib, hence it's never allowed to enter the bathroom with it, and even to avoid the possibility of impurities to befall upon it.

Shaykh 'Alā' ad-Dīn al-Mirdāwī (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Al-Insāf", "No rational person would doubt its prohibition".

In the next lesson, we will further discuss what's considered makrūh and harām during the state of answering the call to nature, and Allāh knows best.

— Refer to "Sharh an-Nathm al-Jalī fil-Fiqh al-Hanbalī".

---

[1] There's also a dispute concerning the addition "bismillāh", as several muhadithīn stated it's not authentic.

6 May 2018 20:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I just had the funniest translating experience in my life with a brother; I must share the FULL convo 🤔🤔🤔

The story starts off by a brother translating a beautiful quote for me, but took a little longer due to getting stuck on a word, which happens:

Brother sends it over: "Had to spend 10 min on one word. lol".

Me: جزاك الله خيراً You definitely learnt that word.

Brother: Yeah, it was دوائر. I looked in al-Maany and it said circles. I'm like wat

Me: Made u go in circles for 10 mins

Brother: 🤔🤔🤔

Me: Easier words which i need a little refresh, i use english (i.e. referring to arabic-english dictionaries). But if there's a trickier word which u don't use much, search in arabic, it makes the job much easier. (Took a photo of the arabic dictionary, definition of دوائر says نواب).
(نواب says دوائر).

Brother: Ohhh Subhan Allah, never thought of that.

Me: Well, look what I found for the word “parliament members” 🤔🤔🤔

Translation and Meaning of نواب:

episodes of diarrhea [Medical] نواب الإسهال

Brother: LOOOL

Me: Maaaaan i have never laughed so hard before in my life

Brother: al-Maany is shockingly accurate aye.

Me: I can understand why The english made u go in circles for 10 mins

Brother:

Me: Making a post about this, brb.

Brother: Imaooo

Me: Lmao

Brother: You never know, the developers of al-maany could low-key be on manhaj. 🤔

Me: Lmao

Adding that on my post

Brother:

— End of conversation, may Allāh have mercy upon us.

6 May 2018 12:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

There are two benefits I would like to add from the previous video which the Murji'ah of our times have hidden from you.

- Claim #1 — Unrestrictedly applying the hadīth “There's no hijrah (from makkah) after the conquest, but rather Jihād and Niyyah” in all times. So they say, makkah can never become dār al-kufr, even when they can clearly see that it is being ruled by kuffār who wage war against the believers!

- Claim #2 — Watering down the issue of hijrah from dār al-kufr to dār al-Islām (let alone the separate issue of the ummah suffering), because as I will show you, hijrah can be obligatory from dār al-Islām (itself!) to another dār al-Islām, not only from Imām Mālik, but also by major Imāms of the Shāfi'iyyah such as Ibn Hajr and Al-Bayhaqī.

To start off with claim #1, I really don't want to get into details because even Shaykh Ibn Bāz (may Allāh forgive him) himself stated this hadīth was specific to the time of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), so why do the murji'ah fussāq who defend the Tawāghīt due to their pure ignorance and misguidance continue to make such claims?

To understand why Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said “There's no hijrah after the conquest (of makkah)”, is because hijrah was wājib from makkah to madīnah, and one of the severe major sins to abandon it according to the majority, whereas Al-Wāqidi and al-Baghawī even stated it was a condition for one's Islām to migrate with the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

So when Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) conquered Makkah, it now became Dār al-Islām, and therefore hijrah is not wājib from it.

So that's what “لا هجرة بعد الفتح” (there's no hijrah after the conquest) means. Makkah was dār al-kufr under the authority of quraysh by ljmā', then it turned into dār al-Islām.

And today it's dār al-kufr again, under the authority of the saudi tawāghīt who believe in inter-faith, replace the sharī'ah of Allah, the courts throughout their country are founded upon man-made legislation (which the scholars clarified in detail), allying with the kuffar, hating din of Allah, correcting the beliefs of the kuffar (all kuffar are equal if they have saudi citizenship), permitting tahakum to the taghut, and imprisoning muwahiddin who rebuke the mushrikīn for their shirk as it's well-known, along with many other nullifiers.

Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/289):

"We will clarify that even further by citing the words of some of the scholars and elucidators of the hadīth, so that no one deceitfully takes advantage over those with weak insight.

The Imām Ibn Hajr al-'Asqalānī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, mentioned in "Sharh al-Bukhārī":

"His statement (i.e. al-Bukhārī): "Chapter: No hijrah after the conquest", meaning; The conquest of makkah, or the intended meaning is even more general than that, alluding to that fact that the ruling upon other than makkah takes the same ruling (i.e. no hijrah if any city is conquered), so hijrah is not wājib from a land which the muslims have conquered"..."

Moreover, Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/293-295) refutes the misconception of makkah never being able to become dār al-kufr (after the conquest) by quoting the great Imām, Abū 'Abdillāh al-Halīmī (رحمه الله) who says:

"The prophet's statement, "There is no hijrah after the conquest" means; That there's no hijrah from makkah after it has become dār-Islām, and this doesn't allude to negating the obligation of hijrah from other than it, if he's unable to uphold and establish his Dīn in it, or else it would be considered like makkah before the conquest (i.e. dār al-kufr by ijmā').

And if makkah becomes dār al-kufr, we seek refuge in Allāh, wherein the resider isn't able to uphold and establish his Dīn, hijrah would also be WĀJIB from it, because it was ONLY made obligatory from it (with the prophet towards madīnah) in the beginning due to this reason, so whenever this reasoning factor is present, the ruling will be applied.

And every land which corruption prevails in, and the dominance was in the hands of the corrupt doers over the righteous people, or ignorance dominates over its people, and whims are branched out within them, along with the 'Ulamā' and people of Haqq being weakened and suppressed from confronting them, and they were compelled to remain silent on the Haqq, in fear of themselves from being outwardly broadcasted (and shamed), then it is just like makkah before the conquest in the obligation of making hijrah from it with the ability to do so.

And whoever doesn't make hijrah, while the situation is like this, he wouldn't be from those who are devoted for his Dīn, but he would rather be from the lenient indulgent ones regarding his Dīn.

End quote from what al-Halīmī, may Allāh the most High have mercy upon him. And if we were to cite the words of the eminent Imāms from every madhab concerning this topic, the response would be prolonged, and it is all praise due to Allāh clarified and clear in its respective place.

And if it is said to us: What you have mentioned is specific to the kuffār, how can you make us like the kuffār? Or how can you apply the verses revealed upon whoever wages war against the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and joined the kuffār, the enemies of the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم), (and apply it) upon us?

It can be said to him: We have previously mentioned from Ibn Kathīr, and in the end of Al-Halīmī's aforementioned words what suffices that.

And what's well-known is that the Qur'ān was revealed due to causes (and events), so if the Qur'ān was not able to be used as proof except upon those causes (and specific events), the Qur'ān itself will become invalid to be used as proof, and this is apostasy from the Dīn.

Moreover, the scholars from the time of the Sahābah and those who came afterwards have remained using verses which were revealed upon the jews and others as proof, upon the one who does such an action (My comment: For e.g. the jews replacing shari'ah — how many murji'ah claim you can't apply this upon the rulers, it's only for jews).

Who is the one that stated that if a verse was revealed upon a kāfir individual, that it's not general towards whoever does such an action among the muslims?!

However, this is the case of the ignorant oppressors, the people of muddled up stubbornness and Bātil, they repel the clear nature of the texts to what it's indicative of, with the likes of these false claims, which the muslim would recognise its invalidity by his mere Fitrah (natural disposition), Allāhul-Musta'ān."

Subhān'Allāh, if you truly pondered over these words, you would receive so much pleasure knowing the certainty in your 'Aqidah has increased. I don't like to comment much and only bring you HD words from the noble scholars who sacrificed their lives in Islām.

Shaykh Ishāq Ibn 'Abdir-Rahmān (رحمه الله) perfectly describes the wicked scholars in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/300):

"Whoever loved Allāh and His Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) more than anything else, then it's only necessary that he submits to the commands of the Qur'ān and Sunnah, and to make barā'ah from every creed which contradicts what the righteous predecessors (as-Salaf as-Sālih) were upon from the chiefs of this ummah. And has Islām ever been removed, or the rulings being changed, and innovations in the Dīn being made without the permission of the All-Knowing King (Allāh), except from callers to the gates of Jahannam, who deter people from their Dīn, so fear Allāh O slaves of Allāh.”

There’s only so much to share, but I fear prolonging this post longer than usual, and I think this should suffice for the mean-time.

Concerning claim #2, I would like to show you some words from the scholars obligating hijrah from dār al-Islām itself! And all these words are taken from “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah”, the section of Jihād, walhamdulilāh.

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) mentions in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/292) quoting the words of Imām al-Bayhaqī (رحمه الله):

“It’s mentioned in “Al-Bukhārī”, that fleeing from fitan is from Īmān; And whatever is from Īmān is without a doubt from its branches, and fleeing is Thāhir (a hijrah via one’s body) from living between the mushrikīn is an obligation upon every muslim; Likewise, every place in which Fitnah is feared for one’s Dīn, from the prevalence of bid’ah, or what leads to kufr, in any land from the lands of the muslims, then performing hijrah is obligatory towards the spacious Earth of Allāh. End quote from what Al-Bayhaqī mentioned, may Allāh the most High have mercy upon him.”

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) also mentions in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/291):

“And Ibn Hajr (al-Haytamī) quoted from the author of the Mu’tamad: That the same way hijrah is wājib from the land of kufr, it’s also wājib from the land of Islām if a muslim displays an obligation, but it wasn’t accepted from him, and he wasn’t able to publicly display it, he said:

This is what the statement of Imām al-Baghawī agrees with, in the Tafsīr of Sūrat al-‘Ankabūt, in the Tafsīr of Allāh’s statement:

“O My servants who have believed, indeed My earth is spacious, so worship only Me.” [29:56].

He said, Sa’d Ibn Jubayr said, if sins are being practised within a land, then leave it, for indeed “My Earth is spacious”, and ‘Attā’ said, if you are commanded to perform sins, then run away, for indeed “My Earth is spacious”,

Likewise, hijrah is obligatory upon everyone who resides in a land, in which sins are being practised within it, and he isn’t able to change that, to a place which facilitates ‘Ibādah for him, in accordance with Allāh’s statement:

“Then do not remain after the reminder with the wrongdoing people.” [6:68].”

This is what I wanted to share in brief, so do not be deceived by the words of those who water down the Dīn, and Allāh knows best.

6 May 2018 10:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There are two benefits I would like to add from the previous video which the Murji’ah of our times have hidden from you.

- Claim #1 — Unrestrictedly applying the hadīth “There’s no hijrah (from makkah) after the conquest, but rather Jihād and Niyyah” in all times. So they say, makkah can never become dār al-kufr, even when they can clearly see that it is being ruled by kuffār who wage war against the believers!

- Claim #2 — Watering down the issue of hijrah from dār al-kufr to dār al-Islām (let alone the separate issue of the ummah suffering), because as I will show you, hijrah can be obligatory from dār al-Islām (itself!) to another dār al-Islām, not only from Imām Mālik, but also by major Imāms of the Shāfi’iyyah such as Ibn Hajr and Al-Bayhaqī.

To start off with claim #1, I really don’t want to get into details because even Shaykh Ibn Bāz (may Allāh forgive him) himself stated this hadīth was specific to the time of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), so why do the murji’ah fussāq who defend the Tawāghīt due to their pure ignorance and misguidance continue to make such claims?

To understand why Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said “There’s no hijrah after the conquest (of makkah)”, is because hijrah was wājib from makkah to madīnah, and one of the severe major sins to abandon it according to the majority, whereas Al-Wāqidi and al-Baghawī even stated it was a condition for one’s Islām to migrate with the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

So when Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) conquered Makkah, it now became Dār al-Islām, and therefore hijrah is not wājib from it.

So that’s what “لا هجرة بعد الفتح” (there’s no hijrah after the conquest) means. Makkah was dār al-kufr under the authority of quraysh by Ijmā’, then it turned into dār al-Islām.

And today it’s dār al-kufr again, under the authority of the saudi tawāghīt who believe in inter-faith, replace the shari’ah of Allah, the courts throughout their country are founded upon man-made legislation (which the scholars clarified in detail), allying with the kuffar, hating din of Allah, correcting the beliefs of the kuffar (all kuffar are equal if they have saudi citizenship), permitting tahakum to the taghut, and imprisoning muwahiddin who rebuke the mushrikīn for their shirk as it's well-known, along with many other nullifiers.

Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/289):

"We will clarify that even further by citing the words of some of the scholars and elucidators of the hadīth, so that no one deceitfully takes advantage over those with weak insight.

The Imām Ibn Hajr al-'Asqalānī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, mentioned in "Sharh al-Bukhārī":

"His statement (i.e. al-Bukhārī): "Chapter: No hijrah after the conquest", meaning; The conquest of makkah, or the intended meaning is even more general than that, alluding to that fact that the ruling upon other than makkah takes the same ruling (i.e. no hijrah if any city is conquered), so hijrah is not wājib from a land which the muslims have conquered"..."

Moreover, Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/293-295) refutes the misconception of makkah never being able to become dār al-kufr (after the conquest) by quoting the great Imām, Abū 'Abdillāh al-Halīmī (رحمه الله) who says:

"The prophet's statement, "There is no hijrah after the conquest" means; That there's no hijrah from makkah after it has become dār-Islām, and this doesn't allude to negating the obligation of hijrah from other than it, if he's unable to uphold and establish his Dīn in it, or else it would be considered like makkah before the conquest (i.e. dār al-kufr by ijmā').

And if makkah becomes dār al-kufr, we seek refuge in Allāh, wherein the resider isn't able to uphold and establish his Dīn, hijrah would also be WĀJIB from it, because it was ONLY made obligatory from it (with the prophet towards madīnah) in the beginning due to this reason, so whenever this reasoning factor is present, the ruling will be applied.

And every land which corruption prevails in, and the dominance was in the hands of the corrupt doers over the righteous people, or ignorance dominates over its people, and whims are branched out within them, along with the 'Ulamā' and people of Haqq being weakened and suppressed from confronting them, and they were compelled to remain silent on the Haqq, in fear of themselves from being outwardly broadcasted (and shamed), then it is just like makkah before the conquest in the obligation of making hijrah from it with the ability to do so.

And whoever doesn't make hijrah, while the situation is like this, he wouldn't be from those who are devoted for his Dīn, but he would rather be from the lenient indulgent ones regarding his Dīn.

End quote from what al-Halīmī, may Allāh the most High have mercy upon him. And if we were to cite the words of the eminent Imāms from every madhab concerning this topic, the response would be prolonged, and it is all praise due to Allāh clarified and clear in its respective place.

And if it is said to us: What you have mentioned is specific to the kuffār, how can you make us like the kuffār? Or how can you apply the verses revealed upon whoever wages war against the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and joined the kuffār, the enemies of the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم), (and apply it) upon us?

It can be said to him: We have previously mentioned from Ibn Kathīr, and in the end of Al-Halīmī's aforementioned words what suffices that.

And what's well-known is that the Qur'ān was revealed due to causes (and events), so if the Qur'ān was not able to be used as proof except upon those causes (and specific events), the Qur'ān itself will become invalid to be used as proof, and this is apostasy from the Dīn.

Moreover, the scholars from the time of the Sahābah and those who came afterwards have remained using verses which were revealed upon the jews and others as proof, upon the one who does such an action (My comment: For e.g. the jews replacing shari'ah — how many murji'ah claim you can't apply this upon the rulers, it's only for jews).

Who is the one that stated that if a verse was revealed upon a kāfir individual, that it's not general towards whoever does such an action among the muslims?!

However, this is the case of the ignorant oppressors, the people of muddled up stubbornness and Bātil, they repel the clear nature of the texts to what it's indicative of, with the likes of these false claims, which the muslim would recognise its invalidity by his mere Fitrah (natural disposition), Allāhul-Musta'ān."

Subhān'Allāh, if you truly pondered over these words, you would receive so much pleasure knowing the certainty in your 'Aqidah has increased. I don't like to comment much and only bring you HD words from the noble scholars who sacrificed their lives in Islām.

Shaykh Ishāq Ibn 'Abdir-Rahmān (رحمه الله) perfectly describes the wicked scholars in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/300):

"Whoever loved Allāh and His Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) more than anything else, then it's only necessary that he submits to the commands of the Qur'ān and Sunnah, and to make barā'ah from every creed which contradicts what the righteous predecessors (as-Salaf as-Sālih) were upon from the chiefs of this ummah. And has Islām ever been removed, or the rulings being changed, and innovations in the Dīn being made without the permission of the All-Knowing King (Allāh), except from callers to the gates of Jahannam, who deter people from their Dīn, so fear Allāh O

slaves of Allāh.”

There’s only so much to share, but I fear prolonging this post longer than usual, and I think this should suffice for the mean-time.

Concerning claim #2, I would like to show you some words from the scholars obligating hijrah from dār al-Islām itself! And all these words are taken from “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah”, the section of Jihād, walhamdulilāh.

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) mentions in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/292) quoting the words of Imām al-Bayhaqī (رحمه الله):

“It’s mentioned in “Al-Bukhārī”, that fleeing from fitan is from Īmān; And whatever is from Īmān is without a doubt from its branches, and fleeing is Thāhir (a hijrah via one’s body) from living between the mushrikīn is an obligation upon every muslim; Likewise, every place in which Fitnah is feared for one’s Dīn, from the prevalence of bid’ah, or what leads to kufr, in any land from the lands of the muslims, then performing hijrah is obligatory towards the spacious Earth of Allāh. End quote from what Al-Bayhaqī mentioned, may Allāh the most High have mercy upon him.”

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) also mentions in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/291):

“And Ibn Hajr (al-Haytamī) quoted from the author of the Mu’tamad: That the same way hijrah is wājib from the land of kufr, it’s also wājib from the land of Islām if a muslim displays an obligation, but it wasn’t accepted from him, and he wasn’t able to publicly display it, he said:

This is what the statement of Imām al-Baghawī agrees with, in the Tafsīr of Sūrat al-‘Ankabūt, in the Tafsīr of Allāh’s statement:

“O My servants who have believed, indeed My earth is spacious, so worship only Me.” [29:56].

He said, Sa’d Ibn Jubayr said, if sins are being practised within a land, then leave it, for indeed “My Earth is spacious”, and ‘Attā’ said, if you are commanded to perform sins, then run away, for indeed “My Earth is spacious”,

Likewise, hijrah is obligatory upon everyone who resides in a land, in which sins are being practised within it, and he isn’t able to change that, to a place which facilitates ‘Ibādah for him, in accordance with Allāh’s statement:

“Then do not remain after the reminder with the wrongdoing people.” [6:68].”

This is what I wanted to share in brief, so do not be deceived by the words of those who water down the Dīn, and Allāh knows best.

6 May 2018 10:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Youtube | What’s the ruling on travelling to dār al-kufr and attaining their citizenships? By the Hāfidh, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3cN8lbYss5c&feature=youtu.be>

6 May 2018 07:02

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3cN8lbYss5c&feature=youtu.be>
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3cN8lbYss5c&feature=youtu.be>

#Youtube | What’s the ruling on travelling to dār al-kufr and attaining their citizenships? By the Hāfidh, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

6 May 2018 07:02

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Citizenship | What’s the ruling on travelling to dār al-kufr and attaining their citizenships? By the Hāfidh, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

6 May 2018 06:50

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

#Citizenship | What’s the ruling on travelling to dār al-kufr and attaining their citizenships? By the

6 May 2018 06:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"The problem with lying is that it's a hydra." (Jordan Peterson)

"If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything." (Mark Twain)

5 May 2018 21:49

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Hanbali_Fiqh

Fiqh Lesson — (Part 7) ﷞

The topic we will be covering is التطهير (Cleansing).

We will be going through how to clean impurities, and the various methods used to clean impurities and the different types, so we'll go through them right now Inshā'Allāh:

- First method — Concerning the impurities which only require a single cleanse, then they are the impurities which are on the ground.

- Second method — Concerning the impurity which comes from a dog or pig, then 7 cleanses are required, with the condition that 1 of these cleanses are done via dirt. So you clean whatever was made impure by a dog or pig with dirt and clean it with water 6 times. Moreover, there's nothing which stipulates using the dirt on the 1st or 2nd cleansing.

How did we come to learn about this? From the hadīth of the dog making something impure, but what about the pig? The scholars used qiyās (analogy) to say if that's what's required from the impurities coming from the dog, then the same ruling applies for the pig.

- Third method — It's to simply sprinkle some water without needing to wash, i.e. No need to wash your clothes and squeeze it (i.e. in the olden days for cleansing) etc.

Whatever area that needs to be sprinkled with water, then you simply sprinkle that area. And this is regarding the impurity of the little boy's urine who doesn't eat food.

And what's intended by the boy who doesn't eat food, is the boy who doesn't desire any food, and his daily meals are simply restricted to his mother's milk.

- Fourth method — The impurities that are washed 7 times without the usage of dirt, and it is every najāsah (impurity) besides what has been aforementioned, i.e. Anything else besides the najāsah on the ground, the najāsah of the dog and pig, and the urine of the little boy.

So according to the Madhab, if an impurity befalls upon one's clothes, such as blood or urine, then he must wash it 7 times, and using dirt isn't required (unlike the case with the najāsah of the dog and pig), but he simply washes it 7 times without dirt.

Moreover, the scholars disputed over how many times a najāsah needs to be washed, and the madhab of Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) stipulates that the najāsah is to be washed 7 times, and they have evidences concerning this, but this isn't the correct time and place to get into that.

This ends the lesson on التطهير (cleansing), and instead of posting a summary, I would recommend to re-read each method above, so that way the posts can be shorter and much more concise, may Allāh reward you.

— Refer to “Sharh an-Nathm al-Jalī fil-Fiqh al-Hanbalī”.

5 May 2018 21:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Hanbali_Fiqh

Fiqh Lesson — (Part 7) ﷞

The topic we will be covering is التطهير (Cleansing).

We will be going through how to clean impurities, and the various methods used to clean impurities and the different types, so we'll go through them right now Inshā'Allāh:

- First method — Concerning the impurities which only require a single cleanse, then they are the impurities which are on the ground.

• Second method — Concerning the impurity which comes from a dog or pig, then 7 cleanses are required, with the condition that 1 of these cleanses are done via dirt. So you clean whatever was made impure by a dog or pig with dirt and clean it with water 6 times. Moreover, there's nothing which stipulates using the dirt on the 1st or 2nd cleansing.

How did we come to learn about this? From the hadith of the dog making something impure, but what about the pig? The scholars used qiyās (analogy) to say if that's what's required from the impurities coming from the dog, then the same ruling applies for the pig.

• Third method — It's to simply sprinkle some water without needing to wash, i.e. No need to wash your clothes and squeeze it (i.e. in the olden days for cleansing) etc.

Whatever area that needs to be sprinkled with water, then you simply sprinkle that area. And this is regarding the impurity of the little boy's urine who doesn't eat food.

And what's intended by the boy who doesn't eat food, is the boy who doesn't desire any food, and his daily meals are simply restricted to his mother's milk.

• Fourth method — The impurities that are washed 7 times without the usage of dirt, and it is every najāsah (impurity) besides what has been aforementioned, i.e. Anything else besides the najāsah on the ground, the najāsah of the dog and pig, and the urine of the little boy.

So according to the Madhab, if an impurity befalls upon one's clothes, such as blood or urine, then he must wash it 7 times, and using dirt isn't required (unlike the case with the najāsah of the dog and pig), but he simply washes it 7 times without dirt.

Moreover, the scholars disputed over how many times a najāsah needs to be washed, and the madhab of Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) stipulates that the najāsah is to be washed 7 times, and they have evidences concerning this, but this isn't the correct time and place to get into that.

This ends the lesson on التطهير (cleansing), and instead of posting a summary, I would recommend to re-read each method above, so that way the posts can be shorter and much more concise, may Allāh reward you.

— Refer to “Sharh an-Nathm al-Jalī fil-Fiqh al-Hanbalī”.

5 May 2018 21:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

#Hanbalī_Fiqh I will be devoted to get through the explanation of “An-Nathm al-Jalī fil-Fiqh al-Hanbalī” (1243 pages) using this transcript إن شاء الله.

Among the valid excuses I had in not posting on a daily basis, is that the priority to study ‘Aqīdah behind the scenes was necessary, and it will remain the top priority. However, I've decided to balance my schedule because studying Fiqh is crucial for our day to day acts of worship, and to be among those who implement our knowledge.

https://archive.org/details/M\_898\_201609

5 May 2018 19:27

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Khalid Hussain May Allah bless you do you have plan to do videos instead of FB posts?

5 May 2018 19:32

Radwan Dakkak Āmīn. That's a beneficial suggestion, however there are numerous reasons I wouldn't want to make videos. And one of the most strongest advices I put in my heart is to learn without rushing into teaching, because the one who rushes to teach (while I still haven't learnt many fundamentals), then such a person will never be successful, and knowledge will be forbidden from him. Another reason I wouldn't want to make videos is that even though it may be easier to speak and you can see my manners, one of the problems is that it won't be written down (and must be transcribed). And I wouldn't want this to happen for numerous reasons again, because it will cause me to have a “name” (I would prefer to write it down and share, then have people share a video of myself explaining knowledge), and the next reason is that there are others who are more fit to take that role than myself. And a big trait of deceit is to speak on a matter you don't know very well, the same way you would speak on other matters you may have more knowledge on. Also, it's important to note that I'm not even among the students of knowledge or anywhere close to being one. I know my limits alhamdulillah. There are more details attached to this, but that's simply my take on the matter, and Allāh knows best.

5 May 2018 19:41

Suhaib Bin Aijaz As salamu alaykum akhi...i messaged u akhi,but u didn't reply...i had some queries..
8 May 2018 23:55

#Hanbalī_Fiqh I will be devoted to get through the explanation of “An-Nathm al-Jalī fil-Fiqh al-Hanbalī” (1243 pages) using this transcript إن شاء الله.

Among the valid excuses I had in not posting on a daily basis, is that the priority to study ‘Aqīdah behind the scenes was necessary, and it will remain the top priority. However, I’ve decided to balance my schedule because studying Fiqh is crucial for our day to day acts of worship, and to be among those who implement our knowledge.

https://archive.org/details/M\_898\_201609

5 May 2018 19:27

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Lol, I received a message from a brother I’ve never met before about something I completely forgot about

“Yes, I have asked him about you once. He mentioned that when you went to the nearbyb cafe' you asked to switch off the music. Machine, tabarak’Allah. made my smile so much haha”

5 May 2018 16:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I hate it when shaytān makes me stressed out ☹

5 May 2018 15:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I hate it when shaytān makes me stressed out ☹

5 May 2018 15:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Something I would really love to see which is rare to find, even among the closest of friends, is wanting to revise Qur’ān and islamic texts with each other.

I really yearn in wishing for such dedicated company, but what’s very common is brothers hanging out with others via ‘eating out’.

Now, I have nothing against food, but there are so many things you can do besides eat out. Like how rare is it to hear from someone, “I’m free today, let’s spend all day revising Qur’ān”.

Infact, even sharing a benefit surrounding knowledge would bring so much happiness to me. For example, a while ago I shared a statement from Shaykh al-’Alwān (فك الله أسرته) that nikāh has two meanings in the arabic language, and what I would love to see is a brother telling me, I came across this hadīth narrated by Anas Ibn Mālik (رضي الله عنه) where he reported:

“The Jews used not to eat with a woman during her menstruation period, so the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: "Do every thing else apart from Nikāh." [Sahīh Muslim].

Then the brother can say, this is a perfect example where Nikāh means جماع (relations with one’s spouse). It doesn’t mean the other meaning of Nikāh, which is the عقد (marriage contract), since it’s permissible to marry a woman who’s on her menses by Ijmā’.

An example of revising mutūn would be like, can I recite the 8 nullifiers of wudū’ for you, I’m trying to memorise this text for instance.

This is what I would love to see more of, and there’s a du’ā I really love to make:

اللهم إني أعوذ بك من علمٍ لا ينفع ومن قلبٍ لا يخشى

“O Allāh, I seek refuge in You from knowledge which doesn't benefit, and from a heart which doesn't fear (You).”

I love this du’ā because it’s so comprehensive in meaning; As any knowledge which doesn't benefit is harmful, and a heart which doesn’t fear Allāh won’t remember Allāh frequently, being combined with harmful knowledge which will only result in compiling more sins to your account, by wasting time, not praying, loving dunyā, backbiting, gossiping and arguing over insignificant matters.

5 May 2018 12:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Something I would really love to see which is rare to find, even among the closest of friends, is wanting to revise Qurʾān and islamic texts with each other.

I really yearn in wishing for such dedicated company, but what's very common is brothers hanging out with others via 'eating out'.

Now, I have nothing against food, but there are so many things you can do besides eat out. Like how rare is it to hear from someone, "I'm free today, let's spend all day revising Qurʾān".

Infact, even sharing a benefit surrounding knowledge would bring so much happiness to me. For example, a while ago I shared a statement from Shaykh al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) that nikāh has two meanings in the arabic language, and what I would love to see is a brother telling me, I came across this hadīth narrated by Anas Ibn Mālik (رضي الله عنه) where he reported:

"The Jews used not to eat with a woman during her menstruation period, so the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: "Do every thing else apart from Nikāh." [Sahīh Muslim].

Then the brother can say, this is a perfect example where Nikāh means جماع (relations with one's spouse). It doesn't mean the other meaning of Nikāh, which is the عقد (marriage contract), since it's permissible to marry a woman who's on her menses by Ijmā'.

An example of revising mutūn would be like, can I recite the 8 nullifiers of wudū' for you, I'm trying to memorise this text for instance.

This is what I would love to see more of, and there's a du'ā I really love to make:

اللهم إني أعوذ بك من علمٍ لا ينفع ومن قلبٍ لا يخشى

"O Allāh, I seek refuge in You from knowledge which doesn't benefit, and from a heart which doesn't fear (You)."

I love this du'ā because it's so comprehensive in meaning; As any knowledge which doesn't benefit is harmful, and a heart which doesn't fear Allāh won't remember Allāh frequently, being combined with harmful knowledge which will only result in compiling more sins to your account, by wasting time, not praying, loving dunyā, backbiting, gossiping and arguing over insignificant matters.

5 May 2018 12:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Ibn Sahnān relating beautiful words from Shaykh 'Abdullāh Abū Butayn (رحمه الله) on those ignorant deviants who think they have the right to issue fatāwā on takfīr in all masā'il. May Allāh guide them

5 May 2018 09:50

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Ibn Sahnān relating beautiful words from Shaykh 'Abdullāh Abū Butayn (رحمه الله) on those ignorant deviants who think they have the right to issue fatāwā on takfīr in all masā'il. May Allāh guide them

5 May 2018 09:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"The jew will be merciful to you, and the christian will be merciful to you, but as for the rāfidhī, by Allāh he will never be merciful to you."

— The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

4 May 2018 22:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

“The jew will be merciful to you, and the christian will be merciful to you, but as for the rāfidhī, by Allāh he will never be merciful to you.”

— The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

4 May 2018 22:20

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

The same way we emphasise on the modesty of a muslimah due to the war being waged against her by the kuffār, brothers need to stop following fashion trends & imitating the kuffār, from head to bottom!

4 May 2018 17:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

The same way we emphasise on the modesty of a muslimah due to the war being waged against her by the kuffār, brothers need to stop following fashion trends & imitating the kuffār, from head to bottom!

4 May 2018 17:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

The pillars of wisdom are 3:

- 1) Knowledge.
- 2) Forbearance.
- 3) Leniency.

Some of the causes to attain wisdom include:

- Speaking less.
- Frequent ‘Ibādah.
- Ignoring insignificant petty matters.
- Reciting Qur’ān and pondering over it.
- Sitting with righteous and intelligent people.
- Working and learning.
- Good manners.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says, “He gives wisdom to whom He wills, and whoever has been given wisdom has certainly been given much good. And none will remember except those of understanding.” [2:269].

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى also says, “And We had certainly given Luqman wisdom [and said], "Be grateful to Allah ." And whoever is grateful is grateful for [the benefit of] himself. And whoever denies [His favor] - then indeed, Allah is Free of need and Praiseworthy." [31:12].

May Allāh allow us to be grateful and grant us wisdom.

4 May 2018 17:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

The pillars of wisdom are 3:

- 1) Knowledge.
- 2) Forbearance.
- 3) Leniency.

Some of the causes to attain wisdom include:

- Speaking less.
- Frequent ‘Ibādah.
- Ignoring insignificant petty matters.
- Reciting Qur’ān and pondering over it.

- Sitting with righteous and intelligent people.
- Working and learning.
- Good manners.

Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى says, “He gives wisdom to whom He wills, and whoever has been given wisdom has certainly been given much good. And none will remember except those of understanding.” [2:269].

Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى also says, “And We had certainly given Luqman wisdom [and said], "Be grateful to Allah ." And whoever is grateful is grateful for [the benefit of] himself. And whoever denies [His favor] - then indeed, Allah is Free of need and Praiseworthy.” [31:12].

May Allāh allow us to be grateful and grant us wisdom.

4 May 2018 17:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://youtu.be/K3lAs\_2Lc5A

#Youtube | The desired Islamic Govt by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله).

https://youtu.be/K3lAs\_2Lc5A

4 May 2018 16:59

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K3lAs\_2Lc5A

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K3lAs\_2Lc5A

#Youtube | The desired Islamic Govt by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله).

4 May 2018 16:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Video “The desired Islamic State” [EN] by the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله). A very interesting video discussing governance.

4 May 2018 16:42

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

#Video “The desired Islamic State” [EN] by the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله). A very interesting video discussing governance.

4 May 2018 16:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#NEW “The desired Islamic State” [EN] by the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله). A very interesting video discussing governance. Video is on the next post:

4 May 2018 16:36

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Imraan Hussein

Assalamu'alaykum warahmatullah akhi this video is remove frm youtube pls how do i get it.

5 May 2018 00:38

#NEW “The desired Islamic State” [EN] by the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله). A very interesting video discussing governance. Video is on the next post:

4 May 2018 16:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Q. What is a fasiq?

A. The definition and guidelines of being considered a Fāsiq is well-known among the scholars.

The noble Imām of the Hanābilah, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Mansūr Ibn Yūnus Al-Buhūtī (رحمه الله) clarifies this in “Kashāf al-Qinā” by stating:

وَالْفَاسِقُ: مَنْ أَتَى كَبِيرَةً، وَهِيَ: مَا فِيهِ خَذٌ فِي الدُّنْيَا، أَوْ وَعِيدٌ فِي الْآخِرَةِ، أَوْ دَاوَمَ عَلَى صَغِيرَةٍ.

“The Fāsiq: He is the one who commits a major sin, and it is what has a hadd (prescribed penalty) in the Dunyā, or an impending threat (of punishment) in the Ākhirah, or the one who persists upon committing a minor sin.”

And Allāh knows best.

4 May 2018 14:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Q. What is a fasiq?

A. The definition and guidelines of being considered a Fāsiq is well-known among the scholars.

The noble Imām of the Hanābilah, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Mansūr Ibn Yūnus Al-Buhūtī (رحمه الله) clarifies this in “Kashāf al-Qinā” by stating:

وَالْفَاسِقُ: مَنْ أَتَى كَبِيرَةً، وَهِيَ: مَا فِيهِ خَذٌ فِي الدُّنْيَا، أَوْ وَعِيدٌ فِي الْآخِرَةِ، أَوْ دَاوَمَ عَلَى صَغِيرَةٍ.

“The Fāsiq: He is the one who commits a major sin, and it is what has a hadd (prescribed penalty) in the Dunyā, or an impending threat (of punishment) in the Ākhirah, or the one who persists upon committing a minor sin.”

And Allāh knows best.

4 May 2018 14:45

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Facebook Statistics

Messages = Received from 775 different people.

Posts = 1,030,032 words (2,514 page word document).

Comments = 320,814 words (796 page word document).

4 May 2018 14:15

Radwan Dakkak shared Rabeh Kalaoun's post.

---

looooo

4 May 2018 11:19

Radwan Dakkak shared Special Books by Special Kids's video.

---

4 May 2018 10:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

4 May 2018 10:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

This is one of my uncle's favourite events in the history of Islam and display of honour. Whenever I come across it online, I remember when he narrated this to me when I was a little 8 year old boy:

لما حضر الباقلائي عرف الحيلة فأدار جسمه إلى الخلف وركع ثم دخل من الباب وهو يمشي للوراء جاعلاً قفاه لملك الروم بدلاً من وجهه ! هنا علم الملك أنه أمام داهية ! دخل الباقلائي فحياهم ولم يسلم عليهم (لنهي الرسول صلى الله عليه وسلم عن ابتداء أهل الكتاب بالتسليم) ثم التفت إلى الراهب الأكبر وقال له : "كيف حالكم وكيف الأهل والأولاد؟" غضب ملك الروم وقال: "ألم تعلم بأن رهباننا لا يتزوَّجون ولا ينجبون الأطفال؟" فقال أبو بكر: الله أكبر! تُتْرَهون رهبانكم عن الزواج والإنجاب ثم تتهمون ربكم بأنه تزوج مريم وأنجب عيسى؟" فزاد غضب الملك! ثم قال الملك -بكل وقاحة-: "فما قولك فيما فعلت عائشة؟" قال أبو بكر: "إن كانت عائشة رضي الله عنها قد اتهمت (اتهمها المنافقون والرافضة) فإن مريم قد اتهمت أيضا (اتهمها اليهود)، وكلاهما طاهرة، ولكن عائشة تزوجت ولم تنجب، أمّا مريم فقد أنجبت بلا زواج ! فأيهما تكون أولى بالتهمة الباطلة وحاشاهما رضي الله عنهما؟" فجن جنون الملك! قال الملك: "هل كان نبيكم يغزو؟!" قال أبو بكر: "نعم" قال الملك: "فهل كان يقاتل في المقدمة؟!" قال أبو بكر: "نعم" قال الملك: "فهل كان ينتصر؟!" قال أبو بكر: "نعم" قال الملك: "فهل كان يُهْرَم؟!" قال أبو بكر: "نعم" قال الملك: "عجيب ! نبيٌّ وُهِرَم؟" فقال أبو بكر: "إله وُصِّلَب؟" قُبِهَتْ الذي كفر!! _____ تاريخ بغداد (٣٧٩/٥) للخطيب البغدادي طبعة الكتب العلمية. 18,378 29

4 May 2018 09:27

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

This is one of my uncle's favourite events in the history of Islam and display of honour. Whenever I come across it online, I remember when he narrated this to me when I was a little 8 year old boy:

لما حضر الباقلائي عرف الحيلة فأدار جسمه إلى الخلف وركع ثم دخل من الباب وهو يمشي للوراء جاعلاً قفاه لملك الروم بدلاً من وجهه ! هنا علم الملك أنه أمام داهية ! دخل الباقلائي فحياهم ولم يسلم عليهم (لنهي الرسول صلى الله عليه وسلم عن ابتداء أهل الكتاب بالتسليم) ثم التفت إلى الراهب الأكبر وقال له : "كيف حالكم وكيف الأهل والأولاد؟" غضب ملك الروم وقال: "ألم تعلم بأن رهباننا لا يتزوَّجون ولا ينجبون الأطفال؟" فقال أبو بكر: الله أكبر! تُتْرَهون رهبانكم عن الزواج والإنجاب ثم تتهمون ربكم بأنه تزوج مريم وأنجب عيسى؟" فزاد غضب الملك! ثم قال الملك -بكل وقاحة-: "فما قولك فيما فعلت عائشة؟" قال أبو بكر: "إن كانت عائشة رضي الله عنها قد اتهمت (اتهمها المنافقون والرافضة) فإن مريم قد اتهمت أيضا (اتهمها اليهود)، وكلاهما طاهرة، ولكن عائشة تزوجت ولم تنجب، أمّا مريم فقد أنجبت بلا زواج ! فأيهما تكون أولى بالتهمة الباطلة وحاشاهما رضي الله عنهما؟" فجن جنون الملك! قال الملك: "هل كان نبيكم يغزو؟!" قال أبو بكر: "نعم" قال الملك: "فهل كان يقاتل في المقدمة؟!" قال أبو بكر: "نعم" قال الملك: "فهل كان يُهْرَم؟!" قال أبو بكر: "نعم" قال الملك: "عجيب ! نبيٌّ وُهِرَم؟" فقال أبو بكر: "إله وُصِّلَب؟" قُبِهَتْ الذي كفر!! _____ تاريخ بغداد (٣٧٩/٥) للخطيب البغدادي طبعة الكتب العلمية. 18,378 29

4 May 2018 09:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

These are the 'courageous warriors' occupying our beloved Masjid al-Aqsā

4 May 2018 08:14

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

I won't lie, I sometimes laugh at dunyā lovers ☺

There's no bigger cowards than the hostile Yahūd, as Allāh وتعالى سبحانه describes them with a perfect description in Sūrat al-Baqarah:

وَلَتَجِدَنَّهُمْ أَخْرَصَ النَّاسِ عَلَىٰ حَيَاةٍ وَمِنَ الَّذِينَ أَشْرَكُوا ۚ يَوَدُّ أَحَدُهُمْ لَوْ يُعَمَّرَ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ وَمَا هُوَ بِمُرْشِرٍ حَرْجٍ مِّنَ الْعَذَابِ ۚ إِنَّ يُعَمَّرَ ۚ وَاللَّهُ بَصِيرٌ بِمَا يَعْمَلُونَ

"And you will surely find them (i.e. the jews) the most greedy of people for life - [even] more than those who associate others with Allah . One of them wishes that he could be granted life a thousand years, but it would not remove him in the least from the [coming] punishment that he should be granted life. And Allah is Seeing of what they do." [2:96].

4 May 2018 08:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Later on today, some words will be shared from Shaykh al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) on how to welcome the month of Ramadān الله إن شاء الله.

For the meantime, ask yourself what you're looking forward too. Is it a ramadan TV series, food and drinks, scrolling down your FB news feed or twitter, or is it to seek forgiveness from Allāh and appreciate Allāh's favour upon you by allowing you to reach another Ramadān, which many in the graves would have wished to welcome. There's always room to improve before Allāh takes our soul.

4 May 2018 07:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Later on today, some words will be shared from Shaykh al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) on how to welcome the month of Ramadān إن شاء الله.

For the meantime, ask yourself what you're looking forward too. Is it a ramadan TV series, food and drinks, scrolling down your FB news feed or twitter, or is it to seek forgiveness from Allāh and appreciate Allāh's favour upon you by allowing you to reach another Ramadān, which many in the graves would have wished to welcome. There's always room to improve before Allāh takes our soul.

4 May 2018 07:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

News that Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd's mother has passed away — SubhānAllāh, the mother of Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl passed away while he was imprisoned, also the mother of Shaykh al-'Alwān, and now Nāsir al-Fahd

May Allāh have mercy upon all these honourable mothers for raising legends!

3 May 2018 21:44

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Fitim Jashari Denis Berisha 3 May 2018 23:10
Putera Anshār رحمها الله. اللهم اغفر لها وارحمها 3 May 2018 23:41
Umm Darda Aameen! 4 May 2018 00:25
Warez Ahmadi Will they let him free for one day so he can see his beloved mother ☹ 4 May 2018 01:41
Ibn Umar أمين 4 May 2018 08:24

News that Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd's mother has passed away — SubhānAllāh, the mother of Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl passed away while he was imprisoned, also the mother of Shaykh al-'Alwān, and now Nāsir al-Fahd

May Allāh have mercy upon all these honourable mothers for raising legends!

3 May 2018 21:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Rule: In “Zād al-Mustaqni”, Imām Mūsā al-Hajjāwī (رحمه الله) mentions that Salāh is not valid behind a Fāsiq.

This is the official position of the Hanbalī madhab [1], and Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb, his students and descendants are upon the madhab of Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله).

Therefore, if a Najdī Imām says “prayer is not valid behind such and such”, this doesn't necessitate making takfīr upon him, since he may be a deviant Fāsiq.

I write this due to being shown a claim that the invalidity of Salāh behind an Imām means he's a clear kāfir. This reasoning is false as aforementioned, but besides that, I have no issue with the general statements made by the A'immat ad-Da'wah on takfīr, as I've combined both their general and specific statements together.

The ones who have a problem are those who try to understand the statements of the ‘Ulamā' by holding onto a few unrestricted quotes taken out of context, with ignorance in Fiqh. What can one expect from someone who's trying to justify the “foundation of Islām” via an ambiguous quote of a ‘Ālim (not even the Qur’ān). This is why we collect ALL the sayings of any scholar to clarify the correct meaning & remove the doubts.

From the Qawā'id (rules) of extracting Fiqh rulings and understanding the Sunnah is to collect all the chains surrounding a hadīth, which would be used to explain each other and give off the correct meaning.

Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) said, “If you do not collect the various routes of the hadīth, you won’t understand it. And each part of the hadīth explains itself.” [2].

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Daqīq al-‘Īd (رحمه الله) said, “What’s correct is that if the routes of the hadīth are collected, he can extract a ruling by applying parts of it over the other, and to gather what is able to be gathered, so that the intended meaning may become displayed through that.” [3].

Ibn Daqīq al-‘Īd (رحمه الله) also mentioned, “When the various routes of the hadīth is collected together, it would explain each other.” [4]

Imām Ibn al-‘Attār (رحمه الله) said, “The various routes of the hadīth and collecting its different wordings would explain one other.” [5].

Imām Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) said, “The different wordings of the hadīth will clarify one another, and it will clarify his intended meaning, may the peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him. Therefore, it’s not permissible to hold onto a particular wording while abandoning the rest.” [6].

Imām Ibn Hajr al-‘Asqalānī (رحمه الله) said, “What’s required upon everyone that speaks about the hadīths is to collect its various routes, then to collect the different wordings of the text if the routes are authentic, and to explain it as a single hadīth.” [7].

If we’re required to gather all the chains of narrations to explain a single hadīth of the infallible Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) who speaks via wahī (revelation), then imagine the case with any scholar who comes after him.

And Allāh knows best.

[1] The overwhelming majority of the scholars differed with the Hanābilah and stated that Salāh is valid behind a Fāsiq, infact Ibn Hazm (رحمه الله) in the 3rd volume of “Al-Fisal” quotes this view from Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) himself, however the official position within the madhab is that it’s bātil.

[2] Refer to “Al-Jāmi’ Li-Akhlāq ar-Rāwī” (2/315).

[3] Refer to “Sharh al-‘Umah” (1/67).

[4] Refer to “Sharh al-‘Umdah” (1/152).

[5] Refer to “Al-‘Udda Fi Sharh al-‘Umdah” (1/58).

[6] Refer to “Kitāb as-Salāh” (page 278).

[7] Refer to “Fath al-Bārī” (6/475).

3 May 2018 17:02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Rule: In “Zād al-Mustaqni’”, Imām Mūsā al-Hajjāwī (رحمه الله) mentions that Salāh is not valid behind a Fāsiq.

This is the official position of the Hanbalī madhab [1], and Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb, his students and descendants are upon the madhab of Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله).

Therefore, if a Najdī Imām says “prayer is not valid behind such and such”, this doesn’t necessitate making takfīr upon him, since he may be a deviant Fāsiq.

I write this due to being shown a claim that the invalidity of Salāh behind an Imām means he’s a clear kāfir. This reasoning is false as aforementioned, but besides that, I have no issue with the general statements made by the A’immat ad-Da’wah on takfīr, as I’ve combined both their general and specific statements together.

The ones who have a problem are those who try to understand the statements of the ‘Ulamā’ by holding onto a few unrestricted quotes taken out of context, with ignorance in Fiqh. What can one expect from someone who’s trying to justify the “foundation of Islām” via an ambiguous quote of a ‘Ālim (not even the Qur’ān). This is why we collect ALL the sayings of any scholar to clarify the correct meaning & remove the doubts.

From the Qawā’id (rules) of extracting Fiqh rulings and understanding the Sunnah is to collect all the chains surrounding a hadīth, which would be used to explain each other and give off the correct meaning.

Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) said, “If you do not collect the various routes of the hadīth, you won’t understand it. And each part of the hadīth explains itself.” [2].

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Daqīq al-‘Īd (رحمه الله) said, “What’s correct is that if the routes of the hadīth are collected, he can extract a ruling by applying parts of it over the other, and to gather what is able to be gathered, so that the intended meaning may become displayed through that.” [3].

Ibn Daqīq al-ʿId (رحمه الله) also mentioned, “When the various routes of the hadīth is collected together, it would explain each other.” [4]

Imām Ibn al-ʿAttār (رحمه الله) said, “The various routes of the hadīth and collecting its different wordings would explain one other.” [5].

Imām Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) said, “The different wordings of the hadīth will clarify one another, and it will clarify his intended meaning, may the peace and blessings of Allāh be upon him. Therefore, it’s not permissible to hold onto a particular wording while abandoning the rest.” [6].

Imām Ibn Hajar al-ʿAsqalānī (رحمه الله) said, “What’s required upon everyone that speaks about the hadīths is to collect its various routes, then to collect the different wordings of the text if the routes are authentic, and to explain it as a single hadīth.” [7].

If we’re required to gather all the chains of narrations to explain a single hadīth of the infallible Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) who speaks via wahī (revelation), then imagine the case with any scholar who comes after him.

And Allāh knows best.

[1] The overwhelming majority of the scholars differed with the Hanābilah and stated that Salāh is valid behind a Fāsiq, infact Ibn Hazm (رحمه الله) in the 3rd volume of “Al-Fisal” quotes this view from Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) himself, however the official position within the madhab is that it’s bātil.

[2] Refer to “Al-Jāmi’ Li-Akhlāq ar-Rāwī” (2/315).

[3] Refer to “Sharh al-ʿUmah” (1/67).

[4] Refer to “Sharh al-ʿUmdah” (1/152).

[5] Refer to “Al-ʿUdda Fi Sharh al-ʿUmdah” (1/58).

[6] Refer to “Kitāb as-Salāh” (page 278).

[7] Refer to “Fath al-Bārī” (6/475).

3 May 2018 17:00

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allah guide the kuffar to Islam, the same way Rasulullah via his mercy would make du'a for his people, and sometimes his enemies.

Allah said, "And We have not sent you, [O Muhammad], except as a mercy to the worlds." [21:107]

3 May 2018 13:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allah guide the kuffar to Islam, the same way Rasulullah via his mercy would make du'a for his people, and sometimes his enemies.

Allah said, "And We have not sent you, [O Muhammad], except as a mercy to the worlds." [21:107]

3 May 2018 13:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Un5\_C8\_DtLo

A rare recitation of Surat ash-Shurah by Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Un5\_C8\_DtLo

3 May 2018 11:26

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Un5\_C8\_DtLo

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Un5\_C8\_DtLo

A rare recitation of Surat ash-Shurah by Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan.

3 May 2018 11:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

This MURTAD makes takfīr upon EVERY muwahhid who disbelieves in the SAHAWĀT and their APOSTATE allies!

The wicked apostate, ‘Abdur-Razzāq al-Mahdī (may Allāh curse him) quoted Ibn al-‘Arabī’s statement, “we make takfīr upon whoever calls us kāfir”, then says “this madhab is strong”.

What this jāhil doesn’t know is that Ibn al-‘Arabī is an ash’arī to the core with corrupt beliefs (may Allāh pardon him), and from the contradictory principles of the ashā’irah is that they are murji’ah in Īmān (i.e. no takfīr upon actions which nullify one’s Islām), but make takfīr upon whoever calls them kāfir (i.e. takfīr upon sins).

The noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) mentions in his lesson on the Ashā’irah sect:

“So from those false beliefs with the Ashā’irah, is that they are in contradiction within the topic of takfīr, so at times, they say: “We don’t make takfīr upon anyone from ahlul-qiblah”, irregardless of whatever he commits of nullifiers.

And at other times they say, “We don’t make takfīr, except upon the one who makes takfīr upon us”.

So they make takfīr upon whoever makes takfīr upon them, and this is a false ‘Aqdīah.

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) affirms that we don’t make takfīr upon whoever calls us kuffār, as the people of falsehood believe, as it’s the belief of the muṭtadi’ah (innovators). For indeed, kufr and takfīr is the Haqq (right) of Allāh, may He be glorified and exalted, as it has surpassed us in the (previous) lesson “Ghulāt at-Takfīr”.

Moreover, they (i.e. the ashā’irah) say and share a statement according to them, in this topic, in the topic of takfīr, they say “the apparent of the texts is a foundation from the foundations of kufr”, wal-‘lyāthubillāh!

Meaning, whoever goes by the apparent of the textual evidences, his affairs will lead him towards becoming a kāfir, and who they intend are the salaf of this ummah, who take the Sifāt (attributes of Allāh) according to its apparent meaning, such as the statement of Allāh (سبحانه وتعالى):

“Ar-Rahmān (Allāh — the lord of all mercy) rose above the ‘Arsh (i.e. majestic throne).” [20:5].

They say whoever rakes the apparent of this text, then he’s a kāfir. So they make takfīr upon whoever takes these texts according to their apparent meaning (due to falsely thinking it’s comparing Allāh with the creation).”

So ‘Abdur-Razzāq al-Mahdī agrees with the deviant Ashā’irah without even knowing, and he doesn’t even know that he doesn’t know! Then he says, “this is a strong madhab”, wallāhul-musta’ān.

Forget about declaring this bātil belief as “strong”, he doesn’t even have an authority to declare anything as “strong”.

3 May 2018 09:37

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ali Khokhar And I'll take yours for calling me a kalb

3 May 2018 19:55

Ibn Shaami How is "kalb" on the same level as "takfiri khawarij" you made his blood halaal.

3 May 2018 19:57

محمد ابو سفيان Ali Khokhar you filthy butter pork muncher! The sewers of al Anbar is cleaner than your lineage.

3 May 2018 20:25

Ali Khokhar Look at you all, sitting in the West while your beloved khilafa burnt to the ground. There's a word for that: hypocrites.

3 May 2018 20:56

محمد ابو سفيان Ali Khokhar desi barking mutt.

3 May 2018 21:03

محمد ابو سفيان It's better for it to burn and vanish as long as the al wala wal bara remains!! That's something your kind will never comprehend.

3 May 2018 21:13

Ali Khokhar Wala to Islam, not to a bunch of murdering Bathist adulterers.

3 May 2018 21:22

Ibn Shaami Do you have dalil to back up what you have claimed? If so, post the evidences or remain silent.

3 May 2018 21:25

Radwan Dakkak هذا ردٌ لطيف لمن يشترط "التمكين التام" لصحة الخلافة.

3 May 2018 21:32

Radwan Dakkak وجدنا الكثير ممن خان الدولة في حال محتنتها وخسارتها لبعض المدن، وهذا من أبرز علامات النفاق، والنصر قادم لا محالة، رغم أنوف الحاقدين القاعدين

3 May 2018 21:37

محمد ابو سفيان Ali Khokhar chump you're barely a male and I'm sure your estrogen level's are triple your testosterone... your kind wouldn't dare give a kaffir a dirty look yet you seem to think your qualified to slander the men who sleep to the sound of B-52 bombers and wake up to the smell of White Phosphorus shells. Yahood al Jihad and VSO cheerleader's taking about WALA to Islam SMH.

3 May 2018 21:37

Mohammed Junaid Why do all the half men seem to come from the subcontinent area?! The curry must have an effect.

3 May 2018 23:17

Najam Mohedine Radwan Dakkak :How can a man be considered as murtad who considers Ibn Arabi and Mansur Hallaj as murtad because both of them uttered Shathiyat ,even Imam Ibn Taymiyah RA too declared them as both of them as kafir in his book 'فرق بين ال اولياء حق' because they both uttered that Iblis and Fira'un were their lords in Fusul Hikm .

4 May 2018 03:28

محمد ابو سفيان Idlib is Murtadeen paradise... your brothers on the Jihad al Ummah patty wagon.

4 May 2018 05:31

Radwan Dakkak I never admitted that I'm stupid. Yes, he's fighting muwahhiddin under pretext as “kuffār”, while his friends keep surrendering positions to bashār.

4 May 2018 06:08

Ibn Shaami When `Ali was in Yemen, he sent some gold in its ore to the Prophet. The Prophet (ﷺ) distributed it among Al-Aqra' bin H'Abis Al-Hanzali who belonged to Bani Mujashi, 'Uyaina bin Badr Al-Fazari, 'Alqama bin 'Ulatha Al-'Amiri, who belonged to the Bani Kilab tribe and Zaid Al-Khail at-Ta'i who belonged to Bani Nabhan. So the Quraish and the Ansar became angry and said, "He gives to the chiefs of Najd and leaves us!" The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "I just wanted to attract and unite their hearts (make them firm in Islam)." Then there came a man with sunken eyes, bulging forehead, thick beard, fat raised cheeks, and clean-shaven head, and said, "O Muhammad! Be afraid of Allah! " The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Who would obey Allah if I disobeyed Him? (Allah). He trusts me over the people of the earth, but you do not trust me?" A man from the people (present then), who, I think, was Khalid bin Al- Walid, asked for permission to kill him, but the Prophet (ﷺ) prevented him. When the man went away, the Prophet said, "Out of the offspring of this man, there will be people who will recite the Qur'an but it will not go beyond their throats, and they will go out of Islam as an arrow goes out through the game, and they will kill the Muslims and leave the idolators. Should I live till they appear, I would kill them as the Killing of the nation of 'Ad." حَدَّثَنَا قَبِيصَةُ، حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ، عَنْ أَبِي نُعْمٍ - أَوْ أَبِي نُعْمٍ سَنَكُ قَبِيصَةُ - عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، قَالَ يُعَيِّتُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَذْهَبِيهِ فَيَقْسِمُهَا بَيْنَ الْأَرْبَعَةِ. وَحَدَّثَنِي إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ تَصْرِ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ أَخْبَرَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي نُعْمٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ بَعَثَ عَلِيُّ وَهُوَ يَأْتِيَنَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَذْهَبِيهِ فِي ثَرِيئِهَا، فَيَقْسِمُهَا بَيْنَ الْأَقْرَعِ بْنِ خَابِيسِ الْخَنْظَلِيِّ ثُمَّ أَحَدَ بَنِي مُجَاشِيعَ، وَبَيْنَ عُيَيْنَةَ بْنِ بَدْرِ الْقَرَارِيِّ، وَبَيْنَ عُلَقَمَةَ بْنِ غُلَاثَةَ الْغَامِرِيِّ ثُمَّ أَحَدَ بَنِي كِلَابٍ، وَبَيْنَ رَبِيعِ بْنِ الْخَيْلِ الطَّائِيَّ ثُمَّ أَحَدَ بَنِي تَبَّهَانَ، فَتَعْصِفُتُ فَرَسًا وَالْأَنْصَارُ فَقَالُوا يُعْطِيهِ صَنَادِيدَ أَهْلِ بَدَجٍ وَبَدَعْنَا قَالَ " إِنْمَا أَنَا لَفَهُمْ ". فَأَقْبَلَ رَجُلٌ غَائِرَ الْعَيْنَيْنِ، تَابِيُّ الْخَبِينِ، كَثَّ اللَّحْيَةِ، مُبْسِرِفُ الْوَجْتَيْنِ، مَخْلُوفُ الرَّأْسِ فَقَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ اتَّقِ اللَّهَ. فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ " فَمَنْ يُطِيعُ اللَّهَ إِذَا عَصَيْتُهُ فَيَأْمُرُنِي عَلَى أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ، وَلَا تَأْمَنُونِي ". فَسَالَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ - قَتْلَهُ أَرَاهُ خَالِدُ بْنُ الْوَلِيدِ - فَمَتَعَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا وَلِيَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ " إِنَّ مِنْ صُنْصَنِ هَذَا قَوْمًا يَقْرَءُونَ الْقُرْآنَ لَا يُجَاوِزُ حَتَا جَرْهُمُ، يَمْرُقُونَ مِنَ الْإِسْلَامِ مُرُوقَ السَّهْمِ مِنْ سَاحِيهِ الرَّمِيَّةِ، يَقْتُلُونَ أَهْلَ الْإِسْلَامِ وَيَدْعُونَ أَهْلَ الْأَوْتَانِ، لَيْنٌ أَذْرَكْتَهُمْ لَأَقْتُلَنَّهُمْ قَتْلًا عَادٍ ".

4 May 2018 12:52

Ibn Shaami "Should I live till they (The Khawaarij) appear, I would kill them as the killing of the nation of 'Ad." Clear indication of their blood is halaal.

4 May 2018 12:54

Gehad Abu Umar Y do Brothers get cut when they or the people of dawalah get called khawarij but when they make Takfir on others they expect silence n acceptance I don't even knw y u even discuss this online anymore enough r behind bars while their mothers n wives struggle

4 May 2018 13:35

Mohammed Junaid I'm pretty sure there are enough brothers who are equipped and ready to debate with knowledge anyone who accuses the Dawlah of being Khawarij, even though this is an old accusation that has been addressed enough with clear evidence for those wh Allah have opened their hearts, but when your opponent is a confused curry muncher, and is not at the level to debate academically, then sarcasm is what is most effective.

4 May 2018 13:51

Mohammed Junaid Isn't that exactly what you're doing with the Dawlah you ***

4 May 2018 14:23

محمد ابو سفيان When Al Muflsi and Abu Qumamah get off social media and living under the shade of the Tawagheet take step on the battlefields then they might be considered praiseworthy.

4 May 2018 14:26

Ali Khokhar Abu Misk, you're a newbie. I've brought enough dala'il to substantiate every claim of mine and have never had any one come up with a proper response. Typically the fanboys just used to shout baqiyah when they had no response or start getting emotional, but now that their khilafa is in the garbage of history, they've stopped shouting baqiyah. Muhammad Abu Sufyan, are you in the deserts of al-Anbar with al-Baghdadi? Or are you also living under the tawaghit? Because if you are, you are a shameless hypocrite. Get off your own backside and put your money where you mouth is - then I might take you a bit seriously. Also for the record, I follow the jumhoor in the opinion that the khawarij are Muslims but it is permissible to fight and kill them if they attack Ahlus Sunnah and become a public danger (like da'ish). The Syrian jihad was lost and ruined when these kilab ahlin naar raised their heads and alhamdulillah for their extermination (even if it was at the hands of the kuffar, although I would've preferred Sunnis to have dealt with them).

4 May 2018 15:04

Radwan Dakkak "Alhamdulillah for their extermination, even if it was at the hands of the kuffar." — Without even realising, you've just supported the Sharī'ah of ar-Rahmān being replaced with man-made laws. والله المستعان

4 May 2018 15:07

Ali Khokhar Typical da'ish mentality where you make judgements based on lawazim. If I thought they were implementing the shari'ah as it was meant to be established, I wouldn't have been against them. Rubbish argument.

4 May 2018 15:10

Radwan Dakkak The hukm is being made upon your kufr statement, not any lāzim (implication). You just said they were muslims, and at the same time you support the kuffār to gain victory over them. Will your excuse in front of Allāh be "Because they don't implement sharī'ah properly and kill muslims". Repent back to Allāh, ولا حول ولا قوة إلا بالله. Also, what did I tell you about using the word da'ishi.

4 May 2018 15:17

Ali Khokhar Radwan Dakkak, please go and read up actual fiqh on seeking assistance from the kuffar asliyeen against bughat and khawarij. Actual classical fiqh, not the ungrounded salafi one you follow. Da'ishi, da'ishi, da'ishi. I'll say it as many times as I want.

4 May 2018 15:20

Ali Khokhar Abu Misk, I'm not going to rehash the same arguments again and again only to be ignored.

4 May 2018 15:21

Radwan Dakkak Ali Khokhar I have researched this issue, and did you know that the scholars dispute upon seeking assistance from the kuffār asliyyīn to fight other kuffār? And those who allowed it did so with "shurūt" (conditions), and one of those conditions was that "The muslims have the upper-hand", and that the kuffār are in compliance with the muslim authority. As for the issue of seeking assistance from the kuffār against khawārij and bughāt, then this is a shāth weak opinion with no proof! And even then, it's under the condition the muslims have the authority. If the authority is with the kuffar, then they would disbelieve according to ALL scholars.

4 May 2018 15:25

Mohammed Junaid Somebody ask this guy about all the other groups in Shaam... What happened to them? Where are they now? What are their latest gains? Who do they get their orders and funding from? Aren't the friends of yesterday all enemies of today? Aren't they all making Takfeer upon each other and fighting one another? Aren't they surrendering and handing their positions over to the Nusayris? Aren't they going from one renunciation to another? Didn't they back down initially on small issues, and now they've conceded on issues of Tawheed and Walaa'and Baraa'? Didn't the Mubaahalalah expose and rip these people's ranks apart? Alhamdulillah in the beginning and in the end.

4 May 2018 15:28

Ali Khokhar If you've reached those conclusion Radwan after your research, then you've done a pretty bad job at researching. Maybe next time, ask an actual scholar rather than google searches.

4 May 2018 15:31

Ibn Shaami "Alhamdulillah for their extermination, even if it was at the hands of the kuffar" That alone shows where your al wala wal baraa stands, even more because you consider khawarij to be Muslimin yet you rejoice on the news of their "extermination" May Allah destroy you by the hands of the very same people you defend & hide behind.

4 May 2018 15:31

Mohammed Junaid Some people can't read Al Faatihah properly, but are experts in labeling people Khawarij
4 May 2018 16:48

محمد ابو سفیان When you're a super duper Salafi you're an expert on everything.
4 May 2018 16:56

This MURTAD makes takfīr upon EVERY muwahhid who disbelieves in the SAHAWĀT and their APOSTATE allies!

The wicked apostate, ‘Abdur-Razzāq al-Mahdī (may Allāh curse him) quoted Ibn al-‘Arabī’s statement, “we make takfīr upon whoever calls us kāfir”, then says “this madhab is strong”.

What this jāhil doesn’t know is that Ibn al-‘Arabī is an ash’arī to the core with corrupt beliefs (may Allāh pardon him), and from the contradictory principles of the ashā’irah is that they are murji’ah in Īmān (i.e. no takfīr upon actions which nullify one’s Islām), but make takfīr upon whoever calls them kāfir (i.e. takfīr upon sins).

The noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) mentions in his lesson on the Ashā’irah sect:

“So from those false beliefs with the Ashā’irah, is that they are in contradiction within the topic of takfīr, so at times, they say: “We don’t make takfīr upon anyone from ahlul-qiblah”, irregardless of whatever he commits of nullifiers.

And at other times they say, “We don’t make takfīr, except upon the one who makes takfīr upon us”.

So they make takfīr upon whoever makes takfīr upon them, and this is a false ‘Aqdīah.

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) affirms that we don’t make takfīr upon whoever calls us kuffār, as the people of falsehood believe, as it’s the belief of the muṭtadi’ah (innovators). For indeed, kufr and takfīr is the Haqq (right) of Allāh, may He be glorified and exalted, as it has surpassed us in the (previous) lesson “Ghulāt at-Takfīr”.

Moreover, they (i.e. the ashā’irah) say and share a statement according to them, in this topic, in the topic of takfīr, they say “the apparent of the texts is a foundation from the foundations of kufr”, wal-‘Iyāthullāh!

Meaning, whoever goes by the apparent of the textual evidences, his affairs will lead him towards becoming a kāfir, and who they intend are the salaf of this ummah, who take the Sifāt (attributes of Allāh) according to its apparent meaning, such as the statement of Allāh (سبحانه وتعالى):

“Ar-Rahmān (Allāh — the lord of all mercy) rose above the ‘Arsh (i.e. majestic throne).” [20:5].

They say whoever takes the apparent of this text, then he’s a kāfir. So they make takfīr upon whoever takes these texts according to their apparent meaning (due to falsely thinking it’s comparing Allāh with the creation).”

So ‘Abdur-Razzāq al-Mahdī agrees with the deviant Ashā’irah without even knowing, and he doesn’t even know that he doesn’t know! Then he says, “this is a strong madhab”, wallāhul-musta’ān.

Forget about declaring this bātil belief as “strong”, he doesn’t even have an authority to declare anything as “strong”.

3 May 2018 09:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Those murji’ah who unrestrictedly claim “whoever makes takfīr upon a muslim becomes a kāfir” have actually agreed with the khawārij in making takfīr upon sins, and contradicts many incidents within the Sunnah.

After Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) quotes the categorisation mentioned by Imām an-Nawawī (رحمه الله) on making takfīr upon a muslim, and that it’s among the major sins, he says:

“So look at what An-Nawawī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, mentioned; That what’s correct is what the majority of the Muhaqqiqūn (firmly grounded revisers and verifiers among the Imāms) have stated, that the khawārij are not called kuffār due to their bid’ah, and sufficient for you is this Imām (i.e. an-Nawawī), as whoever observes the situation of the Sahābah, may Allāh be pleased with them, he would know what’s correct from what’s wrong...

And this person (who unrestrictedly makes such a claim) has mentioned a statement of the khawārij without even realising, and that’s because his statement, “whoever makes takfīr upon a muslim, then he’s a kāfir”, and its clarification from what has been aforementioned from the speech of An-Nawawī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, that the madhab of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā’ah is not making takfīr upon sins, and this individual has judged the one who commits this sin with kufr.”

— Refer to “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/270).

3 May 2018 08:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Those murji'ah who unrestrictedly claim “whoever makes takfīr upon a muslim becomes a kāfir” have actually agreed with the khawārij in making takfīr upon sins, and contradicts many incidents within the Sunnah.

After Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) quotes the categorisation mentioned by Imām an-Nawawī (رحمه الله) on making takfīr upon a muslim, and that it’s among the major sins, he says:

“So look at what An-Nawawī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, mentioned; That what’s correct is what the majority of the Muhaqqiqūn (firmly grounded revisers and verifiers among the Imāms) have stated, that the khawārij are not called kuffār due to their bid’ah, and sufficient for you is this Imām (i.e. an-Nawawī), as whoever observes the situation of the Sahābah, may Allāh be pleased with them, he would know what’s correct from what’s wrong...

And this person (who unrestrictedly makes such a claim) has mentioned a statement of the khawārij without even realising, and that’s because his statement, “whoever makes takfīr upon a muslim, then he’s a kāfir”, and its clarification from what has been aforementioned from the speech of An-Nawawī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, that the madhab of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā’ah is not making takfīr upon sins, and this individual has judged the one who commits this sin with kufr.”

— Refer to “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/270).

3 May 2018 08:54

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

said رحمه الله Ibn Rajab

“.Waiting for relief (from hardship) is worship, for verily the trials don’t last forever“

[Majmu’ Rasaa’il Ibn Rajab 3/155]

3 May 2018 07:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

said رحمه الله Ibn Rajab

“.Waiting for relief (from hardship) is worship, for verily the trials don’t last forever“

[Majmu’ Rasaa’il Ibn Rajab 3/155]

3 May 2018 07:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. What are your thoughts about those who make takfeer upon ibn hajr and nawawi?

A. May Allah have mercy upon Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Hajr and Shaykh al-Islam an-Nawawi, the eminent reviser of the Shaf’i’i madhab.

2 May 2018 18:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. What are your thoughts about those who make takfeer upon ibn hajr and nawawi?

A. May Allah have mercy upon Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Hajr and Shaykh al-Islam an-Nawawi, the eminent reviser of the Shaf’i’i madhab.

2 May 2018 18:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Foreword of Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Humūd Ibn ‘Uqlā’ ash-Shu’aybī for Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Alī al-Khudayr’s book “Kitāb al-Haqā’iq Fi-Tawhīd”:

“All praise belongs to Allāh, the lord of creation, and may the peace and blessings be sent down upon the most noble of prophets and messengers, our Prophet Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions, to proceed:

Indeed, authoring, teaching and doing explanations in the books of Tawhīd and ‘Aqīdah is from the most important of matters, and the most magnificent.

Because this knowledge is from the greatest of sciences, Allāh the most High says, “Know, that there’s no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and seek forgiveness from your sins”.

Especially in this era which the strangeness (of the Dīn) has intensified, and ignorance has become prevalent in Tawhīd and ‘Aqīdah, except upon whoever Allāh has mercy upon.

So publishing it right now, and being concerned about that is from the greatest acts of nearness (to Allāh) and Jihād (for His sake).

Especially in this time which we’ve started to hear calls and shouting over here and over there, in belittling and trying to abandon the books of Tawhīd and ‘Aqīdah, especially the books of the Imām al-‘Allāmah Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), and in some books and letters of the blessed A’immat ad-Da’wah (i.e. Imāms of Najd).

And I have reviewed the authored works of the noble Shaykh ‘Alī Ibn Khudayr al-Khudayr, three in respect to Tawhīd, and they are “Kitāb al-Jam’ wat-Tajrīd Fi sharh Kitāb at-Tawhīd” (volume 1), and “Kitāb al-Haqā’iq Fi-Tawhīd”, and “Kitāb at-Tawdhīh wat-Tatimmāt ‘ala Kashf ash-Shubuhāt”, and I’ve found them to be beneficial and useful books in their respective topics.

So I ask Allāh the most High to write for it acceptance and success, the same way I urge our muslim brothers to be concerned about Tawhīd and ‘Aqīdah, learning it, implementing it, and calling towards it.

For indeed, by doing that there’s an enormous virtue and a clear victory. We ask Allāh to grant victory to His religion, and to raise the banner of Tawhīd and Jihād, and to forsake the enemies of this Dīn when they’re in need.

Indeed He is in authority over that and able to do so. May the peace and blessings of Allāh be sent down upon our Prophet Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions.”

2 May 2018 13:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Foreword of Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Humūd Ibn ‘Uqlā’ ash-Shu’aybī for Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Alī al-Khudayr’s book “Kitāb al-Haqā’iq Fi-Tawhīd”:

“All praise belongs to Allāh, the lord of creation, and may the peace and blessings be sent down upon the most noble of prophets and messengers, our Prophet Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions, to proceed:

Indeed, authoring, teaching and doing explanations in the books of Tawhīd and ‘Aqīdah is from the most important of matters, and the most magnificent.

Because this knowledge is from the greatest of sciences, Allāh the most High says, “Know, that there’s no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and seek forgiveness from your sins”.

Especially in this era which the strangeness (of the Dīn) has intensified, and ignorance has become prevalent in Tawhīd and ‘Aqīdah, except upon whoever Allāh has mercy upon.

So publishing it right now, and being concerned about that is from the greatest acts of nearness (to Allāh) and Jihād (for His sake).

Especially in this time which we’ve started to hear calls and shouting over here and over there, in belittling and trying to abandon the books of Tawhīd and ‘Aqīdah, especially the books of the Imām al-‘Allāmah Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), and in some books and letters of the blessed A’immat ad-Da’wah (i.e. Imāms of Najd).

And I have reviewed the authored works of the noble Shaykh ‘Alī Ibn Khudayr al-Khudayr, three in respect to Tawhīd, and they are “Kitāb al-Jam’ wat-Tajrīd Fi sharh Kitāb at-Tawhīd” (volume 1), and “Kitāb al-Haqā’iq Fi-Tawhīd”, and “Kitāb at-Tawdhīh wat-Tatimmāt ‘ala Kashf ash-Shubuhāt”, and I’ve found them to be beneficial and useful books in their respective topics.

So I ask Allāh the most High to write for it acceptance and success, the same way I urge our muslim brothers to be concerned about Tawhīd and ‘Aqīdah, learning it, implementing it, and calling towards it.

For indeed, by doing that there’s an enormous virtue and a clear victory. We ask Allāh to grant victory to His religion, and to raise the banner of Tawhīd and Jihād, and to forsake the enemies of this Dīn when they’re in need.

Indeed He is in authority over that and able to do so. May the peace and blessings of Allāh be sent down upon our Prophet Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions.”

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur'ān Lesson — (7/200)

This short lesson will be clarifying a serious misconception concerning our 'Aqīdah (creed) by the deviants who distort the Qur'ān.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions, “Indeed, those who believed and those who were Jews or Christians or Sabeans [before Prophet Muhammad] - those [among them] who believed in Allah and the Last Day and did righteousness - will have their reward with their Lord, and no fear will there be concerning them, nor will they grieve.” [2:62].

Some people understood from this Āyah a very detrimental matter which demolishes one's Tawhīd in Allāh.

Perhaps some of the juhhāl were affected by the loud voices of those who call towards religious unity and making them all equal, wal-'lyāthubillāh!

So they understood from this Āyah that all jews, christians and sabeans are going to paradise if they do righteousness.

Therefore, the progressive modernists came up with the conclusion that entering into Islām is not wājib, rather it's only something that's mustahab (recommended).

And this is pure kufr which contradicts what's known in the religion by necessity (which all deviant sects in Islām agreed upon), rather it's wājib for the kuffār to enter into Islām and Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said that he was commanded to fight the people until they say “Lā ilāha ilā Allāh wa Muhammadun Rasūlullāh.”

Rather the correct meaning of the Āyah is that:

Those who believe in Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم), and the jews who followed Mūsā (عليه السلام) while they were upon his Shari'ah without falling into the shirk of replacing the Dīn or following the distorted kufr, likewise with the christians who held onto the true teachings of 'Īsā (عليه السلام) in worshipping Allāh alone without committing shirk, then these are the ones who will have their reward with their Lord.

As for those among ahlul-kitāb who fell into shirk (such as believing 'Īsā knows the unseen and the trinity), and the ones who fell into shirk at-tā'ah by obeying their monks and priests in declaring lawful what Allāh has prohibited and vice versa, along with those who persisted in following their falsely distorted religion after Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) came with the Qur'ān, then these people are not from among those:

“Who believed in Allah and the Last Day and did righteousness.” [1].

And Allāh knows best.

[1] Refer to “Daqā'iq at-Tafsīr” (2/71).

2 May 2018 12:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Whenever I stumble across this response by Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) concerning al-Qathāfī, I can't help but laugh:

..السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

أخي السائل:

لا شك ولا ريب في كفر الغدافي – قذفه الله في جهنم- وخروجه من الإسلام

It won't do justice to translate it

2 May 2018 11:52

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Whenever I stumble across this response by Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) concerning al-Qathāfī, I can't help but laugh:

..السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

أخي السائل:

لا شك ولا ريب في كفر القذافي – قذفه الله في جهنم- وخروجه من الإسلام

It won't do justice to translate it

2 May 2018 11:52

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

2 May 2018 11:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

2 May 2018 11:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The murji'ah of our times were raised upon sunnah and bid'ah, not Islām and kufr. That's why most of their speech revolves around sunnah and bid'ah, and they have clear contradictions. They are harsh upon (minor) bid'ah, but not KUFR (the major bid'ah)!!

— Summarised from the words of the noble 'Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū 'Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله).

2 May 2018 10:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The murji'ah of our times were raised upon sunnah and bid'ah, not Islām and kufr. That's why most of their speech revolves around sunnah and bid'ah, and they have clear contradictions. They are harsh upon (minor) bid'ah, but not KUFR (the major bid'ah)!!

— Summarised from the words of the noble 'Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū 'Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله).

2 May 2018 10:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur'ān Lesson — (7/200) ﷻ

This short lesson will be clarifying a serious misconception concerning our 'Aqīdah (creed) by the deviants who distort the Qur'ān.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions, "Indeed, those who believed and those who were Jews or Christians or Sabeans [before Prophet Muhammad] - those [among them] who believed in Allah and the Last Day and did righteousness - will have their reward with their Lord, and no fear will there be concerning them, nor will they grieve." [2:62].

Some people understood from this Āyah a very detrimental matter which demolishes one's Tawhīd in Allāh.

Perhaps some of the juhhāl were affected by the loud voices of those who call towards religious unity and making them all equal, wal-'Iyāthubillāh!

So they understood from this Āyah that all jews, christians and sabeans are going to paradise if they do righteousness.

Therefore, the progressive modernists came up with the conclusion that entering into Islām is not wājib, rather it's only something that's mustahab (recommended).

And this is pure kufr which contradicts what's known in the religion by necessity (which all deviant sects in Islām agreed upon), rather it's wājib for the kuffār to enter into Islām and Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said that he was commanded to fight the people until they say "Lā ilāha ilā Allāh wa Muhammadun Rasūlullāh."

Rather the correct meaning of the Āyah is that:

Those who believe in Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم), and the jews who followed Mūsā (عليه السلام) while they were upon his Sharī'ah without falling into the shirk of replacing the Dīn or following the distorted kufr, likewise with the christians who held onto the true teachings of 'Īsā (عليه السلام) in worshipping Allāh alone without committing shirk, then these are the ones who will have their reward with their Lord.

As for those among ahlul-kitāb who fell into shirk (such as believing 'Īsā knows the unseen and the trinity), and the ones who fell into shirk at-tā'ah by obeying their monks and priests in declaring lawful what Allāh has prohibited and vice versa, along with those who persisted in following their falsely distorted religion after Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) came with the Qur'ān, then these people are not from among those:

"Who believed in Allah and the Last Day and did righteousness." [1].

And Allāh knows best.

---

[1] Refer to "Daqā'iq at-Tafsīr" (2/71).

2 May 2018 10:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur'ān Lesson — (6/200) ۞

We will be clarifying the meaning of the word وَقُومِهَا (its garlic) Inshā'Allāh.

Allāh تعالى سبحانه says in the glorious Qur'ān when Banī Isrā'īl asked Mūsā (عليه السلام):

"So call upon your Lord to bring forth for us from the earth its green herbs and its cucumbers and قُومِهَا (its garlic) and its lentils and its onions." [2:61].

So قُومِهَا means ثُومِهَا (its garlic), and it has been said that it means القمح (wheat) [1]. However even though it's closely pronounced, it doesn't mean فُول (i.e. fava beans).

Note: The root word without the attachment "ها" is قُوم (garlic). Adding the ها on it "قُومِهَا" gives the translation "its garlic". Moreover, we also added the و in the beginning, which concludes us with "and its garlic", so I hope that's clear Inshā'Allāh.

---

[1] Refer to "Zād al-Masīr" (1/71).

2 May 2018 09:53

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur'ān Lesson — (6/200) ۞

We will be clarifying the meaning of the word وَقُومِهَا (its garlic) Inshā'Allāh.

Allāh تعالى سبحانه says in the glorious Qur'ān when Banī Isrā'īl asked Mūsā (عليه السلام):

"So call upon your Lord to bring forth for us from the earth its green herbs and its cucumbers and قُومِهَا (its garlic) and its lentils and its onions." [2:61].

So قُومِهَا means ثُومِهَا (its garlic), and it has been said that it means القمح (wheat) [1]. However even though it's closely pronounced, it doesn't mean فُول (i.e. fava beans).

Note: The root word without the attachment "ها" is قُوم (garlic). Adding the ها on it "قُومِهَا" gives the translation "its garlic". Moreover, we also added the و in the beginning, which concludes us with "and its garlic", so I hope that's clear Inshā'Allāh.

---

[1] Refer to "Zād al-Masīr" (1/71).

2 May 2018 09:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Learning another language as a hobby is makrūh (disliked) as a muslim must emphasise on the language of the Qur'ān and Sunnah.

But if there's a حاجة (need), whether it's a wordly or religious need, then the karāha (the hukm of being disliked) is uplifted and it becomes permissible. Infact, learning another language may fall under a collective obligation in certain scenarios.

والله أعلم

2 May 2018 08:57

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Learning another language as a hobby is makrūh (disliked) as a muslim must emphasise on the language of the Qurʾān and Sunnah.

But if there's a حاجة (need), whether it's a wordly or religious need, then the karāha (the hukm of being disliked) is uplifted and it becomes permissible. Infact, learning another language may fall under a collective obligation in certain scenarios.

والله أعلم

2 May 2018 08:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

What I love to learn besides the rulings on contemporary 'Aqīdah and Fiqh rulings, is coming across numerous solutions to provide for the muslims, so that way theory can be implemented in practise. Īmān is belief, speech and actions.

May Allāh reward the 'ulamā' who provided excellent solutions for those living in dār al-kufr, touching on masā'il related to numerous methods to take on returning back your rights without making tahākum to the courts whose rulings stem from man-made legislation. Also touching on matters of fleeing a dictator without needing to acquire citizenships (but remain among the mushrikīn temporarily), standing up for a Tāghūt, and so forth.

اللهم علمنا ما ينفعنا وانفعنا بما علّمتنا وزدنا هدئ وتقىّ وصلاً وسداداً ورشاداً وعفافاً يا رب العالمين

2 May 2018 07:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

What I love to learn besides the rulings on contemporary 'Aqīdah and Fiqh rulings, is coming across numerous solutions to provide for the muslims, so that way theory can be implemented in practise. Īmān is belief, speech and actions.

May Allāh reward the 'ulamā' who provided excellent solutions for those living in dār al-kufr, touching on masā'il related to numerous methods to take on returning back your rights without making tahākum to the courts whose rulings stem from man-made legislation. Also touching on matters of fleeing a dictator without needing to acquire citizenships (but remain among the mushrikīn temporarily), standing up for a Tāghūt, and so forth.

اللهم علمنا ما ينفعنا وانفعنا بما علّمتنا وزدنا هدئ وتقىّ وصلاً وسداداً ورشاداً وعفافاً يا رب العالمين

2 May 2018 07:37

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://youtu.be/jWoBtcFw040>
<https://youtu.be/jWoBtcFw040>

Funniest moments in the war 🤔

1 May 2018 20:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://youtu.be/jWoBtcFw040>

Funniest moments in the war 🤔

<https://youtu.be/jWoBtcFw040>

1 May 2018 20:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

: (رحمه الله) said about Ibn al-Qayyim (لعنه الله) Al-Kawtharī

He's a kāfir or donkey — His kufr reached to an extent wherein it's not permissible to remain silent“
".upon it

1 May 2018 17:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

:(رحمه الله) said about Ibn al-Qayyim (لغنه الله) Al-Kawtharī

He's a kāfir or donkey — His kufr reached to an extent wherein it's not permissible to remain silent“
".upon it

1 May 2018 17:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. Brother. Who is the greatest woman of mankind??

A. Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) says the greatest women are 4, Maryam, Āsiyah, Khadījah and Fātimah.

As for the greatest woman amongst these 4, I am not 100% sure. But it's important to mention that the scholars are divided into two opinions whether Maryam (عليها السلام) is considered a prophet since she received revelation.

According to the opinion that she's a prophet, then she would be considered the greatest woman in the world, since the prophets are greater than the rest of creation.

But according to the other opinion that she's not a prophet, Allāh knows best who holds the highest position out of these 4 great women.

1 May 2018 16:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. Brother. Who is the greatest woman of mankind??

A. Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) says the greatest women are 4, Maryam, Āsiyah, Khadījah and Fātimah.

As for the greatest woman amongst these 4, I am not 100% sure. But it's important to mention that the scholars are divided into two opinions whether Maryam (عليها السلام) is considered a prophet since she received revelation.

According to the opinion that she's a prophet, then she would be considered the greatest woman in the world, since the prophets are greater than the rest of creation.

But according to the other opinion that she's not a prophet, Allāh knows best who holds the highest position out of these 4 great women.

1 May 2018 16:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Bonus: To add an extra benefit, who is the greatest prophet sent to mankind?

We all know that it's Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) right, but what do we say about the hadīth of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) which Imām at-Tirmidhī (رحمه الله) said is Hassan Sahīh:

A man said to the Prophet: "O best of creatures!" So he said: "That is Ibrahim." [Sahīh].

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) mentions in "Fath al-Bārī" (1/39):

"The Imāms have interpreted this (hadīth), Imām Ahmad said, this was said in a way of humility."

Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) also mentions in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (8/227):

"The best of messengers after Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is Ibrāhīm, as it has been confirmed in the "Sahīh" from him, that he said about the best of creatures, "That is Ibrāhīm".

And he is the Imām who Allāh has made to be an Imām, and made him an Ummah, and the Ummah is the exemplar which is to be adhered too, for indeed he actualised this Tawhīd, which is the Hanīfiyyah, his Millah, Allāh says:

“There has already been for you an excellent pattern in Abraham and those with him, when they said to their people, "Indeed, we are disassociated from you and from whatever you worship other than Allah. We have disbelieved in you, and there has appeared between us and you animosity and hatred forever until you believe in Allah alone" except for the saying of Abraham to his father:

“I will surely ask forgiveness for you, but I have not [power to do] for you anything against Allah . Our Lord, upon You we have relied, and to You we have returned, and to You is the destination.

Our Lord, make us not [objects of] torment for the disbelievers and forgive us, our Lord. Indeed, it is You who is the Exalted in Might, the Wise.” There has certainly been for you in them an excellent pattern for anyone whose hope is in Allah and the Last Day.” [60:4-6].”

Therefore the greatest messenger is Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم), then our father Ibrāhīm (عليه الصلاة والسلام).

1 May 2018 16:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Bonus: To add an extra benefit, who is the greatest prophet sent to mankind?

We all know that it’s Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) right, but what do we say about the hadīth of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) which Imām at-Tirmidhī (رحمه الله) said is Hassan Sahīh:

A man said to the Prophet: “O best of creatures!” So he said: “That is Ibrahim.” [Sahīh].

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Fath al-Bārī” (1/39):

“The Imāms have interpreted this (hadīth), Imām Ahmad said, this was said in a way of humility.”

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) also mentions in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/227):

“The best of messengers after Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is Ibrāhīm, as it has been confirmed in the “Sahīh” from him, that he said about the best of creatures, “That is Ibrāhīm”.

And he is the Imām who Allāh has made to be an Imām, and made him an Ummah, and the Ummah is the exemplar which is to be adhered too, for indeed he actualised this Tawhīd, which is the Hanīfiyyah, his Millah, Allāh says:

“There has already been for you an excellent pattern in Abraham and those with him, when they said to their people, "Indeed, we are disassociated from you and from whatever you worship other than Allah. We have disbelieved in you, and there has appeared between us and you animosity and hatred forever until you believe in Allah alone" except for the saying of Abraham to his father:

“I will surely ask forgiveness for you, but I have not [power to do] for you anything against Allah . Our Lord, upon You we have relied, and to You we have returned, and to You is the destination.

Our Lord, make us not [objects of] torment for the disbelievers and forgive us, our Lord. Indeed, it is You who is the Exalted in Might, the Wise.” There has certainly been for you in them an excellent pattern for anyone whose hope is in Allah and the Last Day.” [60:4-6].”

Therefore the greatest messenger is Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم), then our father Ibrāhīm (عليه الصلاة والسلام).

1 May 2018 16:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

For the Quiz results (from TG), may Allāh reward 17% of those who chose Muhammad and Ibrāhīm for getting the correct answer. May Allāh also reward 82% of those who chose Ibrāhīm because you’ve now learnt something new.

This quiz was a little bit trickier. Yes, Ibrāhīm (عليه السلام) is the khaleel of Allāh, but Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) also shares this title with Ibrāhīm (عليه السلام).

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) said in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (10/204):

“The view of some people that Muhammad is the Beloved of Allāh and Ibrāhīm is the Close Friend of Allāh, and their notion that love (hubb) is superior to close friendship (khillah), is a weak view, because Muhammad is also the Close Friend of Allāh (Khaleel-Allāh), as was proven in numerous authentic hadīths.”

And Ibn al-Qayyim said in Rawdat al-Muhibbīn (1/49):

“Some of those who have no knowledge think that a “beloved (habeeb)” is superior to a “close friend (khaleel)”, so they say “Muhammad is the Beloved of Allāh and Ibrāhīm is the Close Friend of Allāh.” This is false for many reasons:

For example: close friendship is specific whereas love is general. Allāh loves those who repent, and He loves those who purify themselves, and He says of His believing slaves (interpretation of the meaning):

“Whom He will love and they will love Him” [al-Mā'idah 5:54]

The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) stated that he had no close friend among the people of this world, but he stated that the most beloved of women to him was ‘Ā'ishah and the most beloved of men to him was her father.

And he said: “Allāh has taken me as a close friend (khaleel) just as he took Ibrāhīm as a close friend.”

And he said: “If I were to have taken any of the people of this world as a close friend, I would have taken Abū Bakr as a close friend, but (between us) is the brotherhood and love of Islām.”

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) also mentions in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/226-227):

“Moreover, the Khaleelayn (i.e. two Khaleel's), Muhammad and Ibrāhīm, may the peace and salutations of Allāh be sent down upon them, it has been confirmed from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) from several narrations, that he said, “Indeed, Allāh has taken me as a Khaleel, the same way he took Ibrāhīm as a Khaleel”. ”

And Allāh knows best.

1 May 2018 16:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

For the Quiz results (from TG), may Allāh reward 17% of those who chose Muhammad and Ibrāhīm for getting the correct answer. May Allāh also reward 82% of those who chose Ibrāhīm because you've now learnt something new.

This quiz was a little bit trickier. Yes, Ibrāhīm (عليه السلام) is the khaleel of Allāh, but Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) also shares this title with Ibrāhīm (عليه السلام).

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) said in “Majmū' al-Fatāwā” (10/204):

“The view of some people that Muhammad is the Beloved of Allāh and Ibrāhīm is the Close Friend of Allāh, and their notion that love (hubb) is superior to close friendship (khillah), is a weak view, because Muhammad is also the Close Friend of Allāh (Khaleel-Allāh), as was proven in numerous authentic hadīths.”

And Ibn al-Qayyim said in Rawdat al-Muhibbīn (1/49):

“Some of those who have no knowledge think that a “beloved (habeeb)” is superior to a “close friend (khaleel)”, so they say “Muhammad is the Beloved of Allāh and Ibrāhīm is the Close Friend of Allāh.” This is false for many reasons:

For example: close friendship is specific whereas love is general. Allāh loves those who repent, and He loves those who purify themselves, and He says of His believing slaves (interpretation of the meaning):

“Whom He will love and they will love Him” [al-Mā'idah 5:54]

The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) stated that he had no close friend among the people of this world, but he stated that the most beloved of women to him was ‘Ā'ishah and the most beloved of men to him was her father.

And he said: “Allāh has taken me as a close friend (khaleel) just as he took Ibrāhīm as a close friend.”

And he said: “If I were to have taken any of the people of this world as a close friend, I would have taken Abū Bakr as a close friend, but (between us) is the brotherhood and love of Islām.”

Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) also mentions in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/226-227):

“Moreover, the Khaleelayn (i.e. two Khaleel's), Muhammad and Ibrāhīm, may the peace and salutations of Allāh be sent down upon them, it has been confirmed from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) from several narrations, that he said, “Indeed, Allāh has taken me as a Khaleel, the same way he took Ibrāhīm as a Khaleel”. ”

And Allāh knows best.

1 May 2018 16:30

Radwan Dakkak shared a memory.

Deeds raised up during sha'ban?

1 May 2018 08:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Deeds raised upon during sha'ban?

1 May 2018 08:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Do you want Allāh to love you?

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) said:

“There’s nothing more beloved to Allāh than #Tawhīd, and there’s nothing more hated to Him than Shirk.”

— Refer to “Al-Istiqāmah” (page 364).

1 May 2018 08:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Do you want Allāh to love you?

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) said:

“There’s nothing more beloved to Allāh than #Tawhīd, and there’s nothing more hated to Him than Shirk.”

— Refer to “Al-Istiqāmah” (page 364).

1 May 2018 08:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"Imagine...sitting with your spouse in Jannah. And then deciding what the plans would be for that day...

Should we go outside, sit on our thrones, with waterfalls of milk and honey flowing beneath us? And enjoy a cup of Jannah wine, while smelling the sweet scent of Jannah musk?

Should we go to the souq, the market place, and meet all of our old friends that we used to kick it off with in the dunya, and talk about what dunya was like, and how we all made it here, and how Allah (swt) bestowed His favor upon us?

And then your spouse says, you know what, how about we go visit the Prophet (saw) today. And so you and your spouse, go hands in hand, walking towards the house of the Prophet (saw).

You pass by the homes of Talha (ra) and Zubair (ra) and you say salaam to them. And then you go and knock on the door of the Prophet (saw) in Jannah.

And lo and behold, Rasulallah (saw) opens, with a big smile on his face, and says Ahlan wa Marhaban, Welcome, and embraces you.

And invites you to sit inside his home, in his noble living room, and sits right across from you and asks you if would like a cup of Jannah tea.

And you sit in the home of the Prophet (saw) and Rasulallah (saw) gives you a cup of tea. And he sits infront of you and gives you his undivided attention.

Imagine what that discussion would be like...what would you tell him? what would you ask him?

Would you tell him about your favorite moment in the seerah? Or would you ask him what Taif was really like? and how he still managed to remember us, as the blood spilled from his noble face?

But in Jannah, there are no more tears and no more fears....Just the sweetness of success and sacrifices.

Imagine him (saw) telling you an inside joke between him and Aisha (ra)? Or the time he (saw) caught Anas (ra) playing with kids, instead of running errands?

What if Rasulallah (saw) told you how he remembered YOU, or how he knew YOUR name, and longed for the moment he would meet YOU?

What if Rasulullah (saw) told you, that I remember when your salam reached me, and I answered Walaykumusalam so and so.
What if, at the end of that conversation, the Prophet (saw) extended his hand and offered you a sip of water, after which again you would never feel thirst, not physically nor spiritually....

For the only sight more noble and beautiful than the face of Muhammad (saw), is the face of the Lord of Muhammad (saw), and the Lord of you.

And for that, all you have to do is look up...and you will see Allah (swt)...

Because in Al Firdos, you will never be left to imagine again....”

(Shared) — May Allāh grant us Jannah

1 May 2018 08:16

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"Imagine...sitting with your spouse in Jannah. And then deciding what the plans would be for that day...

Should we go outside, sit on our thrones, with waterfalls of milk and honey flowing beneath us? And enjoy a cup of Jannah wine, while smelling the sweet scent of Jannah musk?

Should we go to the souq, the market place, and meet all of our old friends that we used to kick it off with in the dunya, and talk about what dunya was like, and how we all made it here, and how Allah (swt) bestowed His favor upon us?

And then your spouse says, you know what, how about we go visit the Prophet (saw) today. And so you and your spouse, go hands in hand, walking towards the house of the Prophet (saw).

You pass by the homes of Talha (ra) and Zubair (ra) and you say salaam to them. And then you go and knock on the door of the Prophet (saw) in Jannah.

And lo and behold, Rasulullah (saw) opens, with a big smile on his face, and says Ahlan wa Marhaban, Welcome, and embraces you.

And invites you to sit inside his home, in his noble living room, and sits right across from you and asks you if would like a cup of Jannah tea.

And you sit in the home of the Prophet (saw) and Rasulullah (saw) gives you a cup of tea. And he sits infront of you and gives you his undivided attention.

Imagine what that discussion would be like...what would you tell him? what would you ask him?

Would you tell him about your favorite moment in the seerah? Or would you ask him what Taif was really like? and how he still managed to remember us, as the blood spilled from his noble face?

But in Jannah, there are no more tears and no more fears....Just the sweetness of success and sacrifices.

Imagine him (saw) telling you an inside joke between him and Aisha (ra)? Or the time he (saw) caught Anas (ra) playing with kids, instead of running errands?

What if Rasulullah (saw) told you how he remembered YOU, or how he knew YOUR name, and longed for the moment he would meet YOU?

What if Rasulullah (saw) told you, that I remember when your salam reached me, and I answered Walaykumusalam so and so.
What if, at the end of that conversation, the Prophet (saw) extended his hand and offered you a sip of water, after which again you would never feel thirst, not physically nor spiritually....

For the only sight more noble and beautiful than the face of Muhammad (saw), is the face of the Lord of Muhammad (saw), and the Lord of you.

And for that, all you have to do is look up...and you will see Allah (swt)...

Because in Al Firdos, you will never be left to imagine again....”

(Shared) — May Allāh grant us Jannah

1 May 2018 08:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“There's so much people; Nay, infact how few are they — Allāh knows that I am not telling a lie.

Whenever I would open my eyes — Upon many, but I cannot see anyone.” [1]

.. ما أكنّزُ الناس لا بل ما أقلهم .. الله يعلمُ أنّي لم أقل قَتدا
. إني لأفتحُ عيني حين أفتحها .. على كثيرٍ ولكن لا أرى أحداً

— Imām Di‘bil Ibn ‘Alī al-Khuzā‘ī (رحمه الله).

[1] I'm sure you guys can understand the deep meaning behind these words filled with pearls and corals.

Meaning: How many people do we have in numbers, but where's the sincere person to his family and brothers, infact to his Dīn. They are very few when you're in need of them.

As for their large numbers, Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) described it perfectly, “you will be numerous at that time, but you will be scum and rubbish like that carried down by a torren”.

And this is due to them turning away from learning their Dīn and the sunnah of their Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), so they dealt with people on the principle of dunyā benefits, wallāhul-musta‘ān.

1 May 2018 07:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“There's so much people; Nay, infact how few are they — Allāh knows that I am not telling a lie.

Whenever I would open my eyes — Upon many, but I cannot see anyone.” [1]

.. ما أكنّزُ الناس لا بل ما أقلهم .. الله يعلمُ أنّي لم أقل قَتدا
. إني لأفتحُ عيني حين أفتحها .. على كثيرٍ ولكن لا أرى أحداً

— Imām Di‘bil Ibn ‘Alī al-Khuzā‘ī (رحمه الله).

[1] I'm sure you guys can understand the deep meaning behind these words filled with pearls and corals.

Meaning: How many people do we have in numbers, but where's the sincere person to his family and brothers, infact to his Dīn. They are very few when you're in need of them.

As for their large numbers, Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) described it perfectly, “you will be numerous at that time, but you will be scum and rubbish like that carried down by a torren”.

And this is due to them turning away from learning their Dīn and the sunnah of their Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), so they dealt with people on the principle of dunyā benefits, wallāhul-musta‘ān.

1 May 2018 07:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The great historian and scholar, Imām Ibn al-Athīr (رحمه الله) said:

“Whenever as-Siddīq (i.e. Abū Bakr) saw a sin from his brother, he stepped on it with his foot. But whenever he saw a good deed from him, he raised it upon a flag.”

— Refer to “Al-Mathal as-Sā‘ir” (1/125).

1 May 2018 06:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The great historian and scholar, Imām Ibn al-Athīr (رحمه الله) said:

“Whenever as-Siddīq (i.e. Abū Bakr) saw a sin from his brother, he stepped on it with his foot. But whenever he saw a good deed from him, he raised it upon a flag.”

— Refer to “Al-Mathal as-Sā‘ir” (1/125).

1 May 2018 06:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Appreciate the blessings you have that money can't buy.”

— Shared.

1 May 2018 06:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Appreciate the blessings you have that money can't buy.”

— Shared.

1 May 2018 06:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) was asked, “In the nūniyyah [1] of al-Qahtānī, he responded against those who said the Earth is round, and he says the Earth is flat”.

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) responds by saying, “This is well-known, (al-Qahtānī) says:

**The Earth is flat according to the possessors of intelligence — With a truthful evidence via clear proof****

He uses as proof Allāh's statement, “Then do they not look at the camels - how they are created? And at the sky - how it is raised? And at the mountains - how they are erected? And at the earth - how it is spread out?” [88:17-20].

So he uses this Āyah as proof that the Earth is flat, and not a round shape, is there a confusion?

Student replies, “No, but us right now with all the technology (advancements), they view that the Earth is round”.

Shaykh al-'Alwān says, “Ofcourse this is the statement of Al-Qahtānī (رحمه الله) in his “Nūniyyah”, and a group of scholars agreed with him on that.

But as for Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله), he cites an Ijmā' (consensus) that it's a round shape, and it has been mentioned by Ibn al-Munādī who is from the companions of Imām Ahmad, and he also mentioned an Ijmā' (consensus) upon that, as you will find in “Al-Fatāwā” and what's found from Ibn al-Munādī.

So this is a view ya'nī for us to choose, as for your statement that it goes against technology (to say it's flat). This was recently found out, while our Imāms have a precedence in knowing this (over 1000 years ago).

Ibn al-Munādī was born before the grandfather of al-Qahtānī was born, and he says that the Earth is round (while mentioning a consensus upon that).

[1] “Nūniyyah” is a poem scholars would write where the final letters of each line end with the letter ن (nī), you also have the “Nūniyyah” by Ibn al-Qayyim. Moreover, you also have “Mimiyyah” which is a poem scholars would write where the final letters of each line end with the letter م (mī).

30 April 2018 20:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) was asked, “In the nūniyyah [1] of al-Qahtānī, he responded against those who said the Earth is round, and he says the Earth is flat”.

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) responds by saying, “This is well-known, (al-Qahtānī) says:

**The Earth is flat according to the possessors of intelligence — With a truthful evidence via clear proof****

He uses as proof Allāh's statement, “Then do they not look at the camels - how they are created? And at the sky - how it is raised? And at the mountains - how they are erected? And at the earth - how it is spread out?” [88:17-20].

So he uses this Āyah as proof that the Earth is flat, and not a round shape, is there a confusion?

Student replies, “No, but us right now with all the technology (advancements), they view that the Earth is round”.

Shaykh al-'Alwān says, “Ofcourse this is the statement of Al-Qahtānī (رحمه الله) in his “Nūniyyah”, and a group of scholars agreed with him on that.

But as for Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله), he cites an Ijmā' (consensus) that it's a round shape, and it has been mentioned by Ibn al-Munādī who is from the companions of Imām Ahmad, and he also mentioned an Ijmā' (consensus) upon that, as you will find in “Al-Fatāwā” and what's found from Ibn al-Munādī.

So this is a view ya'nī for us to choose, as for your statement that it goes against technology (to say it's flat). This was recently found out, while our Imāms have a precedence in knowing this (over 1000 years ago).

Ibn al-Munādī was born before the grandfather of al-Qahtānī was born, and he says that the Earth is round (while mentioning a consensus upon that).

[1] “Nūniyyah” is a poem scholars would write where the final letters of each line end with the letter ن (ni), you also have the “Nūniyyah” by Ibn al-Qayyim. Moreover, you also have “Mīmiyyah” which is a poem scholars would write where the final letters of each line end with the letter م (mi).

30 April 2018 20:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A flat earther makes indirect TAKFĪR upon the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālīk at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) in one of the shaykh's Q&A sessions for believing the earth is round, wallāhul-musta'ān

The questioner says, “And the subjects that contradict the speech of Allāh are KUFR, such as the earth rotating while the sun remains fixed, and (believing) the Earth is round, and other things which are contrary to the Qur'ān”.

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālīk at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) responds to him by saying:

“As for the issue of (believing) the Earth is round and that it rotates, then believing in it is not explicit kufr which is a cause to declare one's blood lawful for believing in it!!

And just for the benefit, the overwhelming majority of the scholars have stated that the Earth is round, and no one denied this except a few (scholars), and it was mentioned by Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (that it's round), along with others, and this is what's correct.

So there's no condemnation upon whoever believes that, let alone making takfīr upon him and declaring his blood lawful, and Allāh the most High knows best.”

#Nigerian_Questions

30 April 2018 19:47

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A flat earther makes indirect TAKFĪR upon the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālīk at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) in one of the shaykh's Q&A sessions for believing the earth is round, wallāhul-musta'ān

The questioner says, “And the subjects that contradict the speech of Allāh are KUFR, such as the earth rotating while the sun remains fixed, and (believing) the Earth is round, and other things which are contrary to the Qur'ān”.

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālīk at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) responds to him by saying:

“As for the issue of (believing) the Earth is round and that it rotates, then believing in it is not explicit kufr which is a cause to declare one's blood lawful for believing in it!!

And just for the benefit, the overwhelming majority of the scholars have stated that the Earth is round, and no one denied this except a few (scholars), and it was mentioned by Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (that it's round), along with others, and this is what's correct.

So there's no condemnation upon whoever believes that, let alone making takfīr upon him and declaring his blood lawful, and Allāh the most High knows best.”

#Nigerian_Questions

30 April 2018 19:47

Radwan Dakkak created a poll.

Poll: Which prophet is known as the Khaleel.

- ☐ Muhammad
- ☐ Ibrāhīm

Which prophet is known as the Khaleel.

30 April 2018 15:58

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

30 April 2018 15:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

30 April 2018 15:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Here's a rough translation of Shaykh Abu Salman Hassan Hussein's explanation of

كتاب الإيمان للقاضي أبي يعلى
He reminds the students of this

Summary
بما يثبت مذهب السلف الصالح

When can one say that this statement(s) or action(s) is the madhab of the Salaf?

Another way to ask the above question

How does one verify or affirm a statement(s) or an action(s) to be the from the methodology of the Salaf ul-Sālih?

And how many ways can one verify statement(s)/action(s) to be from the Salaf?

ANSWER

There are two correct ways and one incorrect way

The two correct ways are;

1) A Scholar who is familiar with the methodology of the Salaf has to attribute a statement(s)/action(s) to the Salaf and there should not be an opposition from another scholar(s) concerning the attributed statement/action.

2) A narration with a sahih isnad( correct chain of narration) which quotes the Salaf's statement/action in a exact same words

The incorrect way is;

The method of deducing/induction

طريقة الاستنباط

When one concludes from a Verse/Hadith a meaning/ruling and then attributes to the Salaf and then says that the Salaf won't oppose the deduced meaning/ruling. This way/method is the incorrect way of attributing statement(s)/action(s) to the madhab of the Salaf ul- Sālih.

— Translated by a respectable brother.

30 April 2018 14:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Here's a rough translation of Shaykh Abu Salman Hassan Hussein's explanation of

كتاب الإيمان للقاضي أبي يعلى
He reminds the students of this

Summary
بما يثبت مذهب السلف الصالح

When can one say that this statement(s) or action(s) is the madhab of the Salaf?

Another way to ask the above question

How does one verify or affirm a statement(s) or an action(s) to be the from the methodology of the Salaf ul-Sālih?

And how many ways can one verify statement(s)/action(s) to be from the Salaf?

ANSWER

There are two correct ways and one incorrect way

The two correct ways are;

1) A Scholar who is familiar with the methodology of the Salaf has to attribute a statement(s)/action(s) to the Salaf and there should not be an opposition from another scholar(s) concerning the attributed statement/action.

2) A narration with a sahih isnad( correct chain of narration) which quotes the Salaf's statement/action in a exact same words

The incorrect way is;

The method of deducing/induction

طريقة الاستنباط

When one concludes from a Verse/Hadith a meaning/ruling and then attributes to the Salaf and then says that the Salaf won't oppose the deduced meaning/ruling. This way/method is the incorrect way of attributing statement(s)/action(s) to the madhab of the Salaf ul- Sālih.

— Translated by a respectable brother.

30 April 2018 14:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The noble ‘Ālim and Imām of Tawhīd, Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī (حفظه الله) was asked about those who call the Mujāhideen “khawārij” and “takfeeris”.

The shaykh says this is an ongoing tradition since the time of the salaf and brings a list of scholars who were called that ↓

“1 — The noble Tābi‘ī, ‘Āmir Ibn ‘Abd Qays al-‘Anbarī, the exemplar (to follow and look up too), walī (ally of Allāh) and zāhid (pious abandoner of the dunyā for the ākhirah).

He was accused of viewing the permissibility of revolting against the Imāms (muslim rulers), due to him defending an oppressed Thimmī (kāfir from ahlul-kitāb who are protected in an Islamic State by paying jizya).

And he was also accused of not eating the slaughter of the muslims, and also views it impermissible to marry muslim women, and that he views himself (of being an ummah) like Ibrāhīm (عليه السلام).

These are false accusations according to the people of knowledge and verification, which they negated from his purely fine zāhid soul, and the people of knowledge and justice testified its true negation and invalidated the accusation, may Allāh reward them with goodness.

Refer to “Kitāb az-Zuhd” (2/463) by Ibn al-Mubārak, “Ath-Thiqāt” (5/187) by Ibn Hibbān, “al-Jarh wat-Ta’dīl” (6/325) and “At-Tārīkh” (6/237) by al-Bukhārī, “Tārīkh Dimashq” (26/3) by Ibn ‘Asākir, and “Siyar A’lām an-Nubalā” (4/15) by Ath-Thahabī.

2 — Imām Muhammad Ibn Bashīr al-Qādhī (Died 198H), the student of Imām Mālik Ibn Anas, may Allāh have mercy upon him.

He was the best of judges during his time, and the best decision makers, and the most knowledge and just amongst them in judgements.

And he wouldn't accept the testimony of the caliphs during his time, such as al-Hakam Ibn Hishām, Amīr al-Mu'minīn in al-Andalus, due to their oppression and shedding blood without Haqq, and matters related to corruption which they committed.

He said about the Sultān (chief) of his time and Amīr of his country, “This testimony (of his) cannot be taken into consideration according to me, so come to me with another one — So the uncle of the caliph Sa‘īd al-Khayr said, our authority has been removed, and our dignity has been disgraced, your Harūrī judge had the audacity to reject your testimony!! (i.e. calling Muhammad Ibn Bashīr a khārījī), this is something you can never bear to handle!”

Consequently, he was accused of being from the Khawārij and Harūriyyah from the close-relatives of the rulers and leaders, while the Khalīfah himself acknowledges and approves that they deserve to have their testimony rejected, due to what they committed from transgression and apparent sins.

Refer to “Tartīb al-Madārik” (1/649-650).

3 — Imām Ahmad Ibn Hanbal, the Imām of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā‘ah.

He was accused of being from the khawārij and among those who make reckless takfīr from some of the wicked rabbis, when he remained firm upon the sunnah and leaned towards fixed determination during the trial of being forced to say the Qur'ān is created, so it has been said regarding him:

“Indeed, he is from the khawārij, he makes takfīr upon people without a reason, and declares their blood lawful”; So Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) mentions concerning that:

“It has reached me that Abā Khālid, Mūsā Ibn Mansūr and others sit on that side and discredit our statement, and they claim that one shouldn't say (the Qur'ān) is created or uncreated.

And they discredit whoever makes takfīr (upon whoever says it's created). They also say, we adopt the opinion of the khawārij, consequently Abū 'Abdillāh (i.e. Imām Ahmad) smiled in a very furious enraged way, then said, these are wicked people.”

Refer to “As-Sunnah” (2/209) by Abū Bakr al-Khallāl, narration #1804.

4 — The Imām, al-Hāfidh, al-'Allāmah, Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Abū 'Umar at-Talamankī (Died 429H), may Allāh have mercy upon him.

He is the Shaykh of Ibn 'Abdil-Barr and Ibn Hazm and (the Shaykh) of At-Tabaqah (near Ar-Raqqa in Syria).

He was a figurehead in the science of the Qur'ān, its letters, its grammatical analysis, its abrogating and abrogated verses, its rulings, its meanings, and he was a person of complete focus and dedication in hadīth and knowing the science of Rijāl (whether one is a reliable or unreliable narrator), a Hāfidh of the sunan, and Imām who was well-acquainted with the Usūl of the religion, with a high Isnād, a person of guidance, on a clear tranquil path and steadfastness. He was a man of virtue, and severely precise in the Sunnah.

Al-'Allāmah Khalaf Ibn Bashkawāl (رحمه الله) says about Ahmad:

“He was an unleashed sword upon the people of desires and innovation, suppressing them, with immense Ghīrah over the Sharī'ah, a man who is seriously dedicated to strive for the sake of Allāh.

He was very adamant (like a lion) in condemning the munkar, so a group among the opponents stood up against him, and testified that he's a Harūrī (from the khawārij), he views unleashing the sword upon the righteous of people, and they were 15 of them among the Fuqahā' and Intellectuals who declared that (he's from the khawārij).

So the judge of Sarqastah supported him in the year 425H, and he is Al-Qādhī Muhammad Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Fartūn, so he testified upon himself to cancel out the witnesses (all 15 who declared him a Khārijī).”

Al-Hāfidh ath-Thahabī (رحمه الله) says:

“He lived for 90 years besides a few months (i.e. just under 90 years old), and he was tested due to the extravagance of his rebuking (of evil), and a group amongst his opponents stood up against him, and they testified that he's a Harūrī, and they were 15 of them among the Fuqahā' and Intellectuals who declared that (he's from the khawārij).

So the judge of Sarqastah supported him in the year 25 (i.e. 425H), and he is Al-Qādhī Muhammad Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Fartūn, so he testified upon himself to cancel out the witnesses (all 15 who declared him a Khārijī).”

Refer to “Kitāb as-Silah Fi Tārīkh A'immat al-Andalus wa 'Ulamā'ihim” (1/84), the number of the biography is #92, and refer to “Siyar A'lām an-Nubalā” (17/568).

5 — Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله).

Those envious of him and his enemies accused him unjustly and falsely as being from the khawārij and making reckless takfīr, as it's well-known within the writings of his opponents and hostile enemies, especially those who came later amongst them.

Because he was a trunk and shaft in the eyes of the people of innovation and misguidance, entangled completely in the throats of the people of Kufr and Tughyān (tyranny), infact the Zindīq al-Kawtharī, may Allāh curse him, said about him (i.e. Ibn Taymiyyah):

“His kufr became unanimously agreed upon”, and “An agreement has occurred regarding his misguidance and innovation and zandaqah”, and “He is not from the 73 sects”.

6 — Al-'Allāmah Shams ad-Dīn Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله).

Likewise the student of Shaykh al-Islām, al-'Allāmah Ibn al-Qayyim was burnt with the fire of this slanderous claim, infact al-Kawtharī made takfīr upon him, may Allāh give him what he deserves, by saying (about Ibn al-Qayyim):

“He's a kāfir or donkey — His kufr reached to an extent wherein it's not permissible to remain silent upon it.”

As for the accusations of being from the khawārij and making reckless takfīr, Ibn al-Qayyim speaks about this in “Al-Kāfiyah ash-Shāfiyah fil-Intisār lil-Firqat an-Nāiyah”:

“How astonishing is it that they say about — whoever adheres to the Āthār (reports) and Qur’ān.

You are like the khawārij for indeed — they took the apparent (of the Qur’ān and Sunnah) and were not guided by its true meanings.”

7 — The Shaykh of the Muhaddithīn, Imām Abū ‘Abdillāh ath-Thahabī (رحمه الله).

He was also accused of being from the Harūriyyah (extreme khawārij) and making reckless takfīr from the evil scholars:

“Have they transmitted it to them? Rather, they [themselves] are a transgressing people.” [51:53].

Al-Kawtharī says about him, “He has a khārijī inclination”.

8 — Shaykh al-Islām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb and his followers.

Al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān (رحمه الله) says, “And his enemies gathered misconceptions to refute what he displayed and to deny what he affirmed and wrote, and they sought aid by their allies from the ‘ajam (non-arabs) and arabs, and they attributed to him (i.e. Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb) what the people of intellect and manners would be shy to mention, let alone the carriers of knowledge and nobility.

And they claimed that he’s a Khārijī who opposes the sunnah and the jamā’ah (congregation), such as the statements of their predecessors to the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم), that he’s an apostate, a person who slanders and falsely makes things up.”

Refer to “Minhāj at-Ta’sīs wat-Taqdīs” (page 6).

And this foolish accusation and idiotic slanderous claim affected many of the scholars of the Sunnah during the beginning of matter, before knowing the reality of the Najdī Da’wah, such as Al-‘Allāmah Muhammad Ibn Nāsir al-Hāzimī, the student of Imām ash-Shawkānī, al-‘Allāmah Siddīq Hassan Khān, al-‘Allāmah al-Alūsī and others.

And the most famous thing they were hostile and resentful upon Shaykh Muhammad and his followers are two characteristics, and they are from the most severe ongoing battle that is revolving today between the shari’ah committees for the Mujāhideen and between the shuyūkh of counter-terrorism under the pretext of waging war against violence and deviant ideology.

The first characteristic: Takfīr upon the people of shirk, from the grave worshippers, secularists and others similar to them.

The second characteristic: Fighting the mushrikīn among the grave worshippers, secularists, Tawāghīṭ, and the apostate supporters of the Tawāghīṭ.”

— The noble Imām, Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī (حفظه الله).

30 April 2018 14:16

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The noble ‘Ālim and Imām of Tawhīd, Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī (حفظه الله) was asked about those who call the Mujāhideen “khawārij” and “takfeeris”.

The shaykh says this is an ongoing tradition since the time of the salaf and brings a list of scholars who were called that ↓

“1 — The noble Tābi’ī, ‘Āmir Ibn ‘Abd Qays al-‘Anbarī, the exemplar (to follow and look up too), walī (ally of Allāh) and zāhid (pious abandoner of the dunyā for the ākhirah).

He was accused of viewing the permissibility of revolting against the Imāms (muslim rulers), due to him defending an oppressed Thimmī (kāfir from ahlul-kitāb who are protected in an Islamic State by paying jizya).

And he was also accused of not eating the slaughter of the muslims, and also views it impermissible to marry muslim women, and that he views himself (of being an ummah) like Ibrāhīm (عليه السلام).

These are false accusations according to the people of knowledge and verification, which they negated from his purely fine zāhid soul, and the people of knowledge and justice testified its true negation and invalidated the accusation, may Allāh reward them with goodness.

Refer to “Kitāb az-Zuhd” (2/463) by Ibn al-Mubārak, “Ath-Thiqāt” (5/187) by Ibn Hibbān, “al-Jarh wat-Ta’dīl” (6/325) and “At-Tārikh” (6/237) by al-Bukhārī, “Tārikh Dimashq” (26/3) by Ibn ‘Asākir, and “Siyar A’lām an-Nubalā” (4/15) by Ath-Thahabī.

2 — Imām Muhammad Ibn Bashīr al-Qādhī (Died 198H), the student of Imām Mālik Ibn Anas, may Allāh have mercy upon him.

He was the best of judges during his time, and the best decision makers, and the most knowledge and just amongst them in judgements.

And he wouldn't accept the testimony of the caliphs during his time, such as al-Hakam Ibn Hishām, Amīr al-Mu'minin in al-Andalus, due to their oppression and shedding blood without Haqq, and matters related to corruption which they committed.

He said about the Sultān (chief) of his time and Amīr of his country, "This testimony (of his) cannot be taken into consideration according to me, so come to me with another one — So the uncle of the caliph Sa'īd al-Khayr said, our authority has been removed, and our dignity has been disgraced, your Harūrī judge had the audacity to reject your testimony!! (i.e. calling Muhammad Ibn Bashīr a khārījī), this is something you can never bear to handle!"

Consequently, he was accused of being from the Khawārij and Harūriyyah from the close-relatives of the rulers and leaders, while the Khalīfah himself acknowledges and approves that they deserve to have their testimony rejected, due to what they committed from transgression and apparent sins.

Refer to "Tartīb al-Madārik" (1/649-650).

3 — Imām Ahmad Ibn Hanbal, the Imām of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā'ah.

He was accused of being from the khawārij and among those who make reckless takfīr from some of the wicked rabbis, when he remained firm upon the sunnah and leaned towards fixed determination during the trial of being forced to say the Qur'ān is created, so it has been said regarding him:

"Indeed, he is from the khawārij, he makes takfīr upon people without a reason, and declares their blood lawful"; So Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) mentions concerning that:

"It has reached me that Abā Khālīd, Mūsā Ibn Mansūr and others sit on that side and discredit our statement, and they claim that one shouldn't say (the Qur'ān) is created or uncreated.

And they discredit whoever makes takfīr (upon whoever says it's created). They also say, we adopt the opinion of the khawārij, consequently Abū 'Abdillāh (i.e. Imām Ahmad) smiled in a very furious enraged way, then said, these are wicked people."

Refer to "As-Sunnah" (2/209) by Abū Bakr al-Khallāl, narration #1804.

4 — The Imām, al-Hāfidh, al-'Allāmah, Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Abū 'Umar at-Talamankī (Died 429H), may Allāh have mercy upon him.

He is the Shaykh of Ibn 'Abdil-Barr and Ibn Hazm and (the Shaykh) of At-Tabaqah (near Ar-Raqqa in Syria).

He was a figurehead in the science of the Qur'ān, its letters, its grammatical analysis, its abrogating and abrogated verses, its rulings, its meanings, and he was a person of complete focus and dedication in ḥadīth and knowing the science of Rijāl (whether one is a reliable or unreliable narrator), a Hāfidh of the sunan, and Imām who was well-acquainted with the Usūl of the religion, with a high Isnād, a person of guidance, on a clear tranquil path and steadfastness. He was a man of virtue, and severely precise in the Sunnah.

Al-'Allāmah Khalaf Ibn Bashkawāl (رحمه الله) says about Ahmad:

"He was an unleashed sword upon the people of desires and innovation, suppressing them, with immense Ghīrah over the Sharī'ah, a man who is seriously dedicated to strive for the sake of Allāh.

He was very adamant (like a lion) in condemning the munkar, so a group among the opponents stood up against him, and testified that he's a Harūrī (from the khawārij), he views unleashing the sword upon the righteous of people, and they were 15 of them among the Fuqahā' and Intellectuals who declared that (he's from the khawārij).

So the judge of Sarqastah supported him in the year 425H, and he is Al-Qādhī Muhammad Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Fartūn, so he testified upon himself to cancel out the witnesses (all 15 who declared him a Khārījī)."

Al-Hāfidh ath-Thahabī (رحمه الله) says:

"He lived for 90 years besides a few months (i.e. just under 90 years old), and he was tested due to the extravagance of his rebuking (of evil), and a group amongst his opponents stood up against him, and they testified that he's a Harūrī, and they were 15 of them among the Fuqahā' and Intellectuals who declared that (he's from the khawārij).

So the judge of Sarqastah supported him in the year 25 (i.e. 425H), and he is Al-Qādhī Muhammad Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Fartūn, so he testified upon himself to cancel out the witnesses (all 15 who declared him a Khārījī)."

Refer to "Kitāb as-Silah Fi Tārīkh A'immat al-Andalus wa 'Ulamā'ihim" (1/84), the number of the biography is #92, and refer to "Siyar A'lām an-Nubalā'" (17/568).

5 — Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله).

Those envious of him and his enemies accused him unjustly and falsely as being from the khawārij and making reckless takfīr, as it's well-known within the writings of his opponents and hostile enemies, especially those who came later amongst them.

Because he was a trunk and shaft in the eyes of the people of innovation and misguidance, entangled completely in the throats of the people of Kufr and Tughyān (tyranny), infact the Zindīq al-Kawtharī, may Allāh curse him, said about him (i.e. Ibn Taymiyyah):

“His kufr became unanimously agreed upon”, and “An agreement has occurred regarding his misguidance and innovation and zandaqah”, and “He is not from the 73 sects”.

6 — Al-‘Allāmah Shams ad-Dīn Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله).

Likewise the student of Shaykh al-Islām, al-‘Allāmah Ibn al-Qayyim was burnt with the fire of this slanderous claim, infact al-Kawtharī made takfīr upon him, may Allāh give him what he deserves, by saying (about Ibn al-Qayyim):

“He’s a kāfir or donkey — His kufr reached to an extent wherein it’s not permissible to remain silent upon it.”

As for the accusations of being from the khawārij and making reckless takfīr, Ibn al-Qayyim speaks about this in “Al-Kāfiyah ash-Shāfiyah fil-Intisār lil-Firqat an-Nāiyah”:

“How astonishing is it that they say about — whoever adheres to the Āthār (reports) and Qur’ān.

You are like the khawārij for indeed — they took the apparent (of the Qur’ān and Sunnah) and were not guided by its true meanings.”

7 — The Shaykh of the Muhaddithīn, Imām Abū ‘Abdillāh ath-Thahabī (رحمه الله).

He was also accused of being from the Harūriyyah (extreme khawārij) and making reckless takfīr from the evil scholars:

“Have they transmitted it to them? Rather, they [themselves] are a transgressing people.” [51:53].

Al-Kawtharī says about him, “He has a khārijī inclination”.

8 — Shaykh al-Islām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb and his followers.

Al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān (رحمه الله) says, “And his enemies gathered misconceptions to refute what he displayed and to deny what he affirmed and wrote, and they sought aid by their allies from the ‘ajam (non-arabs) and arabs, and they attributed to him (i.e. Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb) what the people of intellect and manners would be shy to mention, let alone the carriers of knowledge and nobility.

And they claimed that he’s a Khārijī who opposes the sunnah and the jamā’ah (congregation), such as the statements of their predecessors to the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم), that he’s an apostate, a person who slanders and falsely makes things up.”

Refer to “Minhāj at-Ta’sīs wat-Taqdīs” (page 6).

And this foolish accusation and idiotic slanderous claim affected many of the scholars of the Sunnah during the beginning of matter, before knowing the reality of the Najdī Da’wah, such as Al-‘Allāmah Muhammad Ibn Nāsir al-Hāzimī, the student of Imām ash-Shawkānī, al-‘Allāmah Siddīq Hassan Khān, al-‘Allāmah al-Alūsī and others.

And the most famous thing they were hostile and resentful upon Shaykh Muhammad and his followers are two characteristics, and they are from the most severe ongoing battle that is revolving today between the shari’ah committees for the Mujāhideen and between the shuyūkh of counter-terrorism under the pretext of waging war against violence and deviant ideology.

The first characteristic: Takfīr upon the people of shirk, from the grave worshippers, secularists and others similar to them.

The second characteristic: Fighting the mushrikīn among the grave worshippers, secularists, Tawāghīṭ, and the apostate supporters of the Tawāghīṭ.”

— The noble Imām, Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī (حفظه الله).

30 April 2018 14:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

SECRETS OF SURAH AL-KAHF

This Surah has Four stories in it, having some morals, lets see them and understand what they are saying to us:

1) The People Of The Cave

Its the story of young men who lived in a disbelieving town, so they decide to migrate for the sake of Allah and run away.

Allah rewards them with mercy in the cave and protection from the sun. They woke up and found the entire village believers.

MORAL: TRIAL OF FAITH

2) THE OWNER OF TWO GARDENS

A story of a man Allah blessed with two beautiful gardens, but the man forgot to thank the one who blessed him with everything
And he even dared to doubt Allah regarding the hereafter. So his gardens were destroyed. He regretted, but was too late, and his regret did not benefit him.
MORAL: TRIAL OF WEALTH

3) Musa AS AND KHIDR AS

When Musa AS was asked,
"Who's the most knowledgeable of the people of earth?" Musa(AS) said: Me..., but Allah revealed to him that there's someone who Knows more than him. Musa(AS) traveled to the man and learnt how the Divine Wisdom can sometimes be hidden in matters which we perceive as bad.
MORAL: TRIAL OF KNOWLEDGE.

4) Dhul-Qarnayn

It's a story of the great King that was given knowledge and power and was going around the world, helping people and spreading all that's good. He was able to overcome the problem of Yajooj-Majooj and build a massive dam with the help of people whom he could not even understand.
MORAL: TRIAL OF POWER.

In the middle Allah mentions Iblees as the one who stirs these trials: Behold! We said to the angels "Bow down to Adam": they bowed down except Iblis. He was one of the Jinns, and he broke the Command of his Lord. Will ye then take him and his progeny as protectors rather than Me? And they are enemies to you! Evil would be the exchange for the wrongdoers!

Now let us see what's the relationship between Surat Al-Kahf and the Dajjal (Anti-Christ)? Dajjal will appear before Day of Judgement with the 4 trials: ***He'll ask people to worship him and not Allah:

Trial of Faith . ***He'll be given powers to start/stop rain and tempt people with his wealth:
Trial of with his wealth. . ***He'll trial people with the "knowledge" and news he gives them:
Trial of Knowledge . He'll control huge parts of the Earth.
Trial of Power. How to survive these trials?

The answers are in Surat Al-Kahf #

Survival Kit 1: Good companionship.

"And keep thy soul content with those who call on their Lord morning and evening, seeking His Face; and let not thine eyes pass beyond them, seeking the pomp and glitter of this Life; nor obey any whose heart We have permitted to neglect the remembrance of Us, one who follows his own desires, whose case has gone beyond all bounds." (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 28) #

Survival Kit 2: Knowing the Truth of this World .

"Set forth to them the similitude of the life of this world: It is like the rain which we send down from the skies: the earth's vegetation absorbs it, but soon it becomes dry stubble, which the winds do scatter: it is (only) Allah who prevails over all things" (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 45) #

Survival Kit 3: Humbleness.

"Moses said: "Thou wilt find me, if Allah so will, (truly) patient: nor shall I disobey thee in aught."" (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 69) #

Survival Kit 4: Sincerity.

"Say: "I am but a man like yourselves, (but) the inspiration has come to me, that your Allah is one Allah. whoever expects to meet his Lord, let him work righteousness, and, in the worship of his Lord, admit no one as partner." (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 110) #

Survival Kit 5: Calling to Allah .

"And recite (and teach) what has been revealed to thee of the Book of thy Lord: none can change His Words, and none wilt thou find as a refuge other than Him." (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 27) #

Survival Kit 6: Remembering the Hereafter .

"One Day We shall remove the mountains, and thou wilt see the earth as a level stretch, and We shall gather them, all together, nor shall We leave out any one of them. And they will be marshaled before thy Lord in ranks, (with the announcement), "Now have ye come to Us (bare) as We created you first: aye, ye thought We shall not fulfill the appointment made to you to meet (Us)!": And the Book (of Deeds) will be placed (before you); and thou wilt see the sinful in great terror because of what is (recorded) therein; they will say, "Ah! woe to us! what a Book is this! It leaves out nothing small or great, but takes account thereof !" They will find all that they did, placed before them: And not one will thy Lord treat with injustice." (Surat Al-Kahf, verses 47-49)

Allahu Akbar!

— Shared.

Muhammad Sauvlat أحسن الله إليكم

30 April 2018 11:18

Ibrahim Abdulkarim Assalamu Alaikum warahmatullah wabarakatuhu, jazakallah bhi khairan yaa Sheikh

30 April 2018 14:43

SECRETS OF SURAH AL-KAHF

This Surah has Four stories in it, having some morals, let's see them and understand what they are saying to us:

1) The People Of The Cave

It's the story of young men who lived in a disbelieving town, so they decide to migrate for the sake of Allah and run away.

Allah rewards them with mercy in the cave and protection from the sun. They woke up and found the entire village believers.

MORAL: TRIAL OF FAITH

2) THE OWNER OF TWO GARDENS

A story of a man Allah blessed with two beautiful gardens, but the man forgot to thank the one who blessed him with everything

And he even dared to doubt Allah regarding the hereafter. So his gardens were destroyed. He regretted, but was too late, and his regret did not benefit him.

MORAL: TRIAL OF WEALTH

3) Musa AS AND KHIDR AS

When Musa AS was asked,

"Who's the most knowledgeable of the people of earth?" Musa(AS) said: Me..., but Allah revealed to him that there's someone who knows more than him. Musa(AS) traveled to the man and learnt how the Divine Wisdom can sometimes be hidden in matters which we perceive as bad.

MORAL: TRIAL OF KNOWLEDGE.

4) Dhul-Qarnayn

It's a story of the great King that was given knowledge and power and was going around the world, helping people and spreading all that's good. He was able to overcome the problem of Yajooj-Majooj and build a massive dam with the help of people whom he could not even understand.

MORAL: TRIAL OF POWER.

In the middle Allah mentions Iblees as the one who stirs these trials: Behold! We said to the angels "Bow down to Adam": they bowed down except Iblis. He was one of the Jinns, and he broke the Command of his Lord. Will ye then take him and his progeny as protectors rather than Me? And they are enemies to you! Evil would be the exchange for the wrongdoers!

Now let us see what's the relationship between Surat Al-Kahf and the Dajjal (Anti-Christ)? Dajjal will appear before Day of

Judgement with the 4 trials: ***He'll ask people to worship him and not Allah:

Trial of Faith . ***He'll be given powers to start/stop rain and tempt people with his wealth:

Trial of with his wealth. . ***He'll trial people with the "knowledge" and news he gives them:

Trial of Knowledge . He'll control huge parts of the Earth.

Trial of Power. How to survive these trials?

The answers are in Surat Al-Kahf #

Survival Kit 1: Good companionship.

"And keep thy soul content with those who call on their Lord morning and evening, seeking His Face; and let not thine eyes pass beyond them, seeking the pomp and glitter of this Life; nor obey any whose heart We have permitted to neglect the remembrance of Us, one who follows his own desires, whose case has gone beyond all bounds." (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 28) #

Survival Kit 2: Knowing the Truth of this World .

"Set forth to them the similitude of the life of this world: It is like the rain which we send down from the skies: the earth's vegetation absorbs it, but soon it becomes dry stubble, which the winds do scatter: it is (only) Allah who prevails over all things" (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 45) #

Survival Kit 3: Humbleness.

"Moses said: "Thou wilt find me, if Allah so will, (truly) patient: nor shall I disobey thee in aught."" (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 69) #

Survival Kit 4: Sincerity.

"Say: "I am but a man like yourselves, (but) the inspiration has come to me, that your Allah is one Allah. whoever expects to meet his Lord, let him work righteousness, and, in the worship of his Lord, admit no one as partner." (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 110) #

Survival Kit 5: Calling to Allah .
“And recite (and teach) what has been revealed to thee of the Book of thy Lord: none can change His Words, and none wilt thou find as a refuge other than Him.” (Surat Al-Kahf, verse 27) #

Survival Kit 6: Remembering the Hereafter .
“ One Day We shall remove the mountains, and thou wilt see the earth as a level stretch, and We shall gather them, all together, nor shall We leave out any one of them. And they will be marshaled before thy Lord in ranks, (with the announcement), "Now have ye come to Us (bare) as We created you first: aye, ye thought We shall not fulfill the appointment made to you to meet (Us)!": And the Book (of Deeds) will be placed (before you); and thou wilt see the sinful in great terror because of what is (recorded) therein; they will say, "Ah! woe to us! what a Book is this! It leaves out nothing small or great, but takes account thereof !" They will find all that they did, placed before them: And not one will thy Lord treat with injustice.” (Surat Al-Kahf, verses 47-49)

Allahu Akbar!

— Shared.

30 April 2018 10:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

This is absolutely beautiful! These are hearing impaired students who have learned to recite the Qur'an using sign language!

30 April 2018 10:06

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

This is absolutely beautiful! These are hearing impaired students who have learned to recite the Qur'an using sign language!

30 April 2018 10:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

30 April 2018 09:54

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

30 April 2018 09:54

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

30 April 2018 09:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

30 April 2018 09:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

This is an excellent open Q&A meeting with our beloved Imām, Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī (حفظه الله) — Coming up is a list of Imāms who were called Khawārij.

30 April 2018 08:34

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

This is an excellent open Q&A meeting with our beloved Imām, Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī (حفظه الله) — Coming up is a list of Imāms who were called Khawārij.

30 April 2018 08:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Speaking about biographies, one thing you will find amazing from the Sahābah is that they didn't go to people and say "I am this and that" or promote themselves. They allowed the whole world themselves to judge the immaculate status and praiseworthy nobility they had.

Likewise with the Sahābiyyāt, there are narrations where they obeyed their husbands in what they commanded without question (and instructed their children to follow their father's footsteps), they would remain concealed and honoured. What a legacy they left behind for the modest women of our times.

We can derive a rule out of this, don't tell people who you are, allow them to judge for themselves on who you are via your actions. And if they are unjust in determining that, knowing Allāh is the judge of all judges will keep your heart content.

And Allāh knows best.

30 April 2018 07:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Speaking about biographies, one thing you will find amazing from the Sahābah is that they didn't go to people and say "I am this and that" or promote themselves. They allowed the whole world themselves to judge the immaculate status and praiseworthy nobility they had.

Likewise with the Sahābiyyāt, there are narrations where they obeyed their husbands in what they commanded without question (and instructed their children to follow their father's footsteps), they would remain concealed and honoured. What a legacy they left behind for the modest women of our times.

We can derive a rule out of this, don't tell people who you are, allow them to judge for themselves on who you are via your actions. And if they are unjust in determining that, knowing Allāh is the judge of all judges will keep your heart content.

And Allāh knows best.

30 April 2018 07:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Continuing on from the previous post, has anyone ever wondered about the evil scholars who have passed away in previous generations, why doesn't any know about them?

Subhān'Allāh, Allāh humiliated them in this Dunyā and in the Akhirah, and that their legacy was very temporary in their times by oppressing the people of Tawhīd.

And the funny thing is, when you read the Rasā'il (letters) of Imām Ibn Taymiyyah, Ibn al-Qayyim, Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb, you will find that the vast majority of the evil scholars mentioned only became famous through "being refuted" by these Imāms of Tawhīd, and that's the only "biography" they have.

History repeats itself, so don't feel sad for our beloved Imāms of Tawhīd who have been imprisoned for 15-30 years, this is only an honour for them, following the footsteps of their pious predecessors, these are the true Salafī's!

30 April 2018 07:32

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Continuing on from the previous post, has anyone ever wondered about the evil scholars who have passed away in previous generations, why doesn't any know about them?

Subhān'Allāh, Allāh humiliated them in this Dunyā and in the Akhirah, and that their legacy was very temporary in their times by oppressing the people of Tawhīd.

And the funny thing is, when you read the Rasā'il (letters) of Imām Ibn Taymiyyah, Ibn al-Qayyim, Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb, you will find that the vast majority of the evil scholars mentioned only became famous through "being refuted" by these Imāms of Tawhīd, and that's the only "biography" they have.

History repeats itself, so don't feel sad for our beloved Imāms of Tawhīd who have been imprisoned for 15-30 years, this is only an honour for them, following the footsteps of their pious predecessors, these are the true Salafī's!

30 April 2018 07:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Evil_Scholars | The great Imām, Shaykh 'Abdullāh Abā Butayn (رحمه الله) said:

"Whoever is described with the qualities of the evil scholars who distort and mix the truth with falsehood, and fabricate lies upon Allāh, he would be accompanied and subject to condemnation, in any time and place."

— Refer to "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (12/169).

30 April 2018 07:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Evil_Scholars | The great Imām, Shaykh 'Abdullāh Abā Butayn (رحمه الله) said:

"Whoever is described with the qualities of the evil scholars who distort and mix the truth with falsehood, and fabricate lies upon Allāh, he would be accompanied and subject to condemnation, in any time and place."

— Refer to "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (12/169).

30 April 2018 07:15

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

was tested with all types of harm from his people for 23 years (صلى الله عليه وسلم) And Rasūlullāh .in delivering the greatest Risālah from Allāh

30 April 2018 07:04

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

was tested with all types of harm from his people for 23 years (صلى الله عليه وسلم) And Rasūlullāh .in delivering the greatest Risālah from Allāh

30 April 2018 07:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

We are raising money to help the families who we continuously assist. These families need a lot of financial support; help with groceries, rent and bills.

With your help, we'll be able to provide the support they need. This is a good opportunity to help out your brothers and sisters who are in need. Give your wealth for the sake of Allah and in sha Allah, it will be replaced with so much better in the Hereafter.

Radwan Dakkak shared Abū Khadijah's post.

We are raising money to help the families who we continuously assist. These families need a lot of financial support; help with groceries, rent and bills.

With your help, we'll be able to provide the support they need. This is a good opportunity to help out your brothers and sisters who are in need. Give your wealth for the sake of Allah and in sha Allah, it will be replaced with so much better in the Hereafter.

30 April 2018 04:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Important note: When criticism is made upon the muta'akhirin, this doesn't mean we reject them or consider them to be deviant أستغفر الله.

Would anyone dare say such a thing to Imām Ibn Kathīr, Imām ath-Thahabī, Imām Ibn Hajr, Imām an-Nawawī, etc...??

Rather, it's simply a matter of certain principles being inserted within the science of hadīth by the scholars who specialised in Fiqh and Usūl al-Fiqh which contradict what the Imāms of Hadīth from the Salaf adopted, hence may provide a weaker conclusion in grading hadīths (but everything else they mention, we study and honour them for).

Only a person with arrogance would ignore this fact, because even the scholars themselves such as Ibn Jarīr at-Tabarī, Al-Hākim, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Daqīq al-ʿĪd and so many others would mention there are two schools when it comes to dealing with hadīths and their defects, and even state opposing the Imāms of Hadīth on certain principles is the Haqq (according to their understanding).

So they admit to adhering to the principles laid out by the Fuqahā' and Usūliyyūn (on several matters), instead of the Muhadithīn who truly lived this field with their lives, blood and bones, and this is their field of expertise, hence that's who we should hold onto in our principles, not go against that.

Perhaps one day in the near future, I can touch on these methodological differences in detail (we will cover some things while learning from the mutūn).

But my main focus is not to get carried away with these differences, but rather concern ourselves with understanding the terminologies of the Muhadithīn, and appreciating the beauty of this science.

Remember, there's a big difference between speaking with the intent of guidance and speaking with the intent of disputing.

May Allāh bless you all.

29 April 2018 23:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Important note: When criticism is made upon the muta'akhirin, this doesn't mean we reject them or consider them to be deviant أستغفر الله.

Would anyone dare say such a thing to Imām Ibn Kathīr, Imām ath-Thahabī, Imām Ibn Hajr, Imām an-Nawawī, etc...??

Rather, it's simply a matter of certain principles being inserted within the science of hadīth by the scholars who specialised in Fiqh and Usūl al-Fiqh which contradict what the Imāms of Hadīth from the Salaf adopted, hence may provide a weaker conclusion in grading hadīths (but everything else they mention, we study and honour them for).

Only a person with arrogance would ignore this fact, because even the scholars themselves such as Ibn Jarīr at-Tabarī, Al-Hākim, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Daqīq al-ʿĪd and so many others would mention there are two schools when it comes to dealing with hadīths and their defects, and even state opposing the Imāms of Hadīth on certain principles is the Haqq (according to their understanding).

So they admit to adhering to the principles laid out by the Fuqahā' and Usūliyyūn (on several matters), instead of the Muhadithīn who truly lived this field with their lives, blood and bones, and this is their field of expertise, hence that's who we should hold onto in our principles, not go against that.

Perhaps one day in the near future, I can touch on these methodological differences in detail (we will cover some things while learning from the mutūn).

But my main focus is not to get carried away with these differences, but rather concern ourselves with understanding the terminologies of the Muhadithīn, and appreciating the beauty of this science.

Remember, there's a big difference between speaking with the intent of guidance and speaking with the intent of disputing.

May Allāh bless you all.

29 April 2018 23:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

This is 1 example where many of the later scholars accepted a hadīth when the salaf agreed upon its weakness.

On the authority of Muhammad Ibn Kathīr > Sufyān > Abī Ishāq > Al-Aswad > ‘Ā’ishah, that:

“The Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would sleep while he was in a state of Janābah without touching water.”

The Hāfidh, Imām Zayn ad-Dīn ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Fath al-Bārī” (1/362):

“This hadīth is among that which the Imāms of Hadīth from the Salaf have unanimously agreed concerning it being objectionable upon Abī Ishāq.

Among them are, Ismā’īl Ibn Abī Khālid, Shu’bah, Yazīd Ibn Hārūn, Ahmad Ibn Hanbal, Abū Bakr Ibn Abī Shaybah, Muslim Ibn al-Hajjāj, Abū Bakr al-Athram, az-Jūzajānī, at-Tirmidhī, and ad-Dāraqutnī.

Ibn ‘Abdil-Barr [1] quoted from Sufyān ath-Thawrī that he said, “This is an error”.

And he attributed it towards “Kitāb Abī Dāwūd” [2], but what’s found in his book [3] is that this statement is from Yazīd Ibn Hārūn, not from Sufyān.

Ahmad Ibn Sālih al-Masrī al-Hāfidh said, “It’s not permissible to narrate this hadīth”.

Meaning that it’s a mistake with absolute certainty, so it’s not permissible to narrate it without clarifying its defect (which is Abū Ishāq making an error in it).

As for the muta’akhireen (later scholars) among the Fuqahā’, many of them looked towards the trustworthiness of the narrators, so he thought it was authentic.

And these (scholars) think that every hadīth which was narrated by a Thiqah, then it’s Sahīh, and they do not carefully pay attention to the specific precise details in the science of ‘ilal al-hadīth (the hidden defects within the narrations).

And a group of muta’akhireen among the muhadithīn also agreed with them, such as At-Tahāwī, al-Hākim and al-Bayhaqī, then they differed in reconciling between it and between the hadīth of an-Nakha’ī from al-Aswad from ‘Ā’isha regarding the wudū’.”

[1] Refer to “At-Tamhīd” (17/39).

[2] Tāriq Ibn ‘Awdhillāh mentions in the footnotes, “I did not find him attribute it towards “Kitāb Abī Dāwūd”, but rather he quoted it from Ath-Thawrī unrestrictedly, likewise in the place which has been pointed towards, and Allāh knows best.

[3] Hadīth #228.

29 April 2018 23:56

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ibrahim Abdulkarim Jazakallah bhi khairan yaa Sheikh, please who are thiqah
30 April 2018 03:51

This is 1 example where many of the later scholars accepted a hadīth when the salaf agreed upon its weakness.

On the authority of Muhammad Ibn Kathīr > Sufyān > Abī Ishāq > Al-Aswad > ‘Ā’ishah, that:

“The Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would sleep while he was in a state of Janābah without touching water.”

The Hāfidh, Imām Zayn ad-Dīn ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Fath al-Bārī” (1/362):

“This hadīth is among that which the Imāms of Hadīth from the Salaf have unanimously agreed concerning it being objectionable upon Abī Ishāq.

Among them are, Ismā‘īl Ibn Abī Khālid, Shu‘bah, Yazīd Ibn Hārūn, Ahmad Ibn Hanbal, Abū Bakr Ibn Abī Shaybah, Muslim Ibn al-Hajjāj, Abū Bakr al-Athram, az-Jūzajānī, at-Tirmidhī, and ad-Dāraqutnī.

Ibn ‘Abdil-Barr [1] quoted from Sufyān ath-Thawrī that he said, “This is an error”.

And he attributed it towards “Kitāb Abī Dāwūd” [2], but what’s found in his book [3] is that this statement is from Yazīd Ibn Hārūn, not from Sufyān.

Ahmad Ibn Sālih al-Masrī al-Hāfidh said, “It’s not permissible to narrate this hadīth”.

Meaning that it’s a mistake with absolute certainty, so it’s not permissible to narrate it without clarifying its defect (which is Abū Ishāq making an error in it).

As for the muta’akhireen (later scholars) among the Fuqahā’, many of them looked towards the trustworthiness of the narrators, so he thought it was authentic.

And these (scholars) think that every hadīth which was narrated by a Thiqah, then it’s Sahīh, and they do not carefully pay attention to the specific precise details in the science of ‘ilal al-hadīth (the hidden defects within the narrations).

And a group of muta’akhireen among the muhadithīn also agreed with them, such as At-Tahāwī, al-Hākim and al-Bayhaqī, then they differed in reconciling between it and between the hadīth of an-Nakha‘ī from al-Aswad from ‘Ā’isha regarding the wudū’.”

---

[1] Refer to “At-Tamhīd” (17/39).

[2] Tāriq Ibn ‘Awdhillāh mentions in the footnotes, “I did not find him attribute it towards “Kitāb Abī Dāwūd”, but rather he quoted it from Ath-Thawrī unrestrictedly, likewise in the place which has been pointed towards, and Allāh knows best.

[3] Hadīth #228.

29 April 2018 23:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

For the akhawāt who have been tested with the imprisonment of their dear husbands

“To proceed; I have faced what I have faced from calamities (in my life), however! I have never tasted a sweetness in any of those calamities like this calamity (of my imprisoned husband).

Because from it I have learnt the Haqq even more, and from it I found myself, that whenever I tried searching for it, it’s as if there was something missing (from before), and from it I have found the path (so clear), and from it I have learnt the status of my beloved husband in the true form that must be imagined!

May Allāh free the carrier of a pure, immaculate and innocent heart. May Allāh free the honourable man, Abū Fihir al-Muslim, and we ask Allāh for steadfastness.”

— Umm Fihir al-Muslimah (حفظها الله).

29 April 2018 18:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

For the akhawāt who have been tested with the imprisonment of their dear husbands

“To proceed; I have faced what I have faced from calamities (in my life), however! I have never tasted a sweetness in any of those calamities like this calamity (of my imprisoned husband).

Because from it I have learnt the Haqq even more, and from it I found myself, that whenever I tried searching for it, it’s as if there was something missing (from before), and from it I have found the path (so clear), and from it I have learnt the status of my beloved husband in the true form that must be imagined!

May Allāh free the carrier of a pure, immaculate and innocent heart. May Allāh free the honourable man, Abū Fihir al-Muslim, and we ask Allāh for steadfastness.”

— Umm Fihir al-Muslimah (حفظها الله).

Radwan Dakkak posted in Muslim Tradingpost Australia.

Price: $10

Seller: Radwan Dakkak

As-salāmu ‘alaykum. Does anyone recommend a decent tailor who cuts long pants (beneath the ankle).

$10 – Sydney, Australia

29 April 2018 17:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Going even further on the mursal issue, we also have something in mustalah al-hadīth known as “Mursal of a Sahābī”.

And this is when a Sahābī narrates something from other Sahābah but says “Rasūlullāh said” without mentioning the companion he heard from, and this is perfectly fine since all the hadiths from the companions are outright accepted, and most of Ibn ‘Abbās’s hadīths fall under this category.

But what happens if a Sahābī narrates from a Tābi‘ī from the Rasūl, doesn’t this show a possibility of mursal of sahabi being weak? Shaykh al-‘Alwān has an audio clip clarifying this issue (just under 5 mins which I’ll translate later Insha’Allah), and that such a case is so rare to find, that’s why you won’t find any of that sort from Sahih Bukhari and Muslim.

And the default basic principle is that a Tabi’ee narrates from a sahabi, not the other way around. Therefore, all the mursal of sahabah are AUTHENTIC, take this as a rule 🕌

29 April 2018 15:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Going even further on the mursal issue, we also have something in mustalah al-hadīth known as “Mursal of a Sahābī”.

And this is when a Sahābī narrates something from other Sahābah but says “Rasūlullāh said” without mentioning the companion he heard from, and this is perfectly fine since all the hadiths from the companions are outright accepted, and most of Ibn ‘Abbās’s hadīths fall under this category.

But what happens if a Sahābī narrates from a Tābi‘ī from the Rasūl, doesn’t this show a possibility of mursal of sahabi being weak? Shaykh al-‘Alwān has an audio clip clarifying this issue (just under 5 mins which I’ll translate later Insha’Allah), and that such a case is so rare to find, that’s why you won’t find any of that sort from Sahih Bukhari and Muslim.

And the default basic principle is that a Tabi’ee narrates from a sahabi, not the other way around. Therefore, all the mursal of sahabah are AUTHENTIC, take this as a rule 🕌

29 April 2018 15:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

QUIZ TIME — Inshā’Allāh the definition of مخضرم (Mukhadram) is clear to everyone, and I wanted to emphasise further for the additional benefit.

Question:

Is an-Najāshī considered a Mukhadram?

Yes

No

Answer will be provided after 24 hours Inshā’Allāh (read previous post if you need help).

29 April 2018 14:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

QUIZ TIME — Inshā’Allāh the definition of مخضرم (Mukhadram) is clear to everyone, and I wanted to emphasise further for the additional benefit.

Question:

Is an-Najāshī considered a Mukhadram?

Yes

No

Answer will be provided after 24 hours Inshā'Allāh (read previous post if you need help).

29 April 2018 14:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Why is it important to know what مخضرم (mukhadram) means in the science of hadīth? The next post will be a QUIZ:

^ Concerning the word مخضرم (Mukhadram), the reason I wrote "Muhaddithin definition", is because the scholars of hadīth have a separate definition to the scholars of arabic grammar.

Al-Athyūbī mentions in his excellent sharh:

وقال الأثيوبي في شرحه: وحاصل المعنى: أن المخضرم هو الذي أدرك الجاهلية وزمن النبي - صلى الله عليه وسلم - ولم يصحبه هذا في مصطلح المحدثين، وأما من حيث اللغة فهو الذي عاش نصف عمره في الجاهلية ونصفه في الإسلام سواء أدرك الصحابة أم لا؟ فيبينهما عموم وخصوص من وجه، فحكيم بن حزام مخضرم في اللغة.

"The summarised meaning, is that "al-Mukhadram" is the one who lived during the time Jāhiliyyah and the era of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), however he did not accompany him; This is according to the terminology of the Muhaddithīn. But from a linguistic point of view, he is the one who lives half of his life in Jāhiliyyah and half of it in Islām, whether he met the Sahābah or not. So there's between them a general meaning (which ties them together) and a specific (exclusive meaning) in another sense, so Hakīm Ibn Hizām is a Mukhadram according to the linguistic meaning."

^ Continuing off from the definition of مخضرم (Mukhadram), why does it benefit us to know this?

Because we have a hadīth which has been narrated as marfū':

"I declare barā'ah from every muslim who resides amongst the mushrikīn."

It has been narrated via the chain of Ismā'il Ibn Abī Khālid > from Qays Ibn Hāzim > Jarīr Ibn 'Abdillāh from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Jarīr Ibn 'Abdillāh is a noble Sahābī, and he said Rasūlullāh said, this makes it a marfū' hadīth, however Imām al-Bukhārī, Abū Hātim, Abū Zur'ah, At-Tirmidhī and ad-Dāraqutnī declared that this report is mursal (therefore the marfū' narration is defective), and what's correct is that the chain is supposed to look like this:

Ismā'il Ibn Abī Khālid > from Qays Ibn Hāzim > from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Now Qays Ibn Hāzim is not a Sahābī, therefore we would call this a mursal narration, but does this mean it's weak? No, and that's what I want to talk about.

Qays Ibn Hāzim is a mukhadram, and this means he lived during the time of Rasūlullāh, but never met him. But at the same time, he has met so many companions (unlike other tābi'een who were born after Rasūlullāh past away etc...), and as we know, if a companion says "Rasūlullāh said", we accept it, since whenever you have a companion in the chain of narration, he is automatically "Trustworthy", as they would never lie, unlike the case with the level of the Tābi'een and those who came afterwards.

Now this shows that a "Mukhadram" is more in-between a Sahābī and Tābi'ī, and therefore when he says Rasūlullāh says, there's an extremely high chance that he has heard it from another companion, even if he didn't name him and simply chose to directly say "Rasūlullāh said", and there are numerous reasons why narrators report mursal hadiths (1 of them is similar to our conversations, sometimes we narrate from a source directly even though we don't mention the intermediary).

So this is something which makes his mursal narrations very strong to be used as proof. Now what about the other tābi'een you may ask? Well, they are beneath him, why is that?

Because those tābi'een who came after (even though they differ in who's mursal is stronger), one of the ways to determine this is through side factors.

For e.g. The hadīth of Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها) on the du'ā you make when leaving your home:

"Whenever the Prophet (ﷺ) stepped out of his house, he would say, "Bismillah, tawakkaltu 'alallah. Allahumma inni a'udhu bika an adilla aw udalla, aw azilla aw uzalla, aw azlima aw uzlama, aw ajhala aw yujhala 'alayya".

Translation: "[I go forth. (I begin with the Name of Allah, I trust in Allah; O Allah! I seek refuge in You from leaving or being led astray, or against slipping or being caused to slip; or doing injustice or being done injustice; or doing wrong or having wrong done to me)].”

All the narrators in this chain are Hufādh (precise memorisers of hadīth), as you can see in this chain:

Muslim Ibn Ibrāhīm > Shu'bah > Mansūr > Ash-Sha'bī > Umm Salamah > Rasūlullāh.

However, there's a disconnection in the chain because Ash-Sha'bī never heard directly from Umm Salamah.

But despite that, Imām Abū 'Īsa at-Tirmidhī (رحمه الله) in his famous “Sunan” said “This hadīth is hassan sahih”.

And that's because several Imāms of hadīth said, Imām ash-Sha'bī never makes a mursal narration (i.e. skips a person in the chain), except that the person he skipped was Thiqaḥ (i.e. trustworthy and reliable).

Whereas others said, that's only the case with his mursal narrations towards Ibn Mas'ūd (رضي الله عنه).

But in any case, the point from mentioning this (and I hope this is clear for you), is that some Tābi'in would have stronger mursal narrations due to being known for narrating from reliable tābi'in and also saḥābah (which is automatically reliable).

But other tābi'in would narrate from all types of tābi'in, whether weak or not, hence this is one of the reasons mursal narrations are not outright accepted, because we don't know who is the person being left out in the chain (if we knew it was a saḥabi or trustworthy tabi'ee, it would be accepted).

I hope this clarifies why the hadīths of Qays Ibn Hāzim are very strong, and Allāh knows best.

29 April 2018 14:52

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Why is it important to know what مخضرم (mukhadram) means in the science of hadīth? The next post will be a QUIZ:

^ Concerning the word مخضرم (Mukhadram), the reason I wrote “Muhaddithin definition”, is because the scholars of hadīth have a separate definition to the scholars of arabic grammar.

Al-Athyūbī mentions in his excellent sharh:

وقال الأثيوبي في شرحه: وحاصل المعنى: أن المخضرم هو الذي أدرك الجاهلية وزمن النبي - صلى الله عليه وسلم - ولم يصحبه هذا في مصطلح المحدثين، وأما من حيث اللغة فهو الذي عاش نصف عمره في الجاهلية ونصفه في الإسلام سواء أدرك الصحابة أم لا؟ فيبينهما عموم وخصوص من وجه، فحكيم بن حزام مخضرم في اللغة.

“The summarised meaning, is that “al-Mukhadram” is the one who lived during the time Jāhiliyyah and the era of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), however he did not accompany him; This is according to the terminology of the Muhaddithin. But from a linguistic point of view, he is the one who lives half of his life in Jāhiliyyah and half of it in Islām, whether he met the Saḥābah or not. So there's between them a general meaning (which ties them together) and a specific (exclusive meaning) in another sense, so Hakīm Ibn Hizām is a Mukhadram according to the linguistic meaning.”

^ Continuing off from the definition of مخضرم (Mukhadram), why does it benefit us to know this?

Because we have a hadīth which has been narrated as marfū':

“I declare barā'ah from every muslim who resides amongst the mushrikīn.”

It has been narrated via the chain of Ismā'il Ibn Abī Khālid > from Qays Ibn Hāzim > Jarīr Ibn 'Abdillāh from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Jarīr Ibn 'Abdillāh is a noble Saḥābī, and he said Rasūlullāh said, this makes it a marfū' hadīth, however Imām al-Bukhārī, Abū Hātim, Abū Zur'ah, At-Tirmidhī and ad-Dāraquṭnī declared that this report is mursal (therefore the marfū' narration is defective), and what's correct is that the chain is supposed to look like this:

Ismā'il Ibn Abī Khālid > from Qays Ibn Hāzim > from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Now Qays Ibn Hāzim is not a Saḥābī, therefore we would call this a mursal narration, but does this mean it's weak? No, and that's what I want to talk about.

Qays Ibn Hāzim is a mukhadram, and this means he lived during the time of Rasūlullāh, but never met him. But at the same time, he has met so many companions (unlike other tābi'een who were born after Rasūlullāh past away etc...), and as we know, if a companion says “Rasūlullāh said”, we accept it, since whenever you have a companion in the chain of narration, he is automatically “Trustworthy”, as they would never lie, unlike the case with the level of the Tābi'een and those who came afterwards.

Now this shows that a “Mukhadram” is more in-between a Sahābī and Tābi‘ī, and therefore when he says Rasūlullāh says, there’s an extremely high chance that he has heard it from another companion, even if he didn’t name him and simply chose to directly say “Rasūlullāh said”, and there are numerous reasons why narrators report mursal hadiths (1 of them is similar to our conversations, sometimes we narrate from a source directly even though we don’t mention the intermediary).

So this is something which makes his mursal narrations very strong to be used as proof. Now what about the other tābi‘een you may ask? Well, they are beneath him, why is that?

Because those tābi‘een who came after (even though they differ in who’s mursal is stronger), one of the ways to determine this is through side factors.

For e.g. The hadīth of Umm Salamah (رضي الله عنها) on the du‘ā you make when leaving your home:

“Whenever the Prophet (ﷺ) stepped out of his house, he would say, "Bismillah, tawakkaltu 'alallah. Allahumma inni a'udhu bika an adilla aw udalla, aw azilla aw uzalla, aw azlima aw uzlama, aw ajhala aw yujhala 'alayya".

Translation: “[I go forth. (I begin with the Name of Allah, I trust in Allah; O Allah! I seek refuge in You from leaving or being led astray, or against slipping or being caused to slip; or doing injustice or being done injustice; or doing wrong or having wrong done to me)].”

All the narrators in this chain are Hufādh (precise memorisers of hadīth), as you can see in this chain:

Muslim Ibn Ibrāhīm > Shu'bah > Mansūr > Ash-Sha'bī > Umm Salamah > Rasūlullāh.

However, there’s a disconnection in the chain because Ash-Sha'bī never heard directly from Umm Salamah.

But despite that, Imām Abū ‘Īsa at-Tirmidhī (رحمه الله) in his famous “Sunan” said “This hadīth is hassan saḥīḥ”.

And that’s because several Imāms of hadīth said, Imām ash-Sha'bī never makes a mursal narration (i.e. skips a person in the chain), except that the person he skipped was Thiqah (i.e. trustworthy and reliable).

Whereas others said, that’s only the case with his mursal narrations towards Ibn Mas‘ūd (رضي الله عنه).

But in any case, the point from mentioning this (and I hope this is clear for you), is that some Tābi‘īn would have stronger mursal narrations due to being known for narrating from reliable tābi‘īn and also saḥābah (which is automatically reliable).

But other tābi‘īn would narrate from all types of tābi‘īn, whether weak or not, hence this is one of the reasons mursal narrations are not outright accepted, because we don’t know who is the person being left out in the chain (if we knew it was a sahabi or trustworthy tabi‘ee, it would be accepted).

I hope this clarifies why the hadīths of Qays Ibn Hāzim are very strong, and Allāh knows best.

29 April 2018 14:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“The brother asks about residing in the lands of the kuffār to attain their citizenship.

Firstly, acquiring the citizenships of the kuffār is prohibited by default in all cases. Because what it means to acquire a citizenship is to comply with their systems, making tahākum to them, and submitting to their laws, and that you become an individual from amongst them.

It’s not possible that a muslim can become an individual from amongst the men of the kuffār, nor a soldier from amongst the soldiers of the kuffār.

Because the condition that is to be known by 'Urf (traditions), is on the same level of a pronounced condition (for e.g. If you buy a car, by the 'Urf, it should have a steering, even though you don't have that condition in the contract).

It’s not a (pronounced) condition that the kāfir stipulates you becoming a soldier from among their soldiers, but this is something well-known, the condition that is to be known by ‘Urf (traditions) according to the Fuqahā’ (scholars of Fiqh) is on the same level of a pronounced condition.

So whenever you acquire their citizenship, then the laws of every land (you go too) would apply upon you, and the laws are mandated in all lands.

For that reason, when citizenships initially came out, and some muslims acquiring citizenships due to being subjected to severe harm, and the pressure from their rulers or the torture they would face.

This issue was brought up around about 60 years ago, and no one at the time differed concerning its prohibition which is astonishing (compared to our times), rather they differed upon whether he becomes a kāfir or not, and they had two opinions regarding that:

1 — There are those who said he becomes an apostate due to that, by merely acquiring the citizenship, he would become an apostate.

2 — And others said he doesn't become an apostate, because he is mukrah (under Ikrāh, fleeing torture etc), however he's sinful by that (as he shouldn't have acquired it, but rather remained in their land temporarily, wallāhu a'lam).

The dispute was concerning his kufr, and it wasn't surrounding the prohibition of attaining that. However, right now the dispute has become surrounding whether it's prohibited, is it halāl or harām.

And this in reality, looking at it from the perspective that he's Mudtar (in serious need), the Mudtar isn't required to take citizenship.

However yes, if he was Mudtar to take citizenship in the sense that if he doesn't take it, he will be sent back to his land where he will be tortured, then yes in this situation he will be Mukrah (under the state of Ikrāh), however it's compulsory upon him to solidify in his heart not to make tahākum to them, to make takfīr upon them, to proclaim barā'ah from them, and he will be included within the statement of Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic:

"Except for one who is forced (to renounce his religion) while his heart is secure in faith." [16:106].

As for the issue of travelling to the lands of the kuffār, the default basic principle concerning that is "prohibition" according to the scholars, because Allāh the Exalted and Majestic said:

"Indeed, those whom the angels take [in death] while wronging themselves - [the angels] will say, "In what [condition] were you?" They will say, "We were oppressed in the land." The angels will say, "Was not the earth of Allah spacious [enough] for you to emigrate therein?" For those, their refuge is Hell - and evil it is as a destination." [4:97].

So this is a proof that whoever remains in the lands of the kuffār, and doesn't make hijrah while he's able to migrate, then he has fell into one of the major sins.

What is indicative of this is the hadīth of Bahz Ibn Hakīm, from his father, from his grandfather, that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

"Allāh will not accept any good deed from a mushrik who committed shirk after having become Muslim, until he leaves the mushrikīn and joins the Muslims."

And it's mentioned in the hadīth of Ismā'il Ibn Abī Khālid, from Qays Ibn Hāzim, from Jarīr Ibn 'Abdillāh, that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

"I declare barā'ah from every muslim who resides amongst the mushrikīn."

However, Imām al-Bukhārī, Abū Hātim, Abū Zur'ah, At-Tirmidhī and ad-Dāraqutnī declared that this report is mursal, and what's correct is that it's from the narration of:

Ismā'il Ibn Abī Khālid > from Qays Ibn Hāzim > from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Moreover Qays Ibn Hāzim is mukhadram (Muhaddithīn definition: Someone who lived in the time of jāhiliyyah and era of the rasūl but didn't meet him to become a Sahābī, but still accepted Islām), and his mursal narrations are from the strongest of Marāsīl (mursal hadīths), therefore this is included with the other proofs to prove the prohibition of travelling to the lands of the kuffār.

But if an individual had a need to travel to the land of the kuffār, such as for trade or treatment and so forth, he must take into account several matters:

1 — To display his Dīn, by making barā'ah from them.

2 — That he's able to protect himself from Fitnah, therefore whoever is not able to protect himself from Fitnah, then he is prohibited from travelling to their lands.

3 — That this is for a need.

4 — That his journey (within the lands of kufr) expires when his need is fulfilled.

As for those who travel to lands which might be called (by some) as "islamic state". Most people today cannot differentiate between an islamic state and a kāfir state.

So they call a land which doesn't rule by what Allāh has revealed as an islamic state, that even the Rāfidhī state, the state of Irān is called an "Islamic Republic".

Because they don't differentiate between Islām, shirk and kufr. They simply go by labels, and what the newspapers portray to them, that's what they mimic.

So if an individual travelled to some of these states, and he went for an enjoyable time, and he will find prohibitions and corrupt deeds, tabarruj (people going out dressed immodestly), public adornments, and he will see what gets exposed (from evil) and the crimes, while he is unable to change anything, then it's not permissible to travel in all cases in such a situation.

Consequently, the scholars have unanimously agreed that whoever sits in a place that has harām, it's compulsory upon him to condemn it with his hand or tongue, and if he's unable to do so, it's not sufficient that you rebuke it in your heart, you must leave the gathering if you have the ability to do so.

And they have unanimously agreed that it's not permissible for you to travel to a place which has harām, while you know that you won't be able to change it.

And this person goes and knows he will see harām, while being unable to change it, and knows with certainty that he will see harām, not a high assumption, rather he has Yaqīn that he will see harām, while he is unable to change it, you have no need or maslahah, nor da'wah or ordaining good and forbidding munkar, nor did you go there to teach, nor did you go for helping anyone, rather you went there for an enjoyable time.

He takes his family and children and makes them subjected to danger, so the likes of these people are to be scolded and deterred from doing this, and ordered to preserve their Dīn and 'Aqīdah.

And if Imām Mālik (رحمه الله) would say, if a person resides in an islamic land, an islamic state, an islamic Khilāfah, however in this particular land, many corruptions are found and he is unable to change it, and he is able to travel to another (islamic) land which condemns corruption, then this is obligatory upon him!

Mālik views that if someone is under a ruling of an islamic Khilāfah, and there are two (islamic lands), one of them is filled with corruption while you're unable to change that, and another land you go too wherein you are able to rebuke the corruption you see, Mālik says it's an obligation upon you to make hijrah.

So imagine if Mālik heard about the issues of our times, a land of kufr, a land of prostitution, a land of dispicable evil, a land of zandaqah, a land which promotes corruption and munkarāt.

Then they give fatāwā allowing travelling there, these people are juhhāl! He doesn't have firmly grounded knowledge, nor does he have Dīn, infact he cannot even differentiate between Islām and Kufr. He would sit with the kuffār and doesn't see anything wrong with that, and at times they would give precedence to the kuffār over the muslims, these people are to be scolded severely, and not to be allowed to speak in such enormous matters.”

— The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

29 April 2018 13:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“The brother asks about residing in the lands of the kuffār to attain their citizenship.

Firstly, acquiring the citizenships of the kuffār is prohibited by default in all cases. Because what it means to acquire a citizenship is to comply with their systems, making tahākum to them, and submitting to their laws, and that you become an individual from amongst them.

It's not possible that a muslim can become an individual from amongst the men of the kuffār, nor a soldier from amongst the soldiers of the kuffār.

Because the condition that is to be known by 'Urf (traditions), is on the same level of a pronounced condition (for e.g. If you buy a car, by the 'Urf, it should have a steering, even though you don't have that condition in the contract).

It's not a (pronounced) condition that the kāfir stipulates you becoming a soldier from among their soldiers, but this is something well-known, the condition that is to be known by 'Urf (traditions) according to the Fuqahā' (scholars of Fiqh) is on the same level of a pronounced condition.

So whenever you acquire their citizenship, then the laws of every land (you go too) would apply upon you, and the laws are mandated in all lands.

For that reason, when citizenships initially came out, and some muslims acquiring citizenships due to being subjected to severe harm, and the pressure from their rulers or the torture they would face.

This issue was brought up around about 60 years ago, and no one at the time differed concerning its prohibition which is astonishing (compared to our times), rather they differed upon whether he becomes a kāfir or not, and they had two opinions regarding that:

1 — There are those who said he becomes an apostate due to that, by merely acquiring the citizenship, he would become an apostate.

2 — And others said he doesn't become an apostate, because he is mukrah (under Ikrah, fleeing torture etc), however he's sinful by that (as he shouldn't have acquired it, but rather remained in their land temporarily, wallāhu a'lam).

The dispute was concerning his kufr, and it wasn't surrounding the prohibition of attaining that. However, right now the dispute has become surrounding whether it's prohibited, is it halāl or harām.

And this in reality, looking at it from the perspective that he's Mudtar (in serious need), the Mudtar isn't required to take citizenship.

However yes, if he was Mudtar to take citizenship in the sense that if he doesn't take it, he will be sent back to his land where he will be tortured, then yes in this situation he will be Mukrah (under the state of Ikrah), however it's compulsory upon him to solidify in his heart not to make tahākum to them, to make takfir upon them, to proclaim barā'ah from them, and he will be included within the statement of Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic:

“Except for one who is forced (to renounce his religion) while his heart is secure in faith.” [16:106].

As for the issue of travelling to the lands of the kuffār, the default basic principle concerning that is “prohibition” according to the scholars, because Allāh the Exalted and Majestic said:

“Indeed, those whom the angels take [in death] while wronging themselves - [the angels] will say, "In what [condition] were you?" They will say, "We were oppressed in the land." The angels will say, "Was not the earth of Allah spacious [enough] for you to emigrate therein?" For those, their refuge is Hell - and evil it is as a destination.” [4:97].

So this is a proof that whoever remains in the lands of the kuffār, and doesn't make hijrah while he's able to migrate, then he has fell into one of the major sins.

What is indicative of this is the hadīth of Bahz Ibn Hakīm, from his father, from his grandfather, that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

“Allāh will not accept any good deed from a mushrik who committed shirk after having become Muslim, until he leaves the mushrikīn and joins the Muslims.”

And it's mentioned in the hadīth of Ismā'il Ibn Abī Khālid, from Qays Ibn Hāzim, from Jarīr Ibn 'Abdillāh, that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

“I declare barā'ah from every muslim who resides amongst the mushrikīn.”

However, Imām al-Bukhārī, Abū Hātim, Abū Zur'ah, At-Tirmidhī and ad-Dāraquṭnī declared that this report is mursāl, and what's correct is that it's from the narration of:

Ismā'il Ibn Abī Khālid > from Qays Ibn Hāzim > from the Prophet (ﷺ).

Moreover Qays Ibn Hāzim is mukhadram (Muhaddithīn definition: Someone who lived in the time of jāhiliyyah and era of the rasūl but didn't meet him to become a Sahābī, but still accepted Islām), and his mursāl narrations are from the strongest of Marāsīl (mursāl hadīths), therefore this is included with the other proofs to prove the prohibition of travelling to the lands of the kuffār.

But if an individual had a need to travel to the land of the kuffār, such as for trade or treatment and so forth, he must take into account several matters:

1 — To display his Dīn, by making barā'ah from them.

2 — That he's able to protect himself from Fitnah, therefore whoever is not able to protect himself from Fitnah, then he is prohibited from travelling to their lands.

3 — That this is for a need.

4 — That his journey (within the lands of kufr) expires when his need is fulfilled.

As for those who travel to lands which might be called (by some) as “islamic state”. Most people today cannot differentiate between an islamic state and a kāfir state.

So they call a land which doesn't rule by what Allāh has revealed as an islamic state, that even the Rāfidhī state, the state of Irān is called an “Islamic Republic”.

Because they don't differentiate between Islām, shirk and kufr. They simply go by labels, and what the newspapers portray to them, that's what they mimic.

So if an individual travelled to some of these states, and he went for an enjoyable time, and he will find prohibitions and corrupt deeds, tabarruj (people going out dressed immodestly), public adornments, and he will see what gets exposed (from evil) and the crimes, while he is unable to change anything, then it's not permissible to travel in all cases in such a situation.

Consequently, the scholars have unanimously agreed that whoever sits in a place that has harām, it's compulsory upon him to condemn it with his hand or tongue, and if he's unable to do so, it's not sufficient that you rebuke it in your heart, you must leave the gathering if you have the ability to do so.

And they have unanimously agreed that it's not permissible for you to travel to a place which has harām, while you know that you won't be able to change it.

And this person goes and knows he will see harām, while being unable to change it, and knows with certainty that he will see harām, not a high assumption, rather he has Yaqīn that he will see harām, while he is unable to change it, you have no need or maslahah, nor da'wah or ordaining good and forbidding munkar, nor did you go there to teach, nor did you go for helping anyone, rather you went there for an enjoyable time.

He takes his family and children and makes them subjected to danger, so the likes of these people are to be scolded and deterred from doing this, and ordered to preserve their Dīn and 'Aqīdah.

And if Imām Mālik (رحمه الله) would say, if a person resides in an islamic land, an islamic state, an islamic Khilāfah, however in this particular land, many corruptions are found and he is unable to change it, and he is able to travel to another (islamic) land which condemns corruption, then this is obligatory upon him!

Mālik views that if someone is under a ruling of an islamic Khilāfah, and there are two (islamic lands), one of them is filled with corruption while you're unable to change that, and another land you go too wherein you are able to rebuke the corruption you see, Mālik says it's an obligation upon you to make hijrah.

So imagine if Mālik heard about the issues of our times, a land of kufr, a land of prostitution, a land of dispicable evil, a land of zandaqah, a land which promotes corruption and munkarāt.

Then they give fatāwā allowing travelling there, these people are juhhāl! He doesn't have firmly grounded knowledge, nor does he have Dīn, infact he cannot even differentiate between Islām and Kufr. He would sit with the kuffār and doesn't see anything wrong with that, and at times they would give precedence to the kuffār over the muslims, these people are to be scolded severely, and not to be allowed to speak in such enormous matters."

— The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

29 April 2018 13:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Do people get upset at you when they CALL or MESSAGE and you are not as prompt as they would like? Does it annoy you to see people have READ your message and not responded? If yes, then please read this through...

"And if it is said to you, 'Go back,' then go back; it is purer for you. And Allah is Knowing of what you do." [an-Nur: 28]

وَإِنْ قِيلَ لَكُمْ ائْجِعُوا قَارِعُوا ۖ هُوَ اَرْكَى لَكُمْ ۖ وَاللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ عَلِيمٌ

I have long been fascinated by this verse. Allah speaks here about the etiquette of visitation, and says that it is "purer for you" to simply return home when someone – who may have initially invited you – refuses you at the door. What does this have to with your purity?

The God-centered (the purer) will recall that God gave people this right; maybe they had an embarrassing health meltdown (think: diarrhea); maybe World War 3 just erupted between the spouses as you arrived; maybe they just received a tragic call about something; maybe...

The self-centered will not be able see past the: I went out of my way to visit him or her; I cancelled plans for this; I bought a pricey cake or gift; I... I... I...

In simplest terms, handling rejection requires humility, and humility requires purity of spirit. Spirituality – beholding God – gets you to keep humble; the world does not revolve around me; maybe it is perfectly justified; maybe I would do the same – or have done the same – in a similar scenario.

---

Having said that, please remember this: when you CALL or MESSAGE someone, that does not make you entitled to their immediate undivided attention. Maybe they were in the middle of something; maybe they need to consult family or Google before answering you; maybe their kids read that message and they never noticed it; maybe... just maybe... you're just a tad bit on the narcissist trip.

So remember, had I invited you, and you cancelled plans for me, and you bought me my favorite dessert, and you reached my door and knocked, God said I still do not have to let you in if I have legitimate reason (yes, honoring guests is otherwise mandatory in Islam). So what about when all you did is throw a few thumb-jabs at a touch screen at an inconvenient hour and sent it my way?

Humility, my friends, it is "purer for you."

#FiqhOfSocialMedia

— Shared.

29 April 2018 08:07

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Do people get upset at you when they CALL or MESSAGE and you are not as prompt as they would like? Does it annoy you to see people have READ your message and not responded? If yes, then please read this through...

"And if it is said to you, 'Go back,' then go back; it is purer for you. And Allah is Knowing of what you do." [an-Nur: 28]

وَإِنْ قِيلَ لَكُمْ اذْجِعُوا قَارِعُوا ۖ هُوَ أَزْكَىٰ لَكُمْ ۚ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ عَلِيمٌ

I have long been fascinated by this verse. Allah speaks here about the etiquette of visitation, and says that it is “purer for you” to simply return home when someone – who may have initially invited you – refuses you at the door. What does this have to with your purity?

The God-centered (the purer) will recall that God gave people this right; maybe they had an embarrassing health meltdown (think: diarrhea); maybe World War 3 just erupted between the spouses as you arrived; maybe they just received a tragic call about something; maybe...

The self-centered will not be able see past the: I went out of my way to visit him or her; I cancelled plans for this; I bought a pricey cake or gift; I... I... I...

In simplest terms, handling rejection requires humility, and humility requires purity of spirit. Spirituality – beholding God – gets you to keep humble; the world does not revolve around me; maybe it is perfectly justified; maybe I would do the same – or have done the same – in a similar scenario.

---

Having said that, please remember this: when you CALL or MESSAGE someone, that does not make you entitled to their immediate undivided attention. Maybe they were in the middle of something; maybe they need to consult family or Google before answering you; maybe their kids read that message and they never noticed it; maybe... just maybe... you’re just a tad bit on the narcissist trip.

So remember, had I invited you, and you cancelled plans for me, and you bought me my favorite dessert, and you reached my door and knocked, God said I still do not have to let you in if I have legitimate reason (yes, honoring guests is otherwise mandatory in Islam). So what about when all you did is throw a few thumb-jabs at a touch screen at an inconvenient hour and sent it my way?

Humility, my friends, it is “purer for you.”

#FiqhOfSocialMedia

— Shared.

29 April 2018 08:05

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shyness is a branch of Īmān men must practise as well. Imām al-Manāwī (رحمه الله) in “Faydh al-Qadīr” (1/459) describes the Hayā’ of the rightly guided caliph ‘Uthmān Ibn ‘Affān (رضي الله عنه) in 1 line:

كان يستحي حتى من حلاله ، وفي خلوته ، ولشدة حيائه كانت تستحي منه ملائكة الرحمن

“He would even be shy from his wives, and in seclusion, and due to his strictly intense hayā’, the angels of ar-Rahmān (Allāh — The lord of all mercy) would feel shy from him.”

29 April 2018 07:52

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shyness is a branch of Īmān men must practise as well. Imām al-Manāwī (رحمه الله) in “Faydh al-Qadīr” (1/459) describes the Hayā’ of the rightly guided caliph ‘Uthmān Ibn ‘Affān (رضي الله عنه) in 1 line:

كان يستحي حتى من حلاله ، وفي خلوته ، ولشدة حيائه كانت تستحي منه ملائكة الرحمن

“He would even be shy from his wives, and in seclusion, and due to his strictly intense hayā’, the angels of ar-Rahmān (Allāh — The lord of all mercy) would feel shy from him.”

29 April 2018 07:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Q. Has anyone besides Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr explained Kitāb al-Haqā’iq Fi-Tawhīd?

A. Yes, there is 1 scholar I’m aware of who has an amazingly simplified sharh entitled “Taysīr al-‘Azīz al-Hamid sharh Kitāb al-Haqā’iq Fi-Tawhīd” (133 pages) by the Imām, Shaykh Abū Māriyyah al-Qurashī (فك الله أسرہ), and he is from the shuyūkh and ‘Ulamā’ of Ad-Dawlah who also wrote this sharh ~ 15 years ago, on the date 2/7/1425AH, may Allāh hasten his release from captivity. He mentions:

"This is a gentle elucidation upon "Kitāb al-Haqā'iq Fi-Tawhīd", wherein I relied upon the audio explanation of Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr for this magnificent book of his, and I frequently brought quotes from the A'immat ad-Da'wah (i.e. Imāms of Najd), may Allāh have mercy upon them.

And it's not for a person like me to take up the position in the likes of this matter, however by Allāh I have become aggravated from the request of many students of knowledge concerning this book, when they were unable to understand what the shaykh intends in many chapters and sub-sections, so I placed my trust upon my magnificent lord who has bestowed upon me and made it easy for me to complete the sharh in a short period of time, and all praise and favours belong to Allāh in the beginning and the end."

Shaykh Abū Māriyyah al-Qurashī (فك الله أسره) has decades of experience on the ground and has also authored many important books surrounding 'Aqīdah and Manhaj, along with important Fiqh topics from Bulūgh al-Marām and elsewhere; Refer to the link below ↓

https://archive.org/details/onetow78\_mail\_20161209\_1431

And this is the download link to his sharh upon Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr's book entitled, "Taysīr al-'Azīz al-Hamīd sharh Kitāb al-Haqā'iq Fi-Tawhīd".
<http://elibrary.medi.u.edu.my/books/2014/MEDIU16355.pdf>

28 April 2018 21:19

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Khalid Van der Lee Allaahoe Akbar walhamdoeliellaah walhamdoeliellaah I'm very happy wallaahi I'm happy because walhamdoeliellaah that de shaykh alkhudayr faka allaahoe asrah in shaa allaah will get reward from Allaah soebhannahoe wata3ala while he his prison by the tawagheet. Walhamdoeliellaah
28 April 2018 21:17

Radwan Dakkak He sure will, may Allāh immensely reward him with Jannatul-Firdaws, Āmīn.
28 April 2018 21:18

Khalid Van der Lee And akhi djazaakallaahoe ahsenal Ghayr for this publishing this great work.
28 April 2018 21:19

Radwan Dakkak Āmīn, wa iyyāk.
28 April 2018 21:27

Q. Has anyone besides Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr explained Kitāb al-Haqā'iq Fi-Tawhīd?

A. Yes, there is 1 scholar I'm aware of who has an amazingly simplified sharh entitled "Taysīr al-'Azīz al-Hamīd sharh Kitāb al-Haqā'iq Fi-Tawhīd" (133 pages) by the Imām, Shaykh Abū Māriyyah al-Qurashī (فك الله أسره), and he is from the shuyūkh and 'Ulamā' of Ad-Dawlah who also wrote this sharh ~ 15 years ago, on the date 2/7/1425AH, may Allāh hasten his release from captivity. He mentions:

"This is a gentle elucidation upon "Kitāb al-Haqā'iq Fi-Tawhīd", wherein I relied upon the audio explanation of Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr for this magnificent book of his, and I frequently brought quotes from the A'immat ad-Da'wah (i.e. Imāms of Najd), may Allāh have mercy upon them.

And it's not for a person like me to take up the position in the likes of this matter, however by Allāh I have become aggravated from the request of many students of knowledge concerning this book, when they were unable to understand what the shaykh intends in many chapters and sub-sections, so I placed my trust upon my magnificent lord who has bestowed upon me and made it easy for me to complete the sharh in a short period of time, and all praise and favours belong to Allāh in the beginning and the end."

Shaykh Abū Māriyyah al-Qurashī (فك الله أسره) has decades of experience on the ground and has also authored many important books surrounding 'Aqīdah and Manhaj, along with important Fiqh topics from Bulūgh al-Marām and elsewhere; Refer to the link below ↓

https://archive.org/details/onetow78\_mail\_20161209\_1431

And this is the download link to his sharh upon Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr's book entitled, "Taysīr al-'Azīz al-Hamīd sharh Kitāb al-Haqā'iq Fi-Tawhīd".
<http://elibrary.medi.u.edu.my/books/2014/MEDIU16355.pdf>

28 April 2018 21:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

ام يوسف عبدالله Allahumma Ameen

28 April 2018 15:22

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abdul-Razzaq Ibn Hussein Wow,never heard of Him.....may Allah preserve Him....ameen

29 April 2018 02:35

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Mohyeldeen Mohammad I love his books, may Allah preserve him and protect him

29 April 2018 04:25

May Allāh preserve this noble Imām & scholar of Tawhīd, Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī (حفظه الله). He's one of the few who remained steadfast upon the Haqq & openly supporting Mujāhideen!

28 April 2018 14:43

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Basit Farooq Aameen. Even though I never listen to his lectures or go through any of his book but the qualities you mention are enough to make me love him.

28 April 2018 14:47

Dhal-Qarnāyn Musafir Amiin, Akhi, if you have any of his lectures please share with me, or links. Barakallah feel.

28 April 2018 15:13

Warez Ahmadi Which mujahideen akhi?

28 April 2018 19:20

May Allāh preserve this noble Imām & scholar of Tawhīd, Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī (حفظه الله). He's one of the few who remained steadfast upon the Haqq & openly supporting Mujāhideen!

28 April 2018 14:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

All the books of Shaykh Hassān Hussayn Abū Salmān as-Sōmālī are very beneficial. Does anyone know what his situation is today?

28 April 2018 09:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Reminder | Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرہ) said, “From the sunan (ongoing traditions) of Allāh سُبحانه وتعالى is purifying the ranks (from munāfiqeen, etc) before victory.”

28 April 2018 08:35

Radwan Dakkak shared his post.

#Reminder | Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرہ) said, “From the sunan (ongoing traditions) of Allāh سُبحانه وتعالى is purifying the ranks (from munāfiqeen, etc) before victory.”

28 April 2018 08:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allah free our brother and keep his Īmān strong!

27 April 2018 19:03

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS's post.

May Allah free our brother and keep his Īmān strong!

27 April 2018 19:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

For whoever is interested in the science of hadīth, this will be a beneficial course to go through إن شاء الله.

27 April 2018 18:24

Radwan Dakkak shared Haytham Sayfaddīn's post.

For whoever is interested in the science of hadīth, this will be a beneficial course to go through إن شاء الله.

27 April 2018 18:24

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abu Musleem Khawlany Hmmmmmmm

27 April 2018 18:22

Hamzah AL Muwaahid LOL

27 April 2018 18:45

Hamzah AL Muwaahid you know im trying to tell these brothers today who one said he voted for greens party that "ikwaan the left and right wing are apart of the same bird" - its call the illusion of choice, end of the day your voting for a kalb or a khanzeer, the result is the same, your gonna have some animal running the show as usual, and its really sad that you can just quote apart of their own constituion to them via letter to get out of voting, but muslims would rather apostate...sad...

27 April 2018 18:47

Abu Faaris Munzer Butt Lol

27 April 2018 21:23

27 April 2018 17:49

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Whoever speaks bad about the rulers is from the khawārij, and the khawārij are kuffār.

— The madhab of Sālih al-Fawzān, may the angel of death rip apart his soul in the harshest way, Āmin.

27 April 2018 17:03

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Whoever speaks bad about the rulers is from the khawārij, and the khawārij are kuffār.

— The madhab of Sālih al-Fawzān, may the angel of death rip apart his soul in the harshest way, Āmin.

27 April 2018 17:02

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

In an audio recording, Sālih al-Fawzān gets asked about a book by Shaykh al-‘Alwān called, “Let us die to attain martyrdom”, so Sālih al-Fawzān replies:

“He says, ‘let us die’, well let him die, it’s better for him to be dead than remain alive”.

27 April 2018 14:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

In an audio recording, Sālih al-Fawzān gets asked about a book by Shaykh al-‘Alwān called, “Let us die to attain martyrdom”, so Sālih al-Fawzān replies:

“He says, ‘let us die’, well let him die, it’s better for him to be dead than remain alive”.

27 April 2018 14:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The scholars mention that sins lead to kufr, that’s why the Sahābah would fear both shirk and sins.

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Fath al-Bārī” (1/184):

“Ibn ‘Umar said, we would fear that whoever commits major sins and evil immoral actions, that it would destroy him.

That even Huthayfah said, slandering a chaste woman destroys 100 years of good deeds.”

Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) also mentions in “Majmū’at al-Rasā’il wal-Masā’il an-Najdiyyah” (1/215):

“As for the one who slanders the chaste man or chaste woman, and doesn’t come forth with 4 trustworthy witnesses, then he is to be lashed 80 times, and his testimony will be rejected (forever) except if he repents, as Allāh said, “And those who accuse chaste women and then do not produce four witnesses.” [24:4].”

27 April 2018 08:53

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The scholars mention that sins lead to kufr, that’s why the Sahābah would fear both shirk and sins.

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Fath al-Bārī” (1/184):

“Ibn ‘Umar said, we would fear that whoever commits major sins and evil immoral actions, that it would destroy him.

That even Huthayfah said, slandering a chaste woman destroys 100 years of good deeds.”

Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) also mentions in “Majmū’at al-Rasā’il wal-Masā’il an-Najdiyyah” (1/215):

“As for the one who slanders the chaste man or chaste woman, and doesn’t come forth with 4 trustworthy witnesses, then he is to be lashed 80 times, and his testimony will be rejected (forever) except if he repents, as Allāh said, “And those who accuse chaste women and then do not produce four witnesses.” [24:4].”

27 April 2018 08:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I have learnt that humility increases tranquility.

And Allāh knows best.

26 April 2018 21:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#StoryTime | Today/tonight, whatever time it is for you, I want to speak about 1 praiseworthy quality found within the arabs, especially from the time of Jāhiliyyah.

The arabs had many terrible practises and qualities as ‘Ā’isha (رضي الله عنها) and others would relate, but perhaps we can learn a thing or two from a noble praiseworthy characteristic they had, and it is:

“Remarkable hospitality and generosity”

This is something the arabs would cherish, and if someone is wondering whether it’s permissible or even “kufr” to praise the mushrikīn for a good quality, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) mentions in “Sharh Nawāqidh al-Islām” (page 28):

“As for commending a kāfir due to a quality he holds without overwhelmingly extolling and exaggerating in praising him, then there is nothing wrong with this, the same way we praise Hātim Ibn ‘Abdillāh at-Tā’ī with generosity, and we praise ‘Antara Ibn Shaddād with courage for instance, and they’re from the mushrikīn.”

Therefore, it's permissible to mention a praiseworthy characteristic found among a people, with the condition that we do not go into extremes or raise them above the muslims, as this would make one fall into apostasy, wal-'lyāthubillāh.

Returning back to cherishing generosity, the arabs had a rule that if a guest or visitor or traveller or whoever it may be enters your home, then you allow him to stay for 3 days without asking him any questions, such as "why are you here" or "what are you planning for the mean-time" and other typical statements one would make in a convo or in such a curious situation.

So during these 3 days, the guest will feel relaxed, comfortable almost like he's in his own home with the nice treatment and kind hospitality.

And as Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) coincidently mentions the name "Hātim Ibn 'Abdillāh at-Tā'ī", this will be highly convenient for my story Inshā'Allāh.

Going back to the guest, the owner of the home would ensure the visitor or guest has a comfortable stay and serve him with food and drinks, etc.

The arabs were very generous, and I would like to mention, this type of generosity is something we should instill within kids from a young age, and praise them for being kind to visitors and guests. And even more importantly so, if we should be this hospitable, emphasising and stressing on interacting in a nice fashion with guests and strangers, then imagine how we should interact with our close family and loved ones. May Allāh forgive us all for our shortcomings in this regard and make us better, Āmīn.

Now what's so special about Hātim at-Tā'ī...?? I'll tell you the reason why Hātim is praised as Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) stated. SubhānAllāh, I'll give a simple analogy which we can all understand. See how the 'ajam (non-arabs) would get amazed with the hospitality of the arabs (you tend to hear this from some revert stories), the arabs themselves were amazed and dumbfounded by the hospitality and generosity of Hātim at-Tā'ī.

Many words of poetry were written concerning him, but let me summarise it briefly. So one day (lol, just got a flashback in how I wrote essays), there was an Amīr who really loved the horse of Hātim at-Tā'ī, and this was a purely fine, original, strong and powerful arab horse, among the best you will find!

The Amīr was interested and sent an envoy (or diplomat) towards Hātim to acquire this horse from him, so the diplomat of the Amīr entered Hātim's house, and in the mind of Hātim, he only sees this man as a guest who must be honoured, but there was one big problem!

Oh no! Hātim has no provisions (food) to give this visitor who has entered his home, and he is thinking what can I do. How can anyone enter my house and not be served any food, but Hātim came up with an idea.

He decided that he's going to feed his guest by offering his most beloved horse to him, so he sacrifices his horse and is able to feed his guest, so now he can relax without worry.

His guest is filled quite nicely, but this diplomat now informs him of the news from the Amīr, and that he was interested in his remarkable, outstanding horse.

But...

...

...

...

The Amīr's diplomat just ate Hātim's (and the Amīr's) beloved horse...

Oh well, so the diplomat went back to inform his Amīr of what happened, and the Amīr was shocked and amazed at the same time!

On hearing such an amazing act of generosity, he sends an order to give Hātim a whole bunch of cattle as a reward.

This is the story of Hātim Ibn 'Abdillāh at-Tā'ī, and I hope there comes about some benefit from what has been mentioned, and Allāh knows best.

26 April 2018 14:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#StoryTime | Today/tonight, whatever time it is for you, I want to speak about 1 praiseworthy quality found within the arabs, especially from the time of Jāhiliyyah.

The arabs had many terrible practises and qualities as 'Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها) and others would relate, but perhaps we can learn a thing or two from a noble praiseworthy characteristic they had, and it is:

"Remarkable hospitality and generosity"

This is something the arabs would cherish, and if someone is wondering whether it's permissible or even "kufr" to praise the mushrikin for a good quality, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) mentions in "Sharh Nawāqidh al-Islām" (page 28):

“As for commending a kāfir due to a quality he holds without overwhelmingly extolling and exaggerating in praising him, then there is nothing wrong with this, the same way we praise Hātim Ibn ‘Abdillāh at-Tā’ī with generosity, and we praise ‘Antara Ibn Shaddād with courage for instance, and they’re from the mushrikin.”

Therefore, it’s permissible to mention a praiseworthy characteristic found among a people, with the condition that we do not go into extremes or raise them above the muslims, as this would make one fall into apostasy, wal-‘lyāthubillāh.

Returning back to cherishing generosity, the arabs had a rule that if a guest or visitor or traveller or whoever it may be enters your home, then you allow him to stay for 3 days without asking him any questions, such as “why are you here” or “what are you planning for the mean-time” and other typical statements one would make in a convo or in such a curious situation.

So during these 3 days, the guest will feel relaxed, comfortable almost like he’s in his own home with the nice treatment and kind hospitality.

And as Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) coincidently mentions the name “Hātim Ibn ‘Abdillāh at-Tā’ī”, this will be highly convenient for my story Inshā’Allāh.

Going back to the guest, the owner of the home would ensure the visitor or guest has a comfortable stay and serve him with food and drinks, etc.

The arabs were very generous, and I would like to mention, this type of generosity is something we should instill within kids from a young age, and praise them for being kind to visitors and guests. And even more importantly so, if we should be this hospitable, emphasising and stressing on interacting in a nice fashion with guests and strangers, then imagine how we should interact with our close family and loved ones. May Allāh forgive us all for our shortcomings in this regard and make us better, Āmīn.

Now what’s so special about Hātim at-Tā’ī...?? I’ll tell you the reason why Hātim is praised as Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) stated. SubhānAllāh, I’ll give a simple analogy which we can all understand. See how the ‘ajam (non-arabs) would get amazed with the hospitality of the arabs (you tend to hear this from some revert stories), the arabs themselves were amazed and dumbfounded by the hospitality and generosity of Hātim at-Tā’ī.

Many words of poetry were written concerning him, but let me summarise it briefly. So one day (lol, just got a flashback in how I wrote essays), there was an Amīr who really loved the horse of Hātim at-Tā’ī, and this was a purely fine, original, strong and powerful arab horse, among the best you will find!

The Amīr was interested and sent an envoy (or diplomat) towards Hātim to acquire this horse from him, so the diplomat of the Amīr entered Hātim’s house, and in the mind of Hātim, he only sees this man as a guest who must be honoured, but there was one big problem!

Oh no! Hātim has no provisions (food) to give this visitor who has entered his home, and he is thinking what can I do. How can anyone enter my house and not be served any food, but Hātim came up with an idea.

He decided that he’s going to feed his guest by offering his most beloved horse to him, so he sacrifices his horse and is able to feed his guest, so now he can relax without worry.

His guest is filled quite nicely, but this diplomat now informs him of the news from the Amīr, and that he was interested in his remarkable, outstanding horse.

But...

...

...

...

The Amīr’s diplomat just ate Hātim’s (and the Amīr’s) beloved horse...

Oh well, so the diplomat went back to inform his Amīr of what happened, and the Amīr was shocked and amazed at the same time!

On hearing such an amazing act of generosity, he sends an order to give Hātim a whole bunch of cattle as a reward.

This is the story of Hātim Ibn ‘Abdillāh at-Tā’ī, and I hope there comes about some benefit from what has been mentioned, and Allāh knows best.

26 April 2018 14:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

[AR] The explanation of the nullifiers of Islām by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله).

In addition to that is an Introduction by Shaykh Abū Sufyan as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) + Shaykh Abū ‘Abdīl-Barr as-Sālihī al-Kuwaitī (تقبله الله) revised it and praised it.

Download link below ↓

<http://www.m5zn.com/d/?16859360>

26 April 2018 13:01

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abū Abū Where do you find those books? Which link?

26 April 2018 13:13

Abu Musleem Khawlany أنا لا يمكن العثور على الرابط في الموقع الذي لصق

26 April 2018 19:54

Abū Aslam Al-Athāri ...

27 April 2018 05:18

[AR] The explanation of the nullifiers of Islām by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله).

In addition to that is an Introduction by Shaykh Abū Sufyan as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) + Shaykh Abū ‘Abdīl-Barr as-Sālihī al-Kuwaitī (تقبله الله) revised it and praised it.

Download link below ↓

<http://www.m5zn.com/d/?16859360>

26 April 2018 13:01

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Sometimes the Haqq may become suppressed to an extent that Bātil is flourishing, but Allāh always leaves a group of muslims manifest upon the truth in every era.

The scholars in Al-Maghrib advised writing down the Haqq on the graves, because they were prevented from doing so on the pulpits.

We have alot of avenues today, Allāh has blessed us with social media and the internet, but ensure that it's being utilised correctly, because it's like a double edged sword.

26 April 2018 06:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Sometimes the Haqq may become suppressed to an extent that Bātil is flourishing, but Allāh always leaves a group of muslims manifest upon the truth in every era.

The scholars in Al-Maghrib advised writing down the Haqq on the graves, because they were prevented from doing so on the pulpits.

We have alot of avenues today, Allāh has blessed us with social media and the internet, but ensure that it's being utilised correctly, because it's like a double edged sword.

26 April 2018 06:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

At the end of ghusl, do we move to another position to wash the feet?

Some scholars mentioned it's a sunnah to do so, since it's mentioned from Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) that "he moved away from the spot where he had been standing and washed his feet." [Agreed upon].

However, other scholars mention there's no need for us to do this, especially in our times where we have showers and the area is clean.

During the time of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), they would make ghusl on soil, hence when they wash themselves, the water would eventually reach the soil and make their feet muddy and dirty, hence Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would move to a different position to wash his feet.

And Allāh knows best.

25 April 2018 19:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

At the end of ghusl, do we move to another position to wash the feet?

Some scholars mentioned it's a sunnah to do so, since it's mentioned from Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) that "he moved away from the spot where he had been standing and washed his feet." [Agreed upon].

However, other scholars mention there's no need for us to do this, especially in our times where we have showers and the area is clean.

During the time of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), they would make ghusl on soil, hence when they wash themselves, the water would eventually reach the soil and make their feet muddy and dirty, hence Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) would move to a different position to wash his feet.

And Allāh knows best.

25 April 2018 19:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

25 April 2018 16:40

Radwan Dakkak shared شيرزاد عبدالرحمن's video.

25 April 2018 16:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Fasting_Gems #Ramadān_Benefits

Lesson 1

Topic — The definition of Siyām:

Sawm linguistically means: To abstain. So everyone who abstains from something, he is called a "Sā'im".

An example of that is Allāh's statement, "Verily! I (i.e. Maryam) have vowed unto Ar-Rahmān (Allāh - The lord of all mercy) that I'm going to abstain (fast)", i.e. Abstain from speech.

Technically (in the Sharī'ah) it means: "(Fasting) to abstain with the intention from specified matters, for a specified time, by a specified person."

— The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

25 April 2018 14:58

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Fasting_Gems #Ramadān_Benefits

Lesson 1

Topic — The definition of Siyām:

Sawm linguistically means: To abstain. So everyone who abstains from something, he is called a "Sā'im".

An example of that is Allāh's statement, "Verily! I (i.e. Maryam) have vowed unto Ar-Rahmān (Allāh - The lord of all mercy) that I'm going to abstain (fast)", i.e. Abstain from speech.

Technically (in the Sharī'ah) it means: "(Fasting) to abstain with the intention from specified matters, for a specified time, by a specified person."

— The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

25 April 2018 14:58

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://t.me/SabrAndYaqeen>

As-salāmu ‘alaykum, back with some reminders before Ramadān.

<https://t.me/SabrAndYaqeen>

25 April 2018 14:48

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://t.me/SabrAndYaqeen>

<https://t.me/SabrAndYaqeen>

As-salāmu ‘alaykum, back with some reminders before Ramadān.

25 April 2018 14:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

How many opponents of Tawhīd are scared to have their authority removed, lest the Haqq gets raised and Bātil gets vanished.

Imām Abū at-Tayyib (رحمه الله) explains our situation in two lines of poetry:

والخصم لا ترتجى النجاة له ..... يوما إذا كان خصمه الحكم
يا أعدل الناس إلا في معاملتي..... فيك الخصام وأنت الخصم والحكم

“Do not hope for the opponent to be victorious — If one day the opponent becomes the judge!

O you, the most just of people except in dealing with me — You are disputing me while you are my opponent and the judge between us (at the same time)!”

25 April 2018 12:11

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

How many opponents of Tawhīd are scared to have their authority removed, lest the Haqq gets raised and Bātil gets vanished.

Imām Abū at-Tayyib (رحمه الله) explains our situation in two lines of poetry:

والخصم لا ترتجى النجاة له ..... يوما إذا كان خصمه الحكم
يا أعدل الناس إلا في معاملتي..... فيك الخصام وأنت الخصم والحكم

“Do not hope for the opponent to be victorious — If one day the opponent becomes the judge!

O you, the most just of people except in dealing with me — You are disputing me while you are my opponent and the judge between us (at the same time)!”

25 April 2018 12:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

:says سبحانه وتعالى As-salāmu ‘alaykum, Allāh

وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مَخْرَجًا وَيَرْزُقْهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ وَمَنْ يَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ فَهُوَ حَسْبُهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بَالِغُ أَمْرِهِ
قَدْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدْرًا

And whoever fears Allāh - He will make for him a way out. And will provide for him from where he“ does not expect. And whoever relies upon Allāh - then He is sufficient for him. Indeed, Allāh will [accomplish His purpose. Allāh has already set for everything a [decreed] extent.” [65:2-3

25 April 2018 08:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Gotta take a break from all social devices to heal and focus on improving myself, especially the advice of praying on time and calling out towards Allāh, the lord of all created things.

السلام عليكم

4 April 2018 21:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://justpaste.it/mq9j>

SubhānAllāh, a brother found an old translation I lost a while ago — Writing style is bit strange when you look back, but Alhamdulillah.

Note: I'm in the process of writing up a proper essay on the issue of blind-following and the ruling on adhering to a madhab (last line sums it up nicely) providing the different opinions of the scholars:

<https://justpaste.it/mq9j>

4 April 2018 18:44

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://justpaste.it/mq9j>

<https://justpaste.it/mq9j>

SubhānAllāh, a brother found an old translation I lost a while ago — Writing style is bit strange when you look back, but Alhamdulillah.

Note: I'm in the process of writing up a proper essay on the issue of blind-following and the ruling on adhering to a madhab (last line sums it up nicely) providing the different opinions of the scholars:

4 April 2018 18:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Aqīdah | Allāhu Akbar!

“For this reason my beloved brothers, from studying ‘Aqīdah and studying Tawhīd, your Īmān will strengthen, and our tawakkul (trust) in Allāh will strengthen, along with our I’timād (reliance & dependance) upon him, may He be Glorified and Exalted.

By Allāh, the one who there’s no deity besides Him, nor any Lord like Him, I never knew the true reality of Tawakkul (trust in Allāh) and Sabr (patience), except by studying ‘Aqīdah.

‘Aqīdah is within the worshipper, that’s it. Your heart will be tied to this direction (of turning towards Allāh). There’s no possible way you can change, despite the greatness of the affliction and the intensity of the pain.

Read the lives of the salaf, and the first generation, you will find the most astonishing of astonishing matters. You will find whoever stands up while his skin is peeled off, then says, “I do not worry (about anything) when I’m being killed as a muslim”.

What kind of ‘Aqīdah is this?! One of them is also struck until blood spills from his body, and he takes hold of his blood while he knows that it was only spilt for the sake of Allāh, then he wipes his face with it and says, “I have attained success, by the lord of the Ka’bah!”

From where did they come with these principles and this ‘Aqīdah?! From the likes of these lessons which we drink from the sunnah of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), with the aid of the book of Allāh, and the aid of the Sunnah of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), that pure and crystal clear helper.”

— The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله).

4 April 2018 18:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Aqīdah | Allāhu Akbar!

“For this reason my beloved brothers, from studying ‘Aqīdah and studying Tawhīd, your Īmān will strengthen, and our tawakkul (trust) in Allāh will strengthen, along with our I’timād (reliance & dependance) upon him, may He be Glorified and Exalted.

By Allāh, the one who there’s no deity besides Him, nor any Lord like Him, I never knew the true reality of Tawakkul (trust in Allāh) and Sabr (patience), except by studying ‘Aqīdah.

‘Aqīdah is within the worshipper, that’s it. Your heart will be tied to this direction (of turning towards Allāh). There’s no possible way you can change, despite the greatness of the affliction and the intensity of the pain.

Read the lives of the salaf, and the first generation, you will find the most astonishing of astonishing matters. You will find whoever stands up while his skin is peeled off, then says, “I do not worry (about anything) when I’m being killed as a muslim”.

What kind of ‘Aqīdah is this?! One of them is also struck until blood spills from his body, and he takes hold of his blood while he knows that it was only spilt for the sake of Allāh, then he wipes his face with it and says, “I have attained success, by the lord of the Ka’bah!”

From where did they come with these principles and this ‘Aqīdah?! From the likes of these lessons which we drink from the sunnah of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), with the aid of the book of Allāh, and the aid of the Sunnah of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), that pure and crystal clear helper.”

— The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقيله الله).

4 April 2018 18:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I’ve got no energy to do anything and my self-esteem is zero. I’ve been afflicted with harm, wallāhul-Musta’ān.

4 April 2018 15:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Houda Hidaayah محمد ابو سفيان

4 April 2018 15:26

Shirk at-Tā’ah by Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقيله الله) — Download link ↓

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1FnxEqqmkyobjCJalGjCYKhMdUyvYLG0w/view>

4 April 2018 11:42

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Shirk at-Tā’ah by Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقيله الله) — Download link ↓

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1FnxEqqmkyobjCJalGjCYKhMdUyvYLG0w/view>

4 April 2018 11:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“I find it hard to follow these rulings in Fiqh”.

I would like to make a small remark إن شاء الله so that we can understand the purpose of this life.

To re-assure your heart, Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said “The religion is easy”.

Let’s keep that in mind, think about Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) reducing the obligatory prayers for this ummah from 50 —> 5, subhānAllāh look at the love and mercy Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) had for you, so what love do you show to him?

Secondly, does this mean everything in Islām is “easy to follow?”. Well no, that’s simply the general basic principle, since Allāh سبحانه وتعالى said:

“Fighting has been prescribed upon you, while it is disliked for you.”

Let’s remember the purpose of this life. If there were no hardships or difficulties, then where’s the test? Imagine you found every single matter in Islām as easy (which is impossible), but do you call that a test? The problem with many people, especially those who complain, is that they want Jannah too early without working hard for it.

We do not change established rulings in Fiqh due to “emotions” and “maslaha”. Let’s say there’s a scholar of Fiqh who tells you his position is that 3 divorces in 1 sitting = bid’ah, but all 3 occur. Or he tells you, it’s obligatory to eat hand-slaughtered meat, or any other ruling.

I’m sure he would get a few responses, “Ya shaykh, if they all occur, my home would be ruined, what about my kids, what about....” and “Ya shaykh, most places don’t hand-slaughter, it’s so expensive and hard for me and my family and my kids..." [1].

Who knows, perhaps she will make the shaykh cry due to her circumstances. But does this mean he can change the hukm he believes is most correct? Absolutely not.

The way we all need to see it, is that we're obeying and complying to the law of Allāh, and we will be rewarded in respect to the difficulty we faced to obey Allāh and His messenger.

And Allāh knows best.

---

[1] Note: There are 3 opinions on the issue of 3 divorces in 1 sitting, and the view which I'm convinced of, is that only 1 occurs.

As for whether it's permissible to eat meat that is not hand-slaughtered, I don't have any personal opinion on it due to a lack of knowledge. But the majority said hand-slaughtered meat is compulsory (whereas Imām Mālik permitted other methods). Hence some scholars allowed different methods, saying modern-day instruments like machines can slaughter chickens 50 times faster than normal, and the main thing is that it's slaughtered with the name of Allāh. But the safer opinion is with the majority, والله أعلم.

4 April 2018 11:09

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"I find it hard to follow these rulings in Fiqh".

I would like to make a small remark إن شاء الله so that we can understand the purpose of this life.

To re-assure your heart, Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said "The religion is easy".

Let's keep that in mind, think about Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) reducing the obligatory prayers for this ummah from 50 —> 5, subhānAllāh look at the love and mercy Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) had for you, so what love do you show to him?

Secondly, does this mean everything in Islām is "easy to follow?". Well no, that's simply the general basic principle, since Allāh سبحانه وتعالى said:

"Fighting has been prescribed upon you, while it is disliked for you."

Let's remember the purpose of this life. If there were no hardships or difficulties, then where's the test? Imagine you found every single matter in Islām as easy (which is impossible), but do you call that a test? The problem with many people, especially those who complain, is that they want Jannah too early without working hard for it.

We do not change established rulings in Fiqh due to "emotions" and "maslaha". Let's say there's a scholar of Fiqh who tells you his position is that 3 divorces in 1 sitting = bid'ah, but all 3 occur. Or he tells you, it's obligatory to eat hand-slaughtered meat, or any other ruling.

I'm sure he would get a few responses, "Ya shaykh, if they all occur, my home would be ruined, what about my kids, what about..." and "Ya shaykh, most places don't hand-slaughter, it's so expensive and hard for me and my family and my kids..." [1].

Who knows, perhaps she will make the shaykh cry due to her circumstances. But does this mean he can change the hukm he believes is most correct? Absolutely not.

The way we all need to see it, is that we're obeying and complying to the law of Allāh, and we will be rewarded in respect to the difficulty we faced to obey Allāh and His messenger.

And Allāh knows best.

---

[1] Note: There are 3 opinions on the issue of 3 divorces in 1 sitting, and the view which I'm convinced of, is that only 1 occurs.

As for whether it's permissible to eat meat that is not hand-slaughtered, I don't have any personal opinion on it due to a lack of knowledge. But the majority said hand-slaughtered meat is compulsory (whereas Imām Mālik permitted other methods). Hence some scholars allowed different methods, saying modern-day instruments like machines can slaughter chickens 50 times faster than normal, and the main thing is that it's slaughtered with the name of Allāh. But the safer opinion is with the majority, والله أعلم.

4 April 2018 11:06

---

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://t.me/ATPublications>

<https://t.me/ATPublications>

أهل التوحيد New TG channel for

4 April 2018 06:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://youtu.be/1sLhGm3kliY>

<https://youtu.be/1sLhGm3kliY>

3 April 2018 22:18

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://youtu.be/1sLhGm3kliY>

<https://youtu.be/1sLhGm3kliY>

<https://youtu.be/1sLhGm3kliY>

3 April 2018 22:17

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://youtu.be/dvYtSnkGP5I>

<https://youtu.be/dvYtSnkGP5I>

Will always be my favourite

3 April 2018 21:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://youtu.be/dvYtSnkGP5I>

Will always be my favourite.

<https://youtu.be/dvYtSnkGP5I>

3 April 2018 21:31

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abu Musleem Khawlany I can't view it ya sheikh

3 April 2018 20:44

Radwan Dakkak Edit your comment to "akhi". Can you see it now?

3 April 2018 20:45

Abu Musleem Khawlany Nooo ya akhi but I just viewed it through another platform...

Jazaakallahu khairaa

3 April 2018 20:47

Ibn Adam You can see it when you Zoom in

4 April 2018 01:00

On a positive note.

3 April 2018 20:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Dee Lulu The text is too small to read.

3 April 2018 20:47

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak What about now.

3 April 2018 20:48

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Dee Lulu Yeap its clear now

3 April 2018 20:49

On a positive note.

3 April 2018 20:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

The angel of death can come at any time. How many of us are even ready to enter the grave!

3 April 2018 12:31

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

AbdurRahman Umar Ibn Bakr Astugfirullah...☹
3 April 2018 13:28

The angel of death can come at any time. How many of us are even ready to enter the grave!

3 April 2018 12:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

3 April 2018 08:23

Radwan Dakkak shared The Ideal Muslimah's post.

3 April 2018 08:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

WALLAHI, WALLAHI, WALLAHI I'VE WITNESSED IT WITH MY OWN EYES. IF YOU MAKE LIFE HARDER FOR YOUR BROTHERS, ALLAH WILL MAKE LIFE HARDER FOR YOU. LEARN YOUR LESSON AND NEVER REPEAT YOUR STUPID ACTIONS.

2 April 2018 23:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

The notorious 'bushfire extinguisher' calls Netanyahu a 'terrorist'.

2 April 2018 21:11

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

The notorious 'bushfire extinguisher' calls Netanyahu a 'terrorist'.

2 April 2018 21:10

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Ilyas Mansur the superdupers
2 April 2018 19:57

Abdullah MacGregor I remember the days when 50c could get you a decent amount of lollies, now it cant get jack.

2 April 2018 19:58

Daniel Ibraheem Abdul Hakam 2 bucks would get all the boyz off their hedz on sugar
4 April 2018 06:28

I remember shouting out some mates with my 50 cents.

2 April 2018 19:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A sister asks Shaykh Khālid ar-Rāshid (فك الله أسره):

“What is your opinion concerning the subject of women working, is it halāl or harām?”

Shaykh Khālid ar-Rāshid (فك الله أسره) responds by saying:

“We do not say anything is halāl except what Allāh has made halāl, and we do not say anything is harām except what Allāh has made harām.

We are in need of women to work, but where does she work?

In between men?! She speaks to them and they speak to her?! She laughs with them and they laugh with her, asking each other about their affairs?! She has a delightful time with them, and they have a delightful time with her, until her Hayā’ goes away, where she wouldn’t have any significance?

No way, a woman can work, however with guidelines. Our religion has simplicity and ease, and it has softness, and it deals with different circumstances, and it deals with different situations, as it must be done.

“We have not neglected in the Kitāb (i.e. Qur’ān) a single thing.” [6:38].

And you don’t find anything in this Dīn, except that it has a way out. However, free-mixing, adorning herself and forbidden acts?! No way, the Dīn doesn’t accept this!

I say that a woman is concealed and honoured, if we need her to work in a field for woman, then she is welcome to work there, or else she adheres to her house and Allāh will suffice her from His bounty.

Many of the girls argue that they’re in need of a profession, however I say that their need for the Taqwā of Allāh is given precedence to their need for a profession.

Because if she feared Allāh, then Allāh will suffice her profession and give her a way out. But for the way out to be in harām? Not at all! The way out (given by Allāh) will never be in harām.

We are not against women working, but we’re against where a woman works. We don’t want her to be a toy that’s played around with left and right.

And by Allāh, the one who there’s no deity except Him, today, just today alone during ‘Asr, I was informed of a story of a girl working amongst men, until she became a toy between their hands.

So a cousin of hers came to her (for marriage), but she replied to him “I am not suitable for marriage”, she outwardly proclaimed to her cousin, she said:

“I am not suitable for marriage, due to the affect of frequently free-mixing with these (men), I have lost the most honourable thing I hold (my chastity), the wolves played around with me until they took the most honourable thing I hold, so who would accept me as a wife for him?”

He (the cousin) says (to me), he is consulting with me, he says “shall I conceal her and take her (to marry)? Should I conceal her due to her exposure and accept her as a wife to me, or what should I do?”

What caused her to reach that extent? Because she took sitting around with men as a light matter, so fear Allāh.

We do not wage war against women working, but rather we’re against where a woman works.”

2 April 2018 18:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A sister asks Shaykh Khālid ar-Rāshid (فك الله أسره):

“What is your opinion concerning the subject of women working, is it halāl or harām?”

Shaykh Khālid ar-Rāshid (فك الله أسره) responds by saying:

“We do not say anything is halāl except what Allāh has made halāl, and we do not say anything is harām except what Allāh has made harām.

We are in need of women to work, but where does she work?

In between men?! She speaks to them and they speak to her?! She laughs with them and they laugh with her, asking each other about their affairs?! She has a delightful time with them, and they have a delightful time with her, until her Hayā’ goes away, where she wouldn’t have any significance?

No way, a woman can work, however with guidelines. Our religion has simplicity and ease, and it has softness, and it deals with different circumstances, and it deals with different situations, as it must be done.

“We have not neglected in the Kitāb (i.e. Qur’ān) a single thing.” [6:38].

And you don’t find anything in this Dīn, except that it has a way out. However, free-mixing, adorning herself and forbidden acts?! No way, the Dīn doesn’t accept this!

I say that a woman is concealed and honoured, if we need her to work in a field for woman, then she is welcome to work there, or else she adheres to her house and Allāh will suffice her from His bounty.

Many of the girls argue that they’re in need of a profession, however I say that their need for the Taqwā of Allāh is given precedence to their need for a profession.

Because if she feared Allāh, then Allāh will suffice her profession and give her a way out. But for the way out to be in harām? Not at all! The way out (given by Allāh) will never be in harām.

We are not against women working, but we’re against where a woman works. We don’t want her to be a toy that’s played around with left and right.

And by Allāh, the one who there’s no deity except Him, today, just today alone during ‘Asr, I was informed of a story of a girl working amongst men, until she became a toy between their hands.

So a cousin of hers came to her (for marriage), but she replied to him “I am not suitable for marriage”, she outwardly proclaimed to her cousin, she said:

“I am not suitable for marriage, due to the affect of frequently free-mixing with these (men), I have lost the most honourable thing I hold (my chastity), the wolves played around with me until they took the most honourable thing I hold, so who would accept me as a wife for him?”

He (the cousin) says (to me), he is consulting with me, he says “shall I conceal her and take her (to marry)? Should I conceal her due to her exposure and accept her as a wife to me, or what should I do?”

What caused her to reach that extent? Because she took sitting around with men as a light matter, so fear Allāh.

We do not wage war against women working, but rather we’re against where a woman works.”

2 April 2018 18:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

beautifully states, “We’re not against women working, but (فك الله أسرہ) Shaykh Khālid ar-Rāshid .”rather against where a woman works

He also states women are more in need of taqwā than qualifications. To work in a free mixing environment or anything that involves prohibitions = Harām and a woman cannot work in such a .place

2 April 2018 17:46

Radwan Dakkak shared الشيخ خالد الراشد's video.

beautifully states, “We’re not against women working, but (فك الله أسرہ) Shaykh Khālid ar-Rāshid .”rather against where a woman works

He also states women are more in need of taqwā than qualifications. To work in a free mixing environment or anything that involves prohibitions = Harām and a woman cannot work in such a .place

2 April 2018 17:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The saying, “Only follow those who are dead” is something I see being taken out of context.

This statement is to simply show the غربة (strangeness) of the Dīn and time, and how few the people of the Haqq will be.

This doesn’t mean we completely abandon every single contemporary scholar, wal-‘Iyāthubillāh!

Infact such a call contradicts the Qur’ān, as Allāh said:

فَاسْأَلُوا أَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ

“Ask the people of knowledge if you’re unsure” [16:43].

If we solely stuck to learning out Dīn from classical scholars, books of the salaf and khalaf, this will bring about serious mistakes within an individual, as he cannot differentiate between authentic and weak, along with the inability to break down their words which require an explanation.

Hence, it’s required upon everyone to honour the ‘Ulamā’ who adhere to the correct Manhaj, as they are the ones who break down the words of the classical scholars and help us understand modern-day matters which afflict the Ummah.

Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said there will be a group of believers who are manifest upon the truth in every era.

Let’s put things in perspective and humble ourselves when seeking knowledge. Keep thanking Allāh and He will give you more.

I believe Akhlāq plays a big role in having the correct ‘Aqīdah, as the humility will render a person open to the truth, pondering over the Qur’ān, Sunnah and sayings of the ‘Ulamā’ in an unbiased way.

And Allāh knows best.

2 April 2018 16:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The saying, “Only follow those who are dead” is something I see being taken out of context.

This statement is to simply show the غربة (strangeness) of the Dīn and time, and how few the people of the Haqq will be.

This doesn’t mean we completely abandon every single contemporary scholar, wal-‘Iyāthubillāh!

Infact such a call contradicts the Qur’ān, as Allāh said:

فَاسْأَلُوا أَهْلَ الذِّكْرِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ

“Ask the people of knowledge if you’re unsure” [16:43].

If we solely stuck to learning out Dīn from classical scholars, books of the salaf and khalaf, this will bring about serious mistakes within an individual, as he cannot differentiate between authentic and weak, along with the inability to break down their words which require an explanation.

Hence, it’s required upon everyone to honour the ‘Ulamā’ who adhere to the correct Manhaj, as they are the ones who break down the words of the classical scholars and help us understand modern-day matters which afflict the Ummah.

Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said there will be a group of believers who are manifest upon the truth in every era.

Let’s put things in perspective and humble ourselves when seeking knowledge. Keep thanking Allāh and He will give you more.

I believe Akhlāq plays a big role in having the correct ‘Aqīdah, as the humility will render a person open to the truth, pondering over the Qur’ān, Sunnah and sayings of the ‘Ulamā’ in an unbiased way.

And Allāh knows best.

2 April 2018 16:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

spoke about the corruption of the scholars and judges (فك الله أسرته) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān :during Ahmad’s time, stating

”judges gave the verdict that Imām Ahmad should be killed 70“

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

spoke about the corruption of the scholars and judges (فك الله أسره) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān :during Ahmad’s time, stating

”judges gave the verdict that Imām Ahmad should be killed 70“

2 April 2018 07:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Ibn al-Jawzī cited a consensus of the Tābi‘īn that clapping (for men) is disliked.” [1].

ونقل ابن الجوزي اجماع التابعين على كراهية التصفيق.

~ Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره).

[1] Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) mentions there’s a dispute whether clapping is harām upon men, and he mentioned based upon the conclusion he’s reached, it’s harām, and Allāh knows best.

2 April 2018 06:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Ibn al-Jawzī cited a consensus of the Tābi‘īn that clapping (for men) is disliked.” [1].

ونقل ابن الجوزي اجماع التابعين على كراهية التصفيق.

~ Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره).

[1] Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) mentions there’s a dispute whether clapping is harām upon men, and he mentioned based upon the conclusion he’s reached, it’s harām, and Allāh knows best.

2 April 2018 06:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The more you ponder over the Tafsīr of Āyāt and Ahādīth by the classical scholars in their books, the more evidences you will acquire to solidify your Manhaj.

#Advice

1 April 2018 18:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The more you ponder over the Tafsīr of Āyāt and Ahādīth by the classical scholars in their books, the more evidences you will acquire to solidify your Manhaj.

#Advice

1 April 2018 18:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Statements from the classical scholars on the importance of believing and following Rasūlullāh when he comes to you and how to know if he’s the truthful and final prophet!

Imām Muhammad Ibn al-Hussayn al-Ājurī (رحمه الله) mentioned in his book “Ash-Sharī‘ah” (1/216):

“Know, may Allāh have mercy upon us and you, that Allāh the most High sent Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) to all of mankind, so that they may affirm His Tawhīd: So that they say there’s no deity worthy of worship except Allāh and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh, so the one who says this with certainty in his heart, professing it with his tongue, that would suffice him, and whoever dies upon this, then he will go to paradise.”

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (2/255-266):

“The religion of Islām is built upon two foundations which are: Actualising the testimony of no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

The first foundation concerning that, is not ascribe another deity to Allāh.

And the second foundation, is to worship Him how He legislated upon the tongue of His Messengers."

In the great book and compilation of the questions and answers of Imām Ahmad specifically in 'Aqīdah entitled, "Ar-Rasā'il wal-Masā'il Fil-'Aqīdah" (1/71), it mentions:

"What is meant by affirmation is compliance, nor mere acknowledgement, as Allāh the most High said:

"And [recall, O People of the Scripture], when Allah took the covenant of the prophets, [saying], "Whatever I give you of the Scripture and wisdom and then there comes to you a messenger confirming what is with you, you [must] believe in him and support him." [ Allah ] said, "Have you acknowledged and taken upon that My commitment?" They said, "We have acknowledged it." He said, "Then bear witness, and I am with you among the witnesses." [3:81].

So the mīthāq taken from them (i.e. the covenant the Prophets testified Allāh with before being born) is that they believe in him and support him, and they were commanded with this.

And this affirmation is not mere acknowledgement (or belief), for indeed Allāh the most High did not inform them with information, but rather obligated that whenever that messenger comes to them, they must believe in him and support him, so they believe in this affirmation and comply with it, so this is their affirmation."

Imām Ibn Taymiyyah mentions in "Al-Istighātha fir-Raddi 'alal Bakri" (page 232-233):

"Rather the Tawhīd which gives salvation: Is the testimony that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh, wherein he affirms that Allāh is the one deserving of worship without anyone besides Him, and that Muhammad is His messenger, so whoever obeys the Messenger, then he has obeyed Allāh, and whoever disobeys the Messenger, then he has disobeyed Allāh, so he must declare lawful what Allāh and His Messenger have declared lawful, and declare unlawful what Allāh and His Messenger have declared unlawful, and to command (others) with what Allāh and His Messenger commanded, and to prohibit (others) from what Allāh and His Messenger prohibited."

The noble Imām and Mujaddid, Shaykh al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentions in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (2/91-93):

"The proof that he's the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) from the 'aql (intellect) and text;

As for the text: That's clear!

As for the 'aql (intellect): The Qur'ān pointed this out, for example: Allāh abandoning His creation without a command nor a prohibition is not befitting in the case of Allāh, and He also pointed this out in His statement:

"And they did not appraise Allah with true appraisal when they said, " Allah did not reveal to a human being anything." Say, "Who revealed the Scripture that Moses brought as light and guidance to the people? You [Jews] make it into pages, disclosing [some of] it and concealing much. And you were taught that which you knew not - neither you nor your fathers." [6:91].

Another example: That the statement of a man, "I am the messenger of Allāh" (to know if it's certainly true), he would either be the best of people, or either be the worst of people and the biggest liar, and differentiating between both types of people is easy, it's determined through numerous ways, and He (Allāh) also pointed that out in His statement:

"Shall I inform you upon whom the devils descend? They descend upon every sinful liar. They pass on what is heard, and most of them are liars." [26:221-223].

Another example: The testimony of Allāh in His statement:

"Say, [O Muhammad], "Sufficient is Allah as Witness between me and you, and [the witness of] whoever has knowledge of the Scripture." [13:43].

Another example: The testimony of the people of the book from what's written in their scripture, as it's mentioned in the (aforementioned) Āyah:

Another example: And it is from the most enormous 'aqlī (intellectual) signs, which is this Qur'ān that Allāh challenged them (kuffār) to bring forth a chapter similar to it.

And if we haven't come to realise that from the aspect of the arabic language, we surely know that via our perception of the severe hostility the inhabitants of this Earth have towards it, their scholars, fluent verbalists (and poets), and Him repeating this (challenge), and them being unable to meet the requirements, hence they didn't bother with that (they gave up), turning towards putting so much effort in claiming it's a lie, and circulating misconceptions among the people.

Another example: Is exactly what we mentioned, which is Allāh's news (to us) that no one will be able to provide a chapter similar to it until the day of judgement, and it is exactly how He said it, despite the overwhelming numbers of His enemies in every era, and what they were given from fluency, completeness and knowledge.

Another example: The support given by his followers, even if they were from among the weakest of people.

Another example: The betrayal of his enemies, and the torture he received (by them) in this world, even if they were the majority of the people and the most powerful (in society).

Another example: That he's an illiterate man who cannot write nor read handwriting, nor did he learn from the scholars, nor did any of his enemies claim that, despite the overwhelming lies (they spread about him) and their malice slander, but despite all this, he came with knowledge which the earlier scriptures came with, as Allāh said:

"And you did not recite before it any scripture, nor did you inscribe one with your right hand. Otherwise the falsifiers would have had [cause for] doubt." [29:48].

May the peace and blessings be upon the most noble of prophets and messengers, our beloved and final Prophet Muhammad.

1 April 2018 17:07

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Statements from the classical scholars on the importance of believing and following Rasūlullāh when he comes to you and how to know if he's the truthful and final prophet!

Imām Muhammad Ibn al-Hussayn al-Ājurī (رحمه الله) mentioned in his book "Ash-Sharī'ah" (1/216):

"Know, may Allāh have mercy upon us and you, that Allāh the most High sent Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) to all of mankind, so that they may affirm His Tawhīd: So that they say there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh, so the one who says this with certainty in his heart, professing it with his tongue, that would suffice him, and whoever dies upon this, then he will go to paradise."

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (2/255-266):

"The religion of Islām is built upon two foundations which are: Actualising the testimony of no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

The first foundation concerning that, is not ascribe another deity to Allāh.

And the second foundation, is to worship Him how He legislated upon the tongue of His Messengers."

In the great book and compilation of the questions and answers of Imām Ahmad specifically in 'Aqīdah entitled, "Ar-Rasā'il wal-Masā'il Fil-'Aqīdah" (1/71), it mentions:

"What is meant by affirmation is compliance, nor mere acknowledgement, as Allāh the most High said:

"And [recall, O People of the Scripture], when Allah took the covenant of the prophets, [saying], "Whatever I give you of the Scripture and wisdom and then there comes to you a messenger confirming what is with you, you [must] believe in him and support him." [ Allah ] said, "Have you acknowledged and taken upon that My commitment?" They said, "We have acknowledged it." He said, "Then bear witness, and I am with you among the witnesses." [3:81].

So the mīthāq taken from them (i.e. the covenant the Prophets testified Allāh with before being born) is that they believe in him and support him, and they were commanded with this.

And this affirmation is not mere acknowledgement (or belief), for indeed Allāh the most High did not inform them with information, but rather obligated that whenever that messenger comes to them, they must believe in him and support him, so they believe in this affirmation and comply with it, so this is their affirmation."

Imām Ibn Taymiyyah mentions in "Al-Istighātha fir-Raddi 'alal Bakrī" (page 232-233):

"Rather the Tawhīd which gives salvation: Is the testimony that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh, wherein he affirms that Allāh is the one deserving of worship without anyone besides Him, and that Muhammad is His messenger, so whoever obeys the Messenger, then he has obeyed Allāh, and whoever disobeys the Messenger, then he has disobeyed Allāh, so he must declare lawful what Allāh and His Messenger have declared lawful, and declare unlawful what Allāh and His Messenger have declared unlawful, and to command (others) with what Allāh and His Messenger commanded, and to prohibit (others) from what Allāh and His Messenger prohibited."

The noble Imām and Mujaddid, Shaykh al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentions in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (2/91-93):

"The proof that he's the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) from the 'aql (intellect) and text;

As for the text: That's clear!

As for the 'aql (intellect): The Qur'ān pointed this out, for example: Allāh abandoning His creation without a command nor a prohibition is not befitting in the case of Allāh, and He also pointed this out in His statement:

"And they did not appraise Allah with true appraisal when they said, " Allah did not reveal to a human being anything." Say, "Who revealed the Scripture that Moses brought as light and guidance to the people? You [Jews] make it into pages, disclosing [some of] it and concealing much. And you were taught that which you knew not - neither you nor your fathers." [6:91].

Another example: That the statement of a man, "I am the messenger of Allāh" (to know if it's certainly true), he would either be the best of people, or either be the worst of people and the biggest liar, and differentiating between both types of people is easy, it's determined through numerous ways, and He (Allāh) also pointed that out in His statement:

"Shall I inform you upon whom the devils descend? They descend upon every sinful liar. They pass on what is heard, and most of them are liars." [26:221-223].

Another example: The testimony of Allāh in His statement:

"Say, [O Muhammad], "Sufficient is Allah as Witness between me and you, and [the witness of] whoever has knowledge of the Scripture." [13:43].

Another example: The testimony of the people of the book from what's written in their scripture, as it's mentioned in the (aforementioned) Āyah:

Another example: And it is from the most enormous 'aqlī (intellectual) signs, which is this Qur'ān that Allāh challenged them (kuffār) to bring forth a chapter similar to it.

And if we haven't come to realise that from the aspect of the arabic language, we surely know that via our perception of the severe hostility the inhabitants of this Earth have towards it, their scholars, fluent verbalists (and poets), and Him repeating this (challenge), and them being unable to meet the requirements, hence they didn't bother with that (they gave up), turning towards putting so much effort in claiming it's a lie, and circulating misconceptions among the people.

Another example: Is exactly what we mentioned, which is Allāh's news (to us) that no one will be able to provide a chapter similar to it until the day of judgement, and it is exactly how He said it, despite the overwhelming numbers of His enemies in every era, and what they were given from fluency, completeness and knowledge.

Another example: The support given by his followers, even if they were from among the weakest of people.

Another example: The betrayal of his enemies, and the torture he received (by them) in this world, even if they were the majority of the people and the most powerful (in society).

Another example: That he's an illiterate man who cannot write nor read handwriting, nor did he learn from the scholars, nor did any of his enemies claim that, despite the overwhelming lies (they spread about him) and their malice slander, but despite all this, he came with knowledge which the earlier scriptures came with, as Allāh said:

"And you did not recite before it any scripture, nor did you inscribe one with your right hand. Otherwise the falsifiers would have had [cause for] doubt." [29:48].

May the peace and blessings be upon the most noble of prophets and messengers, our beloved and final Prophet Muhammad.

1 April 2018 17:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Salaf_Stories_Twenty_One

Ibn al-Mubarak: "I borrowed a pen in Syria and I forgot to return it to its owner.."

Abu Hasan al-Basri Isa ibn Abdullah said: I heard al-Hasan ibn Arafah saying:

[Abdullah] Ibn al-Mubarak said to me:

I borrowed a pen in Syria and I forgot to return it to its owner. When I came back to Marw [in Iran], I realised that this pen is still with me. So I went back to Syria and returned it to its owner».

(Khatib «Tareekh» 10/167)

1 April 2018 14:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas kafir murtad

1 April 2018 14:29

Bin Salman aids US economy with 700 billion this year + 716 billion for the next (1.416 trillion) creating 40,000 jobs in US, for military equipments - some of not all - yet to be made.

1 April 2018 13:45

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ibrahim At-Tounsi Dabboussi Ahmed Al Shami

1 April 2018 13:52

Abū Aslam Al-Athāri I can see trump is so excited...

1 April 2018 14:16

Dauda Muhammed Jamiu Bn Salam's becoming a celebrity!

1 April 2018 16:03

Hamzah Ibn Yahya whos the parasite in the background portrait? bet its that sykes picot mutt lol..

1 April 2018 17:20

Bin Salman aids US economy with 700 billion this year + 716 billion for the next (1.416 trillion) creating 40,000 jobs in US, for military equipments - some of not all - yet to be made.

1 April 2018 13:44

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<http://sunniconnect.com/s7/index.php/category/167-imam-anwar-awlaki>

Transcript collection for the lectures of Imām Anwar al-‘Awlakī (تقيله الله)!!!

<http://sunniconnect.com/s7/index.php/category/167-imam-anwar-awlaki>

1 April 2018 13:40

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<http://sunniconnect.com/s7/index.php/category/167-imam-anwar-awlaki>

<http://sunniconnect.com/s7/index.php/category/167-imam-anwar-awlaki>

Transcript collection for the lectures of Imām Anwar al-‘Awlakī (تقيله الله)!!!

1 April 2018 13:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

What is the meaning of الحجر (al-Hajr) according to the arabic language?

The word الحجر means المنع (prevention) and التصيق (limitation).

For this reason, Masjid al-Harām was called حَجْرًا (Hijran) because there are preventions, you are prevented from doing harām.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions in Sūrat al-Furqān:

وَيَقُولُونَ حَجْرًا مَّحْجُورًا

“And [the angels] will say, حَجْرًا (i.e. harām — “forbidden”) and محجورا (i.e. muharram — “banned”).” [25:22].

And for this reason, the ‘aql (intellect) was also called حَجْرًا (hijran), as Allāh mentions in the glorious Qur’ān in Sūrat al-Fajr:

هَلْ فِي ذَلِكَ قَسَمٌ لِّذِي حِجْرٍ

“Is there [not] in [all] that an oath [sufficient] for one حَجْر (who understands)?” [89:5]

Because the عقل (intellect) prevents one from doing things that disgrace and belittle him.

والله أعلم

#Linguistic_benefit

1 April 2018 12:40

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

What is the meaning of الحجر (al-Hajr) according to the arabic language?

The word الحجر means المنع (prevention) and التضييق (limitation).

For this reason, Masjid al-Harām was called حِجْرًا (Hijran) because there are preventions, you are prevented from doing harām.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions in Sūrat al-Furqān:

وَيَقُولُونَ حِجْرًا مَّحْجُورًا

“And [the angels] will say, حِجْرًا (i.e. harām — “forbidden”) and محجورا (i.e. muharram — “banned”).” [25:22].

And for this reason, the ‘aql (intellect) was also called حِجْرًا (hijran), as Allāh mentions in the glorious Qur’ān in Sūrat al-Fajr:

هَلْ فِي ذَلِكَ قَسَمٌ لِّذِي حِجْرٍ

“Is there [not] in [all] that an oath [sufficient] for one حِجْر (who understands)?” [89:5]

Because the عقل (intellect) prevents one from doing things that disgrace and belittle him.

والله أعلم

#Linguistic_benefit

1 April 2018 12:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

☺☺☺

1 April 2018 09:29

Radwan Dakkak shared IlmFeed's video.

1 April 2018 09:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. How much Thikr should we make every day, 1000 or more?

A. There's no specific limitation that I'm aware of, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى beautifully addresses me and you by saying:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ ذِكْرًا كَثِيرًا

“O you who have believed, remember Allāh with alot of Thikr.” [33:41]

1 April 2018 09:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. How much Thikr should we make every day, 1000 or more?

A. There's no specific limitation that I'm aware of, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى beautifully addresses me and you by saying:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ ذِكْرًا كَثِيرًا

“O you who have believed, remember Allāh with alot of Thikr.” [33:41]

Radwan Dakkak shared Gems of shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibril's post.

1 April 2018 06:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

1 April 2018 06:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. “and keep good relations with your family”, does this also apply to family who are not Muslim?

A. The mujāhideen have several fatāwā explaining these masā'il related to the ruling on upholding ties with kāfir family members; I'll give a brief summary إن شاء الله:

Imām Muslim (رحمه الله) wrote the following chapter-heading in his “Sahih”:

Chapter 93: Allegiance to the believers, and forsaking others and disavowing them.

‘Amr Ibn al-‘Ās (رضي الله عنه) reported — I heard it from the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) quite audibly and not secretly:

“Behold! the posterity of my fathers, that is, so and so, are not my friends. Verily Allah and the pious believers are my friends.” [Sahīh Muslim, #215].

Imām an-Nawawī (رحمه الله) comments upon this hadīth by saying:

معنى الحديث أن وليي من كان صالحا وإن بعد مني نسبه ، وليس وليي من كان غير صالح وإن قرب مني نسبه

“The meaning of the hadīth is that my friends are those who are righteous, even if their lineage is far away from me, and my friends are not those who aren't righteous, even if their lineage is close to me.”

Imām al-Qurtubī (رحمه الله) also mentions concerning this hadīth:

فائدة الحديث انقطاع الولاية في الدين بين المسلم والكافر ولو كان قريبا حميما

“The benefit derived from the hadīth is disconnecting guardianship in Dīn between the muslim and kāfir, even if he was a close family member.”

Imām Ibn Battāl (رحمه الله) also mentions:

ويستفاد من هذا أن الرحم المأمور بصلتها والمتوعد على قطعها هي التي شرع لها ذلك ، فأما من أمر بقطعه من أجل الدين فيستثنى من ذلك ، ولا يلحق بالوعيد من قطعه لأنه قطع من أمر الله بقطعه ، لكن لو وصلوا بما يباح من أمر الدنيا لكان فضلا ، كما دعا - صلى الله عليه وسلم - لقريش بعد أن كانوا كذبوه

“What may be benefitted from this is that the relatives who are ordered to keep ties with and the punishable threat on whoever disconnects it is concerning what has been legislated concerning that.

But as for those who have been ordered to disconnect from due to Dīn, then that's an exception, and the punishable threat is not tagged along with whoever cuts it, because he cut off what Allāh commanded him to cut off.

However, if they keep contact with what's permissible from the affairs of the dunyā, that would be praiseworthy, just like the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) called out to Quraysh after they belied him.”

Keeping ties for da'wah purposes is praiseworthy Inshā'Allāh, so that they may be guided by Allāh.

Moreover, the scholars even mention that it's valid to boycott a fāsiq if there's a shar'i (valid - legislated) reason to do so, such as trying to make him repent and stop his sins, but generally speaking keeping ties with him is wājib as he has the rights of a muslim.

And it's also necessary upon you that you don't attend gatherings with relatives which consist of harām and munkar.

I hope this helps, and Allāh knows best.

1 April 2018 01:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. “and keep good relations with your family”, does this also apply to family who are not Muslim?

A. The mujāhideen have several fatāwā explaining these masā'il related to the ruling on upholding ties with kāfir family members; I'll give a brief summary إن شاء الله:

Imām Muslim (رحمه الله) wrote the following chapter-heading in his "Sahīh":

Chapter 93: Allegiance to the believers, and forsaking others and disavowing them.

'Amr Ibn al-ʿĀs (رضي الله عنه) reported — I heard it from the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) quite audibly and not secretly:

"Behold! the posterity of my fathers, that is, so and so, are not my friends. Verily Allah and the pious believers are my friends." [Sahīh Muslim, #215].

Imām an-Nawawī (رحمه الله) comments upon this hadīth by saying:

معنى الحديث أن وليي من كان صالحا وإن بعد مني نسبه ، وليس وليي من كان غير صالح وإن قرب مني نسبه

"The meaning of the hadīth is that my friends are those who are righteous, even if their lineage is far away from me, and my friends are not those who aren't righteous, even if their lineage is close to me."

Imām al-Qurtubī (رحمه الله) also mentions concerning this hadīth:

فائدة الحديث انقطاع الولاية في الدين بين المسلم والكافر ولو كان قريبا حميما

"The benefit derived from the hadīth is disconnecting guardianship in Dīn between the muslim and kāfir, even if he was a close family member."

Imām Ibn Battāl (رحمه الله) also mentions:

ويستفاد من هذا أن الرحم المأمور بصلتها والمتوعد على قطعها هي التي شرع لها ذلك ، فأما من أمر بقطعه من أجل الدين فيستثنى من ذلك ، ولا يلحق بالوعيد من قطعه لأنه قطع من أمر الله بقطعه ، لكن لو وصلوا بما يباح من أمر الدنيا لكان فصلا ، كما دعا - صلى الله عليه وسلم - لقريش بعد أن كانوا كذّبوه

"What may be benefitted from this is that the relatives who are ordered to keep ties with and the punishable threat on whoever disconnects it is concerning what has been legislated concerning that.

But as for those who have been ordered to disconnect from due to Dīn, then that's an exception, and the punishable threat is not tagged along with whoever cuts it, because he cut off what Allāh commanded him to cut off.

However, if they keep contact with what's permissible from the affairs of the dunyā, that would be praiseworthy, just like the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) called out to Quraysh after they belied him."

Keeping ties for da'wah purposes is praiseworthy Inshā'Allāh, so that they may be guided by Allāh.

Moreover, the scholars even mention that it's valid to boycott a fāsiq if there's a shar'i (valid - legislated) reason to do so, such as trying to make him repent and stop his sins, but generally speaking keeping ties with him is wājib as he has the rights of a muslim.

And it's also necessary upon you that you don't attend gatherings with relatives which consist of harām and munkar.

I hope this helps, and Allāh knows best.

1 April 2018 01:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali just smile or mumble away what sounds like a salaam ☺

31 March 2018 10:36

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Vanessa Fahd Tasbieh Em will always be my fave

31 March 2018 15:58

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Omar Muhammad Lol abdullah deen

1 April 2018 18:18

When a mushrik wants to greet you.

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abū Ḥafṣ Al-Ḥanbalī ALL KUFFAH, ALL KUFFAH! Love this brother. ♥ Maher Al-Shakury
31 March 2018 15:56

Rabieh El-kay Savage Imaooo
31 March 2018 18:09

When a mushrik wants to greet you.

31 March 2018 10:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

said, "What you must know is that the scholar is not determined by (رحمه الله) Imām al-Barbahārī many narrations and books, however the scholar is the one who follows the Kitāb and Sunnah, even if his knowledge and books were little, and whoever opposes the Kitāb and Sunnah, then he's a ".person of bid'ah, even if his narrations and books were many

.(Refer to "Tabaqāt al-Hanābilah" (2/30 —

31 March 2018 10:06

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

said, "What you must know is that the scholar is not determined by (رحمه الله) Imām al-Barbahārī many narrations and books, however the scholar is the one who follows the Kitāb and Sunnah, even if his knowledge and books were little, and whoever opposes the Kitāb and Sunnah, then he's a ".person of bid'ah, even if his narrations and books were many

.(Refer to "Tabaqāt al-Hanābilah" (2/30 —

31 March 2018 10:06

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Does anyone have the amazing series by brother Mūsā Cerantonio (فك الله أسرهم) concerning the history of the Philippines and other islamic lands which he spoke about?

Unfortunately they have been taken down from youtube, and my ex-laptop died (one of the few things I didn't save).

جزاكم الله خيراً

31 March 2018 10:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://justpaste.it/1izm9>

Old translations from Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) which I haven't shared here before (50 pages):

<https://justpaste.it/1izm9>

31 March 2018 08:06

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://justpaste.it/1izm9>

<https://justpaste.it/1izm9>

Old translations from Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) which I haven't shared here before (50 pages):

31 March 2018 08:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Ibn al-Jawzī said: “Allāh has ordered us to lower the gaze because it is the path to a pure heart.”

[تلييس إبليس صفحة ٣٨٦]

31 March 2018 07:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Ibn al-Jawzī said: “Allāh has ordered us to lower the gaze because it is the path to a pure heart.”

[تلييس إبليس صفحة ٣٨٦]

31 March 2018 07:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“It is upon us to return to our ‘Aqīdah and our Dīn and exemplify the order of Allāh – the High and Majestic – in His ruling on the kuffār.

No doubt, that every Muslim who takes Islām as a Dīn, then he must make takfīr on the mushrikīn and display enmity towards them, and he should hate them, and hate those who love them, or argues on behalf of them, or goes to their lands without a shar’i (valid – legislated) excuse that pleases Allāh and His Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

It is upon every Muslim to return to his Dīn, for with it honour is attained, with it victory is attained, with it the lands are straightened, and with it the Furqān (distinction) is attained between the Awliyā (allies) of the Most Merciful who aid his Dīn and between the Awliyā (allies) of Shaytān, who do not mind what happens to the Dīn as long as their food and drink is given to them.”

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

31 March 2018 07:34

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“It is upon us to return to our ‘Aqīdah and our Dīn and exemplify the order of Allāh – the High and Majestic – in His ruling on the kuffār.

No doubt, that every Muslim who takes Islām as a Dīn, then he must make takfīr on the mushrikīn and display enmity towards them, and he should hate them, and hate those who love them, or argues on behalf of them, or goes to their lands without a shar’i (valid – legislated) excuse that pleases Allāh and His Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

It is upon every Muslim to return to his Dīn, for with it honour is attained, with it victory is attained, with it the lands are straightened, and with it the Furqān (distinction) is attained between the Awliyā (allies) of the Most Merciful who aid his Dīn and between the Awliyā (allies) of Shaytān, who do not mind what happens to the Dīn as long as their food and drink is given to them.”

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

31 March 2018 07:34

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There’s an amazing hadīth in saḥīḥ Muslim, authentic hadīth about two monkeys. A saḥābī has seen them, they were sleeping next to each other. One of them, the female, left and went to another monkey [man] at night and they committed adultery. When they woke up, the husband, the first one where she supposed to be, noticed that. You know what they did? They stone them. Authentic hadīth. The saḥābī went to the Prophet Muhammed صلى الله عليه وسلم and told him the story. Even the animals do it because it’s just. So they were sleeping and the female woke up slowly and left her husband and she went to another monkey, when the husband noticed that, he woke up from a smell or from something noticed that his wife was unfaithful, and then they gather, they put them in a circle and began to stone them.

Monkeys are better than us these days.

- Shaykh Ahmād Mūsā Jibrīل حفظه

31 March 2018 06:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

said, “The first sunnah that the muslims abandoned was leaving early (رحمه الله) Imām az-Zarkashī

."for jum'ah

:said (صلى الله عليه وسلم) Rasūlullāh

Any person who takes a bath on Friday like the bath of Janaba and then goes for the prayer (in the“ first hour i.e. early), it is as if he had sacrificed a camel (in Allah's cause); and whoever goes in the second hour it is as if he had sacrificed a cow; and whoever goes in the third hour, then it is as if he had sacrificed a horned ram; and if one goes in the fourth hour, then it is as if he had sacrificed a hen; and whoever goes in the fifth hour then it is as if he had offered an egg. When the Imam comes out (i.e. starts delivering the Khutba), the angels present themselves to listen to the .[Khutba.” [Agreed upon

30 March 2018 21:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

said, "The first sunnah that the muslims abandoned was leaving early (رحمه الله) Imām az-Zarkashī .”for jum'ah

:said (صلى الله عليه وسلم) Rasūlullāh

Any person who takes a bath on Friday like the bath of Janaba and then goes for the prayer (in the“ first hour i.e. early), it is as if he had sacrificed a camel (in Allah's cause); and whoever goes in the second hour it is as if he had sacrificed a cow; and whoever goes in the third hour, then it is as if he had sacrificed a horned ram; and if one goes in the fourth hour, then it is as if he had sacrificed a hen; and whoever goes in the fifth hour then it is as if he had offered an egg. When the Imam comes out (i.e. starts delivering the Khutba), the angels present themselves to listen to the .[Khutba.” [Agreed upon

30 March 2018 21:51

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youcaring.com/rahimakarim-1123619>

<https://www.youcaring.com/rahimakarim-1123619>

URGENT HELP NEEDED

Assalamu Alaykum or Hello, my beloved niece Rahima (7 months old) is back home in Bangladesh and has pulmonary hypertension - a rare heart disease which is fatal without an operation. The cardiologist said her chances of survival is very slim if she does not undergo surgery in the next few months. Unfortunately, doctors have turned Rahima away as they are unable to perform the surgery in Bangladesh or India as they simply do not have skilled surgeons to proceed with the surgery they have 5 weeks left to raise the money Subhan'Allah

Please donate even as little as you can

30 March 2018 18:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Allah says, "And those who disbelieved are allies of one another. If you do not do so, there will be fitnah on earth and great corruption." [8:73]

The great Mufasssir al-Biqaa'ee (رحمه الله) comments upon this Ayah:

"Meaning; If you do not support one another like the kuffar and people of fisq do, there will be fitnah..."

~ Taken from his book affirming that Waraqah (the scholar and cousin of Khadeejah) was a muwahhid who became a Sahabi.

30 March 2018 16:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Allah says, "And those who disbelieved are allies of one another. If you do not do so, there will be fitnah on earth and great corruption." [8:73]

The great Mufasssir al-Biqaa'ee (رحمه الله) comments upon this Ayah:

"Meaning; If you do not support one another like the kuffar and people of fisq do, there will be fitnah..."

~ Taken from his book affirming that Waraqah (the scholar and cousin of Khadeejah) was a muwahhid who became a Sahabi.

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"And that He might make evident those who are hypocrites. For it was said to them, "Come, fight in the way of Allah or [at least] defend." They said, "If we had known [there would be] fighting, we would have followed you." They were nearer to disbelief that day than to faith, saying with their mouths what was not in their hearts. And Allah is most Knowing of what they conceal." [3:167]

30 March 2018 16:03

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"And that He might make evident those who are hypocrites. For it was said to them, "Come, fight in the way of Allah or [at least] defend." They said, "If we had known [there would be] fighting, we would have followed you." They were nearer to disbelief that day than to faith, saying with their mouths what was not in their hearts. And Allah is most Knowing of what they conceal." [3:167]

30 March 2018 16:02

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youcaring.com/samrahman-987708>
<https://www.youcaring.com/samrahman-987708>

As salamu alaikum

The family of Samiun Rahman are trying to raise as much as they can to support Br Samiun, remember especially with blessed month of Ramadan approaching we have to be extra generous to those who have been abandoned and neglected by the Muslim community remember its you guys who are going to make it happened please try and donate generously and Insha'Allah Allāh will elevate your good deeds Because Allāh love those who give for his sake.

May Allāh accept it from you. امين

Khālīd Ibn Mi'dān:

If an opportunity of good opens up for you, hasten towards it, for you do not know when it will close.

[al-Siyar 4/540]

Please share if you can't donate maybe because of you someone else will contribute

Donation: <https://www.youcaring.com/samrahman-987708>

Brother Samiun has requested if brothers and sisters could send him beginners learning books in Urdu and to support him every month financially, inbox me if you would like to join me to assist him every month إن شاء الله.

You can now post him clothes & books directly to,

[Consular section
British high commissioner
New Delhi
Shantipath,
Chanakyapuri
New Delhi 110021
India]

You don't have to put who it's from, just put a note inside the parcel with his name (SamiunRahman) son of Hamdu Miah. Please once you have posted the items it's important to let me know so we can inform the (FCO) so they can look out for it.

Remember your duty to support the prisoners.

30 March 2018 08:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.youcaring.com/samrahman-987708>

As salamu alaikum

The family of Samiun Rahman are trying to raise as much as they can to support Br Samiun, remember especially with blessed month of Ramadan approaching we have to be extra generous to those who have been abandoned and neglected by the Muslim community remember its you guys who are going to make it happened please try and donate generously and Insha'Allah Allāh will elevate your good deeds Because Allāh love those who give for his sake.

May Allāh accept it from you. امين

Khālid Ibn Mi'dān:

If an opportunity of good opens up for you, hasten towards it, for you do not know when it will close.

[al-Siyar 4/540]

Please share if you can't donate maybe because of you someone else will contribute

Donation: <https://www.youcaring.com/samrahman-987708>

Brother Samiun has requested if brothers and sisters could send him beginners learning books in Urdu and to support him every month financially, inbox me if you would like to join me to assist him every month إن شاء الله.

You can now post him clothes & books directly to,

[Consular section
British high commissioner
New Delhi
Shantipath,
Chanakyapuri
New Delhi 110021
India]

You don't have to put who it's from, just put a note inside the parcel with his name (SamiunRahman) son of Hamdu Miah. Please once you have posted the items it's important to let me know so we can inform the (FCO) so they can look out for it.

Remember your duty to support the prisoners.

30 March 2018 08:03

Radwan Dakkak shared a memory.

30 March 2018 07:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"Nun. By the pen and what they inscribe,
You are not, [O Muhammad], by the favor of your Lord, a madman.
And indeed, for you is a reward without end.
And indeed, you are of a great moral character.
So you will see and they will see
Which of you is the afflicted [by a devil].
Indeed, your Lord is most knowing of who has gone astray from His way, and He is most knowing of the [rightly] guided." [68:1-7].

29 March 2018 20:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"Nun. By the pen and what they inscribe,
You are not, [O Muhammad], by the favor of your Lord, a madman.
And indeed, for you is a reward without end.
And indeed, you are of a great moral character.
So you will see and they will see
Which of you is the afflicted [by a devil].
Indeed, your Lord is most knowing of who has gone astray from His way, and He is most knowing of the [rightly] guided." [68:1-7].

29 March 2018 20:54

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

If you want success in the dunyā and ākhirah, hide your good deeds without mentioning anything except in a real need or necessity.

The praise and blame of mankind will not benefit you. Always be conscious that Allāh is the one holding you to account, turn to Allāh and ask Him for forgiveness.

29 March 2018 20:32

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

If you want success in the dunyā and ākhirah, hide your good deeds without mentioning anything except in a real need or necessity.

The praise and blame of mankind will not benefit you. Always be conscious that Allāh is the one holding you to account, turn to Allāh and ask Him for forgiveness.

29 March 2018 20:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

What is this craziness?!

Shaykh ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Āl ash-Shaykh (رحمه الله) mentioned the following in his book entitled, “Minhāj at-Ta’sīs wat-Taqdīs” (1/51):

“What has reached us from some scholars of Zabīd, is that two men intended to go towards Tā’if, so one of them told his companion, and the one being asked is someone who claims to be knowledgeable;

(He asks): The people of Tā’if do not know Allāh, they only know Ibn ‘Abbās.

He answered: That them knowing about Ibn ‘Abbās is sufficient, because he (Ibn ‘Abbās) knows Allāh.

What millah, may Allāh safeguard the millah of Islām, would not prevent such disbelief nor repel it?!

Az-Zabīdī also mentioned that a man was in makkah at some shrines, so he said to those around him, I want to go make Tawāf (around the ka’bah), so one of their ghuḷāt replied; The place you’re stationed right here (at the shrine) is more noble (than the ka’bah)!”

29 March 2018 15:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

What is this craziness?!

Shaykh ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Āl ash-Shaykh (رحمه الله) mentioned the following in his book entitled, “Minhāj at-Ta’sīs wat-Taqdīs” (1/51):

“What has reached us from some scholars of Zabīd, is that two men intended to go towards Tā’if, so one of them told his companion, and the one being asked is someone who claims to be knowledgeable;

(He asks): The people of Tā’if do not know Allāh, they only know Ibn ‘Abbās.

He answered: That them knowing about Ibn ‘Abbās is sufficient, because he (Ibn ‘Abbās) knows Allāh.

What millah, may Allāh safeguard the millah of Islām, would not prevent such disbelief nor repel it?!

Az-Zabīdī also mentioned that a man was in makkah at some shrines, so he said to those around him, I want to go make Tawāf (around the ka’bah), so one of their ghuḷāt replied; The place you’re stationed right here (at the shrine) is more noble (than the ka’bah)!”

29 March 2018 15:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

**Statements from some shuyūkh concerning Sayyid Qutb****

Shaykh Bakr Abū Zayd wrote:

وجدت في كتبه خيرًا كثيرًا وإيمانًا مشرقًا وحقًا أبلغ...والرجل كان أدبيًا نقادة، ثم اتجه إلى خدمة الإسلام من خلال القرآن العظيم والسنة المشرفة، والسيرة النبوية العطرة... فالواجب على الجميع الدعاء له بالمغفرة والاستفادة من علمه، وبيان ما تحققنا خطأه فيه، وأن خطأه لا يوجب حرماننا من علمه ولا هجر كتبه

“I have found alot of goodness, honourable Īmān and transparent truth in his books — and the man was a literary critic, then he turned towards serving Islām through the magnificent Qur’ān, honourable Sunnah, and pure glorious Seerah of the Prophet — What’s required from everyone is to make du’ā for him with forgiveness and to benefit from his knowledge, and clarifying what we have verified from mistakes in it, and that his mistakes don’t necessitate forbidding ourselves from his knowledge, nor to boycott his books.”

Shaykh Ibn ‘Uthaymīn (may Allāh forgive him) said:

سيد قطب انتقل من دار العمل إلى دار الجزاء، والله تعالى حسبي، وكذلك غيره من أهل العلم. أما الحق فيجب قبوله سواء جاء من سيد قطب أو من غيره، والباطل يجب رده سواء كان من سيد قطب أو من غيره، ويجب التحذير من أي باطل كُتب أو شُيع سواء من هذا أو من هذا، من أي إنسان. هذه نصيحتي لإخواننا، ولا ينبغي أن يكون الحديث والمخاصمة والأخذ والرد في شخص بعينه. أما سيد قطب فأرأي في آثاره أنه مثل غيره، فيه حق وباطل، ليس أحد معصوماً

“Sayyid Qutb moved from the abode of deeds to the abode of recompense, and Allāh is the one who holds him to account, and likewise other than him from the people of knowledge. Concerning the truth, it’s necessary to accept it, whether it came from Sayyid Qutb or from anyone else, and falsehood must be rejected, whether it came from Sayyid Qutb or anyone else.

It’s obligatory to warn against any form of falsehood that’s written or heart, whether from this person or from that person, from anyone. This is my advice to our brothers, and the discussions, disputing, going back and forth shouldn’t happen concerning a specific person. As for Sayyid Qutb, my opinion concerning what he left behind is that he’s like anyone else, it contains truth and falsehood, no one is infallible.”

Shaykh Ibn Bāz (may Allāh forgive him) was asked about a book by Sayyid Qutb, so he responded by saying:

لم أقرأه، ولكن بلغني عنه أنه لا بأس به، كتب سيد قطب كتب مفيدة ونافعة، وليس معناها أنه ليس فيها خطأ، كل عالم له بعض الأخطاء والأغلاط، لكن لم أقرأ الكتاب، وهو فيما بلغني كتاب مفيد ومؤثر، رحم الله مؤلفه

“I haven’t read it, however it has reached me that there’s nothing wrong concerning it. The books of Sayyid Qutb are beneficial and useful, but this doesn’t mean that it doesn’t contain mistakes, every ‘Ālim (scholar) has some mistakes and faults, however I did not read the book, but what has reached me is that it’s a beneficial and an influentially affective book, may Allāh have mercy upon its author.”

Some may bring up that the great Hāfidh and Muhaddith, Shaykh ‘Abdullāh ad-Duwaysh (رحمه الله) wrote a book clarifying 200+ mistakes found in Sayyid Qutb’s tafsīr book, “In the shade of the Qur’ān”.

And this was a beautiful criticism, to clarify the truth and refute mistakes and deviations in several matters that Sayyid Qutb fell into, may Allāh forgive him.

But if they were sincere, why don’t they also mention that the Hāfidh, Shaykh ‘Abdullāh ad-Duwaysh (رحمه الله) also wrote a book criticising Shaykh al-Albānī’s mistakes in hadīth, entitled “Notifying the reader on strengthening what Albānī weakened, and what follows is, notifying the reader on weakening what Albānī strengthened” [1].

Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn Bāz (may Allāh forgive him) also wrote an introduction for this book. But the reality of the matter is, the Murji’ah have hidden the flaws of shuyūkh such as Al-Albānī (who was pure murji’ in ‘Aqīdah, excluding all actions from nullifiers of Īmān), but they selectively chose to pounce on Sayyid Qutb, who we all admit had mistakes as well.

The beautiful thing about Ahlus-sunnah is what Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) said, they are the most fair and merciful to the creation. So despite the errors of the scholars, we still respect the knowledge they have left behind, and leave their account to Allāh.

However, the madākhilah jahmiyyah (may Allāh destroy them) have pure hostility to Sayyid Qutb because he confronted the Tawāghīṭ, revived the spirit of Jihād and Hākimiyyah. This is why they don’t only make barā’ah from him, but they make barā’ah from everyone who refuses or even ‘doubts’ to make barā’ah from him, similar to the modern-day khawārij in their unrestricted application of the 3rd nullifier.

This is a very brief summary concerning Sayyid Qutb (رحمه الله), without getting into details, and Allāh knows best.

29 March 2018 11:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

**Statements from some shuyūkh concerning Sayyid Qutb****

Shaykh Bakr Abū Zayd wrote:

وجدت في كتبه خيرًا كثيرًا وإيمانًا مشرفًا وحققًا أبلغ...والرجل كان أدبيًا نقادة، ثم اتجه إلى خدمة الإسلام من خلال القرآن العظيم والسنة المشرفة، والسيرة النبوية العطرة... فالواجب على الجميع الدعاء له بالمغفرة والاستفادة من علمه، وبيان ما تحققنا خطأه فيه، وأن خطأه لا يوجب حرماننا من علمه ولا هجر كتبه

“I have found alot of goodness, honourable Īmān and transparent truth in his books — and the man was a literary critic, then he turned towards serving Islām through the magnificent Qur’ān, honourable Sunnah, and pure glorious Seerah of the Prophet — What’s required from everyone is to make du’ā for him with forgiveness and to benefit from his knowledge, and clarifying what we have verified from mistakes in it, and that his mistakes don’t necessitate forbidding ourselves from his knowledge, nor to boycott his books.”

Shaykh Ibn ‘Uthaymīn (may Allāh forgive him) said:

سيد قطب انتقل من دار العمل إلى دار الجزاء، والله تعالى حسبي، وكذلك غيره من أهل العلم. أما الحق

فيجب قبوله سواء جاء من سيد قطب أو من غيره، والباطل يجب رده سواء كان من سيد قطب أو من غيره، ويجب التحذير من أي باطل كُتب أو شُيع سواء من هذا أو من هذا، من أي إنسان. هذه نصيحتي لإخواننا، ولا ينبغي أن يكون الحديث والمخاصمة والأخذ والرد في شخص بعينه. أما سيد قطب فرأيي في آثاره أنه مثل غيره، فيه حق وباطل، ليس أحد معصوماً

“Sayyid Qutb moved from the abode of deeds to the abode of recompense, and Allāh is the one who holds him to account, and likewise other than him from the people of knowledge. Concerning the truth, it’s necessary to accept it, whether it came from Sayyid Qutb or from anyone else, and falsehood must be rejected, whether it came from Sayyid Qutb or anyone else.

It’s obligatory to warn against any form of falsehood that’s written or heart, whether from this person or from that person, from anyone. This is my advice to our brothers, and the discussions, disputing, going back and forth shouldn’t happen concerning a specific person. As for Sayyid Qutb, my opinion concerning what he left behind is that he’s like anyone else, it contains truth and falsehood, no one is infallible.”

Shaykh Ibn Bāz (may Allāh forgive him) was asked about a book by Sayyid Qutb, so he responded by saying:

لم أقرأه، ولكن بلغني عنه أنه لا بأس به، كتب سيد قطب كتب مفيدة ونافعة، وليس معناها أنه ليس فيها خطأ، كل عالم له بعض الأخطاء والأغلاط، لكن لم أقرأ الكتاب، وهو فيما بلغني كتاب مفيد ومؤثر، رحم الله مؤلفه

“I haven’t read it, however it has reached me that there’s nothing wrong concerning it. The books of Sayyid Qutb are beneficial and useful, but this doesn’t mean that it doesn’t contain mistakes, every ‘Ālim (scholar) has some mistakes and faults, however I did not read the book, but what has reached me is that it’s a beneficial and an influentially affective book, may Allāh have mercy upon its author.”

Some may bring up that the great Hāfidh and Muhaddith, Shaykh ‘Abdullāh ad-Duwaysh (رحمه الله) wrote a book clarifying 200+ mistakes found in Sayyid Qutb’s tafsīr book, “In the shade of the Qur’ān”.

And this was a beautiful criticism, to clarify the truth and refute mistakes and deviations in several matters that Sayyid Qutb fell into, may Allāh forgive him.

But if they were sincere, why don’t they also mention that the Hāfidh, Shaykh ‘Abdullāh ad-Duwaysh (رحمه الله) also wrote a book criticising Shaykh al-Albānī’s mistakes in ḥadīth, entitled “Notifying the reader on strengthening what Albānī weakened, and what follows is, notifying the reader on weakening what Albānī strengthened” [1].

Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn Bāz (may Allāh forgive him) also wrote an introduction for this book. But the reality of the matter is, the Murji’ah have hidden the flaws of shuyūkh such as Al-Albānī (who was pure murji’i in ‘Aqīdah, excluding all actions from nullifiers of Īmān), but they selectively chose to pounce on Sayyid Qutb, who we all admit had mistakes as well.

The beautiful thing about Ahlus-sunnah is what Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) said, they are the most fair and merciful to the creation. So despite the errors of the scholars, we still respect the knowledge they have left behind, and leave their account to Allāh.

However, the madākhilah jahmiyyah (may Allāh destroy them) have pure hostility to Sayyid Qutb because he confronted the Tawāghīṭ, revived the spirit of Jihād and Hākimiyyah. This is why they don’t only make barā’ah from him, but they make barā’ah from everyone who refuses or even ‘doubts’ to make barā’ah from him, similar to the modern-day khawārij in their unrestricted application of the 3rd nullifier.

This is a very brief summary concerning Sayyid Qutb (رحمه الله), without getting into details, and Allāh knows best.

29 March 2018 11:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

SubhanAllah what a review, book review for "In the Shade of the Quran", from Prison:

By Imam Anwar al-Awlaki (rahimahullah)

"This work by the Shaheed -by the will of Allah- along with “Milestones” represent his greatest works and the fruits of his life. I received 5 of the 6 volumes along with Madarij al Salikeen as the first books I was allowed to have. This came after a period of two months with nothing but the Quran. Having had the chance to spend that time with the book of Allah and to contemplate on it, I wanted to read what our scholars had to say about Quran so I ordered Tafsir Ibn Kathir which is a proper classical tafsir along with “In the Shade of the Quran” which is more about thoughts and insights on the book of Allah in addition to it being a contemporary tafsir.

Sayyid is a very prolific and eloquent writer. His style is unique. If someone has read for him then he could recognize his writings without having to be told who the author is. With Ibn kathir his tafsir is full of Hadiths and statements of scholars and rulings so it must be read slowly. I would limit myself to a maximum of 30 pages a day. But because of the flowing style of Sayyid I would read between 100-150 pages a day. In fact I would read until my eyes got tired. My left eye would get exhausted before the right eye so I would close it with my hand and carry on reading with my right eye until it can handle it no more and would just shut down. My vision started deteriorating especially in my left eye. Was it because of too much reading, or was it because of poor lighting, Allah knows best. I found that deteriorating eyesight along with kidney problems were the two most common complaints of the prisoners.

I would be so immersed with the author I would feel that Sayyid was with me in my cell speaking to me directly. There was something about my reading in prison: I could feel the personality of the author through his words. So even though I was in solitary confinement I was never alone. I was with ibn Kathir for some days, with ibn al Qayyim, Sayyid Qutb, al Shawkani, al-Nawawi and many others on other days. How could I feel the loneliness when all of these great men were my companions?

I believe it was Ibn al Mubarak who when asked why he used to spend his time alone said: And how can I be alone when I am in the companionship of the Sahaba?

My favourite parts of the Shades were Sura Yusuf, and al Qasas. Sayyid has a beautiful way of presenting the stories of Yusuf and Musa in these suras. Then there are the introductions to surah al Ankaboot and al Ra'd. In his introduction of al Ankaboot he has some wonderful words about trails and in the intro to Sura al Ra'd he talks about the miracle of Quran.

Something that the reader of Sayyid couldn't fail to feel is the immense love Sayyid had for the words of Allah. I lived with "In the Shade of the Quran" for over a month. It carried me through and offered me solace during that period. May Allah reward him abundantly on the Day of Judgment."

29 March 2018 10:36

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

SubhanAllah what a review, book review for "In the Shade of the Quran", from Prison:

By Imam Anwar al-Awlaki (rahimahullah)

"This work by the Shaheed -by the will of Allah- along with "Milestones" represent his greatest works and the fruits of his life. I received 5 of the 6 volumes along with Madarij al Salikeen as the first books I was allowed to have. This came after a period of two months with nothing but the Quran. Having had the chance to spend that time with the book of Allah and to contemplate on it, I wanted to read what our scholars had to say about Quran so I ordered Tafsir Ibn Kathir which is a proper classical tafsir along with "In the Shade of the Quran" which is more about thoughts and insights on the book of Allah in addition to it being a contemporary tafsir.

Sayyid is a very prolific and eloquent writer. His style is unique. If someone has read for him then he could recognize his writings without having to be told who the author is. With Ibn Kathir his tafsir is full of Hadiths and statements of scholars and rulings so it must be read slowly. I would limit myself to a maximum of 30 pages a day. But because of the flowing style of Sayyid I would read between 100-150 pages a day. In fact I would read until my eyes got tired. My left eye would get exhausted before the right eye so I would close it with my hand and carry on reading with my right eye until it can handle it no more and would just shut down. My vision started deteriorating especially in my left eye. Was it because of too much reading, or was it because of poor lighting, Allah knows best. I found that deteriorating eyesight along with kidney problems were the two most common complaints of the prisoners.

I would be so immersed with the author I would feel that Sayyid was with me in my cell speaking to me directly. There was something about my reading in prison: I could feel the personality of the author through his words. So even though I was in solitary confinement I was never alone. I was with ibn Kathir for some days, with ibn al Qayyim, Sayyid Qutb, al Shawkani, al-Nawawi and many others on other days. How could I feel the loneliness when all of these great men were my companions?

I believe it was Ibn al Mubarak who when asked why he used to spend his time alone said: And how can I be alone when I am in the companionship of the Sahaba?

My favourite parts of the Shades were Sura Yusuf, and al Qasas. Sayyid has a beautiful way of presenting the stories of Yusuf and Musa in these suras. Then there are the introductions to surah al Ankaboot and al Ra'd. In his introduction of al Ankaboot he has some wonderful words about trails and in the intro to Sura al Ra'd he talks about the miracle of Quran.

Something that the reader of Sayyid couldn't fail to feel is the immense love Sayyid had for the words of Allah. I lived with "In the Shade of the Quran" for over a month. It carried me through and offered me solace during that period. May Allah reward him abundantly on the Day of Judgment."

29 March 2018 10:36

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

**If you are still unsure who are the righteous scholars of our times, read the books from our scholars of the past and then compare for yourself**

Imām Sulaymān Ibn Saḥmān (رحمه الله) mentions in "al-Hadiyyah as-Saniyyah" (page 4-5):

"Moreover, know O brothers that I am upon what our Imāms among the inhabitants of Islām were upon, and the eminent scholars from the rightly guided Imāms, who protect and guard this religion from (those) taking matters to extreme, and from the ignorant ones who misinterpret the text, and from those who take the text out of context to bend and twist it (to suit their desires).

Such as Shaykhul-Islām, the eminent guided scholar, Taqī ud-Dīn Abī al-'Abbās Ahmad Ibn 'Abdil-Halīm Ibn 'Abdis-Salām Ibn Taymiyyah al-Harrānī, and his student Shams ad-Dīn Muhammad Ibn Abī Bakr Ibn Qayyim al-Jawziyyah.

Along with Al-Hāfidh ath-Thahabī ash-Shāfi'ī, Al-Imād Ibn Kathīr ash-Shāfi'ī, Muhammad Ibn Jarīr at-Tabarī, Al-Hāfidh al-Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī, and others from the scholars of Islām who are the example, and model to follow, and they had a precedence of truthfulness in the world, may Allāh reward them on behalf of Islām and the muslims with goodness.

And Shaykhul-Islām, the eminent rightly guided scholar, Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb, may Allāh have mercy upon him, held onto their path and followed their methodology and remnants in calling towards Allāh, while establishing his proofs and clarifications, and he was aided by the Imāms among the inhabitants of Islām.”

It's mentioned in “Ad-Diyā’ ash-Shāriq” (page 83) that Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) says:

“My lord guided me to the straight path and upright religion, Millat Ibrāhīm Hanīfan, and he was not from the mushrikīn, and all praise belongs to Allāh, I do not call towards a Sūfī madhab, or towards a jurist or theologian, or Imām from the A'immah I glorify such as Ibn al-Qayyim, ath-Thahabī or Ibn Kathīr and others, rather I call towards (worshipping) Allāh alone without any partners ascribed to Him, and I call towards the sunnah of the messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) which he advised the beginning and end of his ummah with, and I hope that I do not oppose the truth when it comes to me.”

Moreover, the Imāms of Najd would praise many other scholars of Islām (despite mistakes), such as calling Ibn Daqīq al-Īd with the title “Shaykh al-Islām”, saying about Imām an-Nawawī, “O Allāh, how much goodness have you done”, and calling Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr, “The seal of the muhadiithīn” and “The Hāfidh of the world”.

Allāhu akbar! I will be providing a whole list of quotes by the Imāms of Najd and others that I have read in numerously quoting scholars of this ummah who the ignorant shamelessly attack and even label as “kuffār”, wallāhul-musta'ān!

28 March 2018 20:06

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

**If you are still unsure who are the righteous scholars of our times, read the books from our scholars of the past and then compare for yourself**

Imām Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān (رحمه الله) mentions in “al-Hadiyyah as-Saniyyah” (page 4-5):

“Moreover, know O brothers that I am upon what our Imāms among the inhabitants of Islām were upon, and the eminent scholars from the rightly guided Imāms, who protect and guard this religion from (those) taking matters to extreme, and from the ignorant ones who misinterpret the text, and from those who take the text out of context to bend and twist it (to suit their desires).

Such as Shaykhul-Islām, the eminent guided scholar, Taqī ud-Dīn Abī al-'Abbās Ahmad Ibn 'Abdil-Halīm Ibn 'Abdis-Salām Ibn Taymiyyah al-Harrānī, and his student Shams ad-Dīn Muhammad Ibn Abī Bakr Ibn Qayyim al-Jawziyyah.

Along with Al-Hāfidh ath-Thahabī ash-Shāfi'ī, Al-Imād Ibn Kathīr ash-Shāfi'ī, Muhammad Ibn Jarīr at-Tabarī, Al-Hāfidh al-Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī, and others from the scholars of Islām who are the example, and model to follow, and they had a precedence of truthfulness in the world, may Allāh reward them on behalf of Islām and the muslims with goodness.

And Shaykhul-Islām, the eminent rightly guided scholar, Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb, may Allāh have mercy upon him, held onto their path and followed their methodology and remnants in calling towards Allāh, while establishing his proofs and clarifications, and he was aided by the Imāms among the inhabitants of Islām.”

It's mentioned in “Ad-Diyā’ ash-Shāriq” (page 83) that Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) says:

“My lord guided me to the straight path and upright religion, Millat Ibrāhīm Hanīfan, and he was not from the mushrikīn, and all praise belongs to Allāh, I do not call towards a Sūfī madhab, or towards a jurist or theologian, or Imām from the A'immah I glorify such as Ibn al-Qayyim, ath-Thahabī or Ibn Kathīr and others, rather I call towards (worshipping) Allāh alone without any partners ascribed to Him, and I call towards the sunnah of the messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) which he advised the beginning and end of his ummah with, and I hope that I do not oppose the truth when it comes to me.”

Moreover, the Imāms of Najd would praise many other scholars of Islām (despite mistakes), such as calling Ibn Daqīq al-Īd with the title “Shaykh al-Islām”, saying about Imām an-Nawawī, “O Allāh, how much goodness have you done”, and calling Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr, “The seal of the muhadiithīn” and “The Hāfidh of the world”.

Allāhu akbar! I will be providing a whole list of quotes by the Imāms of Najd and others that I have read in numerously quoting scholars of this ummah who the ignorant shamelessly attack and even label as “kuffār”, wallāhul-musta’ān!

28 March 2018 20:04

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

How do you deal with someone who tells you “prove to me that I exist?”

To put it simply, there’s a well-known saying written in the classical texts:

إن حقائق الأمور ثابتة

“Certainly, the reality of matters are firmly established”.

So when someone is doubtful whether they exist, their own question becomes dubious and doubtful. Because if they didn’t exist, their own question would never exist, hence there’s no need to take this ‘claim’ seriously.

Similarly, when the Ashā’irah ask us, “How do the qualities of Allāh work?”

The simple response is that we ask them, “Do you know how Allāh’s essence Himself works?” — They would reply with “no”.

Therefore, if we are unable to know how our Creator is like in His essence, what about the case with His lofty attributes?

Hence, how can any innovator ask “How does Allāh descend to the lowest heaven in the last 3rd in the night for the whole world with different times?”.

We have just affirmed that we cannot determine how His attributes work, but the issue with the innovators is that they accuse ahlus-sunnah of likening Allāh to the creation, when in reality they are the ones comparing their own actions of “descending” for example with the way Allāh descends in the way His Majesty allows Him too.

We live in a physical world with cause and effect, time and space. Thus, we cannot compare our actions in this physical world to the infinite essence of Allāh who is outside of cause and effect, time and space.

It’s rationally impossible, but what’s rationally required to affirm is that Allāh is the one who created this universe, as there’s no rational possibility it could have created itself (which would mean it was existent and non-existent at one point of time), and it’s rationally impossible that this universe which is bound by time and space has always existed (this is called an absurdity), as there must be a cause from an all-wise, all-powerful, all-perfect maker and creator to bring the universe into existence, which is what’s rationally required to affirm.

والله أعلم

28 March 2018 14:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

How do you deal with someone who tells you “prove to me that I exist?”

To put it simply, there’s a well-known saying written in the classical texts:

إن حقائق الأمور ثابتة

“Certainly, the reality of matters are firmly established”.

So when someone is doubtful whether they exist, their own question becomes dubious and doubtful. Because if they didn’t exist, their own question would never exist, hence there’s no need to take this ‘claim’ seriously.

Similarly, when the Ashā’irah ask us, “How do the qualities of Allāh work?”

The simple response is that we ask them, “Do you know how Allāh’s essence Himself works?” — They would reply with “no”.

Therefore, if we are unable to know how our Creator is like in His essence, what about the case with His lofty attributes?

Hence, how can any innovator ask “How does Allāh descend to the lowest heaven in the last 3rd in the night for the whole world with different times?”.

We have just affirmed that we cannot determine how His attributes work, but the issue with the innovators is that they accuse ahlus-sunnah of likening Allāh to the creation, when in reality they are the ones comparing their own actions of “descending” for example with the way Allāh descends in the way His Majesty allows Him too.

We live in a physical world with cause and effect, time and space. Thus, we cannot compare our actions in this physical world to the infinite essence of Allāh who is outside of cause and effect, time and space.

It's rationally impossible, but what's rationally required to affirm is that Allāh is the one who created this universe, as there's no rational possibility it could have created itself (which would mean it was existent and non-existent at one point of time), and it's rationally impossible that this universe which is bound by time and space has always existed (this is called an absurdity), as there must be a cause from an all-wise, all-powerful, all-perfect maker and creator to bring the universe into existence, which is what's rationally required to affirm.

والله أعلم

28 March 2018 14:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. Can Allāh create a rock so heavy that He can't lift it?

A. This is an old philosophical question which is really asking, “Can God not be God at the same time”. And an atheist will ask these questions as an excuse to avoid believing in a Creator.

To briefly answer this, we need to understand that “things” are divided into 3 types:

1. Rationally possible.
2. Rationally impossible.
3. Rationally required.

So when we're talking about Allāh's creation, we're talking about rationally possible things, and a contradiction would negate rational possibility from all angles.

And it's important to note that there are two types of opposites:

1. Complementary opposites.
2. Mutually exclusive opposites.

Complementary opposites are rational possible things in creation. For example, the colour black is opposite to white. However can black and white exist together in the same garment for example? Yes they can.

Now, mutually exclusive opposites are things that are rationally impossible to imagine, such as the question asked.

It's like saying, can a woman be pregnant and not pregnant at the same time? Or, can Allāh create a square triangle or a triangle with 4 and 5 sides? It's rationally impossible.

If this isn't convincing enough, I would suggest going to a shop owner and ask him “Can I please have very hot tea which is cold at the same time?”

I think the response you may get is “can you exist and not exist at the same time?!”.

An additional benefit I may add is that Allāh has prohibited ‘oppression’ upon Himself as reported in the authentic hadīth al-qudsī, which shows that it's rationally impossible that the lord of infinite mercy and justice may ever oppress anyone or have qualities which are mutually exclusive opposites.

والله أعلم

28 March 2018 14:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. Can Allāh create a rock so heavy that He can't lift it?

A. This is an old philosophical question which is really asking, “Can God not be God at the same time”. And an atheist will ask these questions as an excuse to avoid believing in a Creator.

To briefly answer this, we need to understand that “things” are divided into 3 types:

1. Rationally possible.
2. Rationally impossible.
3. Rationally required.

So when we're talking about Allāh's creation, we're talking about rationally possible things, and a contradiction would negate rational possibility from all angles.

And it's important to note that there are two types of opposites:

1. Complementary opposites.
2. Mutually exclusive opposites.

Complementary opposites are rational possible things in creation. For example, the colour black is opposite to white. However can black and white exist together in the same garment for example? Yes they can.

Now, mutually exclusive opposites are things that are rationally impossible to imagine, such as the question asked.

It's like saying, can a woman be pregnant and not pregnant at the same time? Or, can Allāh create a square triangle or a triangle with 4 and 5 sides? It's rationally impossible.

If this isn't convincing enough, I would suggest going to a shop owner and ask him "Can I please have very hot tea which is cold at the same time?"

I think the response you may get is "can you exist and not exist at the same time?!".

An additional benefit I may add is that Allāh has prohibited 'oppression' upon Himself as reported in the authentic hadith al-qudsī, which shows that it's rationally impossible that the lord of infinite mercy and justice may ever oppress anyone or have qualities which are mutually exclusive opposites.

والله أعلم

28 March 2018 14:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"All praise belongs to Allāh who gathered us with one of the students of Shaykh al-'Alwān, he said that the Shaykh, may Allāh hasten his release was full of wonderful manners, a person who exerted efforts in seeking knowledge and teaching it, and emphasised severely on the importance of Tawhīd and condemning the government scholars, O Allāh hasten his release and the release of the muslims."

الحمد لله الذي جمعنا مع طالب من طلاب الشيخ العوان
قال أن الشيخ فك الله أسرته كان طيبا خلوقا
مجتهد في طلب العلم وتعليمه
وتشديده على أهمية التوحيد
... والأبكار على علماء السلاطين
اللهم فك أسرته واسرى المسلمين

— Related by one of the Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān channels on telegram (5,000 members).

28 March 2018 07:49

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"All praise belongs to Allāh who gathered us with one of the students of Shaykh al-'Alwān, he said that the Shaykh, may Allāh hasten his release was full of wonderful manners, a person who exerted efforts in seeking knowledge and teaching it, and emphasised severely on the importance of Tawhīd and condemning the government scholars, O Allāh hasten his release and the release of the muslims."

الحمد لله الذي جمعنا مع طالب من طلاب الشيخ العوان
قال أن الشيخ فك الله أسرته كان طيبا خلوقا
مجتهد في طلب العلم وتعليمه
وتشديده على أهمية التوحيد
... والأبكار على علماء السلاطين
اللهم فك أسرته واسرى المسلمين

— Related by one of the Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān channels on telegram (5,000 members).

28 March 2018 07:49

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

28 March 2018 07:33

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

28 March 2018 07:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Many women are like ‘Azīz’s wife, but few men have the Īmān of Yūsuf (عليه السلام) — The ummah suffers due to the spread of Zinā, may Allāh curse these corrupt sinners.

27 March 2018 20:02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Many women are like ‘Azīz’s wife, but few men have the Īmān of Yūsuf (عليه السلام) — The ummah suffers due to the spread of Zinā, may Allāh curse these corrupt sinners.

27 March 2018 20:02

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abū Ḥaḥṣ Al-Ḥanbalī What else you expect? They donated millions to the Serbs who violated our sisters in one of the worst violations in the last century. This devil of humankind and his regime has surpassed that number, and so they give him even more!
27 March 2018 15:58

Najmus Sakib مله الكفر واحدة
27 March 2018 19:03

Abu Ali Hussain Hassan and u know so called UK based charity organisations paid millions to rebels who fight for sake of saudi
28 March 2018 13:22

Hamzah Ibn Yahya suprse surprise the UN is known to be full of rapists and pedos and low and behold they are giving money to that rafidog puppet... hardly suprising - "And [remember, O Muhammad], when those who disbelieved plotted against you to restrain you or kill you or evict you [from Makkah]. But they plan, and Allah plans. And Allah is the best of planners." 8:30 Qu`ran (Surah Al-Anfal)
28 March 2018 16:50

7 years of genocide in Sūriyyah and the killer is being awarded with tens of millions for so called ‘charity’ — Remember, this is the same UN who are involved in 10,000’s of scandals on ‘charity’ alone, wallāhul-musta’ān.

27 March 2018 15:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
Maryam Umm Agim It doesn’t even make sense
27 March 2018 16:00

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
Alam Usoof If people think the UN is there to help, sorry to break your bubble. UN is there to kill all Sunni Muslims
27 March 2018 16:03

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
Alam Usoof The genocide of Sunni Muslims in Syria then it will be Saudi, supported by the Saudi family.
27 March 2018 16:05

7 years of genocide in Sūriyyah and the killer is being awarded with tens of millions for so called ‘charity’ — Remember, this is the same UN who are involved in 10,000’s of scandals on ‘charity’ alone, wallāhul-musta’ān.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

"I used to wonder how is it possible that the pious predecessors used to recite the *Qur'ān* the entire night and never get tired of it.

But most of the time, when I see people busy with their mobile phones the whole night, I was no more astonished.

I realised that when the heart *LOVES* something, it becomes very easy."

26 March 2018 21:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

"I used to wonder how is it possible that the pious predecessors used to recite the *Qur'ān* the entire night and never get tired of it.

But most of the time, when I see people busy with their mobile phones the whole night, I was no more astonished.

I realised that when the heart *LOVES* something, it becomes very easy."

26 March 2018 21:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

I've always wanted to make a clarification concerning the letters that contain a line above them, but I just never made a post about it:

The letter "a" is considered a "fatha" (َ) in arabic — For example, "sanad" (سَنَد).

But the letter "ā" is considered an "alif" (ا) in arabic — For example, "isnād" (إِسْنَاد).

This is an example concerning the letter "a". Moreover 'sanad' and 'isnād' both mean the same thing, which is a "chain of narration" as we frequently mention in ḥadīth.

Furthermore, the letter "i" is considered a "kasrah" (ِ) in arabic — For example, "min" (مِنْ).

Whereas the letter "ī" is considered a "yā" (ي) in arabic — For example, "ḥadīth" (حَدِيث).

Finally, we have the letter "u" which is a "dammah" (ُ) in arabic — For example, "mustalah" (مُصْطَلَح).

Whereas the letter "ū" is a "wow" (و) — For example, "mutūn" (مُتُون).

Mustalah means terminology (primarily referred to the terms in ḥadīth), and mutūn refers to concise texts. I totally didn't intend to make the words ḥadīth related, but alhamdulillah I hope that's clear.

So next time you read a letter with a line on top (that's if it's placed correctly), all it's telling you to do is to pronounce it with an "extended sound" (alif, ya, wow).

26 March 2018 12:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

I've always wanted to make a clarification concerning the letters that contain a line above them, but I just never made a post about it:

The letter "a" is considered a "fatha" (َ) in arabic — For example, "sanad" (سَنَد).

But the letter "ā" is considered an "alif" (ا) in arabic — For example, "isnād" (إِسْنَاد).

This is an example concerning the letter "a". Moreover 'sanad' and 'isnād' both mean the same thing, which is a "chain of narration" as we frequently mention in ḥadīth.

Furthermore, the letter "i" is considered a "kasrah" (ِ) in arabic — For example, "min" (مِنْ).

Whereas the letter "ī" is considered a "yā" (ي) in arabic — For example, "ḥadīth" (حَدِيث).

Finally, we have the letter "u" which is a "dammah" (ُ) in arabic — For example, "mustalah" (مُصْطَلَح).

Whereas the letter "ū" is a "wow" (و) — For example, "mutūn" (مُتُون).

Mustalah means terminology (primarily referred to the terms in hadīth), and mutūn refers to concise texts. I totally didn't intend to make the words hadīth related, but alhamdulillah I hope that's clear.

So next time you read a letter with a line on top (that's if it's placed correctly), all it's telling you to do is to pronounce it with an "extended sound" (alif, ya, wow).

26 March 2018 12:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Certainly, those who support the kuffār against the muslims, and aid the crusaders against the muwahhidīn, and drive out the believers for the interests of the disbelievers:

THEY ARE NOT MUSLIMS!
THEY ARE NOT MUSLIMS!
THEY ARE NOT MUSLIMS!

And it's absolutely necessary that no one disputes in their APOSTASY!

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

25 March 2018 16:04

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Certainly, those who support the kuffār against the muslims, and aid the crusaders against the muwahhidīn, and drive out the believers for the interests of the disbelievers:

THEY ARE NOT MUSLIMS!
THEY ARE NOT MUSLIMS!
THEY ARE NOT MUSLIMS!

And it's absolutely necessary that no one disputes in their APOSTASY!

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

25 March 2018 16:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"When you've suffered through something devastating and want to shut out the world and everyone around you because you can't imagine anyone knowing the extent of your anguish, you're not entirely wrong.

Your suffering, like you, is unique. It is not something that anyone else will ever fully be able to relate to.

Sure, some will understand a portion of your pain because they've suffered similarly, but they will never know exactly YOUR pain.

Allow yourself to process this and accept it. Allow yourself to come to terms with the fact that no matter how much love, compassion, and hope others try to offer you, there will always a remain a void they can never access.

That void is there for a reason. It's there to bring you to your knees, not in despair but in submission.

If you think that your every suffering is just to cause you to suffer, how little you must think of yourself and the great purpose you were created with.

Your suffering is NOT to push you down but to RAISE you up.

So, don't look for false hope in empty words and promises from well being friends.

Look higher.

Raise your eyes above.

Raise your hands above.

Bring your forehead to the ground and recognize that the One who is testing you is waiting for you to abandon your despair, to let go of your resentment, to forfeit your doubts in Him and to SURRENDER willingly to HIS will even if you can't understand the wisdom behind it.

When you begin to smile through the tears, know that you're there. And if you're not there yet, then force that smile. Surround yourself with people who meet you with eyes of hope not sadness.

Surround yourself with people who can hold you and comfort you with gratitude, light, and warmth not mourn with you in silence!

You are unique, your pain is unique, and the response you have to life's tests must also be unique. Cliched reactions and memorized scripts are not enough. Running away and being angry is only prolonging your pain.

Search...pray...surrender...submit...smile!"

25 March 2018 11:20

Radwan Dakkak shared Abdullah MacGregor's post.

Perfect timing.

25 March 2018 11:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Extreme anger, jealousy and excitement are factors taken into consideration when someone makes a slip of the tongue — This is called the māni' of khata' (Mistake — i.e. not meaning to intend what was spoken, etc).

25 March 2018 08:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Extreme anger, jealousy and excitement are factors taken into consideration when someone makes a slip of the tongue — This is called the māni' of khata' (Mistake — i.e. not meaning to intend what was spoken, etc).

25 March 2018 08:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

**Golden advice concerning Shaykh Ibn Bāz and Shaykh Ibn 'Uthaymīn**

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū 'Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله) was asked the following question by a student:

“Tayyib Shaykh, why did a tawaqquf (abstainment from takfīr) occur regarding Ibn Bāz and Ibn 'Uthaymīn, who permitted the americans to enter 'Irāq at the time?”

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū 'Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله) responds by saying:

“This was due to a command by Shaykh Abū Mus'ab, I ask Allāh (سبحانه وتعالى) to accept him. At that time, he sent an order that we withhold our tongues from speaking about these two.

Because the brothers who would come from Jazeerah, as you know these people were raised up in the mosques and under the shaykhs, so they view them as 'ulamā'.

So when he comes and fiercely strives fisabeelillāh, and it is said to him that fulān is a murtad and fulān is a murtad, he would get shocked, so it resulted in many problems in some headquarters.

Some of them wanted to return back (to Jazeerah) saying, how can you make takfīr upon these people (i.e. Ibn Bāz and Ibn 'Uthaymīn)?

However after he (the soldier) remained for sometime and performed Jihad, he started to realize the reality (of them). And due to that (issue) was the order to refrain (from whether takfīr is made upon these two).”

Student asks: “Now, what do we consider them?”

Shaykh responds, “We have still remained silent upon it.”

Student says, “An ummah that has passed” (i.e. referring to the Āyah)...?

Shaykh responds, “They have departed with what they have brought forth (in this world).”

25 March 2018 07:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

**Golden advice concerning Shaykh Ibn Bāz and Shaykh Ibn 'Uthaymīn**

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله) was asked the following question by a student:

“Tayyib Shaykh, why did a tawaqquf (abstainment from takfir) occur regarding Ibn Bāz and Ibn ‘Uthaymīn, who permitted the americans to enter ‘Irāq at the time?”

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله) responds by saying:

“This was due to a command by Shaykh Abū Mus‘ab, I ask Allāh (سبحانه وتعالى) to accept him. At that time, he sent an order that we withhold our tongues from speaking about these two.

Because the brothers who would come from Jazeerah, as you know these people were raised up in the mosques and under the shaykhs, so they view them as ‘ulamā’.

So when he comes and fiercely strives fisabeelillāh, and it is said to him that fulān is a murtad and fulān is a murtad, he would get shocked, so it resulted in many problems in some headquarters.

Some of them wanted to return back (to Jazeerah) saying, how can you make takfir upon these people (i.e. Ibn Bāz and Ibn ‘Uthaymīn)?

However after he (the soldier) remained for sometime and performed Jihad, he started to realize the reality (of them). And due to that was the order to refrain (from whether takfir is made upon these two).”

Student asks: “Now, what do we consider them?”

Shaykh responds, “We have still remained silent upon it.”

Student says, “An ummah that has passed” (i.e. referring to the Āyah)...?

Shaykh responds, “They have departed with what they have brought forth (in this world).”

25 March 2018 07:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allāh free Shaykh Khālid ar-Rāshid, the ‘Ālim of Fiqh who has an Ibn al-Jawzī type style in focusing on matters related to the soul and heart tenderness, a rare quality to see, especially since he also implements his knowledge by publicly ordaining good and forbidding evil, with an unbreakable Ghīrah for our beloved prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

25 March 2018 07:15

Radwan Dakkak shared a memory.

May Allāh free Shaykh Khālid ar-Rāshid, the ‘Ālim of Fiqh who has an Ibn al-Jawzī type style in focusing on matters related to the soul and heart tenderness, a rare quality to see, especially since he also implements his knowledge by publicly ordaining good and forbidding evil, with an unbreakable Ghīrah for our beloved prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

25 March 2018 07:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

أهل التوحيد

25 March 2018 05:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Secrets: Leaking out private matters of other people. If someone tells another something, and even doesn’t specifically say not to tell anyone, it still is considered an Amanah the person safeguard the secret.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

24 March 2018 16:58

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Secrets: Leaking out private matters of other people. If someone tells another something, and even doesn’t specifically say not to tell anyone, it still is considered an Amanah the person safeguard the secret.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

24 March 2018 16:58

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

:mentions in Sūrat ar-Rūm, Āyah #41 سُبحانه وتعالى Allāh

طَهَرَ الْفَسَادُ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِي النَّاسِ لِيُذِيقَهُمْ بَعْضَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ

Corruption has appeared throughout the land and sea by (reason of) what the hands of people have“ earned so He may let them taste part of (the consequence of) what they have done that perhaps ”.(they will return (to righteousness

24 March 2018 15:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

:mentions in Sūrat ar-Rūm, Āyah #41 سُبحانه وتعالى Allāh

طَهَرَ الْفَسَادُ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِي النَّاسِ لِيُذِيقَهُمْ بَعْضَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ

Corruption has appeared throughout the land and sea by (reason of) what the hands of people have“ earned so He may let them taste part of (the consequence of) what they have done that perhaps ”.(they will return (to righteousness

24 March 2018 15:50

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

24 March 2018 15:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

24 March 2018 15:00

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://youtu.be/TDmV8wnwoyU>

#Youtube | THIRD NULLIFIER (lesson 2/2) by the noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله).

<https://youtu.be/TDmV8wnwoyU>

24 March 2018 14:42

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://youtu.be/TDmV8wnwoyU>

<https://youtu.be/TDmV8wnwoyU>

#Youtube | THIRD NULLIFIER (lesson 2/2) by the noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله).

24 March 2018 14:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

THIRD NULLIFIER (lesson 2/2) by the noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله).

24 March 2018 14:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

You guys know the rules, so please take it seriously - Even though I may leave my facebook online all day, it doesn't mean I'm actually home or present to see what's happening.

I'm very active with the da'wah alhamdulillah, but at the same time, we all got things to do than monitor fb comments.

I want to see more knowledge being spread, whether it's information about the situation of the ummah or sharing what you have learnt from Islam.

May Allah preserve you all.

24 March 2018 14:04

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

---

Click for video:

THIRD NULLIFIER (lesson 2/2) by the noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقيله الله).
Click for video:

24 March 2018 11:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Assad Nusseyri army showing victory after kidnapping women and children in Ghouta.
حَسْبُنَا اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ

Ask yourself what you're doing for the ummah!

24 March 2018 08:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://www.gofundme.com/7mag5b2k>

#FRIDAYCAMPAIGN: Single mother in financial distress left in a heavy debt. Her ex-husband left her with major rent arrears and outstanding credits. She is near to facing eviction so DOTU are seeking to cover her debts to prevent any such events.

DONATE: <https://www.gofundme.com/7mag5b2k>

She suffered abuse at the hands of her former husband and it took her vast courage to get up and leave with her young child.

The sister has been working extremely hard and started to make payments to clear a lot of debts but she's now struggling as she's suffering from ailments and is in and out of hospital.

She finds it harder to work due to not being able to find a carer for her young child. Her parents would normally help but her mother is suffering from cancer and undergoing treatment.

Bailiff threats have been made by the council and creditors so before they make any detrimental decision, DOTU intend to cover the remainder of her debt by next week inshaAllah.

DO NOT FORSAKE YOUR SISTER!

[COPIED]

24 March 2018 07:43

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://www.gofundme.com/7mag5b2k>

<https://www.gofundme.com/7mag5b2k>

#FRIDAYCAMPAIGN: Single mother in financial distress left in a heavy debt. Her ex-husband left her with major rent arrears and outstanding credits. She is near to facing eviction so DOTU are seeking to cover her debts to prevent any such events.

DONATE: <https://www.gofundme.com/7mag5b2k>

She suffered abuse at the hands of her former husband and it took her vast courage to get up and leave with her young child.

The sister has been working extremely hard and started to make payments to clear a lot of debts but she's now struggling as she's suffering from ailments and is in and out of hospital.

She finds it harder to work due to not being able to find a carer for her young child. Her parents would normally help but her mother is suffering from cancer and undergoing treatment.

Bailiff threats have been made by the council and creditors so before they make any detrimental decision, DOTU intend to cover the remainder of her debt by next week inshaAllah.

DO NOT FORSAKE YOUR SISTER!

24 March 2018 07:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There's nothing like having a blast with the brothers. At times, it's so necessary to just leave everything behind and chill out with the best excitement, aye! Excuse my aussieness

23 March 2018 22:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Explanation of the Rule: "Whoever doesn't make Takfir upon the Kāfir" (Lesson 2/2)

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) says:

Bismillāhi Ar-Rahmān Ar-Rahīm, all Praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of creation, may the most perfect and complete peace and blessings of Allāh be upon the most noble of prophets and messengers, our prophet Muhammad, with the best prayers and the most commendable of salutations be upon him and his household.

Glory be to you (O Allāh), we have no knowledge except that which you have taught us, Indeed you are the All-Knowing, All-Wise.

O Allāh grant us Fiqh in the religion, and teach us its true interpretation, O Allāh teach us that which benefits us, and allow us to benefit from what you have taught us, and increase us in guidance, piety, righteousness, correctness and right direction O Lord of creation.

My beloved brothers, we will resume with you to study this Rule that the Scholars have firmly established, a Rule which is at a place of agreement and Ijmā' as we have clarified that in the previous lesson, and it is the rule:

"Whoever doesn't make Takfir upon the Kāfir or doubts in his Kufr, or corrects his beliefs, has disbelieved".

And we have clarified in the previous lesson, principles that we must put forward in this discussion when speaking about the issues and rulings of this Rule, and we repeat and re-iterate that what we're affirming in these lessons is the result upon "whoever excused a Kāfir or excuses whoever falls into Kufr".

So some of the guidelines that are mentioned are not possible to be applied upon whoever falls into Kufr to begin with, ya'nī for example: When we stipulated analysing in this rule "with a person who is fit from the people of knowledge" who acquires the ability to analyse, why did we say that?

Because the issue of whoever doesn't make Takfir upon a Kāfir has different scenarios and situations, unclearness is displayed at times or it could be unclear at times and clear at other times. So when someone who isn't able to analyse comes along and doesn't acquire the ability to make a judgement, what will the result be?

There would be deficiency, however the clearness in the reality (of the doer) in respect to whoever falls into Shirk immediately, this is another issue, especially if the issue is from the clear matters, and that's why the first principle we mentioned in the previous lesson was what?

"That the one who falls into Major Shirk in the Clear Matters, is a Kāfir Murtad, whether he was ignorant or had a misinterpretation." This issue is over, we have affirmed it and it's over.

Now whoever excuses whoever falls into Shirk, this is what we're going to discuss now, so let there be no interference in the minds of some people. That's why we point towards, that from the matters which confused many people in understanding this Rule, is what has been cited and narrated from the Scholars, may Allāh have mercy upon them, and what has been cited from then in this issue isn't free from two situations:

The first situation: That the citations outwardly show making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with. There are citations from the scholars which outwardly show making Takfir upon the 'Āthir to begin with.

And there are other citations, which is the second situation: That it outwardly shows not making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, but rather only after establishing the Hujjah, or after applying the Hujjah and removing misconceptions, thus faults and deficiencies occurred by some people.

And we clarified and affirmed three matters, and we placed sub-headings for it, and we'll repeat that,

that the situation of the 'Ādhir with regards to whoever falls into Shirk amongst those ascribed to Islām isn't free from the following situations:

- The action is clear, and the reality of the doer is clear.
- The action is clear, and the reality of the doer is unclear.
- The action is unclear.

Thus, it has different situations which aren't upon a single level. Therefore that's why faults occurred in understanding this Rule from some people based upon his observation of what has been cited from the Scholars (without taking everything into account).

So for example: We said that there are quotes that outwardly show making Takfīr upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, and there are quotes that outwardly show not making Takfīr upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, but rather only after the Hujjah has been established.

So we'll mention some of the citations, then mention the response and reconciliation that's possible to be stated under this issue.

For example, what testifies to the first matter we mentioned is that there are quotes narrated from the Scholars that outwardly show making Takfīr upon the 'Ādhir to begin with.

What testifies to this is where Sufyān Ibn 'Uyaynah (رحمه الله) said, "The Qur'ān is the speech of Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, whoever says it's created is a Kāfir, and whoever doubts in his Kufr is a Kāfir".

The outwardness of the quote shows what? It indicates making Takfīr upon him to begin with, isn't that the case? Okay.

Let's look at another quote, and my intention from bringing these quotes, is because we're in a gathering of knowledge, in which we try to give students of knowledge the ability to derive judgements, so they can excellently analyse the words of the scholars.

So likewise, there's another quote. What testifies to that is what Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) mentioned in his "Aqīdah" when he stated that whoever says the Qur'ān is created is a Jahmī Kāfir, may Allāh have mercy upon him, he said:

"Whoever doesn't make Takfīr upon these people, then he's like them".

What do you understand from this quote? It outwardly displays making Takfīr to begin with, so some people looked directly at these quotes and applied it immediately out of neglectfulness, and he was heedless to the different categories and situations which we clarified in the previous lesson.

Likewise, from the quotes that outwardly show making Takfīr upon the 'Ādhir to begin with is what was mentioned by Muhammad Ibn Sahnūn (رحمه الله) where he said:

"The scholars have unanimously agreed that the one who insults the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), degrading him is a Kāfir and the Wa'd (torment) is undergoing upon him with the punishment of Allāh for him, and the ruling upon him (in the Dunyā) according to the Ummah is to be killed, {pay attention to the relevant part}, and whoever has doubts in his Kufr or punishment (for insulting) has disbelieved."

The quote outwardly shows what? Making Takfīr upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, and there are other quotes, however this should suffice us.

Let's now look at the other quotes which outwardly show not making Takfīr upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, but rather only after establishing the Hujjah and removing misconceptions.

Therefore, what testifies to the second matter is what was mentioned by Abū Zur'ah (رحمه الله) where he said:

"Whoever claims that the Qur'ān is created is a Kāfir in the sight of Allāh almighty, a disbelief which takes one outside the fold of Islām, and whoever doubts in his Kufr from those who understand and are not ignorant, then he's a Kāfir" (Bonus: This restriction has an Ijmā' as mentioned in his Risālah — All of Ahlus-Sunnah in the regions accepted it).

What has appeared to us here? A new stipulation, the first quote was unrestricted, and the second quote is restricted.

We'll add another citation, then afterwards we'll clarify the Islamic Fundamental Principles in the likes of these citations.

Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdul Latīf Āl-Shaykh (رحمه الله) was asked a question which mentioned:

"What is your view on the gatherings and festivals that are established in our Hadramiyyah land, such as the early jāhiliyyah festivals upon some stones in the various regions?"

Ofcourse the question is long, but until he reached the end of his question, look at how he answered him, May Allāh have mercy upon him, he responded by saying:

"Know that these (shirki) actions are from the dīn of jāhiliyyah, which the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) was sent with to reject and remove, and erase its remnants, because it is from the major shirk, which the Muhkam (Clear) Āyāt have indicatively shown its impermissibility, and these festivals are similar to the festivals of jāhiliyyah...

...whoever believes in its permissibility and legality, and that it is a 'Ibādah (act of worship) and a religion, then he is from the worst Kuffār amongst the creation of Allāh, and the most misguided - {Pay attention to the relevant part} - Whoever doubts in their disbelief, after the Hujjah has been established concerning them, is a disbeliever." [ad-Durar as-Saniyyah 10/440]

Is this citation restricted or unrestricted?

Students: Restricted!

Shaykh: Likewise, may Allāh have mercy upon him, he mentioned in another issue which he was asked about, concerning whoever allocates some places, such as some stones which they believe concerning it that whoever stands besides it on the 9th of Dhil-Hijjah, it's like he has stood up on 'Arafah, till the end of the question?

May Allāh have mercy upon him, he responded by saying:

"This issue is like the one before it, because whoever allocates some places for worship or believes that whoever stands at this stone has the obligation of Hajj fall from him. Such a person's disbelief is not doubted by those who have smelt the scent of Islām.

But as for the one who doubts in his disbelief, then it is absolutely necessary to establish the Hujjah upon him, and explain to him that this is kufr and shirk, and that taking these stones is making it equal to the symbols of Allāh which Allāh has made standing upon to be a worship to Allāh.

So if the Hujjah is established upon him and he still persists (in excusing him), then there is no doubt regarding his disbelief." [ad-Durar as-Saniyyah 10/440]

What does the outwardness of this citation show? A restriction.

Shall we end with this quote, or shall we add another quote? We'll add another quote? Okay good.

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān (رحمه الله) says (in "Kashf al-Awhām wal-Itibās", page 70):

"And thereafter, if it were decreed that one of the Scholars had stopped short from viewing the kufr of a person from the ignorant blind followers of the Jahmiyyah or the ignorant blind followers of the grave worshippers, it would definitely be possible for us to pardon him regarding that, because he is excusably mistaken.

We do not say that he is a disbeliever because he is not safe from mistakes, and the Ijmā' regarding that is clear-cut (Ibn Sahmān continues to say "And it is understandable for him to make a mistake because those who are better than him have made errors" — Shaykh left this out)."

Until Ibn Sahmān, may Allāh have mercy upon him, says:

"As for making takfīr on him, I mean upon the one who made the mistake and the one who made an error; then it is from the lies and false implications. This is because no one from the scholars made takfīr on anyone for stopping short of making takfīr on anyone, due to a reason from the multiple reasons by which the scholar is excused if he is mistaken, wherein the evidence has not been established upon him regarding the disbelief of a person whom the description, which if manifested in a person, makes him a disbeliever if he meets that description."

(Ibn Sahmān continues to say, "On the contrary, if it is explained to him [the Scholar], and thereafter he opposed it and rejected it stubbornly and persisted [then he falls into kufr]." — Shaykh left this out).

Generally speaking, the citations here are many, however the most important thing I wanted to clarify is that there are citations which have been mentioned from the scholars, may Allāh have mercy upon them, in this issue, and is it between these two matters or two situations.

Either, citations which outwardly point towards the Kufr of the 'Āthir (refrainer) to begin with without any elaboration or restriction.

And there are other citations which point towards that the 'Āthir (refrainer) disbelieves after the Hujjah has been established and the misconceptions have been removed, or after applying the Hujjah.

Ofcourse, I shall mention the response to this confusion, however I want to hear from you.

When you read in the words of the scholars, you'll tend to find in the middle of their words about a particular issue, you find that they leave it unrestricted in some places, and restrict it in other places, so is there an answer to that?

Student 1: Because they possessed the ability to analyse.

Shaykh: Okay, excellent. Yes?

Student 2: Because there's a difference between making a general ruling and applying rulings upon individuals, since applying rulings upon specific individuals requires the conditions being met and the preventatives (of takfīr) removed.

Shaykh: Okay, excellent. Yes?

Student 3: It differs depending upon the reality of the time, place and the individual seeking a verdict.

Shaykh: Okay, excellent. Yes?

Student 4: It depends if the issue is clear or has obscurity. So they left it unrestricted in the clear matters.

Shaykh: Yes, that's excellent.

Student 5: What has been left unrestricted is what's known in the religion by necessity, and what's restricted is concerning the matters which require textual evidences, or is unclear to the masses.

Shaykh: Excellent, yes?

Student 6: Just because a restriction hasn't been mentioned, it doesn't mean there's no restriction.

Shaykh: *awkward silence* — Enough.

**students laugh**

Student 7: He says, "Whoever says it's created (i.e. the Qur'ān) is a kāfir, and whoever doesn't make takfir upon him is a kāfir".

Shaykh: Is this unrestricted or restricted?

Student 7: This is unrestricted, so when he didn't mention a restriction, it doesn't mean that there's no restriction, there's a pronoun ya'nī.

Shaykh: Okay, excellent. Is there another response or addition or benefit?

Yes, well done! This confusion could be answered which we clarified in the first issue of this lesson, and it is that some may confuse that some citations are mentioned and narrated from the scholars which point towards or its outwardly indicative that the 'Āthir (refrainer) of the one who commits shirk or commits kufr, disbelieves to begin with, and there are other citations which outwardly show that he doesn't disbelieve to begin with, but only after establishing the hujjah and removing the doubts.

So some held this issue upon an unrestricted citation, and others also held it in all cases upon a restricted citation, and the Haqq is in the middle between these 2 sides, however there are several answers which we may mention under this confusion:

The first answer: That we hold what they left unrestricted in some places upon what they restricted in other places, implementing a fundamental Usūlī rule affirmed by the scholars, that what's unrestricted is held upon the restricted.

This is very common by the scholars, they leave their statements general in some places, and they further elaborate on it in other places.

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) pointed out that from the most prominent causes for mistakes by the followers of the Madhāhib is that they didn't differentiate between what their Imāms left unrestricted in some places and restricted in other places.

For this reason, what do the scholars say - this is concerning the textual evidences of the Shari'ah - is that if the cause and ruling are joined together, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted.

What is meant by the 'sabab' (cause), and what is mean by the 'hukm' (ruling)?

Students say, "The hukm is the ruling on the issue, and the sabab is the cause".

Shaykh: Excellent, what is the hukm and sabab of this issue right now?

Student: Which issue?

Shaykh: The issue that we're speaking about right now (lol).

Student: The 'sabab' (cause) is 'not making takfir'

Shaykh: Excellent! The sabab is not making takfir upon the kāfir, and what is the 'hukm'?

Student: Takfir upon the 'Āthir.

Shaykh: Him falling into kufr, good?

If we said that whenever the 'sabab' (cause) and 'hukm' (ruling) is joined together, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted, we need to look towards the 'sabab' (cause) and 'hukm' (ruling) in the unrestricted textual evidences, and we need to look towards the cause and ruling in the restricted texts.

For example, in the unrestricted texts, we find that the ‘sabab’ (cause) concerning it is giving an excuse, “not making takfir upon the kāfir”, and the ‘hukm’ (ruling) concerning it is, “The ruling upon him with disbelief.”

And in the restricted texts, the ‘sabab’ (cause) in it is “not making takfir upon the kāfir”, and the ‘hukm’ (ruling) in it is, “Kufr, HOWEVER after establishing the Hujjah”.

So in this case, according to the agreement of the scholars, if the ‘hukm’ (ruling) and ‘sabab’ (cause) are joined together, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted, according to the agreement of the scholars.

And if the ‘hukm’ (ruling) is joined together but the ‘sabab’ (cause) differed, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted according to the overwhelming majority of the scholars, contrary to Abī Hanīfah, for example:

*Student asks a question*

Shaykh: We said if the ‘hukm’ (ruling) and ‘sabab’ (cause) are joined together, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted, according to the agreement of the scholars.

And if the ‘hukm’ (ruling) is joined together but the ‘sabab’ (cause) differed, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted according to the overwhelming majority of the scholars, contrary to Abī Hanīfah, for example:

In the issue of ‘Thihār’ (when a man says to his wife ‘you are like the back of my mother to me’ — prohibiting himself from intercourse with her), Allāh (عز وجل) says concerning this:

“Then [there must be] the freeing of a slave before they touch one another.” [58:3].

And concerning the expiation of killing, Allāh says “Then (what’s required is) the freeing of a believing slave.”

Let’s look at the Āyah speaking about ‘Thihār’:

“Then [there must be] the freeing of a slave before they touch one another.” [58:3].

What is the ‘sabab’ (cause) here?

‘Thihār’ (man says to his wife ‘you are like the back of my mother to me’)

What is the ‘hukm’ (ruling)?

Students: Freeing a slave.

Shaykh: Concerning killing, what is the ‘sabab’ (cause)?

Students: Killing.

Shaykh: What is the ‘hukm’ (ruling)?

Students: Freeing a slave, but a believing one?

Shaykh: Excellent, so here is where we talk about the restriction (if it’s a believing slave for both or not).

The ‘sabab’ (cause) has differed, but the ‘hukm’ (ruling) is united, which is freeing a slave in the issue of ‘Thihār’ (man says to his wife ‘you are like the back of my mother to me’), and freeing a slave in the issue of killing. However, the ‘sabab’ (cause) over there was ‘Thihār’ (man says to his wife ‘you are like my mother to me’), and the ‘sabab’ (cause) over here is killing.

The ‘sabab’ (cause) differed, but the ‘hukm’ (ruling) united, so the unrestricted is held upon the restricted, according to the view of the vast majority of the scholars, contrary to Abī Hanīfah.

For this reason, you find Abā Hanfah allowing the freeing of a non-believing slave on the issue of ‘Thihār’ (man says to his wife ‘you are like the back of my mother to me’), whereas the vast majority of the scholars stipulate Īmān on freeing a slave.

Student: What is the correct opinion Yā Shaykh?

Shaykh: And the correct opinion is what the majority is upon, and Allāh is the most high and most knowledgeable of what’s correct, as the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “Free her, for certainly she is a believer”.

So this is the first answer. What is narrated from the scholars concerning the ruling on the ‘Āthir (refrainer), we stated that there are quotes which outwardly show making takfir upon the ‘Āthir (refrainer) to begin with, and there are other quotes which outwardly show not making takfir upon the ‘Āthir (refrainer) to begin with, but rather only after establishing the hujjah and removing the doubts, so we know the first answer, and we’ll mention the second answer.

The second answer: That this is from the types of leaving speech unrestricted in kufr naw’ (general disbelief), but as for kufr ‘ayn (specific disbelief), then the affirmation of the shurūt (conditions) and removal of the mawānī’ (preventatives of takfir) must be taken into consideration, so this is another answer.

Moreover, what supports this is what Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned, wherein he said:

"Takfir in general terms is like Wa'd (impending threats of punishment) in general terms, it must be left unrestricted upon its generality. But as for applying the ruling upon a specific individual that he's a kāfir or testified with hellfire, this returns back to the specific proofs, for indeed the ruling is judged in terms of the fulfilment of its conditions and removal of its preventatives."

So this is the second answer, we say that the reason for leaving the speech unrestricted in this issue, from what is mentioned and cited from the scholars in several places, and making the speech restricted in other places, is due to it being from the types of kufr naw' (general disbelief).

Because the scholars usually say, "whoever says this is a kāfir", and they leave the speech unrestricted in that.

However, when they come to applying takfir upon the individual, you will find that they elaborate further, and that there's more details and clarification.

And Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) clarified this as you have heard, wherein the general basic principle is that general takfir is like general wa'd (impending threats of punishment), it must be left unrestricted and general, but as for specifically applying it, this is a separate issue.

For this reason, you will find that they leave it unrestricted in certain places, and they restrict it in other places. So you'll find that the unrestricted in those places is only a Ta'sil (establishing the foundations), and the restriction is the Tanzil (applying it individually).

The third answer: That we hold what they left unrestricted upon the clearness of the evidence and the clearness of the reality to the scholars and general masses, wherein it can be said that the hujjah has been conveyed, and it has become very apparent, there's nothing that comes after it except arrogant persistence and stubbornly opposing the truth.

So this right now is what we held upon what they left unrestricted, and we hold what they restricted concerning the kufr of the doubter via clarifying the proof and explaining it upon the unclearness of the reality and the apparent confusion (concerning the hukm upon that kāfir).

Is there anything questionable about these answers or is it acceptable?

Student: I have a confusion.

Shaykh: What is the confusion?

Student: Applying the rulings of the Dīn upon our current day reality, because sometimes a person needs an indication (on how to apply), then you must lay out the principles, it's just this issue is a bit confusing.

Shaykh: That's why we mentioned, if the acquirer understands this issue and understood the Ta'sil (principles) pertaining to it (he won't have an issue).

Furthermore, most of the brothers didn't attend yesterday's lesson, so that's why you will find some difficulty in understanding today's lesson.

And we clarified yesterday that we're on the stage of clarifying the principles, and that today we are on the stage of applying those principles.

And we mentioned that if the Asl (core foundation) is correct, then what's built upon it is going to be correct. And if the Asl (core foundation) is corrupt, then what's built upon it is also going to be corrupt.

Meaning, haven't we mentioned by now that there are actions which are clear, and the reality of its doer is clear.

And there are actions which are clear, and the reality of its doer is unclear.

And there are actions which are not clear. We mentioned this categorisation in the previous lesson, so if a person precisely understands this categorisation, he would excellently be able to apply the quotes.

Because the scholars affirm a rule, and even though it's used within the textual evidences of the Shari'ah, whenever a contradiction appears to us, reconciling between the evidences is given precedence over cancelling them out.

Meaning, that we use one of the texts, and then we derive a meaning from the other text, however whenever reconciliation is possible, it's necessary to go towards it.

For example, we mentioned right now that we hold what they left unrestricted upon the clearness of the evidence and the clearness of the reality.

Meaning, kufr is tagged along with him to begin with. Ya'hī I'll give you all an example, there are quotes by the A'immat ad-Da'wah (Imāms of Najd), likewise it's very precious in understanding this issue.

For example, the kufr of bashār, is it clear or not clear?

Students: Clear.

Shaykh: Is his reality clear or unclear?

Students: Clear.

Shaykh: Especially here in the Islamic State, is it clear or unclear?

Students: Clear.

Shaykh: So can it now be said concerning whoever's situation was like this, his kufr is clear, and his reality is clear, then whoever doubts in his kufr, or corrects his beliefs, he has disbelieved.

However we have another person, the action of kufr he fell into is clear, however his reality is not clear, so do we say that whoever doesn't call him a Kāfir or doubts in his kufr has disbelieved immediately?

Students: No.

I'll give you an example: There's an individual who the scholars have unanimously agreed upon calling a kāfir, and I know that many of the muslims do not know who Ibn 'Arabī is.

Perhaps, no one in our times knows about him except the people of knowledge, even though the scholars during his time unanimously agreed upon his kufr, infact they made takfīr upon whoever doesn't call him a kāfir.

Because Ibn 'Arabī during their time, the action of Ibn 'Arabī was clear and his reality was clear, that's why they made takfīr upon and whoever doubted in his kufr.

However Ibn 'Arabī in our current situation today among the general masses, you go to someone who sells Shāwarmā on the street, "Asalāmu 'alaykum" (je responds) "wa 'alaykum as-salām", (and you ask him) "Is Ibn 'Arabī a Kāfir?", so he responds: "Who is Ibn 'Arabī? I do not make takfīr upon anyone". Based upon his words, did he refrain (in making takfīr) or not? He refrained!

Student: Yā Shaykh, he may think it's referring to Ibn al-'Arabī.

Shaykh: No, not at all. Ibn al-'Arabī is another 'Ālim, we're referring to Ibn 'Arabī, the author of "Al-Fusūs".

Student: (Ibn al-'Arabī) is Mālikī?

Shaykh: Yes, that's correct.

But the point from this, is that you've seen the scholars agree upon his kufr, rather they made takfīr upon whoever didn't call him a kāfir, so this is based upon what?

Firstly, the kufr that he fell into is clear, wherein he spoke about "al-Hulūl and al-Ittihād" (that Allāh and the creation are in union and mixed together), and this distorted creed (of mixing Allāh with the creation), we ask Allāh for well-being and good health.

Students: Āmin!

And his reality was also clear, wherein the scholars clarified his ruling, to the extent that all the people knew about it, infact the scholars and general masses are united together in knowing the ruling on this individual.

Right now, is the ruling of Bashār known to the people of knowledge alone?

(No), rather it's known to the scholars and general masses, especially in the Islamic State, and all praise belongs to Allāh. Wherein it has laid out the principles for this matter in the sermons of Jum'ah, and lessons, and lectures, and so forth.

So here we say what the scholars left unrestricted is held upon the likes of this situation. A man whose kufr that he fell into is clear, and his reality is clear (that the general masses know his ruling).

Just like the scholars during their time, the clearness of the reality of Ibn 'Arabī was clear and apparent, wherein they agreed upon his kufr, and made takfīr upon whoever didn't make takfīr upon him and doubted in his kufr.

Student: "Unclear audio".

Shaykh responds: Imām Ahmad, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah and A'immah from the Imāms of the muslimen spoke about this (issue).

The point from that is right now, if someone comes along and asks about Ibn 'Arabī, and his kufr that he fell into was clarified, then doubted in his kufr after it was clarified to him, we would say to him, yes (he's a kafir), however before his reality was explained to him, no (he's not a kafir) because the ignorance of his reality is apparent.

Ya'nī for example, I have mentioned an example to you. I mentioned to you that the land of Hind is from the lands which consists of having the most different types of religions, wherein there are numerous religions, and also numerous gods.

So there are some amongst Ahlus-Sunnah, the people of guidance and truth who live in India. So they know the reality of many Tawāghīt that are worshipped besides Allāh over there.

However if someone from Ahlus-Sunnah comes from India to here, so he spoke with one of us in this land. So he spoke about one of the Tawāghīt over there, whilst this person (here) doesn't know his reality nor what he fell into, so that person (who came from India) asked, "Is that Tāghūt considered a Kāfir"?

So our brother replied, "Wallāhi I don't know O brother". Right here he refrained (from making takfīr), so is this scenario held upon what the scholars have mentioned, concerning the quote which outwardly makes takfīr upon the 'Āthir (refrainer) to begin with?

We say, "No". Because in this situation, the reality of this person or this person being asked about is unclear.

Therefore we say, that what's narrated from the scholars, where the apparent meaning of the quote indicates making takfīr upon the 'Āthir to begin with, then it is held upon the clearness of the proof and the clearness of the reality.

And what they made restricted in making takfīr upon the 'Āthir (refrainer) by establishing the Hujjah and showing the proofs, this is held upon a situation where the proof is not apparent or the reality is not clear.

Student: An important point, I asked about Ibn 'Arabī, that if someone makes ta'wīl (in excusing him), isn't it necessary upon us to clarify his ta'wīl (misinterpretation) and that it's wrong.

For example, right now I say that fulān will come along and say that Ibn 'Arabī did not intend (such kufr words), but rather what he intended by "your deity is under my feet", he makes an interpretation that they dug up (the soil) and found money (i.e. wealth is their deity), isn't it required that I clarify to him with an indication that he entered into "al-Hulūl" (believing Allāh is in union with His creation) or show some proof concerning this matter?

Shaykh: This wasn't obscure to the major Imāms.

Student: No, I mean the current situation, like among the masses.

Shaykh: Generally speaking, we will shortly address how the hujjah is applied in the likes of this issue. Right now, we're speaking about the ruling on the 'Āthir, and the issue of establishing the Hujjah and clarifying the evidences for the 'Āthir (refrainer of making Takfīr) differs from the one who falls into Shirk itself.

And we clarified that the one who falls into Shirk from the clear matters has Kufr tagged along with him, whether he was ignorant or had a misinterpretation.

But as for whoever excuses him, we stated: The ruling (of kufr) is tagged along with him immediately during certain situations, and it could not be tagged along with him, only after establishing the Hujjah and removing the doubts, or after applying the hujjah.

And by this, we would have combined between all of these quotes, and we would have been able to implement all of these textual evidences, and not cancel them out based upon implementing one over the other.

Student says: Shaykh, I have a question, is there anything new? Like, we have gone through all this Ta'sīl (principles) and Tafri' (applications), and the verses of Allāh (it's clear).

And they believe there's an excuse of ignorance in all cases, we return back to what Allāh says, "And [mention] when your Lord took from the children of Adam - from their loins - their descendants and made them testify of themselves, [saying to them], "Am I not your Lord?" [7:172], so this is a sign of proof, and another sign of proof:

"And Allah spoke to Moses with [direct] speech. [We sent] messengers as bringers of good tidings and warners so that mankind will have no argument against Allah after the messengers." [4:164-165], therefore 'ignorance' is a Hujjah, however Allāh did not leave anyone with an excuse to remain ignorant.

Student continues: The first group; They are the kuffār who's disbelief is known in the religion by necessity, isn't them hearing about the messenger a Hujjah upon them? (Yes), so they weren't ignorant of that, they know there's a messenger.

The second group; A muslim, however he falls into disbelief with an explicit proof. He knows the evidence that he's a muslim, or what's required of him is adherence to the verses of Allāh, "[It will be said]. "Were not My verses recited to you?" [23:105]. So the verses are available, so no one can be ignorant of it.

Student continues: However let's say the third group, or what falls under this second group which you have mentioned in some lessons, that whoever recently enters into Islām, so the likes of him, he wouldn't know the rulings of Islām in these matters, so this is considered ignorance.

So everything he was ignorant about, we gave an excuse. Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned in “Badā’i al-Fawā'id” — “The origin basis of Juhūd (denial) is rejecting the ruling after knowing it”, so we know that he's not ignorant.

Student continues: And the manāt of this nullifier (the kufr that it's tied too) is “Juhūd” (i.e. opposing the ruling of Allāh after knowing it), so we came to know the answer. So whoever is ignorant is excused (in accordance to what we said), this a summary for you.

Shaykh: Jazāk Allāh Khayr, Bārak Allāhu feek.

Hence, we also repeat a principle which we affirmed yesterday. We stated that the scholars divided the people under this Rule into several types:

The first type: People whom the text has explicitly made takfīr upon, and we say that these people are divided into two types:

Those whom the text has explicitly made takfīr upon by name, and these people are divided into two types, groups and individuals.

The individuals are like Fir'awn, Hāmān, Qārūn, Iblīs, Abī Lahab and other than them, whom the text from the Qur'ān and Sunnah has explicitly made takfīr upon them by name.

This is with regards to the individuals, and it's also for the groups, such as Judaism, christianity, Zoroastranism, and so forth.

So these people, the text has explicitly made takfīr upon, so whoever doesn't make takfīr upon them individually, then he is a kāfir for opposing and denying the explicit clear-cut texts.

What can be derived as evidence similar to this, is every Āyah which has been revealed that is explicitly indicative on the disbelief of whoever denies or turns away or arrogantly rejects it.

Then we mentioned the second type: There are statements and actions which the text has made takfīr upon those who do such, and these actions include sacrificing to other than Allāh, seeking help from other than Allāh in a matter which no one is able to do except for Allāh.

Likewise with ruling by other than what Allāh has revealed, and Tahākum (seeking judgements to comply with) from the Tawāghīt.

The text has explicitly ruled upon the doer of these actions with disbelief, and there's no doubt that those who perform these acts are from those ascribed to Islām.

Based upon their performance of such acts, disbelief would be considered Tāri' (i.e. befallen upon them — considered apostates), and we mentioned the ruling upon these people is divided into categories.

The ruling on refraining (from takfīr) concerning whoever falls into these acts:

We stated that he refrains from making takfīr upon them due to a māni' (preventative) which is acceptable according to the Sharī'ah, such as if a person were to be forced with a valid Ikrāh on sacrificing to other than Allāh for instance.

So not making takfīr here is correct, because this scenario is excluded from the Rule to begin with.

Therefore, this is the first scenario concerning whoever refrains from making takfīr upon these people. That he mentions an acceptable māni' (preventative) according to the Sharī'ah.

A person was forced with a valid Ikrāh to make a sacrifice to other than Allāh, so in this case kufr is not tagged along with him, because Allāh, may He be Glorified and Exalted says:

“Except for one who is forced [to renounce his religion] while his heart is secure in faith.” [16:106]. So this is the first scenario.

The second scenario: That he refrains from making takfīr upon him, while he doesn't consider what he fell into as being kufr to begin with.

He says, sacrificing to other than Allāh is permissible, or Tahākum (seeking judgement) to other than what Allāh has revealed or ruling by other than what Allāh has revealed is permissible.

So this person would become a Kāfir, we ask Allāh for well-being and good health.

Students: Āmīn.

Shaykh: And his disbelief in this situation is not due to him solely refraining from making takfīr upon the Kāfir, but rather because he rejected the text (Qur'ān) to begin with, and rejected the ruling of Allāh, may He be Glorified and Exalted to begin with (he fell into shirk of belief by accepting shirk).

The third scenario: This is the axil-steel grinder which we revolve around, and it is what the matters related to this Rule (3rd nullifier) revolves around.

This is concerning whoever refrains from making takfīr upon the doer of kufr from those ascribed to Islām, due to him viewing that there's a māni' (preventative of takfīr). And this māni' could be unacceptable or it could be acceptable, however the application of it is incorrect.

So this person right now affirms that the action of the doer is kufr, however a māni' (preventative of takfir) has appeared to him which prevented applying the ruling (of disbelief) upon the doer of Kufr.

So right now, as we have previously laid out the principles from before, that the Manāt (what kufr is tied too) in whoever doesn't make takfir upon the kāfir is what?

Denial and rejecting the ruling of Allāh, may He be Exalted and Glorified, after knowing it.

So right now, has he rejected the ruling of Allāh?

Students: No, he affirms it.

Shaykh: He affirms it (that it's kufr), however he said there's a māni' (preventative of takfir) which prevented applying kufr upon this doer.

So this is called confusion (mixing up the mawāni'), so when will kufr be tagged along with him? After establishing the Hujjah upon him, so if he still stubbornly persists after that, he would become a kāfir, walā hawla walā quwata ilā Billāh.

Ya'nī for example, a man says concerning someone who seeks help from other than Allāh in a matter which no one is capable of doing except Allāh, in one of the lands that are far away, so he says: "This person is excused due to ignorance".

While we know that ignorance is a valid Māni' (preventative of Takfir) in certain matters, and it's not considered a Māni' (preventative) in other matters.

So right now, he mentioned "ignorance" in this issue, and ignorance is not considered a māni' (preventative) in it, it's a clear matter, and it is from those matters known in the religion by necessity, so there is no excuse of ignorance in it, whether the doer (of Shirk) was ignorant or had a misinterpretation.

However here the 'Āthir (refrainer) has confused and muddled up his affairs, so he considered ignorance a māni' (preventative) concerning this person.

While he says, I know that seeking help from other than Allāh is kufr, however I do not judge upon him (with kufr) because he is ignorant, and ignorance is a māni' (preventative) concerning his situation, so what do we say?

Students: We must clarify to him.

Shaykh: We must clarify to him that ignorance is not a valid māni' (preventative of takfir) in this matter, so if he stubbornly persists and opposes the truth after the ruling of Allāh has reached him concerning this matter.

And this ruling has been actualised to him upon the doer of Shirk, thereafter the Hujjah has been established, so if he stubbornly persists (in excusing him) after that, the ruling (of kufr) would be tagged along with him, and he would be included under this Rule (3rd nullifier).

However, there are matters subject to Ijtihād (trying to determine Allāh's judgement upon someone) in making takfir upon some people which occurred among the Salaf, such as the dispute among the Salaf concerning the ruling upon Al-Hajjāj.

The scholars of the Salaf disputed concerning the ruling of Al-Hajjāj. So Tāwūs, Sa'īd Ibn Jubayr, An-Nakha'ī, and a group among the Imāms of the Salaf viewed that Al-Hajjāj was a Kāfir.

Whereas, another group from the scholars disagreed with them, such as Ibn 'Umar (رضي الله تعالى عنه), as he did not agree with their opinion.

Tāwūs, may Allāh have mercy upon him, says: "Astonishing to our brothers from 'Irāq, they call al-Hajjāj a believer!"

They did not make takfir upon al-Hajjāj, despite Tāwūs making takfir upon him, but what did he say? (called them brothers)

He did not apply the Rule (3rd nullifier) upon them, because there are individuals whom the action they fell into is unclear, or the reality of this individual may be unclear to them, and this is possible.

The point from mentioning this, is that these are the categories which the scholars included under this Rule (3rd nullifier).

So we come to learn from what we mentioned overall, is that there are situations and categories where the proof pertaining it is clear, and the reality pertaining the doer of kufr is clear, infact their kufr may be known in the religion by necessity, such as the jews and christians for example. So whoever refrains in making takfir upon them or corrects their beliefs, is a kāfir.

And we hear from time to time, that there are people who speak and say, "Our jewish brothers, our christian brothers (in faith)". Yes, and some of them say for example, "What they are upon is good, and we hope they will be from the people of Jannah".

This is all Kufr, we ask Allāh for well-being and good health, and the one who says these words has kufr tagged along with him immediately.

This matter is from that which is known in the religion by necessity, and we mentioned in yesterday's lesson, the Ijmā' that Al-Qādhī 'Iyādh (رحمه الله) quoted in "Ash-Shifā", likewise it was mentioned by Abū Butayn (رحمه الله) and a group among the scholars, so there are matters which are clear and apparent, and the reality of its people is apparent and clear.

Therefore, we will mention a conclusion:

Takfir upon a mushrik is a hukm sharī (ruling from the Sharī'ah) like the rest of the rulings, the clearness and unclearness of the action and doer of the action must be taken into consideration.

Based upon that, not everyone who doesn't make takfir upon a kāfir disbelieves immediately, rather this depends on what type of issue it is.

As there are acts of kufr whose ruling are known in the religion by necessity, and there are acts of kufr which are beneath that (and it varies in clearness).

There are also individuals and groups whose ruling is clear and apparent, and their kufr is known in the religion by necessity, and there are those who are beneath that (some clearer than others — must return back to denying the text).

So therefore, the ruling differs depending upon these factors. Ya'nī, if we know there are acts of kufr which are known in the religion by necessity, and there are other acts of kufr which are beneath that, it's possible to imagine a confusion and muddling up of the reality for the 'Āthir (refrainer).

There are also individuals and groups whose kufr is clear and known in the religion by necessity, and there groups who are beneath them (in clearness), whose obscurity may be imagined for some people.

Infact, there are situations where it could become obscure or have some specific details which cause confusion, even for the scholars among the people of knowledge, so how about the case for those beneath them?!

So that's why in this issue, we try to take into consideration our observations in the likes these matters, wherein we emphasise on the matter of having the ability to judge in this topic, wherein the observer is someone who is capable and holds the knowledge of being able to analyse its details.

Why did we say this? Because there are cases of confusion, and there are mix ups which occurred for some of the scholars, so imagine the case for those beneath them?!

However, let no one come along and speak to us, mentioning and applying this statement (of ours) upon those who fall into a clear action of kufr which is explicitly apparent, and the proof for it is unanimously agreed upon, and known in the religion by necessity, then claims (i.e. trying to refute us) that this situation doesn't return back to someone with the capability (of analysing) and what's similar to that, not at all, we are speaking about whoever gives an excuse.

We are speaking about takfir upon the 'Āthir (refrainer). As it's a matter which may be deeply sunk with unclearness, or blended with obscurity. Or some of its specific details may cause confusion upon some of the scholars, so imagine the case with those beneath them?!

We conclude by mentioning a criterion for establishing the Hujjah in this topic, and it's a summarised criterion, which is simple for the acquirer (of knowledge) to memorise and also understand, and I placed it in two points:

The first point: That the ruling of Allāh reaches the 'Āthir (refrainer) concerning the issue.

The second point: Actualising the ruling of Allāh (to the 'Āthir) being implemented upon the doer (of kufr).

At that point, whoever stubbornly persists (in excusing) after that, opposes the truth and arrogantly refuses (to make takfir), the ruling of Kufr would be tagged along with him, and he would be included under the Rule (3rd nullifier).

And when do we say it's necessary to establish the Hujjah and remove the doubts?

Whenever the action is clear, but the reality pertaining the doer of kufr is not clear (i.e. known by necessity to the muslim masses). Or if the action itself wasn't clear.

Therefore, we'll mention a summary for what we've previously affirmed, even though there's a beautiful quote in reality, however perhaps the time has taken us by surprise.

It is an issue I wanted to also speak about, and it's an important issue, so I'll say to you all in a brief and swift fashion, the specific edges of this issue.

The one who commits Major Shirk that ascribes himself to Islām, (what's the ruling on) the 'Āthir of the 'Āthir (i.e. excusing the one who refrained from takfir upon the mushrik).

We mentioned that the first person (who falls into Shirk) is a kāfir murtad, whether he was ignorant or had a misinterpretation.

The second person (i.e. 'Āthir) is held upon the Tafsīl (elaborated categorisation) we mentioned.

Ya'hī, there are some people who excused those whom the text has explicitly made takfir upon.

And there are texts which show the Kufr of whoever does these specific statements and actions, and this is held upon the Tafsīl (elaborated categorisation) we mentioned shortly before.

But here is an issue which some may insert (bring forth), which is the 'Āthir of the 'Āthir (i.e. excusing whoever excuses the one that falls into Major Shirk) - third person in the chain.

So this third person doesn't have any ruling of Kufr get tagged along with him if he refrains from making takfir upon the second person or doubts in his kufr (note: with the condition the second person is not a 'Āthir who views shirk permissible, otherwise he would be considered the 1st person).

Infact, including him with his (i.e. second person's) ruling is far-fetched, and Ahlus-Sunnah in the likes of this merely render one mistaken (wrong in his refraining).

There is a quote by Al-Imām Al-Maltī, Abū al-Hassan, may Allāh have mercy upon him, when he spoke about the mu'tazilah of basra and baghdād, so he mentions (in "At-Tanbīh war-Radd" pages 40-41):

"One of the issues the mu'tazilah of baghdād make takfir upon the mu'tazilah of basra is regarding the one who doubts and the one who doubts concerning the doubter. The meaning of this is: There is no dispute between the mu'tazilah of baghdād and the (mu'tazilah of) basra and everyone amongst Ahlul-Qiblah (i.e. muslim ummah) that the one who doubts about (the Kufr of) the Kafir will become Kafir."

So even the mu'tazilah have agreed with Ahlus-Sunnah concerning the 2nd person, that whoever doubts in the kufr of a kāfir becomes a kāfir (in general terms ofcourse).

Imām Al-Maltī continues: "It is because, one who has doubts in kufr has no Īmān because this person can not distinguish Īmān from Kufr. For this reason there is no dispute amongst the ummah, whether it is the mu'tazilah or others, regarding the person who doubts in a kāfir is kāfir himself."

This is where the connection of Ahlus-Sunnah ends with the mu'tazilah.

Pay attention (Imām al-Maltī continues):

"Then the mu'tazilah of baghdād innovated the following against the mu'tazilah of basrah: One who doubts concerning the one who doubted, and the one who doubted concerning the one who doubted until forever, they called all of them kuffār, and their path is the same as the first doubter (in kufr)!!!"

Imām al-Maltī continues: "And the Mu'tazilah of Basrah said: The first person who doubted is kāfir because of his doubt regarding kufr. The second doubter who doubts concerning the doubt, he is not kāfir — {right now he has differentiated between the mu'tazilah of baghdād and basrah} — but he is a fāsiq (corrupt sinner).

It is because he is not doubting regarding the kufr, but he doubts regarding the doubter, and whether he is a kāfir due to this doubt or not? Because of this; his path is not the way of the first doubter. Also, according to them the one who has doubts regarding the doubter and the doubt of the doubter (of the doubter) till forever; they say all of them are fussāq except the first one who is kāfir (due to his doubt regarding kufr)."

And all of this is doubting in a doubt. Now look what he says, may Allāh have mercy upon him, he says:

"Their statement {the mu'tazilah of basrah} is better than the statement of the people of Baghdād." These are the ends of his words, may Allāh have mercy upon him.

So right now, it becomes clear to us that the muslims of the Qiblah are in unanimous agreement concerning the kufr of the first doubter. This is generally speaking, however when we get into the specific details, there are matters a person disbelieves (due to doubting) immediately, and there are matters a person doesn't disbelieve unless the hujjah is established and the doubts are removed, and so forth.

Therefore, I hope that we have clarified the matters related to this Rule (3rd nullifier), and I ask Allāh to benefit us and you from what we've mentioned, and to make what we said as a hujjah for us, not against us, and intercession for us on the day we meet Him (Allāh).

This is what I have to say, Allāh is the most high and knows best, and may the peace and blessings of Allāh be upon our prophet Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions.

23 March 2018 12:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Explanation of the Rule: "Whoever doesn't make Takfir upon the Kāfir" (Lesson 2/2)

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) says:

Bismillāhi Ar-Rahmān Ar-Rahīm, all Praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of creation, may the most perfect and complete peace and blessings of Allāh be upon the most noble of prophets and messengers, our prophet Muhammad, with the best prayers and the most commendable of salutations be upon him and his household.

Glory be to you (O Allāh), we have no knowledge except that which you have taught us, Indeed you are the All-Knowing, All-Wise.

O Allāh grant us Fiqh in the religion, and teach us its true interpretation, O Allāh teach us that which benefits us, and allow us to benefit from what you have taught us, and increase us in guidance, piety, righteousness, correctness and right direction O Lord of creation.

My beloved brothers, we will resume with you to study this Rule that the Scholars have firmly established, a Rule which is at a place of agreement and Ijmā' as we have clarified that in the previous lesson, and it is the rule:

"Whoever doesn't make Takfir upon the Kāfir or doubts in his Kufr, or corrects his beliefs, has disbelieved".

And we have clarified in the previous lesson, principles that we must put forward in this discussion when speaking about the issues and rulings of this Rule, and we repeat and re-iterate that what we're affirming in these lessons is the result upon "whoever excused a Kāfir or excuses whoever falls into Kufr".

So some of the guidelines that are mentioned are not possible to be applied upon whoever falls into Kufr to begin with, ya'nī for example: When we stipulated analysing in this rule "with a person who is fit from the people of knowledge" who acquires the ability to analyse, why did we say that?

Because the issue of whoever doesn't make Takfir upon a Kāfir has different scenarios and situations, unclearness is displayed at times or it could be unclear at times and clear at other times. So when someone who isn't able to analyse comes along and doesn't acquire the ability to make a judgement, what will the result be?

There would be deficiency, however the clearness in the reality (of the doer) in respect to whoever falls into Shirk immediately, this is another issue, especially if the issue is from the clear matters, and that's why the first principle we mentioned in the previous lesson was what?

"That the one who falls into Major Shirk in the Clear Matters, is a Kāfir Murtad, whether he was ignorant or had a misinterpretation." This issue is over, we have affirmed it and it's over.

Now whoever excuses whoever falls into Shirk, this is what we're going to discuss now, so let there be no interference in the minds of some people. That's why we point towards, that from the matters which confused many people in understanding this Rule, is what has been cited and narrated from the Scholars, may Allāh have mercy upon them, and what has been cited from then in this issue isn't free from two situations:

The first situation: That the citations outwardly show making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with. There are citations from the scholars which outwardly show making Takfir upon the 'Āthir to begin with.

And there are other citations, which is the second situation: That it outwardly shows not making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, but rather only after establishing the Hujjah, or after applying the Hujjah and removing misconceptions, thus faults and deficiencies occurred by some people.

And we clarified and affirmed three matters, and we placed sub-headings for it, and we'll repeat that, that the situation of the 'Ādhir with regards to whoever falls into Shirk amongst those ascribed to Islām isn't free from the following situations:

- The action is clear, and the reality of the doer is clear.
- The action is clear, and the reality of the doer is unclear.
- The action is unclear.

Thus, it has different situations which aren't upon a single level. Therefore that's why faults occurred in understanding this Rule from some people based upon his observation of what has been cited from the Scholars (without taking everything into account).

So for example: We said that there are quotes that outwardly show making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, and there are quotes that outwardly show not making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, but rather only after the Hujjah has been established.

So we'll mention some of the citations, then mention the response and reconciliation that's possible to be stated under this issue.

For example, what testifies to the first matter we mentioned is that there are quotes narrated from the Scholars that outwardly show making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with.

What testifies to this is where Sufyān Ibn 'Uyaynah (رحمه الله) said, "The Qur'ān is the speech of Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, whoever says it's created is a Kāfir, and whoever doubts in his Kufr is a Kāfir".

The outwardness of the quote shows what? It indicates making Takfir upon him to begin with, isn't that the case? Okay.

Let's look at another quote, and my intention from bringing these quotes, is because we're in a gathering of knowledge, in which we try to give students of knowledge the ability to derive judgements, so they can excellently analyse the words of the scholars.

So likewise, there's another quote. What testifies to that is what Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) mentioned in his "Aqīdah" when he stated that whoever says the Qur'ān is created is a Jahmī Kāfir, may Allāh have mercy upon him, he said:

"Whoever doesn't make Takfir upon these people, then he's like them".

What do you understand from this quote? It outwardly displays making Takfir to begin with, so some people looked directly at these quotes and applied it immediately out of neglectfulness, and he was heedless to the different categories and situations which we clarified in the previous lesson.

Likewise, from the quotes that outwardly show making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with is what was mentioned by Muhammad Ibn Sahnūn (رحمه الله) where he said:

"The scholars have unanimously agreed that the one who insults the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), degrading him is a Kāfir and the Wa'd (torment) is undergoing upon him with the punishment of Allāh for him, and the ruling upon him (in the Dunyā) according to the Ummah is to be killed, {pay attention to the relevant part}, and whoever has doubts in his Kufr or punishment (for insulting) has disbelieved."

The quote outwardly shows what? Making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, and there are other quotes, however this should suffice us.

Let's now look at the other quotes which outwardly show not making Takfir upon the 'Ādhir to begin with, but rather only after establishing the Hujjah and removing misconceptions.

Therefore, what testifies to the second matter is what was mentioned by Abū Zur'ah (رحمه الله) where he said:

"Whoever claims that the Qur'ān is created is a Kāfir in the sight of Allāh almighty, a disbelief which takes one outside the fold of Islām, and whoever doubts in his Kufr from those who understand and are not ignorant, then he's a Kāfir" (Bonus: This restriction has an Ijmā' as mentioned in his Risālah — All of Ahlus-Sunnah in the regions accepted it).

What has appeared to us here? A new stipulation, the first quote was unrestricted, and the second quote is restricted.

We'll add another citation, then afterwards we'll clarify the Islamic Fundamental Principles in the likes of these citations.

Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdul Latīf Āl-Shaykh (رحمه الله) was asked a question which mentioned:

"What is your view on the gatherings and festivals that are established in our Hadramiyyah land, such as the early jāhiliyyah festivals upon some stones in the various regions?"

Ofcourse the question is long, but until he reached the end of his question, look at how he answered him, May Allāh have mercy upon him, he responded by saying:

"Know that these (shirki) actions are from the dīn of jāhiliyyah, which the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) was sent with to reject and remove, and erase its remnants, because it is from the major shirk, which the Muhkam (Clear) Āyāt have indicatively shown its impermissibility, and these festivals are similar to the festivals of jāhiliyyah...

...whoever believes in its permissibility and legality, and that it is a 'Ibādah (act of worship) and a religion, then he is from the worst Kuffār amongst the creation of Allāh, and the most misguided - {Pay attention to the relevant part} - Whoever doubts in their disbelief, after the Hujjah has been established concerning them, is a disbeliever." [ad-Durar as-Saniyyah 10/440]

Is this citation restricted or unrestricted?

Students: Restricted!

Shaykh: Likewise, may Allāh have mercy upon him, he mentioned in another issue which he was asked about, concerning whoever allocates some places, such as some stones which they believe concerning it that whoever stands besides it on the 9th of Dhil-Hijjah, it's like he has stood up on 'Arafah, till the end of the question?

May Allāh have mercy upon him, he responded by saying:

"This issue is like the one before it, because whoever allocates some places for worship or believes that whoever stands at this stone has the obligation of Hajj fall from him. Such a person's disbelief is not doubted by those who have smelt the scent of Islām.

But as for the one who doubts in his disbelief, then it is absolutely necessary to establish the Hujjah upon him, and explain to him that this is kufr and shirk, and that taking these stones is making it equal to the symbols of Allāh which Allāh has made standing upon to be a worship to Allāh.

So if the Hujjah is established upon him and he still persists (in excusing him), then there is no doubt regarding his disbelief.” [ad-Durar as-Saniyyah 10/440]

What does the outwardness of this citation show? A restriction.

Shall we end with this quote, or shall we add another quote? We'll add another quote? Okay good.

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān (رحمه الله) says (in “Kashf al-Awhām wal-Iltibās”, page 70):

“And thereafter, if it were decreed that one of the Scholars had stopped short from viewing the kufr of a person from the ignorant blind followers of the Jahmiyyah or the ignorant blind followers of the grave worshippers, it would definitely be possible for us to pardon him regarding that, because he is excusably mistaken.

We do not say that he is a disbeliever because he is not safe from mistakes, and the Ijmā’ regarding that is clear-cut (Ibn Sahmān continues to say “And it is understandable for him to make a mistake because those who are better than him have made errors” — Shaykh left this out).”

Until Ibn Sahmān, may Allāh have mercy upon him, says:

“As for making takfīr on him, I mean upon the one who made the mistake and the one who made an error; then it is from the lies and false implications. This is because no one from the scholars made takfīr on anyone for stopping short of making takfīr on anyone, due to a reason from the multiple reasons by which the scholar is excused if he is mistaken, wherein the evidence has not been established upon him regarding the disbelief of a person whom the description, which if manifested in a person, makes him a disbeliever if he meets that description.”

(Ibn Sahmān continues to say, “On the contrary, if it is explained to him [the Scholar], and thereafter he opposed it and rejected it stubbornly and persisted [then he falls into kufr].” — Shaykh left this out).

Generally speaking, the citations here are many, however the most important thing I wanted to clarify is that there are citations which have been mentioned from the scholars, may Allāh have mercy upon them, in this issue, and is it between these two matters or two situations.

Either, citations which outwardly point towards the Kufr of the ‘Āthir (refrainer) to begin with without any elaboration or restriction.

And there are other citations which point towards that the ‘Āthir (refrainer) disbelieves after the Hujjah has been established and the misconceptions have been removed, or after applying the Hujjah.

Ofcourse, I shall mention the response to this confusion, however I want to hear from you.

When you read in the words of the scholars, you'll tend to find in the middle of their words about a particular issue, you find that they leave it unrestricted in some places, and restrict it in other places, so is there an answer to that?

Student 1: Because they possessed the ability to analyse.

Shaykh: Okay, excellent. Yes?

Student 2: Because there's a difference between making a general ruling and applying rulings upon individuals, since applying rulings upon specific individuals requires the conditions being met and the preventatives (of takfīr) removed.

Shaykh: Okay, excellent. Yes?

Student 3: It differs depending upon the reality of the time, place and the individual seeking a verdict.

Shaykh: Okay, excellent. Yes?

Student 4: It depends if the issue is clear or has obscurity. So they left it unrestricted in the clear matters.

Shaykh: Yes, that's excellent.

Student 5: What has been left unrestricted is what's known in the religion by necessity, and what's restricted is concerning the matters which require textual evidences, or is unclear to the masses.

Shaykh: Excellent, yes?

Student 6: Just because a restriction hasn't been mentioned, it doesn't mean there's no restriction.

Shaykh: *awkward silence* — Enough.

**students laugh**

Student 7: He says, “Whoever says it's created (i.e. the Qur'ān) is a kāfir, and whoever doesn't make takfīr upon him is a kāfir”.

Shaykh: Is this unrestricted or restricted?

Student 7: This is unrestricted, so when he didn't mention a restriction, it doesn't mean that there's no restriction, there's a pronoun ya'nī.

Shaykh: Okay, excellent. Is there another response or addition or benefit?

Yes, well done! This confusion could be answered which we clarified in the first issue of this lesson, and it is that some may confuse that some citations are mentioned and narrated from the scholars which point towards or its outwardly indicative that the 'Āthir (refrainer) of the one who commits shirk or commits kufr, disbelieves to begin with, and there are other citations which outwardly show that he doesn't disbelieve to begin with, but only after establishing the hujjah and removing the doubts.

So some held this issue upon an unrestricted citation, and others also held it in all cases upon a restricted citation, and the Haqq is in the middle between these 2 sides, however there are several answers which we may mention under this confusion:

The first answer: That we hold what they left unrestricted in some places upon what they restricted in other places, implementing a fundamental Usūlī rule affirmed by the scholars, that what's unrestricted is held upon the restricted.

This is very common by the scholars, they leave their statements general in some places, and they further elaborate on it in other places.

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) pointed out that from the most prominent causes for mistakes by the followers of the Madhāhib is that they didn't differentiate between what their Imāms left unrestricted in some places and restricted in other places.

For this reason, what do the scholars say - this is concerning the textual evidences of the Sharī'ah - is that if the cause and ruling are joined together, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted.

What is meant by the 'sabab' (cause), and what is meant by the 'hukm' (ruling)?

Students say, "The hukm is the ruling on the issue, and the sabab is the cause".

Shaykh: Excellent, what is the hukm and sabab of this issue right now?

Student: Which issue?

Shaykh: The issue that we're speaking about right now (lol).

Student: The 'sabab' (cause) is 'not making takfir'

Shaykh: Excellent! The sabab is not making takfir upon the kāfir, and what is the 'hukm'?

Student: Takfir upon the 'Āthir.

Shaykh: Him falling into kufr, good?

If we said that whenever the 'sabab' (cause) and 'hukm' (ruling) is joined together, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted, we need to look towards the 'sabab' (cause) and 'hukm' (ruling) in the unrestricted textual evidences, and we need to look towards the cause and ruling in the restricted texts.

For example, in the unrestricted texts, we find that the 'sabab' (cause) concerning it is giving an excuse, "not making takfir upon the kāfir", and the 'hukm' (ruling) concerning it is, "The ruling upon him with disbelief."

And in the restricted texts, the 'sabab' (cause) in it is "not making takfir upon the kāfir", and the 'hukm' (ruling) in it is, "Kufr, HOWEVER after establishing the Hujjah".

So in this case, according to the agreement of the scholars, if the 'hukm' (ruling) and 'sabab' (cause) are joined together, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted, according to the agreement of the scholars.

And if the 'hukm' (ruling) is joined together but the 'sabab' (cause) differed, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted according to the overwhelming majority of the scholars, contrary to Abī Hanīfah, for example:

*Student asks a question*

Shaykh: We said if the 'hukm' (ruling) and 'sabab' (cause) are joined together, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted, according to the agreement of the scholars.

And if the 'hukm' (ruling) is joined together but the 'sabab' (cause) differed, the unrestricted is held upon the restricted according to the overwhelming majority of the scholars, contrary to Abī Hanīfah, for example:

In the issue of 'Thihār' (when a man says to his wife 'you are like the back of my mother to me' — prohibiting himself from intercourse with her), Allāh (عز وجل) says concerning this:

"Then [there must be] the freeing of a slave before they touch one another." [58:3].

And concerning the expiation of killing, Allāh says "Then (what's required is) the freeing of a believing slave."

Let's look at the Āyah speaking about 'Thihār':

"Then [there must be] the freeing of a slave before they touch one another." [58:3].

What is the 'sabab' (cause) here?

'Thihār' (man says to his wife 'you are like the back of my mother to me')

What is the 'hukm' (ruling)?

Students: Freeing a slave.

Shaykh: Concerning killing, what is the 'sabab' (cause)?

Students: Killing.

Shaykh: What is the 'hukm' (ruling)?

Students: Freeing a slave, but a believing one?

Shaykh: Excellent, so here is where we talk about the restriction (if it's a believing slave for both or not).

The 'sabab' (cause) has differed, but the 'hukm' (ruling) is united, which is freeing a slave in the issue of 'Thihār' (man says to his wife 'you are like the back of my mother to me'), and freeing a slave in the issue of killing. However, the 'sabab' (cause) over there was 'Thihār' (man says to his wife 'you are like my mother to me'), and the 'sabab' (cause) over here is killing.

The 'sabab' (cause) differed, but the 'hukm' (ruling) united, so the unrestricted is held upon the restricted, according to the view of the vast majority of the scholars, contrary to Abī Hanīfah.

For this reason, you find Abā Hanfah allowing the freeing of a non-believing slave on the issue of 'Thihār' (man says to his wife 'you are like the back of my mother to me'), whereas the vast majority of the scholars stipulate Īmān on freeing a slave.

Student: What is the correct opinion Yā Shaykh?

Shaykh: And the correct opinion is what the majority is upon, and Allāh is the most high and most knowledgeable of what's correct, as the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, "Free her, for certainly she is a believer".

So this is the first answer. What is narrated from the scholars concerning the ruling on the 'Āthir (refrainer), we stated that there are quotes which outwardly show making takfīr upon the 'Āthir (refrainer) to begin with, and there are other quotes which outwardly show not making takfīr upon the 'Āthir (refrainer) to begin with, but rather only after establishing the hujjah and removing the doubts, so we know the first answer, and we'll mention the second answer.

The second answer: That this is from the types of leaving speech unrestricted in kufr naw' (general disbelief), but as for kufr 'ayn (specific disbelief), then the affirmation of the shurūt (conditions) and removal of the mawānī' (preventatives of takfīr) must be taken into consideration, so this is another answer.

Moreover, what supports this is what Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned, wherein he said:

"Takfīr in general terms is like Wa'id (impending threats of punishment) in general terms, it must be left unrestricted upon its generality. But as for applying the ruling upon a specific individual that he's a kāfir or testified with hellfire, this returns back to the specific proofs, for indeed the ruling is judged in terms of the fulfilment of its conditions and removal of its preventatives."

So this is the second answer, we say that the reason for leaving the speech unrestricted in this issue, from what is mentioned and cited from the scholars in several places, and making the speech restricted in other places, is due to it being from the types of kufr naw' (general disbelief).

Because the scholars usually say, "whoever says this is a kāfir", and they leave the speech unrestricted in that.

However, when they come to applying takfīr upon the individual, you will find that they elaborate further, and that there's more details and clarification.

And Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) clarified this as you have heard, wherein the general basic principle is that general takfīr is like general wa'id (impending threats of punishment), it must be left unrestricted and general, but as for specifically applying it, this is a separate issue.

For this reason, you will find that they leave it unrestricted in certain places, and they restrict it in other places. So you'll find that the unrestricted in those places is only a Ta'sīl (establishing the foundations), and the restriction is the Tanzīl (applying it individually).

The third answer: That we hold what they left unrestricted upon the clearness of the evidence and the clearness of the reality to the scholars and general masses, wherein it can be said that the hujjah has been conveyed, and it has become very apparent, there's nothing that comes after it except arrogant persistence and stubbornly opposing the truth.

So this right now is what we held upon what they left unrestricted, and we hold what they restricted concerning the kufr of the doubter via clarifying the proof and explaining it upon the unclearness of the reality and the apparent confusion (concerning the hukm upon that kāfir).

Is there anything questionable about these answers or is it acceptable?

Student: I have a confusion.

Shaykh: What is the confusion?

Sudent: Applying the rulings of the Dīn upon our current day reality, because sometimes a person needs an indication (on how to apply), then you must lay out the principles, it's just this issue is a bit confusing.

Shaykh: That's why we mentioned, if the acquirer understands this issue and understood the Ta'sīl (principles) pertaining to it (he won't have an issue).

Furthermore, most of the brothers didn't attend yesterday's lesson, so that's why you will find some difficulty in understanding today's lesson.

And we clarified yesterday that we're on the stage of clarifying the principles, and that today we are on the stage of applying those principles.

And we mentioned that if the Asl (core foundation) is correct, then what's built upon it is going to be correct. And if the Asl (core foundation) is corrupt, then what's built upon it is also going to be corrupt.

Meaning, haven't we mentioned by now that there are actions which are clear, and the reality of its doer is clear.

And there are actions which are clear, and the reality of its doer is unclear.

And there are actions which are not clear. We mentioned this categorisation in the previous lesson, so if a person precisely understands this categorisation, he would excellently be able to apply the quotes.

Because the scholars affirm a rule, and even though it's used within the textual evidences of the Shari'ah, whenever a contradiction appears to us, reconciling between the evidences is given precedence over cancelling them out.

Meaning, that we use one of the texts, and then we derive a meaning from the other text, however whenever reconciliation is possible, it's necessary to go towards it.

For example, we mentioned right now that we hold what they left unrestricted upon the clearness of the evidence and the clearness of the reality.

Meaning, kufr is tagged along with him to begin with. Ya'nī I'll give you all an example, there are quotes by the A'immat ad-Da'wah (Imāms of Najd), likewise it's very precious in understanding this issue.

For example, the kufr of bashār, is it clear or not clear?

Students: Clear.

Shaykh: Is his reality clear or unclear?

Students: Clear.

Shaykh: Especially here in the Islamic State, is it clear or unclear?

Students: Clear.

Shaykh: So can it now be said concerning whoever's situation was like this, his kufr is clear, and his reality is clear, then whoever doubts in his kufr, or corrects his beliefs, he has disbelieved.

However we have another person, the action of kufr he fell into is clear, however his reality is not clear, so do we say that whoever doesn't call him a Kāfir or doubts in his kufr has disbelieved immediately?

Students: No.

I'll give you an example: There's an individual who the scholars have unanimously agreed upon calling a kāfir, and I know that many of the muslims do not know who Ibn 'Arabi is.

Perhaps, no one in our times knows about him except the people of knowledge, even though the scholars during his time unanimously agreed upon his kufr, infact they made takfir upon whoever doesn't call him a kāfir.

Because Ibn 'Arabī during their time, the action of Ibn 'Arabī was clear and his reality was clear, that's why they made takfīr upon and whoever doubted in his kufr.

However Ibn 'Arabī in our current situation today among the general masses, you go to someone who sells Shāwarmā on the street, "Asalāmu 'alaykum" (je responds) "wa 'alaykum as-salām", (and you ask him) "Is Ibn 'Arabī a Kāfir?", so he responds: "Who is Ibn 'Arabī? I do not make takfīr upon anyone". Based upon his words, did he refrain (in making takfīr) or not? He refrained!

Student: Yā Shaykh, he may think it's referring to Ibn al-'Arabī.

Shaykh: No, not at all. Ibn al-'Arabī is another 'Ālim, we're referring to Ibn 'Arabī, the author of "Al-Fusūs".

Student: (Ibn al-'Arabī) is Mālikī?

Shaykh: Yes, that's correct.

But the point from this, is that you've seen the scholars agree upon his kufr, rather they made takfīr upon whoever didn't call him a kāfir, so this is based upon what?

Firstly, the kufr that he fell into is clear, wherein he spoke about "al-Hulūl and al-Ittihād" (that Allāh and the creation are in union and mixed together), and this distorted creed (of mixing Allāh with the creation), we ask Allāh for well-being and good health.

Students: Āmīn!

And his reality was also clear, wherein the scholars clarified his ruling, to the extent that all the people knew about it, infact the scholars and general masses are united together in knowing the ruling on this individual.

Right now, is the ruling of Bashār known to the people of knowledge alone?

(No), rather it's known to the scholars and general masses, especially in the Islamic State, and all praise belongs to Allāh. Wherein it has laid out the principles for this matter in the sermons of Jum'ah, and lessons, and lectures, and so forth.

So here we say what the scholars left unrestricted is held upon the likes of this situation. A man whose kufr that he fell into is clear, and his reality is clear (that the general masses know his ruling).

Just like the scholars during their time, the clearness of the reality of Ibn 'Arabī was clear and apparent, wherein they agreed upon his kufr, and made takfīr upon whoever didn't make takfīr upon him and doubted in his kufr.

Student: "Unclear audio".

Shaykh responds: Imām Ahmad, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah and A'immah from the Imāms of the muslimen spoke about this (issue).

The point from that is right now, if someone comes along and asks about Ibn 'Arabī, and his kufr that he fell into was clarified, then doubted in his kufr after it was clarified to him, we would say to him, yes (he's a kafir), however before his reality was explained to him, no (he's not a kafir) because the ignorance of his reality is apparent.

Ya'nī for example, I have mentioned an example to you. I mentioned to you that the land of Hind is from the lands which consists of having the most different types of religions, wherein there are numerous religions, and also numerous gods.

So there are some amongst Ahlus-Sunnah, the people of guidance and truth who live in India. So they know the reality of many Tawāghīt that are worshipped besides Allāh over there.

However if someone from Ahlus-Sunnah comes from India to here, so he spoke with one of us in this land. So he spoke about one of the Tawāghīt over there, whilst this person (here) doesn't know his reality nor what he fell into, so that person (who came from India) asked, "Is that Tāghūt considered a Kāfir"?

So our brother replied, "Wallāhi I don't know O brother". Right here he refrained (from making takfīr), so is this scenario held upon what the scholars have mentioned, concerning the quote which outwardly makes takfīr upon the 'Āthir (refrainer) to begin with?

We say, "No". Because in this situation, the reality of this person or this person being asked about is unclear.

Therefore we say, that what's narrated from the scholars, where the apparent meaning of the quote indicates making takfīr upon the 'Āthir to begin with, then it is held upon the clearness of the proof and the clearness of the reality.

And what they made restricted in making takfīr upon the 'Āthir (refrainer) by establishing the Hujjah and showing the proofs, this is held upon a situation where the proof is not apparent or the reality is not clear.

Student: An important point, I asked about Ibn ‘Arabī, that if someone makes ta’wīl (in excusing him), isn’t it necessary upon us to clarify his ta’wīl (misinterpretation) and that it’s wrong.

For example, right now I say that fulān will come along and say that Ibn ‘Arabī did not intend (such kufr words), but rather what he intended by “your deity is under my feet”, he makes an interpretation that they dug up (the soil) and found money (i.e. wealth is their deity), isn’t it required that I clarify to him with an indication that he entered into “al-Hulūl” (believing Allāh is in union with His creation) or show some proof concerning this matter?

Shaykh: This wasn’t obscure to the major Imāms.

Student: No, I mean the current situation, like among the masses.

Shaykh: Generally speaking, we will shortly address how the hujjah is applied in the likes of this issue. Right now, we’re speaking about the ruling on the ‘Āthir, and the issue of establishing the Hujjah and clarifying the evidences for the ‘Āthir (refrainer of making Takfir) differs from the one who falls into Shirk itself.

And we clarified that the one who falls into Shirk from the clear matters has Kufr tagged along with him, whether he was ignorant or had a misinterpretation.

But as for whoever excuses him, we stated: The ruling (of kufr) is tagged along with him immediately during certain situations, and it could not be tagged along with him, only after establishing the Hujjah and removing the doubts, or after applying the hujjah.

And by this, we would have combined between all of these quotes, and we would have been able to implement all of these textual evidences, and not cancel them out based upon implementing one over the other.

Student says: Shaykh, I have a question, is there anything new? Like, we have gone through all this Ta’sīl (principles) and Tafsīr (applications), and the verses of Allāh (it’s clear).

And they believe there’s an excuse of ignorance in all cases, we return back to what Allāh says, “And [mention] when your Lord took from the children of Adam - from their loins - their descendants and made them testify of themselves, [saying to them], “Am I not your Lord?” [7:172], so this is a sign of proof, and another sign of proof:

“And Allah spoke to Moses with [direct] speech. [We sent] messengers as bringers of good tidings and warners so that mankind will have no argument against Allah after the messengers.” [4:164-165], therefore ‘ignorance’ is a Hujjah, however Allāh did not leave anyone with an excuse to remain ignorant.

Student continues: The first group; They are the kuffār who’s disbelief is known in the religion by necessity, isn’t them hearing about the messenger a Hujjah upon them? (Yes), so they weren’t ignorant of that, they know there’s a messenger.

The second group; A muslim, however he falls into disbelief with an explicit proof. He knows the evidence that he’s a muslim, or what’s required of him is adherence to the verses of Allāh, “[It will be said]. “Were not My verses recited to you?” [23:105]. So the verses are available, so no one can be ignorant of it.

Student continues: However let’s say the third group, or what falls under this second group which you have mentioned in some lessons, that whoever recently enters into Islām, so the likes of him, he wouldn’t know the rulings of Islām in these matters, so this is considered ignorance.

So everything he was ignorant about, we gave an excuse. Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned in “Badā’i al-Fawā’id” — “The origin basis of Juhūd (denial) is rejecting the ruling after knowing it”, so we know that he’s not ignorant.

Student continues: And the manāt of this nullifier (the kufr that it’s tied too) is “Juhūd” (i.e. opposing the ruling of Allāh after knowing it), so we came to know the answer. So whoever is ignorant is excused (in accordance to what we said), this a summary for you.

Shaykh: Jazāk Allāh Khayr, Bārak Allāhu feek.

Hence, we also repeat a principle which we affirmed yesterday. We stated that the scholars divided the people under this Rule into several types:

The first type: People whom the text has explicitly made takfir upon, and we say that these people are divided into two types:

Those whom the text has explicitly made takfir upon by name, and these people are divided into two types, groups and individuals.

The individuals are like Fir’awn, Hāmān, Qārūn, Iblīs, Abī Lahab and other than them, whom the text from the Qur’ān and Sunnah has explicitly made takfir upon them by name.

This is with regards to the individuals, and it’s also for the groups, such as Judaism, christianity, Zoroastranism, and so forth.

So these people, the text has explicitly made takfir upon, so whoever doesn’t make takfir upon them individually, then he is a kāfir for opposing and denying the explicit clear-cut texts.

What can be derived as evidence similar to this, is every Āyah which has been revealed that is explicitly indicative on the disbelief of whoever denies or turns away or arrogantly rejects it.

Then we mentioned the second type: There are statements and actions which the text has made takfīr upon those who do such, and these actions include sacrificing to other than Allāh, seeking help from other than Allāh in a matter which no one is able to do except for Allāh.

Likewise with ruling by other than what Allāh has revealed, and Tahākum (seeking judgements to comply with) from the Tawāghīt.

The text has explicitly ruled upon the doer of these actions with disbelief, and there's no doubt that those who perform these acts are from those ascribed to Islām.

Based upon their performance of such acts, disbelief would be considered Tāri' (i.e. befallen upon them — considered apostates), and we mentioned the ruling upon these people is divided into categories.

The ruling on refraining (from takfīr) concerning whoever falls into these acts:

We stated that he refrains from making takfīr upon them due to a māni' (preventative) which is acceptable according to the Sharī'ah, such as if a person were to be forced with a valid Ikrāh on sacrificing to other than Allāh for instance.

So not making takfīr here is correct, because this scenario is excluded from the Rule to begin with.

Therefore, this is the first scenario concerning whoever refrains from making takfīr upon these people. That he mentions an acceptable māni' (preventative) according to the Sharī'ah.

A person was forced with a valid Ikrāh to make a sacrifice to other than Allāh, so in this case kufr is not tagged along with him, because Allāh, may He be Glorified and Exalted says:

"Except for one who is forced [to renounce his religion] while his heart is secure in faith." [16:106]. So this is the first scenario.

The second scenario: That he refrains from making takfīr upon him, while he doesn't consider what he fell into as being kufr to begin with.

He says, sacrificing to other than Allāh is permissible, or Tahākum (seeking judgement) to other than what Allāh has revealed or ruling by other than what Allāh has revealed is permissible.

So this person would become a Kāfir, we ask Allāh for well-being and good health.

Students: Āmin.

Shaykh: And his disbelief in this situation is not due to him solely refraining from making takfīr upon the Kāfir, but rather because he rejected the text (Qur'ān) to begin with, and rejected the ruling of Allāh, may He be Glorified and Exalted to begin with (he fell into shirk of belief by accepting shirk).

The third scenario: This is the axil-steel grinder which we revolve around, and it is what the matters related to this Rule (3rd nullifier) revolves around.

This is concerning whoever refrains from making takfīr upon the doer of kufr from those ascribed to Islām, due to him viewing that there's a māni' (preventative of takfīr). And this māni' could be unacceptable or it could be acceptable, however the application of it is incorrect.

So this person right now affirms that the action of the doer is kufr, however a māni' (preventative of takfīr) has appeared to him which prevented applying the ruling (of disbelief) upon the doer of Kufr.

So right now, as we have previously laid out the principles from before, that the Manāt (what kufr is tied too) in whoever doesn't make takfīr upon the kāfir is what?

Denial and rejecting the ruling of Allāh, may He be Exalted and Glorified, after knowing it.

So right now, has he rejected the ruling of Allāh?

Students: No, he affirms it.

Shaykh: He affirms it (that it's kufr), however he said there's a māni' (preventative of takfīr) which prevented applying kufr upon this doer.

So this is called confusion (mixing up the mawānī'), so when will kufr be tagged along with him? After establishing the Hujjah upon him, so if he still stubbornly persists after that, he would become a kāfir, walā hawla walā quwata ilā Billāh.

Ya'nī for example, a man says concerning someone who seeks help from other than Allāh in a matter which no one is capable of doing except Allāh, in one of the lands that are far away, so he says: "This person is excused due to ignorance".

While we know that ignorance is a valid Māni' (preventative of Takfīr) in certain matters, and it's not considered a Māni' (preventative) in other matters.

So right now, he mentioned “ignorance” in this issue, and ignorance is not considered a māni’ (preventative) in it, it’s a clear matter, and it is from those matters known in the religion by necessity, so there is no excuse of ignorance in it, whether the doer (of Shirk) was ignorant or had a misinterpretation.

However here the ‘Āthir (refrainer) has confused and muddled up his affairs, so he considered ignorance a māni’ (preventative) concerning this person.

While he says, I know that seeking help from other than Allāh is kufr, however I do not judge upon him (with kufr) because he is ignorant, and ignorance is a māni’ (preventative) concerning his situation, so what do we say?

Students: We must clarify to him.

Shaykh: We must clarify to him that ignorance is not a valid māni’ (preventative of takfīr) in this matter, so if he stubbornly persists and opposes the truth after the ruling of Allāh has reached him concerning this matter.

And this ruling has been actualised to him upon the doer of Shirk, thereafter the Hujjah has been established, so if he stubbornly persists (in excusing him) after that, the ruling (of kufr) would be tagged along with him, and he would be included under this Rule (3rd nullifier).

However, there are matters subject to Ijtihād (trying to determine Allāh’s judgement upon someone) in making takfīr upon some people which occurred among the Salaf, such as the dispute among the Salaf concerning the ruling upon Al-Hajjāj.

The scholars of the Salaf disputed concerning the ruling of Al-Hajjāj. So Tāwūs, Sa’īd Ibn Jubayr, An-Nakha’ī, and a group among the Imāms of the Salaf viewed that Al-Hajjāj was a Kāfir.

Whereas, another group from the scholars disagreed with them, such as Ibn ‘Umar (رضي الله تعالى عنه), as he did not agree with their opinion.

Tāwūs, may Allāh have mercy upon him, says: “Astonishing to our brothers from ‘Irāq, they call al-Hajjāj a believer!”

They did not make takfīr upon al-Hajjāj, despite Tāwūs making takfīr upon him, but what did he say? (called them brothers)

He did not apply the Rule (3rd nullifier) upon them, because there are individuals whom the action they fell into is unclear, or the reality of this individual may be unclear to them, and this is possible.

The point from mentioning this, is that these are the categories which the scholars included under this Rule (3rd nullifier).

So we come to learn from what we mentioned overall, is that there are situations and categories where the proof pertaining it is clear, and the reality pertaining the doer of kufr is clear, infact their kufr may be known in the religion by necessity, such as the jews and christians for example. So whoever refrains in making takfīr upon them or corrects their beliefs, is a kāfir.

And we hear from time to time, that there are people who speak and say, “Our jewish brothers, our christian brothers (in faith)”. Yes, and some of them say for example, “What they are upon is good, and we hope they will be from the people of Jannah”.

This is all Kufr, we ask Allāh for well-being and good health, and the one who says these words has kufr tagged along with him immediately.

This matter is from that which is known in the religion by necessity, and we mentioned in yesterday’s lesson, the Ijmā’ that Al-Qādhī ‘Iyādh (رحمه الله) quoted in “Ash-Shifā”, likewise it was mentioned by Abū Butayn (رحمه الله) and a group among the scholars, so there are matters which are clear and apparent, and the reality of its people is apparent and clear.

Therefore, we will mention a conclusion:

Takfīr upon a mushrik is a hukm shar’ī (ruling from the Sharī’ah) like the rest of the rulings, the clearness and unclearness of the action and doer of the action must be taken into consideration.

Based upon that, not everyone who doesn’t make takfīr upon a kāfir disbelieves immediately, rather this depends on what type of issue it is.

As there are acts of kufr whose ruling are known in the religion by necessity, and there are acts of kufr which are beneath that (and it varies in clearness).

There are also individuals and groups whose ruling is clear and apparent, and their kufr is known in the religion by necessity, and there are those who are beneath that (some clearer than others — must return back to denying the text).

So therefore, the ruling differs depending upon these factors. Ya’nī, if we know there are acts of kufr which are known in the religion by necessity, and there are other acts of kufr which are beneath that, it’s possible to imagine a confusion and muddling up of the reality for the ‘Āthir (refrainer).

There are also individuals and groups whose kufr is clear and known in the religion by necessity, and there groups who are beneath them (in clearness), whose obscurity may be imagined for some people.

Infact, there are situations where it could become obscure or have some specific details which cause confusion, even for the scholars among the people of knowledge, so how about the case for those beneath them?!

So that's why in this issue, we try to take into consideration our observations in the likes these matters, wherein we emphasise on the matter of having the ability to judge in this topic, wherein the observer is someone who is capable and holds the knowledge of being able to analyse its details.

Why did we say this? Because there are cases of confusion, and there are mix ups which occurred for some of the scholars, so imagine the case for those beneath them?!

However, let no one come along and speak to us, mentioning and applying this statement (of ours) upon those who fall into a clear action of kufr which is explicitly apparent, and the proof for it is unanimously agreed upon, and known in the religion by necessity, then claims (i.e. trying to refute us) that this situation doesn't return back to someone with the capability (of analysing) and what's similar to that, not at all, we are speaking about whoever gives an excuse.

We are speaking about takfir upon the 'Āthir (refrainer). As it's a matter which may be deeply sunk with unclearness, or blended with obscurity. Or some of its specific details may cause confusion upon some of the scholars, so imagine the case with those beneath them?!

We conclude by mentioning a criterion for establishing the Hujjah in this topic, and it's a summarised criterion, which is simple for the acquirer (of knowledge) to memorise and also understand, and I placed it in two points:

The first point: That the ruling of Allāh reaches the 'Āthir (refrainer) concerning the issue.

The second point: Actualising the ruling of Allāh (to the 'Āthir) being implemented upon the doer (of kufr).

At that point, whoever stubbornly persists (in excusing) after that, opposes the truth and arrogantly refuses (to make takfir), the ruling of Kufr would be tagged along with him, and he would be included under the Rule (3rd nullifier).

And when do we say it's necessary to establish the Hujjah and remove the doubts?

Whenever the action is clear, but the reality pertaining the doer of kufr is not clear (i.e. known by necessity to the muslim masses). Or if the action itself wasn't clear.

Therefore, we'll mention a summary for what we've previously affirmed, even though there's a beautiful quote in reality, however perhaps the time has taken us by surprise.

It is an issue I wanted to also speak about, and it's an important issue, so I'll say to you all in a brief and swift fashion, the specific edges of this issue.

The one who commits Major Shirk that ascribes himself to Islām, (what's the ruling on) the 'Āthir of the 'Āthir (i.e. excusing the one who refrained from takfir upon the mushrik).

We mentioned that the first person (who falls into Shirk) is a kāfir murtad, whether he was ignorant or had a misinterpretation.

The second person (i.e. 'Āthir) is held upon the Tafsīl (elaborated categorisation) we mentioned.

Ya'nī, there are some people who excused those whom the text has explicitly made takfir upon.

And there are texts which show the Kufr of whoever does these specific statements and actions, and this is held upon the Tafsīl (elaborated categorisation) we mentioned shortly before.

But here is an issue which some may insert (bring forth), which is the 'Āthir of the 'Āthir (i.e. excusing whoever excuses the one that falls into Major Shirk) - third person in the chain.

So this third person doesn't have any ruling of Kufr get tagged along with him if he refrains from making takfir upon the second person or doubts in his kufr (note: with the condition the second person is not a 'Āthir who views shirk permissible, otherwise he would be considered the 1st person).

Infact, including him with his (i.e. second person's) ruling is far-fetched, and Ahlus-Sunnah in the likes of this merely render one mistaken (wrong in his refraining).

There is a quote by Al-Imām Al-Maltī, Abū al-Hassan, may Allāh have mercy upon him, when he spoke about the mu'tazilah of basra and baghdād, so he mentions (in "At-Tanbih war-Radd" pages 40-41):

"One of the issues the mu'tazilah of baghdād make takfir upon the mu'tazilah of basra is regarding the one who doubts and the one who doubts concerning the doubter. The meaning of this is: There is no dispute between the mu'tazilah of baghdād and the (mu'tazilah of) basra and everyone amongst Ahlul-Qiblah (i.e. muslim ummah) that the one who doubts about (the Kufr of) the Kafir will become Kafir."

So even the mu'tazilah have agreed with Ahlus-Sunnah concerning the 2nd person, that whoever doubts in the kufr of a kāfir becomes a kāfir (in general terms of course).

Imām Al-Maltī continues: “It is because, one who has doubts in kufr has no Īmān because this person can not distinguish Īmān from Kufr. For this reason there is no dispute amongst the ummah, whether it is the mu’tazilah or others, regarding the person who doubts in a kāfir is kāfir himself.”

This is where the connection of Ahlus-Sunnah ends with the mu’tazilah.

Pay attention (Imām al-Maltī continues):

“Then the mu’tazilah of baghdād innovated the following against the mu’tazilah of basrah: One who doubts concerning the one who doubted, and the one who doubted concerning the one who doubted until forever, they called all of them kuffār, and their path is the same as the first doubter (in kufr)!!!”

Imām al-Maltī continues: “And the Mu’tazilah of Basrah said: The first person who doubted is kāfir because of his doubt regarding kufr. The second doubter who doubts concerning the doubt, he is not kāfir — {right now he has differentiated between the mu’tazilah of baghdād and basrah} — but he is a fāsiq (corrupt sinner).

It is because he is not doubting regarding the kufr, but he doubts regarding the doubter, and whether he is a kāfir due to this doubt or not? Because of this; his path is not the way of the first doubter. Also, according to them the one who has doubts regarding the doubter and the doubt of the doubter (of the doubter) till forever; they say all of them are fussāq except the first one who is kāfir (due to his doubt regarding kufr).”

And all of this is doubting in a doubt. Now look what he says, may Allāh have mercy upon him, he says:

“Their statement {the mu’tazilah of basrah} is better than the statement of the people of Baghdād.” These are the ends of his words, may Allāh have mercy upon him.

So right now, it becomes clear to us that the muslims of the Qiblah are in unanimous agreement concerning the kufr of the first doubter. This is generally speaking, however when we get into the specific details, there are matters a person disbelieves (due to doubting) immediately, and there are matters a person doesn’t disbelieve unless the hujjah is established and the doubts are removed, and so forth.

Therefore, I hope that we have clarified the matters related to this Rule (3rd nullifier), and I ask Allāh to benefit us and you from what we’ve mentioned, and to make what we said as a hujjah for us, not against us, and intercession for us on the day we meet Him (Allāh).

This is what I have to say, Allāh is the most high and knows best, and may the peace and blessings of Allāh be upon our prophet Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions.

23 March 2018 12:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“The one praying should give salāms before he turns (his head), he says ‘As-salāmu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullāh’, then turns (his head). [1]

Because the turning is not what makes him finish the Salāh, the turning is (simply) a sunnah, and giving precedence to the salām over turning (the head) is more preferred than doing them both at the same time (i.e. saying salāms while turning the head).”

يُسَلِّمُ المصلي قبل أن يلتفت، يقول: السلام عليكم ورحمة الله، ثم يلتفت؛ لأن الالتفات ليس هو الذي تخرج به من الصلاة، فالالتفات سنة، وتقديم السلام على الالتفات أولى من جعلهما في آنٍ واحد.

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

[1] Note: The addition recorded in the hadīth “wa barakātuahu” is shātha (weak and contradicts the authentic narration), hence it’s not prescribed to add it onto the salāms as the Shaykh mentioned.

22 March 2018 15:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“The one praying should give salāms before he turns (his head), he says ‘As-salāmu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullāh’, then turns (his head). [1]

Because the turning is not what makes him finish the Salāh, the turning is (simply) a sunnah, and giving precedence to the salām over turning (the head) is more preferred than doing them both at the same time (i.e. saying salāms while turning the head).”

يُسَلِّمُ المصلي قبل أن يلتفت، يقول: السلام عليكم ورحمة الله، ثم يلتفت؛ لأن الالتفات ليس هو الذي تخرج به من الصلاة، فالالتفات سنة، وتقديم السلام على الالتفات أولى من جعلهما في آنٍ واحد.

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

[1] Note: The addition recorded in the hadīth “wa barakātuḥu” is shāṭha (weak and contradicts the authentic narration), hence it’s not prescribed to add it onto the salāms as the Shaykh mentioned.

22 March 2018 15:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Click for video:

Beautiful recitation of the humble Mujāhid from Yemen, Shaykh Ma'mūn Hātim (تقبله الله) — Excerpt taken from his series “Concepts that need to be corrected”, speaking about ‘who is the ‘Ālim?’

22 March 2018 12:24

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Beautiful recitation of the humble Mujāhid from Yemen, Shaykh Ma'mūn Hātim (تقبله الله) — Excerpt taken from his series “Concepts that need to be corrected”, speaking about ‘who is the ‘Ālim?’

22 March 2018 12:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“The athkār that are narrated after the obligatory prayer are not to be said after the voluntary prayer, because the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) did not used to say it after the voluntary prayers, so this proves that it's exclusive to the obligatory prayers, and not prescribed to be done after the voluntary prayers.”

الأذكار الواردة بعد الفريضة لا تقال بعد النافلة؛ لأن النبي ﷺ لم يكن يقولها بعد النوافل، فدلّ ذلك على تخصيصها بالفرائض، وعدم مشروعيتها عقب النوافل.

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

22 March 2018 10:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“The athkār that are narrated after the obligatory prayer are not to be said after the voluntary prayer, because the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) did not used to say it after the voluntary prayers, so this proves that it's exclusive to the obligatory prayers, and not prescribed to be done after the voluntary prayers.”

الأذكار الواردة بعد الفريضة لا تقال بعد النافلة؛ لأن النبي ﷺ لم يكن يقولها بعد النوافل، فدلّ ذلك على تخصيصها بالفرائض، وعدم مشروعيتها عقب النوافل.

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

22 March 2018 10:00

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. What is the ruling on the women wearing her hijab like Rasul Allāh described as a camels hump in that very same hadīth it continues on saying they are cursed so curse them.

Do we curse before advising or advise then curse if one dose not accept advice given to them?

A. By consensus, all scholars agree that we say “whoever does tabarruj is cursed”, “whoever drinks alcohol is cursed”, “whoever consumes ribā is cursed”.

However, when we apply rulings upon individuals, we need to ensure all the barriers are removed.

So for example, in the hadīth posted by the brother, we learn the reason behind not cursing that Sahābī (who’s name is ‘Abdullāh), the rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said do not curse him, and he hanged that ruling by saying, ‘because he loves Allāh and His messenger’.

Now, don’t all muslims love Allāh and His Messenger? That’s correct, but we’re not talking about the core mahabbah (the love for Allāh and His Rasūl which is required to enter into Islām).

But rather this is referring to an additional mahabbah to this, and ‘Abdullāh was from the mujāhideen, a sincere fighter but fell into this major sin. He was lashed, that’s right, but since there was a valid preventative of being cursed in his respect, the rasūl forbid that.

The same thing applies to a sister who goes out with tabarruj and you mentioned the camel hump, Bārak Allāhu feek.

Before applying a curse, we need to ensure the Hujjah (proof) is established, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرہ) says that if a woman was known for her steadfastness in her dīn, but went out with tabarruj, it’s not allowed to curse her.

But if a woman is advised or a man is advised to abandon tabarruj, and they persist in their ways stubbornly, this is where it’s permissible to curse.

And there are several authentic hadīths narrated from Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم on cursing individuals, this is held upon those who persisted in their sinning without changing, these are cursed both generally and individually.

And Allāh knows best.

22 March 2018 07:13

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. What is the ruling on the women wearing her hijab like Rasul Allāh described as a camels hump in that very same hadīth it continues on saying they are cursed so curse them.

Do we curse before advising or advise then curse if one dose not accept advice given to them?

A. By consensus, all scholars agree that we say “whoever does tabarruj is cursed”, “whoever drinks alcohol is cursed”, “whoever consumes ribā is cursed”.

However, when we apply rulings upon individuals, we need to ensure all the barriers are removed.

So for example, in the hadīth posted by the brother, we learn the reason behind not cursing that Sahābī (who’s name is ‘Abdullāh), the rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said do not curse him, and he hanged that ruling by saying, ‘because he loves Allāh and His messenger’.

Now, don’t all muslims love Allāh and His Messenger? That’s correct, but we’re not talking about the core mahabbah (the love for Allāh and His Rasūl which is required to enter into Islām).

But rather this is referring to an additional mahabbah to this, and ‘Abdullāh was from the mujāhideen, a sincere fighter but fell into this major sin. He was lashed, that’s right, but since there was a valid preventative of being cursed in his respect, the rasūl forbid that.

The same thing applies to a sister who goes out with tabarruj and you mentioned the camel hump, Bārak Allāhu feek.

Before applying a curse, we need to ensure the Hujjah (proof) is established, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرہ) says that if a woman was known for her steadfastness in her dīn, but went out with tabarruj, it’s not allowed to curse her.

But if a woman is advised or a man is advised to abandon tabarruj, and they persist in their ways stubbornly, this is where it’s permissible to curse.

And there are several authentic hadīths narrated from Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم on cursing individuals, this is held upon those who persisted in their sinning without changing, these are cursed both generally and individually.

And Allāh knows best.

22 March 2018 07:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://justpaste.it/1ikxp>

Signs of a hypocrite (Part 2): Cursing and Dishonouring the Muslim

Dangers of Cursing: An explanation from Bulugh Al Maram by Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) ↓

<https://justpaste.it/1ikxp>

May Allāh preserve the shaykh and the transcriber.

22 March 2018 07:10

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://justpaste.it/1ikxp>

<https://justpaste.it/1ikxp>

Signs of a hypocrite (Part 2): Cursing and Dishonouring the Muslim

Dangers of Cursing: An explanation from Bulugh Al Maram by Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) ↓

<https://justpaste.it/1ikxp>

May Allāh preserve the shaykh and the transcriber.

22 March 2018 07:08

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://justpaste.it/1ik41>

<https://justpaste.it/1ik41>

Signs of a hypocrite: Lying

An explanation from Bulugh Al Maram by Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) ↓

<https://justpaste.it/1ik41>

May Allāh protect us from nifāq and make us amongst His truthful servants, Āmīn.

21 March 2018 21:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It's a blessing that the famous preachers and speakers around the world aren't speaking about important matters of the Dīn, by Allāh it's a blessing, there's no need to complain.

Allāh has given us the perfect opportunity to strive and teach others with the very little He has bestowed upon us via His infinite grace and mercy.

Even though there's some scars inside me which hurts, I've never been so grateful and appreciative of Allāh, thanking Him day and night, and never been so excited in speaking to Him, and reading his magnificent Qur'ān, which gives us all an amazing emotional feeling.

I look at the modern-day trend of those seeking knowledge and I really see the barakah and sincerity is disappearing. My heart yearned for the freedom they had to directly study under the scholars (even though studying via amazing explanations online is almost equivalent as Sh. Ahmad Jibrīl said), but at the same time I see it as a blessing that Allāh protected me from high chances of deviating, keeping me firm upon Tawhīd and Walā' and Barā' (studying from precious Imāms of Tawhīd), even if that means not having any qualifications.

If Allāh tests you, that means He loves you, and who can say anything when Allāh loves us, ya Allāh! What hate and blame is there by the creation, when the love of Allāh bulldozes it all 🕌

“And We will surely test you with something of fear and hunger and a loss of wealth and lives and fruits, but give good tidings to the patient.” [2:155].

“Who, when disaster strikes them, say, "Indeed we belong to Allah, and indeed to Him we will return.” [2:156].

“Those are the ones upon whom are blessings from their Lord and mercy. And it is those who are the [rightly] guided.” [2:157].

21 March 2018 21:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's a blessing that the famous preachers and speakers around the world aren't speaking about important matters of the Dīn, by Allāh it's a blessing, there's no need to complain.

Allāh has given us the perfect opportunity to strive and teach others with the very little He has bestowed upon us via His infinite grace and mercy.

Even though there's some scars inside me which hurts, I've never been so grateful and appreciative of Allāh, thanking Him day and night, and never been so excited in speaking to Him, and reading his magnificent Qur'ān, which gives us all an amazing emotional feeling.

I look at the modern-day trend of those seeking knowledge and I really see the barakah and sincerity is disappearing. My heart yearned for the freedom they had to directly study under the scholars (even though studying via amazing explanations online is almost equivalent as Sh. Ahmad Jibrīl said), but at the same time I see it as a blessing that Allāh protected me from high chances of deviating, keeping me firm upon Tawhīd and Walā' and Barā' (studying from precious Imāms of Tawhīd), even if that means not having any qualifications.

If Allāh tests you, that means He loves you, and who can say anything when Allāh loves us, ya Allāh! What hate and blame is there by the creation, when the love of Allāh bulldozes it all 🕌

“And We will surely test you with something of fear and hunger and a loss of wealth and lives and fruits, but give good tidings to the patient.” [2:155].

“Who, when disaster strikes them, say, "Indeed we belong to Allah, and indeed to Him we will return.” [2:156].

“Those are the ones upon whom are blessings from their Lord and mercy. And it is those who are the [rightly] guided.” [2:157].

21 March 2018 21:22

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

:mentioned in an #authentic line of poetry (رحمه الله) Imām ash-Shāfi‘

.I complained to wakī’ about my poor memory — So he advised me to abandon sins“

“.He informed me that knowledge is light — And the light of Allāh is not given to a sinner

.(Diwān ash-Shāfi‘” (page 87“ —

21 March 2018 18:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Fatima Hijazi Oh my Allah.. i want this library. Reminds me of Harry potter.

21 March 2018 22:37

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Fatima Hijazi Nice image to look at before sleep time.

21 March 2018 23:09

:mentioned in an #authentic line of poetry (رحمه الله) Imām ash-Shāfi‘

.I complained to wakī’ about my poor memory — So he advised me to abandon sins“

“.He informed me that knowledge is light — And the light of Allāh is not given to a sinner

.(Diwān ash-Shāfi‘” (page 87“ —

21 March 2018 18:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://t.me/HadeethStudies>

As-salāmu ‘alaykum everyone! I have decided to make a new channel for hadīth since this is my favourite science in Islām which I’m so passionate about. And as the scholars say, go after your passion, because this is where you will achieve most success.

Therefore, I’m really excited to share so much benefits on this channel, for both personal and collective benefit, as I want to really motivate and inspire others to learn the science of hadīth.

I like to constantly clarify that I’m not a person of knowledge, but I do wish to become a small student of knowledge one day in the future Inshā’Allāh, and more importantly act upon my words both privately and publicly.

I will be going through the explanations of famous texts in hadīth from what I have studied, and at the same time I will continue to translate the words of our scholars. Screenshots may be also shared from classical texts, and I’m really hoping it goes really well overall.

This is simply a learning experience, not a professional lesson or anything of that sort, I know my limits alhamdulillah. Feel free to share it around for whoever may be interested!

Channel Link — <https://t.me/HadeethStudies>

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://t.me/HadeethStudies>
<https://t.me/HadeethStudies>

As-salāmu 'alaykum everyone! I have decided to make a new channel for hadīth since this is my favourite science in Islām which I'm so passionate about. And as the scholars say, go after your passion, because this is where you will achieve most success.

Therefore, I'm really excited to share so much benefits on this channel, for both personal and collective benefit, as I want to really motivate and inspire others to learn the science of hadīth.

I like to constantly clarify that I'm not a person of knowledge, but I do wish to become a small student of knowledge one day in the future Inshā'Allāh, and more importantly act upon my words both privately and publicly.

I will be going through the explanations of famous texts in hadīth from what I have studied, and at the same time I will continue to translate the words of our scholars. Screenshots may be also shared from classical texts, and I'm really hoping it goes really well overall.

This is simply a learning experience, not a professional lesson or anything of that sort, I know my limits alhamdulillah. Feel free to share it around for whoever may be interested!

Channel Link — <https://t.me/HadeethStudies>

21 March 2018 11:20

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tuFEIH5X2LA&t=0s&list=PLh0lsgZ1HfQzmPL\_nnDc\_WqwPajLos1b8&index=7
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tuFEIH5X2LA&t=0s&list=PLh0lsgZ1HfQzmPL\_nnDc\_WqwPajLos1b8&index=7

The du'a of Sa'd, subhanAllah!

20 March 2018 21:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Exposing the flaws of your ex is a lowly trait...

A man wanted to divorce his wife and was asked why, so he said: "A wise man does not expose the veil of his wife."

After he had divorced her, people asked him about her flaws so he said: "She is now a stranger to me, so what business do I have talking about her?"

-Shaykh Muhammad al-Munajjid

20 March 2018 21:40

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Exposing the flaws of your ex is a lowly trait...

A man wanted to divorce his wife and was asked why, so he said: "A wise man does not expose the veil of his wife."

After he had divorced her, people asked him about her flaws so he said: "She is now a stranger to me, so what business do I have talking about her?"

-Shaykh Muhammad al-Munajjid

20 March 2018 21:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

"The Haneef is the one who turns away from Shirk. The Muwahhid Haneef, is he who is determined to worship Allāh and avoids polytheism in all of its different types, forms, shades and colours.

He avoids the shirk of the past and present, from worshipping Ahwā' (desires), Asnām (statues), Awthān (idols), and making du'ā to other than Allah.

He also has to avoid implementing the ruling of the Tāghūt, and making Tahākum to it (i.e. seeking judgement from the Tāghūt), or joining the disbelieving organizations and what's similar to that.”

~ Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

20 March 2018 20:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“The Haneef is the one who turns away from Shirk. The Muwahhid Haneef, is he who is determined to worship Allāh and avoids polytheism in all of its different types, forms, shades and colours.

He avoids the shirk of the past and present, from worshipping Ahwā' (desires), Asnām (statues), Awthān (idols), and making du'ā to other than Allah.

He also has to avoid implementing the ruling of the Tāghūt, and making Tahākum to it (i.e. seeking judgement from the Tāghūt), or joining the disbelieving organizations and what's similar to that.”

~ Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

20 March 2018 20:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Concerning the famous Āyah on those who mocked the reciters of the Qur'ān, Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Abdul-'Azīz at-Tuwaylaī (تقبله الله) provides outstanding benefits in his amazing commentary upon “Nawāqidh al-Islām” (Nullifier #6), he writes:

“And another benefit it contains is that the one who participates in Kufr and being pleased with it, and sitting with the one who says such words in a fashion that accompanies approving of it, (then) ALL of them are Kuffār, for indeed in the verse Allāh has judged the Kufr of every individual within that group of people who sat by & did not give an exception or excuse to any of them, despite the fact that the one speaking is only 1 person and the rest are simply listeners, and as for “the group that Allāh has pardoned”, then it has been said it was a man who rebuked some of their speech, and it has been said, what is meant is that a group among them repented, and Allāh pardoned them, and the other group remained upon its Kufr and Hypocrisy, so that is the one which is punished (as stated in the Āyah).”

#ANIC | #KUFR | #TĀGHŪT | #MURJIAH

20 March 2018 19:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Concerning the famous Āyah on those who mocked the reciters of the Qur'ān, Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Abdul-'Azīz at-Tuwaylaī (تقبله الله) provides outstanding benefits in his amazing commentary upon “Nawāqidh al-Islām” (Nullifier #6), he writes:

“And another benefit it contains is that the one who participates in Kufr and being pleased with it, and sitting with the one who says such words in a fashion that accompanies approving of it, (then) ALL of them are Kuffār, for indeed in the verse Allāh has judged the Kufr of every individual within that group of people who sat by & did not give an exception or excuse to any of them, despite the fact that the one speaking is only 1 person and the rest are simply listeners, and as for “the group that Allāh has pardoned”, then it has been said it was a man who rebuked some of their speech, and it has been said, what is meant is that a group among them repented, and Allāh pardoned them, and the other group remained upon its Kufr and Hypocrisy, so that is the one which is punished (as stated in the Āyah).”

#ANIC | #KUFR | #TĀGHŪT | #MURJIAH

20 March 2018 19:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

From a document released just before the formation of the Australian National Imams Council (ANIC) in 2006 entitled 'Australian Imams: The Way Forward.'

20 March 2018 18:14

Radwan Dakkak shared Government intervention in the Muslim community's post.

From a document released just before the formation of the Australian National Imams Council (ANIC) in 2006 entitled 'Australian Imams: The Way Forward.'

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/aseerjibreel>

UPDATE: Assalamu Alaikum Wa Rahmatullahi Wa Barakatuh Brothers and sisters. JazakAllah Khair to all those who donated and those who made Du'a for the brother. May Allah accept this from you and make it a cause for you to enter Al-Firdaws. Ameen Ya Rabb.

Having spoken to the brother's wife we understand that the brother is still imprisoned in the UK and is yet to be deported. They are delaying the paperwork for his deportation and keeping the brother in for longer than he was sentenced. This is stressing the brother out as he does not know how much longer they will keep him in, and they are deliberately withholding information from him and keeping letters and books that are being sent to him.

Alhamdulillah @hhugscharity are in touch with the brother and are helping out as much as they can. I believe they are trying to get him a solicitor but are uncertain if the brother is eligible for Legal Aid to cover the solicitor's fee. May Allah reward HHUGS for all the good they are doing even when they are this stretched.

Alhamdulillah we have raised £245 online and £430 offline, so in total £675 so far. Insha'Allah we will try and hand it over to the brother's wife when we think appropriate. Please still help out as much as you can as the brother may need to pay the solicitor's fee if Legal Aid is rejected. Please also keep the brother and his wife in your Ad'iya and pray that Allah unites them very soon. May Allah protect the Muslimen and hasten the release of our imprisoned brothers and sisters worldwide. Ameen Wa Jazakumullah Khair.

20 March 2018 18:08

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS UK's post.

<https://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/aseerjibreel>

UPDATE: Assalamu Alaikum Wa Rahmatullahi Wa Barakatuh Brothers and sisters. JazakAllah Khair to all those who donated and those who made Du'a for the brother. May Allah accept this from you and make it a cause for you to enter Al-Firdaws. Ameen Ya Rabb.

Having spoken to the brother's wife we understand that the brother is still imprisoned in the UK and is yet to be deported. They are delaying the paperwork for his deportation and keeping the brother in for longer than he was sentenced. This is stressing the brother out as he does not know how much longer they will keep him in, and they are deliberately withholding information from him and keeping letters and books that are being sent to him.

Alhamdulillah @hhugscharity are in touch with the brother and are helping out as much as they can. I believe they are trying to get him a solicitor but are uncertain if the brother is eligible for Legal Aid to cover the solicitor's fee. May Allah reward HHUGS for all the good they are doing even when they are this stretched.

Alhamdulillah we have raised £245 online and £430 offline, so in total £675 so far. Insha'Allah we will try and hand it over to the brother's wife when we think appropriate. Please still help out as much as you can as the brother may need to pay the solicitor's fee if Legal Aid is rejected. Please also keep the brother and his wife in your Ad'iya and pray that Allah unites them very soon. May Allah protect the Muslimen and hasten the release of our imprisoned brothers and sisters worldwide. Ameen Wa Jazakumullah Khair.

20 March 2018 18:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

[AR] May Allāh bless our beloved Shaykh, Haytham Sayfaddīn (حفظه الله) for this outstanding work, entitled:

“A Gift to the People of Understanding by Extracting the Aḥādīth Related to the Right of Custody”

Introductions written by Sh. Abū 'Alī al-Hārith al-Hassanī and Sh. Māhir al-Fahl.

20 March 2018 17:32

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

[AR] May Allāh bless our beloved Shaykh, Haytham Sayfaddīn (حفظه الله) for this outstanding work, entitled:

“A Gift to the People of Understanding by Extracting the Aḥādīth Related to the Right of Custody”

20 March 2018 17:32

Radwan Dakkak shared Haytham Sayfaddīn's post.

Introduction by the Muḥaddith, Abū ‘Alī Al-Ḥārith Ibn ‘Alī al-Ḥasanī to my upcoming essay:

“It’ḥāfu Ahlil-Faṭānati Bi-Takhrījī Aḥādīthi Ḥaqqil-Ḥidhānah”

“A Gift to the People of Understanding by Extracting the Aḥādīth Related to the Right of Custody”

— Shaykh Haytham Sayfaddīn (حفظه الله).

20 March 2018 11:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Ibraaheem al-Harbee said, ‘I heard Ahmad (#Ibn_Hanbal) say,

‘If you #love that Allaah should keep you upon that which you love, then #remain upon that which He loves, and the #good is in the one who sees no good in himself.”

[al-Aadaab ush-Sharee’ah (2/30) by Ibn Muflih]

19 March 2018 23:11

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Ibraaheem al-Harbee said, ‘I heard Ahmad (#Ibn_Hanbal) say,

‘If you #love that Allaah should keep you upon that which you love, then #remain upon that which He loves, and the #good is in the one who sees no good in himself.”

[al-Aadaab ush-Sharee’ah (2/30) by Ibn Muflih]

19 March 2018 23:11

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“When Allāh says pray, we hear and we obey, that's it! Because if you don't pray, you're not a Muslim. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: "The difference between us and them is prayer, whomever leaves prayer is a Kāfir". Kāfir! How many of this Ummah pray? How many of this worldwide Ummah, pray? Small percentage. Small percentage of this Ummah, I would say with extremes, maybe less than 5%. How many of us pray on time? How many of us know the value of this prayer?

The people of Hell are asked "Why are you in Saqār?" They will say "We were of those who didn't pray." The worst valleys of Hell are mentioned in the Qur'ān. These are not for someone who doesn't pray, you don't pray, that's Hell 100%. But we're talking about someone who plays around with his prayer; delays prayer, doesn't pray them on time, combines them all when he gets home...the three worst valleys in Hell are for these people. The one who delays his prayer, the one who is mindless in his prayer, the one who doesn't take care of this obligation in Islām.”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

19 March 2018 18:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“When Allāh says pray, we hear and we obey, that's it! Because if you don't pray, you're not a Muslim. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: "The difference between us and them is prayer, whomever leaves prayer is a Kāfir". Kāfir! How many of this Ummah pray? How many of this worldwide Ummah, pray? Small percentage. Small percentage of this Ummah, I would say with extremes, maybe less than 5%. How many of us pray on time? How many of us know the value of this prayer?

The people of Hell are asked "Why are you in Saqār?" They will say "We were of those who didn't pray." The worst valleys of Hell are mentioned in the Qur'ān. These are not for someone who doesn't pray, you don't pray, that's Hell 100%. But we're talking about someone who plays around with his prayer; delays prayer, doesn't pray them on time, combines them all when he gets home...the three worst valleys in Hell are for these people. The one who delays his prayer, the one who is mindless in his prayer, the one who doesn't take care of this obligation in Islām.”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

19 March 2018 18:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Suhaib Bin Aijaz When shall it be released?& are u the author,bro??

19 March 2018 18:36

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Let's hope no longer than 1 month إن شاء الله.

19 March 2018 19:05

#Teaser | I've promised long ago that I would write a book on the rulings related to #Voting & #Tahākum. I have strived very hard to determine a strong & valid conclusion, may Allāh hasten its release

19 March 2018 13:30

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

#Teaser | I've promised long ago that I would write a book on the rulings related to #Voting & #Tahākum. I have strived very hard to determine a strong & valid conclusion, may Allāh hasten its release.

19 March 2018 13:30

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

mentioned that when he gets tired of studying Fiqh, he would restore (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn al-Jawzī .his energy by reading about the lives of the Awliyā

19 March 2018 13:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

mentioned that when he gets tired of studying Fiqh, he would restore (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn al-Jawzī .his energy by reading about the lives of the Awliyā

19 March 2018 13:13

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abu Ubadah You guys can visit our site Al-Ansaar Dawah, we have a lot of videos translated from Arabic to English and Danish.

<https://www.facebook.com/alansaardawah/videos/385386435231347/>

19 March 2018 11:25

Words of wisdom by the Mujāhid, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله).

19 March 2018 11:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Words of wisdom by the Mujāhid, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Abū ‘Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله).

19 March 2018 11:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I don't know what's happening with the Mufsi business in Australia, but all I know is that Shirk Shady (may Allāh curse him) had a go at some imposter pretending to be the Mufsi — But now we have a 3rd Mufti in town.

19 March 2018 10:52

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Dunyā lovers don't view seeking knowledge as an obligation!

A usual comment they will make "There's no need to waste time learning Dīn, we already know enough, saying Lā ilāha ilā Allāh and doing your obligations is all you need."

'Doing your obligation is all you need' — This excludes seeking knowledge as being an obligation.

If you want to know what's in someone's heart, pay close attention to what comes off their tongues. Even if someone is fake for example, they will speak their heart at times.

19 March 2018 10:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Dunyā lovers don't view seeking knowledge as an obligation!

A usual comment they will make "There's no need to waste time learning Dīn, we already know enough, saying Lā ilāha ilā Allāh and doing your obligations is all you need."

'Doing your obligation is all you need' — This excludes seeking knowledge as being an obligation.

If you want to know what's in someone's heart, pay close attention to what comes off their tongues. Even if someone is fake for example, they will speak their heart at times.

19 March 2018 10:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

قال العلامة محمد أمين الشنقيطي : (... وبهذه النصوص السماوية التي ذكرنا يظهر غاية الظهور ؛ أن الذين يُتبعون القوانين الوضعية التي شرعها الشيطان على لسان أوليائه مخالفة لما شرعه الله جل وعلا على السنة رسله عليهم الصلاة والسلام ، أنه لا يشك في كفرهم وشركهم إلا من طمس الله بصيرته وأعماه عن نور الوحي...#فتحكيم_هذا_النظام_في_أنفس_المجتمع_وأموالهم_وأعراضهم_وأنسابهم_وعقولهم_وأديانهم_#كفر_بخالق_السموات_والأرض_و_#تمزّد_على_نظام_السماء_الذي_وضعه_من_خلق_الخالق_كلها ، وهو_أعلم_بمصالحها،_سبحانه_وتعالى_عن_أن_يكون_معه_مشرّع_آخر_علوّاً_كبيراً ) أهـ أضواء البيان (84-4/83).

#طاغوت_الحكم
#الحاكمية

19 March 2018 09:27

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

*** RELAXATION IS IN PARADISE! ***

Ibn Al Juwzee said:

Whoever does not read the stories of the Salaf and the path that they tread, he can never tread that path. It is befitting for a person to know and understand that the nature of an individual (character) is a thief. If a person leaves his nature with the people of his time, his nature will steal from theirs and he will become similar to them. But if he reads into the lives of the Salaf his nature will join theirs and he will learn from their character....

(Telbees Iblees)

19 March 2018 07:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Umar رضي الله عنه said I am not a con-artist but the con-artist cannot deceive me

he went to the prophet asking to be freed, he صلى الله عليه وسلم. A captive came to the prophet let him صلى الله عليه وسلم said I have a family, I have kids - please let me go and so the prophet go free - without any ransom

Then in another battle they caught the same man, so he became a captive again. He went to the again just like the first time, and he asked him, may you let me go صلى الله عليه وسلم prophet without any ransom, I have a family etc. the prophet replied not this time, I don't want to release you so you can go to go Makkah shaking your shoulders proudly and saying I deceived Muhammad !!twice

!The believer does not get bitten in the same hole twice

حفظه الله Shaykh Musa Jibril -
ShaykhMusaGems#

19 March 2018 07:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

!one time said I am not a con-artist but the con-artist cannot deceive me رضي الله عنه Umar

he went to the prophet asking to be freed, he صلى الله عليه وسلم, A captive came to the prophet let him صلى الله عليه وسلم said I have a family, I have kids - please let me go and so the prophet go free - without any ransom

Then in another battle they caught the same man, so he became a captive again. He went to the again just like the first time, and he asked him, may you let me go صلى الله عليه وسلم prophet without any ransom, I have a family etc. the prophet replied not this time, I don't want to release you so you can go to go Makkah shaking your shoulders proudly and saying I deceived Muhammad !!twice

!The believer does not get bitten in the same hole twice

حفظه الله Shaykh Musa Jibril -
ShaykhMusaGems#

19 March 2018 07:07

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's recommended to get up every 20 mins from a seating or lying position to keep a good posture and avoid back problems.

18 March 2018 21:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It's recommended to get up every 20 mins from a seating or lying position to keep a good posture and avoid back problems.

18 March 2018 21:16

Radwan Dakkak shared UAE Viral's video.

He full counts to 100 🇦🇪

18 March 2018 16:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Hadīth_Benefit — “Mawqūf being raised to Marfū”.

In “Sahīh Muslim” (2842), it mentions that ‘Abdullāh Ibn Mas’ūd (رضي الله عنه) said that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

“Hell will be brought forth on that Day (of resurrection) having seventy thousand bridles, and with every handle will be seventy thousand angels dragging it.”

Imām Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله) in “Al-Bidāyah wan-Nihāyah” (2/20) mentions, “It has been narrated as marfū’ and mawqūf”.

Some of the narrators made a mistake in this hadīth by stating it's marfū’, i.e. “Ibn Mas’ūd said that the Prophet said”.

What's correct is that it's mawqūf, i.e. “Ibn Mas’ūd said” (without attributing it to the Rasūl), even though it takes the ruling on being marfū’ which I'll come to soon.

Imām ad-Dāraquṭnī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Al-Ilzāmāt wat-Tatabbu” (page 227):

“The marfū’ narration is a mistake (on behalf of the narrators).”

However many of the Muḥadithīn stated that it takes the hukm of being marfū’, and this is the benefit I want to point towards.

Why does it take the hukm of being marfū’? Well this is what the scholars of ḥadīth analyse, Al-Ḥāfiḍh al-‘Irāqī (رحمه الله) mentions in his “Alfiyyah”, anything that’s speaking about the future or the rewards and punishments, or any ijtihād that can’t come from the companion, then this must come from Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

But is this unrestricted? The answer is no, since there are two types of Sahābah:

1. Those who take narrations from Ahlul-Kitāb.
2. Those who don’t take narrations from Ahlul-Kitāb.

Who are the Sahābah that take from Ahlul-Kitāb? For example, ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Amr Ibn al-‘Ās, ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abbās, Abū Hurayrah, etc.

Therefore, if one of these Sahābah mentioned this ḥadīth, would we say it takes the ruling of coming from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم)...? No, we can’t assure that since these Sahābah take from Ahlul-Kitāb.

But what about ‘Abdullāh Ibn Mas’ūd, he is among the strictest companions in taking from Ahlul-Kitāb, he wouldn’t do so, but infact rebuked those who did.

Hence, we say it’s mawqūf but takes the hukm of being marfū’, and Allāh knows best.

18 March 2018 15:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Ḥadīth_Benefit — “Mawqūf being raised to Marfū’”.

In “Sahīh Muslim” (2842), it mentions that ‘Abdullāh Ibn Mas’ūd (رضي الله عنه) said that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

“Hell will be brought forth on that Day (of resurrection) having seventy thousand bridles, and with every handle will be seventy thousand angels dragging it.”

Imām Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله) in “Al-Bidāyah wan-Nihāyah” (2/20) mentions, “It has been narrated as marfū’ and mawqūf”.

Some of the narrators made a mistake in this ḥadīth by stating it’s marfū’, i.e. “Ibn Mas’ūd said that the Prophet said”.

What’s correct is that it’s mawqūf, i.e. “Ibn Mas’ūd said” (without attributing it to the Rasūl), even though it takes the ruling on being marfū’ which I’ll come to soon.

Imām ad-Dāraquṭnī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Al-Ilzāmāt wat-Tatabbu” (page 227):

“The marfū’ narration is a mistake (on behalf of the narrators).”

However many of the Muḥadithīn stated that it takes the hukm of being marfū’, and this is the benefit I want to point towards.

Why does it take the hukm of being marfū’? Well this is what the scholars of ḥadīth analyse, Al-Ḥāfiḍh al-‘Irāqī (رحمه الله) mentions in his “Alfiyyah”, anything that’s speaking about the future or the rewards and punishments, or any ijtihād that can’t come from the companion, then this must come from Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

But is this unrestricted? The answer is no, since there are two types of Sahābah:

1. Those who take narrations from Ahlul-Kitāb.
2. Those who don’t take narrations from Ahlul-Kitāb.

Who are the Sahābah that take from Ahlul-Kitāb? For example, ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Amr Ibn al-‘Ās, ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abbās, Abū Hurayrah, etc.

Therefore, if one of these Sahābah mentioned this ḥadīth, would we say it takes the ruling of coming from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم)...? No, we can’t assure that since these Sahābah take from Ahlul-Kitāb.

But what about ‘Abdullāh Ibn Mas’ūd, he is among the strictest companions in taking from Ahlul-Kitāb, he wouldn’t do so, but infact rebuked those who did.

Hence, we say it’s mawqūf but takes the hukm of being marfū’, and Allāh knows best.

18 March 2018 15:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

One of the greatest Mufasssireen in the past century, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Muhammad al-Amīn ash-Shinqīṭī (رحمه الله), the author of “Al-Adwā’ al-Bayān”. Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl spent alot of time studying it

18 March 2018 14:50

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

One of the greatest Mufasssireen in the past century, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Muhammad al-Amīn ash-Shinqīṭī (رحمه الله), the author of “Al-Adwā’ al-Bayān”. Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl spent alot of time studying it

18 March 2018 14:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://islamqa.info/en/30901>

SubhanAllah, this is a very nice Fatwa.

<https://islamqa.info/en/30901>

18 March 2018 11:31

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://islamqa.info/en/30901>

<https://islamqa.info/en/30901>

SubhanAllah, this is a very nice Fatwa.

18 March 2018 11:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I gotta say, I really love the humour of the Filipino brothers 🇵🇭😊😊😊

18 March 2018 09:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“A fundamental rule has surpassed us that the words of the early Imāms is given precedence over the later Imāms, if there were statements found from the early Imāms which can be used as proof.

However, concerning the statements of the scholars, we must pay attention, for example the time period of Ibn ‘Adī, Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbān is a later period to the major Imāms.

Some people consider these (Imāms) upon the same level (as the previous Imāms), then says “such and such” (from these Imāms) declared a narrator reliable, and so forth. No, this is not correct (to solely rely on their Jarh and Ta’deel), Ibn ‘Adī is at a different stage compared to the major eminent Imāms who are relied upon.

The highest level include Shu’bah, Yahyā Ibn Sa’īd al-Qattān, Abū Hātim, Abū Zur’ah, Ibn Ma’īn, Ibn Mahdī, ‘Alī Ibn al-Madīnī, Ahmad Ibn Hanbal, Al-Bukhārī, Muslim, Abū Dāwūd, An-Nasā’ī.

Generally speaking, these are at the same level in strength and usage as proof.

Student: They are lived at around the same time, right?

Shaykh: Yes, but ofcourse there are differences, An-Nasā’ī lived after them, however he remains at the same level in strength and precision.

The level of Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbān, Ibn ‘Adī is a level beneath these Imāms in Jarh and Ta’deel (i.e. the science of criticising and declaring narrators reliable).

Since at times, you find the words of the later Imāms collaborating upon a specific matter, whereas you’ll find 1 statement from the early Imāms (differing with them).

And some people think that “higher numbers” overrides (the words of the early Imām), not at all. The later Imāms collaborating together doesn't mean we give precedence to their statements above the statements of the early Imāms, even if they were fewer in number.

Student: What if there's nothing found among the statements of the early Imāms, what is done about the statements of the later Imāms?

Shaykh: We would use their statements as proof in this situation, and pay attention to it (while analysing the hadīths).”

~ The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

18 March 2018 08:34

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“A fundamental rule has surpassed us that the words of the early Imāms is given precedence over the later Imāms, if there were statements found from the early Imāms which can be used as proof.

However, concerning the statements of the scholars, we must pay attention, for example the time period of Ibn 'Adī, Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbān is a later period to the major Imāms.

Some people consider these (Imāms) upon the same level (as the previous Imāms), then says “such and such” (from these Imāms) declared a narrator reliable, and so forth. No, this is not correct (to solely rely on their Jarh and Ta'deel), Ibn 'Adī is at a different stage compared to the major eminent Imāms who are relied upon.

The highest level include Shu'bah, Yahyā Ibn Sa'īd al-Qattān, Abū Hātim, Abū Zur'ah, Ibn Ma'in, Ibn Mahdī, 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī, Ahmad Ibn Hanbal, Al-Bukhārī, Muslim, Abū Dāwūd, An-Nasā'ī.

Generally speaking, these are at the same level in strength and usage as proof.

Student: They are lived at around the same time, right?

Shaykh: Yes, but ofcourse there are differences, An-Nasā'ī lived after them, however he remains at the same level in strength and precision.

The level of Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbān, Ibn 'Adī is a level beneath these Imāms in Jarh and Ta'deel (i.e. the science of criticising and declaring narrators reliable).

Since at times, you find the words of the later Imāms collaborating upon a specific matter, whereas you'll find 1 statement from the early Imāms (differing with them).

And some people think that “higher numbers” overrides (the words of the early Imām), not at all. The later Imāms collaborating together doesn't mean we give precedence to their statements above the statements of the early Imāms, even if they were fewer in number.

Student: What if there's nothing found among the statements of the early Imāms, what is done about the statements of the later Imāms?

Shaykh: We would use their statements as proof in this situation, and pay attention to it (while analysing the hadīths).”

~ The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

18 March 2018 08:34

Radwan Dakkak shared a memory.

Volume 3, page 187.

18 March 2018 07:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I swear by Allāh, sleeping on the streets is much more comfortable than sleeping in a home cursed by shaytān.

17 March 2018 23:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I swear by Allāh, sleeping on the streets is much more comfortable than sleeping in a home cursed by shaytān.

17 March 2018 23:03

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Annoying someone 100's of times a day on the same issue may reach a stage where it becomes nearly impossible to reply back with a single word.

17 March 2018 22:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Annoying someone 100's of times a day on the same issue may reach a stage where it becomes nearly impossible to reply back with a single word.

17 March 2018 22:59

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

No matter how much Salāh or Thikr made, a big cause behind being afflicted with overwhelming distress and trials is due to things caused by one's own hands, such as the major sin of abandoning my brothers and sisters when knowing the truth, and also remaining stuck in a negative anti-Dīn environment.

No matter how strong one's Īmān is in confronting falsehood and the kuffār, the environment will always have an impact.

But at the same time, Allāh gives His worshippers many opportunities to change for the better, and this is what separates the people of trials and truth from the people of falsehood.

17 March 2018 22:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

No matter how much Salāh or Thikr made, a big cause behind being afflicted with overwhelming distress and trials is due to things caused by one's own hands, such as the major sin of abandoning my brothers and sisters when knowing the truth, and also remaining stuck in a negative anti-Dīn environment.

No matter how strong one's Īmān is in confronting falsehood and the kuffār, the environment will always have an impact.

But at the same time, Allāh gives His worshippers many opportunities to change for the better, and this is what separates the people of trials and truth from the people of falsehood.

17 March 2018 22:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"Committing Shirk for Maslaha?!"

The Imām, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) wrote:

"When they (i.e. the khawārij) took a Manhaj other than the Manhaj of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), their great acts of worship didn't intercede for them, and their good intentions didn't intercede for them, and they desired the Haqq.

So how about the situation of these contemporary (maslaha sell outs) among whom committed nullifiers (of Islām) which wasn't committed by the Khawārij, and they (i.e. maslaha sell outs) adopted a Manhaj contrary to the Manhaj of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his Sahābah.

Infact contrary to the Manhaj of the people of innovation such as the Khawārij, Mu'tazilah, Zaydiyyah, Ashā'irah and other than them, for ALL of them do not permit committing Kufr for the sake of Maslahah, and Allāh knows best."

17 March 2018 09:11

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Committing Shirk for Maslaha?!”

The Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) wrote:

“When they (i.e. the khawārij) took a Manhaj other than the Manhaj of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), their great acts of worship didn't intercede for them, and their good intentions didn't intercede for them, and they desired the Haqq.

So how about the situation of these contemporary (maslaha sell outs) among whom committed nullifiers (of Islām) which wasn't committed by the Khawārij, and they (i.e. maslaha sell outs) adopted a Manhaj contrary to the Manhaj of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his Sahābah.

Infact contrary to the Manhaj of the people of innovation such as the Khawārij, Mu'tazilah, Zaydiyyah, Ashā'irah and other than them, for ALL of them do not permit committing Kufr for the sake of Maslahah, and Allāh knows best.”

17 March 2018 09:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Maslaha doesn't even permit sins according to Imām al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله), let alone clear shirk.

17 March 2018 08:54

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Maslaha doesn't even permit sins according to Imām al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله), let alone clear shirk.

17 March 2018 08:54

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

said: "There are 5 qualities found in children, if they were present (رحمه الله) Al-Hāfidh as-Suyūti . 'within the elders with their lord, they would become Awliyā

. They don't worry about rizq . 1

. They don't complain about their creator when they become sick . 2

. They eat food united together . 3

. When they become fearful, their eyes start to weep . 4

. And when they have a dispute, they hasten towards reconciliation . 5

.(Refer to "Husn al-Muhādharah" (1/561 ~

16 March 2018 17:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

said: "There are 5 qualities found in children, if they were present (رحمه الله) Al-Hāfidh as-Suyūti . 'within the elders with their lord, they would become Awliyā

. They don't worry about rizq . 1

. They don't complain about their creator when they become sick . 2

. They eat food united together . 3

. When they become fearful, their eyes start to weep . 4

. And when they have a dispute, they hasten towards reconciliation . 5

.(Refer to "Husn al-Muhādharah" (1/561 ~

16 March 2018 17:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Reciting Sūrat az-Zalzalah in Salāt al-Fajr”

As-salāmu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullāhi wa barakātuhu, to proceed:

Q. The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) was asked: I have a question, is reciting Sūrat az-Zalzalah in the 2 Rak’ahs of Fajr a confirmed sunnah from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم)?

A. The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) responded by saying:

It has been narrated in “Sunan Abī Dāwūd” that a man from Juhaynah reported that he heard the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) reciting in the morning prayer “Ithā Zulzilatil-Ardu...” in both rak’ahs, “so I’m not sure if the messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) forgot or recited that intentionally.”

The men of narrators in the hadīth are all trustworthy, Abū Dāwūd and al-Munthirī remained silent about it, and it was authenticated (by the author) in “‘Awn al-Ma’būd” and (by the author) in “Nayl al-Awtār”.

However, it’s not to be said that it’s a sunnah, for indeed what’s narrated from the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) concerning these matters are two types:

1 — What has been narrated that he would do that frequently over and over again, such as reciting “As-Sajdah” and “Al-Insān” on the Fajr of Jum’ah. So this matter is a sunnah which is prescribed to adhere too at all times.

2 — What hasn’t been narrated concerning him doing such an action, except once, and that is like reciting “Az-Zalzalah” in the morning Salāh, or reciting “Al-A’rāf” during Salāt al-Maghrib and so forth. So in this case, it’s not prescribed to frequently do that, rather he would attain adherence to him (the rasūl) by solely doing that once.

As for constantly doing that, it would result in Bid’ah, because it’s prescribing a command which the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) never prescribed.

16 March 2018 16:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Reciting Sūrat az-Zalzalah in Salāt al-Fajr”

As-salāmu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullāhi wa barakātuhu, to proceed:

Q. The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) was asked: I have a question, is reciting Sūrat az-Zalzalah in the 2 Rak’ahs of Fajr a confirmed sunnah from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم)?

A. The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) responded by saying:

It has been narrated in “Sunan Abī Dāwūd” that a man from Juhaynah reported that he heard the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) reciting in the morning prayer “Ithā Zulzilatil-Ardu...” in both rak’ahs, “so I’m not sure if the messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) forgot or recited that intentionally.”

The men of narrators in the hadīth are all trustworthy, Abū Dāwūd and al-Munthirī remained silent about it, and it was authenticated (by the author) in “‘Awn al-Ma’būd” and (by the author) in “Nayl al-Awtār”.

However, it’s not to be said that it’s a sunnah, for indeed what’s narrated from the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) concerning these matters are two types:

1 — What has been narrated that he would do that frequently over and over again, such as reciting “As-Sajdah” and “Al-Insān” on the Fajr of Jum’ah. So this matter is a sunnah which is prescribed to adhere too at all times.

2 — What hasn’t been narrated concerning him doing such an action, except once, and that is like reciting “Az-Zalzalah” in the morning Salāh, or reciting “Al-A’rāf” during Salāt al-Maghrib and so forth. So in this case, it’s not prescribed to frequently do that, rather he would attain adherence to him (the rasūl) by solely doing that once.

As for constantly doing that, it would result in Bid’ah, because it’s prescribing a command which the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) never prescribed.

16 March 2018 16:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

If the excuse is "most people are doing it".....
or
"lets follow the 'mainstream'".....

Then read the Koran carefully:

{{(most thank not)}}
2:243; 10:60; 12:38; 27:73; 40:61

{{(most know not)}}
7:187; 12:21; 12:40; 12:68; 16:38; 30:6; 30:30; 34:28; 34:36; 40:57; 45:26

{{(most believe not)}}
11:17: 12:103; 13:1; 17:89; 25:50; 40:59

Among many other verses vilifying the majority.

The guidance is in Koran and Sunnah even if you are a one person 'nation' standing alone!

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

16 March 2018 16:12

Radwan Dakkak shared Gems of shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibril's post.

If the excuse is "most people are doing it".....
or
"lets follow the 'mainstream'".....

Then read the Koran carefully:

{{(most thank not)}}
2:243; 10:60; 12:38; 27:73; 40:61

{{(most know not)}}
7:187; 12:21: 12:40: 12:68; 16:38; 30:6; 30:30; 34:28; 34:36; 40:57; 45:26

{{(most believe not)}}
11:17: 12:103; 13:1; 17:89; 25:50; 40:59

Among many other verses vilifying the majority.

The guidance is in Koran and Sunnah even if you are a one person 'nation' standing alone!

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

16 March 2018 16:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"I finished Salāh realising I missed a Rak'ah!"

Q. The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) was asked: After Salāh was finished, I came to realise that I forgot a Rak'ah, and it was said to me that it's possible to make 1 rak'ah immediately after giving Taslīm!

A. The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) responded by saying: This is correct, so you would get up and make up the Rak'ah which you missed, then you give salāms, then you make two prostrations (of forgetfulness) after giving salāms.

The evidence for this is the hadīth of Abī Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) in the "Sahīh", when the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) gave salāms in one of the afternoon prayers, Thuhr or 'Asr, he prayed two [1] Rak'ah (instead of 4), so when his companions informed him about that, he went forward and performed two Rak'ah and said the salāms, then he made two prostrations of forgetfulness after the Taslīm.

[1] Translator's Note: This is a perfect example of Allāh سبحانه وتعالى allowing His prophets and messengers to make mistakes to prove two amazing things:

1. That the prophets are humans, which proves to us that only Allāh is deserving of worship, no one else, and that only Allāh is the All-Perfect who never forgets anything and can never make a small mistake — This hadīth refutes those who go into extremes in worshipping the prophets, raising them to the level of Allāh.

2. Another reason Allāh allows the prophets to make mistakes, so that we can learn as an ummah what to do when we make mistakes, and this is a perfect example, that Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) prayed an extra 2 rak'ah after being informed he prayed 2 for the afternoon prayer (instead of 4).

It's important to note that the prophets are protected from making major sins and continuously doing minor sins, and it's impossible they make mistakes in revelation. But when it comes to worldly matters, they may make little mistakes (as shown here) and minor sins as an example for us to realise Allāh is the only one deserving of worship.

والله أعلم

16 March 2018 15:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"I finished Salāh realising I missed a Rak'ah!"

Q. The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) was asked: After Salāh was finished, I came to realise that I forgot a Rak'ah, and it was said to me that it's possible to make 1 rak'ah immediately after giving Taslīm!

A. The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) responded by saying: This is correct, so you would get up and make up the Rak'ah which you missed, then you give salāms, then you make two prostrations (of forgetfulness) after giving salāms.

The evidence for this is the hadīth of Abī Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) in the "Sahīh", when the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) gave salāms in one of the afternoon prayers, Thuhr or 'Asr, he prayed two [1] Rak'ah (instead of 4), so when his companions informed him about that, he went forward and performed two Rak'ah and said the salāms, then he made two prostrations of forgetfulness after the Taslīm.

[1] Translator's Note: This is a perfect example of Allāh سبحانه وتعالى allowing His prophets and messengers to make mistakes to prove two amazing things:

1. That the prophets are humans, which proves to us that only Allāh is deserving of worship, no one else, and that only Allāh is the All-Perfect who never forgets anything and can never make a small mistake — This hadīth refutes those who go into extremes in worshipping the prophets, raising them to the level of Allāh.

2. Another reason Allāh allows the prophets to make mistakes, so that we can learn as an ummah what to do when we make mistakes, and this is a perfect example, that Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) prayed an extra 2 rak'ah after being informed he prayed 2 for the afternoon prayer (instead of 4).

It's important to note that the prophets are protected from making major sins and continuously doing minor sins, and it's impossible they make mistakes in revelation. But when it comes to worldly matters, they may make little mistakes (as shown here) and minor sins as an example for us to realise Allāh is the only one deserving of worship.

والله أعلم

16 March 2018 15:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Jum'ah Mubārakah, don't forget to make du'ā for the muslims.

16 March 2018 13:33

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Jum'ah Mubārakah, don't forget to make du'ā for the muslims.

16 March 2018 13:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Brothers, keep in mind that when I give advice which may sound harsh on messaging non-mahrms, understand that this is something I've implemented for my whole life, otherwise if there was hypocrisy from my private life, I would not have a go at anyone.

I swear by Allāh, ever since high school till now, I would never even think about responding to someone who would message or accept anyone's friend request to be in my friendlist, infact I would tell kāfir girls at school that I can't even look at them.

There is only 1 exception a long time ago I told someone off for not having a mahram, which I shouldn't have to begin with, a couple emails which didn't even get a response (for transcribing — I've sent emails to teachers for uni which is not really direct), and till this day, I only reply to different types of women on FB pages I run with anonymous members (أهل التوحيد etc....), and this is my best form of communication (along with public interactions), so if you have important questions, take these two options.

And even all the women I caught pretending to be guys (with "abu" names) in PM'ing me will know how harsh I was upon them, even if they were sisters upon the Manhaj.

And alhamdulillah many brothers know this from me, and would never consider it far-fetched due to my strict involvement in da'wah since a young age, and studying the dīn without informing parents, until they found out when it couldn't be hidden anymore.

This doesn't mean I haven't fallen into sins when dealing with sisters online, but nothing is private walhamdulillah, and that's why I never minded anyone monitoring my electronic devices.

I ask Allāh to make what's inside of me better than what I show to the people, protect me from hypocrisy, and allow the muslims to understand the seriousness of their Dīn for the betterment of their Ākhirah.

Your brother, Radwān.

16 March 2018 08:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Brothers, keep in mind that when I give advice which may sound harsh on messaging non-mahrams, understand that this is something I've implemented for my whole life, otherwise if there was hypocrisy from my private life, I would not have a go at anyone.

I swear by Allāh, ever since high school till now, I would never even think about responding to someone who would message or accept anyone's friend request to be in my friendlist, infact I would tell kāfir girls at school that I can't even look at them.

There is only 1 exception a long time ago I told someone off for not having a mahram, which I shouldn't have to begin with, a couple emails which didn't even get a response (for transcribing — I've sent emails to teachers for uni which is not really direct), and till this day, I only reply to different types of women on FB pages I run with anonymous members (أهل التوحيد etc....), and this is my best form of communication (along with public interactions), so if you have important questions, take these two options.

And even all the women I caught pretending to be guys (with "abu" names) in PM'ing me will know how harsh I was upon them, even if they were sisters upon the Manhaj.

And alhamdulillah many brothers know this from me, and would never consider it far-fetched due to my strict involvement in da'wah since a young age, and studying the dīn without informing parents, until they found out when it couldn't be hidden anymore.

This doesn't mean I haven't fallen into sins when dealing with sisters online, but nothing is private walhamdulillah, and that's why I never minded anyone monitoring my electronic devices.

I ask Allāh to make what's inside of me better than what I show to the people, protect me from hypocrisy, and allow the muslims to understand the seriousness of their Dīn for the betterment of their Ākhirah.

Your brother, Radwān.

16 March 2018 08:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Adhān_and_Iqāmah #Fiqh

- The Eleventh Matter: Maintaining the order during the Adhān and Iqāmah.

Maintaining the order (of the words said) during the Adhān is a condition, it's not valid without doing so, according to the overwhelming majority of the Scholars, in opposition to the Hanafiyyah, for verily the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) taught his companions the Adhān in this way, so it is Tawqeefi (i.e. a divine command).

And if any of the phrases were mentioned before or after (other phrases), the Adhān would be invalid, and it's necessary to raise the voice in the Adhān and Iqāmah.

And the Scholars have unanimously agreed upon the legislation of raising the voice in the Adhān, infact the Majority of them went towards stipulating that as a condition (for its validity), for verily "Al-Bukhārī" narrated on the authority of Abī Sa'īd al-Khudrī (رضي الله عنه) that he said to 'Abdul Rahmān Ibn Abī Sals'a'a:

"I see you are fond of sheep and the desert, so when you want to pronounce the Adhan, raise your voice with it." [1].

And the purpose behind the legislation of the Adhān is: Announcing (prayer) and allowing people to hear, and this isn't actualised except by raising the voice.

As for going into exaggerations in raising the voice, wherein he exerts so much effort which resembles intense screaming, this is not prescribed, since Al-Bayhaqī (رحمه الله) narrated on the authority of Abī Mah'thūrah, he said, when 'Umar arrived to Makkah, I called the Athān, so 'Umar said to me:

"O Abā Mah'thūrah, aren't you afraid that your urachus will fissure?!" [2]

But as for if the Mu'adhin was alone, calling the Adhān to himself, or he has a small group with him, then it's not stipulated for him to raise his voice, rather he lets himself and whoever with him hear (the Adhān) alone, according to the agreement of the Scholars.

And using modern technology such as "Loudspeakers" to allow it to reach further, is something praiseworthy, and a valid aim.

— Taken from “al-Masā’il al-muhimma fil-Athāni wal-Iqāmah”.

[1] It was narrated by al-Bukhārī (609).

[2] It was narrated by al-Bayhaqī (1910).

16 March 2018 04:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Adhān_and_Iqāmah #Fiqh

- The Eleventh Matter: Maintaining the order during the Adhān and Iqāmah.

Maintaining the order (of the words said) during the Adhān is a condition, it's not valid without doing so, according to the overwhelming majority of the Scholars, in opposition to the Hanafiyyah, for verily the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) taught his companions the Adhān in this way, so it is Tawqeefi (i.e. a divine command).

And if any of the phrases were mentioned before or after (other phrases), the Adhān would be invalid, and it's necessary to raise the voice in the Adhān and Iqāmah.

And the Scholars have unanimously agreed upon the legislation of raising the voice in the Adhān, infact the Majority of them went towards stipulating that as a condition (for its validity), for verily "Al-Bukhārī" narrated on the authority of Abī Saʿīd al-Khudrī (رضي الله عنه) that he said to 'Abdul Rahmān Ibn Abī Salsa'a'a:

"I see you are fond of sheep and the desert, so when you want to pronounce the Adhan, raise your voice with it." [1].

And the purpose behind the legislation of the Adhān is: Announcing (prayer) and allowing people to hear, and this isn't actualised except by raising the voice.

As for going into exaggerations in raising the voice, wherein he exerts so much effort which resembles intense screaming, this is not prescribed, since Al-Bayhaqī (رحمه الله) narrated on the authority of Abī Mah'thūrah, he said, when 'Umar arrived to Makkah, I called the Athān, so 'Umar said to me:

"O Abā Mah'thūrah, aren't you afraid that your urachus will fissure?!" [2]

But as for if the Mu'adhin was alone, calling the Adhān to himself, or he has a small group with him, then it's not stipulated for him to raise his voice, rather he lets himself and whoever with him hear (the Adhān) alone, according to the agreement of the Scholars.

And using modern technology such as "Loudspeakers" to allow it to reach further, is something praiseworthy, and a valid aim.

— Taken from “al-Masā’il al-muhimma fil-Athāni wal-Iqāmah”.

[1] It was narrated by al-Bukhārī (609).

[2] It was narrated by al-Bayhaqī (1910).

16 March 2018 04:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur'ān Lesson — (5/200) ﴿٥﴾

We will be clarifying the meaning of the word بَقْلَهَا (green herbs) Inshā'Allāh.

Allāh speaks about banī isrā'eel in the Qur'ān:

يَا مُوسَىٰ لَن نَّضِيرَ عَلَيْكَ طَعَامٍ وَاجِدٍ فَادْعُ لَنَا رَبَّكَ يُخْرِجْ لَنَا مِمَّا تُنْبِئُ الْأَرْضُ مِنْ بَقْلِهَا وَقِثَّائِهَا وَفُومِهَا وَعَدَسِيهَا وَتَصَلِّهَا

"O Moses, we can never endure one [kind of] food. So call upon your Lord to bring forth for us from the earth its green herbs (بَقْلِهَا) and its cucumbers and its garlic and its lentils and its onions." [2:61].

What is meant by بَقْلِهَا is the vegetation produced during spring season, which humans and animals eat [1], and it has been said that it's a plant without a stem [2].

However, it's not referring to الأُفْط (Dish of mashed dates with milk and butter) which some people have become accustomed to calling بَقْلًا.

And Allāh knows best.

[1] Refer to “Zād al-Masīr” (1/88).

[2] Refer to “Tafsīr al-Qurtubī” (1/424).

16 March 2018 02:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur’ān Lesson — (5/200) ﴿٥﴾

We will be clarifying the meaning of the word بَقْلُهَا (green herbs) Inshā’Allāh.

Allāh speaks about banī isrā’eel in the Qur’ān:

يَا مُوسَىٰ لَن نَّبْصِيرَ عَلَىٰ طَعَامٍ وَاحِدٍ قَادُغٌ لَّنَا رَبَّنَا يُخْرِجْ لَّنَا مِنَّمَا تُنْبِئُ الْأَرْضُ مِن بَقْلِهَا وَقُثَاثِهَا وَفُومِهَا وَعَدَسِهَا وَبَصَلِهَا

"O Moses, we can never endure one [kind of] food. So call upon your Lord to bring forth for us from the earth its green herbs (بَقْلُهَا) and its cucumbers and its garlic and its lentils and its onions." [2:61].

What is meant by بَقْلُهَا is the vegetation produced during spring season, which humans and animals eat [1], and it has been said that it’s a plant without a stem [2].

However, it's not referring to الأُفْط (Dish of mashed dates with milk and butter) which some people have become accustomed to calling بَقْلًا.

And Allāh knows best.

[1] Refer to “Zād al-Masīr” (1/88).

[2] Refer to “Tafsīr al-Qurtubī” (1/424).

16 March 2018 02:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Kitāb_Tawhīd

Kitāb at-Tawhīd lesson (0/67):

Introduction

Q1. Who is the author of this book? And when was he born?

A. He is Shaykh al-Mujaddid Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb Ibn Sulaymān at-Tamīmī (رحمه الله). He was born in the year 1115H and passed away in the year 1206H.

Q2. Name some explanations for Kitāb at-Tawhīd?

A. “Taysīr al-‘Azīz al-Hamīd” by Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), “Fath al-Majīd” by Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله), “Hāshiyat Kitāb at-Tawhīd” by Shaykh Ibn Qāsim (رحمه الله), including many others.

Q3. How many chapters are found in this book?

A. It consists of “67” chapters.

Q4. What are the categories of Tawhīd? And are they united together? And which one is the author referring too?

A. The scholars have two methods in categorising Tawhīd, despite its meaning being one and the same:

The first method: Categorising it into 3 types, al-Lālakā’ī (رحمه الله) and Ibn Battah al-‘Akbarī (رحمه الله) adopted this categorisation, which is:

1. “Tawhīd ar-Rubūbiyyah” — It is to unify Allāh through His actions, and some know this by unifying Allāh via creating, providing and controlling (the universe).
2. “Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah” — It is to unify Allāh via the actions of the worshippers, and some know this by unifying Allāh with ‘Ibādah (worship).

3. “Tawhīd al-Asmā’ was-Sifāt” — It is the unification of Allāh via what is exclusive to Him from Asmā’ (names) and Sifāt (attributes), without Tah’rīf (distorting its meaning), nor Ta’tīl (negating the names and attributes), nor Tak’yīf (asking how the attributes work), nor Tam’t’hīl (likening Allāh’s attributes with the creation).

The second method: Categorising it into two types, Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) and Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) adopted this categorisation, which is:

1. “Tawhīd Fil-Ma’rifah wal-Ithbāt” — Which is Tawhīd ar-Rubūbiyyah and Asmā’ & Sifāt.
2. “Tawhīd al-Qasd wat-Talab” — Which is Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah.

And the categories of Tawhīd are united together, every category from it is not separated from the other. So whoever meets a category from it, but doesn’t meet the other category, then he wouldn’t be considered a Muwahhid.

Moreover, Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah which is also called “Tawhīd al-‘Ibādah” is what the author (رحمه الله) is referring too in writing the book, even if he may have accompanied it with the other two types (of Tawhīd) as well.

Q5. What are the contents of this book in brief terms?

A. The contents contain the following:

- 1 — The importance of Tawhīd, its meaning, its rights, and what’s required to perfect it.
- 2 — Mentioning what negates its foundation due to major shirk.
- 3 — Mentioning what negates its required perfection due to minor shirk or innovations that maligns Tawhīd, or sins which make Tawhīd deficit.
- 4 — Mentioning the means and causes which reach towards shirk via its various types.

All of this comes from the explicit clear cut evidences from the Qur’ān, Sunnah and statements of the pious predecessors from the Ummah.

Q6. What does the author (رحمه الله) mean when he says at the end of every chapter, “there are matters concerning this”?

A. The meaning of his statement, “there are matters concerning this”, i.e. There are benefits, as pointed out by Al-‘Allāmah Abā Butayn (رحمه الله) in “Ad-Durar”.

And these matters or benefits consist of extraction and important clarifications which help the student (of knowledge) to understand and realise the intention of the author (رحمه الله). Infact, it’s not possible to understand the chapter except through these matters (mentioned at the end). For this reason, among the mistakes is to be heedless of these matters (at the end of the chapter) and not trying to understand them.

— The noble Shaykh, Abū Sulaymān al-Barāk (فك الله أسرہ).

16 March 2018 02:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Kitāb_Tawhīd

Kitāb at-Tawhīd lesson (0/67):

Introduction

Q1. Who is the author of this book? And when was he born?

A. He is Shaykh al-Mujaddid Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdīl-Wahhāb Ibn Sulaymān at-Tamīmī (رحمه الله). He was born in the year 1115H and passed away in the year 1206H.

Q2. Name some explanations for Kitāb at-Tawhīd?

A. “Taysīr al-‘Azīz al-Hamīd” by Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdīl-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), “Fath al-Majīd” by Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله), “Hāshiyat Kitāb at-Tawhīd” by Shaykh Ibn Qāsim (رحمه الله), including many others.

Q3. How many chapters are found in this book?

A. It consists of “67” chapters.

Q4. What are the categories of Tawhīd? And are they united together? And which one is the author referring too?

A. The scholars have two methods in categorising Tawhīd, despite its meaning being one and the same:

The first method: Categorising it into 3 types, al-Lālakā'ī (رحمه الله) and Ibn Battah al-Akbarī (رحمه الله) adopted this categorisation, which is:

1. "Tawhīd ar-Rubūbiyyah" — It is to unify Allāh through His actions, and some know this by unifying Allāh via creating, providing and controlling (the universe).
2. "Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah" — It is to unify Allāh via the actions of the worshippers, and some know this by unifying Allāh with 'Ibādah (worship).
3. "Tawhīd al-Asmā' was-Sifāt" — It is the unification of Allāh via what is exclusive to Him from Asmā' (names) and Sifāt (attributes), without Tah'rīf (distorting its meaning), nor Ta'tīl (negating the names and attributes), nor Tak'yīf (asking how the attributes work), nor Tam'thīl (likening Allāh's attributes with the creation).

The second method: Categorising it into two types, Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) and Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) adopted this categorisation, which is:

1. "Tawhīd Fil-Ma'rifah wal-Ithbāt" — Which is Tawhīd ar-Rubūbiyyah and Asmā' & Sifāt.
2. "Tawhīd al-Qasd wat-Talab" — Which is Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah.

And the categories of Tawhīd are united together, every category from it is not separated from the other. So whoever meets a category from it, but doesn't meet the other category, then he wouldn't be considered a Muwahhid.

Moreover, Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah which is also called "Tawhīd al-'Ibādah" is what the author (رحمه الله) is referring too in writing the book, even if he may have accompanied it with the other two types (of Tawhīd) as well.

Q5. What are the contents of this book in brief terms?

A. The contents contain the following:

- 1 — The importance of Tawhīd, its meaning, its rights, and what's required to perfect it.
- 2 — Mentioning what negates its foundation due to major shirk.
- 3 — Mentioning what negates its required perfection due to minor shirk or innovations that maligns Tawhīd, or sins which make Tawhīd deficit.
- 4 — Mentioning the means and causes which reach towards shirk via its various types.

All of this comes from the explicit clear cut evidences from the Qur'ān, Sunnah and statements of the pious predecessors from the Ummah.

Q6. What does the author (رحمه الله) mean when he says at the end of every chapter, "there are matters concerning this"?

A. The meaning of his statement, "there are matters concerning this", i.e. There are benefits, as pointed out by Al-'Allāmah Abā Butayn (رحمه الله) in "Ad-Durar".

And these matters or benefits consist of extraction and important clarifications which help the student (of knowledge) to understand and realise the intention of the author (رحمه الله). Infact, it's not possible to understand the chapter except through these matters (mentioned at the end). For this reason, among the mistakes is to be heedless of these matters (at the end of the chapter) and not trying to understand them.

— The noble Shaykh, Abū Sulaymān al-Barāk (فك الله أسرته).

16 March 2018 02:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

A stunning and simple explanation of "Kitab at-Tawhīd" (127 pages) by Shaykh Abu Sulayman al-Barak (May Allah free him) - He taught brothers the correct manhaj before his imprisonment, and is among those who benefited alot from Shaykh 'Ali al-Khudayr (May Allah free him).

https://ia601503.us.archive.org/29/items/puretaawheed1\_gmail\_201803/%D8%B4%D8%B1%D8%AD%D9%83%D8%AA%D8%A7%D8%A8%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%AA%D9%88%D8%AD%D9%8A%D8%AF%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%A8%D8%B1%D8%A7%D9%83.pdf

16 March 2018 01:14

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ibn Haneefah English?

16 March 2018 01:36

Radwan Dakkak Check the most recent post, I'll be translating it إن شاء الله.

16 March 2018 02:12

A stunning and simple explanation of "Kitab at-Tawhīd" (127 pages) by Shaykh Abu Sulayman al-Barak (May Allah free him) - He taught brothers the correct manhaj before his imprisonment, and is among those who benefited alot from Shaykh 'Ali al-Khudayr (May Allah free him).

https://ia601503.us.archive.org/29/items/puretaawheed1\_gmail\_201803/%D8%B4%D8%B1%D8%AD%D9%83%D8%AA%D8%A7%D8%A8%20%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%AA%D9%88%D8%AD%D9%8A%D8%AF%20%20%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%A8%D8%B1%D8%A7%D9%83.pdf

16 March 2018 01:14

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20180315

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20180315

ALLAHU AKBAR, rejoice O muslims!!

There are 13 lessons on the explanation of Bulūgh al-Marām by the noble 'Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تقبله الله) found on this link:

15 March 2018 21:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20180315

ALLAHU AKBAR, rejoice O muslims!!

There are 13 lessons on the explanation of Bulūgh al-Marām by the noble 'Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تقبله الله) found on this link:

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20180315

15 March 2018 21:33

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Please don't expect me to notice your friend requests or message requests!!!

I have like 300 message requests and 990 friend requests, and once it reaches 1,000 I can't accept anymore, which leaves u with the following option.

If you want to get my attention, commenting is the best way to go about it, as I may quickly fly by a message, as I sometimes wake up to 5+ per day.

Thanks in advance!

15 March 2018 18:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

SubhānAllāh, what strikes me is a brother حفظه الله who observed me for 3+ years and was too shy to approach me. When we spoke, he wishes we met earlier and regretted remaining silent on those who spoke about me 😊 He also mentioned that he finds it hard to trust people coz of everyone taking advantage of his kindness, subhānAllāh. I've never met a brother who's as innocent like him, and he's the type of guy that makes u laugh by just looking at him :D

15 March 2018 17:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

You might be married to the worst man ever- like 'Asiyah عليها السلام was married to Pharoah but it didn't change her loyalty and love for Allah.

You might be married to the best of men like the Prophets of Allah and still not enter Jannah - like the wife of Nabi Lut and Nuh عليهما السلام .

You might not be married to any man, like Maryam عليها السلام and Allah can make your ranks higher than any woman on Earth.

Know your priorities - love and trust in Allah first.

15 March 2018 06:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Caption: “These are the unknown people who are accused and belittled.”

14 March 2018 19:42

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

True love.

14 March 2018 19:39

Radwan Dakkak shared a memory.

14 March 2018 09:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

would read 100 Tafāsīr upon an Āyah, then make du’ā (رحمه الله) Sometimes, Imām Ibn Taymiyyah to Allāh to give him understanding - How about those who give Tafsīr without even knowing da’eef from sahih

14 March 2018 08:34

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Muhammad Al Fayed How great are their numbers in social media. May Allah give us clear insight. They act as if they were at the levels of these scholars -may Allah preserve them- wether knowingly or unintentionally (to think well of them) while knowledge is away from them. May Allah give us sincerity, humility and respect for the scholars. Ameen and I advice myself first.

14 March 2018 23:24

Ilyas Mansur ameen

15 March 2018 00:36

would read 100 Tafāsīr upon an Āyah, then make du’ā (رحمه الله) Sometimes, Imām Ibn Taymiyyah to Allāh to give him understanding -How about those who give Tafsīr without even knowing da’eef from sahih

14 March 2018 08:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. I remember you once said a man can be a major sinner for looking at a woman, please clarify?

A. Looking at a woman who's not lawful for you is harām and a minor sin [1], but it can make one a major sinner ‘not due to the sin itself turning into a major sin’, but due to constantly doing this minor sin without heed, and not caring about Allāh looking at you in such a state, this is a belittling of Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, and this is what the scholars mean when they say “a minor sin can turn into a major sin”.

والله أعلم

[1] Note: There’s also a misconception spread by many preachers that “you are allowed to look a woman once, but not a second time” using the hadīth of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), and this is false! This is what gives brothers who don’t lower their gaze the justification to look once (which they may twist into 1 long minute!), I seek refuge in Allāh.

Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) never intended that you can intentionally look at a woman once, rather he said “You have the 1st look, but not the next”, meaning if you saw her unexpectedly on the streets or she popped up out of nowhere, you wouldn’t be considered sinful for that.

14 March 2018 07:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. I remember you once said a man can be a major sinner for looking at a woman, please clarify?

A. Looking at a woman who’s not lawful for you is harām and a minor sin [1], but it can make one a major sinner ‘not due to the sin itself turning into a major sin’, but due to constantly doing this minor sin without heed, and not caring about Allāh looking at you in such a state, this is a belittling of Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, and this is what the scholars mean when they say “a minor sin can turn into a major sin”.

والله أعلم

[1] Note: There’s also a misconception spread by many preachers that “you are allowed to look a woman once, but not a second time” using the hadīth of Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), and this is false! This is what gives brothers who don’t lower their gaze the justification to look once (which they may twist into 1 long minute!), I seek refuge in Allāh.

Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) never intended that you can intentionally look at a woman once, rather he said “You have the 1st look, but not the next”, meaning if you saw her unexpectedly on the streets or she popped up out of nowhere, you wouldn’t be considered sinful for that.

14 March 2018 07:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. What’s your favourite science in Islām.

A. Without a doubt, the science of Hadīth — She grabs my heart, and if polygyny was possible in this context, as a man I wouldn’t look elsewhere except at her, marrying her over and over again 4 times. I hope my answer is clear to you, may Allāh send down His mercy upon you.

والله أعلم

14 March 2018 07:13

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. What’s your favourite science in Islām.

A. Without a doubt, the science of Hadīth — She grabs my heart, and if polygyny was possible in this context, as a man I wouldn’t look elsewhere except at her, marrying her over and over again 4 times. I hope my answer is clear to you, may Allāh send down His mercy upon you.

والله أعلم

14 March 2018 07:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://youtu.be/uyzCd8yPL\_E

لا يجيب عمن يسأل عن حكم بشار ويدعي أنها فتنة!! أمثل هذا الدجال يؤخذ منه الفتاوى؟! الجهمية يفتخرون بالفوزان لانه غني عن التعريف، بالله عليكم أهكذا يتلقى العلم الشرعي يا جهميون؟! إستفاضته لا ينفعكم أمام الله يوم القيامة، فتبرؤوا من أئمة الكفر قبل أن تمسوا بعذاب اليم، وإني لكم ناصح أمين، فاتقوا الله في أنفسكم.

https://youtu.be/uyzCd8yPL\_E

13 March 2018 23:08

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://youtu.be/uyzCd8yPL\_E

https://youtu.be/uyzCd8yPL\_E

لا يجيب عمن يسأل عن حكم بشار ويدعي أنها فتنة!! أمثل هذا الدجال يؤخذ منه الفتاوى؟! الجهمية يفتخرون بالفوزان لانه غني عن التعريف، بالله عليكم أهكذا يتلقى العلم الشرعي يا جهميون؟! إستفاضته لا ينفعكم أمام الله يوم القيامة، فتبرؤوا من أئمة الكفر قبل أن تمسوا بعذاب اليم، وإني لكم ناصح أمين، فاتقوا الله في أنفسكم.

13 March 2018 23:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

channel in #Albanian أهل التوحيد Link to the
<https://t.me/joinchat/AAAAAFGUN-dFWBc6YW5JAg>

13 March 2018 22:34

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

channel in #Albanian أهل التوحيد Link to the
<https://t.me/joinchat/AAAAAFGUN-dFWBc6YW5JAg>

13 March 2018 22:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Does anyone know who runs the “Ummah of Tawheed” whatsapp group? If so, can they contact me, it’s urgent.

13 March 2018 19:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

One of the bad things about being old fashioned and not using a phone, is not knowing exactly when to pick someone up or where someone is.

It taught me a good lesson in waiting patiently and how to utilise time throughout these years, but I need to work on carrying a mobile phone with me, something I find difficult to do.

13 March 2018 15:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A brother asked me a question 6 months ago, and I would think about him every week (like every 3 days ya’nī), because it’s necessary to get back to him, it’s not good to leave people hanging.

Anyways, after 6 months, I messaged him an excellent answer, and subhānAllāh at the same time he started working in my area and before I messaged him, he told himself should I tell Radwān I work here, but he was like nah, he probz forgot me lol.

Alhamdulillah, despite the rain, اللهم صيباً نافعاً, we had a wonderful chat together, he was just surprised I look more aussie in RL, i’m like what m8 ☺ Then asked don’t I feel uncomfortable wearing ‘Abāyā in this suburb, I’m like nah, proud of my religion الحمد لله, no kāfir can say anything.

13 March 2018 15:04

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Short response against the Murji’ah who take Ibn Taymiyyah’s quote on the Tatār out of context.

#Claim — Ibn Taymiyyah did not make takfīr upon those who allied with the Tatār against the muslims, as he mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/552):

“Moreover, no one fights with them (i.e. the Tatār) who’s not forced, except a fāsiq or muḥtadī’ or zindīq”.

#Response

- Firstly — You have accused Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) of something he has never said, which is claiming he doesn’t make takfīr upon whoever allies with the Tatār (or any other type of kuffār) against the muslims, and the quote you provided doesn’t substantiate this claim.

- Secondly — If you refer back to the same page, Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) is talking about those who possess such attributes prior to joining the army of the Tatār, as he said:

“Moreover, no one fights with them (i.e. the Tatār) who’s not forced, except a fāsiq or muḥtadī’ or zindīq, such as the Qarāmitah Bāṭiniyyah infidels, the Rāfidah who insult the companions, the Jahmiyyah Mu’attilah who negate Allāh’s names and attributes among the Ḥalūliyyah, and there are those who blind-follow them whom ascribe themselves to knowledge and the Dīn, who are infact worse than them.”

So what’s apparent from the words of Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) is that he’s speaking about the reality of those who join the Tatār, not the ruling on fighting under their banner and flag!

Since he said, no one fights with the Tatār “except a fāsiq or muḥtadī’ or zindīq, such as the Qarāmitah Bāṭiniyyah infidels, the Rāfidah who insult the companions...”

So what he means by ‘Zindīq’ are the Qarāmitah mushrikīn, and what he means by “muḥtadī’ and fāsiq” are the Rāfidah and Jahmiyyah. Therefore he’s speaking about the reality of those who join them, and that they are either kuffār, fuṣṣāq or muḥtadī’ah.

This is similar to saying “no one sacrifices to other than Allāh except a person with weak Īmān or a person that lacks tawakkul” — This doesn’t mean a person who commits this shirk has weak Īmān, but it means that only those with weak Īmān would fall into such shirk.

This is testified by numerous Āyāh and ḥadīths, such as the famous incident of the companions who mocked the reciters of the Qur’ān, what made them due this was their weak Īmān.

Allāh also says, “And if they had believed in Allah and the Prophet and in what was revealed to him, they would not have taken them as allies; but many of them are fāsiqūn (defiantly disobedient).” [5:81].

The noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Dr. ‘Uṭhmān Āl-Nāẓih (تقبله الله) comments upon this Āyah by saying:

“This ‘fīsq’ is what caused them to ally with the disbelievers.”

For additional benefit, it’s important to note that the “Rāfidah Sabbābah” Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) is referring too are those Rawāfiḍh who insult several groups among the companions, not referring to the Ghulāt ar-Rāfidah who insulted all companions except a handful and direct acts of worship to ‘Alī, committing clear shirk, Ibn Taymiyyah made takfīr upon these people and even upon those who refrained from making takfīr (in general terms, but specific takfīr returns back to establishing the hujjah).

• Thirdly — How can you base your beliefs upon an unclear quote of Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله), while abandoning the clear verses from the Qur’ān and Sunnah, infact even the words of Ibn Taymiyyah himself on the kufr of those who ally with the Tatār, who said:

إذا وجدتُموني في صفوف التتار و فوق رأسي مصحفًا فاقتلونني

“If you find me in the ranks of the Tatār, and there’s a muṣḥaf on my head, then kill me!”

An individual may refute this quote I brought by saying ‘killing’ doesn’t equate to ‘takfīr’, and that’s a fair response which I must agree with. Therefore it’s required of me to prove that what he means here is killing in terms of kufr, as it will be shown below Inshā’Allāh.

To give a few examples to prove that Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) ruled upon them with kufr, Shaykh Nāṣir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) mentions in “At-Tibyān” (page 101):

“Around the year 700H, the Tatār attacked the lands of Islām in the region of Shām and in other places and some of those who ascribed to Islām assisted them, so Shahkhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah issued a legal verdict declaring whoever assisted them as an apostate from Islām.”

Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) spoke abundantly about this issue, he mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/530):

“Everyone who joins up with them — meaning with the Tatār — from the commanders of the armies and other than the commanders, then his ruling is their ruling. There is found in them (the commanders) of apostasy from the legislations of Islām in proportion to what they (i.e. the Tatār) have apostated from.

If the Salaf called those who withheld the Zakāt apostates, even though they would fast and pray and they did not fight the Jamā’ah (congregation) of the muslims, then what about those who ended up with (joined) the enemies of Allāh and His Messenger fighting against the muslims?!”

Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) also spoke about whoever is forced to go out with the Tatār, and that they are all fought as mushrikīn without requiring to differentiate between who’s forced or not, as he repeated in several places in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/535-538) and (28/546-547), whilst also mentioning that Tatarrus (when some muslims get mixed with kuffār or taken as human shields), it’s permissible to go forth by ljmā’.

In reference to those fighting with the Tatār, Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/537):

“Allāh has destroyed the army that wanted to violate His sanctity (i.e. ka’bah), while He has the ability to differentiate between them, and they are sent out with different intentions, so how could it be obligatory upon the believers to differentiate between the mukrah (one forced) and other than him, while they are unable to know that.

Rather, if a claimer makes a claim that he was sent out under the pretext of Ikrāh, that mere claim wouldn't benefit him, as it has been narrated that al-'Abbās Ibn 'Abdīl-Muttalib said to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) when he was captured by the muslims on the day of badr:

"O messenger of Allāh, I was forced", so the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) replied, "As for your apparent, that was shown to us, but as for your inner secrets, that's left to Allāh"."

Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) affirms that whoever joins a group of apostates or enemies of Islām, then he takes the hukm of that group (even if there may be some truly excused with Ikrāh in the sight of Allāh), as he stated in "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (28/509):

"They are fought like the apostates and abstainers of Zakāt, not the way the Bughāt are fought."

As for whoever is truly forced and not making a feeble claim, they are not allowed to fight or kill any muslim whatsoever (but simply drop their weapon), as Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (28/539), stating there's a consensus on this point.

Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) further mentions in "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (28/534):

"Whoever abandons them (i.e. the muslims) and joins the Tatār, he would be more deserving of being fought than many of the Tatār, for indeed the Tatār have from amongst them the one who is forced and not forced, and the sunnah has affirmed that the ruling upon the apostate is more severe than the original disbeliever."

Moreover, numerous scholars have mentioned a consensus on the kufr of whoever allies with the kuffār against the muslims, and one of the best books written on the topic is "At-Tibyān" by the noble Imām, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) which is translated into English, wal-hamdulilāh.

And Allāh knows best.

13 March 2018 10:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Short response against the Murji'ah who take Ibn Taymiyyah's quote on the Tatār out of context.

#Claim — Ibn Taymiyyah did not make takfīr upon those who allied with the Tatār against the muslims, as he mentioned in "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (28/552):

"Moreover, no one fights with them (i.e. the Tatār) who's not forced, except a fāsiq or muḥtadī' or zindīq".

#Response

- Firstly — You have accused Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) of something he has never said, which is claiming he doesn't make takfīr upon whoever allies with the Tatār (or any other type of kuffār) against the muslims, and the quote you provided doesn't substantiate this claim.

- Secondly — If you refer back to the same page, Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) is talking about those who possess such attributes prior to joining the army of the Tatār, as he said:

"Moreover, no one fights with them (i.e. the Tatār) who's not forced, except a fāsiq or muḥtadī' or zindīq, such as the Qarāmitah Bāṭiniyyah infidels, the Rāfidah who insult the companions, the Jahmiyyah Mu'attilah who negate Allāh's names and attributes among the Halūliyyah, and there are those who blind-follow them whom ascribe themselves to knowledge and the Dīn, who are infact worse than them."

So what's apparent from the words of Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) is that he's speaking about the reality of those who join the Tatār, not the ruling on fighting under their banner and flag!

Since he said, no one fights with the Tatār "except a fāsiq or muḥtadī' or zindīq, such as the Qarāmitah Bāṭiniyyah infidels, the Rāfidah who insult the companions..."

So what he means by 'Zindīq' are the Qarāmitah mushrikīn, and what he means by "muḥtadī' and fāsiq" are the Rāfidah and Jahmiyyah. Therefore he's speaking about the reality of those who join them, and that they are either kuffār, fassāq or muḥtadī'ah.

This is similar to saying "no one sacrifices to other than Allāh except a person with weak Īmān or a person that lacks tawakkul" — This doesn't mean a person who commits this shirk has weak Īmān, but it means that only those with weak Īmān would fall into such shirk.

This is testified by numerous Āyāh and ḥadīths, such as the famous incident of the companions who mocked the reciters of the Qur'ān, what made them due this was their weak Īmān.

Allāh also says, "And if they had believed in Allah and the Prophet and in what was revealed to him, they would not have taken them as allies; but many of them are fāsiqūn (defiantly disobedient)."

The noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Dr. ‘Uthmān Āl-Nāzih (تقبله الله) comments upon this Āyah by saying:

“This ‘fisc’ is what caused them to ally with the disbelievers.”

For additional benefit, it’s important to note that the “Rāfidah Sabbābah” Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) is referring too are those Rawāfidh who insult several groups among the companions, not referring to the Ghulāt ar-Rāfidah who insulted all companions except a handful and direct acts of worship to ‘Alī, committing clear shirk, Ibn Taymiyyah made takfīr upon these people and even upon those who refrained from making takfīr (in general terms, but specific takfīr returns back to establishing the hujjah).

• Thirdly — How can you base your beliefs upon an unclear quote of Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله), while abandoning the clear verses from the Qur’ān and Sunnah, infact even the words of Ibn Taymiyyah himself on the kufr of those who ally with the Tatār, who said:

إذا وجدتوني في صفوف التتار وفوق رأسي مصحفًا فاقتلوني

“If you find me in the ranks of the Tatār, and there’s a mus’haf on my head, then kill me!”

An individual may refute this quote I brought by saying ‘killing’ doesn’t equate to ‘takfīr’, and that’s a fair response which I must agree with. Therefore it’s required of me to prove that what he means here is killing in terms of kufr, as it will be shown below Inshā’Allāh.

To give a few examples to prove that Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) ruled upon them with kufr, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) mentions in “At-Tibyān” (page 101):

“Around the year 700H, the Tatār attacked the lands of Islām in the region of Shām and in other places and some of those who ascribed to Islām assisted them, so Shakhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah issued a legal verdict declaring whoever assisted them as an apostate from Islām.”

Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) spoke abundantly about this issue, he mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/530):

“Everyone who joins up with them — meaning with the Tatār — from the commanders of the armies and other than the commanders, then his ruling is their ruling. There is found in them (the commanders) of apostasy from the legislations of Islām in proportion to what he has apostated from.

If the Salaf called those who withheld the Zakāt apostates, even though they would fast and pray and they did not fight the Jamā’ah (congregation) of the muslims, then what about those who ended up with (joined) the enemies of Allāh and His Messenger fighting against the muslims?!”

Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) also spoke about whoever is forced to go out with the Tatār, and that they are all fought as mushrikīn without requiring to differentiate between who’s forced or not, as he repeated in several places in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/535-538) and (28/546-547), whilst also mentioning that Tatarus (when some muslims get mixed with kuffār or taken as human shields), it’s permissible to go forth by ljmā’.

In reference to those fighting with the Tatār, Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/537):

“Allāh has destroyed the army that wanted to violate His sanctity (i.e. ka’bah), while He has the ability to differentiate between them, and they are sent out with different intentions, so how could it be obligatory upon the believers to differentiate between the mukrah (one forced) and other than him, while they are unable to know that.

Rather, if a claimer makes a claim that he was sent out under the pretext of Ikrāh, that mere claim wouldn’t benefit him, as it has been narrated that al-‘Abbās Ibn ‘Abdil-Muttalib said to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) when he was captured by the muslims on the day of badr:

“O messenger of Allāh, I was forced”, so the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) replied, “As for your apparent, that was shown to us, but as for your inner secrets, that’s left to Allāh.”

Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) affirms that whoever joins a group of apostates or enemies of Islām, then he takes the hukm of that group (even if there may be some truly excused with Ikrāh in the sight of Allāh), as he stated in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/509):

“They are fought like the apostates and abstainers of Zakāt, not the way the Bughāt are fought.”

As for whoever is truly forced and not making a feeble claim, they are not allowed to fight or kill any muslim whatsoever (but simply drop their weapon), as Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/539), stating there’s a consensus on this point.

Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) further mentions in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/534):

“Whoever abandons them (i.e. the muslims) and joins the Tatār, he would be more deserving of being fought than many of the Tatār, for indeed the Tatār have from amongst them the one who is forced and not forced, and the sunnah has affirmed that the ruling upon the apostate is more severe than the original disbeliever.”

Moreover, numerous scholars have mentioned a consensus on the kufr of whoever allies with the kuffār against the muslims, and one of the best books written on the topic is “At-Tibyān” by the noble Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرهم) which is translated into English, wal-hamdulilāh.

And Allāh knows best.

13 March 2018 10:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

اللهم بارك له

13 March 2018 07:31

Radwan Dakkak shared حملة الحفاظ على اللغة العربية's video.

اللهم بارك له ☺

13 March 2018 07:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Ghīrah in Islām is considered blameworthy and rebuked if it contradicts the evidences!

It was narrated from Ibn ‘Umar that:

The Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: “Do not prevent the female slaves of Allāh from praying in the mosque.”

A son of his said: “We will indeed prevent them!” He got very angry and said: “I tell you a Hadīth from the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and you say, we will indeed prevent them?!” [Sunan Ibn Mājah, #Sahīh]

13 March 2018 07:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Ghīrah in Islām is considered blameworthy and rebuked if it contradicts the evidences!

It was narrated from Ibn ‘Umar that:

The Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: “Do not prevent the female slaves of Allāh from praying in the mosque.”

A son of his said: “We will indeed prevent them!” He got very angry and said: “I tell you a Hadīth from the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and you say, we will indeed prevent them?!” [Sunan Ibn Mājah, #Sahīh]

13 March 2018 07:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I swear by Allāh, any filthy male who mistreats a woman is nothing but a shameless dog. How can any man take advantage of women (+ twist the Dīn to suit his whims), while he sees what the honourable women of our ummah are enduring.

Even though I’m not in a position to call people cowards for abandoning the ummah, when you abandon your brothers and sisters and then resort to harming your own brothers and sisters, what Īmān is within a heart like that, what I can say is not much at all.

Never allow your own personal situation override the pain our ummah goes through, and please understand that da’wah is not a game you play where you score girls online — I’m not saying getting married online doesn’t work, but it’s turned into a joke in many cases, so be mindful of Allāh.

Among the many things I can thank my parents for is disciplining me in a strict way, and I’ve come to realise that harsh advice from your brother is a blessing, because even if you might hate it initially, it will help you change for the better right afterwards. Even though the default principle in da’wah is that we’re lenient, as harshness can cause many issues and disputes.

And Allāh knows best.

13 March 2018 06:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I swear by Allāh, any filthy male who mistreats a woman is nothing but a shameless dog. How can any man take advantage of women (+ twist the Dīn to suit his whims), while he sees what the honourable women of our ummah are enduring.

Even though I'm not in a position to call people cowards for abandoning the ummah, when you abandon your brothers and sisters and then resort to harming your own brothers and sisters, what Īmān is within a heart like that, what I can say is not much at all.

Never allow your own personal situation override the pain our ummah goes through, and please understand that da'wah is not a game you play where you score girls online — I'm not saying getting married online doesn't work, but it's turned into a joke in many cases, so be mindful of Allāh.

Among the many things I can thank my parents for is disciplining me in a strict way, and I've come to realise that harsh advice from your brother is a blessing, because even if you might hate it initially, it will help you change for the better right afterwards. Even though the default principle in da'wah is that we're lenient, as harshness can cause many issues and disputes.

And Allāh knows best.

13 March 2018 06:49

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Before marriage, open your eyes 100%. After marriage, close your eyes 50%. No one is perfect, rather a perfect marriage is about two imperfect people that never give up on each other.”

— Shared.

13 March 2018 05:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

🌱 #NEW Usūl of the Khawārij by Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) 🌱

12 March 2018 20:16

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

🌱 #NEW Usūl of the Khawārij by Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) 🌱

12 March 2018 20:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

mentions in a special lecture entitled, “Women with (حفظه الله) Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl : (legacies)” (lesson 1/4 time, there were kinds of adultery's (صلى الله عليه وسلم) Do you know just before the Prophet's “and prostitutions that are not even available today, I mean people today may think evil of them. Islām liberated the woman, Islām gave the woman more rights than you can imagine of today

You can actually see today, they try and try with things that don't work. Take for example, mixing in schools, we say it's harām, mixing is harām, “you're a radical brother, how are you a radical?!” We say the Qur'ān and the Sunnah tells us mixing is harām. They don't believe us, “you're too strict on .”us

President Bush recently said — he's the pro supporter in the wall street journal and many newspapers — (he) said he is going to be pushing for separate schools, girls in a school, and men .in a school

He tried it, why did he do that?! Why, why did president bush do that? He did it, because he found .that this system is a failure, and the only rules that may be good is when you separate them

When you have a beautiful girl and a handsome man, they got no worries, and you put them next to each other in a school, what kind of productivity are they going to do, what kind of productivity in a job or in a school are they gonna do other than exchange numbers, other than flirt and harass each .other, that's why they found it a failure

Something we said 1,400 years ago, and I always say the problem with Islām is 1 thing, we're too advanced for this universe, we're too advanced. Everyone looks down upon us because we're

".wayyyy ahead of time, they're behind, we're wayyyy ahead of time

12 March 2018 17:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

mentions in a special lecture entitled, "Women with (حفظه الله) Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibril : (legacies" (lesson 1/4

time, there were kinds of adultery's (صلى الله عليه وسلم) Do you know just before the Prophet's " and prostitutions that are not even available today, I mean people today may think evil of them. Islām liberated the woman, Islām gave the woman more rights than you can imagine of today

You can actually see today, they try and try with things that don't work. Take for example, mixing in schools, we say it's harām, mixing is harām, "you're a radical brother, how are you a radical?!" We say the Qur'ān and the Sunnah tells us mixing is harām. They don't believe us, "you're too strict on .us

President Bush recently said — he's the pro supporter in the wall street journal and many newspapers — (he) said he is going to be pushing for separate schools, girls in a school, and men .in a school

He tried it, why did he do that?! Why, why did president bush do that? He did it, because he found .that this system is a failure, and the only rules that may be good is when you separate them

When you have a beautiful girl and a handsome man, they got no worries, and you put them next to each other in a school, what kind of productivity are they going to do, what kind of productivity in a job or in a school are they gonna do other than exchange numbers, other than flirt and harass each .other, that's why they found it a failure

Something we said 1,400 years ago, and I always say the problem with Islām is 1 thing, we're too advanced for this universe, we're too advanced. Everyone looks down upon us because we're ".wayyyy ahead of time, they're behind, we're wayyyy ahead of time

12 March 2018 17:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The legislation of Allāh is so perfect, it doesn't require any changes, protests or people to vote for their rights. Allāh has made it so simple for us that His laws are fixed, it simply requires all of mankind to submit and obey these laws, instead of following their whims and desires.

12 March 2018 16:59

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The legislation of Allāh is so perfect, it doesn't require any changes, protests or people to vote for their rights. Allāh has made it so simple for us that His laws are fixed, it simply requires all of mankind to submit and obey these laws, instead of following their whims and desires.

12 March 2018 16:58

Radwan Dakkak shared DOAM - Documenting Oppression Against Muslims's video.

Wow...

12 March 2018 16:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Wow...

12 March 2018 16:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Since everyone is speaking about fine lines, I would like to add one as well:

There's a fine line between liking to hear nice words and wanting to be praised. Please don't confuse between these two matters, my ears and heart will not be able to bear negative rude words, and I'm trying my best to filter out all types of praise which may destroy a person.

11 March 2018 22:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibril said:

There is some whose brothers see their Botox smiles, their slander and their harm, while they reserve their wholehearted smiles for their counterpart friends (enemies of Tawheed) on the interfaith round tables.

They are willing to overlook a man's Shirk and make it incumbent on one to have dialogue with him, but if you dare adopt the opinion that voting is Haraam, they will make you an outcast, spread lies and rumours about you, and try to get you behind the walls.

Unity with the grave worshippers is okay to them. Dialogue with the people of the trinity is Fardh 'Ayn. Brothering the Shi'ah – that is on the top of the list and it is obligatory. But if you ever speak on the causes of the Ummah, speak to someone who speaks on the causes of the Ummah or learn from him, then woe to you.

If you speak about the weak, those who are imprisoned, those who are killed and those who have no one to speak about them, then woe to you.

Pulpy and mushy they are with the enemies of Allah, and tusks and growls to the believers of Laa Ilaaha Illallah. That is their characteristic – the opposite of:

أَذِلَّةٍ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَعِزَّةٍ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ... المائدة...
٤٥

Humble towards the believers, stern towards the disbelievers. (Surat al-Maa'idah: 54)

11 March 2018 20:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibril said:

There is some whose brothers see their Botox smiles, their slander and their harm, while they reserve their wholehearted smiles for their counterpart friends (enemies of Tawheed) on the interfaith round tables.

They are willing to overlook a man's Shirk and make it incumbent on one to have dialogue with him, but if you dare adopt the opinion that voting is Haraam, they will make you an outcast, spread lies and rumours about you, and try to get you behind the walls.

Unity with the grave worshippers is okay to them. Dialogue with the people of the trinity is Fardh 'Ayn. Brothering the Shi'ah – that is on the top of the list and it is obligatory. But if you ever speak on the causes of the Ummah, speak to someone who speaks on the causes of the Ummah or learn from him, then woe to you.

If you speak about the weak, those who are imprisoned, those who are killed and those who have no one to speak about them, then woe to you.

Pulpy and mushy they are with the enemies of Allah, and tusks and growls to the believers of Laa Ilaaha Illallah. That is their characteristic – the opposite of:

أَذِلَّةٍ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَعِزَّةٍ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ... المائدة...
٤٥

Humble towards the believers, stern towards the disbelievers. (Surat al-Maa'idah: 54)

11 March 2018 20:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A shaykh was explaining the word "mistake" which means the opposite of what's "correct", and something that is done unintentionally or without knowledge.

While he was explaining this definition, a kid randomly got up and walked around unintentionally without knowledge during the lesson.

This child was given a prize, lol.

11 March 2018 20:16

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A shaykh was explaining the word "mistake" which means the opposite of what's "correct", and something that is done unintentionally or without knowledge.

While he was explaining this definition, a kid randomly got up and walked around unintentionally without knowledge during the lesson.

This child was given a prize, lol.

11 March 2018 20:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

If I was given permission to make 1 slap, I would slap the annoying sarcastic types out of this universe!

11 March 2018 16:32

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Fact

If you read about the history of those who have received the “noble peace prize”, you will find most of them either being criminals or have a background in massacring populations.

This alone speaks volumes, and I personally believe this is the most accurate definition of “peace” according to the west, since it’s backed by belief, speech and actions.

11 March 2018 09:52

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Fact

If you read about the history of those who have received the “noble peace prize”, you will find most of them either being criminals or have a background in massacring populations.

This alone speaks volumes, and I personally believe this is the most accurate definition of “peace” according to the west, since it’s backed by belief, speech and actions.

11 March 2018 09:51

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

I have come to realise that many people have adopted a bad trait of the arabs instead of the good ones.

Please understand that ‘being correct’ is not determined by how loud someone’s voice is, or how much someone talks, as speech is found everywhere.

If I were to judge the truth by how much someone yells and screams, I would give this reward for the donkey.

11 March 2018 09:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

The noble Imām, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) was asked, “Does a muslim become a kāfir for merely living in the lands of kufr?”

Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) responds by saying:

What is apparent, and Allāh the most High knows best, is that merely residing in the land of kufr isn’t disbelief in and of itself.

Rather it wouldn’t be disbelief except if there is a cause of kufr which is tagged along with it from endorsing it (kufr laws) or giving allegiance to its people.

What testifies to this, is that the textual evidences from the Qur’ān and Sunnah did not negate the Islām of the one who lives amongst the mushrikīn due to simply residing (amongst them), but rather it affirmed Islām for him.

Allāh says, “But those who believed and did not emigrate - for you there is no guardianship of them until they emigrate.” [6:72].

And Allāh says, “And if not for believing men and believing women whom you did not know - that you might trample them and there would befall you because of them dishonor without [your] knowledge - [you would have been permitted to enter Makkah]. [This was so] that Allah might admit to His mercy whom He willed. If they had been apart [from them], We would have punished those who disbelieved among them with painful punishment.” [48:25].

On the authority of Jarīr Ibn ‘Abdillāh, he reported that the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “I am free from every muslim that resides amongst the mushrikīn”, They asked: Why, Messenger of Allāh? He said: “Their fires should not be visible to one another.” [1].

So based upon this, abandoning hijrah when it’s an individual obligation with the ability to do so would be an act of disobedience and fisq, which doesn’t negate the foundations of Īmān, but it rather negates the required obligation (of Īmān).

The scholars elaborated on the ruling of hijrah, so they mentioned the situations where hijrah would be obligatory, and when it would be recommended, and when it would be permissible, Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله) says:

“Hijrah is not obligatory from a land that has been conquered by the muslims, but as for (making hijrah) before conquering the land, then the muslims are divided into three types:

1 — Someone who’s able to make hijrah from it, while he is not able to display his religion nor perform his obligations, so hijrah (from this land) is obligatory.

2 — Someone who’s able to make hijrah, however he’s able to display his religion and perform his obligations, so hijrah would be recommended, due to the muslims increasing in number within it, and strengthening them, and striving against the kuffār, and being safe from their betrayal, and feeling comfortable from needing to lookng at corruption amongst them.

3 — Someone who’s incapable of making hijrah due to an excuse, such as imprisonment or sickness or other that, so it would be permissible for him to reside (in the land), but if he exerts himself and undertakes the burden of leaving it, he would be rewarded.” [2].

But as for what has been narrated from some of the scholars — such as Ibn Hazm and others — from making an unrestricted takfīr upon whoever abandons hijrah or goes to the land of kufr, then it is held upon whoever does that out of allegiance for the disbelievers or love for them, and Allāh the most High knows best.

#Nigerian_Questions

[1] This was narrated by “Abū Dāwūd” (2/52), Hadīth #2645, and narrated by “At-Tirmidhī” (4/155), Hadīth #1604 — Several Imāms of the Salaf mentioned this is Mursal, however it’s from the strongest mursal narrations as mentioned by Al-Hāfidh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ), so it’s #Sahīh.

[2] Refer to “Fath al-Bārī” (9/326) by al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr.

11 March 2018 08:59

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The noble Imām, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) was asked, “Does a muslim become a kāfir for merely living in the lands of kufr?”

Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) responds by saying:

What is apparent, and Allāh the most High knows best, is that merely residing in the land of kufr isn’t disbelief in and of itself.

Rather it wouldn’t be disbelief except if there is a cause of kufr which is tagged along with it from endorsing it (kufr laws) or giving allegiance to its people.

What testifies to this, is that the textual evidences from the Qur’ān and Sunnah did not negate the Islām of the one who lives amongst the mushrikīn due to simply residing (amongst them), but rather it affirmed Islām for him.

Allāh says, “But those who believed and did not emigrate - for you there is no guardianship of them until they emigrate.” [6:72].

And Allāh says, “And if not for believing men and believing women whom you did not know - that you might trample them and there would befall you because of them dishonor without [your] knowledge - [you would have been permitted to enter Makkah]. [This was so] that Allah might admit to His mercy whom He willed. If they had been apart [from them], We would have punished those who disbelieved among them with painful punishment.” [48:25].

On the authority of Jarīr Ibn ‘Abdillāh, he reported that the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “I am free from every muslim that resides amongst the mushrikīn”, They asked: Why, Messenger of Allāh? He said: “Their fires should not be visible to one another.” [1].

So based upon this, abandoning hijrah when it’s an individual obligation with the ability to do so would be an act of disobedience and fisq, which doesn’t negate the foundations of Īmān, but it rather negates the required obligation (of Īmān).

The scholars elaborated on the ruling of hijrah, so they mentioned the situations where hijrah would be obligatory, and when it would be recommended, and when it would be permissible, Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله) says:

“Hijrah is not obligatory from a land that has been conquered by the muslims, but as for (making hijrah) before conquering the land, then the muslims are divided into three types:

1 — Someone who’s able to make hijrah from it, while he is not able to display his religion nor perform his obligations, so hijrah (from this land) is obligatory.

2 — Someone who’s able to make hijrah, however he’s able to display his religion and perform his obligations, so hijrah would be recommended, due to the muslims increasing in number within it, and strengthening them, and striving against the kuffār, and being safe from their betrayal, and feeling comfortable from needing to looking at corruption amongst them.

3 — Someone who’s incapable of making hijrah due to an excuse, such as imprisonment or sickness or other that, so it would be permissible for him to reside (in the land), but if he exerts himself and undertakes the burden of leaving it, he would be rewarded.” [2].

But as for what has been narrated from some of the scholars — such as Ibn Hazm and others — from making an unrestricted takfīr upon whoever abandons hijrah or goes to the land of kufr, then it is held upon whoever does that out of allegiance for the disbelievers or love for them, and Allāh the most High knows best.

#Nigerian_Questions

[1] This was narrated by “Abū Dāwūd” (2/52), Hadīth #2645, and narrated by “At-Tirmidhi” (4/155), Hadīth #1604 — Several Imāms of the Salaf mentioned this is Mursal, however it’s from the strongest mursal narrations as mentioned by Al-Hāfidh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ), so it’s #Sahih.

[2] Refer to “Fath al-Bārī” (9/326) by al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr.

11 March 2018 08:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Police | Question: What is the ruling on becoming a cop for a kāfir state?

Answer: Bismillāh — Let all the muslims know that working as a cop is explicit disbelief and apostasy from Islām; Whoever works in it or gives a fatwā to allow working in it has left the fold of Islām.

I’ll be listing the nullifiers a cop falls into Inshā’Allāh:

- Abstaining from the clear manifest mutawātir symbols of the Dīn, such as ruling by the Sharī’ah, striving in the cause of Allāh, walā’ and barā’, forbidding what Allāh has made harām such as Ribā and Drinking Alcohol, infact it opposes this, not just abstains from (implementing) it.

It’s a Tā’ifah that opposes whoever wants to establish the ordainments of Allāh and worship Allāh as He has ordered, and the one who opposes has a much severe ruling than the abstainer.

Allāh (جل وعلا) said: "Those who disbelieved and averted [others] from the way of Allah - We will increase them in punishment over [their] punishment for what corruption they were causing." [16:88]

- It’s a Tā’ifah that has fell into the nullifier of major shirk, shirk of obedience and monitoring (for the Tāghūt), and they have taken their Tāghūt as a lord besides Allāh, who legislates for them man-made Laws, and they make Tahākum (seek judgement) from it, and they follow him in disobedience to Allāh and His Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Allāh (جل وعلا) said: "They have taken their scholars and monks as lords besides Allah , and [also] the Messiah, the son of Mary. And they were not commanded except to worship one God; there is no deity except Him. Exalted is He above whatever they associate with Him." [9:31].

Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) said: “And its Tafsīr which has no doubt pertaining it, is obeying the Scholars and Monks in disobedience to Allāh, not their supplications unto them, as it was explained by the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) to ‘Adī Ibn Hātim (رضي الله عنه) when he asked him and said: "We do not worship them. So the Prophet told him that their worship is obeying them in disobedience.”

— Refer to “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah”. Moreover, this hadīth has weakness as Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) stated, but the scholars of tafsīr have unanimously agreed upon explaining the Āyah via this hadīth’s meaning.

- They have also fell into the agreed upon nullifier of supporting the kuffār against the Muslims (giving authority to the kuffār), infact they supported them against the religion of Islām itself, and they assisted them in fighting it, and extinguishing its light, and killing and imprisoning those who call towards it (i.e. The Haqq of Islām) from the preachers and scholars, Allāh (جل وعلا) said: "Whoever from amongst you takes them as allies is indeed from them" [5:51]

- So it becomes clear that this is a Tā’ifah of shirk and apostasy, even if it claims Islām, and the hukm (ruling) of Kufr isn’t limited to being General (النوع) alone, rather it also includes their individuals, because the shurūt (conditions) have been fulfilled with them, such as sanity (العقل), maturity (البلوغ), intent (القصد), there's no doubt they intend and choose to perform their actions, and Ikrāh (الإكراه) is not met with them, because they were not compelled or tortured to the extent where they could not bear it in order for them to perform this action (i.e. become a cop for the Tāghūt), and they weren't threatened with death if they do not become one, so the Asl (default ruling) is that they are kuffār murtaddīn individually, judging by the apparent.

I've also decided to respond against some common doubts that are put forth:

- Claim #1 — “I did not intend to perform kufr or worship the Tāghūt”.

This is a Bātil condition stipulated by the Murji'ah and Jahmiyyah, since what's stipulated is “intending to do the action”, not intending to perform kufr, as no one intends kufr except whom Allāh wills.

There are so many examples of Allāh making takfīr upon those who fall into kufr without checking their so called 'good intentions' or 'hearts', as Allāh mentioned:

“They swear by Allah that they did not say [anything against the Prophet] while they had said the word of disbelief and disbelieved after their [pretense of] Islam and planned that which they were not to attain.” [9:74].

This is for simply saying a word of kufr, so imagine the case with directing an act of worship to other than Allāh or giving allegiance to the Tawāghīt?!

Allāh says, “And they were not commanded except to worship Allah, [being] sincere to Him in religion, inclining to truth, and to establish prayer and to give zakah. And that is the correct religion.” [98:5].

- Claim #2 — “My shaykh said it's permissible for me to become a cop”.

Being deceived by your shaykh is not a valid māni' (preventative of takfīr) when it comes to falling into major shirk, infact you and your shaykh will be punished together in the hellfire if you do not repent.

Allāh says, “They have taken their scholars and monks as lords besides Allah, and [also] the Messiah, the son of Mary. And they were not commanded except to worship one God; there is no deity except Him. Exalted is He above whatever they associate with Him.” [9:31].

Allāh also says, “And they will say, "Our Lord, indeed we obeyed our masters and our dignitaries, and they led us astray from the [right] way.” [33:67].

And this is all a condemnation for them, not an excuse! Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) comments upon this Āyah by saying, “Some thing that's an excuse when they stand before Allāh!”

- Claim #3 — “It's only kufr if a person loves the Tāghūt with his heart”.

This is why people love the beliefs of the Murji'ah and Jahmiyyah, as they restrict kufr to belief in the heart, and allows the ignorant to do whatever they like.

Working as a cop is kufr in the sense of “actions” (the actions of the limbs), whereas giving loyalty and allegiance to the Tāghūt is kufr in the sense of “beliefs” (the actions of the heart).

Loving the Tāghūt is kufr on its own, whether he became a cop or not. But becoming a cop is a separate independent nullifier which we clarified earlier.

- Claim #4 — “Okay, I agree there are Tāghūt courts in this job and know the ruling, but I can avoid it just like you”.

We must understand that there are two types of people when it comes to avoiding these Tāghūt courts, so let's not get mixed up Inshā'Allāh:

1. If someone enters a big country and resides in it, while knowing there are Tāghūt courts and rejects it in his heart, without making Tahākum to it (unless he gets forced), then there's no blame upon him.

2. But if someone enters a particular field or job or party, while knowing that ascribing himself to this job requires him to fulfil duties and rights, and that it's necessary for him to conform with their rules, and there are Tāghūt courts present in this field of his (which officers attend too), then his affiliation to this job is sufficient to say he is pleased with the ruling of the Tāghūt. Therefore, he must leave this field and make barā'ah from all the kufr that it contains.

- Claim #5 — “But I am weak and forced to work as a cop”.

You will find several people who hate the Tawāghīt, infact would disbelieve in him and make barā'ah from their kufr laws, but he makes an excuse of Ikrāh or weakness, or that he may be imprisoned if he doesn't work as one.

SubhānAllāh, this is a misconception of the shaytān who causes people to divert away from the path of Allāh. The scholars have explained the boundaries of Ikrāh, and if you ponder over the situation of these people, you will not find them being under Ikrāh in any case whatsoever!

On the contrary, this is their work and job which they are proud of doing, gaining higher positions and reputable ranks, and a better salary. What type of Ikrāh do these people speak about?! This is just another excuse to perform kufr for dunyā benefits or merely falling into shirk out of compounded ignorance.

As for their claim of being weak, a people before them have used this excuse and it wasn't accepted of them, neither by Allāh, nor by His Messenger.

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentions in his amazing book on walā' and barā' entitled, "Ad-Dalā'il Fi Hukmi Muwālāt ahl al-Ishrāk" (page 8):

"The sixth proof — Allāh's statement, "Indeed, those whom the angels take [in death] while wronging themselves - [the angels] will say, "In what [condition] were you?" They will say, "We were weak (oppressed) in the land." [4:97].

Meaning, which side are you on? Are you on the side of the believers, or on the side of the mushrikīn? So they made an excuse for themselves for not being on the side of the muslims via "weakness", but the angels did not excuse them, and they said to them:

"The angels will say, "Was not the earth of Allah spacious [enough] for you to emigrate therein?" For those, their refuge is Hell - and evil it is as a destination." [4:97].

No rational person doubts that inhabitants of a land who abandon the muslims have become with the mushrikīn and on their side and their group. This is while the Āyah was revealed concerning a people from makkah who embraced Islām, and refrained from making hijrah (with the muslims).

So when the mushrikūn went out for badr, they forced them to come out with them, so they went out due to fear, and the muslims killed them on the day of badr. When they came to realise of their killing, they felt sorrow and said, "our brothers", so Allāh revealed this Āyah concerning them."

Moreover, we have a perfect example of al-'Abbās who claimed Ikrāh when he was imprisoned in Badr, and is it me rejecting his excuse? No way! Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is the one who rejected his excuse, as Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (28/537):

"Allāh has destroyed the army that wanted to violate His sanctity (i.e. ka'bah), while He has the ability to differentiate between them, and they are sent out with different intentions, so how could it be obligatory upon the believers to differentiate between the mukrah (one forced) and other than him, while they are unable to know that.

Rather, if a claimer makes a claim that he was sent out under the pretext of Ikrāh, that mere claim wouldn't benefit him, as it has been narrated that al-'Abbās Ibn 'Abdil-Muttalib said to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) when he was captured by the muslims on the day of badr:

"O messenger of Allāh, I was forced", so the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) replied, "As for your apparent, that was shown to us, but as for your inner secrets, that's left to Allāh."

Not even the claim of Ikrāh was accepted by Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), so imagine every other weak claim...

In any case, I do not mean to get too deep into refuting every false claim, as that deserves a separate booklet, but I hope I have clarified some of the important matters concerning this topic.

I have been working on clarifying important matters addressing the 3rd nullifier, 4th nullifier and 8th nullifier, as there are important masā'il connected to these enormous nullifiers.

May Allāh protect the muslims from falling into disbelief and apostasy, and return them back to guidance and righteousness, Āmin.

10 March 2018 19:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Police | Question: What is the ruling on becoming a cop for a kāfir state?

Answer: Bismillāh — Let all the muslims know that working as a cop is explicit disbelief and apostasy from Islām; Whoever works in it or gives a fatwā to allow working in it has left the fold of Islām.

I'll be listing the nullifiers a cop falls into Inshā'Allāh:

- Abstaining from the clear manifest mutawātir symbols of the Dīn, such as ruling by the Shari'ah, striving in the cause of Allāh, walā' and barā', forbidding what Allāh has made harām such as Ribā and Drinking Alcohol, infact it opposes this, not just abstains from (implementing) it.

It's a Tā'ifah that opposes whoever wants to establish the ordainments of Allāh and worship Allāh as He has ordered, and the one who opposes has a much severe ruling than the abstainer.

Allāh (جل وعلا) said: "Those who disbelieved and averted [others] from the way of Allah - We will increase them in punishment over [their] punishment for what corruption they were causing." [16:88]

- It's a Tā'īfah that has fell into the nullifier of major shirk, shirk of obedience and monitoring (for the Tāghūt), and they have taken their Tāghūt as a lord besides Allāh, who legislates for them man-made Laws, and they make Tahākum (seek judgement) from it, and they follow him in disobedience to Allāh and His Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Allāh (جل وعلا) said: "They have taken their scholars and monks as lords besides Allah , and [also] the Messiah, the son of Mary. And they were not commanded except to worship one God; there is no deity except Him. Exalted is He above whatever they associate with Him." [9:31].

Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) said: "And its Tafsīr which has no doubt pertaining it, is obeying the Scholars and Monks in disobedience to Allāh, not their supplications unto them, as it was explained by the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) to 'Adī Ibn Hātim (رضي الله عنه) when he asked him and said: "We do not worship them. So the Prophet told him that their worship is obeying them in disobedience."

— Refer to "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah". Moreover, this hadīth has weakness as Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) stated, but the scholars of tafsīr have unanimously agreed upon explaining the Āyah via this hadīth's meaning.

- They have also fell into the agreed upon nullifier of supporting the kuffār against the Muslims (giving authority to the kuffār), infact they supported them against the religion of Islām itself, and they assisted them in fighting it, and extinguishing its light, and killing and imprisoning those who call towards it (i.e. The Haqq of Islām) from the preachers and scholars, Allāh (جل وعلا) said: "Whoever from amongst you takes them as allies is indeed from them" [5:51]

- So it becomes clear that this is a Tā'īfah of shirk and apostasy, even if it claims Islām, and the hukm (ruling) of Kufr isn't limited to being General (النوع) alone, rather it also includes their individuals, because the shurūt (conditions) have been fulfilled with them, such as sanity (العقل), maturity (البلوغ), intent (القصد), there's no doubt they intend and choose to perform their actions, and Ikrāh (الإكراه) is not met with them, because they were not compelled or tortured to the extent where they could not bear it in order for them to perform this action (i.e. become a cop for the Tāghūt), and they weren't threatened with death if they do not become one, so the Asl (default ruling) is that they are kuffār murtaddīn individually, judging by the apparent.

I've also decided to respond against some common doubts that are put forth:

- Claim #1 — "I did not intend to perform kufr or worship the Tāghūt".

This is a Bātil condition stipulated by the Murji'ah and Jahmiyyah, since what's stipulated is "intending to do the action", not intending to perform kufr, as no one intends kufr except whom Allāh wills.

There are so many examples of Allāh making takfīr upon those who fall into kufr without checking their so called 'good intentions' or 'hearts', as Allāh mentioned:

"They swear by Allah that they did not say [anything against the Prophet] while they had said the word of disbelief and disbelieved after their [pretense of] Islam and planned that which they were not to attain." [9:74].

This is for simply saying a word of kufr, so imagine the case with directing an act of worship to other than Allāh or giving allegiance to the Tawāghīt?!

Allāh says, "And they were not commanded except to worship Allah, [being] sincere to Him in religion, inclining to truth, and to establish prayer and to give zakah. And that is the correct religion." [98:5].

- Claim #2 — "My shaykh said it's permissible for me to become a cop".

Being deceived by your shaykh is not a valid māni' (preventative of takfīr) when it comes to falling into major shirk, infact you and your shaykh will be punished together in the hellfire if you do not repent.

Allāh says, "They have taken their scholars and monks as lords besides Allah, and [also] the Messiah, the son of Mary. And they were not commanded except to worship one God; there is no deity except Him. Exalted is He above whatever they associate with Him." [9:31].

Allāh also says, "And they will say, "Our Lord, indeed we obeyed our masters and our dignitaries, and they led us astray from the [right] way." [33:67].

And this is all a condemnation for them, not an excuse! Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) comments upon this Āyah by saying, "Some thing that's an excuse when they stand before Allāh!"

- Claim #3 — "It's only kufr if a person loves the Tāghūt with his heart".

This is why people love the beliefs of the Murji'ah and Jahmiyyah, as they restrict kufr to belief in the heart, and allows the ignorant to do whatever they like.

Working as a cop is kufr in the sense of "actions" (the actions of the limbs), whereas giving loyalty and allegiance to the Tāghūt is kufr in the sense of "beliefs" (the actions of the heart).

Loving the Tāghūt is kufr on its own, whether he became a cop or not. But becoming a cop is a separate independent nullifier which we clarified earlier.

• Claim #4 — “Okay, I agree there are Tāghūt courts in this job and know the ruling, but I can avoid it just like you”.

We must understand that there are two types of people when it comes to avoiding these Tāghūt courts, so let’s not get mixed up Inshā’Allāh:

1. If someone enters a big country and resides in it, while knowing there are Tāghūt courts and rejects it in his heart, without making Tahākum to it (unless he gets forced), then there’s no blame upon him.

2. But if someone enters a particular field or job or party, while knowing that ascribing himself to this job requires him to fulfil duties and rights, and that it’s necessary for him to conform with their rules, and there are Tāghūt courts present in this field of his (which officers attend too), then his affiliation to this job is sufficient to say he is pleased with the ruling of the Tāghūt. Therefore, he must leave this field and make barā’ah from all the kufr that it contains.

• Claim #5 — “But I am weak and forced to work as a cop”.

You will find several people who hate the Tawāghūt, infact would disbelieve in him and make barā’ah from their kufr laws, but he makes an excuse of Ikrāh or weakness, or that he may be imprisoned if he doesn’t work as one.

SubhānAllāh, this is a misconception of the shaytān who causes people to divert away from the path of Allāh. The scholars have explained the boundaries of Ikrāh, and if you ponder over the situation of these people, you will not find them being under Ikrāh in any case whatsoever!

On the contrary, this is their work and job which they are proud of doing, gaining higher positions and reputable ranks, and a better salary. What type of Ikrāh do these people speak about?! This is just another excuse to perform kufr for dunyā benefits or merely falling into shirk out of compounded ignorance.

As for their claim of being weak, a people before them have used this excuse and it wasn’t accepted of them, neither by Allāh, nor by His Messenger.

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentions in his amazing book on walā’ and barā’ entitled, “Ad-Dalā’il Fi Hukmi Muwālāt ahl al-Ishrāk” (page 8):

“The sixth proof — Allāh’s statement, “Indeed, those whom the angels take [in death] while wronging themselves - [the angels] will say, “In what [condition] were you?” They will say, “We were weak (oppressed) in the land.” [4:97].

Meaning, which side are you on? Are you on the side of the believers, or on the side of the mushrikīn? So they made an excuse for themselves for not being on the side of the muslims via “weakness”, but the angels did not excuse them, and they said to them:

“The angels will say, “Was not the earth of Allah spacious [enough] for you to emigrate therein?” For those, their refuge is Hell - and evil it is as a destination.” [4:97].

No rational person doubts that inhabitants of a land who abandon the muslims have become with the mushrikīn and on their side and their group. This is while the Āyah was revealed concerning a people from makkah who embraced Islām, and refrained from making hijrah (with the muslims).

So when the mushrikūn went out for badr, they forced them to come out with them, so they went out due to fear, and the muslims killed them on the day of badr. When they came to realise of their killing, they felt sorrow and said, “our brothers”, so Allāh revealed this Āyah concerning them.”

Moreover, we have a perfect example of al-‘Abbās who claimed Ikrāh when he was imprisoned in Badr, and is it me rejecting his excuse? No way! Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is the one who rejected his excuse, as Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/537):

“Allāh has destroyed the army that wanted to violate His sanctity (i.e. ka’bah), while He has the ability to differentiate between them, and they are sent out with different intentions, so how could it be obligatory upon the believers to differentiate between the mukrah (one forced) and other than him, while they are unable to know that.

Rather, if a claimer makes a claim that he was sent out under the pretext of Ikrāh, that mere claim wouldn’t benefit him, as it has been narrated that al-‘Abbās Ibn ‘Abdil-Muttalib said to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) when he was captured by the muslims on the day of badr:

“O messenger of Allāh, I was forced”, so the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) replied, “As for your apparent, that was shown to us, but as for your inner secrets, that’s left to Allāh.”

Not even the claim of Ikrāh was accepted by Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم), so imagine every other weak claim...

In any case, I do not mean to get too deep into refuting every false claim, as that deserves a separate booklet, but I hope I have clarified some of the important matters concerning this topic.

I have been working on clarifying important matters addressing the 3rd nullifier, 4th nullifier and 8th nullifier, as there are important masā’il connected to these enormous nullifiers.

May Allāh protect the muslims from falling into disbelief and apostasy, and return them back to guidance and righteousness, Āmīn.

10 March 2018 19:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Student asks, “If a woman marries a kitābī (i.e. christian or jew), is this Istihlāl (which causes her to disbelieve)?”

The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره) responds by saying:

“This is not always implied, it could be and it could not, as she may not be aware (of the ruling), she may believe it’s vice versa as well (i.e. both genders can marry from ahlul-kitāb).

Such as the woman who allowed her slave to have intercourse with her, she wasn’t aware (of the ruling), yet the Sahābah did not kill her or apply the issue of Istihlāl as she was ignorant, she thought there was no difference between a man having relations with a slave woman and a woman having relations with a slave man, so she would allow her slave to have intercourse with her, assuming that there’s no difference between the two matters.

And there’s no difference between this and the scenario you put forth, it differs (from time and place). If there’s an indication (of clear Istihlāl), then yes (she disbelieves), but there may not be an indication, such as assuming there’s no difference between a man having intercourse with a kitābiyyah and a kitābī having intercourse with a muslimah, this possibility may be present, therefore enquiring further is required (before takfīr).”

Student asks, “Even in our times?”

Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره) replies:

“The time (concerning its clarity) may differ from country to country, these are subjective matters. Yes, in Buraydah and Riyādh, it would also be clear in other lands, such as in the north, Hijāz and the south, the issue may be clear.

But if you look out in the western arab states or in some of the other lands, or they live in the lands of the kuffār, or some areas which ignorance prevails in, the ruling would change, depending upon the land.”

Student asks, “Is there a difference between (marrying) a kitābī and mushrik?”

Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره) replies:

“Yes, because confusion may occur here (with marrying a kitābī), but Ibn ‘Umar doesn’t see a difference between this or that, however Ibn ‘Umar prohibits this in all cases.”

Student asks, “Did the hanafis differ in the issue?”

Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره) replies:

“Which issue?”

Student says, “On marrying a kitābī?”

Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره) replies:

“No, not at all, this is from the explicit clear cut matters of the Sharī’ah (among the scholars), neither a hanafi or other than him said this.”

10 March 2018 00:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Student asks, “If a woman marries a kitābī (i.e. christian or jew), is this Istihlāl (which causes her to disbelieve)?”

The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره) responds by saying:

“This is not always implied, it could be and it could not, as she may not be aware (of the ruling), she may believe it’s vice versa as well (i.e. both genders can marry from ahlul-kitāb).

Such as the woman who allowed her slave to have intercourse with her, she wasn’t aware (of the ruling), yet the Sahābah did not kill her or apply the issue of Istihlāl as she was ignorant, she thought there was no difference between a man having relations with a slave woman and a woman having relations with a slave man, so she would allow her slave to have intercourse with her, assuming that there’s no difference between the two matters.

And there’s no difference between this and the scenario you put forth, it differs (from time and place). If there’s an indication (of clear Istihlāl), then yes (she disbelieves), but there may not be an indication, such as assuming there’s no difference between a man having intercourse with a kitābiyyah and a kitābī having intercourse with a muslimah, this possibility may be present, therefore enquiring further is required (before takfīr).”

Student asks, “Even in our times?”

Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) replies:

“The time (concerning its clarity) may differ from country to country, these are subjective matters. Yes, in Buraydah and Riyādh, it would also be clear in other lands, such as in the north, Hijāz and the south, the issue may be clear.

But if you look out in the western arab states or in some of the other lands, or they live in the lands of the kuffār, or some areas which ignorance prevails in, the ruling would change, depending upon the land.”

Student asks, “Is there a difference between (marrying) a kitābī and mushrik?”

Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) replies:

“Yes, because confusion may occur here (with marrying a kitābī), but Ibn ‘Umar doesn’t see a difference between this or that, however Ibn ‘Umar prohibits this in all cases.”

Student asks, “Did the hanafis differ in the issue?”

Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) replies:

“Which issue?”

Student says, “On marrying a kitābī?”

Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) replies:

“No, not at all, this is from the explicit clear cut matters of the Shaṛī’ah (among the scholars), neither a hanafi or other than him said this.”

10 March 2018 00:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The beloved supporters of the noble Muhaddith and Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz at-Tuwaylaṯ (تقبله الله) wrote a 27 page booklet concerning the Shaykh’s biography, they mentioned in it:

“I ask Allāh to free Shaykh at-Tuwaylaṯ and his brothers among the (noble) people of knowledge, the likes of Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr, Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān, Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī, Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz al-Jarbū’, Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī and many others who preceded him, and those whom we don’t know.

And I ask Allāh to give them steadfastness and guidance upon the straight path, until one of them meets their lord upon goodness, Inshā’Allāh — Only if those guided ones knew how much we love them by Allāh, and we ask Him to unite us with them in the Dunyā before the Ākhirah.”

— Refer to “A statement about Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn Rashīd Ibn Hamdān At-Tuwaylaṯ al-‘Inzī” (pp. 3-4).

9 March 2018 23:47

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The beloved supporters of the noble Muhaddith and Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz at-Tuwaylaṯ (تقبله الله) wrote a 27 page booklet concerning the Shaykh’s biography, they mentioned in it:

“I ask Allāh to free Shaykh at-Tuwaylaṯ and his brothers among the (noble) people of knowledge, the likes of Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr, Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān, Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī, Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz al-Jarbū’, Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī and many others who preceded him, and those whom we don’t know.

And I ask Allāh to give them steadfastness and guidance upon the straight path, until one of them meets their lord upon goodness, Inshā’Allāh — Only if those guided ones knew how much we love them by Allāh, and we ask Him to unite us with them in the Dunyā before the Ākhirah.”

— Refer to “A statement about Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn Rashīd Ibn Hamdān At-Tuwaylaṯ al-‘Inzī” (pp. 3-4).

9 March 2018 23:47

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

□

How many couples have you seen show off to the world on social media, and then just split apart — For this reason, “A private life is a happy life” is such a true statement. Free from hassad and ‘ayn!

9 March 2018 08:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Rhonda Hayek Only be yourself if your character is pleasing to Allah Azza Wa Jal and if not then rectify and change your character.
9 March 2018 07:40

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak True.
9 March 2018 07:41

‘Simply be yourself’ — While having a nice convo, I sent a message to a brother proving that a two-faced person knows on the inside they are doing something wrong, so I hope this helps:

“See the two faced people, they pretend to show good character, and an outsider like myself would be like, mashallah he’s really well-mannered.

Why? Coz i went by the apparent.

However, let’s say I live with him now, oh oh...his true nature showing...

Why? Because he’s returning to his real self, his own heart loves to be rude and arrogant, not a humble and kind person as he shows to people.

True akhlāq means you love to be a genuine person, and there are many out there alhamdulillah.

So likewise with sins, if we truly had qur’an and thikr in our hearts, we would love turning to those in moments of ease and hardships, why u think the salaf would count their sins? SubhanAllah count!! We just go heedlessly, to the extent we must make general tawbah, as we got too much sins to make specific tawbah (but if u recall a specific sin, you must make specific tawbah from it).

And i want to mention a benefit from shaykh al alwan, just because someone is good on their deen, it doesn’t mean they are trustworthy with women.

Fitnah of women is huge, so yeah. But that’s what i wanted to share bro, this is why being true to yourself is an amazing quality, not being a fake two faced hypocrite.

Truthfulness is one of my favourite qualities in a person.”

9 March 2018 07:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A man who fears Allāh can never fall in love with a dishonest person that habitually breaks promises and lies.

May Allāh forgive all of our sins, Āmīn.

9 March 2018 07:04

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

.May Allāh protect us from all types of harm and wrong-doing — سُبحان الله This is perfect

9 March 2018 06:48

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

9 March 2018 06:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. Is forcing random women to cover their faces considered ordaining the good and forbidding munkar?

A. This differs depending upon the society you are living in. For example, the law in some lands is that covering the face is wājib, hence if a woman is seen without the niqāb, it would be considered ordaining the good and forbidding the munkar to obligate her to cover the face.

Whereas in other lands, the majority of the people may be accustomed to showing the face, so in this situation it wouldn't be considered forbidding munkar by forcing them to cover up (as long as they fulfil all conditions for the Jilbāb), but rather considered munkar to force them to adopt your own opinion (which they disagree with) which would result in many issues.

For this reason, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) said if you're in such a society, you cannot enforce your opinion upon others to cover up the face. However this doesn't mean you cannot show them the stronger evidences which obligate wearing the niqāb.

I have grown up listening to many speakers talk about the ruling on wearing the niqāb, and by Allāh injustice was done towards this topic, some even claiming it's cultural. So what resulted in that were some passionate brothers who thought it's considered ordaining the good and forbidding munkar to force women in society to wear the niqāb, so they will rebuke them, or may even claim whoever doesn't believe it's wājib lacks ghīrah.

And this is also incorrect, since the scholars who said it's mustahab did not just have ghīrah over the Dīn, but also over their women. For example, Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) believes it's mustahab, yet all his wives wear the niqāb.

On a personal level, if I ever did adopt the opinion that niqāb is recommended, I could never let my spouse show her face, as that would make me feel less of a man with serious weakness in my Ghīrah.

So just because someone doesn't say it's wājib, it doesn't mean he's got a weak Ghīrah, may Allāh protect us, infact he may have the strongest of Ghīrah, but rather came to his conclusion via islamic proofs, putting aside whether it's correct or not.

So be careful brothers from overstepping the limits when it comes to ordaining the good and forbidding the munkar. On the other hand, if a man requests a wife to wear the niqāb, she must submit to him, irregardless of whether she believes it's mustahab or wājib, it automatically becomes wājib since obedience to the husband is wājib.

And Allāh knows best.

7 March 2018 20:20

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. Is forcing random women to cover their faces considered ordaining the good and forbidding munkar?

A. This differs depending upon the society you are living in. For example, the law in some lands is that covering the face is wājib, hence if a woman is seen without the niqāb, it would be considered ordaining the good and forbidding the munkar to obligate her to cover the face.

Whereas in other lands, the majority of the people may be accustomed to showing the face, so in this situation it wouldn't be considered forbidding munkar by forcing them to cover up (as long as they fulfil all conditions for the Jilbāb), but rather considered munkar to force them to adopt your own opinion (which they disagree with) which would result in many issues.

For this reason, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) said if you're in such a society, you cannot enforce your opinion upon others to cover up the face. However this doesn't mean you cannot show them the stronger evidences which obligate wearing the niqāb.

I have grown up listening to many speakers talk about the ruling on wearing the niqāb, and by Allāh injustice was done towards this topic, some even claiming it's cultural. So what resulted in that were some passionate brothers who thought it's considered ordaining the good and forbidding munkar to force women in society to wear the niqāb, so they will rebuke them, or may even claim whoever doesn't believe it's wājib lacks ghīrah.

And this is also incorrect, since the scholars who said it's mustahab did not just have ghīrah over the Dīn, but also over their women. For example, Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) believes it's mustahab, yet all his wives wear the niqāb.

On a personal level, if I ever did adopt the opinion that niqāb is recommended, I could never let my spouse show her face, as that would make me feel less of a man with serious weakness in my Ghīrah.

So just because someone doesn't say it's wājib, it doesn't mean he's got a weak Ghīrah, may Allāh protect us, infact he may have the strongest of Ghīrah, but rather came to his conclusion via islamic proofs, putting aside whether it's correct or not.

So be careful brothers from overstepping the limits when it comes to ordaining the good and forbidding the munkar. On the other hand, if a man requests a wife to wear the niqāb, she must submit to him, irregardless of whether she believes it's mustahab or wājib, it automatically becomes wājib since obedience to the husband is wājib.

And Allāh knows best.

7 March 2018 20:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

While we worry about ourselves, another buddhist dominated country is oppressing muslims. Just because a single small incident happened between a muslim and a buddhist, this caused the mushrikīn to unite together to destroy so many homes and mosques.

When was the last time you saw muslims unite together to not destroy homes and transgress, but to simply defend their brothers and sisters from being persecuted!

7 March 2018 19:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

"I urge our brothers among the scholars in particular, to fear Allāh in these times, and to stand up for what Allāh has obligated upon them from proclaiming the truth and clarifying the important and dangerous matters to the people.

"And [mention, O Muhammad], when Allah took a covenant from those who were given the Scripture, [saying], "You must make it clear to the people (and not conceal it)..." [3:187].

And to strive fiercely through speech, clarifications and verdicts, without taking into consideration the whims of the ruler, nor the perishing dunyā:

"And if you turn away, He will replace you with another people; then they will not be the likes of you." [47:38]."

— The Imām of Tawhīd, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Humūd Ibn 'Uqlā' ash-Shu'aybī (رحمه الله).

7 March 2018 12:20

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas @Radwan Dakkak As salaam alaikom akhi, may Allah bless you ameen Is it fard to recite Qunoot in witr prayer? Is it to be recited before or after bowing? what ahadith say about Dua of qunoot in witr prayer?
7 March 2018 19:16

Khalid Van der Lee The brother behind ahlusssunnah publicaties said in dutch about Shaykh alislaam.Ash shoe3aibi " De kanon van Tawhied" The cannon of Tawhied!
7 March 2018 20:40

"I urge our brothers among the scholars in particular, to fear Allāh in these times, and to stand up for what Allāh has obligated upon them from proclaiming the truth and clarifying the important and dangerous matters to the people.

"And [mention, O Muhammad], when Allah took a covenant from those who were given the Scripture, [saying], "You must make it clear to the people (and not conceal it)..." [3:187].

And to strive fiercely through speech, clarifications and verdicts, without taking into consideration the whims of the ruler, nor the perishing dunyā:

"And if you turn away, He will replace you with another people; then they will not be the likes of you." [47:38]."

— The Imām of Tawhīd, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Humūd Ibn 'Uqlā' ash-Shu'aybī (رحمه الله).

7 March 2018 12:19

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Truthfulness is a crucial condition for trust in a marriage. Telling a simple lie can destroy that, may Allah protect us.

6 March 2018 21:02

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Truthfulness is a crucial condition for trust in a marriage. Telling a simple lie can destroy that, may Allah protect us.

6 March 2018 21:02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

I seek forgiveness from Allāh and repent to Him (1000x) for negating every quality of patience, wallāhul-Mustaʿān.

Sufyaan Ath-Thawree said:

“Three qualities are from patience: (a) not speaking about your misfortune, (b) (not speaking about) your pain, and (c) not praising yourself.” [Al-Hilyah, 6/389]

6 March 2018 18:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

I seek forgiveness from Allāh and repent to Him (1000x) for negating every quality of patience, wallāhul-Mustaʿān.

Sufyaan Ath-Thawree said:

“Three qualities are from patience: (a) not speaking about your misfortune, (b) (not speaking about) your pain, and (c) not praising yourself.” [Al-Hilyah, 6/389]

6 March 2018 18:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Never try to fool anyone with lies, because as the famous saying goes:

“Tell a single lie, and all your truths become questionable.”

Always tell the truth, otherwise it will backfire upon you.

#LifeLesson

6 March 2018 17:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Never try to fool anyone with lies, because as the famous saying goes:

“Tell a single lie, and all your truths become questionable.”

Always tell the truth, otherwise it will backfire upon you.

#LifeLesson

6 March 2018 17:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Shaykh Humūd al-ʿUqlāʾ, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd, Shaykh ʿAlī al-Khudayr, and Shaykh Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān have very beneficial Fatāwā on the ruling of attaining citizenships from kāfir lands.

Another student of knowledge by the kunyā, Abū Muslim al-Ansārī (may Allāh accept him) wrote a 47 page booklet surrounding the topic as well.

6 March 2018 16:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

“The Nigerian questions” by the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله):

<https://azelin.files.wordpress.com/2018/03/shaykh-abucc84-macc84lik-al-tamicc84micc84-anas-al-nashwacc84n-22the-nigerian-questions22.pdf>

6 March 2018 12:45

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

“The Nigerian questions” by the noble ‘Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله):

<https://azelin.files.wordpress.com/2018/03/shaykh-abucc84-macc84lik-al-tamicc84micc84-anas-al-nashwacc84n-22the-nigerian-questions22.pdf>

6 March 2018 12:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

:says (فك الله أسرہ) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān

The rawāfidh are the most deceitful liars of Allāh’s creation, that even some of the early scholars :would mention a hypothetical issue

If a man makes a will (of money) to the most deceitful liar of creation, this would be given to the“ .”Rāfidhī

Ibn Taymiyyah comments upon this statement, “It’s not permissible to fulfil it (i.e. give money to “.(the Rāfidhī by this ‘will’ due to him being a liar

**Students laugh**

6 March 2018 08:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

:says (فك الله أسرہ) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān

The rawāfidh are the most deceitful liars of Allāh’s creation, that even some of the early scholars :would mention a hypothetical issue

If a man makes a will (of money) to the most deceitful liar of creation, this would be given to the“ .”Rāfidhī

Ibn Taymiyyah comments upon this statement, “It’s not permissible to fulfil it (i.e. give money to “.(the Rāfidhī by this ‘will’ due to him being a liar

**Students laugh**

6 March 2018 08:47

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

“Journaling is like whispering to one’s self and listening at the same time.”

— Mina Marray

5 March 2018 22:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Hurayrah That's touching

5 March 2018 23:21

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Gehad Abu Umar Awww 😊

6 March 2018 15:04

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Lol you guys; It's a wonderful idea to have a personal journal, who knows perhaps if I disappear one day, a treasure chest will be left behind entitled "The seerah of Radwān Dakkāk", whoever has the key can unlock it and discover so much unique and random things 😊😊

6 March 2018 15:15

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Hurayrah Can I have a key pls

6 March 2018 15:42

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abū Ḥafṣ Al-Ḥanbalī All I'm gonna discover is chicken scratch handwriting which can't be read. Just be a little bit neater, not too neat, don't wanna mistake you for a girl. 😊

6 March 2018 15:42

"Journaling is like whispering to one's self and listening at the same time."

— Mina Marray

5 March 2018 22:31

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

5 March 2018 21:28

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

'A woman cannot leave the house except with conditions'

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) said:

"Hence, we have mentioned more than once that it's not permissible for a woman to the shops, even if she wasn't wearing perfume (which is harām) except with conditions:

The first condition — That her guardian gives her permission, so she cannot leave without the permission of her guardian.

The second condition — That she has a need, so she doesn't leave without a need, so she becomes accustomed to leaving the house and going back and forth, roaming around the shops and observing, she is to be prevented from that in all cases, even if her guardian allows her too.

The third condition — That she doesn't leave with adornments, nor with perfume, nor with Tabarruj.

The fourth condition — That a mahram goes out with her, unless it was safe from fitnah, but if there's no guaranteed safety from fitnah, then it's obligatory upon the mahram to go with her.

The fifth condition — That she doesn't speak with men except for the required need, and to not tempt them via soft speech, so that the one with a sick heart doesn't receive any feelings for her.

These are 5 conditions for the woman to leave (the house), and it's not correct that a woman should be accustomed to leaving the house and going back and forth in the shops, without any conditions and guidelines.

Consequently, if a woman leaves while perfumed, she is sinful, and it becomes obligatory upon the guardian to prevent her, but if she intended fitnah, then this is from the most enormous crimes and greatest of major sins." [1]

[1] Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) also mentioned in "al-Fatāwā al-Kubrā" (3/148):

"Umar Ibn al-Khattāb said: "Marriage is slavery, so be careful with regard to whom you give your daughter for enslavement."

In al-Tirmidhi and elsewhere it is narrated that the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: "I urge you to treat women well, for they are prisoners with you."

So a woman is like a slave or prisoner of her husband, and she cannot go out of his house except with his permission, whether her father, her mother or anyone else tells her to do that, according to the consensus of the Imāms.”

Imām Ibn Muflih (رحمه الله) said in “Al-Ādāb ash-Shar’iyyah” (3/375), “It is haraam for a woman to go out of her husband’s house without his permission, except in cases of necessity, or islamic obligation.”

5 March 2018 15:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

‘A woman cannot leave the house except with conditions’

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) said:

“Hence, we have mentioned more than once that it’s not permissible for a woman to the shops, even if she wasn’t wearing perfume (which is harām) except with conditions:

The first condition — That her guardian gives her permission, so she cannot leave without the permission of her guardian.

The second condition — That she has a need, so she doesn’t leave without a need, so she becomes accustomed to leaving the house and going back and forth, roaming around the shops and observing, she is to be prevented from that in all cases, even if her guardian allows her too.

The third condition — That she doesn’t leave with adornments, nor with perfume, nor with Tabarruj.

The fourth condition — That a mahram goes out with her, unless it was safe from fitnah, but if there’s no guaranteed safety from fitnah, then it’s obligatory upon the mahram to go with her.

The fifth condition — That she doesn’t speak with men except for the required need, and to not tempt them via soft speech, so that the one with a sick heart doesn’t receive any feelings for her.

These are 5 conditions for the woman to leave (the house), and it’s not correct that a woman should be accustomed to leaving the house and going back and forth in the shops, without any conditions and guidelines.

Consequently, if a woman leaves while perfumed, she is sinful, and it becomes obligatory upon the guardian to prevent her, but if she intended fitnah, then this is from the most enormous crimes and greatest of major sins.” [1]

[1] Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) also mentioned in “al-Fatāwā al-Kubrā” (3/148):

“‘Umar Ibn al-Khattāb said: “Marriage is slavery, so be careful with regard to whom you give your daughter for enslavement.”

In al-Tirmidhi and elsewhere it is narrated that the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: “I urge you to treat women well, for they are prisoners with you.”

So a woman is like a slave or prisoner of her husband, and she cannot go out of his house except with his permission, whether her father, her mother or anyone else tells her to do that, according to the consensus of the Imāms.”

Imām Ibn Muflih (رحمه الله) said in “Al-Ādāb ash-Shar’iyyah” (3/375), “It is haraam for a woman to go out of her husband’s house without his permission, except in cases of necessity, or islamic obligation.”

5 March 2018 15:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

‘Men should not meet women to pick up money for charity — Send your mahrams’

Islamqa writes:

“Undoubtedly women have a great role to play in this field, because they are able to get to know about poor families and convey help to them, and cooperate with their Muslim sisters and encourage them to spend and gave in this field.

But that is no justification for them to meet with non-mahram men on the grounds of organising or doing charitable work. Rather it is sufficient for them to work with other women like them, and for men to work with men, so as to block the means that may lead to haraam and to prevent any fitnah occurring because of them or to them.

If the matter requires cooperation of men with women in this field, then it should be done with the wives of these men or some of them, who can get in touch with the women and organise the work with them.

Undoubtedly, young men meeting young women, or men meeting women, even on the grounds that it is for organising charity work, is one of the footsteps of the shaytaan, which may lead to that which is even worse.

There are so many stories and tragedies which have occurred because of that. The wise person is the one who learns from others and does not become a lesson for others.

These people have to fear Allaah, and not mix good deeds with bad deeds. They should keep away from the causes of fitnah and deviation, and be aware of the tricks and plots of the shaytaan.”

5 March 2018 14:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

‘Men should not meet women to pick up money for charity — Send your mahrams’

Islamqa writes:

“Undoubtedly women have a great role to play in this field, because they are able to get to know about poor families and convey help to them, and cooperate with their Muslim sisters and encourage them to spend and gave in this field.

But that is no justification for them to meet with non-mahram men on the grounds of organising or doing charitable work. Rather it is sufficient for them to work with other women like them, and for men to work with men, so as to block the means that may lead to haraam and to prevent any fitnah occurring because of them or to them.

If the matter requires cooperation of men with women in this field, then it should be done with the wives of these men or some of them, who can get in touch with the women and organise the work with them.

Undoubtedly, young men meeting young women, or men meeting women, even on the grounds that it is for organising charity work, is one of the footsteps of the shaytaan, which may lead to that which is even worse.

There are so many stories and tragedies which have occurred because of that. The wise person is the one who learns from others and does not become a lesson for others.

These people have to fear Allaah, and not mix good deeds with bad deeds. They should keep away from the causes of fitnah and deviation, and be aware of the tricks and plots of the shaytaan.”

5 March 2018 14:20

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Don't feel upset when people reject the message you give them, as you're not supposed to receive all the things you desire to begin with. It didn't happen to the prophets and messengers, so imagine me and you.

There are prophets who only had 1 person following them at the time, there will be others who didn't have anyone following them, standing on Yawm al-Qiyamah without any followers, can you imagine not a single one?!

This will help you understand the hadith where rasulullah صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Those tested with the most trials are the prophets”, they were not just rejected by their people, but some were even killed, as we know from the cursed jews in particular!

But these trials raised them so high in the sight of Allāh, look at the wife of Ibrāhīm, Hājar (عليها السلام) — She went through a difficult test, but just imagine if she was alive today and saw all the people making Hajj due to the trial Allāh blessed her with, don't you think she will smile? Imagine her ranks in the sight of Allāh, may the peace and blessings of Allāh be upon her and upon her husband Ibrāhīm, the Imām of Tawhīd and destroyer of Shirk!

Look at the trials Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم went through, but just think about the hadith where his nation will be the largest on Yawm al-Qiyamah, Yā Allāh!

Deliver the message in the best of ways, and leave the rest to Allāh, He will turn the hearts however way He wishes. Infact, I would like to add that giving da'wah also teaches us a huge lesson, to humble ourselves deeply to Allāh for giving us this big trust. May Allāh make those who give da'wah better on the inside and protect them from all evil.

5 March 2018 14:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Don't feel upset when people reject the message you give them, as you're not supposed to receive all the things you desire to begin with. It didn't happen to the prophets and messengers, so imagine me and you.

There are prophets who only had 1 person following them at the time, there will be others who didn't have anyone following them, standing on Yawm al-Qiyāmah without any followers, can you imagine not a single one?!

This will help you understand the hadīth where rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Those tested with the most trials are the prophets", they were not just rejected by their people, but some were even killed, as we know from the cursed jews in particular!

But these trials raised them so high in the sight of Allāh, look at the wife of Ibrāhīm, Hājar (عليها السلام) — She went through a difficult test, but just imagine if she was alive today and saw all the people making Hajj due to the trial Allāh blessed her with, don't you think she will smile? Imagine her ranks in the sight of Allāh, may the peace and blessings of Allāh be upon her and upon her husband Ibrāhīm, the Imām of Tawhīd and destroyer of Shirk!

Look at the trials Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم went through, but just think about the hadīth where his nation will be the largest on Yawm al-Qiyāmah, Yā Allāh!

Deliver the message in the best of ways, and leave the rest to Allāh, He will turn the hearts however way He wishes. Infact, I would like to add that giving da'wah also teaches us a huge lesson, to humble ourselves deeply to Allāh for giving us this big trust. May Allāh make those who give da'wah better on the inside and protect them from all evil.

5 March 2018 14:06

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

If your charity or Zakāt gets given to a deceiver unintentionally, there is no blame upon you, as you gave it purely and that's what matters most in the sight of Allāh.

Even though we should take precautions and ensure we're giving it to the right hands, not those pretending to be poor. Read this wonderful hadīth that's reported by Bukhārī and Muslim:

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "A man (from amongst the people before you) said: 'Indeed! I will give in charity.' So he took his Sadaqah out and placed it in a thief's hand. In the morning the people were talking (about this incident) and saying: 'Sadaqah was given to a thief last night.' The man said: 'O Allah! Praise be to You. I have given Sadaqah to a thief. Indeed, I will give in charity!' So he took his Sadaqah out and he placed it in a prostitute's hand. In the morning the people were talking (about this incident) and saying: 'Sadaqah was given to a prostitute last night.' On hearing this, the man said: 'Praise be to You, O Allah! I gave Sadaqah to a prostitute. Indeed, I will give in charity!' So he took his Sadaqah out and placed it in a rich man's hand. In the morning the people were talking (about this incident) and saying: 'Sadaqah was given to a rich man last night.' The man said: 'O Allah! Praise be to You (for helping me) give charity to a thief, a prostitute and a rich man.' Then he had a dream in which he was told that his Sadaqah to the thief might result in his refraining from his theft, his Sadaqah to the prostitute might help her abstain from her immorality, and his Sadaqah to the rich man might help him pay heed and spend from what Allah had bestowed upon him."

5 March 2018 13:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

If your charity or Zakāt gets given to a deceiver unintentionally, there is no blame upon you, as you gave it purely and that's what matters most in the sight of Allāh.

Even though we should take precautions and ensure we're giving it to the right hands, not those pretending to be poor. Read this wonderful hadīth that's reported by Bukhārī and Muslim:

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "A man (from amongst the people before you) said: 'Indeed! I will give in charity.' So he took his Sadaqah out and placed it in a thief's hand. In the morning the people were talking (about this incident) and saying: 'Sadaqah was given to a thief last night.' The man said: 'O Allah! Praise be to You. I have given Sadaqah to a thief. Indeed, I will give in charity!' So he took his Sadaqah out and he placed it in a prostitute's hand. In the morning the people were talking (about this incident) and saying: 'Sadaqah was given to a prostitute last night.' On hearing this, the man said: 'Praise be to You, O Allah! I gave Sadaqah to a prostitute. Indeed, I will give in charity!' So he took his Sadaqah out and placed it in a rich man's hand. In the morning the people were talking (about this incident) and saying: 'Sadaqah was given to a rich man last night.' The man said: 'O Allah! Praise be to You (for helping me) give charity to a thief, a prostitute and a rich man.' Then he had a dream in which he was told that his Sadaqah to the thief might result in his refraining from his theft, his Sadaqah to the prostitute might help her abstain from her immorality, and his Sadaqah to the rich man might help him pay heed and spend from what Allah had bestowed upon him."

5 March 2018 13:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) says:

The brother asks about Allāh’s statement, “A zāni doesn’t marry except a zāniyah or mushrikah, and no one marries a zāniyah except a zānī or mushrik”.

And the scholars disputed over the meaning of this Āyah, because some people assume what’s apparent is that the zānī is permitted to marry a mushrikah if he hasn’t repented, and no one from the ‘ulamā’ says this, that a muslim marries a mushrikah, this is impermissible by Ijmā’.

A muslim is allowed to marry a girl from ahlul-kitāb, but he’s not permitted to marry a mushrikah, and this is agreed upon by the scholars.

Allāh’s statement, “No one marries a zāniyah except a zānī or mushrik”, a muslimah is not to be married by a kāfir to begin with, whether he’s from ahlul-kitāb or not, and this is from the clear-cut matters in Islām.

So what’s meant by Allāh’s statement, “A zāni doesn’t marry except a zāniyah or mushrikah”.

The first opinion regarding that — The zānī is referring to the one who doesn’t care, so this is information about the situation of those who commit zinā, and that they don’t care, it doesn’t matter to him whether he marries a zāniyah or mushrikah. This opinion also has some weakness.

The second opinion — It’s referring to the zānī who declares zinā lawful, he doesn’t marry except a zāniyah who declares zinā lawful or a mushrikah, so the Āyah is indicative that a zānī doesn’t marry a muslimah in all cases. And this opinion is better than the previous one.

The third opinion in what the Āyah means — “A zānī doesn’t marry except a zāniyah” is held upon the meaning of the Prophet’s statement, “The zānī who has been lashed (100 times) should not marry except someone like him.”

Meaning: He marries a zāniyah if he doesn’t repent (from zinā), he doesn’t marry a chaste woman as a prohibition. And if he declares zinā lawful, he wouldn’t marry except a mushrikah (like him).

So the first situation would refer to the two muslim fornicators, and if he declares that lawful, he would be a mushrik, hence he wouldn’t marry except a mushrikah.

And this is from the strong opinions regarding the meaning of this Āyah.

Student asks: I have a question on the same verse, but a different question, is “nikāh” here referring to intercourse or the marriage contract?

Shaykh replies: Nikāh in the Qur’ān has been mentioned in 2 ways, it has been mentioned in reference to intercourse, and it has been mentioned in reference to the marriage contract. But what’s intended here is intercourse, and intercourse isn’t fulfilled except in the beginning of the marriage.

5 March 2018 09:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) says:

The brother asks about Allāh’s statement, “A zāni doesn’t marry except a zāniyah or mushrikah, and no one marries a zāniyah except a zānī or mushrik”.

And the scholars disputed over the meaning of this Āyah, because some people assume what’s apparent is that the zānī is permitted to marry a mushrikah if he hasn’t repented, and no one from the ‘ulamā’ says this, that a muslim marries a mushrikah, this is impermissible by Ijmā’.

A muslim is allowed to marry a girl from ahlul-kitāb, but he’s not permitted to marry a mushrikah, and this is agreed upon by the scholars.

Allāh’s statement, “No one marries a zāniyah except a zānī or mushrik”, a muslimah is not to be married by a kāfir to begin with, whether he’s from ahlul-kitāb or not, and this is from the clear-cut matters in Islām.

So what’s meant by Allāh’s statement, “A zāni doesn’t marry except a zāniyah or mushrikah”.

The first opinion regarding that — The zānī is referring to the one who doesn’t care, so this is information about the situation of those who commit zinā, and that they don’t care, it doesn’t matter to him whether he marries a zāniyah or mushrikah. This opinion also has some weakness.

The second opinion — It’s referring to the zānī who declares zinā lawful, he doesn’t marry except a zāniyah who declares zinā lawful or a mushrikah, so the Āyah is indicative that a zānī doesn’t marry a muslimah in all cases. And this opinion is better than the previous one.

The third opinion in what the Āyah means — “A zānī doesn’t marry except a zāniyah” is held upon the meaning of the Prophet’s statement, “The zānī who has been lashed (100 times) should not marry except someone like him.”

Meaning: He marries a zāniyah if he doesn't repent (from zinā), he doesn't marry a chaste woman as a prohibition. And if he declares zinā lawful, he wouldn't marry except a mushrikah (like him).

So the first situation would refer to the two muslim fornicators, and if he declares that lawful, he would be a mushrik, hence he wouldn't marry except a mushrikah.

And this is from the strong opinions regarding the meaning of this Āyah.

Student asks: I have a question on the same verse, but a different question, is "nikāh" here referring to intercourse or the marriage contract?

Shaykh replies: Nikāh in the Qur'ān has been mentioned in 2 ways, it has been mentioned in reference to intercourse, and it has been mentioned in reference to the marriage contract. But what's intended here is intercourse, and intercourse isn't fulfilled except in the beginning of the marriage.

5 March 2018 09:54

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"Just as the true Muslim young man will not be attracted to the pretty girls who have grown up in a bad environment, so the Muslim young woman who is guided by her religion will not be attracted to the stupid "playboy" types, no matter how handsome they may be. Rather she will be attracted to the serious, educated, believing man who is clean-living and pure of heart, whose behavior is good and whose understanding of religion is sound. No one is a suitable partner for the good, believing woman except a good, believing man; and no one is a suitable partner for the wayward, immoral woman except for a wayward, immoral man, as Allah azza wa jal has said:

"Women impure are for men impure, and men impure are for women impure, and women of purity are for men of purity, and men of purity are for women of purity. " Qur'an 24:26"

From: The Ideal Muslimah pp. 179-180

5 March 2018 08:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Brothers and sisters, we must be very careful in saying things like "we hate the sin, but not the sinner", since making such unrestricted statements is not correct, and actually stems from Irjā'.

Part of our Walā' and Barā' is to hate the muslim sinner for his corruption, while loving him for his goodness (Īmān). For this reason, the Imāms of the salaf would boycott the people of innovation & corrupt sinners, and not speak with them, in order to bring them back to righteousness.

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (28/209):

"It should be known that it's obligatory to ally with a believer, even if he oppressed you and transgressed against you, and it's obligatory to have hostility to a kāfir, even if he gave you things and dealt with you nicely, As Allāh ta'āla sent the messengers and revealed the books so that the religion, all of it, is for Allāh. So that the love is for his allies and hatred is for his enemies.

Whenever good and evil, disobedience and obedience, sins, sunnah and bid'ah are combined within a person, he deserves from the allegiance and rewards in regards to what he has of good in him. And he is deserving of hatred and punishment in regards to what he has of evil in him.

So for a single person, there are obligations of honouring and dishonouring due to this and that (i.e. goodness and corruption). Just like the poor thief whose hand is chopped off for his theft, while he is also given (donations) from the Bayt al-Māl (treasury of the muslims), for that which will suffice him for his need. This is the foundation, which is agreed upon by Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā'ah."

5 March 2018 08:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"Just as the true Muslim young man will not be attracted to the pretty girls who have grown up in a bad environment, so the Muslim young woman who is guided by her religion will not be attracted to the stupid "playboy" types, no matter how handsome they may be. Rather she will be attracted to the serious, educated, believing man who is clean-living and pure of heart, whose behavior is good and whose understanding of religion is sound. No one is a suitable partner for the good, believing woman except a good, believing man; and no one is a suitable partner for the wayward, immoral woman except for a wayward, immoral man, as Allah azza wa jal has said:

"Women impure are for men impure, and men impure are for women impure, and women of purity are for men of purity, and men of purity are for women of purity. " Qur'an 24:26"

From: The Ideal Muslimah pp. 179-180

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Brothers and sisters, we must be very careful in saying things like “we hate the sin, but not the sinner”, since making such unrestricted statements is not correct, and actually stems from Irijā’.

Part of our Walā’ and Barā’ is to hate the muslim sinner for his corruption, while loving him for his goodness (Īmān). For this reason, the Imāms of the salaf would boycott the people of innovation & corrupt sinners, and not speak with them, in order to bring them back to righteousness.

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Majmū’ al-Fatāwā” (28/209):

“It should be known that it’s obligatory to ally with a believer, even if he oppressed you and transgressed against you, and it’s obligatory to have hostility to a kāfir, even if he gave you things and dealt with you nicely, As Allāh ta’āla sent the messengers and revealed the books so that the religion, all of it, is for Allāh. So that the love is for his allies and hatred is for his enemies.

Whenever good and evil, disobedience and obedience, sins, sunnah and bid’ah are combined within a person, he deserves from the allegiance and rewards in regards to what he has of good in him. And he is deserving of hatred and punishment in regards to what he has of evil in him.

So for a single person, there are obligations of honouring and dishonouring due to this and that (i.e. goodness and corruption). Just like the poor thief whose hand is chopped off for his theft, while he is also given (donations) from the Bayt al-Māl (treasury of the muslims), for that which will suffice him for his need. This is the foundation, which is agreed upon by Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā’ah.”

5 March 2018 08:18

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

How many words of wisdom are found in this single quote, Allāhu Akbar! You will never find someone perfect in this world, but if your heart is pure, the kuffār will testify this about you before the muslims, the same way Quraysh did to our Prophet Muhammad!

5 March 2018 07:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

How many words of wisdom are found in this single quote, Allāhu Akbar! You will never find someone perfect in this world, but if your heart is pure, the kuffār will testify this about you before the muslims, the same way Quraysh did to our Prophet Muhammad!

5 March 2018 07:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

The best company is that which loves to give up everything in order to solely seek knowledge for hours without feeling tired — This is the very least devotion we need among us if we claim to love seeking ‘ilm.

5 March 2018 06:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

The best company is that which loves to give up everything in order to solely seek knowledge for hours without feeling tired — This is the very least devotion we need among us if we claim to love seeking ‘ilm.

5 March 2018 06:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Wallāhi, it makes me really upset to see a lack of religious commitment among muslims. Many find it impossible to sit down for 10 hours to complete the Qur’ān or spend that time seeking knowledge, but will not find it impossible to watch movies (which are all completely harām) or play games, or joke around with friends.

How can we claim to love the ummah and claim to be practising muslims, when our actions prove otherwise. I find it so painful to talk to brothers who don't speak knowledge or about the affairs of the ummah.

Allāhul-Musta'ān =(

5 March 2018 06:20

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Wallāhi, it makes me really upset to see a lack of religious commitment among muslims. Many find it impossible to sit down for 10 hours to complete the Qur'ān or spend that time seeking knowledge, but will not find it impossible to watch movies (which are all completely harām) or play games, or joke around with friends.

How can we claim to love the ummah and claim to be practising muslims, when our actions prove otherwise. I find it so painful to talk to brothers who don't speak knowledge or about the affairs of the ummah.

Allāhul-Musta'ān =(

5 March 2018 06:20

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Exercising the body refreshes the mind, and being around those who have a thirst for knowledge is company which the kind soul strongly desires.

Make hijrah away from negative environments, and watch how calm and clear your thoughts become. This will help an individual's devotion to seeking knowledge to uplift the ummah from ignorance, while disliking anything else from the matters of this dunyā to be on his mind.

Love knowledge, seek it, talk about it, thank Allāh for it, and see the results in this world before Jannatul-Firdaws.

4 March 2018 15:49

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Exercising the body refreshes the mind, and being around those who have a thirst for knowledge is company which the kind soul strongly desires.

Make hijrah away from negative environments, and watch how calm and clear your thoughts become. This will help an individual's devotion to seeking knowledge to uplift the ummah from ignorance, while disliking anything else from the matters of this dunyā to be on his mind.

Love knowledge, seek it, talk about it, thank Allāh for it, and see the results in this world before Jannatul-Firdaws.

4 March 2018 15:49

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://t.me/Ulama\_Archives\_IT

Words of the scholars, in particular “al-Fatāwā al-Hā'iriyyah” by Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd being translated into Italian.

Share the channel below to the italian speakers Insha'Allah:
https://t.me/Ulama\_Archives\_IT

4 March 2018 06:24

---

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://t.me/Ulama\_Archives\_IT
https://t.me/Ulama\_Archives\_IT

Words of the scholars, in particular “al-Fatāwā al-Hā'iriyyah” by Sh. Nāsir al-Fahd being translated into Italian.

Share the channel below to the italian speakers Insha'Allah:

4 March 2018 06:24

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ibn Abdallah Al-Hadhrami الله اكبر

4 March 2018 03:28

#Personalities | I'm not sure if you guys are aware of him, but Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī (may Allāh guide him) was an expert researcher and literally destroyed all the shī'a debaters in the arab world.

To mention a brief personal background; Initially, from the ages 7-12, I would focus alot on giving da'wah to christians, and my uncle helped me alot alhamdulillah (he knew Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl in the 90's, even el-Faisal when he was preaching Haqq, so I would hear all the cool and funny stories).

But when I turned 12 years old, that's when I really started reading alot of forums and researching the shī'a creed (wouldn't speak much), however through a bit of experience, I quickly came to realise that there was basically NO ONE among the 'shuyūkh' in the west that would help with the da'wah online in refuting shiaism, but rather it was left to brothers with weak arabic to provide the masses with the knowledge.

Infact, what's sad is that most preachers were calling for unity with the shī'a mushrikīn, and to be fair, many of them retracted their stances years later, but it was still sad and very hurtful to the true teachings of Islām, as the weakness of the da'wah of Tawhīd caused many to become astray and fall into shirk.

Keep in mind, I still had alot of jahl at the time, loved games, didn't take prayers seriously, addicted to cricket (since a 3 yr old) and sports, and a huge emphasis on secular studies with an unbreakable sharpness and love for maths (which increases the intellect alhamdulillah), even though it was a tough upbringing overall, but there's so much to learn from.

Anyways, so putting all the playing around aside (we all have dunyā attachments, otherwise we wouldn't be here), I was so thankful to Allāh for exposing me to the cancer of shiaism at a young age, as I later got attached to politics which enabled me to not get fooled by the lying tongues people have, especially this wicked sect which believes it's a core 'Ibādah of their religion!

Now returning back to Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī (هداه الله), I first came across him at the age of 14 when I would watch videos in arabic from all kinds of shuyūkh | It was literally my dream at the time to become an expert in refuting this sect (as it was rare to find people doing justice to the Haqq), and Shaykh Khālid was the perfect push for me to reach my goal.

But there was 1 issue, my arabic at the time was terrible and forgot it all (even though it was originally my mother tongue), and some people find it amazing on how I learnt it on my own.

I studied the shī'a creed from Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī for 5+ years, listening to him day and night (along with many other shuyūkh), all done alone without any assistance on youtube — I basically learnt through exposure, and the best thing about it is that it's all Fus'ha, pure arabic from the Qur'ān and Sunnah.

But due to listening to Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī so much, along with Imām Anwar al-'Awlaqī (تقبله الله), the only difference was that the accent coming off my tongue was a unique mix full of Yemeni, Khaleeji, Shāmi, 'Irāqī and even got told north African, even though the words were all Fus'ha, the accent always gets brought up — One man from Makkah also told me I sound like the Yemenis in the holy city, so that's how much affect listening on youtube for 1,000's of hours has had on me شبحان الله, the arabic language is so amazing, the arabic tongue loves to play around with words in ways you cannot imagine.

You wouldn't imagine the amount of love I used to have for the shaykh, he was so humble, intelligent and well-mannered, and as the Imām Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) said, you can tell how a teacher is by his student, hence I wanted to find the best people for my Dīn and Akhlāq, and subhānAllāh it's amazing how Allāh directed my heart and attached it to Yemen, and for this reason I have a special love for the people of Yemen, because Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) praised them, it's exactly how al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab (رحمه الله) mentions in "Bayān Fadl 'ilm as-Salaf 'ala 'ilm al-Khalaf" (page 66-67):

"The prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) has testified Īmān and Fiqh for the people of Yemen, and the people of Yemen are the least in speech and elaboration in the sciences of knowledge, however their knowledge is beneficial in their hearts, and they express through their tongues the precise amount of words required to speak, and this is what Fiqh and beneficial knowledge is."

The main channels I would watch online were "al-Wisāl" and "Safā", and subhānAllāh you wouldn't imagine how much barakah they've provided for the ummah. I remember the days when a whole group of callers would call in supporting the mujāhideen, and condemning any speaker who speaks ill of the mujāhideen, and the host Muhammad Sābir was a lion!

I remember the days when the show would constantly post videos from the mujāhideen which the whole world have united against! Imagine how brave they were to do that, there were shows where guest shuyūkh would rightfully give credit to the people of the Haqq and honour them. It reached an extent where the channels promoting Haqq were threatened of being shut down, and they were in some lands!

Hence, I loved these channels so much as it's rare to ever see that, and I remember Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī (هذاه الله) would never utter a single word against the mujāhideen, infact he defended them and humiliated callers who tried to defame them, which I posted a video from the Shaykh that reached 300,000+ people in the middle east, until it got taken down as usual.

Now after giving a brief run down of the history and expecting Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī to be a firm muwahhid on the Haqq, due to some pressure, a few years ago he started criticising the mujāhideen and speaking in the govt's interests, not directly opposing them.

Hence the title of this post, "personalities". It's something which I have learnt that no matter how much goodness you want for someone, it's only Allāh who guides the hearts, and how many have we seen appear firm change over night...

May Allāh keep us steadfast in our Īmān before everything, and it's never impossible to become from the Awliyā' of Allāh, even if you have fallen into any kufr or sin and truly change your life for the better, as Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned:

"It's not a condition of the pious Awliyā' of Allāh that they do not make mistakes in some things which would be a forgiven mistake on their behalf, infact it's not a condition that they abandon minor sins, absolutely, even further than that, it's not a condition to abandon major sins or kufr which results in (sincere) Tawbah afterwards."

— Refer to "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (11/66).

4 March 2018 00:32

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Zayn Ali i miss the days where khateeb spoke against injustice, i miss the days where a sheikh would lead rather than follow his masters

4 March 2018 00:36

Najmus Sakib You're an inspiration for Tullabul Ilm, akhee. May Allaah keep us on the right path till death comes upon us.

4 March 2018 01:50

#Personalities | I'm not sure if you guys are aware of him, but Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī (may Allāh guide him) was an expert researcher and literally destroyed all the shī'a debaters in the arab world.

To mention a brief personal background; Initially, from the ages 7-12, I would focus alot on giving da'wah to christians, and my uncle helped me alot alhamdulillah (he knew Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl in the 90's, even el-Faisal when he was preaching Haqq, so I would hear all the cool and funny stories).

But when I turned 12 years old, that's when I really started reading alot of forums and researching the shī'a creed (wouldn't speak much), however through a bit of experience, I quickly came to realise that there was basically NO ONE among the 'shuyūkh' in the west that would help with the da'wah online in refuting shiaism, but rather it was left to brothers with weak arabic to provide the masses with the knowledge.

Infact, what's sad is that most preachers were calling for unity with the shī'a mushrikīn, and to be fair, many of them retracted their stances years later, but it was still sad and very hurtful to the true teachings of Islām, as the weakness of the da'wah of Tawhīd caused many to become astray and fall into shirk.

Keep in mind, I still had alot of jahl at the time, loved games, didn't take prayers seriously, addicted to cricket (since a 3 yr old) and sports, and a huge emphasis on secular studies with an unbreakable sharpness and love for maths (which increases the intellect alhamdulillah), even though it was a tough upbringing overall, but there's so much to learn from.

Anyways, so putting all the playing around aside (we all have dunyā attachments, otherwise we wouldn't be here), I was so thankful to Allāh for exposing me to the cancer of shiaism at a young age, as I later got attached to politics which enabled me to not get fooled by the lying tongues people have, especially this wicked sect which believes it's a core 'Ibādah of their religion!

Now returning back to Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī (هذاه الله), I first came across him at the age of 14 when I would watch videos in arabic from all kinds of shuyūkh | It was literally my dream at the time to become an expert in refuting this sect (as it was rare to find people doing justice to the Haqq), and Shaykh Khālid was the perfect push for me to reach my goal.

But there was 1 issue, my arabic at the time was terrible and forgot it all (even though it was originally my mother tongue), and some people find it amazing on how I learnt it on my own.

I studied the shī'a creed from Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī for 5+ years, listening to him day and night

(along with many other shuyūkh), all done alone without any assistance on youtube — I basically learnt through exposure, and the best thing about it is that it's all Fus'ha, pure arabic from the Qur'ān and Sunnah.

But due to listening to Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī so much, along with Imām Anwar al-'Awlaqī (تقبله الله), the only difference was that the accent coming off my tongue was a unique mix full of Yemeni, Khaleeji, Shāmī, 'Irāqī and even got told north African, even though the words were all Fus'ha, the accent always gets brought up — One man from Makkah also told me I sound like the Yemenis in the holy city, so that's how much affect listening on youtube for 1,000's of hours has had on me سُبحان الله, the arabic language is so amazing, the arabic tongue loves to play around with words in ways you cannot imagine.

You wouldn't imagine the amount of love I used to have for the shaykh, he was so humble, intelligent and well-mannered, and as the Imām Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) said, you can tell how a teacher is by his student, hence I wanted to find the best people for my Din and Akhlāq, and subhānAllāh it's amazing how Allāh directed my heart and attached it to Yemen, and for this reason I have a special love for the people of Yemen, because Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) praised them, it's exactly how al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab (رحمه الله) mentions in "Bayān Fadl 'ilm as-Salaf 'ala 'ilm al-Khalaf" (page 66-67):

"The prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) has testified Īmān and Fiqh for the people of Yemen, and the people of Yemen are the least in speech and elaboration in the sciences of knowledge, however their knowledge is beneficial in their hearts, and they express through their tongues the precise amount of words required to speak, and this is what Fiqh and beneficial knowledge is."

The main channels I would watch online were "al-Wisāl" and "Safā", and subhānAllāh you wouldn't imagine how much barakah they've provided for the ummah. I remember the days when a whole group of callers would call in supporting the mujāhideen, and condemning any speaker who speaks ill of the mujāhideen, and the host Muhammad Sābir was a lion!

I remember the days when the show would constantly post videos from the mujāhideen which the whole world have united against! Imagine how brave they were to do that, there were shows where guest shuyūkh would rightfully give credit to the people of the Haqq and honour them. It reached an extent where the channels promoting Haqq were threatened of being shut down, and they were in some lands!

Hence, I loved these channels so much as it's rare to ever see that, and I remember Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī (هداه الله) would never utter a single word against the mujāhideen, infact he defended them and humiliated callers who tried to defame them, which I posted a video from the Shaykh that reached 300,000+ people in the middle east, until it got taken down as usual.

Now after giving a brief run down of the history and expecting Shaykh Khālid al-Wosābī to be a firm muwahhid on the Haqq, due to some pressure, a few years ago he started criticising the mujāhideen and speaking in the govt's interests, not directly opposing them.

Hence the title of this post, "personalities". It's something which I have learnt that no matter how much goodness you want for someone, it's only Allāh who guides the hearts, and how many have we seen appear firm change over night...

May Allāh keep us steadfast in our Īmān before everything, and it's never impossible to become from the Awliyā' of Allāh, even if you have fallen into any kufr or sin and truly change your life for the better, as Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned:

"It's not a condition of the pious Awliyā' of Allāh that they do not make mistakes in some things which would be a forgiven mistake on their behalf, infact it's not a condition that they abandon minor sins, absolutely, even further than that, it's not a condition to abandon major sins or kufr which results in (sincere) Tawbah afterwards."

— Refer to "Majmū' al-Fatāwā" (11/66).

4 March 2018 00:31

Radwan Dakkak shared SBS Australia's video.

No, this is not a movie, but don't worry, it's nothing out of the ordinary.

3 March 2018 17:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

No, this is not a movie, but don't worry, it's nothing out of the ordinary.

3 March 2018 17:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Ref: Muslim 4/2300

3 March 2018 16:04

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Ref: Muslim 4/2300

3 March 2018 16:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I was enjoying a debate between some kuffār on what's considered 'right' and 'wrong', and they were confused on who can determine what is right from wrong.

And subhānAllāh, even though some things are completely immoral or objectionable to the human mind, they seemed to agree on the point that it returns back to what society thinks is right (i.e. democracy — sovereignty belongs to the majority), and this is shocking seeing that society is becoming worse as time goes by.

All I was thinking was, Alhamdulilāh that Allāh sent us a perfect legislation and Sharī'ah which doesn't require any addition or subtraction from it.

3 March 2018 14:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I was enjoying a debate between some kuffār on what's considered 'right' and 'wrong', and they were confused on who can determine what is right from wrong.

And subhānAllāh, even though some things are completely immoral or objectionable to the human mind, they seemed to agree on the point that it returns back to what society thinks is right (i.e. democracy — sovereignty belongs to the majority), and this is shocking seeing that society is becoming worse as time goes by.

All I was thinking was, Alhamdulilāh that Allāh sent us a perfect legislation and Sharī'ah which doesn't require any addition or subtraction from it.

3 March 2018 14:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

in "Bayānu Fadli 'ilm as-Salaf 'ala 'ilm al-Khalaf" (page 62-63) refutes (رحمه الله) Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab the idea many people have that whoever speaks more is considered more knowledgeable, which even resulted in bad assumptions about the salaf

Many of the muta'akhireen (later scholars) were deceived by this, and they assumed that" whoever's speech, debating and disputing was more in the matters of the religion, then he is more .knowledgeable than those who aren't like that

And this is pure ignorance, just look at how the major Sahābah and their scholars such as Abī Bakr, !?'Umar, 'Alī, Mu'āth, Ibn Mas'ūd, and Zayd Ibn Thābit were like

Their speech was less than the speech of Ibn 'Abbās, while they are more knowledgeable than him. Furthermore, the speech of the Tābi'in is more than the speech of the Sahābah, while the Sahābah .are more knowledgeable than them

Likewise, the speech of the successors of the Tābi'in is more than the Tābi'in, while the Tābi'in are .more knowledgeable than them

So knowledge is not determined by frequently narrating knowledge, nor by speaking alot. But rather it's a light which is casted in the heart wherein a slave (of Allāh) understands the truth, and is able to distinguish between it (i.e. the truth) from falsehood, and is able to express that (truth) with ".simple words which attain the required benefit

3 March 2018 13:12

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

in “Bayānu Fadli ‘ilm as-Salaf ‘ala ‘ilm al-Khalaf” (page 62-63) refutes (رحمه الله) Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab the idea many people have that whoever speaks more is considered more knowledgeable, which even resulted in bad assumptions about the salaf

Many of the muta’akhireen (later scholars) were deceived by this, and they assumed that“ whoever’s speech, debating and disputing was more in the matters of the religion, then he is more .knowledgeable than those who aren’t like that

And this is pure ignorance, just look at how the major Sahābah and their scholars such as Abī Bakr, !?’Umar, ‘Alī, Mu’āth, Ibn Mas’ūd, and Zayd Ibn Thābit were like

Their speech was less than the speech of Ibn ‘Abbās, while they are more knowledgeable than him. Furthermore, the speech of the Tābi’in is more than the speech of the Sahābah, while the Sahābah .are more knowledgeable than them

Likewise, the speech of the successors of the Tābi’in is more than the Tābi’in, while the Tābi’in are .more knowledgeable than them

So knowledge is not determined by frequently narrating knowledge, nor by speaking alot. But rather it’s a light which is casted in the heart wherein a slave (of Allāh) understands the truth, and is able to distinguish between it (i.e. the truth) from falsehood, and is able to express that (truth) with ”.simple words which attain the required benefit

3 March 2018 13:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

“There is some sihr (magic) in eloquence (i.e. speech).”

I have heard some scholars mention that this hadīth may be both praiseworthy or blameworthy depending upon the type of speech, however Imām al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) in “Bayānu Fadli ‘ilm as-Salaf ‘ala ‘ilm al-Khalaf” (page 64) says:

“He (i.e. rasūlullāh) only said that as a condemnation, not as a praise as assumed by those who assumed that, and whoever ponders over the context of the words within the hadīth would be definitely certain about that.”

3 March 2018 12:43

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi Excellent book ! Highlights the reality of knowledge, not mere accumulation of artificial speech but actions that follow. The book is famous for stating: "the one who fears Allah then he is a scholar" every student my read this" "its deemed as a great deception but most that if one speaks more he regarded as knowldges but in reality those before you (salaf) spoke less are were multitudes more knowledgeable then the later ones"

3 March 2018 16:26

Abu Ali Hussain Hassan how can something be praised with something considered negative in islam ? sihr itself is shirk and if we see basic understanding that it can't be haqq so hadith cant be a praise but condemnation only.

5 March 2018 01:34

“There is some sihr (magic) in eloquence (i.e. speech).”

I have heard some scholars mention that this hadīth may be both praiseworthy or blameworthy depending upon the type of speech, however Imām al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) in “Bayānu Fadli ‘ilm as-Salaf ‘ala ‘ilm al-Khalaf” (page 64) says:

“He (i.e. rasūlullāh) only said that as a condemnation, not as a praise as assumed by those who assumed that, and whoever ponders over the context of the words within the hadīth would be definitely certain about that.”

3 March 2018 12:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

You can't even mention the name of Allāh without offending someone these days!!!

If you recite Qur'ān frequently and make da'wah, you're automatically entitled to the word "crazy extremist" (which can get you in trouble) and need to see a psychiatrist or psychologist!

SubhānAllāh, what is this oppression against the people of Tawhīd and 'Ibādah — والله المستعان

3 March 2018 11:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

You can't even mention the name of Allāh without offending someone these days!!!

If you recite Qur'ān frequently and make da'wah, you're automatically entitled to the word "crazy extremist" (which can get you in trouble) and need to see a psychiatrist or psychologist!

SubhānAllāh, what is this oppression against the people of Tawhīd and 'Ibādah — والله المستعان

3 March 2018 11:29

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

They are publicly arresting preachers on the Manābir, while the people of kufr and fisq are free to do whatever they like!

What a humiliation!!

لا حول ولا قوة إلا بالله
لا حول ولا قوة إلا بالله
لا حول ولا قوة إلا بالله

3 March 2018 11:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Click for video:

They are publicly arresting preachers on the Manābir, while the people of kufr and fisq are free to do whatever they like!

What a humiliation!!

لا حول ولا قوة إلا بالله
لا حول ولا قوة إلا بالله
لا حول ولا قوة إلا بالله

3 March 2018 11:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Serbian who became Muslim

Ali al Tamimi (May Allah free him) says;

There was one brother, who was a Serbian who took shahadah while he was in the USA high school. This was before the fall of the Iron curtain in the communist nation. He used to hide his Islam, his father was a Major diplomat in the Yugoslavian embassy. He once gave da'wah to his 12yr old cousin and told her to hide her Islam, but one day she slipped it to his family that he and her had accepted Islam. As soon as his father found out, his father ordered that he be sent back to Yugoslavia, and was forced to join their army (the communists wanted to spread their communism, including Afghanistan etc.) When he was in the army, his father told the army to watch his son, and make sure you torture him (they beat him there) and watched him that he wasn't Islamic in his activities. So the brother went for about 2years in the army and was watched constantly, he said he couldn't even do wudu and pray, so he prayed with his heart during the time.

After 2 years, when his military service was over, he came back home and hid his religion. After a weeks of staying home, he said to his family, "I used to be a crazy young kid back in those days, it was just a phase i was going through [etc]." His family still doubted him, so they would feed him pork, so he would eat it, and when he ate – he'd go upstairs and make himself sick to take it out of his body. He had a girl neighbour and told her to come to the house, to pretend that he had a girlfriend, and after told her to go away. He did all this to show his parents that he really wasn't Muslim.

After a few weeks of this, he asked his parents if he could go back to the USA to continue his education. They told him that he could go back, but he would have to stay in his uncles house who was a doctor in the USA. He said okay, and moved there to continue his education. He stayed there for about a month, and his uncle kept an eye on him to see if he did any Islamic activities. He wouldn't contact any Muslims, and the uncle kept an eye on him. His parents kept phoning to check up on him, and his uncle said that he's acting normal, like going to school, coming back home and studying etc.

So when the brother felt that they stopped watching him, he left his uncles house, and went to the Muslims and called his parents in Yugoslavia, and said; "Look, I was always Muslim, and I will always remain a Muslim, and I'll never leave this religion."

His father called the Yugoslavian embassy who called the United States government who called the Immigration services, naturalisation service, and they went to all the different Masaajid [mosques] to look for him and arrest him to send him back to Yugoslavia, but some of the Muslim brothers hid him in their houses and protected him for a while. Then they sent the brother to Medinah, and from there he went to Afghanistan, and he became a famous fighter in Afghanistan (most likely this occurred in the 1980s).

While he was in Afghanistan, his mother had a longing to see her son. She was a journalist and was allowed to leave Yugoslavia, and do an interview for the Communists against the Muslim fighters in Afghan, "in the defense of the communists of the Afghanis." She wanted a way to meet with her son. She went to Pakistan, then to Peshawar, and goes to the mountains where the Muslim fighters are, to find her son.

Her son talks to her, gives her a Qur'an, gives her da'wah [invitation to Islam], and tells her why Islam is the truth. And... she takes her shahadah and becomes Muslim. She then writes an article in the Yugoslavian-European newspaper on the Journey to Islam.

This brother went through a lot, just to preserve his religion. We read events of the Salaf sacrificing for their religion, but we shouldn't forget that there are people from every generation who give a lot for the sake of Allah, and we shouldn't be left behind...

Download Ghuraba Talks by Ali al Tamimi [Track 13 33:20 – 39:30 minutes] (may Allah free him)

3 March 2018 07:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Serbian who became Muslim

Ali al Tamimi (May Allah free him) says;

There was one brother, who was a Serbian who took shahadah while he was in the USA high school. This was before the fall of the Iron curtain in the communist nation. He used to hide his Islam, his father was a Major diplomat in the Yugoslavian embassy. He once gave da'wah to his 12yr old cousin and told her to hide her Islam, but one day she slipped it to his family that he and her had accepted Islam. As soon as his father found out, his father ordered that he be sent back to Yugoslavia, and was forced to join their army (the communists wanted to spread their communism, including Afghanistan etc.) When he was in the army, his father told the army to watch his son, and make sure you torture him (they beat him there) and watched him that he wasn't Islamic in his activities. So the brother went for about 2 years in the army and was watched constantly, he said he couldn't even do wudu and pray, so he prayed with his heart during the time.

After 2 years, when his military service was over, he came back home and hid his religion. After a few weeks of staying home, he said to his family, "I used to be a crazy young kid back in those days, it was just a phase I was going through [etc]." His family still doubted him, so they would feed him pork, so he would eat it, and when he ate – he'd go upstairs and make himself sick to take it out of his body. He had a girl neighbour and told her to come to the house, to pretend that he had a girlfriend, and after told her to go away. He did all this to show his parents that he really wasn't Muslim.

After a few weeks of this, he asked his parents if he could go back to the USA to continue his education. They told him that he could go back, but he would have to stay in his uncles house who was a doctor in the USA. He said okay, and moved there to continue his education. He stayed there for about a month, and his uncle kept an eye on him to see if he did any Islamic activities. He wouldn't contact any Muslims, and the uncle kept an eye on him. His parents kept phoning to check up on him, and his uncle said that he's acting normal, like going to school, coming back home and studying etc.

So when the brother felt that they stopped watching him, he left his uncles house, and went to the Muslims and called his parents in Yugoslavia, and said; "Look, I was always Muslim, and I will always remain a Muslim, and I'll never leave this religion."

His father called the Yugoslavian embassy who called the United States government who called the Immigration services, naturalisation service, and they went to all the different Masaajid [mosques] to look for him and arrest him to send him back to Yugoslavia, but some of the Muslim brothers hid him in their houses and protected him for a while. Then they sent the brother to Medinah, and from there he went to Afghanistan, and he became a famous fighter in Afghanistan (most likely this occurred in the 1980s).

While he was in Afghanistan, his mother had a longing to see her son. She was a journalist and was allowed to leave Yugoslavia, and do an interview for the Communists against the Muslim fighters in Afghan, "in the defense of the communists of the Afghanis." She wanted a way to meet with her son. She went to Pakistan, then to Peshawar, and goes to the mountains where the Muslim fighters are, to find her son.

Her son talks to her, gives her a Qur'an, gives her da'wah [invitation to Islam], and tells her why Islam is the truth. And... she take's her shahadah and becomes Muslim. She then writes an article in the Yugoslavian-European newspaper on the Journey to Islam.

This brother went through alot, just to preserve his religion. We read events of the Salaf sacrificing for their religion, but we shouldn't forget that there are people from every generation who give alot for the sake of Allah, and we shouldn't be left behind...

Download Ghuraba Talks by Ali al Tamimi [Track 13 33:20 – 39:30 minutes] (may Allah free him)

3 March 2018 07:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

When you come across an Āyah such as "Only those with knowledge fear Allāh the most" and "Ask the people of knowledge if you don't know", don't assume that it refers to the sell out shuyūkh of the murji'ah who don't fear Allāh, since they are thieves! Their hands are guilty of distorting the book of Allāh.

Rather, it only refers to the 'Ālim and student of knowledge who remembers Allāh at all times and implements everything he knows and says.

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) said:

"Allāh praised the Scholars who act upon their knowledge. And He did not praise the Scholars who conceal and mix the truth with falsehood.

The only reason knowledge was given virtue is because it makes one fear Allāh.

And whoever doesn't differentiate between:

Al-'Ulamā' (Righteous Scholars) & Al-'Umalā' (Sell out Scholars).

Then he is a Jāhil or has a blind heart."

2 March 2018 22:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When you come across an Āyah such as "Only those with knowledge fear Allāh the most" and "Ask the people of knowledge if you don't know", don't assume that it refers to the sell out shuyūkh of the murji'ah who don't fear Allāh, since they are thieves! Their hands are guilty of distorting the book of Allāh.

Rather, it only refers to the 'Ālim and student of knowledge who remembers Allāh at all times and implements everything he knows and says.

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) said:

"Allāh praised the Scholars who act upon their knowledge. And He did not praise the Scholars who conceal and mix the truth with falsehood.

The only reason knowledge was given virtue is because it makes one fear Allāh.

And whoever doesn't differentiate between:

Al-'Ulamā' (Righteous Scholars) & Al-'Umalā' (Sell out Scholars).

Then he is a Jāhil or has a blind heart."

2 March 2018 22:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Definitions of Fahshā' and Munkar:

Shaykh as-Sa'dī (رحمه الله) says:

"And immorality (fahshah) is every excessive and indecent act of disobedience which the lower self desires.

And wrongdoing (munkar) is every act of disobedience which the (functioning) intellect and natural inclination (fitrah) would prevent."

— Refer to “Taysīr al-Karīm ar-Rahmān” (page 632).

2 March 2018 21:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Definitions of Fahshā’ and Munkar:

Shaykh as-Sa’dī (رحمه الله) says:

“And immorality (fahshah) is every excessive and indecent act of disobedience which the lower self desires.

And wrongdoing (munkar) is every act of disobedience which the (functioning) intellect and natural inclination (fitrah) would prevent.”

— Refer to “Taysīr al-Karīm ar-Rahmān” (page 632).

2 March 2018 21:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Do you want to know something which turns you away from sins and ever wondered about the secret of the salaf in abstaining from sins, and having so much barakah in their times?

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions in the glorious Qur’ān:

“Recite, [O Muhammad], what has been revealed to you of the Book and establish prayer. Indeed, prayer prohibits immorality and wrongdoing, and the remembrance of Allah is greater. And Allah knows that which you do.”

Ponder over this noble Āyah and I would recommend returning back to the Tafāsīr (books of Tafsīr), Allāh says that Salāh prohibits you from immorality and wrongdoing, but read the next few words that came after:

“And the remembrance of Allāh is greater”.

Allāhu akbar! Do you know what this means? Allāh is saying that Thikr of Allāh is greater and more effective in turning you away from immorality and wrongdoing than the sujūd you make in your Salāh.

Because every muslim prays, however only the one with Thikr of Allāh firmly established in his heart and on his tongue will have the most Khushū’ within salāh AND outside of salāh, hence he will be among those who fear Allāh the most.

2 March 2018 21:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Do you want to know something which turns you away from sins and ever wondered about the secret of the salaf in abstaining from sins, and having so much barakah in their times?

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions in the glorious Qur’ān:

“Recite, [O Muhammad], what has been revealed to you of the Book and establish prayer. Indeed, prayer prohibits immorality and wrongdoing, and the remembrance of Allah is greater. And Allah knows that which you do.”

Ponder over this noble Āyah and I would recommend returning back to the Tafāsīr (books of Tafsīr), Allāh says that Salāh prohibits you from immorality and wrongdoing, but read the next few words that came after:

“And the remembrance of Allāh is greater”.

Allāhu akbar! Do you know what this means? Allāh is saying that Thikr of Allāh is greater and more effective in turning you away from immorality and wrongdoing than the sujūd you make in your Salāh.

Because every muslim prays, however only the one with Thikr of Allāh firmly established in his heart and on his tongue will have the most Khushū’ within salāh AND outside of salāh, hence he will be among those who fear Allāh the most.

2 March 2018 21:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Still one of my favourites    The Imām of Sabr, Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī (فك الله أسره) mentioned that if he was to be given this whole world in 1 line and the Qur’ān in 1 line, he would choose the Qur’ān ﷻ May Allāh accept our recitation of Qur’ān and allow us to recite like this one day

2 March 2018 21:14

Radwan Dakkak shared Shade of Qur'an's video.

Still one of my favourites    The Imām of Sabr, Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī (فك الله أسره) mentioned that if he was to be given this whole world in 1 line and the Qur’ān in 1 line, he would choose the Qur’ān ﷻ May Allāh accept our recitation of Qur’ān and allow us to recite like this one day

2 March 2018 21:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Allāh did not create the Jinn and Ins except to worship Him, and this is Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah (singling out Allāh in worship) which necessitates Tawhīd ar-Rubūbiyyah (divine lordship).” [1]

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره).

[1] Important Note: The noble ‘Ālim, Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) mentioned that “Rubūbiyyah” is included within “Ulūhiyyah”, and not vice versa! The Shaykh mentioned in “Tawhīd Class #2”:

“Now we are going to say the name Allāh includes believing in all three types of Tawhīd, implies that you must believe in all three types of Tawhīd. Not even the name Allāh, the root of Allāh, “ilāh”, is the three types of Tawhīd.

That entails that you must believe in all Tawhīd. Tawhīd ar-Rubūbiyyah is included as part of Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah, but the opposite is not true. So, “ilāh”, the root word of Allāh is Ulūhiyyah, oneship.

Included in the oneship is Rubūbiyyah, you got two Tawhīd there. Then Allāh, the name itself is Asmā’, so that is Tawhīd al-Asmā’ was-Sifāt. That is three Tawhīd in the name of Allāh, not even Allāh, in the root name of Allāh, ilāh.”

2 March 2018 20:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Allāh did not create the Jinn and Ins except to worship Him, and this is Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah (singling out Allāh in worship) which necessitates Tawhīd ar-Rubūbiyyah (divine lordship).” [1]

— The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره).

[1] Important Note: The noble ‘Ālim, Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) mentioned that “Rubūbiyyah” is included within “Ulūhiyyah”, and not vice versa! The Shaykh mentioned in “Tawhīd Class #2”:

“Now we are going to say the name Allāh includes believing in all three types of Tawhīd, implies that you must believe in all three types of Tawhīd. Not even the name Allāh, the root of Allāh, “ilāh”, is the three types of Tawhīd.

That entails that you must believe in all Tawhīd. Tawhīd ar-Rubūbiyyah is included as part of Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah, but the opposite is not true. So, “ilāh”, the root word of Allāh is Ulūhiyyah, oneship.

Included in the oneship is Rubūbiyyah, you got two Tawhīd there. Then Allāh, the name itself is Asmā’, so that is Tawhīd al-Asmā’ was-Sifāt. That is three Tawhīd in the name of Allāh, not even Allāh, in the root name of Allāh, ilāh.”

2 March 2018 20:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The word ‘Kitāb’ (book) is a famous word we always come across, but what does it really mean linguistically?

The word ‘Kitāb’ (كتاب) is derived from the word كَتَبَ (kataba — i.e. wrote down), which means جَمَعَ (jama’ah — i.e. gathered).

For example, you have the phrase ‘Kaṭibat al-Jaysh’ (battalion of the army). It was called that due to the soldiers being ‘gathered’ within it.

Likewise, “Kitābah” (i.e. writing) was called that due to the letters being ‘gathered’ together.

Also, in respect to islamic knowledge, the word 'Kitāb' is used due to the 'gathering' (or collection) of matters surrounding the topic that's intended by the book (or even chapter).

For e.g. "Kitāb at-Tawhīd", it's a book which entails and gathers knowledge surrounding the topic of Tawhīd.

#Linguistic_Benefit

2 March 2018 20:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The word 'Kitāb' (book) is a famous word we always come across, but what does it really mean linguistically?

The word 'Kitāb' (كتاب) is derived from the word كَتَبَ (kataba — i.e. wrote down), which means جَمَعَ (jama'ah — i.e. gathered).

For example, you have the phrase 'Katībat al-Jaysh' (battalion of the army). It was called that due to the soldiers being 'gathered' within it.

Likewise, "Kitābah" (i.e. writing) was called that due to the letters being 'gathered' together.

Also, in respect to islamic knowledge, the word 'Kitāb' is used due to the 'gathering' (or collection) of matters surrounding the topic that's intended by the book (or even chapter).

For e.g. "Kitāb at-Tawhīd", it's a book which entails and gathers knowledge surrounding the topic of Tawhīd.

#Linguistic_Benefit

2 March 2018 20:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Note: I know many of you brothers are sincere, however you need to learn the manners of asking questions and leave me alone by continuously wanting to speak to me.

I have to take a break from answering questions in PM's due to this burden, and when you get upset in not receiving a response, it makes me stress out more to write to you, as I don't like to ignore my brothers.

You need to also understand I've got alot of responsibilities in my personal life as well, literally helping my family everyday to the extend my mum says I'm being put too much pressure on and appreciates all the things I am doing, to the extent she is worried about my health.

And the neighbours approach my mum about me, saying I'm working too hard for the family and a treasure, as I rarely do things for myself, mainly look after family and online da'wah, so my mum is now telling me to start doing what I like to do, to give myself time and enjoy myself.

Even though you can never repay your mother or family, there are times where I need to take a break from things, as the stress can sometimes get to me and even cause chest pain.

Despite trying to do as much as I can for the ummah, it's never going to be enough, so I'll just be focusing on what's most important and so forth, while giving myself more time to enjoy myself through exercise and sports, etc.

To help you guys understand manners in asking Q's, I've tried to make a little effort in sharing 1 quote proving that it's rebuked to ask too much questions, and that one should research if he's able too before asking, as Imām ash-Shātībī (رحمه الله) mentioned in "al-Muwāfaqāt" (4/313-321):

"Frequently asking questions is blameworthy, and the proof for that is the widespread quotes from the Qur'ān, Sunnah and words of the pious predecessors."

Then he went into details mentioning the evidences, such as Allāh's statement, "Do not ask about things which, if they are shown to you, will distress you." [5:101].

And the reason this Āyah was revealed was due to the following hadīth recorded in Sahīh Muslim that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) recited, "And [due] to Allah from the people is a pilgrimage to the House." [3:97]

So a man asked, 'Every year, O Messenger of Allah?'

The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) kept silent. When the man repeated his question thrice, the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said:

"Had I answered in the affirmative, it would have become a (yearly) obligation, and this would have been beyond your capacity."

Then he added:

“Leave me alone so long as I leave you alone (i.e. do not ask questions about things I didn’t mention). What caused the destruction of the people before you was that they used to ask so many questions, and disagree with their Prophets. So when I command you to do something, do it to the extent of your ability, and if I forbid you from doing something, avoid it.” [Sahīh Muslim].

So even Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Leave me alone”, so imagine someone who’s not even worth a small hair of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم like myself?

2 March 2018 11:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Note: I know many of you brothers are sincere, however you need to learn the manners of asking questions and leave me alone by continuously wanting to speak to me.

I have to take a break from answering questions in PM’s due to this burden, and when you get upset in not receiving a response, it makes me stress out more to write to you, as I don’t like to ignore my brothers.

You need to also understand I’ve got alot of responsibilities in my personal life as well, literally helping my family everyday to the extend my mum says I’m being put too much pressure on and appreciates all the things I am doing, to the extent she is worried about my health.

And the neighbours approach my mum about me, saying I’m working too hard for the family and a treasure, as I rarely do things for myself, mainly look after family and online da’wah, so my mum is now telling me to start doing what I like to do, to give myself time and enjoy myself.

Even though you can never repay your mother or family, there are times where I need to take a break from things, as the stress can sometimes get to me and even cause chest pain.

Despite trying to do as much as I can for the ummah, it’s never going to be enough, so I’ll just be focusing on what’s most important and so forth, while giving myself more time to enjoy myself through exercise and sports, etc.

To help you guys understand manners in asking Q’s, I’ve tried to make a little effort in sharing 1 quote proving that it’s rebuked to ask too much questions, and that one should research if he’s able too before asking, as Imām ash-Shātibī (رحمه الله) mentioned in “al-Muwāfaqāt” (4/313-321):

“Frequently asking questions is blameworthy, and the proof for that is the widespread quotes from the Qur’ān, Sunnah and words of the pious predecessors.”

Then he went into details mentioning the evidences, such as Allāh’s statement, “Do not ask about things which, if they are shown to you, will distress you.” [5:101].

And the reason this Āyah was revealed was due to the following hadīth recorded in Sahīh Muslim that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) recited, “And [due] to Allah from the people is a pilgrimage to the House.” [3:97]

So a man asked, ‘Every year, O Messenger of Allah?’

The Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) kept silent. When the man repeated his question thrice, the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said:

“Had I answered in the affirmative, it would have become a (yearly) obligation, and this would have been beyond your capacity.”

Then he added:

“Leave me alone so long as I leave you alone (i.e. do not ask questions about things I didn’t mention). What caused the destruction of the people before you was that they used to ask so many questions, and disagree with their Prophets. So when I command you to do something, do it to the extent of your ability, and if I forbid you from doing something, avoid it.” [Sahīh Muslim].

So even Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Leave me alone”, so imagine someone who’s not even worth a small hair of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم like myself?

2 March 2018 11:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

“Beauty attracts attention, but tenderness attracts hearts.”

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

“Beauty attracts attention, but tenderness attracts hearts.”

2 March 2018 05:04

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The importance of having ‘Husn ath-Thani’ (a good assumption) of Allāh.

Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى mentions in the glorious Qur’ān:

□ يَظُنُّونَ بِاللّٰهِ غَيْرَ الْحَقِّ ظَنَّ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ

“Thinking of Allah other than the truth - the thought of ignorance.” [3:154].

This Āyah shows the obligation of assuming well of Allāh and the prohibition of assuming bad of Allāh.

This is considered from the aspect of having good manners with Allāh and exalting Him, along with preserving Tawhīd and eliminating all forms of Shirk, as bad assumptions of Allāh fall under ‘minor shirk via actions’, and it can lead to Major Shirk, so we must be very careful.

Having ‘husn ath-thani’ in Allāh shows a great form of exaltation and knowing Him very well with knowledge.

Whereas ‘Sū’ ath-thani’ (having a bad assumption) of Allāh is the complete opposite. This is considered degrading Allāh the most High, and being ignorant of his lofty attributes, and also resembling Him to the creation, and opposing his Qadr, and having bad manners with Allāh renders one’s Tawhīd as deficient.

Moreover, concerning the Āyah above, Imām Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned it was revealed to the mushrikīn and munāfiqīn, which shows the connection ‘bad assumption’ has with shirk and nifāq, subhānAllāh!

Infact, Allāh has ordered us to have a good assumption of the people, so how can’t we have good assumption about Allāh who has created me and you...??

There are times we take precautions with people, but we assume the best of our brothers until they come with anything alarming, but with the case of Allāh, there is nothing of that to worry about.

So don’t despair in the mercy of Allāh, especially in our times when the ummah is suffering, as many think Allāh won’t gain victory for our ummah and the mujāhideen, or that He may abandon them for the kuffār, or oppose Qadr with statements like “why did Allāh do this”, “only if this happened”, we seek refuge in Allāh from such evil assumptions!

Solution — To ensure we always have a good assumption of Allāh, it’s important to place our rajā’ (hope) and tawakkul (reliance) upon Allāh, and to learn more about his beautiful names and lofty attributes, and to learn more about Allāh.

The noble ‘Ālim and mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تَقِيْلُهُ اللهُ) stated that several scholars mentioned 3/4’s of the Qur’ān touches on the names and attributes of Allāh, so this should give us an even stronger reason to motivate us in learning more about Allāh, the Lord of creation, may He be glorified.

2 March 2018 04:53

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The importance of having ‘Husn ath-Thani’ (a good assumption) of Allāh.

Allāh سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى mentions in the glorious Qur’ān:

□ يَظُنُّونَ بِاللّٰهِ غَيْرَ الْحَقِّ ظَنَّ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ

“Thinking of Allah other than the truth - the thought of ignorance.” [3:154].

This Āyah shows the obligation of assuming well of Allāh and the prohibition of assuming bad of Allāh.

This is considered from the aspect of having good manners with Allāh and exalting Him, along with preserving Tawhīd and eliminating all forms of Shirk, as bad assumptions of Allāh fall under ‘minor shirk via actions', and it can lead to Major Shirk, so we must be very careful.

Having 'husn ath-than' in Allāh shows a great form of exaltation and knowing Him very well with knowledge.

Whereas 'Sū' ath-than' (having a bad assumption) of Allāh is the complete opposite. This is considered degrading Allāh the most High, and being ignorant of his lofty attributes, and also resembling Him to the creation, and opposing his Qadr, and having bad manners with Allāh renders one's Tawhīd as deficient.

Moreover, concerning the Āyah above, Imām Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned it was revealed to the mushrikin and munāfiqin, which shows the connection 'bad assumption' has with shirk and nifāq, subhānAllāh!

Infact, Allāh has ordered us to have a good assumption of the people, so how can't we have good assumption about Allāh who has created me and you...??

There are times we take precautions with people, but we assume the best of our brothers until they come with anything alarming, but with the case of Allāh, there is nothing of that to worry about.

So don't despair in the mercy of Allāh, especially in our times when the ummah is suffering, as many think Allāh won't gain victory for our ummah and the mujāhideen, or that He may abandon them for the kuffār, or oppose Qadr with statements like "why did Allāh do this", "only if this happened", we seek refuge in Allāh from such evil assumptions!

Solution — To ensure we always have a good assumption of Allāh, it's important to place our rajā' (hope) and tawakkul (reliance) upon Allāh, and to learn more about his beautiful names and lofty attributes, and to learn more about Allāh.

The noble 'Ālim and mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تقبله الله) stated that several scholars mentioned 3/4's of the Qur'ān touches on the names and attributes of Allāh, so this should give us an even stronger reason to motivate us in learning more about Allāh, the Lord of creation, may He be glorified.

2 March 2018 04:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. What is the difference between uluw and istiwa?

A. To keep it short, 'uluw refers to Allāh being above His creation and this is part of our Fitrah to look up when making du'ā, whereas al-Istiwa' refers to Allāh being above the 'throne', and this cannot be known except via textual evidence as Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Majmū' al-Fatāwah" (5/122):

ولهذا كان علو من الصفات المعلومة بالسمع مع العقل والشرع عند الأئمة المثبتة , وأما الاستواء على العرش , فمن الصفات المعلومة بالسمع فقط دون العقل

"For this reason, al-'Uluw is considered from the Sifāt that is known by the text along with the intellect and shari'ah according to the Imāms who affirmed it, but as for al-Istiwa' (rising over) the throne, it's considered from the Sifāt which is only known by the text, not the intellect."

For this reason, the scholars would use textual and rational proof (via the intellect and fitrah) to prove al-'Uluw, whereas they will only use textual evidences to prove al-Istiwa'. Moreover, just because something has intellectual proof, it doesn't necessitate it's from the foundations of Tawhīd in singling out Allāh in worship which is known by the necessity of the intellect and Fitrah.

2 March 2018 03:58

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. What is the difference between uluw and istiwa?

A. To keep it short, 'uluw refers to Allāh being above His creation and this is part of our Fitrah to look up when making du'ā, whereas al-Istiwa' refers to Allāh being above the 'throne', and this cannot be known except via textual evidence as Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Majmū' al-Fatāwah" (5/122):

ولهذا كان علو من الصفات المعلومة بالسمع مع العقل والشرع عند الأئمة المثبتة , وأما الاستواء على العرش , فمن الصفات المعلومة بالسمع فقط دون العقل

"For this reason, al-'Uluw is considered from the Sifāt that is known by the text along with the intellect and shari'ah according to the Imāms who affirmed it, but as for al-Istiwa' (rising over) the throne, it's considered from the Sifāt which is only known by the text, not the intellect."

For this reason, the scholars would use textual and rational proof (via the intellect and fitrah) to prove al-'Uluw, whereas they will only use textual evidences to prove al-Istiwa'. Moreover, just because something has intellectual proof, it doesn't necessitate it's from the foundations of Tawhīd in singling out Allāh in worship which is known by the necessity of the intellect and Fitrah.

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<http://alfetn.net/vb3/showthread.php?t=78265>

Q. Where did al Alwaan say that the hadith about ghouta is da'eef? I can't find it (and why did he weaken it).

A. This was quoted by a Shaykh on a forum, and this was narrated by one of Shaykh al-'Alwān's students. You will find a beneficial discussion on this 3 page thread [1] discussing why Shaykh al-'Alwān weakened it.

What seems apparent from the Shaykh is that he defected the hadīth due to "īrsāl", therefore it returns back to the different narrations on the topic, due to the hadīth being narrated via a "connected path" and also being narrated via a "Mursal" path, in which the shaykh views it to be mursal (whereas other scholars of hadīth differed).

One of the students of knowledge on the forum wrote the following:

سألت الشيخ خالد بن عمر الفقيه ملتقى أهل الحديث (عبر تويتر) عن رأيه في إعلال الشيخ العلوان للحديث فقال: "الحديث روي عن مكحول مرسلًا وروي عن أبي الدرداء وعوف بن مالك الأشجعي رضي الله عنهما موصولًا والأقرب صحته مرفوعًا والله أعلم"

"I asked Shaykh Khālid Ibn 'Umar al-Faqeeh, from Multaqa Ahl al-Hadīth, via twitter on his opinion concerning Shaykh al-'Alwān's defection of the hadīth, so he replied:

The hadīth has been narrated from Mak'hūl in a mursal fashion, and it has been narrated from Abī ad-Dardā' and 'Awf Ibn Mālik al-Ashja'ī (may Allāh be pleased with both of them) in a connected fashion, and what's closer (to the truth) is that it's confirmed in a Marfū' fashion (i.e. connected to the rasūl), and Allāh knows best."

He further mentioned the following:

وكذلك سألت الشيخ محمد بن عبدالله السريع (قسم السنة وعلومها جامعة القصيم) عبر تويتر فقال: "الحديث جيد وإن كان وقع فيه اختلاف، عده ابن معين أصح حديث الشاميين، وحسنه البرار، وصححه ابن عساکر وغيره. والله أعلم"

"Moreover, I asked Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdillāh as-Sarī', from the Sunnah faculty and its sciences from al-Qasīm university, via twitter, so he replied:

The hadīth is jayyid (good) even though differences in the chains occurred, (Yahyā) Ibn Ma'īn considered it from the most authentic hadīths of the Shāmi narrators, it was declared Hassan by al-Bazzār, and it was authenticated by Ibn 'Asākir along with others, and Allāh knows best."

So there's no doubt the connected chain is full of trustworthy narrators, however the Shaykh viewed what's correct is that it was truly narrated via a mursal path (instead of connected), hence weakening the narrations on the topic.

However, many scholars of hadīth viewed otherwise, and Inshā'Allāh the hadīth is fine to accept, may Allāh reward the scholars for their efforts.

[1] Here's the link to the thread — <http://alfetn.net/vb3/showthread.php?t=78265>

2 March 2018 02:57

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<http://alfetn.net/vb3/showthread.php?t=78265>

<http://alfetn.net/vb3/showthread.php?t=78265>

Q. Where did al Alwaan say that the hadith about ghouta is da'eef? I can't find it (and why did he weaken it).

A. This was quoted by a Shaykh on a forum, and this was narrated by one of Shaykh al-'Alwān's students. You will find a beneficial discussion on this 3 page thread [1] discussing why Shaykh al-'Alwān weakened it.

What seems apparent from the Shaykh is that he defected the hadīth due to "īrsāl", therefore it returns back to the different narrations on the topic, due to the hadīth being narrated via a "connected path" and also being narrated via a "Mursal" path, in which the shaykh views it to be mursal (whereas other scholars of hadīth differed).

One of the students of knowledge on the forum wrote the following:

سألت الشيخ خالد بن عمر الفقيه ملتقى أهل الحديث (عبر تويتر) عن رأيه في إعلال الشيخ العلوان للحديث فقال: "الحديث روي عن مكحول مرسلًا وروي عن أبي الدرداء وعوف بن مالك الأشجعي رضي الله عنهما موصولًا والأقرب صحته مرفوعًا والله أعلم"

"I asked Shaykh Khālid Ibn 'Umar al-Faqeeh, from Multaqa Ahl al-Hadīth, via twitter on his opinion concerning Shaykh al-'Alwān's defection of the hadīth, so he replied:

The ḥadīth has been narrated from Mak’hūl in a mursal fashion, and it has been narrated from Abī ad-Dardā’ and ‘Awf Ibn Mālik al-Ashja’ī (may Allāh be pleased with both of them) in a connected fashion, and what’s closer (to the truth) is that it’s confirmed in a Marfū’ fashion (i.e. connected to the rasūl), and Allāh knows best.”

He further mentioned the following:

وكذلك سألت الشيخ محمد بن عبدالله السريّ (قسم السنة وعلومها جامعة القصيم) عبر تويتر فقال: "الحديث جيد وإن كان وقع فيه اختلاف، عدّه ابن معين أصح حديث الشاميين، وحسنه البزار، وصححه ابن عساکر وغيره. والله أعلم."

“Moreover, I asked Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdillāh as-Sarī’, from the Sunnah faculty and its sciences from al-Qasīm university, via twitter, so he replied:

The ḥadīth is jayyid (good) even though differences in the chains occurred, (Yahyā) Ibn Ma’in considered it from the most authentic ḥadīths of the Shāmi narrators, it was declared Hassan by al-Bazzār, and it was authenticated by Ibn ‘Asākir along with others, and Allāh knows best.”

So there’s no doubt the connected chain is full of trustworthy narrators, however the Shaykh viewed what’s correct is that it was truly narrated via a mursal path (instead of connected), hence weakening the narrations on the topic.

However, many scholars of ḥadīth viewed otherwise, and Inshā’Allāh the ḥadīth is fine to accept, may Allāh reward the scholars for their efforts.

---

[1] Here’s the link to the thread —

2 March 2018 02:57

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

#Doctors | The ummah needs doctors, engineers, nurses and teachers, and the most important field is a #Scholar who fears Allāh as this relates to your Dīn and Ākhirah!

Imām ash-Shāfi’ī (رحمه الله) said:

“Do not reside in a land which doesn’t have a scholar to issue a verdict for your Dīn, nor a doctor to inform you about the affairs of your body.

— Refer to “Ādāb ash-Shāfi’ī wa-Manāqibihī” (page 244).

1 March 2018 22:07

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

#Doctors | The ummah needs doctors, engineers, nurses and teachers, and the most important field is a #Scholar who fears Allāh as this relates to your Dīn and Ākhirah!

Imām ash-Shāfi’ī (رحمه الله) said:

“Do not reside in a land which doesn’t have a scholar to issue a verdict for your Dīn, nor a doctor to inform you about the affairs of your body.

— Refer to “Ādāb ash-Shāfi’ī wa-Manāqibihī” (page 244).

1 March 2018 22:07

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd’s wife was silent for a minute...

Not believing the voice she is hearing is really her husband as he kept calling for her.”

— Related by Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

1 March 2018 20:03

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd’s wife was silent for a minute...

Not believing the voice she is hearing is really her husband as he kept calling for her.”

— Related by Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

1 March 2018 20:03

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Don’t treat them with harshness” [4:19]

Your wife is ur lifelong friend and partner. She is the closest and most worthy of your leniency and best treatment.

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

1 March 2018 19:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Don’t treat them with harshness” [4:19]

Your wife is ur lifelong friend and partner. She is the closest and most worthy of your leniency and best treatment.

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

1 March 2018 19:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

was asked: If a man was separated from his wife by (فك الله أسرهم) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān ?(force due to imprisonment, can the wife request Khula’ (i.e. seek separation

:responded by saying (فك الله أسرهم) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān

Yes, she may request it if the time period (of imprisonment) would be long, and it would be“ .considered Khula’ in this situation

But what’s required of a wife is to be hopeful in seeking Allāh’s reward concerning her husband, and .not to request Talāq (divorce) due to the mere imprisonment of her husband

Since the prisoner would be in most need of those to stand with him, so if a woman was to forget the previous moments of companionship, then request for divorce, this woman in reality hasn’t .stood side by side with her husband

What’s required of her is to stand with her husband, because the husband is in most need of people standing alongside with him (as he’s facing distress), let alone his wife who is the closest of people ”.to him

1 March 2018 19:49

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

was asked: If a man was separated from his wife by (فك الله أسرهم) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān ?(force due to imprisonment, can the wife request Khula’ (i.e. seek separation

:responded by saying (فك الله أسرهم) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān

Yes, she may request it if the time period (of imprisonment) would be long, and it would be“ .considered Khula’ in this situation

But what’s required of a wife is to be hopeful in seeking Allāh’s reward concerning her husband, and .not to request Talāq (divorce) due to the mere imprisonment of her husband

Since the prisoner would be in most need of those to stand with him, so if a woman was to forget the previous moments of companionship, then request for divorce, this woman in reality hasn’t .stood side by side with her husband

What’s required of her is to stand with her husband, because the husband is in most need of people standing alongside with him (as he’s facing distress), let alone his wife who is the closest of people ”.to him

1 March 2018 19:49

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The ḥadīth of ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Umar, “The most hateful permissible thing (Halāl) in the sight of Allah is divorce” is #Weak.

~ Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

1 March 2018 17:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The ḥadīth of ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Umar, “The most hateful permissible thing (Halāl) in the sight of Allah is divorce” is #Weak.

~ Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

1 March 2018 17:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Beneficial summary from the words of the Faqeeh and Muhaddith, Shaykh al-‘Alwān on the issue of Talāq.

1 March 2018 17:40

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Radwan Dakkak I have translated parts of it which were the recent posts on divorce, however Insha’Allāh I will finish it off and post the rest.
2 March 2018 11:33

Beneficial summary from the words of the Faqeeh and Muhaddith, Shaykh al-‘Alwān on the issue of Talāq.

1 March 2018 17:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Divorce | The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) said:

“Beware, Beware in rushing into the phrase of Talāq (divorce), for indeed matters are not fixed through divorce. Since if a man wanted to fix a woman through divorce, he would require two or three different women every day, and a woman is not an object which is sold and bought. And for this reason, the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, A believer must not hate (his wife) believing woman; if he dislikes one of her characteristics he will be pleased with another.”

1 March 2018 17:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Divorce | The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) said:

“Beware, Beware in rushing into the phrase of Talāq (divorce), for indeed matters are not fixed through divorce. Since if a man wanted to fix a woman through divorce, he would require two or three different women every day, and a woman is not an object which is sold and bought. And for this reason, the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, A believer must not hate (his wife) believing woman; if he dislikes one of her characteristics he will be pleased with another.”

1 March 2018 17:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I request a special du‘ā from you all, the past 2 months in particular have been so intense for me, wallāhi everyone is uniting against me subhānAllāh and it’s causing me to make regretful mistakes, no one is leaving me in peace, I have Allāh alone

It's only due to the strength Allāh has given me which has kept my da'wah going, I'm keeping everything inside like u wouldn't imagine ☺

☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

28 February 2018 19:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I request a special du'ā from you all, the past 2 months in particular have been so intense for me, wallāhi everyone is uniting against me subhānAllāh and it's causing me to make regretful mistakes, no one is leaving me in peace, I have Allāh alone

It's only due to the strength Allāh has given me which has kept my da'wah going, I'm keeping everything inside like u wouldn't imagine ☺

☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺☺

28 February 2018 19:46

Radwan Dakkak shared Islamic Reminders - Behalf of Adam Abu-Mahmoud's post.

If we knew the true value of advice in this religion, we will never be irritated or upset by those who advise us, only thankful and appreciative.

"There is no good in a people who do not advise, and there is no good in a people who do not accept advice"

[Umar Ibn Al Khattab RadiyAllahu Anhu]

28 February 2018 19:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

If we knew the true value of advice in this religion, we will never be irritated or upset by those who advise us, only thankful and appreciative.

"There is no good in a people who do not advise, and there is no good in a people who do not accept advice"

[Umar Ibn Al Khattab RadiyAllahu Anhu]

28 February 2018 19:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Hey, don't put each other down due to the ummah's occupation. Can't you see that the hearts and minds are being liberated?!

If you're pushed down on the floor, force yourself to get up and prove to yourself that you're unbreakable like rock iron and cannon-fire, you gotta keep grinding harder and harder in this world, there's no giving up!

No one has an excuse, no man or woman! Help each other in every possible way, sacrifice your own breakfast, lunch and dinner if you have to support one another, don't ever fail your brothers and sisters, every second counts!

You gotta have a dream and do everything you can to reach towards your goal, I swear by Allāh that you will achieve it if you give it everything you got — This doesn't mean you dream and sit down, nay! You gotta keep standing up, even when you keep getting knocked down, and despite how heavy it gets to get back up, get back up!

Wallāhi there's no looking back, you have no choice! You've chosen this path, so ask Allāh for steadfastness and fortify your heart with the Thikr of Allāh, look at how many prisoners and martyrs we have in our ummah, our souls will be taken away by the angels of death soon, so pump yourself up, and I take an oath by Allāh that you can do more in 1 month than someone else can do in 1 YEAR if you give it everything.

Don't be the reason someone else loses motivation, a believer doesn't put anyone down when it comes to this serious task, if you can't benefit him, then atleast don't harm him.

There are bright days ahead, glad tidings O believers, Allāh has given us the best opportunity to prove ourselves, always say alhamdulillah that Allāh has not replaced you for those He loves and those who love Him, may Allāh reward you all and assist you on your mission to Jannah!

28 February 2018 18:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Hey, don't put each other down due to the ummah's occupation. Can't you see that the hearts and minds are being liberated?!

If you're pushed down on the floor, force yourself to get up and prove to yourself that you're unbreakable like rock iron and cannon-fire, you gotta keep grinding harder and harder in this world, there's no giving up!

No one has an excuse, no man or woman! Help each other in every possible way, sacrifice your own breakfast, lunch and dinner if you have to support one another, don't ever fail your brothers and sisters, every second counts!

You gotta have a dream and do everything you can to reach towards your goal, I swear by Allāh that you will achieve it if you give it everything you got — This doesn't mean you dream and sit down, nay! You gotta keep standing up, even when you keep getting knocked down, and despite how heavy it gets to get back up, get back up!

Wallāhi there's no looking back, you have no choice! You've chosen this path, so ask Allāh for steadfastness and fortify your heart with the Thikr of Allāh, look at how many prisoners and martyrs we have in our ummah, our souls will be taken away by the angels of death soon, so pump yourself up, and I take an oath by Allāh that you can do more in 1 month than someone else can do in 1 YEAR if you give it everything.

Don't be the reason someone else loses motivation, a believer doesn't put anyone down when it comes to this serious task, if you can't benefit him, then atleast don't harm him.

There are bright days ahead, glad tidings O believers, Allāh has given us the best opportunity to prove ourselves, always say alhamdulillah that Allāh has not replaced you for those He loves and those who love Him, may Allāh reward you all and assist you on your mission to Jannah!

28 February 2018 18:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Don't let flies get on your food and drink — There's a very interesting hadīth which is wonderful as it refutes those rationalists who give precedence to their 'intellect' over the 'textual evidences' and also contains a prophecy mentioned by rasūlullāh over 1,400 years ago which science has proven concerning the wings of a fly!

Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a fly falls in the drink of one of you, he should fully dip it and then throw it away because there is disease in one of its wings and cure in the other." [Sahīh al-Bukhārī, #3320].

Imām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) in "Majmū' al-Fatāwah" (16/431) gives a simple response to those who question the hadīth by saying:

كما لا يجوز الإنبات إلا بدليل ، لا يجوز النفي إلا بدليل

"Just as it's not permissible to affirm something except with proof, it's also not permissible to deny something except with proof."

Imām al-Khattābī (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Ma'ālim as-Sunan" (4/259):

تكلم على هذا الحديث بعض من لا حلاق له

"Some of those without any manners have criticised this hadīth."

28 February 2018 12:27

Radwan Dakkak shared Hijama En Cupping Instituut's video.

---

Don't let flies get on your food and drink — There's a very interesting hadīth which is wonderful as it refutes those rationalists who give precedence to their 'intellect' over the 'textual evidences' and also contains a prophecy mentioned by rasūlullāh over 1,400 years ago which science has proven concerning the wings of a fly!

Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a fly falls in the drink of one of you, he should fully dip it and then throw it away because there is disease in one of its wings and cure in the other." [Sahīh al-Bukhārī, #3320].

Imām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) in "Majmū' al-Fatāwah" (16/431) gives a simple response to those who question the hadīth by saying:

كما لا يجوز الإنبات إلا بدليل ، لا يجوز النفي إلا بدليل

"Just as it's not permissible to affirm something except with proof, it's also not permissible to deny something except with proof.”

Imām al-Khattābī (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Ma’ālim as-Sunan” (4/259):

تكلم على هذا الحديث بعض من لا خلاق له

“Some of those without any manners have criticised this hadīth.”

28 February 2018 12:27

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

:(wrote in “Rawdat al-‘Uqalā” (1/62 (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn Hibbān

I haven’t seen anyone who acts arrogant towards whoever is beneath him, except that Allāh afflicts“
”.him with humiliation from whoever is above him

28 February 2018 08:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

:(wrote in “Rawdat al-‘Uqalā” (1/62 (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn Hibbān

I haven’t seen anyone who acts arrogant towards whoever is beneath him, except that Allāh afflicts“
”.him with humiliation from whoever is above him

28 February 2018 08:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It’s so hard to fall asleep when the ummah is suffering, so much stress شبحان الله ☹️ O Allāh, heal my broken heart. I’m trying so hard to sacrifice everything and remain strong, it hurts 🤔

27 February 2018 22:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Group_Rules ‘Concerning the issue of liking and commenting’

After all these matters have been brought up on this group and receiving some Nasīhah, there is a fair point behind no reason in liking and commenting on the opposite gender’s posts.

Putting aside the border-lines of Halāl and Harām, men and women are supposed to be far away from each other as much as possible, just like the Rasūl الله عليه وسلم would segregate between them in the masājīd and elsewhere.

1 — Just like I have not allowed women to comment on my personal page, it’s just as deserving of having it not allowed here, except in the case of a necessity, such as a serious question which you are NOT able to research, or an important clarification.

Therefore, women shouldn’t comment on brother’s posts, and most of the people online shouldn’t even be asked questions for clarifications, the same way local preachers aren’t fit to answer questions in ‘Aqīdah and Manhaj (and perhaps even other matters).

2 — As for liking posts, I personally didn’t take it seriously just like several others, however after thinking about it, and knowing the rule Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم gave us, to do something we would be pleased for our own sisters, it’s reasonable to avoid liking the opposite gender’s post, and there’s no real need tbh, one may simple save the post they like instead.

If someone wishes to disagree, that’s irrelevant and you can keep your opinion, however in this group, we want to try and keep it a ‘free like zone’ between the opposite genders just to keep it as pure as possible.

Please note that I’m not saying liking a post is harām the way privately messaging the opposite gender is harām except in the presence of a mahram (even if you’re engaged, it’s harām to speak alone — we must go to her walī), however these are the rules in the page which we wish everyone would abide by Inshā’Allāh.

May Allāh forgive us for our shortcomings, and increase us in Taqwā.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's harām to have fanaticism to the scholars, and this includes the 'Scholars of Haqq' (may Allāh keep the imprisoned steadfast and accept the martyred amongst them).

Whoever forces someone to adopt the opinion of a Mujtahid such as Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) concerning a hadīth or Fiqh ruling is nothing except a Jāhil, Jāhil, Jāhil!!!

On several occasions I have warned against forcing others to follow your opinion! Yes, at times there's an agreement among the Salaf or the issue is clear, in this case a person is obliged to hold onto this opinion, but it doesn't mean you mock him for his mistake or force it upon him, otherwise he's considered deviant!! Lā hawlā walā Quwata ilā Billāh.

I've heard and come across people enforcing translated quotes from the Shaykh upon others, and I have a strong message for these brothers.

You do realise that the translated quote you're sharing (or shall I say 'enforcing') from the Shaykh upon others 'may' have been translated by me, and guess what, not everything I share from the Shaykh means I agree with it, so would you still enforce those quotes you learnt via 'myself' upon me?!

Let me give an example, recently I shared a benefit on the hadīths mentioning Ghoutā by name, wherein I mentioned that several scholars have used it as evidence, whereas Shaykh al-'Alwān viewed it weak.

Well, for everyone's information, after looking further into it and listening to a big Muhaddith's words surrounding this hadīth, I disagree with Shaykh al-'Alwān on his judgement upon the hadīth.

Imām Abū Dāwūd reported that Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, the Fustāt (i.e. the gathering) [1] of the muslims on the day of the massacre is in Ghouta, beside a city that is called Damascus, from the best of the cities in Shām".

This hadīth came via the chain of 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Yazīd Ibn Jābir (who's a noble Thiqah narrator), from Zayd Ibn Artāt (who's Thiqah), from Jubayr Ibn Nufayl (who's a noble Thiqah narrator from the major Imāms of the Tābi'in), from Abū ad-Dardā' (the noble Sahābi), from Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

So this is the Isnād, and Imām al-Bukhārī (رحمه الله) said that Jubayr Ibn Nufayl has heard from Abū Thar al-Ghafārī and Abū ad-Dardā', therefore it's connected (unlike some of the other chains).

This is an authentic chain, to the extent that the Imām of Jarh and Ta'deel in his time, Imām Yahyā Ibn Ma'in (رحمه الله) said, "This is from the most authentic hadīths which have been narrated concerning the Malāhim (battles)", and this was narrated from him by Ibn Junayd (رحمه الله).

It also has a variation which is narrated in Musnad al-Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) with an authentic chain, and it's not far-fetched to say that it was narrated via both paths.

So the hadīth was authenticated by Imām Yahyā Ibn Ma'in, Imām al-Bazzār (رحمه الله), Imām al-Munthiri (رحمه الله), Imām al-Hākim (رحمه الله) and others.

Even though Imām as-Suyūti (رحمه الله) weakened it, along with Shaykh al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره), what appears much stronger in this issue is that it's Sahīh, which is what the Muhaddith As-Sa'd (may Allāh guide him) and others have clarified. [2]

So we must have fairness and free ourselves from all forms of Ta'assub (fanaticism), may Allāh allow us to develop a stronger spirit of tolerance, Āmīn.

[1] Note: The word "Fustāt" can also be pronounced "Fistāt" according to the arabic language. Some published translations have mentioned the word Fustāt means "city" of the muslims within brackets, however this is incorrect, and what Fustāt actually means is the "gathering" of the muslims, and Allāh knows best.

[2] It's also important to note that we cannot apply hadīths in current day realities with certainty, this is left to Allāh.

27 February 2018 15:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It's harām to have fanaticism to the scholars, and this includes the 'Scholars of Haqq' (may Allāh keep the imprisoned steadfast and accept the martyred amongst them).

Whoever forces someone to adopt the opinion of a Mujtahid such as Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) concerning a hadīth or Fiqh ruling is nothing except a Jāhil, Jāhil, Jāhil!!!

On several occasions I have warned against forcing others to follow your opinion! Yes, at times there's an agreement among the Salaf or the issue is clear, in this case a person is obliged to hold onto this opinion, but it doesn't mean you mock him for his mistake or force it upon him, otherwise he's considered deviant!! Lā hawlā walā Quwata ilā Billāh.

I've heard and come across people enforcing translated quotes from the Shaykh upon others, and I have a strong message for these brothers.

You do realise that the translated quote you're sharing (or shall I say 'enforcing') from the Shaykh upon others 'may' have been translated by me, and guess what, not everything I share from the Shaykh means I agree with it, so would you still enforce those quotes you learnt via 'myself' upon me?!

Let me give an example, recently I shared a benefit on the hadīths mentioning Ghoutā by name, wherein I mentioned that several scholars have used it as evidence, whereas Shaykh al-'Alwān viewed it weak.

Well, for everyone's information, after looking further into it and listening to a big Muhaddith's words surrounding this hadīth, I disagree with Shaykh al-'Alwān on his judgement upon the hadīth.

Imām Abū Dāwūd reported that Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, the Fustāt (i.e. the gathering) [1] of the muslims on the day of the massacre is in Ghouta, beside a city that is called Damascus, from the best of the cities in Shām".

This hadīth came via the chain of 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Yazīd Ibn Jābir (who's a noble Thiqah narrator), from Zayd Ibn Artāt (who's Thiqah), from Jubayr Ibn Nufayl (who's a noble Thiqah narrator from the major Imāms of the Tābi'in), from Abū ad-Dardā' (the noble Sahābi), from Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

So this is the Isnād, and Imām al-Bukhārī (رحمه الله) said that Jubayr Ibn Nufayl has heard from Abū Thar al-Ghafārī and Abū ad-Dardā', therefore it's connected (unlike some of the other chains).

This is an authentic chain, to the extent that the Imām of Jarh and Ta'deel in his time, Imām Yahyā Ibn Ma'in (رحمه الله) said, "This is from the most authentic hadīths which have been narrated concerning the Malāhim (battles)", and this was narrated from him by Ibn Junayd (رحمه الله).

It also has a variation which is narrated in Musnad al-Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) with an authentic chain, and it's not far-fetched to say that it was narrated via both paths.

So the hadīth was authenticated by Imām Yahyā Ibn Ma'in, Imām al-Bazzār (رحمه الله), Imām al-Munthiri (رحمه الله), Imām al-Hākim (رحمه الله) and others.

Even though Imām as-Suyūti (رحمه الله) weakened it, along with Shaykh al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته), what appears much stronger in this issue is that it's Sahīh, which is what the Muhaddith As-Sa'd (may Allāh guide him) and others have clarified. [2]

So we must have fairness and free ourselves from all forms of Ta'assub (fanaticism), may Allāh allow us to develop a stronger spirit of tolerance, Āmīn.

[1] Note: The word "Fustāt" can also be pronounced "Fistāt" according to the arabic language. Some published translations have mentioned the word Fustāt means "city" of the muslims within brackets, however this is incorrect, and what Fustāt actually means is the "gathering" of the muslims, and Allāh knows best.

[2] It's also important to note that we cannot apply hadīths in current day realities with certainty, this is left to Allāh.

27 February 2018 15:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I feel embarrassed to share this, since people should not be donating just when it becomes the popular trend to do so, but they should be donating throughout all these years of suffering.

I don't intend to make anyone upset, infact I am only trying to motivate everyone during these tough times, as I know the feeling of sadness which makes you lose energy to do anything, procrastinating for hours, something the Shaytan loves, and this is why I took a break a while ago from following the news every day and night (which I was hooked on for many years), as it was hurting me along with everything else I have surrounding me.

Learning about what's going on helps you be aware of the problems, as you can differentiate between right and wrong, however it doesn't provide a solution, unless you mix that up with seeking knowledge and teaching the ummah what they're in need of. And on the other extreme, you have those who spend decades teaching side issues, and are among the most ignorant of people on what occurs on the ground (even if they speak about it generally), many of these people ended up being allies for the Tawagheet...

May Allah grant us Jannah, the eternal place of happiness without a tiny bit of suffering, ya Allah make us from the people of Jannah, Ameen!

27 February 2018 13:43

Radwan Dakkak shared Dar al Quran wa Sunnah's video.

---

I feel embarrassed to share this, since people should not be donating just when it becomes the popular trend to do so, but they should be donating throughout all these years of suffering.

I don't intend to make anyone upset, infact I am only trying to motivate everyone during these tough times, as I know the feeling of sadness which makes you lose energy to do anything, procrastinating for hours, something the Shaytan loves, and this is why I took a break a while ago from following the news every day and night (which I was hooked on for many years), as it was hurting me along with everything else I have surrounding me.

Learning about what's going on helps you be aware of the problems, as you can differentiate between right and wrong, however it doesn't provide a solution, unless you mix that up with seeking knowledge and teaching the ummah what they're in need of. And on the other extreme, you have those who spend decades teaching side issues, and are among the most ignorant of people on what occurs on the ground (even if they speak about it generally), many of these people ended up being allies for the Tawagheet...

May Allah grant us Jannah, the eternal place of happiness without a tiny bit of suffering, ya Allah make us from the people of Jannah, Ameen!

27 February 2018 13:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Someone did a favour for me and called me, it was the best feeling ever, I was literally too excited to speak, it was so funny and awkward, alhamdulillah that Allāh has allowed us to breathe, smile and laugh. I remember when I wasn't allowed to smile, but no one can force you to do something which goes against your natural instincts, Alhamdulillah!

May Allāh allow us to meet Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم in Jannah ☺

27 February 2018 10:02

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Someone did a favour for me and called me, it was the best feeling ever, I was literally too excited to speak, it was so funny and awkward, alhamdulillah that Allāh has allowed us to breathe, smile and laugh. I remember when I wasn't allowed to smile, but no one can force you to do something which goes against your natural instincts, Alhamdulillah!

May Allāh allow us to meet Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم in Jannah ☺

27 February 2018 10:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

As-Salāmu 'alaykum, I'm thinking about buying an expensive phone, is there anything one can recommend for $100 maximum? I don't want plans, as pre-paid $10 per month is more than enough for me.

Thanks in advance.

27 February 2018 08:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Some of the salaf would make tasbeeh 100,000 times a day, how much are you making?

Rasulullah said, "There are two statements that are light for the tongue to remember, heavy in the Scales and are dear to the Merciful, SubhanAllah wa-Bihamdihi and SubhanAllah al-'Atheem." [Agreed upon].

26 February 2018 22:27

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Some of the salaf would make tasbeeh 100,000 times a day, how much are you making?

Rasulullah said, "There are two statements that are light for the tongue to remember, heavy in the Scales and are dear to the Merciful, SubhanAllah wa-Bihamdihi and SubhanAllah al-'Atheem." [Agreed upon].

26 February 2018 22:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ptt4R8XAt0>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ptt4R8XAt0>

26 February 2018 19:48

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ptt4R8XAt0>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ptt4R8XAt0>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ptt4R8XAt0>

26 February 2018 19:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

:said (رحمه الله) Imām al-Bukhārī

was asked, who is the best reciter among the people? He replied, (صلى الله عليه وسلم) The Prophet
".upon him (عز وجل) "The one that when you hear him, you can see the fear of Allāh

.(Refer to "Khalq Af'āl al-'Ibād" (page 153 —

26 February 2018 14:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

:said (رحمه الله) Imām al-Bukhārī

was asked, who is the best reciter among the people? He replied, (صلى الله عليه وسلم) The Prophet
".upon him (عز وجل) "The one that when you hear him, you can see the fear of Allāh

.(Refer to "Khalq Af'āl al-'Ibād" (page 153 —

26 February 2018 14:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

This was awesome da'wah, may Allah reward the mum for being so strong and resilient!

26 February 2018 12:06

Radwan Dakkak shared Special Books by Special Kids's video.

---

This was awesome da'wah, may Allah reward the mum for being so strong and resilient!

26 February 2018 12:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

There's nothing that can be stressed more on than knowing which 'manhaj' (methodology) to follow in every field, with some fields being more important than others:

1. In 'Aqidah, every sect has their own methodology.
2. In Hadīth, there are differences in methodology.
3. In Fiqh, there is extreme fanaticism to one's methodology.

The reason why learning the authentic methodology is important, is so that you have firmly established Usūl (principles) which you can adhere too and follow, instead of being mixed up all over the place.

Infact, there is even a methodology in dealing with others, and when differences can be tolerated or not. Hence, one of the biggest tests in this world is finding knowledgeable scholars who fear Allāh to teach you your religion.

No one wishes to follow a wrong methodology, however look at the bright side and never despair. In each of the 3 categories I mentioned above ('Aqidah, Hadīth, Fiqh), you will find great Imāms from this ummah who had mistakes in each field, even if it involved adopting false principles, and this may include myself as well.

This reassures our hearts that no Imām is free from error (including the words and actions of the Sahābah), except for Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم.

26 February 2018 11:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There's nothing that can be stressed more on than knowing which 'manhaj' (methodology) to follow in every field, with some fields being more important than others:

1. In 'Aqīdah, every sect has their own methodology.
2. In Hadīth, there are differences in methodology.
3. In Fiqh, there is extreme fanaticism to one's methodology.

The reason why learning the authentic methodology is important, is so that you have firmly established Usūl (principles) which you can adhere too and follow, instead of being mixed up all over the place.

Infact, there is even a methodology in dealing with others, and when differences can be tolerated or not. Hence, one of the biggest tests in this world is finding knowledgeable scholars who fear Allāh to teach you your religion.

No one wishes to follow a wrong methodology, however look at the bright side and never despair. In each of the 3 categories I mentioned above ('Aqīdah, Hadīth, Fiqh), you will find great Imāms from this ummah who had mistakes in each field, even if it involved adopting false principles, and this may include myself as well.

This reassures our hearts that no Imām is free from error (including the words and actions of the Sahābah), except for Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم.

26 February 2018 11:38

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Aadil Ahmad pura paragraph kahan hai
26 February 2018 14:15

Inshā'Allāh I will be sharing a summarised essay on the ruling of blind-following an Imām, providing the different opinions surrounding the topic, with a little conclusion on which view to follow.

26 February 2018 10:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi كلاهما نافع جدا جدا
بهذا موضوع، مناسب له ويستحق بل انصاف
27 February 2018 09:40

Inshā'Allāh I will be sharing a summarised essay on the ruling of blind-following an Imām, providing the different opinions surrounding the topic, with a little conclusion on which view to follow.

26 February 2018 10:20

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Reminder | Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) was asked: Is it authentic from Ibn 'Abbās that if one forgets to say the du'ā before having intimate relations (with one's wife), that he says it afterwards?

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) responded by saying: No, it's not authentic from Ibn 'Abbās (رضي الله عنهما).

Rather it has been reported from some of the Sahābah such as 'Abdillāh Ibn Mas'ūd (رضي الله عنه) pertaining the Thikr when having intimate relations (with one's wife), that he says it afterwards, it was narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah (رحمه الله) and a group of Scholars on the authority of 'Abdullāh Ibn Mas'ūd.

يَسْمُ اللّٰهَ ، اللّٰهُمَّ جَنَّبْنَا الشَّيْطَانَ ، وَجَنَّبَ الشَّيْطَانَ مَا رَزَقْتَنَا

Some of the Sahābah held the view that he says this after having intimate relations if he forgot (to say it beforehand), and this is the statement of a group amongst the Fuqahā'.

26 February 2018 07:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Reminder | Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) was asked: Is it authentic from Ibn 'Abbās that if one forgets to say the du'ā before having intimate relations (with one's wife), that he says it afterwards?

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) responded by saying: No, it's not authentic from Ibn 'Abbās (رضي الله عنهما).

Rather it has been reported from some of the Sahābah such as 'Abdillāh Ibn Mas'ūd (رضي الله عنه) pertaining the Thikr when having intimate relations (with one's wife), that he says it afterwards, it was narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah (رحمه الله) and a group of Scholars on the authority of 'Abdullāh Ibn Mas'ūd.

يَسْمُ اللّٰهَ ، اللّٰهُمَّ جَنَّبْنَا الشَّيْطَانَ ، وَجَنَّبَ الشَّيْطَانَ مَا رَزَقْتَنَا

Some of the Sahābah held the view that he says this after having intimate relations if he forgot (to say it beforehand), and this is the statement of a group amongst the Fuqahā'.

26 February 2018 07:52

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Both wives laughed - A very interesting polygyny story.

A man from the tribe of Banu Nāwfal Ibn 'Abd Manaaf married a second wife who was fair and pretty. Umm Māhjan, his first wife, who was dark in complexion, was upset when she heard the news. Jealousy and disappointment drove her to confront her husband - but he explained,

"By Allāh, Umm Māhjan, there is no need to jealously guard me anymore. I am an old man. You too are old and there is no need for me to be jealous over you. Nobody can be more honoured in my sight than you; neither does anybody enjoy a greater right over me than you. I, therefore, advise you to accept my decision and avoid bad thoughts from taking hold of you."

These words pleased her and she felt comfortable.

A few days later, he said to her, "Wouldn't you like to live together with my new wife? I think it would create harmony between us. Further, it will be a means of systematic organisation within our home and it will prevent outsiders from making nasty remarks against us."

She agreed and he gave her a dinar, saying, "I dislike your co-wife seeking superiority over you simply because she sees you enjoying some speciality. Take this and prepare some special gift which you can give to her tomorrow when we meet."

He then approached his new wife and said, "I intend to unite you with Umm Māhjan tomorrow. She wants to honour you and I dislike her making any attempt to be superior than you simply because you enjoy some speciality. Take this dinar and purchase for her a gift so that she does not regard you scepticism. But do not mention anything to her about the dinar."

He then approached a trusted friend and sought his assistance, "I have arranged for my new wife to meet with Umm Māhjan tomorrow. I would like you to visit us at breakfast, at which time I will insist that you join us. When we are done with the meal, you should ask me which wife I hold dearer. I will express my displeasure at the question, following which you should insist upon oath that I answer you."

The next morning, his new wife visited Umm Māhjan and his friend came around as agreed.

After they had eaten, his friend turned to him and asked, "Which of your two wives do you love more?"

He replied, "Subhan'Allāh! Do you dare ask a question of this nature while both my wives are listening to our discussion. This is a grave question indeed."

But when his friend insisted on an answer, he declared,

"I love that wife who was given one dinar. I will not utter a word more than this."

Each of the two wives chuckled in pleasure, thinking that she was the one alluded to.

• [Kitab al-Adhkiya, p.108; Humorous Anecdotes by Imam Ibn Al-Jawzi رحمه الله ]

25 February 2018 18:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Both wives laughed - A very interesting polygyny story.

A man from the tribe of Banu Nâwfal Ibn 'Abd Manaaf married a second wife who was fair and pretty. Umm Mâhjan, his first wife, who was dark in complexion, was upset when she heard the news. Jealousy and disappointment drove her to confront her husband - but he explained,

"By Allâh, Umm Mâhjan, there is no need to jealously guard me anymore. I am an old man. You too are old and there is no need for me to be jealous over you. Nobody can be more honoured in my sight than you; neither does anybody enjoy a greater right over me than you. I, therefore, advise you to accept my decision and avoid bad thoughts from taking hold of you."

These words pleased her and she felt comfortable.

A few days later, he said to her, "Wouldn't you like to live together with my new wife? I think it would create harmony between us. Further, it will be a means of systematic organisation within our home and it will prevent outsiders from making nasty remarks against us."

She agreed and he gave her a dinar, saying, "I dislike your co-wife seeking superiority over you simply because she sees you enjoying some speciality. Take this and prepare some special gift which you can give to her tomorrow when we meet."

He then approached his new wife and said, "I intend to unite you with Umm Mâhjan tomorrow. She wants to honour you and I dislike her making any attempt to be superior than you simply because you enjoy some speciality. Take this dinar and purchase for her a gift so that she does not regard you scepticism. But do not mention anything to her about the dinar."

He then approached a trusted friend and sought his assistance, "I have arranged for my new wife to meet with Umm Mâhjan tomorrow. I would like you to visit us at breakfast, at which time I will insist that you join us. When we are done with the meal, you should ask me which wife I hold dearer. I will express my displeasure at the question, following which you should insist upon oath that I answer you."

The next morning, his new wife visited Umm Mâhjan and his friend came around as agreed.

After they had eaten, his friend turned to him and asked, "Which of your two wives do you love more?"

He replied, "Subhan'Allâh! Do you dare ask a question of this nature while both my wives are listening to our discussion. This is a grave question indeed."

But when his friend insisted on an answer, he declared,

"I love that wife who was given one dinar. I will not utter a word more than this."

Each of the two wives chuckled in pleasure, thinking that she was the one alluded to.

• [Kitab al-Adhkiya, p.108; Humorous Anecdotes by Imam Ibn Al-Jawzi رحمه الله ]

25 February 2018 18:07

Radwan Dakkak shared Imran Nazar Hosein's video.

May the curse of Allâh be upon this wicked kâfir that gives his walâ' to the kuffâr and distorts hadîths according to his own whims and desires.

25 February 2018 16:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May the curse of Allâh be upon this wicked kâfir that gives his walâ' to the kuffâr and distorts hadîths according to his own whims and desires.

25 February 2018 16:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It's a major sin to falsely accuse someone of Zina, even if it was done as a joke. The scholars have agreed that whoever does this must be punished with 80 lashes and testimony won't be accepted again (unless he regrets and retracts his false statement which is a form of sincere tawbah, so he is not a Fasiq anymore).

Allah says, "And those who accuse chaste women and then do not produce four witnesses - lash them with eighty lashes and do not accept from them testimony ever after. And those are the defiantly disobedient." [24:4].

And this includes saying things like "O son of Haram". You may say, but this is common nowadays. What kind of response is this?! Insulting the creator of the heavens and the earth is prevalent in many places, even in the holy lands! And I doubt anyone with the least of intellect would say the punishment is exempted from them.

Allah also says, "Verily, those who accuse chaste women, who never even think of anything touching their chastity and are good believers — are cursed in this life and in the Hereafter, and for them will be a great torment." [24:23]

Shaykh as-Sa'di mentions in his Tafseer, "Allaah has issued a stern warning against making accusations against chaste women, as He says: “Verily, those who accuse chaste women”, i.e., those who refrain from immoral actions, “who never even think of anything touching their chastity”, and such things would never cross their minds, “and are good believers — are cursed in this life and in the Hereafter”, and a curse applies only in the case of major sins.

The curse is confirmed because it is ongoing in this world and in the Hereafter. “and for them will be a great torment”. This is in addition to the curse, and shows that they are even further removed from divine mercy, and that His severe punishment will be upon them."

Just look at those who constantly spread rumours, gossip and backbite, do you see any Taqwa in their speech, do you really see Taqwa from them? Pull them up or abandon them for those who constantly remember Allah in their hearts and speech - Spend your time doing beneficial work, and forget about following the latest trend, whether it's gossip or fashion.

25 February 2018 15:18

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's a major sin to falsely accuse someone of Zina, even if it was done as a joke. The scholars have agreed that whoever does this must be punished with 80 lashes and testimony won't be accepted again (unless he regrets and retracts his false statement which is a form of sincere tawbah, so he is not a Fasiq anymore).

Allah says, "And those who accuse chaste women and then do not produce four witnesses - lash them with eighty lashes and do not accept from them testimony ever after. And those are the defiantly disobedient." [24:4].

And this includes saying things like "O son of Haram". You may say, but this is common nowadays. What kind of response is this?! Insulting the creator of the heavens and the earth is prevalent in many places, even in the holy lands! And I doubt anyone with the least of intellect would say the punishment is exempted from them.

Allah also says, "Verily, those who accuse chaste women, who never even think of anything touching their chastity and are good believers — are cursed in this life and in the Hereafter, and for them will be a great torment." [24:23]

Shaykh as-Sa'di mentions in his Tafseer, "Allaah has issued a stern warning against making accusations against chaste women, as He says: “Verily, those who accuse chaste women”, i.e., those who refrain from immoral actions, “who never even think of anything touching their chastity”, and such things would never cross their minds, “and are good believers — are cursed in this life and in the Hereafter”, and a curse applies only in the case of major sins.

The curse is confirmed because it is ongoing in this world and in the Hereafter. “and for them will be a great torment”. This is in addition to the curse, and shows that they are even further removed from divine mercy, and that His severe punishment will be upon them."

Just look at those who constantly spread rumours, gossip and backbite, do you see any Taqwa in their speech, do you really see Taqwa from them? Pull them up or abandon them for those who constantly remember Allah in their hearts and speech - Spend your time doing beneficial work, and forget about following the latest trend, whether it's gossip or fashion.

25 February 2018 15:17

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

The dog asked the deer, “Why do you always beat me?”

The deer replied, “Because I run for myself, whereas you run on behalf of your master”.

If you aren't able to become a deer upon the truth, then atleast don't become a dog upon falsehood.

25 February 2018 11:32

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abou Omar Al Trabolsi كلام من ذهب

25 February 2018 12:36

The dog asked the deer, “Why do you always beat me?”

The deer replied, “Because I run for myself, whereas you run on behalf of your master”.

If you aren’t able to become a deer upon the truth, then atleast don’t become a dog upon falsehood.

25 February 2018 11:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

As-salāmu ‘alaykum, I would like to share 1 golden rule which has meant everything to me ever since being a youngster:

“Never rely upon anyone, except Allāh” — This is literally my dream which I’ve always thought about and tried to implement in life.

Take the means yourself and don’t look back, never ever become dependant upon others, it’s not worth the disappointment and complaining that comes afterwards!

24 February 2018 18:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

As-salāmu ‘alaykum, I would like to share 1 golden rule which has meant everything to me ever since being a youngster:

“Never rely upon anyone, except Allāh” — This is literally my dream which I’ve always thought about and tried to implement in life.

Take the means yourself and don’t look back, never ever become dependant upon others, it’s not worth the disappointment and complaining that comes afterwards!

24 February 2018 18:04

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

24 February 2018 07:38

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

24 February 2018 07:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

**Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān refutes the Ghulāt who make takfīr upon the Imām of guidance and truth, Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله)****

“The brother asks about what is attributed to Abū Hanīfah from what ‘Abdullāh Ibn al-Imām Ahmad mentioned in “Kitāb as-Sunnah”.

And some brothers asked this question yesterday, wherein I spent alot of time and explained it in detail, however we’ll summarise this by saying that this is divided into 3 categories:

1 — Alot of the quotes (from the Imāms) are not authentic.

2 — Some of it is authentic, however this is only authentic towards the one who stated this (rumour), however it's not authentically confirmed from Abū Hanīfah.

Such as if someone attributes something to you, saying such and such scholar said this and did this without witnessing such, so the Isnād (chain of transmission) to the one who said this to you is authentic, however it doesn't necessitate that this statement was mentioned by Abū Hanīfah.

Because he did not say "I saw", he said "Abū Hanīfah would say", "Abū Hanīfah would do this", the Isnād (chain of transmission) to this Imām is authentic without a shadow of a doubt, however this Imām did not hear Abū Hanīfah say such nor did he see Abū Hanīfah perform such, therefore we wouldn't accept this at all.

3 — What has been confirmed from him (Imām Abū Hanīfah) are a few things of Irjā' and some strange opinions within the matters of Fiqh, and in reality I have spoken about some issues and what he erred in adopting strange opinions, and this remains from the differences which would Inshā'Allāh be forgiven for an Imām like him.

As for what is narrated in the book that he's a kāfir, an apostate, or that he doesn't differentiate between worshipping Allāh and worshipping a shoe, and other similar things which have been attributed to him, then this isn't to be turned towards or paid attention too.

And it's not possible that a man of this calibre whom Allāh has made him receive acceptance among the Earth, Allāh doesn't make the kuffār receive acceptance.

And if Allāh made someone accepted with his group for a period of time in a specific era, and would be accepted among a group who are like him, such as the shaykhs of the Rawāfīdh al-Mushrikīn, he would make him have acceptance within his group of mushrikīn.

However it's not possible that someone ends up receiving acceptance from a group among Ahlus-Sunnah, Ahlut-Tawhīd and the correct I'tiqād (creed), this is impossible.

If it was during a specific era, and a group of muslims were deceived by him (okay fine), but for Allāh to make him have the most followers in contrast to the other Imāms ever since his presence till this day, whilst being a kāfir mushrik in the sight of Allāh, this is not possible whatsoever."

— The Imām, Al-Hāfīdh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

23 February 2018 23:27

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

**Shaykh al-Hāfīdh Sulaymān al-'Alwān refutes the Ghulāt who make takfīr upon the Imām of guidance and truth, Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله)**

"The brother asks about what is attributed to Abū Hanīfah from what 'Abdullāh Ibn al-Imām Ahmad mentioned in "Kitāb as-Sunnah".

And some brothers asked this question yesterday, wherein I spent alot of time and explained it in detail, however we'll summarise this by saying that this is divided into 3 categories:

1 — Alot of the quotes (from the Imāms) are not authentic.

2 — Some of it is authentic, however this is only authentic towards the one who stated this (rumour), however it's not authentically confirmed from Abū Hanīfah.

Such as if someone attributes something to you, saying such and such scholar said this and did this without witnessing such, so the Isnād (chain of transmission) to the one who said this to you is authentic, however it doesn't necessitate that this statement was mentioned by Abū Hanīfah.

Because he did not say "I saw", he said "Abū Hanīfah would say", "Abū Hanīfah would do this", the Isnād (chain of transmission) to this Imām is authentic without a shadow of a doubt, however this Imām did not hear Abū Hanīfah say such nor did he see Abū Hanīfah perform such, therefore we wouldn't accept this at all.

3 — What has been confirmed from him (Imām Abū Hanīfah) are a few things of Irjā' and some strange opinions within the matters of Fiqh, and in reality I have spoken about some issues and what he erred in adopting strange opinions, and this remains from the differences which would Inshā'Allāh be forgiven for an Imām like him.

As for what is narrated in the book that he's a kāfir, an apostate, or that he doesn't differentiate between worshipping Allāh and worshipping a shoe, and other similar things which have been attributed to him, then this isn't to be turned towards or paid attention too.

And it's not possible that a man of this calibre whom Allāh has made him receive acceptance among the Earth, Allāh doesn't make the kuffār receive acceptance.

And if Allāh made someone accepted with his group for a period of time in a specific era, and would be accepted among a group who are like him, such as the shaykhs of the Rawāfīdh al-Mushrikīn, he would make him have acceptance within his group of mushrikīn.

However it's not possible that someone ends up receiving acceptance from a group among Ahlus-Sunnah, Ahlut-Tawhīd and the correct I'tiqād (creed), this is impossible.

If it was during a specific era, and a group of muslims were deceived by him (okay fine), but for Allāh to make him have the most followers in contrast to the other Imāms ever since his presence till this day, whilst being a kāfir mushrik in the sight of Allāh, this is not possible whatsoever.”

— The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

23 February 2018 23:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

**The Imām of truth and guidance, Abū Hanīfah vs the Khawārij****

When the Khawārij dominated over the city of Kūfā, they took Abā Hanīfah (may Allāh have mercy upon him) and said to him, “Repent Yā Shaykh from Kufr!”

Abū Hanīfah replied, “I have repented to Allāh from every type of Kufr”.

So they let him go.

But when he turned away, it was said to them: Verily he has repented from Kufr, and what he means by that, is what you are upon!

So they took him back.

So one of their heads said: “Yā Shaykh! You have repented from Kufr, and what you mean by that is what we are upon?!”

So Abū Hanīfah replied: “Do you say this out of suspicion, or out of knowledge?”

He answered, “Rather, out of suspicion”.

So Abū Hanīfah said, Indeed Allāh the most High says, “O you who have believed, avoid much [negative] assumption. Indeed, some assumption is sin.” [49:12].

And this is a sin on your behalf, and every sin ‘according to you’ is Kufr, so you must first repent from Kufr!

So he replied: “You’ve stated the truth Yā Shaykh, I have now repented from Kufr”.

— Refer to “Manāqib Abī Hanīfah” (page 151).

23 February 2018 20:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

**The Imām of truth and guidance, Abū Hanīfah vs the Khawārij****

When the Khawārij dominated over the city of Kūfā, they took Abā Hanīfah (may Allāh have mercy upon him) and said to him, “Repent Yā Shaykh from Kufr!”

Abū Hanīfah replied, “I have repented to Allāh from every type of Kufr”.

So they let him go.

But when he turned away, it was said to them: Verily he has repented from Kufr, and what he means by that, is what you are upon!

So they took him back.

So one of their heads said: “Yā Shaykh! You have repented from Kufr, and what you mean by that is what we are upon?!”

So Abū Hanīfah replied: “Do you say this out of suspicion, or out of knowledge?”

He answered, “Rather, out of suspicion”.

So Abū Hanīfah said, Indeed Allāh the most High says, “O you who have believed, avoid much [negative] assumption. Indeed, some assumption is sin.” [49:12].

And this is a sin on your behalf, and every sin ‘according to you’ is Kufr, so you must first repent from Kufr!

So he replied: “You’ve stated the truth Yā Shaykh, I have now repented from Kufr”.

— Refer to “Manāqib Abī Hanīfah” (page 151).

23 February 2018 20:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

said, "He who goes to a fortune-teller, his prayers will not be accepted for forty (٤٠)The Prophet (days)." (Muslim

Given the seriousness of this Hadith (among others), one would do well to refrain completely from reading horoscopes and using Facebook apps that claim to predict future outcomes, as innocuous .and fake as they may seem

23 February 2018 12:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

said, "He who goes to a fortune-teller, his prayers will not be accepted for forty (٤٠)The Prophet (days)." (Muslim

Given the seriousness of this Hadith (among others), one would do well to refrain completely from reading horoscopes and using Facebook apps that claim to predict future outcomes, as innocuous .and fake as they may seem

23 February 2018 12:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Benefit | Even though several scholars have cited the hadīths on Ghouta as evidence, Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) says all the hadīths which mention Ghouta by name are weak, and Allāh knows best.

In any case, I ask Allāh with his beautiful names and lofty attributes to destroy the Tāghūt bashār!!!

23 February 2018 06:16

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Benefit | Even though several scholars have cited the hadīths on Ghouta as evidence, Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) says all the hadīths which mention Ghouta by name are weak, and Allāh knows best.

In any case, I ask Allāh with his beautiful names and lofty attributes to destroy the Tāghūt bashār!!!

23 February 2018 06:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

As-salāmu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullāhi wa barakātuhu my beloved brothers fillāh.

Imām Muslim narrated in his “Sahīh” (1383) on the authority of Abī Hurayrah, he said, the messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said:

“When a man dies, his deeds come to an end except for three things: Sadaqah Jariyah (ceaseless charity); a knowledge which is beneficial, or a virtuous descendant who prays for him (for the deceased).”

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى has provided us with an opportunity to be involved in knowledge that may bring benefit with the permission of Allāh, even after our death, perhaps it would be a cause that necessitates the mercy of Allāh for us on judgement day.

That is by taking part in contributing to the best of our ability بإذن الله in publishing a book which serves the sunnah of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, especially in a time which wickedness and degrading marks have been made against the sunnah of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

And so that it may be a proof for us when we meet Allāh on judgement day, even if we contribute a little bit in defending it and spreading the sunnah of our Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

And it is the book which belongs to Shayoh Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān ‘Imād ath-Thāhiri ar-Urdunī (from Jordan) entitled:

“The difference between the early Imāms and later Imāms in authenticating (hadīths) with the presence of hidden defects (in the isnād).”

1000 Free publications will be pressed for the sake of Allāh سبحانه وتعالى and many will be given to students of knowledge in the science of hadīth, and there shall be a copy of the book (in Arabic) for the donater Inshā’Allāh.

So contribute to the best of your ability O dear brothers, with what Allāh has allowed you to do, and

I ask Allāh the magnificent, the lord of the great throne that he allows us to attain its reward on the day we meet Him, may He be Glorified.

May Allāh give you all the highest ranks in Firdaws — Whoever wants to contribute to the publication of this book in the science of hadīth, let me know Inshā’Allāh.

22 February 2018 22:53

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

As-salāmu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullāhi wa barakātuhu my beloved brothers fillāh.

Imām Muslim narrated in his “Sahīh” (1383) on the authority of Abī Hurayrah, he said, the messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said:

“When a man dies, his deeds come to an end except for three things: Sadaqah Jariyah (ceaseless charity); a knowledge which is beneficial, or a virtuous descendant who prays for him (for the deceased).”

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى has provided us with an opportunity to be involved in knowledge that may bring benefit with the permission of Allāh, even after our death, perhaps it would be a cause that necessitates the mercy of Allāh for us on judgement day.

That is by taking part in contributing to the best of our ability بإذن الله in publishing a book which serves the sunnah of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, especially in a time which wickedness and degrading marks have been made against the sunnah of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

And so that it may be a proof for us when we meet Allāh on judgement day, even if we contribute a little bit in defending it and spreading the sunnah of our Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

And it is the book which belongs to Shayoh Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān ‘Imād ath-Thāhiirī ar-Urdunī (from Jordan) entitled:

“The difference between the early Imāms and later Imāms in authenticating (hadīths) with the presence of hidden defects (in the isnād).”

1000 Free publications will be pressed for the sake of Allāh سبحانه وتعالى and many will be given to students of knowledge in the science of hadīth, and there shall be a copy of the book (in Arabic) for the donater Inshā’Allāh.

So contribute to the best of your ability O dear brothers, with what Allāh has allowed you to do, and I ask Allāh the magnificent, the lord of the great throne that he allows us to attain its reward on the day we meet Him, may He be Glorified.

May Allāh give you all the highest ranks in Firdaws — Whoever wants to contribute to the publication of this book in the science of hadīth, let me know Inshā’Allāh.

22 February 2018 22:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. What are the proofs that it doesn't matter if the muhsan person is married at the moment of zina or not.

The unmarried person may be tempted easier to commit zina because he doesn't have a wife. But the person who is divorced for over 10 years for example got the same temptation.

Don't want to start a debate just curious on how the scholars came to that conclusion.

A. That's a genuine question which deserves a fair response. This returns back to the definition of “Muhsan” according to the Sharī'ah, which many scholars spoke about, and I'll give you some examples Inshā’Allāh to further clarify this:

There are 2 conditions required for someone to be considered “Muhsan”, and they are the following:

1. Performed a marriage contract.
2. Having intercourse.

Both of these conditions must be present, otherwise he's not considered Muh'san, and let me provide some examples Inshā’Allāh:

First example: Let's say there's a man who performed a marriage contract, i.e. he got married, however he did not have intercourse, and they separated.

Now this man is single and falls into Zinā (we seek refuge in Allāh), is he considered a Zānī Muhsan?

The answer is “no”. Yes, he has performed a marriage contract (condition #1), but because he didn't meet the 2nd condition (having intercourse — i.e. consummating the marriage), he is not considered a Muhsan, hence he will receive 100 lashes instead of being stoned to death.

Second example: Let's say there's a slave woman who had intercourse every day, then her owner frees her, and she commits Zinā, is she considered Muhsanah?

The answer is "no". Yes, she did meet the 2nd condition of having intercourse, however she did not meet the 1st condition of being in a marriage contract, therefore she will be lashed, not stoned to death.

Therefore, we come to learn that in order to be Muhsan according to the Sharī'ah, you must have been married and had intercourse within marriage, otherwise you're not considered Muhsan.

For further details, one may refer to the words of the Fuqahā', and Allāh knows best.

22 February 2018 22:17

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. What are the proofs that it doesn't matter if the muhsan person is married at the moment of zina or not.

The unmarried person may be tempted easier to commit zina because he doesn't have a wife. But the person who is divorced for over 10 years for example got the same temptation.

Don't want to start a debate just curious on how the scholars came to that conclusion.

A. That's a genuine question which deserves a fair response. This returns back to the definition of "Muhsan" according to the Sharī'ah, which many scholars spoke about, and I'll give you some examples Inshā'Allāh to further clarify this:

There are 2 conditions required for someone to be considered "Muhsan", and they are the following:

1. Performed a marriage contract.
2. Having intercourse.

Both of these conditions must be present, otherwise he's not considered Muh'san, and let me provide some examples Inshā'Allāh:

First example: Let's say there's a man who performed a marriage contract, i.e. he got married, however he did not have intercourse, and they separated.

Now this man is single and falls into Zinā (we seek refuge in Allāh), is he considered a Zānī Muhsan?

The answer is "no". Yes, he has performed a marriage contract (condition #1), but because he didn't meet the 2nd condition (having intercourse — i.e. consummating the marriage), he is not considered a Muhsan, hence he will receive 100 lashes instead of being stoned to death.

Second example: Let's say there's a slave woman who had intercourse every day, then her owner frees her, and she commits Zinā, is she considered Muhsanah?

The answer is "no". Yes, she did meet the 2nd condition of having intercourse, however she did not meet the 1st condition of being in a marriage contract, therefore she will be lashed, not stoned to death.

Therefore, we come to learn that in order to be Muhsan according to the Sharī'ah, you must have been married and had intercourse within marriage, otherwise you're not considered Muhsan.

For further details, one may refer to the words of the Fuqahā', and Allāh knows best.

22 February 2018 22:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Revisiting the ruling on the rapist and how he is dealt according to the Sharī'ah by Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره).

22 February 2018 21:01

Radwan Dakkak shared his post.

Revisiting the ruling on the rapist and how he is dealt according to the Sharī'ah by Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره).

22 February 2018 21:01

#200_misunderstood_words

Lesson — (4/200) ﷻ

We will be clarifying the meaning of the word سَجَّدَا (prostrating — i.e. “in Sujūd”) Inshā’Allāh.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says in the glorious Qur’ān:

وَادْخُلُوا الْبَابَ سُجَّدًا

“Enter the gate in Sujūd” [2:58].

What سَجَّدَا (in Sujūd) means is bowing (i.e. in Rukū’), this has been narrated from Ibn ‘Abbās (رضي الله عنهما).

Imām Fakhr ad-Dīn ar-Rāzī (رحمه الله) and others considered it far-fetched that it’s referring to the actual “Sujūd” on the floor, due to a valid exemption from holding it upon its original meaning. [1]

So the Āyah should read, “Enter the gate bowing humbly” [2:58].

And just to give a side benefit, “Sahih International translation” did an excellent job in adding the word “humbly” after the word “bowing”, and I would like to mention a very interesting point.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

“Do you not see that to Allah prostrates whoever is in the heavens and whoever is on the earth and the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, the moving creatures and many of the people?” [22:18]

In this Āyah, Allāh mentions the word “prostrates” (sujūd), and what it means is submission, i.e. that the sun, moon and stars humble themselves to Allāh.

So sujūd can mean “humbleness & submission”.

Moreover, Allāh also mentions about the word “Rukū’”:

“Your ally is none but Allah and [therefore] His Messenger and those who have believed - those who establish prayer and give zakah while in rukū’” [5:55].

In this Āyah, Allāh mentioned “those who give zakāt while in rukū’”, what it means here are those who establish prayer and give zakāt out of humbleness and submission (i.e. khushū’).

It doesn’t mean it refers to the actual rukū’ as the Rāfidah mushrikīn understood it as, claiming ‘Alī gave his ring to a beggar whilst in rukū’ praying, otherwise why would Allāh mention “establish prayer”, then say “give zakāt”, and then mention “rukū’” when He already mentioned establish Salāh and rukū’ is part of Salāh.

Moreover, this is an insult against ‘Alī Ibn Abī Tālib to claim he was busying himself in giving sadaqah while in rukū’, since no one ever stated that sadaqah is given in rukū’, rather you’re the one who is supposed to go to the poor person to give sadaqah, and secondly ‘Alī wouldn’t distract himself with anything outside of Salāh, as he had true khushū’ in his Salāh. Infact, Zakāt wasn’t even obligatory upon ‘Alī by consensus as he was poor, and the mahr he gave Fātimah was a shield SubhānAllāh, but the Rāfidah try to claim he is a “wali” (i.e. Imām from this verse).

Going back to the word “rukū’”, Allāh also mentions in the glorious Qur’ān:

“O Maryam, be devoutly obedient to your Lord and prostrate and bow with those who bow.” [3:43].

This is another perfect example that “bow” is not referring to the actual rukū’, but rather it means those who are humble in submission (i.e. khushū’)

So the Āyah would mean, “O Maryam, be devoutly obedient to your Lord and prostrate, and be in khushū’ with those who are humbly submissive”.

I just felt that it may be helpful to further emphasise on the meanings of rukū’ and sujūd, and Allāh knows best.

[1] Refer to “Tafsīr Ibn Kathīr” (1/174).

22 February 2018 13:06

#200_misunderstood_words

Lesson — (4/200) ﷻ

We will be clarifying the meaning of the word سُجَّدًا (prostrating — i.e. “in Sujūd”) Inshā’Allāh.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says in the glorious Qur’ān:

وَادْخُلُوا الْبَابَ سُجَّدًا

“Enter the gate in Sujūd” [2:58].

What سُجَّدًا (in Sujūd) means is bowing (i.e. in Rukū’), this has been narrated from Ibn ‘Abbās (رضي الله عنهما).

Imām Fakhr ad-Dīn ar-Rāzī (رحمه الله) and others considered it far-fetched that it’s referring to the actual “Sujūd” on the floor, due to a valid exemption from holding it upon its original meaning. [1]

So the Āyah should read, “Enter the gate bowing humbly” [2:58].

And just to give a side benefit, “Sahih International translation” did an excellent job in adding the word “humbly” after the word “bowing”, and I would like to mention a very interesting point.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

“Do you not see that to Allah prostrates whoever is in the heavens and whoever is on the earth and the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, the moving creatures and many of the people?” [22:18]

In this Āyah, Allāh mentions the word “prostrates” (sujūd), and what it means is submission, i.e. that the sun, moon and stars humble themselves to Allāh.

So sujūd can mean “humbleness & submission”.

Moreover, Allāh also mentions about the word “Rukū’”:

“Your ally is none but Allah and [therefore] His Messenger and those who have believed - those who establish prayer and give zakah while in rukū’” [5:55].

In this Āyah, Allāh mentioned “those who give zakāt while in rukū’”, what it means here are those who establish prayer and give zakāt out of humbleness and submission (i.e. khushū’).

It doesn’t mean it refers to the actual rukū’ as the Rāfidah mushrikīn understood it as, claiming ‘Alī gave his ring to a beggar whilst in rukū’ praying, otherwise why would Allāh mention “establish prayer”, then say “give zakāt”, and then mention “rukū’” when He already mentioned establish Salāh and rukū’ is part of Salāh.

Moreover, this is an insult against ‘Alī Ibn Abī Tālib to claim he was busying himself in giving sadaqah while in rukū’, since no one ever stated that sadaqah is given in rukū’, rather you’re the one who is supposed to go to the poor person to give sadaqah, and secondly ‘Alī wouldn’t distract himself with anything outside of Salāh, as he had true khushū’ in his Salāh. Infact, Zakāt wasn’t even obligatory upon ‘Alī by consensus as he was poor, and the mahr he gave Fātimah was a shield SubhānAllāh, but the Rāfidah try to claim he is a “wali” (i.e. Imām from this verse).

Going back to the word “rukū’”, Allāh also mentions in the glorious Qur’ān:

“O Maryam, be devoutly obedient to your Lord and prostrate and bow with those who bow.” [3:43].

This is another perfect example that “bow” is not referring to the actual rukū’, but rather it means those who are humble in submission (i.e. khushū’)

So the Āyah would mean, “O Maryam, be devoutly obedient to your Lord and prostrate, and be in khushū’ with those who are humbly submissive”.

I just felt that it may be helpful to further emphasise on the meanings of rukū’ and sujūd, and Allāh knows best.

[1] Refer to “Tafsir Ibn Kathīr” (1/174).

22 February 2018 13:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur’ān lesson — (3/200):

We will be addressing the word يستحيون (they keep alive) Inshā’Allāh.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions in the glorious Qur’ān:

وَإِذْ نَجَّيْنَاكُمْ مِّنْ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ يَسُومُونَكُمْ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ يُدَبِّحُونَ أَبْنَاءَكُمْ وَيَسْتَحْيُونَ نِسَاءَكُمْ ۚ وَفِي ذٰلِكُمْ بَلَاءٌ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ عَظِيمٌ

“And [recall] when We saved your forefathers from the people of Pharaoh, who afflicted you with the worst torment, slaughtering your [newborn] sons and يستحيون (they keep alive) your females. And in that was a great trial from your Lord.” [2:49].

What is meant by يستحيون (“they keep alive”) is that they leave them in this world remaining alive [1], and they do not kill them just like they did with the newborn sons.

It’s not referring to “Hayā”, i.e. it does not mean “they are shy from the females”, and Allāh knows best.

---

[1] Refer to “Tafsir at-Tabarī” (2/46).

22 February 2018 12:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur’ān lesson — (3/200):

We will be addressing the word يستحيون (they keep alive) Inshā’Allāh.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions in the glorious Qur’ān:

وَإِذْ تَجَئْنَاكُمْ مِنْ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ يَسُومُوتُكُمْ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ يَذْبَحُونَ أَبْنَاءَكُمْ وَيَسْتَحْيُونَ نِسَاءَكُمْ ۚ وَفِي ذَٰلِكُمْ بَلَاءٌ مِّنْ رَبِّكُمْ عَظِيمٌ

“And [recall] when We saved your forefathers from the people of Pharaoh, who afflicted you with the worst torment, slaughtering your [newborn] sons and يستحيون (they keep alive) your females. And in that was a great trial from your Lord.” [2:49].

What is meant by يستحيون (“they keep alive”) is that they leave them in this world remaining alive [1], and they do not kill them just like they did with the newborn sons.

It’s not referring to “Hayā”, i.e. it does not mean “they are shy from the females”, and Allāh knows best.

---

[1] Refer to “Tafsir at-Tabarī” (2/46).

22 February 2018 12:35

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Refuting the Bātil condition and claim of not having “complete authority” over the land!!

The noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Barā’ah as-Sayf (حفظه الله) refuted this by saying:

“The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) established his state in Madīnah whose land at the time was roughly 1 square kilometre! So how about the State?!!

And if you ask them about the criterion for “complete authority” and its boundaries via proofs, you would not find a single proof with them from the Qur’ān or Sunnah, but rather it’s merely what their minds and desires think is right!!

To respond against this condition they stipulate for the validity of the Khilāfah and the acceptance of its Bay’ah, is that during the era of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), most of the arabs apostated, and most of the Jazeerah (arabian peninsula) was taken out of the hands of the muslims (i.e. lost control over them), and only Makkah and Madīnah and Bahrayn remained upon Islām.

And the muslims were scared due to the Murtaddīn launching an assault upon Madīnah, so they would carry arms with them during their sleep and wake up with arms in the morning.

And some of them opposed sending out the army of Usāmah Ibn Zayd which the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) appointed towards Rūm, in fear of Madīnah (being attacked).

So with all this fear and the loss of the land under the lands of the Murtaddīn, is there a “complete authority” over the land (which these people claim)?!!

Despite all this, the Sahābah didn’t withhold from appointing a Khalīfah, infact even before fighting the Murtaddīn!!

His bay’ah was firmly established and permanent despite not having “complete authority” upon the whole land which was previously all Dār al-Islām in the arabian peninsula.

Furthermore, when ‘Uthmān Ibn ‘Affān (رضي الله عنه) was besieged in his house from those who revolted against him among the Bughāt (transgressing rebels).

To the extent that he wasn’t able to leave his house for Salāt al-Īd (the Eid prayer), so ‘Alī Ibn Abī Tālib (رضي الله عنه) prayed it on his behalf, yet despite all this, he was considered the Khalīfah, and his bay’ah was correct and firmly established till he got killed, may Allāh be pleased with him.

And the validity of his Khilāfah wasn't invalidated under the pretext of "not having complete authority"!!!

So it becomes known that it's a Bātil condition falsely invented into the Dīn of Allāh (by the deviants).”

It's the habitual nature of the deviants and hypocrites to bring forth doubts in order to withhold from supporting the people of the Haqq, despite them ruling by Islām, protecting the borders from the enemies, enforcing Jizyā, and Shari'ah courts are prevalent throughout the land, unlike those who refuse to rule by Shari'ah, and infact punish and fight those who call towards Shari'ah, this is explicit apostasy!

22 February 2018 11:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Refuting the Bātil condition and claim of not having "complete authority" over the land!!

The noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Barā'ah as-Sayf (حفظه الله) refuted this by saying:

“The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) established his state in Madīnah whose land at the time was roughly 1 square kilometre! So how about the State?!!

And if you ask them about the criterion for "complete authority" and its boundaries via proofs, you would not find a single proof with them from the Qur'ān or Sunnah, but rather it's merely what their minds and desires think is right!!

To respond against this condition they stipulate for the validity of the Khilāfah and the acceptance of its Bay'ah, is that during the era of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم), most of the arabs apostated, and most of the Jazeerah (arabian peninsula) was taken out of the hands of the muslims (i.e. lost control over them), and only Makkah and Madīnah and Bahrayn remained upon Islām.

And the muslims were scared due to the Murtaddīn launching an assault upon Madīnah, so they would carry arms with them during their sleep and wake up with arms in the morning.

And some of them opposed sending out the army of Usāmah Ibn Zayd which the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) appointed towards Rūm, in fear of Madīnah (being attacked).

So with all this fear and the loss of the land under the hands of the Murtaddīn, is there a "complete authority" over the land (which these people claim)?!!

Despite all this, the Sahābah didn't withhold from appointing a Khalīfah, infact even before fighting the Murtaddīn!!

His bay'ah was firmly established and permanent despite not having "complete authority" upon the whole land which was previously all Dār al-Islām in the arabian peninsula.

Furthermore, when 'Uthmān Ibn 'Affān (رضي الله عنه) was besieged in his house from those who revolted against him among the Bughāt (transgressing rebels).

To the extent that he wasn't able to leave his house for Salāt al-Īd (the Eid prayer), so 'Alī Ibn Abī Tālib (رضي الله عنه) prayed it on his behalf, yet despite all this, he was considered the Khalīfah, and his bay'ah was correct and firmly established till he got killed, may Allāh be pleased with him.

And the validity of his Khilāfah wasn't invalidated under the pretext of "not having complete authority"!!!

So it becomes known that it's a Bātil condition falsely invented into the Dīn of Allāh (by the deviants).”

It's the habitual nature of the deviants and hypocrites to bring forth doubts in order to withhold from supporting the people of the Haqq, despite them ruling by Islām, protecting the borders from the enemies, enforcing Jizyā, and Shari'ah courts are prevalent throughout the land, unlike those who refuse to rule by Shari'ah, and infact punish and fight those who call towards Shari'ah, this is explicit apostasy!

22 February 2018 11:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“No doubt when you hear and see that the Islamic state has been established, be aware that those who revived this duty will get belittled by those who do nothing for this Dīn, rest assured that this monumental event will distinguish the believers from the hypocrites.”

~ Imām Anwār al-Awlaki (رحمه الله).

22 February 2018 10:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“No doubt when you hear and see that the Islamic state has been established, be aware that those who revived this duty will get belittled by those who do nothing for this Dīn, rest assured that this monumental event will distinguish the believers from the hypocrites.”

~ Imām Anwār al-Awlakī (رحمه الله).

22 February 2018 10:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qurʻān lesson — (2/200) 📖

We will be addressing the word يظنون (doubt) InshāʻAllāh.

Allāh سُبحانه وتعالى mentions in the glorious Qurʻān:

الَّذِينَ يَظُنُّونَ أَنَّهُمْ مُلَاقُوا رَبِّهِمْ

“Those who يظنون that they will meet their Lord.” [2:46]

What is meant by يظنون (normally understood as “doubt”) is “certain” [1], and this is an Arabic term rarely used in our times.

So the Āyah would read, “Those who are CERTAIN that they will meet their Lord.”

It doesn’t mean يشكون (doubt), so we must be very careful in returning back to the original meaning of the word, even though it’s rarely used like that among arabs today.

[1] Refer to “Tafsīr at-Tabarī” (1/19).

22 February 2018 09:53

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qurʻān lesson — (2/200) 📖

We will be addressing the word يظنون (doubt) InshāʻAllāh.

Allāh سُبحانه وتعالى mentions in the glorious Qurʻān:

الَّذِينَ يَظُنُّونَ أَنَّهُمْ مُلَاقُوا رَبِّهِمْ

“Those who يظنون that they will meet their Lord.” [2:46]

What is meant by يظنون (normally understood as “doubt”) is “certain” [1], and this is an Arabic term rarely used in our times.

So the Āyah would read, “Those who are CERTAIN that they will meet their Lord.”

It doesn’t mean يشكون (doubt), so we must be very careful in returning back to the original meaning of the word, even though it’s rarely used like that among arabs today.

[1] Refer to “Tafsīr at-Tabarī” (1/19).

22 February 2018 09:53

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

In response to the works of our oppressed scholars being published worldwide, a noble brother sent this message which contains the following words, “HOW CAN THEY STOP THIS DEEN” — Allāhu Akbar!! 🕌

22 February 2018 09:37

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Fayez Kanaan More new arabic books or more of his works being translated do u mean?
22 February 2018 09:36

Ammar Yasir Is there any of his book which is translated in English
28 February 2018 01:10

I also received another wonderful message from the Netherlands, more books from Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) being published, Allāhu Akbar! ﷻ These are the Ibn Taymiyyah's of our time ﷻ

22 February 2018 09:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

I also received another wonderful message from the Netherlands, more books from Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) being published, Allāhu Akbar! ﷻ These are the Ibn Taymiyyah's of our time ﷻ

22 February 2018 09:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur'ān Lesson — (1/200) ﷻ

We will be clarifying the meaning of the word قاموا (they stand):

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions in the glorious Qur'ān:

وَإِذَا أَطْلَمَ عَلَيْهِمْ قَامُوا

“But when darkness comes over them, they stand.” [2:20].

“They stand” (قاموا) means “they remained fixed” [1] in their position in a puzzled state of mind.

It does not mean they were sitting down, so they stood up.

This is similar to when Allāh says:

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ تَقُومَ السَّمَاءُ وَالْأَرْضُ بِأَمْرِهِ

“And of His signs is that the heaven and earth STAND by His command.” [30:25].

What it means by “تقوم” (stand) is remain fixed, so it would be “And of His signs is that the heaven and earth REMAIN (fixed) by His command”

Allāh also speaks about Salāt al-Khawf which the Mujāhideen pray:

فَلْتَقُمْ طَائِفَةٌ مِنْهُمْ مَعَكَ

“Let a group of them STAND with you and let them carry their arms” [4:102].

What it means by stand is remain fixed, so this is another example to show that “stand” doesn't necessarily mean to get up from a sitting position, and Allāh knows best.

[1] Refer to “Al-Muharrar al-Wajīz”(4/334).

22 February 2018 09:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#200_misunderstood_words

Qur'ān Lesson — (1/200) ﷻ

We will be clarifying the meaning of the word قاموا (they stand):

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى mentions in the glorious Qur'ān:

وَإِذَا أَطْلَمَ عَلَيْهِمْ قَامُوا

“But when darkness comes over them, they stand.” [2:20].

“They stand” (قاموا) means “they remained fixed” [1] in their position in a puzzled state of mind.

It does not mean they were sitting down, so they stood up.

This is similar to when Allāh says:

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ تَقُومَ السَّمَاءُ وَالْأَرْضُ بِأَمْرِهِ

“And of His signs is that the heaven and earth STAND by His command.” [30:25].

What it means by “تقوم” (stand) is remain fixed, so it would be “And of His signs is that the heaven and earth REMAIN (fixed) by His command”

Allāh also speaks about Salāt al-Khawf which the Mujāhideen pray:

فَلْتَقُمْ طَائِفَةٌ مِنْهُمْ مَعَكَ

“Let a group of them STAND with you and let them carry their arms” [4:102].

What it means by stand is remain fixed, so this is another example to show that “stand” doesn’t necessarily mean to get up from a sitting position, and Allāh knows best.

[1] Refer to “Al-Muharrar al-Wajīz”(4/334).

22 February 2018 09:19

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I’ll be posting some beneficial gems from the Qur’ān under the hashtag:

#200_misunderstood_words

And I guarantee that 99.99% of you may have misunderstood the words I’m going to share, so it would be very beneficial Inshā’Allāh.

22 February 2018 08:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I’ll be posting some beneficial gems from the Qur’ān under the hashtag:

#200_misunderstood_words

And I guarantee that 99.99% of you may have misunderstood the words I’m going to share, so it would be very beneficial Inshā’Allāh.

22 February 2018 08:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

إنما المؤمنون إخوة

22 February 2018 08:48

Radwan Dakkak shared Al-risālah’s post.

إنما المؤمنون إخوة

22 February 2018 08:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Brothers are printing and distributing books in French (contact them — ما شاء الله This is wonderful Tawbah“ & (فك الله أسرته) to buy), “Explanation on the nullifiers of Islām” by Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرته) and Istighfār” by Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd

22 February 2018 08:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Houda Hidaayah <https://ahlutawheed.files.wordpress.com/2018/02/shaykh-ali-al-khudayr-sharh-nawaqid-al-islam.pdf> Do you know where I could get a hard copy?

22 February 2018 07:29

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak We haven't printed them yet for distribution, but Inshā'Allāh I'll manage the costs and plan to share it around locally, would be an excellent step for the da'wah instead of just remaining in PDF and Videos.

22 February 2018 08:05

#Update | Brothers and Sisters! This is the sharh of nawāqidh al-Islām by the noble Imām and ustādh of the ummah in 'Aqīdah, Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرهم) ☺☺☺

22 February 2018 06:26

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ibn Abdīr-Rahmān Al-Atharī Alhamdulillah Who did this?

22 February 2018 07:10

Radwan Dakkak One of the ikhwā

22 February 2018 07:10

Ibn Abdīr-Rahmān Al-Atharī That's a huge step! Ahlu tawhīd publications now on hard copy

22 February 2018 07:11

Ilyas Mansur dead set get this out on hard copy akhi Well worth the effort and money

22 February 2018 16:09

Babatunde Yousuph Is their a link to download it in pdf?

24 February 2018 09:16

#Update | Brothers and Sisters! This is the sharh of nawāqidh al-Islām by the noble Imām and ustādh of the ummah in 'Aqīdah, Shaykh al-'Allāmah 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرهم) ☺☺☺

22 February 2018 06:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Inshā'Allāh Khayr!

21 February 2018 19:29

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Simple | This Āyah delivers a final blow to the Khawārij sect for making takfīr upon major sins:

وَإِنْ طَائِفَتَانِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ اقْتَتَلُوا فَأَصْلَحُوا بَيْنَهُمَا ۖ الْحَجَرَاتِ

“And if two factions among the BELIEVERS should fight, then make settlement between the two.” [49:9].

21 February 2018 19:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Simple | This Āyah delivers a final blow to the Khawārij sect for making takfīr upon major sins:

وَإِنْ طَائِفَتَانِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ اقْتَتَلُوا فَأَصْلَحُوا بَيْنَهُمَا ۖ الْحَجَرَاتِ

“And if two factions among the BELIEVERS should fight, then make settlement between the two.” [49:9].

21 February 2018 19:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Every sect and religion which twists the Qur'ān or throws misconceptions at Islām is not a burden for us, rather Allāh has allowed them to do this so that you may return back to those verses taken out of context and truly understand its true and perfect meaning which Allāh has intended thereby.

21 February 2018 19:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Every sect and religion which twists the Qur'ān or throws misconceptions at Islām is not a burden for us, rather Allāh has allowed them to do this so that you may return back to those verses taken out of context and truly understand its true and perfect meaning which Allāh has intended thereby.

21 February 2018 19:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Ibn al-Qayyim said:

"And know that the scholar of Haqq is the consensus, the evidence (al-Hujjah) and the overwhelming majority, even if he was alone and the whole world disagreed with him." [1]

[I'lām al-Muwaqqi'īn, vol. 2, pg. 350-351].

[1] Little note: This quote is absolutely magnificent and holds deep meanings behind it — To break it down in even simpler terms, let's say there's only 1 scholar of Haqq in your land, and there are 10,000 "scholars" who unite against him, all of these scholars can be contradicting the "consensus" (!) which that 1 scholar of Haqq is following. So don't be fooled by numbers, may Allāh preserve you all 🌟

21 February 2018 15:59

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Ibn al-Qayyim said:

"And know that the scholar of Haqq is the consensus, the evidence (al-Hujjah) and the overwhelming majority, even if he was alone and the whole world disagreed with him." [1]

[I'lām al-Muwaqqi'īn, vol. 2, pg. 350-351].

[1] Little note: This quote is absolutely magnificent and holds deep meanings behind it — To break it down in even simpler terms, let's say there's only 1 scholar of Haqq in your land, and there are 10,000 "scholars" who unite against him, all of these scholars can be contradicting the "consensus" (!) which that 1 scholar of Haqq is following. So don't be fooled by numbers, may Allāh preserve you all 🌟

21 February 2018 15:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abou Ilyas ALLAHOUMAH AMIN YA RAB

21 February 2018 15:45

Ghouta has been besieged for many years now, may Allāh protect the muslimmeen and muslimaat. As for bashār and the treacherous sahawāt, may Allāh destroy them both and replace them with muwahhiddīn...!

21 February 2018 11:41

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Ghouta has been besieged for many years now, may Allāh protect the muslimmeen and muslimaat. As for bashār and the treacherous sahawāt, may Allāh destroy them both and replace them with muwahhiddīn...!

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Some people remained patient upon fire & iron, and died in prison, so they became Imāms for the muslims. Whereas another group of people stepped down upon the truth, so they became allies of the Shayātīn.”

،وقد صبر قوم على النار والحديد وماتوا في السجون فصاروا أئمةً للمسلمين
"وتنازل قومٌ عن الحق فصاروا أعواناً للشياطين"

— The Imām, Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

21 February 2018 11:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Some people remained patient upon fire & iron, and died in prison, so they became Imāms for the muslims. Whereas another group of people stepped down upon the truth, so they became allies of the Shayātīn.”

،وقد صبر قوم على النار والحديد وماتوا في السجون فصاروا أئمةً للمسلمين
"وتنازل قومٌ عن الحق فصاروا أعواناً للشياطين"

— The Imām, Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

21 February 2018 11:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

#Biography of the specialist in hadīth, Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz al-Khudayr:

His lineage:

He is Abū ‘Abdillāh ‘Abdil-‘Azīz Ibn Ibrāhīm Ibn ‘Abdil-‘Azīz Ibn ‘Abdillāh al-Khudayr. He was born in the city of Buraydah after Thuhr on Wednesday during the month of al-Jamādī al-Ūlah, in the year 1390H.

His studies:

He began his studies in primary level, then he joined the knowledge institute in “al-Malaz” in Riyādh. When he completed his studies, he joined the Usūl ad-Dīn faculty, and he studied in it till he reached the 5th level and didn’t complete it, then he joined the Shaṛī’ah college in Riyādh and graduated from it.

And in the beginning of secondary level in the year 1411H, he began his inclinations and love for the science of hadīth, then he kept closed with Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān from the year 1413H, and he acquired knowledge in hadīth from him, and was deeply affected by him immensely.

He studied under the hands of many major shuyūkh and benefited from their knowledge.

His shuyūkh in Riyādh:

1. He studied under Shaykh ‘Abdul-Karīm Ibn ‘Abdillāh al-Khudayr from the year 1412H:

Sharh Sahīh al-Bukhārī, Mukhtasar al-Khiraqī, al-Muwāfaqāt, Subul as-Salām, Tafsīr al-Qurtubī, parts from the Sharh of Alfiyyat al-‘Irāqī, and in the city of Buraydah, he studied Jāmi’ at-Tirmidhī with him.

2. He studied under Shaykh ‘Abdullāh al-Qusayr in the year 1410H, he did memorisation of Bulūgh al-Marām from him.

3. He studied “al-‘Aqīdah at-Tahāwiyyah” under Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz ar-Rājihī in the year 1417H.

4. He studied “Ilal at-Tirmidhī” under Shaykh Yāsir Ibn Muhammad Fathī Āl ‘Īd.

5. He studied under Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān as-Sa’d from the year 1417H, Jāmi’ at-Tirmidhī and Sunan an-Nasā’ī.

He also attended many lessons by other shuyūkh, such as Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn Bāz, in which he went through Sharh Riyādh as-Sāliheen and Sharh Fath al-Bārī. Likewise he attended lessons by Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn ‘Aqīl, Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Jibrīn and others, may Allāh have mercy upon them.

His shuyūkh in Qasīm:

1. He studied under Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Sālih al-‘Uthaymīn, may Allāh have mercy upon him, from the year 1415H —> 1417H the following books:

Al-Kāfi, Zād al-Mustaqni’, Sahīh al-Bukhārī, Sahīh Muslim, Tafsīr Ibn Kathīr, and other books during the week, and he has many stances with the Shaykh.

2. He studied under the noble Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (may Allāh hasten his release), and he studied under him from the year 1413H —> 1425H (12 years)!

While studying under him, he memorised al-Arba‘īn an-Nawawīyyah, Kitāb at-Tawhīd, Bulūgh al-Marām, the chapters of Tahārah, Fasting and Hajj from Jāmi’ at-Tirmidhī, and other concise texts.

He also attended the following lessons by the Shaykh; Sharh Sahīh al-Bukhārī, the chapters of Hajj, Siyām, Talāq completely from the Hāshiyah upon Zād al-Mustaqni’, Sharh al-Mūqidha, Sharh Kitāb at-Tawhīd by the Mujaddid (Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb), Sharh Kitāb at-Tawhīd by al-Maqrīzī with commentary, Sharh al-‘Aqīdah al-Wāsitiyyah, Sharh al-Arba‘īn an-Nawawīyyah, Sharh Bulūgh al-Marām, Sharh Sunan Abī Dāwūd without finishing it all, Sharh ‘ilal at-Tirmidhī by Ibn Rajab with very beneficial comments, and it’s recorded, al-Irshād by al-Khalīlī with commentary, at-Tamyīz by Imām Muslim with commentary, Sharh Nukhbatul-Fikar with commentary, Sharh at-Tadmuriyyah without finishing it.

He also attended so many gatherings in which there were Q&A with the Shaykh, and it is recorded, and he wrote up many researched essays and treatises which he showed Shaykh al-‘Alwān to analyse.

3. He studied under Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Sulaymān al-‘Alī in the year 1413H, he memorised Kitāb at-Tawhīd, and recited upon him many books in al-‘Aqīdah and other subjects.

4. He studied “Kitāb at-Tawhīd” and other books under the noble Imām of ‘Aqīdah, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Alī Ibn Khudayr al-Khudayr (may Allāh free him).

5. He studied “Bulūgh al-Marām” with Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Sālih al-Fawzān.

6. He studied “Manār as-Sabīl” with Shaykh Khālid Ibn ‘Alī al-Mushayqih.

7. He memorised “Thalāthatul-Usūl” with Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Ibrāhīm as-Sa‘awī.

8. He memorised “al-Ājrūmiyyah” with Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān al-Basharī.

His shuyūkh in Makkah:

He studied under Shaykh ‘Alī Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-‘Azīz al-Hindī, his Sharh which is available on audio for Sahīh al-Bukhārī which was held in the year 1416H in Masjid al-Harām.

His knowledge and qualifications:

He worked as a librarian in the knowledge institute in the city of Buraydah, and right now he’s a teacher in high school, and he has remained doing the same work, and the Shaykh strives very hard in spreading Da’wah with what Allāh has bestowed upon him with knowledge and guidance, so he goes to hold many da’wah gatherings, just like he gives lessons in his masjid in Buraydah, he welcomes students to memorise concise texts, both oral and written, and right now he’s in Riyādh he holds some lessons.

His publications:

The shaykh put alot of dedication in gathering the knowledge of his Shaykh, Al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān, may Allāh free him.

Concerning his publications, these include:

1. At-Taqrīrāt by Imām at-Tirmidhī.

2. An analysis and verification upon the commentary of Shaykh Sa’d Ibn ‘Atīq upon Sunan Abī Dāwūd.

3. Al-Majmū’ al-Mufīd li-Tālib al-Mustafīd (3 volumes).

4. Silsilat al-Ahādīth as-Sahīhah.

5. Silsilat al-Ahādīth ad-Da’īfah wal-Mawdū’ah.

6. Al-Qasas wal-Hikāyāt al-Latī La Tathbut.

7. Takhrij (collecting and verifying narrations) and Ta’līq (commentary) upon Kitāb at-Tawhīd by Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb.

8. Takhrij (collecting and verifying narrations) and Ta’līq (commentary) upon Bulūgh al-Marām.

9. A description of the Prophet’s Salāh.

10. A description of the Prophet's Wudū'.

11. Walā Tanābazū bil-Alqāb (al-Balā' muwakkil bil-Mantiq).

12. Takhrij (collecting and verifying narrations) and Ta'liq (commentary) upon al-Arba'in an-Nawawiyyah.

13. Athkār as-Sabāh wal-Masā', wa Bayān as-Sahīh min ad-Da'if.

14. Al-Awrād Fī Tah'sīn as-Sibyān min al-'Ayn wal-Jān.

15. Sā'at ul-Ijābah.

16. Al-'Ashāriyāt Fī Birr al-Wālidayn.

These are the books which the Shaykh commented upon and explained:

1. "Al-Muntakhab min al-'ilal" by al-Khallāl.

2. "Ilal at-Tirmidhī" by Ibn Rajab.

3. "Jāmi' at-Tirmidhī", the chapter of Tahārah, Siyām and Hajj.

4. "Ktāb at-Tawhīd" by Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb.

5. "Thalāthatul-Usūl" many times.

6. "Al-Mūqīdha" by Imām ath-Thahabī.

7. "Al-Bayqūniyyah" many times.

8. "Al-Arba'in an-Nawawiyyah" many times.

9. "Bulūgh al-Marām".

10. "Umdat ul-Ahkām".

11. "Sahīh al-Bukhārī" reaching the chapter of Salāh.

12. "Sharh Hadīth Jābir".

13. "Mansak al-Hajj wal-'Umrah".

Some names among the shuyūkh and 'ulamā' who gave Ijāzah to Shaykh 'Abdul-'Azīz al-Khudayr:

1. Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīr-Rahmān Ibn Ishāq Ibn Hassan Āl ash-Shaykh.

2. Shaykh 'Abdul-'Azīz Ibn 'Abdillāh al-Kinānī az-Zahrānī.

3. Shaykh Subhī Ibn Jāsim al-Hussaynī as-Sāmurrā'ī al-Baghdādī.

4. Shaykh Muhammad Bū-khubzā al-Hussaynī al-Maghribī.

5. Shaykh 'Abdul-Wakīl Ibn 'Abdīl-Haqq al-Hāshimī.

6. Shaykh 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn 'Abdul-Hayy al-Kittānī al-Hassanī al-Maghribī.

7. Shaykh Abū Ishāq Hijāzī Ibn Muhammad Sharīf al-Huwaynī.

8. Shaykh 'Abdullāh Ibn Humūd Ibn 'Abdillāh at-Tuwayjirī.

9. Shaykh 'Abdullāh Ibn 'Abdīr-Rahmān as-Sa'd.

10. Shaykh 'Abdul-'Azīz Ibn Marzūq at-Tarīfī.

Including many others, may Allāh increase him in beneficial knowledge, and allow us to benefit from his 'ilm. [1]

[1] This is all taken from the Shaykh's student, Abū Mus'ab written on 1425H in Qasīm and posted on the Shaykh's official site, translated most of it word to word —
<http://alkodeir.com/2017/08/06/نبذة-تعريفية-بالشيخ/>

21 February 2018 11:10

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

#Biography of the specialist in hadīth, Shaykh 'Abdul-'Azīz al-Khudayr:

His lineage:

He is Abū ‘Abdillāh ‘Abdil-‘Azīz Ibn Ibrāhīm Ibn ‘Abdil-‘Azīz Ibn ‘Abdillāh al-Khudayr. He was born in the city of Buraydah after Thuhr on Wednesday during the month of al-Jamādī al-Ūlah, in the year 1390H.

His studies:

He began his studies in primary level, then he joined the knowledge institute in “al-Malaz” in Riyādh. When he completed his studies, he joined the Usūl ad-Dīn faculty, and he studied in it till he reached the 5th level and didn’t complete it, then he joined the Shaṛī’ah college in Riyādh and graduated from it.

And in the beginning of secondary level in the year 1411H, he began his inclinations and love for the science of hadīth, then he kept closed with Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān from the year 1413H, and he acquired knowledge in hadīth from him, and was deeply affected by him immensely.

He studied under the hands of many major shuyūkh and benefited from their knowledge.

His shuyūkh in Riyādh:

1. He studied under Shaykh ‘Abdul-Karīm Ibn ‘Abdillāh al-Khudayr from the year 1412H:

Sharh Sahīh al-Bukhārī, Mukhtasar al-Khiraqī, al-Muwāfaqāt, Subul as-Salām, Tafsīr al-Qurtubī, parts from the Sharh of Alfiyyat al-‘Irāqī, and in the city of Buraydah, he studied Jāmi’ at-Tirmidhī with him.

2. He studied under Shaykh ‘Abdullāh al-Qusayr in the year 1410H, he did memorisation of Bulūgh al-Marām from him.

3. He studied “al-‘Aqidah at-Tahāwīyyah” under Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz ar-Rājihī in the year 1417H.

4. He studied “‘Ilal at-Tirmidhī” under Shaykh Yāsir Ibn Muhammad Fathī Āl ‘Īd.

5. He studied under Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān as-Sa’d from the year 1417H, Jāmi’ at-Tirmidhī and Sunan an-Nasā’ī.

He also attended many lessons by other shuyūkh, such as Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn Bāz, in which he went through Sharh Riyādh as-Sāliheen and Sharh Fath al-Bārī. Likewise he attended lessons by Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn ‘Aqīl, Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Jibrīn and others, may Allāh have mercy upon them.

His shuyūkh in Qasīm:

1. He studied under Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Sālih al-‘Uthaymīn, may Allāh have mercy upon him, from the year 1415H → 1417H the following books:

Al-Kāfī, Zād al-Mustaqni’, Sahīh al-Bukhārī, Sahīh Muslim, Tafsīr Ibn Kathīr, and other books during the week, and he has many stances with the Shaykh.

2. He studied under the noble Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (may Allāh hasten his release), and he studied under him from the year 1413H → 1425H (12 years)!

While studying under him, he memorised al-Arba’īn an-Nawawīyyah, Kitāb at-Tawhīd, Bulūgh al-Marām, the chapters of Tahārah, Fasting and Hajj from Jāmi’ at-Tirmidhī, and other concise texts.

He also attended the following lessons by the Shaykh; Sharh Sahīh al-Bukhārī, the chapters of Hajj, Siyām, Talāq completely from the Hāshiyah upon Zād al-Mustaqni’, Sharh al-Mūqidha, Sharh Kitāb at-Tawhīd by the Mujaddid (Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb), Sharh Kitāb at-Tawhīd by al-Maqrīzī with commentary, Sharh al-‘Aqidah al-Wāsitiyyah, Sharh al-Arba’īn an-Nawawīyyah, Sharh Bulūgh al-Marām, Sharh Sunan Abī Dāwūd without finishing it all, Sharh ‘Ilal at-Tirmidhī by Ibn Rajab with very beneficial comments, and it’s recorded, al-Irshād by al-Khalīlī with commentary, at-Tamyīz by Imām Muslim with commentary, Sharh Nukhbatul-Fikar with commentary, Sharh at-Tadmuriyyah without finishing it.

He also attended so many gatherings in which there were Q&A with the Shaykh, and it is recorded, and he wrote up many researched essays and treatises which he showed Shaykh al-‘Alwān to analyse.

3. He studied under Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Sulaymān al-‘Alīt in the year 1413H, he memorised Kitāb at-Tawhīd, and recited upon him many books in al-‘Aqidah and other subjects.

4. He studied “Kitāb at-Tawhīd” and other books under the noble Imām of ‘Aqidah, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Alī Ibn Khudayr al-Khudayr (may Allāh free him).

5. He studied “Bulūgh al-Marām” with Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Sālih al-Fawzān.

6. He studied “Manār as-Sabīl” with Shaykh Khālid Ibn ‘Alī al-Mushayqih.

7. He memorised “Thalāthatul-Usūl” with Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Ibrāhīm as-Sa’awī.

8. He memorised “al-Ājrūmiyyah” with Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān al-Bashārī.

His shuyūkh in Makkah:

He studied under Shaykh ‘Alī Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-‘Azīz al-Hindī, his Sharh which is available on audio for Sahīh al-Bukhārī which was held in the year 1416H in Masjid al-Harām.

His knowledge and qualifications:

He worked as a librarian in the knowledge institute in the city of Buraydah, and right now he's a teacher in high school, and he has remained doing the same work, and the Shaykh strives very hard in spreading Da'wah with what Allāh has bestowed upon him with knowledge and guidance, so he goes to hold many da'wah gatherings, just like he gives lessons in his masjid in Buraydah, he welcomes students to memorise concise texts, both oral and written, and right now he's in Riyādh he holds some lessons.

His publications:

The shaykh put alot of dedication in gathering the knowledge of his Shaykh, Al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān, may Allāh free him.

Concerning his publications, these include:

1. At-Taqrīrāt by Imām at-Tirmidhī.
2. An analysis and verification upon the commentary of Shaykh Sa'd Ibn ‘Atīq upon Sunan Abī Dāwūd.
3. Al-Majmū' al-Mufīd li-Tālib al-Mustafīd (3 volumes).
4. Silsilat al-Ahādīth as-Sahīhah.
5. Silsilat al-Ahādīth ad-Da'īfah wal-Mawdū'ah.
6. Al-Qasas wal-Hikāyāt al-Latī La Tathbut.
7. Takhrij (collecting and verifying narrations) and Ta'līq (commentary) upon Kitāb at-Tawhīd by Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb.
8. Takhrij (collecting and verifying narrations) and Ta'līq (commentary) upon Bulūgh al-Marām.
9. A description of the Prophet's Salāh.
10. A description of the Prophet's Wudū'.
11. Walā Tanābazū bil-Alqāb (al-Balā' muwakkil bil-Mantiq).
12. Takhrij (collecting and verifying narrations) and Ta'līq (commentary) upon al-Arba'in an-Nawawiyyah.
13. Athkār as-Sabāh wal-Masā', wa Bayān as-Sahīh min ad-Da'īf.
14. Al-Awrād Fi Tah'sīn as-Sibyān min al-‘Ayn wal-Jān.
15. Sā'at ul-Ijābah.
16. Al-‘Ashāriyāt Fi Birr al-Wālidayn.

These are the books which the Shaykh commented upon and explained:

1. “Al-Muntakhab min al-‘ilal” by al-Khallāl.
2. “Ilal at-Tirmidhī” by Ibn Rajab.
3. “Jāmi’ at-Tirmidhī”, the chapter of Tahārah, Siyām and Hajj.
4. “Kitāb at-Tawhīd” by Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb.
5. “Thalāthatul-Usūl” many times.
6. “Al-Mūqidha” by Imām ath-Thahabī.
7. “Al-Bayqūniyyah” many times.
8. “Al-Arba'in an-Nawawiyyah” many times.
9. “Bulūgh al-Marām”.
10. “Umdat ul-Ahkām”.
11. “Sahīh al-Bukhārī” reaching the chapter of Salāh.

12. “Sharh Hadīth Jābir”.

13. “Mansak al-Hajj wal-‘Umrah”.

Some names among the shuyūkh and ‘ulamā’ who gave Ijāzah to Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz al-Khudayr:

1. Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Ishāq Ibn Hassan Āl ash-Shaykh.
2. Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn ‘Abdillāh al-Kinānī az-Zahrānī.
3. Shaykh Subhī Ibn Jāsīm al-Hussaynī as-Sāmurrā’ī al-Baghdādī.
4. Shaykh Muhammad Bū-khubzā al-Hussaynī al-Maghribī.
5. Shaykh ‘Abdul-Wakīl Ibn ‘Abdil-Haqq al-Hāshimī.
6. Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn ‘Abdul-Hayy al-Kittānī al-Hassanī al-Maghribī.
7. Shaykh Abū Ishāq Hijāzī Ibn Muhammad Sharīf al-Huwaynī.
8. Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Humūd Ibn ‘Abdillāh at-Tuwayjirī.
9. Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān as-Sa’d.
10. Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn Marzūq at-Tarīfī.

Including many others, may Allāh increase him in beneficial knowledge, and allow us to benefit from his ‘ilm. [1]

[1] This is all taken from the Shaykh’s student, Abū Mus’ab written on 1425H in Qasīm and posted on the Shaykh’s official site, translated most of it word to word —
<http://alkodeir.com/2017/08/06/نبذة-تعريفية-بالشيخ/>

21 February 2018 11:09

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<http://www.kalamullah.com/Books/1000Sunan.pdf>
<http://www.kalamullah.com/Books/1000Sunan.pdf>

More than 1000 Sunan in the day and night by the very sincere Mujāhid, Shaykh Khālid al-Hussaynān (تقبله الله).

PDF —

21 February 2018 08:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<http://www.kalamullah.com/Books/1000Sunan.pdf>

More than 1000 Sunan in the day and night by the very sincere Mujāhid, Shaykh Khālid al-Hussaynān (تقبله الله).

PDF — <http://www.kalamullah.com/Books/1000Sunan.pdf>

21 February 2018 08:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Thikr_Benefits | Imām Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) mentioned over 100 benefits for Thikr, but here are 10 benefits taken from his nice book “Al-Wābil as-Sayyib” (page 94):

1. It pleases الرحمن (Allāh, the lord of infinite mercy), the most High and Exalted.
2. It repels the Shaytān, causes him anguish and breaks him.
3. It removes distress and anguish from one’s heart.
4. It brings joy, happiness and excitement to one’s heart.
5. It strengthens the heart and body.
6. It lightens up the heart and face.
7. It equips the Thākir (one who makes Thikr) with a sweetness, magnificence and radiance.
8. It drops the load of sins and removes it.

9. It's a cause of being pre-occupied from backbiting, malicious gossip and lies.

10. It provides a person with Rizq (provisions and sustenance).

20 February 2018 20:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Thikr_Benefits | Imām Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) mentioned over 100 benefits for Thikr, but here are 10 benefits taken from his nice book “Al-Wābil as-Sayyib” (page 94):

1. It pleases الرحمن (Allāh, the lord of infinite mercy), the most High and Exalted.
2. It repels the Shaytān, causes him anguish and breaks him.
3. It removes distress and anguish from one's heart.
4. It brings joy, happiness and excitement to one's heart.
5. It strengthens the heart and body.
6. It lightens up the heart and face.
7. It equips the Thākir (one who makes Thikr) with a sweetness, magnificence and radiance.
8. It drops the load of sins and removes it.
9. It's a cause of being pre-occupied from backbiting, malicious gossip and lies.
10. It provides a person with Rizq (provisions and sustenance).

20 February 2018 20:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Thikr | Al-‘Allāmah Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Al-Wābil as-Sayyib” (page 110):

Allāh, the Most High and Exalted, says about the hypocrites:

“They do not remember Allāh, except a little bit” [4:142]

Moreover, some of the Sahābah were asked about the Khawārij, are they hypocrites? So they replied “No, the hypocrites do not remember Allāh except a little bit”.

Ka'b (رحمه الله) also said, “The one who frequently remembers Allāh, he would be free from hypocrisy.”

20 February 2018 20:32

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Thikr | Al-‘Allāmah Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Al-Wābil as-Sayyib” (page 110):

Allāh, the Most High and Exalted, says about the hypocrites:

“They do not remember Allāh, except a little bit” [4:142]

Moreover, some of the Sahābah were asked about the Khawārij, are they hypocrites? So they replied “No, the hypocrites do not remember Allāh except a little bit”.

Ka'b (رحمه الله) also said, “The one who frequently remembers Allāh, he would be free from hypocrisy.”

20 February 2018 20:32

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

mentions that many people do not realise they have a (فك الله أسرته) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān sick heart, since they are heedlessly drowning in sins without Tawbah. The biggest indicator of their sick heart, is that when they avoid sins, their heart desires to go back to the sins for comfort .!(whether it's music, backbiting or not lowering your gaze and purifying your thoughts

This is what happens when you follow your desires and turn away from the remembrance of Allāh, .and Imām Ibn al-Qayyim compiled 100 benefits on the Thikr of Allāh says to test your Īmān when you hear the remembrance of Allāh, (حفظه الله) Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl how do you feel when Allāh’s name is mentioned? Ask yourself this genuine question, do you become full of excitement or is it like any other word you hear, or do you find more joy in other than .!(Allāh (which falls under Minor Shirk

:Do not be among those whom Allāh mentioned about by saying

وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ اللَّهُ وَجِدْهُ اسْمَاءً ثَلَاثَةً فَلُوبُ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ ۖ وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ

And when Allāh is mentioned alone, the hearts of those who do not believe in the Hereafter shrink“ with aversion, but when those [worshipped] other than Him are mentioned, immediately they .[rejoice.” [39:45

Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz al-Khudayr wrote a nice book on the authentic and weak Athkārah for the mornings and evenings, and he’s a specialist in hadīth who studied under many Muhaditheen, !for 12 years (فك الله أسره) including with Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān

On page 15 of his book, he mentions several authentic narrations from the Salaf on Thikr which is :mind-blowing, and I’ll share a few Inshā’Allāh

narrates that Al-Hassan Al-Basrī (رحمه الله) In “Siyar A’lām an-Nubalā” (2/610), Imām ath-Thahabī said, “The most beloved worshippers of Allāh in the sight of Allāh are those who (رحمه الله) .”remember Him the most and have the purest of hearts

reports al-Walīd Ibn Muslim (رحمه الله) In “Jāmi’ al-‘Ulūm wal-Hikam” (1/445), Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab :narrating from Ibn Jābir the following

I said to ‘Umayr Ibn Hānī’, I see that your tongue doesn’t get tired from the remembrance of Allāh, how many times do you make tasbīh each day? He replied, “100,000 times, unless my fingers !miscount it”, meaning: He would count that (100,000 times) with his fingers

صلى) would send salutations upon the Prophet Muhammad (رحمه الله) Moreover, Imām Ash-Shāfi’ī !times 10,000 (الله عليه وسلم)

Imagine if a muslim today did 10% of what these Imāms did, i will assure you that the response would be “you’re crazy”, which reminds me of another statement narrated from al-Hassan al-Basrī !which states what the Sahābah would think about you

.May Allāh grant us good health and well-being, Āmīn

20 February 2018 20:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

mentions that many people do not realise they have a (فك الله أسره) Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān sick heart, since they are heedlessly drowning in sins without Tawbah. The biggest indicator of their sick heart, is that when they avoid sins, their heart desires to go back to the sins for comfort .!(whether it’s music, backbiting or not lowering your gaze and purifying your thoughts

This is what happens when you follow your desires and turn away from the remembrance of Allāh, .and Imām Ibn al-Qayyim compiled 100 benefits on the Thikr of Allāh says to test your Īmān when you hear the remembrance of Allāh, (حفظه الله) Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl how do you feel when Allāh’s name is mentioned? Ask yourself this genuine question, do you become full of excitement or is it like any other word you hear, or do you find more joy in other than .!(Allāh (which falls under Minor Shirk

:Do not be among those whom Allāh mentioned about by saying

وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ اللَّهُ وَجِدْهُ اسْمَاءً ثَلَاثَةً فَلُوبُ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ ۖ وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ

And when Allāh is mentioned alone, the hearts of those who do not believe in the Hereafter shrink“ with aversion, but when those [worshipped] other than Him are mentioned, immediately they .[rejoice.” [39:45

Shaykh ‘Abdul-‘Azīz al-Khudayr wrote a nice book on the authentic and weak Athkārah for the mornings and evenings, and he’s a specialist in hadīth who studied under many Muhaditheen, !for 12 years (فك الله أسره) including with Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān

On page 15 of his book, he mentions several authentic narrations from the Salaf on Thikr which is :mind-blowing, and I’ll share a few Inshā’Allāh

narrates that Al-Hassan Al-Basrī (رحمه الله) In “Siyar A’lām an-Nubalā” (2/610), Imām ath-Thahabī said, “The most beloved worshippers of Allāh in the sight of Allāh are those who (رحمه الله) .”remember Him the most and have the purest of hearts

reports al-Walīd Ibn Muslim (رحمه الله) In “Jāmi’ al-‘Ulūm wal-Hikam” (1/445), Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab :narrating from Ibn Jābir the following

I said to ‘Umayr Ibn Hānī’, I see that your tongue doesn’t get tired from the remembrance of Allāh, how many times do you make tasbīh each day? He replied, “100,000 times, unless my fingers !miscount it”, meaning: He would count that (100,000 times) with his fingers

صلی) would send salutations upon the Prophet Muhammad (رحمه الله) Moreover, Imām Ash-Shāfiʿī times 10,000 (الله عليه وسلم)

Imagine if a muslim today did 10% of what these Imāms did, i will assure you that the response would be “you’re crazy”, which reminds me of another statement narrated from al-Hassan al-Basrī which states what the Sahābah would think about you

.May Allāh grant us good health and well-being, Āmīn

20 February 2018 20:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. Why is a differentiation made between the words قتل (killing) and قتال (fighting) when it comes to establishing the Hujjah in the Dunyā, don't they both mean the same thing?

A. There is a slight difference in meaning between both words, since “al-Qatl” (القتل) refers to the killing of 1 individual, whereas “al-Qitāl” (القتال) refers to the killing/fighting of a group of people, and Allāh knows best.

19 February 2018 12:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. Why is a differentiation made between the words قتل (killing) and قتال (fighting) when it comes to establishing the Hujjah in the Dunyā, don't they both mean the same thing?

A. There is a slight difference in meaning between both words, since “al-Qatl” (القتل) refers to the killing of 1 individual, whereas “al-Qitāl” (القتال) refers to the killing/fighting of a group of people, and Allāh knows best.

19 February 2018 12:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I know an orphan who is one of the most dearest of people to my heart, we are soul mates, he has no money and is basically homeless, but his heart is sooo pure, we make each other smile and laugh always making du'a for each other, Allāh has united our hearts together so tightly, he remembers me in the morning prayer and I remember him, he tells the jama'ah to make du'a for me, he is so wonderful, I will never forget about him in my life

18 February 2018 17:20

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I know an orphan who is one of the most dearest of people to my heart, we are soul mates, he has no money and is basically homeless, but his heart is sooo pure, we make each other smile and laugh always making du'a for each other, Allāh has united our hearts together so tightly, he remembers me in the morning prayer and I remember him, he tells the jama'ah to make du'a for me, he is so wonderful, I will never forget about him in my life

18 February 2018 17:20

Radwan Dakkak is feeling loved.

I have never instantly fallen in love with anyone like I have with a beloved brother from Nigeria who sent me a beautiful salāms — May Allāh and all of the Malā'ikah send beautiful salutations and salāms back to this amazing brother who has the Thikr of Allāh on his tongue

18 February 2018 09:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“If you take time to observe around you, you will see that music is a path to adultery and fornication. It plants the seed of hypocrisy, the seed of polytheism. When people turn to music, like it & get addicted to it, it becomes the alcohol of the mind.” [1]

~ Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

[1] Additional comment: This can be used as another evidence to prohibit musical instruments (let alone them being prohibited in and of themselves), as Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

وَلَا تَقْرُبُوا الزَّوَائِرَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ فَاحِشَةً وَسَاءَ سَبِيلًا ۝ ٣٢ الإسراء

“And do not approach unlawful sexual intercourse. Indeed, it is ever an immorality and is evil as a way.” [17:32].

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى also mentions:

وَلَا تَقْرُبُوا الْفَوَاحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ ۝ ١٥١ الأنعام

“And do not approach immoralities - what is apparent of them and what is concealed.” [6:151].

So we come to know that Allāh سبحانه وتعالى warns of coming close to Zinā, therefore whatever means that leads towards it would be prohibited, and the well-known rule in Fiqh states whatever leads to Harām is considered Harām, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

كُلُوا وَمِمَّا فِي الْأَرْضِ خَلَالًا طَيِّبًا وَلَا تَتَّبِعُوا خُطُوَاتِ الشَّيْطَانِ ۝ ١٦٨ البقرة

“O mankind, eat from whatever is on earth [that is] lawful and good and do NOT follow the footsteps of Shaytān. Indeed, he is to you a clear enemy.” [2:168].

18 February 2018 08:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“If you take time to observe around you, you will see that music is a path to adultery and fornication. It plants the seed of hypocrisy, the seed of polytheism. When people turn to music, like it & get addicted to it, it becomes the alcohol of the mind.” [1]

~ Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

[1] Additional comment: This can be used as another evidence to prohibit musical instruments (let alone them being prohibited in and of themselves), as Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

وَلَا تَقْرُبُوا الزَّوَائِرَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ فَاحِشَةً وَسَاءَ سَبِيلًا ۝ ٣٢ الإسراء

“And do not approach unlawful sexual intercourse. Indeed, it is ever an immorality and is evil as a way.” [17:32].

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى also mentions:

وَلَا تَقْرُبُوا الْفَوَاحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ ۝ ١٥١ الأنعام

“And do not approach immoralities - what is apparent of them and what is concealed.” [6:151].

So we come to know that Allāh سبحانه وتعالى warns of coming close to Zinā, therefore whatever means that leads towards it would be prohibited, and the well-known rule in Fiqh states whatever leads to Harām is considered Harām, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى says:

كُلُوا وَمِمَّا فِي الْأَرْضِ خَلَالًا طَيِّبًا وَلَا تَتَّبِعُوا خُطُوَاتِ الشَّيْطَانِ ۝ ١٦٨ البقرة

“O mankind, eat from whatever is on earth [that is] lawful and good and do NOT follow the footsteps of Shaytān. Indeed, he is to you a clear enemy.” [2:168].

18 February 2018 08:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#NEW What's the ruling on attending weddings without an invite?

Audio — The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرہ).

17 February 2018 22:28

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

#NEW What's the ruling on attending weddings without an invite?

Audio — The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرہ).

17 February 2018 22:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It's finally published as PDF! Sharh Nawaqidh al-Islam by Shaykh 'Ali al-Khudayr.

17 February 2018 21:35

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

If you are conscious of Allāh in every moment of your life (even when u sin), I swear by Allāh — He will never let you down. Always be strong when it gets tough, no matter how many obstacles you have to get through at once, place ur trust in Him

Let today and yesterday be a past of strength that your future looks back upon. Get ready for the future, prove to Allāh that you are true to Him, take on everything Allāh gives you.

May Allāh accept the messengers and prophets, they are the best of creation who endured more than anyone else. Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “when is the help of Allāh going to come?” — Victory comes when it reaches the peak of struggle, and Allāh knows best.

17 February 2018 17:49

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

If you are conscious of Allāh in every moment of your life (even when u sin), I swear by Allāh — He will never let you down. Always be strong when it gets tough, no matter how many obstacles you have to get through at once, place ur trust in Him

Let today and yesterday be a past of strength that your future looks back upon. Get ready for the future, prove to Allāh that you are true to Him, take on everything Allāh gives you.

May Allāh accept the messengers and prophets, they are the best of creation who endured more than anyone else. Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “when is the help of Allāh going to come?” — Victory comes when it reaches the peak of struggle, and Allāh knows best.

17 February 2018 17:49

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Allāh will never stop calling for you, He will always pick you up, we just need to turn to him =(

17 February 2018 17:34

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Allāh will never stop calling for you, He will always pick you up, we just need to turn to him =(

17 February 2018 17:34

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

While some enjoy themselves, others are tirelessly striving hard for the ummah day and night, may Allah increase the ummah in those among the latter, Āmīn.

17 February 2018 17:32

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

While some enjoy themselves, others are tirelessly striving hard for the ummah day and night, may Allah increase the ummah in those among the latter, Āmīn.

17 February 2018 17:32

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allah curse the shayateen of the ins and jinn!

17 February 2018 17:29

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allah curse the shayateen of the ins and jinn!

17 February 2018 17:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Thikr nourishes the soul, the cursed shaytān will not win in beautifying sins for a believer!

لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله

17 February 2018 17:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Thikr nourishes the soul, the cursed shaytān will not win in beautifying sins for a believer!

لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله
لا إله إلا الله

17 February 2018 17:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

EXCITING SURPRISE VIDEO COMING IN THE NEXT COUPLE OF HOURS, ALLĀHU AKBAR

17 February 2018 17:17

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

EXCITING SURPRISE VIDEO COMING IN THE NEXT COUPLE OF HOURS, ALLĀHU AKBAR

17 February 2018 17:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Wise advice:

Do remember that not everything about you is meant to be disclosed to everyone. Keep private things private. Be discerning. It will keep you from a ton of trouble and disappointment in the end.

17 February 2018 17:06

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Wise advice:

Do remember that not everything about you is meant to be disclosed to everyone. Keep private things private. Be discerning. It will keep you from a ton of trouble and disappointment in the end.

17 February 2018 17:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Wish there was a day that went past without hearing 1000's of swear words and F words...

17 February 2018 16:58

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Wish there was a day that went past without hearing 1000's of swear words and F words...

17 February 2018 16:58

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

What does this world mean to you?

Be honest and keep it to yourself, there is no judging here.

At the end of this story, I want you to reflect and think about how you answered this question. If it stings, that's a sign we have to repent and check more of our intentions and actions. in sha Allah.

—————

This story is about a sahabi who was known as the flower of the Quraish because of him being considered as the most handsome, charming and youthful looking amongst them.

He was known as Mus'ab Ibn 'Umayr Radiyallahu Anhu. You might have heard about his bravery during the battle of Uhud and the moving story of his martyrdom but this story is not about that highlight of his life.

More than that story, he was known as the first convoy of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ- yes, the story of him being sent to Madinah to spread Islam is so beautiful that it needs to be narrated in another article. in sha Allah.

I want to focus more on the way he left the luxuries of his life for the sake of Allah. Mus'ab RA came from a very wealthy family and grew up with the luxuries of life that he became one of the jewels of Makkah's assemblies and talk of the ladies of Makkah. Indeed, he was truly pampered by his parents - until he found Islam.

His parents were one of those who hated Islam to the point that they have disowned him for believing in it.

During the time of the boycott of the family of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ by the Quraish, he was amongst the company of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ

One time, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and Ali Ibn Abi Talib RA were sitting together when they saw Mus'ab RA walked past by them wearing one piece of cloth around him. When Ali RA turned to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ he saw him tearing up while saying: "There was no youth in Makkah more petted by his parents but Mus'ab but look at how he abandoned all of that for the love of Allah and His Prophet!"

There was also one instance where some of the Muslims saw him that they started to lower their heads and shed some tears because they saw him wearing worn out garments because they were accustomed to seeing him with elegant and fragrant clothes.

Now, we need to understand that Mus'ab RA chose to leave his lifestyle than being imprisoned in his house and being stopped by his parents in practicing his religion. The Muslims didn't cry due to them pitying his condition rather Mus'ab RA became a daily reminder for them that this life is nothing compared to the life in Paradise. Indeed, Mus'ab RA chose a rough life in the dunya for the beautiful life in akhirah!

Mus'ab RA never regretted this decision. He was satisfied with a hard life, wearing the roughest clothes, eating one day and going hungry another because his heart and soul was always filled with the love for Allah and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ

—————

How many of us would be able to give up the luxury we are in now for the sake of being able to practice our religion freely?

So many of us have put aside our deen for the sake of this dunya.

How many of us don't fear Allah whenever we spend like there is no tomorrow? How many of us spend so much time in our gadgets rather than spending some time in reading the Qur'an or reflecting from our deeds. How many of us removed or chose not to wear the hijab just because we fear that we may not fit in with the latest trend?

Indeed, we live our lives as if death is not coming as if our time in this dunya is endless.

Take heed, O Muslims.

My dear brothers and sisters in Islam, take some moment to reflect upon this story, will we be like Mus'ab RA who left the luxury of his life that hindered him from practicing his deen or will we be someone who would exchange the pleasure of Allah for the luxuries of this world?

You can always maintain and balance everything but always do your best to keep Deen on the upper side and top priority. in sha Allah.

May Allah make us aware of our actions well enough that we may know where we should work more to be closer to Allah.

Via: Brother MA Mughal

17 February 2018 16:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

What does this world mean to you?

Be honest and keep it to yourself, there is no judging here.

At the end of this story, I want you to reflect and think about how you answered this question. If it stings, that's a sign we have to repent and check more of our intentions and actions. in sha Allah.

This story is about a sahabi who was known as the flower of the Quraish because of him being considered as the most handsome, charming and youthful looking amongst them.

He was known as Mus'ab Ibn 'Umayr Radiyallahu Anhu. You might have heard about his bravery during the battle of Uhud and the moving story of his martyrdom but this story is not about that highlight of his life.

More than that story, he was known as the first convoy of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ- yes, the story of him being sent to Madinah to spread Islam is so beautiful that it needs to be narrated in another article. in sha Allah.

I want to focus more on the way he left the luxuries of his life for the sake of Allah. Mus'ab RA came from a very wealthy family and grew up with the luxuries of life that he became one of the jewels of Makkah's assemblies and talk of the ladies of Makkah. Indeed, he was truly pampered by his parents - until he found Islam.

His parents were one of those who hated Islam to the point that they have disowned him for believing in it.

During the time of the boycott of the family of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ by the Quraish, he was amongst the company of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ

One time, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and Ali Ibn Abi Talib RA were sitting together when they saw Mus'ab RA walked past by them wearing one piece of cloth around him. When Ali RA turned to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ he saw him tearing up while saying: "There was no youth in Makkah more petted by his parents but Mus'ab but look at how he abandoned all of that for the love of Allah and His Prophet!"

There was also one instance where some of the Muslims saw him that they started to lower their heads and shed some tears because they saw him wearing worn out garments because they were accustomed to seeing him with elegant and fragrant clothes.

Now, we need to understand that Mus'ab RA chose to leave his lifestyle than being imprisoned in his house and being stopped by his parents in practicing his religion. The Muslims didn't cry due to them pitying his condition rather Mus'ab RA became a daily reminder for them that this life is nothing compared to the life in Paradise. Indeed, Mus'ab RA chose a rough life in the dunya for the beautiful life in akhirah!

Mus'ab RA never regretted this decision. He was satisfied with a hard life, wearing the roughest clothes, eating one day and going hungry another because his heart and soul was always filled with the love for Allah and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ

How many of us would be able to give up the luxury we are in now for the sake of being able to practice our religion freely?

So many of us have put aside our deen for the sake of this dunya.

How many of us don't fear Allah whenever we spend like there is no tomorrow? How many of us spend so much time in our gadgets rather than spending some time in reading the Qur'an or reflecting from our deeds. How many of us removed or chose not to wear the hijab just because we fear that we may not fit in with the latest trend?

Indeed, we live our lives as if death is not coming as if our time in this dunya is endless.

Take heed, O Muslims.

My dear brothers and sisters in Islam, take some moment to reflect upon this story, will we be like Mus'ab RA who left the luxury of his life that hindered him from practicing his deen or will we be someone who would exchange the pleasure of Allah for the luxuries of this world?

You can always maintain and balance everything but always do your best to keep Deen on the upper side and top priority. in sha Allah.

May Allah make us aware of our actions well enough that we may know where we should work more to be closer to Allah.

Via: Brother MA Mughal

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.*Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi Brother radwan please refrain from putting pictures of beardless boys at its a major fitnah of and within it's self. Im sure your well acquainted with the narrations concerning it.The Handsom and beardless young are forbidden to gaze at. بارك الله فيك

17 February 2018 17:51

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Thanks akhi, but this is a child, not a beardless 'man' which is what the ruling refers too.

17 February 2018 17:52

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi Radwan Dakkak according to the narrations and the incident with umar its confirmed that it's with little boys only, as for a clean shaven man then his masculinity is appreant along with all the signs that come with maturity or puberty, as for this child he resembles a girl hence it's prohibition. Thousand of incidents are recorded regarding famous sufis accompanying small beardless boys. Ibn jawzi talks about this in detail in تلييس ايليس May Allah preserve you brother

17 February 2018 17:58

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Ibn Taymiyyah and others say it refers to the youth: Islamqa shared the following: Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyah (may Allaah have mercy on him) said: Looking at the face of a beardless youth with desire is like looking as the face of a mahram or a non-mahram woman with desire, whether the desire is desire for intercourse or the desire to derive pleasure from looking. If he looks at his mother, sister or daughter with pleasure derived from looking like the pleasure derived from looking at a non-mahram woman, then it is known to everyone that this is haraam. The same applies to looking at the face of a beardless youth, according to scholarly consensus. End quote. Looking at pictures of naked children is in most cases inevitably accompanied by desire. Shaykh al-Islam ibn Taymiyah (may Allaah have mercy on him) narrated that the scholars were unanimously agreed that it is haraam to look at a boy's face if that involves desire. He (may Allaah have mercy on him) said: A handsome, beardless boy is like a non-mahram woman in many cases, and it is not permissible to kiss him by way of pleasure, rather no one should kiss him but one who is safe from that, such as a father or brother. And it is not permissible to look at them in this manner [i.e., with desire] according to consensus, rather it is haraam according to the majority to look at them if there is the fear of that. End quote from al-Fataawa al-Kubra (3/202) It is not permissible to look at pictures of naked children, and it is not permissible to look at their chests and faces if that is accompanied by desire. — So this is referring to naked children, and also it's not allowed to look at their faces if that is 'accompanied by desire', which is the point to stress emphasis upon.

17 February 2018 18:04

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi So let our definition of 'youth' correspond my brother. The picture displayed here endorses his beauty and confirms my initial staement. If their remains another purpose then state it otherwise that Apprant remains, the boy in the pictures is not an average child rather effort was made to enhance his appreance, if we were to shave his head it may be counter productive as it was for Umar may Allah be please with him. والله اعلم

17 February 2018 18:11

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi Paul Enright look away my friend, let not the accumulation of blood in his cheeks disract you. Its prohibited for anyone to look (gaze) at this child except with reason lilke teaching or guardian hood .....

17 February 2018 18:15

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Al-Haneef al-Ibraaheemi clarifies the types of shaving the head, and that it may be done for discipline and deter fitnah. But 'fitnah' is the word to pay attention too, women were getting tempted by Nasr, which is why 'Umar shaved his head, unlike this little child...

17 February 2018 18:16

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ibn Shaami Someone who looks at young boys with desire has serious issues. We say he is a beautiful creation of Allah but we do not glare at him with desire, this is something ajeeb.

17 February 2018 18:22

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Btw, even looking at a young girl (who hasn't reached a more mature age) is permissible for us, as the 'Ulamā' mentioned: Look here:
<http://fatwa.islamweb.net/fatwa/index.php?page=showfatwa&Option=FatwaId&Id=166421>
What's haram is to look with "desire", but as for looking without desire, it's permissible. Infact looking at a non-Mahram woman without desire has been differed upon between makruh and haram, so we can't claim something is 100% haram akhil-karim like that.
17 February 2018 18:25

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi This minor dispute would be solved if one checks the definition of ( امرء ) in arabic inshallah. Brother pual looking at the child and admiring his appreance entails the very root of the prohibition. Umm umrah refrain from snide remarks as most people cant grasp the Psychology behind this prohibition or are in denial with regards to evil that could evolve out of this issue at hand
17 February 2018 18:35

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Akhī, I understand you have learnt something (which we can discuss in a better way), forgive us as this comment section went a bit whack — Also, always treat our sister with utmost respect, she took back her comment, may Allāh preserve u all.
17 February 2018 18:37

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak I'm having a really stressful time myself, so it would be best I refrain from commenting for a while, forgive me for not discussing with you in a better manner my beloved brother.
17 February 2018 18:40

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi I absolutely apologies as well for my rather direct and if you like raw approach in addressing it, the 'blood cheak' comment was for emphasis only which would justice to this discussion.
17 February 2018 18:43

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Āmīn to your du'ā, but we need to also avoid the other fitnah of free-mixing which is popular on FB. Alhamdulillah this discussion ended well, Allāh is with the believers 🕌
17 February 2018 18:49

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Abu Al-Aswadayni Elmi Whenever it's convenient for you my noble brother, check your PM's, as I sent a sincere apology to you and I believe it would be better to address the matter in private (away from the crowd)
17 February 2018 18:59

اللهم بارك

17 February 2018 15:07

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Reminder: If you want to ask me a question, it must be done in a polite and respectful fashion, otherwise you will receive 1 severe warning, so be careful!

17 February 2018 14:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Reminder: If you want to ask me a question, it must be done in a polite and respectful fashion, otherwise you will receive 1 severe warning, so be careful!

17 February 2018 14:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“What is destined will reach you, even if it be underneath two mountains. What is not destined, will not reach you, even if it be between your two lips!”

— The noble Imām, Abū Ḥāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله).

16 February 2018 20:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“What is destined will reach you, even if it be underneath two mountains. What is not destined, will not reach you, even if it be between your two lips!”

— The noble Imām, Abū Ḥāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله).

16 February 2018 20:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

had such a powerful Walā’ and Barā’ that he couldn’t stand looking at a (رحمه الله) Imām Ahmad“!kāfir! And if he saw a kāfir he would cover his face

(صلى الله عليه) However he said, don’t take this from me (i.e. don’t copy me), because the Prophet .did not do this (وسلم)

:In any case, an individual must hate the kāfir in his heart

You will not find a people who believe in Allah and the Last Day having affection for those who“ .[oppose Allah and His Messenger.” [58:22

O you who have believed, do not take your fathers or your brothers as allies (if they have preferred“ .[disbelief over belief).” [9:23

But as for whoever considered all the people equal to him, then such a person doesn’t have a cure ”!to his disease

(فك الله أسره.) The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān —

16 February 2018 20:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

had such a powerful Walā’ and Barā’ that he couldn’t stand looking at a (رحمه الله) Imām Ahmad“!kāfir! And if he saw a kāfir he would cover his face

(صلى الله عليه) However he said, don’t take this from me (i.e. don’t copy me), because the Prophet .did not do this (وسلم)

:In any case, an individual must hate the kāfir in his heart

You will not find a people who believe in Allah and the Last Day having affection for those who“ .[oppose Allah and His Messenger.” [58:22

O you who have believed, do not take your fathers or your brothers as allies (if they have preferred“ .[disbelief over belief).” [9:23

But as for whoever considered all the people equal to him, then such a person doesn’t have a cure ”!to his disease

(فك الله أسره.) The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān —

16 February 2018 20:09

Radwan Dakkak shared Al-risālah's post.

“Stay away from the fake ‘shuyūkh’ in your localities!” translated by a wonderful person (may Allāh honour them via Tawhīd) for the dutch speaking brothers and sisters. I don’t know this person, but the bond of Kalimat at-Tawhīd unites us

16 February 2018 19:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Stay away from the fake ‘shuyūkh’ in your localities!

In the biography of Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره), it mentions:

“And he was subjected to Fitnah in prison, and was tortured, and they wanted to disgrace him, but he refused, and he has still remained steadfast, patient, wanting the reward of Allāh, may Allāh increase him in steadfastness and free him.”

These are the Imāms we look up too and follow. Compare this Imām to many of the preachers in your local communities who appear to follow Ahlus-Sunnah, but in reality they are known as:

The blind-following 'Salafi's' and 'Salūliyyah'.

One of the reasons it's extremely important to learn your Dīn, is so that you may see the reality of different types of people which may appear unclear due to a lack of knowledge.

For example, the trend in the east and the west is a rise in these deviant 'Salafis' who strictly emphasise on being from Ahlus-Sunnah.

But if you examine carefully, you will come to the conclusion that they are fanatic blind-followers who go by their whims, they are 'Mashāyikh' and 'Du'āt' of whims and desires, seeking a noble reputation and position, and even women & wealth.

They love to deliver pump-up talks and are good story-tellers (whom are rebuked), as they habitually quote weak hadīths and please the masses.

They are experts at making it permissible to lie and be a two-faced person, promoting co-existence with the kuffār, belittling the importance of learning core matters of Manhaj and what negates a person's Islām from Kufr and Shirk.

How can one take their Dīn from defeatist Murji'ah who completely warn against takfīr, argue and defend the Tawāghīt, while slandering the Mujāhideen.

Just look at the so called scholars these people look up too and that should be enough, they take their Dīn from evil sell-out scholars who are known for playing around with the Dīn and Fatwās, concealing the truth, and even worse speaking Bātil by twisting the evidences.

The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) says:

"But as for performing Takfīr upon Specific Individuals:

Then know, may Allāh bless you, that the Madhab of Irijā' in this time of ours deeply penetrated into those who affiliate themselves to the Salafiyyah, so they became two types:

1. Whoever states by his tongue or in his articles; there's no speech or actions that constitute Kufr, rather all that falls back to Belief in the Heart.
2. The one who affirms that there are sayings and actions which constitutes Kufr, however he doesn't see anyone as a Kāfir.

And there's no doubt that both Madhabs are false, and the first one is more absurd than the second, and the one who ponders over the Seerah of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his Companions, and the Imāms [of the Ummah] will know the invalidity of these Madhabs.

For the first thing that the Sahābah did after the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) passed away, is Takfīr upon a nation of people and fighting them, and what has become most prevalent & famous from the Salaf is their Takfīr upon the Jahmiyyah and the heads of the Jahmiyyah, such as al-Jahm, al-Ja'd, Bishr al-Marīsī, Ibn Abī Du'ād and others."

So these Murji'ah are two types:

1. Those who exclude actions of kufr from negators of Īmān (like replacing the shari'ah and supporting kuffār against muslims), not making takfīr upon nullifiers of Islām, only if he declares it lawful in his heart, and this is the Madhab of the Jahmiyyah!
2. Those who include actions within Īmān, however completely warn against takfīr, wherein they will claim everything is kufr "generally speaking", but hardly apply it upon individuals among the mushrikīn, murtaddīn and Tawāghīt.

That even some of the intelligent people have said:

"Based upon the statements of these people (i.e. Murji'ah), no one will ever enter the hellfire, except for Kufr alone, because there's no Kāfir!!" (since everything is "Kufr", but hardly apply it)."

It's necessary to make Barā'ah from them, how can you trust them in your Dīn?!

May Allāh replace them with those who fear Allāh!

16 February 2018 12:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Stay away from the fake 'shuyūkh' in your localities!

In the biography of Shaykh al-'Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره), it mentions:

"And he was subjected to Fitnah in prison, and was tortured, and they wanted to disgrace him, but he refused, and he has still remained steadfast, patient, wanting the reward of Allāh, may Allāh increase him in steadfastness and free him."

These are the Imāms we look up too and follow. Compare this Imām to many of the preachers in your local communities who appear to follow Ahlus-Sunnah, but in reality they are known as:

السلفية التقليدية والسلوية

The blind-following 'Salafi's' and 'Salūliyyah'.

One of the reasons it's extremely important to learn your Dīn, is so that you may see the reality of different types of people which may appear unclear due to a lack of knowledge.

For example, the trend in the east and the west is a rise in these deviant 'Salafis' who strictly emphasise on being from Ahlus-Sunnah.

But if you examine carefully, you will come to the conclusion that they are fanatic blind-followers who go by their whims, they are 'Mashāyikh' and 'Du'āt' of whims and desires, seeking a noble reputation and position, and even women & wealth.

They love to deliver pump-up talks and are good story-tellers (whom are rebuked), as they habitually quote weak hadīths and please the masses.

They are experts at making it permissible to lie and be a two-faced person, promoting co-existence with the kuffār, belittling the importance of learning core matters of Manhaj and what negates a person's Islām from Kufr and Shirk.

How can one take their Dīn from defeatist Murji'ah who completely warn against takfīr, argue and defend the Tawāghīṭ, while slandering the Mujāhideen.

Just look at the so called scholars these people look up too and that should be enough, they take their Dīn from evil sell-out scholars who are known for playing around with the Dīn and Fatwās, concealing the truth, and even worse speaking Bātil by twisting the evidences.

The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) says:

"But as for performing Takfīr upon Specific Individuals:

Then know, may Allāh bless you, that the Madhab of Irijā' in this time of ours deeply penetrated into those who affiliate themselves to the Salafiyyah, so they became two types:

1. Whoever states by his tongue or in his articles; there's no speech or actions that constitute Kufr, rather all that falls back to Belief in the Heart.
2. The one who affirms that there are sayings and actions which constitutes Kufr, however he doesn't see anyone as a Kāfir.

And there's no doubt that both Madhabs are false, and the first one is more absurd than the second, and the one who ponders over the Seerah of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his Companions, and the Imāms [of the Ummah] will know the invalidity of these Madhabs.

For the first thing that the Sahābah did after the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) passed away, is Takfīr upon a nation of people and fighting them, and what has become most prevalent & famous from the Salaf is their Takfīr upon the Jahmiyyah and the heads of the Jahmiyyah, such as al-Jahm, al-Ja'd, Bishr al-Marīsī, Ibn Abī Du'ād and others."

So these Murji'ah are two types:

1. Those who exclude actions of kufr from negators of Īmān (like replacing the shari'ah and supporting kuffār against muslims), not making takfīr upon nullifiers of Islām, only if he declares it lawful in his heart, and this is the Madhab of the Jahmiyyah!
2. Those who include actions within Īmān, however completely warn against takfīr, wherein they will claim everything is kufr "generally speaking", but hardly apply it upon individuals among the mushrikīn, murtaddīn and Tawāghīṭ.

That even some of the intelligent people have said:

"Based upon the statements of these people (i.e. Murji'ah), no one will ever enter the hellfire, except for Kufr alone, because there's no Kāfir!!" (since everything is "Kufr", but hardly apply it)."

It's necessary to make Barā'ah from them, how can you trust them in your Dīn?!

May Allāh replace them with those who fear Allāh!

16 February 2018 12:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

As they say, some minds think alike - Seeing these quotes help re-assure that the ignorant are the crazy ones, not those who try their best to love Allah and His messenger!

Ibn 'Aqīl al Hanbali (r) said,

"I try my very best to limit the time I spend eating, to such an extent that I choose dry biscuit and a sip of water over eating bread, because of the difference in chewing [time] between the two, so as to save my time for reading or writing down some useful ideas. The best thing for the wise man to save is time."

Ibn Abī Ya'īlā, Tabaqāt al-Hanābilah (1/145).

16 February 2018 07:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

As they say, some minds think alike - Seeing these quotes help re-assure that the ignorant are the crazy ones, not those who try their best to love Allah and His messenger!

Ibn 'Aqīl al Hanbali (r) said,

"I try my very best to limit the time I spend eating, to such an extent that I choose dry biscuit and a sip of water over eating bread, because of the difference in chewing [time] between the two, so as to save my time for reading or writing down some useful ideas. The best thing for the wise man to save is time."

Ibn Abī Ya'īlā, Tabaqāt al-Hanābilah (1/145).

16 February 2018 07:59

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

I don't like to constantly bring up 'seeking knowledge', however this is a wonderful quote.

16 February 2018 07:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

I don't like to constantly bring up 'seeking knowledge', however this is a wonderful quote.

16 February 2018 07:12

Radwan Dakkak shared Haytham Sayfaddīn's post.

Very interesting dars!

Lessons in Ḥadīth – Part 3: The Ṣaḥābah and Their Narrations

16 February 2018 06:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://www.instagram.com/abu\_umar\_sasitlinskiy\_official/

Student of knowledge in need!!

A brother who is currently in Egypt with his family is in urgent need of money for the lawyers. He's been in jail for 3 months now for living in Egypt illegally and is facing a deportation to Russia where he will have to face court based on some fabricated case. A brother is a seeker of knowledge and needs our help.

To help out, contact brother Abu Umar (Абу Умар Саситлинский) who's a Dagestani brother that is a well-known charity worker in Africa and has a reputation of a good Muslim on haqq. He holds a doctoral degree in Islamic sciences. And he was the president at a local Islamic institute (in Dagestan) before going to Africa. Now he's digging wells and building masajid there.

This is his instagram, he speaks arabic and russian (not sure about english)

https://www.instagram.com/abu\_umar\_sasitlinskiy\_official/

15 February 2018 22:16

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://www.instagram.com/abu\_umar\_sasitlinskiy\_official/

https://www.instagram.com/abu\_umar\_sasitlinskiy\_official/

Student of knowledge in need!!

A brother who is currently in Egypt with his family is in urgent need of money for the lawyers. He's been in jail for 3 months now for living in Egypt illegally and is facing a deportation to Russia where he will have to face court based on some fabricated case. A brother is a seeker of knowledge and needs our help.

To help out, contact brother Abu Umar (Абу Умар Саситлинский) who's a Dagestani brother that is a well-known charity worker in Africa and has a reputation of a good Muslim on haqq. He holds a doctoral degree in Islamic sciences. And he was the president at a local Islamic institute (in Dagestan) before going to Africa. Now he's digging wells and building masajid there.

This is his instagram, he speaks arabic and russian (not sure about english)

15 February 2018 22:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. Can a woman show her feet in Salāh?

A. It's necessary upon all women to cover their face, hands and feet in the presence of non-Mahrams (since this is 'Awrah in respect to looking), however in Salāh when there are no non-Mahrams around, she can only show her face and hands according to most scholars, and a group of scholars added that she can also show her feet.

The arguments which mention it's allowed to uncover the feet is not just valid, but very strong and I haven't come across anything which can really disprove it.

For example, someone may say "where is the proof that covering the feet in Salāh is allowed, the Rasūl said a woman is 'Awrah!"

One may easily respond, "what is your proof that covering the hands in Salāh is allowed?"

So yes, we all agree a woman is 'Awrah, but these general hadīths don't address her hands or feet being 'Awrah in Salāh (interestingly a narration from Ahmad states both hands and feet must be covered)...

However, there is the hadīth I mentioned above which explicitly mentions that covering the feet is necessary, but it's weak — And as we know, many Fuqahā' do at times err and use weak hadīths as proof, such as on the issue of prohibiting a woman from reciting qur'ān during her menses, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān says this is a STRANGE opinion, despite the fact that most scholars adopted it, (SubhānAllāh!), since "strangeness" is not determined by fewer numbers in the shari'ah (as most think), rather it's determined by the weakness of the proof.

As for the weakness of this hadīth of umm Salamah, I may share it below Inshā'Allāh.

Concerning the hadīth narrated stating that it's necessary to cover the feet, before addressing whether it's authentic or not, it's important to note that this hadīth has been differed upon between the narrators whether it's Marfū' (attributed to the Rasūl) or Mawqūf (attributed to Umm Salamah), and what's correct is that it's clearly Mawqūf upon Umm Salamah, here is the text:

"Zaid b. Qunfudh said that his mother asked Umm Salamah: In how many clothes should a woman pray? She replied; she would pray wearing a veil and a long shirt which covers the surface of her feet." [Sunan Abū Dāwūd, #639].

The Hāfidh, Imām Ibn 'Abdīl-Barr (رحمه الله) mentioned in "At-Tamhīd" (6/367):

"The hadīth of Umm Salamah has been narrated as Marfū' (attributed to the rasūl), however those who narrated it as Mawqūf (stopped) upon Umm Salamah are more in numbers and more precise."

Imām al-Bayhaqī (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Al-Ādāb" (page 397):

"What's correct is that it's Mawqūf, and it has been narrated as Marfū'".

Coming to the gradings, as I mentioned, Shaykh 'Abdul-'Azīz at-Tarīfī (may Allāh guide him) mentioned it was weak in a famous clip which you can find on youtube where he spoke about this issue.

Likewise, Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) in "Da'īf Abī Dāwūd" (page 639) mentioned, "It's a weak Mawqūf report".

To clarify the defects, Shaykh Walīd al-Manīsī al-Hanbalī (may Allāh guide him) mentioned:

"The reasons for the hadīth being weak are the following:

1 — The Jahālah (unknownness) of Umm Muhammad Ibn Zayd, and all of the Marfū' and Mawqūf revolves around her (in the chains).

2 — The presence of Idtirāb (narrators mixing up the narration), wherein Al-Hākim narrated it via his chain to Muhammad Ibn Zayd from his father instead of “his mother”, and his father is unknown just like his mother, and it’s possible that the narration of Al-Hākim was a distortion by the scribes.

3 — All the narrators from Muhammad Ibn Zayd narrated it Mawqūf, except for ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Dīnār, since he has narrated it as Marfū’ on his own, and he has a poor memory, and he is among those whose Tafarrud (singular narrations) are not accepted, especially when it comes to differing with those who are more reliable than him, whom narrated it as Mawqūf.”

Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) also alluded to what Shaykh Walīd (may Allāh guide him) mentioned under point 1, in “Irwā’ al-Ghalīl” (1/304) where he said, “It contains Umm Muhammad (in the chain), who’s unknown”.

Imām Abū Dāwūd (رحمه الله) remained silent upon this hadīth, and he stated that what he remained silent about is considered “Sālih”, now this doesn’t necessarily mean he accepts the hadīth, but rather it may be acceptable for supportive evidence, etc. As Shaykh Sulaymān al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسره رحمه الله) mentioned he has observed around 50 hadīths which Imām Abū Dāwūd (رحمه الله) remained silent about, in which all were Munkar. This shows the importance of knowing the terminology of the Muhadithīn.

Moreover, this opinion of showing the feet in Salāh was adopted by Imām Abū Hanīfah, Sufyān ath-Thawrī, al-Muzanī, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah and other giants (even though the majority do say it’s a condition for her to cover), but here is what Ibn Taymiyyah wrote which may bring some benefit I hope:

“And as opposed to that: The face, the hands and the feet, she is not permitted to reveal that to the strangers (i.e. non-Mahrams) according to the most correct of the 2 opinions, unlike how it was before it was abrogated (before the Āyah of Hijāb came down), rather she doesn’t reveal anything except her clothes.

But as for covering that in the Salāh, it’s not obliged according to the agreement of the muslims, rather it’s lawful for her to show both of them (face & hands) in the Salāh according to the majority of the scholars, like Abū Hanīfah(رحمه الله), al-Shāfi’ee(رحمه الله) & other than them, and it is one of the 2 narrations from Ahmad(رحمه الله).

Likewise it’s permissible to show the feet according to Abū Hanīfah(رحمه الله), and it’s the stronger view, as Ā’isha(رضي الله عنها) considered it to be from the apparent adornments, she said "And to not reveal their adornments except what appears from her" [Al-Nūr:31], she said: "al-Fatkh" a silver ring that is in the toes of the feet, Narrated by ibn Abī Hātim.

So this is an evidence that the women used to show their feet first of all, as they would show their face and hands, they would loosen the end of their feet (to relax), so if she walked (in the home), her feet would show, and they wouldn’t walk in leather shoes or closed shoes, and covering this in Salāh has severe difficulty.

And Umm Salamāh (رضي الله عنها) said: "A woman prays in a completely long thobe, it covers the top of her feet, and when she prostrates, the bottom of her feet may show"

And in general, it has been proven through the text (Qur’ān & Sunnah) and Ijmā’ that it’s not required for her to wear a Jilbāb in Salah that covers her if she was at home, but rather that’s if she left the house.

Therefore, she would pray in her home, even if her face, hands & feet would show, as they used to walk in the beginning before the command of drawing the Jilbāb upon themselves, so the ‘Awrah in Salāh is not aligned with the ‘Awrah of looking, without any issuance nor contradictions.”

~ Majmū’ al-Fatāwah volume 22 page 71.

15 February 2018 20:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. Can a woman show her feet in Salāh?

A. It’s necessary upon all women to cover their face, hands and feet in the presence of non-Mahrams (since this is ‘Awrah in respect to looking), however in Salāh when there are no non-Mahrams around, she can only show her face and hands according to most scholars, and a group of scholars added that she can also show her feet.

The arguments which mention it’s allowed to uncover the feet is not just valid, but very strong and I haven’t come across anything which can really disprove it.

For example, someone may say “where is the proof that covering the feet in Salāh is allowed, the Rasūl said a woman is ‘Awrah!”

One may easily respond, “what is your proof that covering the hands in Salāh is allowed?”

So yes, we all agree a woman is ‘Awrah, but these general hadīths don’t address her hands or feet being ‘Awrah in Salāh (interestingly a narration from Ahmad states both hands and feet must be covered)...

However, there is the hadīth I mentioned above which explicitly mentions that covering the feet is necessary, but it's weak — And as we know, many Fuqahā' do at times err and use weak hadīths as proof, such as on the issue of prohibiting a woman from reciting qur'ān during her menses, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān says this is a STRANGE opinion, despite the fact that most scholars adopted it, (SubhānAllāh!), since "strangeness" is not determined by fewer numbers in the shari'ah (as most think), rather it's determined by the weakness of the proof.

As for the weakness of this hadīth of umm Salamah, I may share it below Inshā'Allāh.

Concerning the hadīth narrated stating that it's necessary to cover the feet, before addressing whether it's authentic or not, it's important to note that this hadīth has been differed upon between the narrators whether it's Marfū' (attributed to the Rasūl) or Mawqūf (attributed to Umm Salamah), and what's correct is that it's clearly Mawqūf upon Umm Salamah, here is the text:

"Zaid b. Qunfudh said that his mother asked Umm Salamah: In how many clothes should a woman pray? She replied; she would pray wearing a veil and a long shirt which covers the surface of her feet." [Sunan Abū Dāwūd, #639].

The Hāfidh, Imām Ibn 'Abdīl-Barr (رحمه الله) mentioned in "At-Tamhīd" (6/367):

"The hadīth of Umm Salamah has been narrated as Marfū' (attributed to the rasūl), however those who narrated it as Mawqūf (stopped) upon Umm Salamah are more in numbers and more precise."

Imām al-Bayhaqī (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Al-Ādāb" (page 397):

"What's correct is that it's Mawqūf, and it has been narrated as Marfū'".

Coming to the gradings, as I mentioned, Shaykh 'Abdul-'Azīz at-Tarīfī (may Allāh guide him) mentioned it was weak in a famous clip which you can find on youtube where he spoke about this issue.

Likewise, Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) in "Da'īf Abī Dāwūd" (page 639) mentioned, "It's a weak Mawqūf report".

To clarify the defects, Shaykh Walīd al-Manīsī al-Hanbalī (may Allāh guide him) mentioned:

"The reasons for the hadīth being weak are the following:

1 — The Jahālah (unknownness) of Umm Muhammad Ibn Zayd, and all of the Marfū' and Mawqūf revolves around her (in the chains).

2 — The presence of Idtirāb (narrators mixing up the narration), wherein Al-Hākim narrated it via his chain to Muhammad Ibn Zayd from his father instead of "his mother", and his father is unknown just like his mother, and it's possible that the narration of Al-Hākim was a distortion by the scribes.

3 — All the narrators from Muhammad Ibn Zayd narrated it Mawqūf, except for 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Dīnār, since he has narrated it as Marfū' on his own, and he has a poor memory, and he is among those whose Tafarrud (singular narrations) are not accepted, especially when it comes to differing with those who are more reliable than him, whom narrated it as Mawqūf."

Shaykh al-Albānī (رحمه الله) also alluded to what Shaykh Walīd (may Allāh guide him) mentioned under point 1, in "Irwā' al-Ghalīl" (1/304) where he said, "It contains Umm Muhammad (in the chain), who's unknown".

Imām Abū Dāwūd (رحمه الله) remained silent upon this hadīth, and he stated that what he remained silent about is considered "Sālih", now this doesn't necessarily mean he accepts the hadīth, but rather it may be acceptable for supportive evidence, etc. As Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (رحمه الله) mentioned he has observed around 50 hadīths which Imām Abū Dāwūd (رحمه الله) remained silent about, in which all were Munkar. This shows the importance of knowing the terminology of the Muhadithīn.

Moreover, this opinion of showing the feet in Salāh was adopted by Imām Abū Hanīfah, Sufyān ath-Thawrī, al-Muzanī, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah and other giants (even though the majority do say it's a condition for her to cover), but here is what Ibn Taymiyyah wrote which may bring some benefit I hope:

"And as opposed to that: The face, the hands and the feet, she is not permitted to reveal that to the strangers (i.e. non-Mahrams) according to the most correct of the 2 opinions, unlike how it was before it was abrogated (before the Āyah of Hijāb came down), rather she doesn't reveal anything except her clothes.

But as for covering that in the Salāh, it's not obliged according to the agreement of the muslims, rather it's lawful for her to show both of them (face & hands) in the Salāh according to the majority of the scholars, like Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله), al-Shāfi'ee (رحمه الله) & other than them, and it is one of the 2 narrations from Ahmad (رحمه الله).

Likewise it's permissible to show the feet according to Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله), and it's the stronger view, as Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها) considered it to be from the apparent adornments, she said "And to not reveal their adornments except what appears from her" [Al-Nūr:31], she said: "al-Fatkh" a silver ring that is in the toes of the feet, Narrated by ibn Abī Hātim.

So this is an evidence that the women used to show their feet first of all, as they would show their face and hands, they would loosen the end of their feet (to relax), so if she walked (in the home), her feet would show, and they wouldn't walk in leather shoes or closed shoes, and covering this in Salāh has severe difficulty.

And Umm Salamāh (رضي الله عنها) said: "A woman prays in a completely long thobe, it covers the top of her feet, and when she prostrates, the bottom of her feet may show"

And in general, it has been proven through the text (Qur'ān & Sunnah) and Ijmā' that it's not required for her to wear a Jilbāb in Salah that covers her if she was at home, but rather that's if she left the house.

Therefore, she would pray in her home, even if her face, hands & feet would show, as they used to walk in the beginning before the command of drawing the Jilbāb upon themselves, so the 'Awrah in Salāh is not aligned with the 'Awrah of looking, without any issuance nor contradictions."

~ Majmū' al-Fatāwah volume 22 page 71.

15 February 2018 20:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ibn Haneefah English?

15 February 2018 12:40

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abū Ḥafṣ Al-Ḥanbalī Read the Arabic.

15 February 2018 13:20

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ilyas Mansur Hisapanio?

15 February 2018 13:24

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abū Ḥafṣ Al-Ḥanbalī Haha, don't take it personal akhī. ☺ It's just that asking for translated works just encourages negligence in learning the language. Once a person learns Arabic, the gates of knowledge are open to him, including gems like these.

15 February 2018 13:28

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abū Ḥafṣ Al-Ḥanbalī Nooo akhī, it's very easy, plenty of free courses online teach you Arabic, one of the best one's I can recommend are the Madīnah series at Iqtoronto.com It has all the videos ready for you, watch at your own pace and learn the language. Think of it as learning how to locksmith; once you are able to make keys, you can unlock any lock, including books from the giants!

15 February 2018 13:34

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Misk Looooool you're hilarious bro!!!

15 February 2018 14:19

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abū Ḥafṣ Al-Ḥanbalī Glad I can make you laugh. ☺

15 February 2018 15:32

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abdullah Sarhan Abu Misk quality of the hanaabilah ☺☺

15 February 2018 23:27

Excellent book entitled, "Democracy and its connection with Islām" (203 pages) by the noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū 'Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله).

Download link — <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1NASFTMWBTeiXLKf3fBeMf-4IWvJEqmwo/view?usp=drivesdk>

15 February 2018 12:25

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Excellent book entitled, "Democracy and its connection with Islām" (203 pages) by the noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū 'Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله).

Download link — <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1NASFTMWBTeiXLKf3fBeMf-4IWvJEqmwo/view?usp=drivesdk>

15 February 2018 12:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

'Imrān Ibn Hittān was from Ahlus-Sunnah, and he married a woman from the 'Khawārij' to try and change her, however he himself flipped over to the extent that he became one of the major figureheads of the Khawārij!!

— Refer to "Siyar A'lām an-Nubalā" (4/214) by Imām ath-Thahabī (رحمه الله).

Important Note: Some scholars have mistakenly claimed that Imām al-Bukhārī (رحمه الله) makes takfīr upon the Khawārij, and this is an incorrect attribution.

Since Imām al-Bukhārī (رحمه الله) himself narrated from the major poet and figurehead of the Khawārij, 'Imrān Ibn Hittān in his "Sahīh" who praised the killer of 'Alī Ibn Abī Tālib (رضي الله عنه)! So he viewed them as Fussāq [1] and misguided, but truthful in narrating hadīths, as they view lying as a sin which takes them outside the fold of Islām.

[1] Narrating from a Fāsiq is divided into two types according to the scholars of hadīth:

1. Fisq due to ta'wīl (innovated beliefs which don't take him outside the fold of Islām), so he takes the ruling of innovators, and the majority of Muhadithin accepted their hadīths (unless they were from a sect that lies — unlike the khawārij).

2. Fisq without ta'wīl (such as those who commit major sins or abandon essential obligations), these people are not to be narrated from. However if they sincerely repent, we will accept their hadīths, since we accept the narrations of a kāfir who entered into Islām, so one who repents from Fisq would be more deserving of being accepted.

And Allāh knows best.

15 February 2018 12:00

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

'Imrān Ibn Hittān was from Ahlus-Sunnah, and he married a woman from the 'Khawārij' to try and change her, however he himself flipped over to the extent that he became one of the major figureheads of the Khawārij!!

— Refer to "Siyar A'lām an-Nubalā" (4/214) by Imām ath-Thahabī (رحمه الله).

Important Note: Some scholars have mistakenly claimed that Imām al-Bukhārī (رحمه الله) makes takfīr upon the Khawārij, and this is an incorrect attribution.

Since Imām al-Bukhārī (رحمه الله) himself narrated from the major poet and figurehead of the Khawārij, 'Imrān Ibn Hittān in his "Sahīh" who praised the killer of 'Alī Ibn Abī Tālib (رضي الله عنه)! So he viewed them as Fussāq [1] and misguided, but truthful in narrating hadīths, as they view lying as a sin which takes them outside the fold of Islām.

[1] Narrating from a Fāsiq is divided into two types according to the scholars of hadīth:

1. Fisq due to ta'wīl (innovated beliefs which don't take him outside the fold of Islām), so he takes the ruling of innovators, and the majority of Muhadithin accepted their hadīths (unless they were from a sect that lies — unlike the khawārij).

2. Fisq without ta'wīl (such as those who commit major sins or abandon essential obligations), these people are not to be narrated from. However if they sincerely repent, we will accept their hadīths, since we accept the narrations of a kāfir who entered into Islām, so one who repents from Fisq would be more deserving of being accepted.

And Allāh knows best.

15 February 2018 12:00

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

We can speak about Allāh all we like, but if we don't sincerely turn towards Allāh in worship, help and put our reliance upon Him, then we are the losers, falling into sins, hypocrisy and minor shirk.

15 February 2018 01:39

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

We can speak about Allāh all we like, but if we don't sincerely turn towards Allāh in worship, help and put our reliance upon Him, then we are the losers, falling into sins, hypocrisy and minor shirk.

15 February 2018 01:39

---

Radwan Dakkak shared DOAM - Documenting Oppression Against Muslims's post.

---

True faces exposed.

15 February 2018 01:34

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Announcement: I don't expect you all to read or understand everything I share. My intention is not to overburden my brothers and sisters or basically share all my knowledge with you, this is contrary to the wise path of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم as he would take into consideration each individual and what they can bear, otherwise it may lead a person to becoming deviated (due to carrying so much load).

So if you see alot of posts, please don't freak out, as I am putting all my efforts in spreading the Da'wah online, and clarifying as many matters to the best of my ability and knowledge, so this way it can Inshā'Allāh last and remain beneficial for the years to come!

This da'wah is not temporary (like the sell outs), this Da'wah is firmly established knowledge conforming with the Shari'ah, even though none of us are infallible.

May Allāh increase you all in beneficial knowledge, and may Allāh make me and you from among those who continue to remain passionate and steadfast upon the Haqq.

15 February 2018 00:42

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Announcement: I don't expect you all to read or understand everything I share. My intention is not to overburden my brothers and sisters or basically share all my knowledge with you, this is contrary to the wise path of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم as he would take into consideration each individual and what they can bear, otherwise it may lead a person to becoming deviated (due to carrying so much load).

So if you see alot of posts, please don't freak out, as I am putting all my efforts in spreading the Da'wah online, and clarifying as many matters to the best of my ability and knowledge, so this way it can Inshā'Allāh last and remain beneficial for the years to come!

This da'wah is not temporary (like the sell outs), this Da'wah is firmly established knowledge conforming with the Shari'ah, even though none of us are infallible.

May Allāh increase you all in beneficial knowledge, and may Allāh make me and you from among those who continue to remain passionate and steadfast upon the Haqq.

15 February 2018 00:40

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

**The ruling on masturbation and what happens if someone does this during the day of Ramadān while fasting?***

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) says:

“The brother asks about the ruling on what's known as the ‘secret habit’ and whether there's a difference of opinion on it.

Yes, there's a difference of opinion among the scholars, and there are 3 opinions for the ‘Ulamā’ concerning it:

1 — Completely permissible, and this is the opinion of Ibn ‘Umar, Ibn ‘Abbās, Al-Hassan al-Basrī, and a group among the Sahābah, the Tābi‘īn and the Imāms who came afterwards.

2 — Completely forbidden, and this is the Madhab of Ash-Shāfi‘ī, and several scholars have mentioned that this is the opinion of the Jumhūr (majority of scholars).

3 — Forbidden, except for a real need; Such as fearing to fall into Harām, or sexual provocation in the streets due to temptation or due to women, or due to going to the shops in order to push women away.

And he fears for himself, so he does this to repel a greater harm, so there are two harms presented to him, the harm of doing such a deed, and the harm that may occur from the major harm if he doesn't do such a deed.

So this was the Fatwā that Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) issued in a narration, and it was the verdict issued by Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah, Ibn al-Qayyim and a group of Imāms. So it can be done if he fears for himself (falling into Harām), otherwise he has no need in such a thing.”

Moreover, the Shaykh addresses the next issue by saying:

“The brother asks about the one who masturbates during the day of Ramadān, and also the ruling on whoever emits ‘mathī’ (prostatic fluid), so we have two separate matters here:

1 — If he emits ‘mathī’ (prostatic fluid) during the day of Ramadān, then there is nothing upon him, because ‘mathī’ doesn’t break the fast of the Sā‘im (one fasting).

2 — If he intentionally emits ‘manī’ (seminal fluid) during the day of Ramadān, not due to a wet dream, because of he emitted ‘manī’ (seminal fluid) due to a wet dream, there is no blame upon him. But if he emits seminal fluid intentionally, then the opinion of the over-whelming majority of the scholars, including the 4 Imāms, with a single narration on every single one of them, that he must catch up another day in its place.

But if this was due to Jimā’ (physical relations), someone had intercourse during the day of Ramadān, then he must owe a major Kaffārah (expiation) whilst making up that day according to the strongest opinion among the scholars.

Making up the day is obligatory upon him, and furthermore he must owe a major Kaffārah (expiation), he frees a slave, if he is unable to do that, he fasts 2 months consecutively, and if he is unable too, he must feed 60 poor people.”

14 February 2018 22:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

**The ruling on masturbation and what happens if someone does this during the day of Ramadān while fasting?**

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) says:

“The brother asks about the ruling on what’s known as the ‘secret habit’ and whether there’s a difference of opinion on it.

Yes, there’s a difference of opinion among the scholars, and there are 3 opinions for the ‘Ulamā’ concerning it:

1 — Completely permissible, and this is the opinion of Ibn ‘Umar, Ibn ‘Abbās, Al-Hassan al-Basrī, and a group among the Sahābah, the Tābi‘īn and the Imāms who came afterwards.

2 — Completely forbidden, and this is the Madhab of Ash-Shāfi‘ī, and several scholars have mentioned that this is the opinion of the Jumhūr (majority of scholars).

3 — Forbidden, except for a real need; Such as fearing to fall into Harām, or sexual provocation in the streets due to temptation or due to women, or due to going to the shops in order to push women away.

And he fears for himself, so he does this to repel a greater harm, so there are two harms presented to him, the harm of doing such a deed, and the harm that may occur from the major harm if he doesn’t do such a deed.

So this was the Fatwā that Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) issued in a narration, and it was the verdict issued by Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah, Ibn al-Qayyim and a group of Imāms. So it can be done if he fears for himself (falling into Harām), otherwise he has no need in such a thing.”

Moreover, the Shaykh addresses the next issue by saying:

“The brother asks about the one who masturbates during the day of Ramadān, and also the ruling on whoever emits ‘mathī’ (prostatic fluid), so we have two separate matters here:

1 — If he emits ‘mathī’ (prostatic fluid) during the day of Ramadān, then there is nothing upon him, because ‘mathī’ doesn’t break the fast of the Sā‘im (one fasting).

2 — If he intentionally emits ‘manī’ (seminal fluid) during the day of Ramadān, not due to a wet dream, because of he emitted ‘manī’ (seminal fluid) due to a wet dream, there is no blame upon him. But if he emits seminal fluid intentionally, then the opinion of the over-whelming majority of the scholars, including the 4 Imāms, with a single narration on every single one of them, that he must catch up another day in its place.

But if this was due to Jimā' (physical relations), someone had intercourse during the day of Ramadān, then he must owe a major Kaffārah (expiation) whilst making up that day according to the strongest opinion among the scholars.

Making up the day is obligatory upon him, and furthermore he must owe a major Kaffārah (expiation), he frees a slave, if he is unable to do that, he fasts 2 months consecutively, and if he is unable too, he must feed 60 poor people."

14 February 2018 22:02

Radwan Dakkak shared Quranic Reminders's video.

The spread of Zinā by Imām Anwar al-'Awlaqī (تقبله الله).

14 February 2018 19:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The spread of Zinā by Imām Anwar al-'Awlaqī (تقبله الله).

14 February 2018 19:59

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Muhammad Sauvlat Democracy has lengthened the tongues of kuffar women.... That reminds me of a quote "hearts require to be humbled, some humble in dunya and some in the hell"

14 February 2018 17:47

Muslim Ibn Abdullah "All men are pigs literally" & "Women are equal to men. not less than them" that means all men and women are pigs "literally" and "equally", why would she want to be the same as "pigs" ? thats why speaking with emotions and without shari knowledge causes you to refute yourself with your own words. Allah ta'alaa created men and women different, but perfect in their purpose and role in that creation. so Men and Women are equally perfect in their realms of creation, but different and deficient when challenging each others realms and trying take over each others purpose of creation. Allahu Alaam

14 February 2018 17:53

Radwan Dakkak Sah, we must always give credit where it's due — She only knows Kāfir men, so in that aspect, she is absolutely correct conforming with the noble Āyah: إِنَّمَا الْمُشْرِكُونَ نَجَسٌ ۝٢٨ التوبة

14 February 2018 18:33

Muslim Ibn Abdullah Radwan Dakkak Tayyib, I assumed she was a Muslimah feminist

14 February 2018 18:34

Zayn Ali soon the feminist agenda will lead to such extreme that the term muslim feminist will be an oxymoron

14 February 2018 18:45

AbdurRahman Umar Ibn Bakr They are encouraging atheism. The firaun also used the tactic of keeping the masses in ignorance and darkness. In the end firaun submitted to Allah Azzawajjal and so surely these modern day tyrants will submit to Allah FORSURE.

14 February 2018 19:22

14 February 2018 14:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Hurayrah Quite funny, let's hope women don't start commenting with lol's and haha's.

14 February 2018 14:51

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Fatima OverIt She's a kafirah, what do you expect?

14 February 2018 14:53

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Jannah Firdous I don't think she thought this through very well ☹️

14 February 2018 14:58

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak She only knows kāfir men, so I actually agree with her.

14 February 2018 15:03

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zackaria Elhawati Hahaha Luke Bonney

14 February 2018 15:18

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abdullahi Ibn'Gary Harris Uhhhhhhhh I want her to see the error in her thinking. If all men are pigs, and she feels women are equal to men, then with that line of thinking would it mean all women are pigs too? ☹️☹️☹️

14 February 2018 15:24

14 February 2018 14:49

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Some people have serious issues and can't accept women praying without covering their feet. This view is what Imām Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله) adopted and seems to be the strongest opinion, and those people who try and degrade Abū Hanīfah without right are beneath his feet.

To top it off, the hadīth used by those who try to show the feet being 'Awrah in Salāh is weak, and Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) clarified that it's perfectly fine to show the feet.

If a woman wishes to cover the feet, that's fine as well, but for someone to force another woman to cover her feet, this is absolutely Bātil.

It's important to note that Imām Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله) allows a woman to show her face, hands and feet in Salāh — HOWEVER, if there are non-Mahrams around, it becomes obligatory to cover her face, hands and feet, or else she would be sinful!

14 February 2018 13:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Some people have serious issues and can't accept women praying without covering their feet. This view is what Imām Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله) adopted and seems to be the strongest opinion, and those people who try and degrade Abū Hanīfah without right are beneath his feet.

To top it off, the hadīth used by those who try to show the feet being 'Awrah in Salāh is weak, and Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) clarified that it's perfectly fine to show the feet.

If a woman wishes to cover the feet, that's fine as well, but for someone to force another woman to cover her feet, this is absolutely Bātil.

It's important to note that Imām Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله) allows a woman to show her face, hands and feet in Salāh — HOWEVER, if there are non-Mahrams around, it becomes obligatory to cover her face, hands and feet, or else she would be sinful!

14 February 2018 13:27

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

14 February 2018 12:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Umm Abdur-Rahmān Ḥassan Khalīf Umm Laith

14 February 2018 13:07

14 February 2018 12:22

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

I ask Allāh to place happiness in your life
May Allāh make us from the people of the Qurʾān.

14 February 2018 11:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

I ask Allāh to place happiness in your life
May Allāh make us from the people of the Qurʾān.

14 February 2018 11:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Calling for unity?

“There is NO unity except upon the pure TAWHĪD, and with clarity NOT ambiguity, while clarifying the Dīn of the messengers — The muslims will never gain victory via shirk and kufr, nor while being allies of the Tawāghīt and criminals, they can only gain victory when the Ummah is united upon Lā ilāha ilā Allāh!”

— The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرہ).

14 February 2018 08:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Calling for unity?

“There is NO unity except upon the pure TAWHĪD, and with clarity NOT ambiguity, while clarifying the Dīn of the messengers — The muslims will never gain victory via shirk and kufr, nor while being allies of the Tawāghīt and criminals, they can only gain victory when the Ummah is united upon Lā ilāha ilā Allāh!”

— The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرہ).

14 February 2018 08:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The justice of Allāh in giving rewards to both genders:

Indeed, Allāh رَبُّنَا did not specify a gender with a righteous deed, except that He made for the other gender a righteous deed of the same reward, specific to their gender.

For example, Jihād in the path of Allāh. In the Qurʾān, Allāh has prescribed Jihād upon the men, however he did not prevent the women from attaining its reward, as it’s mentioned in the authentic hadīth of ʿĀʾisha رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهَا where she reported:

“I said: ‘O Messenger of Allah, is Jihād obligatory for women?’ He said: “Yes: Upon them is a Jihād in which there is no fighting: Al-Hajj and Al-ʿUmrah.”

We can learn two benefits from this:

— The eagerness of Umm al-Muʾmineen ʿĀʾisha (رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهَا) in striving to attain the reward of the best of deeds, and there are women today following her footsteps! And in this situation, Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حَفِظَهُ اللهُ) said “We want our men to be like the Sahābiyyāt!!”

— The justice, virtue, bounties and mercy of Allāh in giving women the same reward as men in an action which they are able to do, making it easier for the women to receive rewards.

And Jihād is the greatest voluntary deed by consensus and during many times gets given precedence over other major obligations!

Shaykh al-'Allāmah Siddīq Hassan Khān (رحمه الله) in his book, "Lessons taken from what has been narrated in battles, martyrdom and migration" (page 164) quoted Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) saying:

"Indeed, He (Allāh) after that commanded fighting for them by His statement 'Fighting is prescribed for you', and He emphasised the obligation, and intensified the command of Jihād in all the chapters revealed in Madīnah, and condemned those who abandoned it, and described them with Nifāq (hypocrisy) and a disease in their hearts, and this is found in many places in the Qur'ān.

Likewise, He exalted this action and its people in Sūrat as-Saff, and the command of Jihād and mentioning its virtues in the Qur'ān and Sunnah is too much to be counted. For this reason, it was considered the most virtuous of voluntary acts a person can do, and according to the agreement of the scholars, it's better than Hajj and 'Umrah, to the extent that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

'The head of its matter is Islam and its pillar is the Salah and its highest peak is the Jihad.'

And this is a huge topic, nothing has been narrated concerning the rewards of a deed and its virtue like what has been narrated in Jihād, and this is apparent during observation, for indeed the benefit of Jihād is general for its doer and for other than him in the Dīn and Dunyā, and it consists of all types of outward and inward acts of worship, for indeed it comprises of loving Allāh, having sincerity to Him, and reliance upon Him, and submitting himself and his wealth, having patience, abandoning the dunyā, remembering Allāh and all the other types of deeds, which no other action comprises of, and the one who performs this from an individual or ummah is between two great destinations, either victory and triumph or martyrdom and paradise."

Yet despite all of its virtues which cannot be found in any other deed, due to Allāh's justice, love and mercy for the creation, He has given women the same reward by doing another righteous deed.

14 February 2018 07:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The justice of Allāh in giving rewards to both genders:

Indeed, Allāh سبحانه وتعالى did not specify a gender with a righteous deed, except that He made for the other gender a righteous deed of the same reward, specific to their gender.

For example, Jihād in the path of Allāh. In the Qur'ān, Allāh has prescribed Jihād upon the men, however he did not prevent the women from attaining its reward, as it's mentioned in the authentic hadīth of 'Ā'isha رضي الله عنها where she reported:

"I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, is Jihād obligatory for women?' He said: "Yes: Upon them is a Jihād in which there is no fighting: Al-Hajj and Al-'Umrah."

We can learn two benefits from this:

— The eagerness of Umm al-Mu'mineen 'Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها) in striving to attain the reward of the best of deeds, and there are women today following her footsteps! And in this situation, Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) said "We want our men to be like the Sahābiyyāt!!"

— The justice, virtue, bounties and mercy of Allāh in giving women the same reward as men in an action which they are able to do, making it easier for the women to receive rewards.

And Jihād is the greatest voluntary deed by consensus and during many times gets given precedence over other major obligations!

Shaykh al-'Allāmah Siddīq Hassan Khān (رحمه الله) in his book, "Lessons taken from what has been narrated in battles, martyrdom and migration" (page 164) quoted Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) saying:

"Indeed, He (Allāh) after that commanded fighting for them by His statement 'Fighting is prescribed for you', and He emphasised the obligation, and intensified the command of Jihād in all the chapters revealed in Madīnah, and condemned those who abandoned it, and described them with Nifāq (hypocrisy) and a disease in their hearts, and this is found in many places in the Qur'ān.

Likewise, He exalted this action and its people in Sūrat as-Saff, and the command of Jihād and mentioning its virtues in the Qur'ān and Sunnah is too much to be counted. For this reason, it was considered the most virtuous of voluntary acts a person can do, and according to the agreement of the scholars, it's better than Hajj and 'Umrah, to the extent that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

'The head of its matter is Islam and its pillar is the Salah and its highest peak is the Jihad.'

And this is a huge topic, nothing has been narrated concerning the rewards of a deed and its virtue like what has been narrated in Jihād, and this is apparent during observation, for indeed the benefit of Jihād is general for its doer and for other than him in the Dīn and Dunyā, and it consists of all types of outward and inward acts of worship, for indeed it comprises of loving Allāh, having sincerity to Him, and reliance upon Him, and submitting himself and his wealth, having patience, abandoning the dunyā, remembering Allāh and all the other types of deeds, which no other action comprises of, and the one who performs this from an individual or ummah is between two great destinations, either victory and triumph or martyrdom and paradise.”

Yet despite all of its virtues which cannot be found in any other deed, due to Allāh’s justice, love and mercy for the creation, He has given women the same reward by doing another righteous deed.

14 February 2018 07:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Choosing A Husband

• A man asked Hasan bin Ali R.A, “I have a daughter and people have proposed to her, so to whom should I marry her?”

He said, “Marry her to one who fears Allah, for if he loves her, he will honor her, and if he hates her, he will not wrong her.”

[Gems & Jewels, p.171]

13 February 2018 21:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Choosing A Husband

• A man asked Hasan bin Ali R.A, “I have a daughter and people have proposed to her, so to whom should I marry her?”

He said, “Marry her to one who fears Allah, for if he loves her, he will honor her, and if he hates her, he will not wrong her.”

[Gems & Jewels, p.171]

13 February 2018 21:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ahmed Syed Subhanallah .. clear explanation Alhamdulillah. Can you also cite the source (book/video?)

14 February 2018 03:59

Addressing the Rule — “Whoever doesn’t make takfīr upon a kāfir, then he is a kāfir”.

“Alhamdulillah, may peace and blessings be upon the messenger of Allāh, to proceed:

Indeed the Rule “Whosoever does not make Takfir of the kāfir, then he is a kāfir” is a famous, well known principle and it is the 3rd nullifier from the nullifiers of Islām which Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned, as he said:

“The Third: Whoever does not make takfīr upon the mushrikīn, or doubts their kufr, or approves of their madhab, he has disbelieved”.

But this principle is not unrestricted (as it might appear). Rather there is Tafsīl (details attached to it); and those who are heedless of it, fall into Bātil - either by making takfīr upon Muslims, or by not making takfīr upon the original kuffār. So the Tafsīl in this matter is as follows:

Know, firstly, that the basis regarding this principle is not from the direction of association with kufr through actions or statements; Rather, it is from the direction that it amounts to rejection and denial of the texts (of the Qur’ān and Hadīth). So whosoever leaves the kāfir without takfīr, then this is a rejection from him of the clear texts which make takfīr upon him.

So based on this, it is a must for the text which is narrated in the Takfir to be authentic and agreed upon, and it is necessitated that the one who leaves the Takfir is a rejecter of these texts. And the Mukaffirāt are not merely one, and falling into them isn’t at only one level.

And for elucidation upon this matter, it is necessary to differentiate between them, and this is divided into two types:

1) The First Type: The Original Kāfir (Al-Kāfir Al-Aslī).

Like the Jews, Christians, Zoroastrians, and such people. So whosoever does not make Takfir of them, or doubts their kufr, or approves of their madhab - then he is a kāfir according to Ijmā’

(consensus), as several scholars have mentioned. Because in this, there is the rejection of the texts which are narrated regarding the invalidity of the ‘Aqīdah of other than the Muslims, and the kufr of those who are not upon the Dīn of Islām.

2) The Second Type: The Apostate from Islām (Al-Murtadd ‘An Al-Islām). And this is divided into two types:

a) The First: One who openly shows his apostasy, and his shift from Islām to other than it, such as to Judaism, Christianity, Atheism, and such. So his ruling is the same as the previous category of “The Original Kāfir”.

b) The Second: Whosoever perpetrates any nullifier from the nullifiers of Islām, but still claims to be upon Islām and not upon kufr due to this nullifier. And he is of two types:

i) The First: Whosoever commits a clear and unambiguous nullifier which has ljmā’ upon it; for example, cursing Allāh the Most High - then he has disbelieved according to ljmā’. And only two types of people refrain from making Takfir upon this person:

— The First: The people who accept and believe that cursing (Allāh) is kufr, and that this action is kufr. But they refrain from placing the ruling upon a specific individual because of lack of knowledge, or due to a doubt that he has, and so forth.

So such people are mistaken, and their statement is false - but such people have not committed kufr, since they haven’t rejected any text, nor denied them; and they have accepted what was narrated from the texts and the ljmā’ which mention that cursing (Allāh or anything related to the Dīn) is kufr.

— The Second: Those who reject the fact that cursing (Allāh) is kufr; so this one disbelieves after Bayān (being shown it’s Kufr), because it is a rejection of the texts and the ljmā’.

And this is like those who worship graves from those who ascribe themselves to Islām. So whosoever does not accept that this action (of worshipping graves) is kufr - then he disbelieves, because it is a rejection of the texts and the ljmā’. And whoever accepts that this action is kufr, but refrains from his Takfir due to a doubt, then he does not disbelieve (except after the Hujjah is established).

ii) Second Category: Whosoever commits a nullifier which is differed upon - for example Tark As-Salāt (Abandonment of Salāt). Thus the Takfir upon this person (who abandons Salāt) is a matter of dispute. And the one who differs concerning it [i.e. does not declare the one who abandons Salāt to be a kāfir] does not disbelieve, nor are they declared to be upon Bid’ah or Fisq, even though they are mistaken.

This is the summary of what I have been able to prepare regarding this Rule, and may Allāh send salutations upon Muhammad.”

— The Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرہ).

13 February 2018 21:19

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Amjad Ali Khan Jameel

14 February 2018 04:16

Babatunde Yousuph Succint

14 February 2018 18:14

Addressing the Rule — “Whoever doesn’t make takfir upon a kāfir, then he is a kāfir”.

“Alhamdulillah, may peace and blessings be upon the messenger of Allāh, to proceed:

Indeed the Rule “Whosoever does not make Takfir of the kāfir, then he is a kāfir” is a famous, well known principle and it is the 3rd nullifier from the nullifiers of Islām which Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned, as he said:

“The Third: Whoever does not make takfir upon the mushrikīn, or doubts their kufr, or approves of their madhab, he has disbelieved”.

But this principle is not unrestricted (as it might appear). Rather there is Tafsīl (details attached to it); and those who are heedless of it, fall into Bātil - either by making takfir upon Muslims, or by not making takfir upon the original kuffār. So the Tafsīl in this matter is as follows:

Know, firstly, that the basis regarding this principle is not from the direction of association with kufr through actions or statements; Rather, it is from the direction that it amounts to rejection and denial of the texts (of the Qur’ān and Hadīth). So whosoever leaves the kāfir without takfir, then this is a rejection from him of the clear texts which make takfir upon him.

So based on this, it is a must for the text which is narrated in the Takfir to be authentic and agreed upon, and it is necessitated that the one who leaves the Takfir is a rejecter of these texts. And the Mukaffirāt are not merely one, and falling into them isn't at only one level.

And for elucidation upon this matter, it is necessary to differentiate between them, and this is divided into two types:

1) The First Type: The Original Kāfir (Al-Kāfir Al-Aslī).

Like the Jews, Christians, Zoroastrians, and such people. So whosoever does not make Takfir of them, or doubts their kufr, or approves of their madhab - then he is a kāfir according to Ijmā' (consensus), as several scholars have mentioned. Because in this, there is the rejection of the texts which are narrated regarding the invalidity of the 'Aqīdah of other than the Muslims, and the kufr of those who are not upon the Dīn of Islām.

2) The Second Type: The Apostate from Islām (Al-Murtadd 'An Al-Islām). And this is divided into two types:

a) The First: One who openly shows his apostasy, and his shift from Islām to other than it, such as to Judaism, Christianity, Atheism, and such. So his ruling is the same as the previous category of "The Original Kāfir".

b) The Second: Whosoever perpetrates any nullifier from the nullifiers of Islām, but still claims to be upon Islām and not upon kufr due to this nullifier. And he is of two types:

i) The First: Whosoever commits a clear and unambiguous nullifier which has Ijmā' upon it; for example, cursing Allāh the Most High - then he has disbelieved according to Ijmā'. And only two types of people refrain from making Takfir upon this person:

— The First: The people who accept and believe that cursing (Allāh) is kufr, and that this action is kufr. But they refrain from placing the ruling upon a specific individual because of lack of knowledge, or due to a doubt that he has, and so forth.

So such people are mistaken, and their statement is false - but such people have not committed kufr, since they haven't rejected any text, nor denied them; and they have accepted what was narrated from the texts and the Ijmā' which mention that cursing (Allāh or anything related to the Dīn) is kufr.

— The Second: Those who reject the fact that cursing (Allāh) is kufr; so this one disbelieves after Bayān (being shown it's Kufr), because it is a rejection of the texts and the Ijmā'.

And this is like those who worship graves from those who ascribe themselves to Islām. So whosoever does not accept that this action (of worshipping graves) is kufr - then he disbelieves, because it is a rejection of the texts and the Ijmā'. And whoever accepts that this action is kufr, but refrains from his Takfir due to a doubt, then he does not disbelieve (except after the Hujjah is established).

ii) Second Category: Whosoever commits a nullifier which is differed upon - for example Tark As-Salāt (Abandonment of Salāt). Thus the Takfir upon this person (who abandons Salāt) is a matter of dispute. And the one who differs concerning it [i.e. does not declare the one who abandons Salāt to be a kāfir] does not disbelieve, nor are they declared to be upon Bid'ah or Fisq, even though they are mistaken.

This is the summary of what I have been able to prepare regarding this Rule, and may Allāh send salutations upon Muhammad."

— The Imām, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرهم).

13 February 2018 21:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A Scholar & An Ignorant

Mujāhid b. Jabr (one of the Salaf) Raḥimahullāh: "The scholar is whoever fears Allāh even if his knowledge is less and the ignorant one is whoever disobeys Allāh even if his knowledge is abundant."

● [البداية والنهاية ٢٥٥٩]

13 February 2018 18:40

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A Scholar & An Ignorant

Mujāhid b. Jabr (one of the Salaf) Raḥimahullāh: "The scholar is whoever fears Allāh even if his knowledge is less and the ignorant one is whoever disobeys Allāh even if his knowledge is abundant."

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

MUST READ — Kufr bit-Tāghūt according to Ahlus-Sunnah in between the path of the Murji'ah and Khawārij!

Chapter 4: The agreement of all those ascribed to the Qiblah that a person isn't considered a Muslim until he disbelieves in the Tāghūt.

And this fundamental principle - what I mean is stipulating Kufr Bit-Tāghūt to enter into Islām - even the people of innovation from the Murji'ah, Khawārij, Mutakalimeen and other than them agree with us on, but rather dispute and differences occurred in some individuals and specific people, is he included within the general meaning of Jins al-Tāghūt (i.e. the category of the Tāghūt) or excluded from it, so they founded principles upon that, and applied those principles falling into misguidance and innovation, they weren't guided to the correct path of Truth.

Shaykh al-Islām Abū al-'Abbās Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله تعالى) said: "It's known by necessity from the Dīn of the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم), and the ummah has agreed upon it, that the foundation of Islām and the first matter that creation was commanded by was to testify that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh. This is what causes a kāfir to become a muslim, and the enemy becomes an ally, and the one who's blood and wealth is lawful has his blood and wealth protected. Moreover, if he says that truthfully in his heart, then he has entered into Īmān, but if he says it with his tongue without truly believing it, then he is outwardly judged with Islām, without having Īmān inwardly." [Quoted from Taysīr al-'Azīz al-Hamīd page 101].

And An-Nawawī (رحمه الله تعالى) said: "Ahlus-Sunnah from the Muhadditheen and Fuqahā' and Mutakalimeen have unanimously agreed that a believer who is ruled upon as being from the people of the Qiblah and not eternally in hellfire, isn't considered to be one (i.e. a believer) until he certainly believes in the religion of Islām with his heart, free from any doubts." [Sharh Sahīh Muslim, 130].

"Tawhīd: Is to disbelieve in every Tāghūt that the worshippers have worshipped besides Allāh, because Kufr Bit-Tāghūt is the pillar of Tawhīd, so if he hasn't fulfilled this pillar, then he's not a Muwahhid, and Tawhīd is the basis of Īmān which befits all good deeds, and invalidates its opposite." [Fath al-Majīd — Commentary on the chapter of Allāh's statement "Have you not seen those who claim to have believed..."].

"So when the speech was pertaining to clarifying the meaning of Lā ilāha ilā Allāh, indeed Allāh the most High is the one who took authority in clarifying it in several places from the Qur'ān, and the messengers from the first to the last all agreed upon it, as (Allāh) the most High said:

"And We sent not before you any messenger except that We revealed to him that, "There is no deity except Me, so worship Me." [21:25].

He also said, "And We certainly sent into every nation a messenger, [saying], "Worship Allah and avoid Taghut." [16:36].

In fact, all of the Qur'ān clarifies its meaning, as (Allāh) the most High said, "And [mention, O Muhammad], when Ibrāhīm said to his father and his people, Indeed, I am disassociated from that which you worship — Except for He who created me; and indeed, He will guide me." [43:26-27].

The kalimah is Lā ilāha ilā Allāh according to the consensus of the Mufasssīrīn, and returning to it by making Barā'ah from the worship of everyone worshipped besides Allāh, and purifying worship for Him (Allāh), such as the statement by the Imām of the Hunafā' (Ibrāhīm), may peace and blessings be upon him, in this Āyah and it is the meaning of Allāh's statement:

"So whoever disbelieves in Taghut and believes in Allah has grasped the most trustworthy handhold with no break in it. And Allah is Hearing and Knowing." [2:256].

And Allāh's statement, "But those who have avoided Taghut, lest they worship it, and turned back to Allāh." [39:17].

This kalimah is indicative upon making Barā'ah from Shirk and Kufr inclusively and it's indicative upon purifying worship for Allāh the most High with conformity.

Allāh said, "And I did not create the jinn and mankind except to worship Me." [51:56].

This enormous kalimah, is a phrase which has a reality and a meaning intended for its sake via the crystal clear arabic tongue.

And every phrase which has a meaning intended by it due to what it's indicative of, and the Inventor (Allāh) has fashioned the phrases to be indicative of their meanings.

So the phrase is an indicator, and the meaning is what it's intended for, and every word that's used in the arabic language, then the usage is taken into consideration.

And Lā ilāha ilā Allāh is the best of speech and most virtuous, it encompassed the Dīn completely, and it's indicative of it in terms of conformity, inclusivity and in compliance with. And the kalimah of Iklhās (i.e. shahādah) consists of two sentences, "Nafi" (negation) and "Ithbāt" (affirmation).

So the sentence of negation is "Lā ilāha" (there's no deity), so the "Lā" which negates all deities, its predicatw is removed and the word "Haqq" (i.e. there's no deity which has the "right" to be worshipped besides Allāh) is assumed.

And the deities negated by the "negating Lām", what is meant by negating it is to consider it void and make Barā'ah from it, and disbelieve in it and avoid it.

And it is the meaning of disbelieving in the Tawāghūt and idols, and everything that's worshipped besides Allāh, and all of it is false without a doubt, and whoever doesn't believe this is not a muslim.

So what's obligatory via Lā ilāha ilā Allāh is to make Barā'ah from everything that the Mushrikūn worship besides Allāh, so it's necessary to negate all this by making Barā'ah from worshipping it and those who worship it.

So whoever disassociates himself from worshipping it entirely, and rejected it, and disbelieved in it, then he has professed Lā ilāha ilā Allāh, and purified worship for Allāh alone, and he becomes a Muslim believer by this Tawhīd.

And the name "deity" is mabnī (i.e. fixed) on the "Fatha", and it's negated by the "Lām", and an "ilāh" is an Ism Jins (comprehensive name) which includes everything worshipped from humans or rocks or trees or other than that.

So this Jins (general broad label of "deity") with its numerous individuals is negated by "Lā".

Affirming ulūhiyyah to Allāh the most High in a fashion of restriction (from specific deities) is an extraction from the original core affirmation (of ulūhiyyah) to Him (Allāh), infact the linguistic indicative nature of this kalimah (shahādah) is what necessitates doing so is a well-recognised confirmed matter, incontestable without any dispute.

Verily, the early mushrikūn from the pagans of Quraysh and other than them knew its meaning, so they denied uttering it, and whoever said it (i.e. shahādah) while he is committing Shirk with Allāh, he has acknowledged its utterance, but he has denied its meaning while being ignorant of its meaning which everyone knows including the enemies of the messenger who said:

"Have you come to us that we should worship Allah alone." [7:70].

"Has he made the gods [only] one God? Indeed, this is a curious thing." [38:5]."

— This is a brief summary from the speech of Al-'Allāmah 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) in "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah" (11/223 & 297).

For example, the Murji'ah:

At times, they differ with us regarding the ruling on one of the specific individuals being a Tāghūt, such as the one who rules by other than what Allāh has revealed, the one that replaces the Sharī'ah of Allāh, and the caller towards worshipping other than Allāh, and they (i.e. the Murji'ah) do not include him within the Jins al-Tāghūt (the category of the Tāghūt), and they base their proofs upon that with numerous misconceptions, such as ignorance, Ikrāh (compulsion), or stipulating Istihlāl (declaring it to be permissible) or Qasd (intending Kufr), and what's similar to that, and they use some of the words of the Scholars as proof, without taking into consideration the authenticity of the proofs and validity of its meaning (and application), and this is compounded ignorance.

So they are ignorant of the ruling upon this specific individual that ruled by other than what Allāh has revealed in particular, and whether he is included within the general meaning of Jins al-Tāghūt or not, and they are not ignorant of his reality, despite their Īmān and knowledge that disbelief in the general meaning of Jins al-Tāghūt as being a condition for the validity of Islām and a pillar which Īmān cannot be fulfilled without it, furthermore there's a difference between the one who's ignorant about the ruling and the one who's ignorant about the reality.

Another example about the Khawārij:

Such as their classification of some people that he's a Tāghūt, then they arrange on top of that, making Takfīr upon whoever doesn't make Takfīr upon him, because "he didn't disbelieve in the Tāghūt", and there's no doubt that including a person within Islām is just like taking him out from it, it's the exact same thing, because the ruling of Kufr or Islām is a limit from the limits of Allāh, not anyone can make a judgement in it with his mere opinion and whims.

Shaykh 'Abdul-Latīf Ibn 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Āl ash-Shaykh (رحمه الله) said in response to the one who made Takfīr upon the speculative matters (i.e. unrestricted takfīr on 3rd nullifier):

"I have seen in the year 1264H two men from your likes among the Māriqīn (i.e. khawārij) in al-Ahsā', they avoided the Jum'ah and Jamā'ah, and made takfīr upon whoever was residing in the land among the muslims, and their proof was from the same type as your proofs, they say that the people of Ahsā' sit with Ibn Fayrūz and mix with him, while he and his likes are among those whom haven't disbelieved in the Tāghūt, and he didn't proclaim takfīr upon his grandfather who rejected the Da'wah of Shaykh Muhammad (Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb) and he didn't accept it and he was very hostile towards it.

So they arranged on top of these two misguided false introductions...what is arranged upon explicitly clear-cut apostasy from the rulings, and they claimed to be upon the ‘Aqīdah of Shaykh Muhammad (Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb), so I removed their doubts, and I informed them that the Shaykh is free from this creed and madhab [1], and as for making takfīr upon these matters which you speculated were from the mukaffirāt of the people of Islām (falsely claiming muslims don’t make Kufr Bit-Tāghūt), then it is the madhab of the Harūriyyah al-Māriqin (extreme sect among the khawārij).” [Al-Durar al-Saniyyah (1/466)].

And Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Sahnān (رحمه الله) said that making Takfīr upon whoever sits with the grave worshippers and Jahmiyyah whom the Hujjah has been established upon or argues on their behalf is wrong:

“If he was among those who befriend them and sit with them, so their statement to one of them ‘O kāfir’ and ‘O jahmī’ is wrong, for indeed this is not to be said except to a kāfir or jahmī whom the Hujjah has been established upon, and after that displays arrogance and stubbornly opposes the truth.

And whoever befriends them or argues on their behalf after the speech of the scholars have been shown to him concerning making takfīr upon them, and it has been actualised to him that the Hujjah has been conveyed to them, and has been established upon them by the condemnation from the people of Islām upon them, even if they didn’t understand the Hujjah, then he displays arrogance and stubbornly opposes the truth., so if this was done out of ta’wīl (a misinterpretation), then I do not know his situation but his affair is severe and his impending threat is among the most severe of threats, but if it was other than this (without ta’wīl), then we seek refuge in Allāh from misguidance after having guidance.” [Kashf al-Shubhatayn page 45].

~ The Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Ahmad Ibn Humūd al-Khālidī (فك الله أسره).

---

[1] Translator’s Note: Look at how Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Āl ash-Shaykh (رحمه الله) from the great Imāms of Najd called those misguided individuals who made takfīr upon the muslimmeen under the false pretext of “Kufr Bit-Tāghūt” as being from the Harūriyyah Māriqin (extreme sect among the khawārij).

Moreover, he also called them khawārij despite attributing themselves to Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), declaring the Shaykh innocent from their false creed.

This shows the importance of understanding the words of any scholar and collecting everything surrounding the topic, and to give an example for this, Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/192):

“So if you know this, you would realise that a person’s Islām is not upheld, even if he singles out Allāh (in worship) and abandons Shirk, except by having enmity to the mushrikīn, and openly proclaiming animosity and hatred towards them.”

I won’t mention anything from my own words, by rather quote the descendant of Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb. Look at what Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) says about this statement in “Misbāh ath-Thalām” (page 98-99):

“Whoever understands making Takfīr upon whoever doesn’t profess enmity (to the Mushrikīn) from the words of the Shaykh (i.e. Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil Wahhāb), then his understanding is Bātil and his opinion is misguided, since it’s open to multiple meanings.”

He continues to mention a few lines later, “And the Shaykh (i.e. Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb) doesn’t intend by his statement ‘a person’s Islām is not upheld’ that he makes takfīr as this misguided individual understood it as, and as the Khawārij understood it by negating Īmān from someone who abandons a Wājib (obligation), and all praise belongs to Allāh, this matter is clear.”

This is just 1 of many examples, however the deviants are blind to this and choose to follow their desires. Allāh beautifully describes them by saying:

“It is He who has sent down to you, [O Muhammad], the Book; in it are verses [that are] precise - they are the foundation of the Book - and others unspecific. As for those in whose hearts is deviation [from truth], they will follow that of it which is unspecific, seeking discord and seeking an interpretation [suitable to them].” [3:7]

And this is referring to the perfect book of Allāh, so imagine the case with taking unspecific statements from the words of a scholar, which is even open to slips and mistakes!

This is the reality of the modern day khawārij known as the “Hāzimiyyah”. We make complete Barā’ah from the deviant path of the Khawārij which makes Takfīr upon others based upon “Sins” (which may even be Halāl!), and “speculative unclear matters”, and “Lawāzim” (the consequences of one’s statement), and “Tasalsul” (chain Takfīr), hastening and making blank Takfīr upon muslim populations unjustly, including other major principles and traits.

We have a Salaf in attributing the Hāzimiyyah to the Khawārij, as preceded by Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله).

Moreover, several contemporary scholars have attributed the Hāzimiyyah to the Khawārij, such as Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālidī (فك الله أسره) in this chapter, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) in the introduction of this book, including our Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) when they came out making takfīr upon the Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) and the Mujāhideen.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

MUST READ — Kufr bit-Tāghūt according to Ahlus-Sunnah in between the path of the Murji'ah and Khawārij!

Chapter 4: The agreement of all those ascribed to the Qiblah that a person isn't considered a Muslim until he disbelieves in the Tāghūt.

And this fundamental principle - what I mean is stipulating Kufr Bit-Tāghūt to enter into Islām - even the people of innovation from the Murji'ah, Khawārij, Mutakalimeen and other than them agree with us on, but rather dispute and differences occurred in some individuals and specific people, is he included within the general meaning of Jins al-Tāghūt (i.e. the category of the Tāghūt) or excluded from it, so they founded principles upon that, and applied those principles falling into misguidance and innovation, they weren't guided to the correct path of Truth.

Shaykh al-Islām Abū al-'Abbās Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله تعالى) said: “It's known by necessity from the Dīn of the Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم), and the ummah has agreed upon it, that the foundation of Islām and the first matter that creation was commanded by was to testify that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh. This is what causes a kāfir to become a muslim, and the enemy becomes an ally, and the one who's blood and wealth is lawful has his blood and wealth protected. Moreover, if he says that truthfully in his heart, then he has entered into Īmān, but if he says it with his tongue without truly believing it, then he is outwardly judged with Islām, without having Īmān inwardly.” [Quoted from Taysīr al-'Azīz al-Hamīd page 101].

And An-Nawawī (رحمه الله تعالى) said: “Ahlus-Sunnah from the Muhadditheen and Fuqahā' and Mutakalimeen have unanimously agreed that a believer who is ruled upon as being from the people of the Qiblah and not eternally in hellfire, isn't considered to be one (i.e. a believer) until he certainly believes in the religion of Islām with his heart, free from any doubts.” [Sharh Sahīh Muslim, 130].

“Tawhīd: Is to disbelieve in every Tāghūt that the worshippers have worshipped besides Allāh, because Kufr Bit-Tāghūt is the pillar of Tawhīd, so if he hasn't fulfilled this pillar, then he's not a Muwahhid, and Tawhīd is the basis of Īmān which befits all good deeds, and invalidates its opposite.” [Fath al-Majīd — Commentary on the chapter of Allāh's statement “Have you not seen those who claim to have believed...”].

“So when the speech was pertaining to clarifying the meaning of Lā ilāha ilā Allāh, indeed Allāh the most High is the one who took authority in clarifying it in several places from the Qur'ān, and the messengers from the first to the last all agreed upon it, as (Allāh) the most High said:

“And We sent not before you any messenger except that We revealed to him that, “There is no deity except Me, so worship Me.” [21:25].

He also said, “And We certainly sent into every nation a messenger, [saying], “Worship Allah and avoid Taghut.” [16:36].

Infact, all of the Qur'ān clarifies its meaning, as (Allāh) the most High said, “And [mention, O Muhammad], when Ibrāhīm said to his father and his people, Indeed, I am disassociated from that which you worship — Except for He who created me; and indeed, He will guide me.” [43:26-27].

The kalimah is Lā ilāha ilā Allāh according to the consensus of the Mufasssīrīn, and returning to it by making Barā'ah from the worship of everyone worshipped besides Allāh, and purifying worship for Him (Allāh), such as the statement by the Imām of the Hunafā' (Ibrāhīm), may peace and blessings be upon him, in this Āyah and it is the meaning of Allāh's statement:

“So whoever disbelieves in Taghut and believes in Allah has grasped the most trustworthy handhold with no break in it. And Allah is Hearing and Knowing.” [2:256].

And Allāh's statement, “But those who have avoided Taghut, lest they worship it, and turned back to Allāh.” [39:17].

This kalimah is indicative upon making Barā'ah from Shirk and Kufr inclusively and it's indicative upon purifying worship for Allāh the most High with conformity.

Allāh said, “And I did not create the jinn and mankind except to worship Me.” [51:56].

This enormous kalimah, is a phrase which has a reality and a meaning intended for its sake via the crystal clear arabic tongue.

And every phrase which has a meaning intended by it due to what it's indicative of, and the Inventor (Allāh) has fashioned the phrases to be indicative of their meanings.

So the phrase is an indicator, and the meaning is what it's intended for, and every word that's used in the arabic language, then the usage is taken into consideration.

And Lā ilāha ilā Allāh is the best of speech and most virtuous, it encompassed the Dīn completely, and it's indicative of it in terms of conformity, inclusivity and in compliance with. And the kalimah of ikh-lās (i.e. shahādah) consists of two sentences, “Nafī” (negation) and “Ithbāt” (affirmation).

So the sentence of negation is “Lā ilāha” (there’s no deity), so the “Lā” which negates all deities, its predicate is removed and the word “Haqq” (i.e. there’s no deity which has the “right” to be worshipped besides Allāh) is assumed.

And the deities negated by the “negating Lām”, what is meant by negating it is to consider it void and make Barā’ah from it, and disbelieve in it and avoid it.

And it is the meaning of disbelieving in the Tawāghūt and idols, and everything that’s worshipped besides Allāh, and all of it is false without a doubt, and whoever doesn’t believe this is not a muslim.

So what’s obligatory via Lā ilāha ilā Allāh is to make Barā’ah from everything that the Mushrikūn worship besides Allāh, so it’s necessary to negate all this by making Barā’ah from worshipping it and those who worship it.

So whoever disassociates himself from worshipping it entirely, and rejected it, and disbelieved in it, then he has professed Lā ilāha ilā Allāh, and purified worship for Allāh alone, and he becomes a Muslim believer by this Tawhīd.

And the name “deity” is mabnī (i.e. fixed) on the “Fatha”, and it’s negated by the “Lām”, and an “ilāh” is an Ism Jins (comprehensive name) which includes everything worshipped from humans or rocks or trees or other than that.

So this Jins (general broad label of “deity”) with its numerous individuals is negated by “Lā”.

Affirming ulūhiyyah to Allāh the most High in a fashion of restriction (from specific deities) is an extraction from the original core affirmation (of ulūhiyyah) to Him (Allāh), infact the linguistic indicative nature of this kalimah (shahādah) is what necessitates doing so is a well-recognised confirmed matter, incontestable without any dispute.

Verily, the early mushrikūn from the pagans of Quraysh and other than them knew its meaning, so they denied uttering it, and whoever said it (i.e. shahādah) while he is committing Shirk with Allāh, he has acknowledged its utterance, but he has denied its meaning while being ignorant of its meaning which everyone knows including the enemies of the messenger who said:

“Have you come to us that we should worship Allah alone.” [7:70].

“Has he made the gods [only] one God? Indeed, this is a curious thing.” [38:5].”

— This is a brief summary from the speech of Al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan (رحمه الله) in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (11/223 & 297).

For example, the Murji’ah:

At times, they differ with us regarding the ruling on one of the specific individuals being a Tāghūt, such as the one who rules by other than what Allāh has revealed, the one that replaces the Sharī’ah of Allāh, and the caller towards worshipping other than Allāh, and they (i.e. the Murji’ah) do not include him within the Jins al-Tāghūt (the category of the Tāghūt), and they base their proofs upon that with numerous misconceptions, such as ignorance, Ikrāh (compulsion), or stipulating Istihlāl (declaring it to be permissible) or Qasd (intending Kufr), and what’s similar to that, and they use some of the words of the Scholars as proof, without taking into consideration the authenticity of the proofs and validity of its meaning (and application), and this is compounded ignorance.

So they are ignorant of the ruling upon this specific individual that ruled by other than what Allāh has revealed in particular, and whether he is included within the general meaning of Jins al-Tāghūt or not, and they are not ignorant of his reality, despite their Īmān and knowledge that disbelief in the general meaning of Jins al-Tāghūt as being a condition for the validity of Islām and a pillar which Īmān cannot be fulfilled without it, furthermore there’s a difference between the one who’s ignorant about the ruling and the one who’s ignorant about the reality.

Another example about the Khawārij:

Such as their classification of some people that he’s a Tāghūt, then they arrange on top of that, making Takfīr upon whoever doesn’t make Takfīr upon him, because “he didn’t disbelieve in the Tāghūt”, and there’s no doubt that including a person within Islām is just like taking him out from it, it’s the exact same thing, because the ruling of Kufr or Islām is a limit from the limits of Allāh, not anyone can make a judgement in it with his mere opinion and whims.

Shaykh ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Āl ash-Shaykh (رحمه الله) said in response to the one who made Takfīr upon the speculative matters (i.e. unrestricted takfīr on 3rd nullifier):

“I have seen in the year 1264H two men from your likes among the Māriqīn (i.e. khawārij) in al-Ahsā’, they avoided the Jum’ah and Jamā’ah, and made takfīr upon whoever was residing in the land among the muslims, and their proof was from the same type as your proofs, they say that the people of Ahsā’ sit with Ibn Fayrūz and mix with him, while he and his likes are among those whom haven’t disbelieved in the Tāghūt, and he didn’t proclaim takfīr upon his grandfather who rejected the Da’wah of Shaykh Muhammad (Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb) and he didn’t accept it and he was very hostile towards it.

So they arranged on top of these two misguided false introductions...what is arranged upon explicitly clear-cut apostasy from the rulings, and they claimed to be upon the ‘Aqidah of Shaykh Muhammad (Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb), so I removed their doubts, and I informed them that the Shaykh is free from this creed and madhab [1], and as for making takfīr upon these matters which you speculated were from the mukaffirāt of the people of Islām (falsely claiming muslims don’t make Kufr Bit-Tāghūt), then it is the madhab of the Harūriyyah al-Māriqīn (extreme sect among the khawārij).” [Al-Durar al-Saniyyah (1/466)].

And Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Sahnān (رحمه الله) said that making Takfīr upon whoever sits with the grave worshippers and Jahmiyyah whom the Hujjah has been established upon or argues on their behalf is wrong:

“If he was among those who befriend them and sit with them, so their statement to one of them ‘O kāfir’ and ‘O jahmī’ is wrong, for indeed this is not to be said except to a kāfir or jahmī whom the Hujjah has been established upon, and after that displays arrogance and stubbornly opposes the truth.

And whoever befriends them or argues on their behalf after the speech of the scholars have been shown to him concerning making takfīr upon them, and it has been actualised to him that the Hujjah has been conveyed to them, and has been established upon them by the condemnation from the people of Islām upon them, even if they didn’t understand the Hujjah, then he displays arrogance and stubbornly opposes the truth., so if this was done out of ta’wīl (a misinterpretation), then I do not know his situation but his affair is severe and his impending threat is among the most severe of threats, but if it was other than this (without ta’wīl), then we seek refuge in Allāh from misguidance after having guidance.” [Kashf al-Shubhatayn page 45].

~ The Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Ahmad Ibn Humūd al-Khālidi (فك الله أسره).

[1] Translator’s Note: Look at how Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Āl ash-Shaykh (رحمه الله) from the great Imāms of Najd called those misguided individuals who made takfīr upon the muslims under the false pretext of “Kufr Bit-Tāghūt” as being from the Harūriyyah Māriqīn (extreme sect among the khawārij).

Moreover, he also called them khawārij despite attributing themselves to Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), declaring the Shaykh innocent from their false creed.

This shows the importance of understanding the words of any scholar and collecting everything surrounding the topic, and to give an example for this, Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (8/192):

“So if you know this, you would realise that a person’s Islām is not upheld, even if he singles out Allāh (in worship) and abandons Shirk, except by having enmity to the mushrikīn, and openly proclaiming animosity and hatred towards them.”

I won’t mention anything from my own words, by rather quote the descendant of Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb. Look at what Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) says about this statement in “Misbāh ath-Thalām” (page 98-99):

“Whoever understands making Takfīr upon whoever doesn’t profess enmity (to the Mushrikīn) from the words of the Shaykh (i.e. Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil Wahhāb), then his understanding is Bātil and his opinion is misguided, since it’s open to multiple meanings.”

He continues to mention a few lines later, “And the Shaykh (i.e. Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb) doesn’t intend by his statement ‘a person’s Islām is not upheld’ that he makes takfīr as this misguided individual understood it as, and as the Khawārij understood it by negating Imān from someone who abandons a Wājib (obligation), and all praise belongs to Allāh, this matter is clear.”

This is just 1 of many examples, however the deviants are blind to this and choose to follow their desires. Allāh beautifully describes them by saying:

“It is He who has sent down to you, [O Muhammad], the Book; in it are verses [that are] precise - they are the foundation of the Book - and others unspecific. As for those in whose hearts is deviation [from truth], they will follow that of it which is unspecific, seeking discord and seeking an interpretation [suitable to them].” [3:7]

And this is referring to the perfect book of Allāh, so imagine the case with taking unspecific statements from the words of a scholar, which is even open to slips and mistakes!

This is the reality of the modern day khawārij known as the “Hāzimiyyah”. We make complete Barā’ah from the deviant path of the Khawārij which makes Takfīr upon others based upon “Sins” (which may even be Halāl!), and “speculative unclear matters”, and “Lawāzim” (the consequences of one’s statement), and “Tasalsul” (chain Takfīr), hastening and making blank Takfīr upon muslim populations unjustly, including other major principles and traits.

We have a Salaf in attributing the Hāzimiyyah to the Khawārij, as preceded by Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Hassan Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله).

Moreover, several contemporary scholars have attributed the Hāzimiyyah to the Khawārij, such as Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālidi (فك الله أسره) in this chapter, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) in the introduction of this book, including our Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) when they came out making takfīr upon the Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) and the Mujāhideen.

May Allāh repel their harm and evil from the ummah, Āmīn!

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) wrote the following introduction to the Imām, Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī’s book “Al-Īdāh wat-Tabyīn”:

“Bismillāhi Ar-Rahmān Ar-Rahīm, all praise belongs to Allāh, may the peace and blessings be upon the messenger of Allāh, and those who support him, to proceed:

I have looked at what the noble Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī, may Allāh preserve him, has written in his book entitled:

“The clarification and enlightenment upon the ruling on whoever doubts or hesitates on the disbelief of some Tawāghīṭ and Murtaddīn”.

And this book is part of a series of effort that his nobleness (Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī) has taken up in clarifying matters related to Tawhīd and spreading it for the ummah, and calling towards it, whilst being a core defender in clarifying it, and he has previously authored books and essays in Tawhīd and in the topic of Al-Ulūhiyyah, and what is connected to that, so may Allāh reward him with good.

So in this book, may Allāh preserve him for that, he displayed and clarified the differentiation between excuse of ignorance and disbelieving in the general category of the Tāghūt and being ignorant of some of its types and specific individuals.

And it’s a very important topic of crucial importance, which relates to the issue of Kufr Bit-Tāghūt which is from the greatest pillars of kalimat at-Tawhīd (i.e. shahādah), which in our times alot of ignorance, confusion and mixing up has occurred.

And he spoke about the misguidance of the Murji’ah and Khawārij concerning this foundation, and he displayed the Madhab of the Salaf concerning that, and also clarified what has occurred from confusion within the Rule:

“Whoever doesn’t make takfīr upon the mushrikīn is a kāfir”.

For indeed, he has elaborated on it, displayed and clarified (the truth), may Allāh reward him with good.

He also displayed what relates to the Tawāghīṭ who ascribe to Islām, whose affairs have become obscure to many people in particular, while they outwardly portray many symbols of the Dīn, so some people didn’t make takfīr upon them, or refrained, or doubted, so he (Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī) clarified what relates to the issue of making takfīr upon the Tawāghīṭ Murtaddīn, and the three principles concerning that.

And this final matter, I consider it from the most important matters of this book, which I urge the muslims, in particular the youth to read and examine carefully, to benefit from it and know it well.

And that is a virtue which Allāh gives to whomever He wishes, and fear Allāh so that He may teach you.

“And those who strive for Us - We will surely guide them to Our ways.” [29:69].

May peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions.”

Written by ‘Alī Ibn Khudayr al-Khudayr.

13 February 2018 11:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) wrote the following introduction to the Imām, Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī’s book “Al-Īdāh wat-Tabyīn”:

“Bismillāhi Ar-Rahmān Ar-Rahīm, all praise belongs to Allāh, may the peace and blessings be upon the messenger of Allāh, and those who support him, to proceed:

I have looked at what the noble Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī, may Allāh preserve him, has written in his book entitled:

“The clarification and enlightenment upon the ruling on whoever doubts or hesitates on the disbelief of some Tawāghīṭ and Murtaddīn”.

And this book is part of a series of effort that his nobleness (Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālīdī) has taken up in clarifying matters related to Tawhīd and spreading it for the ummah, and calling towards it, whilst being a core defender in clarifying it, and he has previously authored books and essays in Tawhīd and in the topic of Al-Ulūhiyyah, and what is connected to that, so may Allāh reward him with good.

So in this book, may Allāh preserve him for that, he displayed and clarified the differentiation between excuse of ignorance and disbelieving in the general category of the Tāghūt and being ignorant of some of its types and specific individuals.

And it's a very important topic of crucial importance, which relates to the issue of Kufr Bit-Tāghūt which is from the greatest pillars of kalimat at-Tawhīd (i.e. shahādah), which in our times alot of ignorance, confusion and mixing up has occurred.

And he spoke about the misguidance of the Murji'ah and Khawārij concerning this foundation, and he displayed the Madhab of the Salaf concerning that, and also clarified what has occurred from confusion within the Rule:

“Whoever doesn't make takfīr upon the mushrikīn is a kāfir”.

For indeed, he has elaborated on it, displayed and clarified (the truth), may Allāh reward him with good.

He also displayed what relates to the Tawāghūt who ascribe to Islām, whose affairs have become obscure to many people in particular, while they outwardly portray many symbols of the Dīn, so some people didn't make takfīr upon them, or refrained, or doubted, so he (Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālidi) clarified what relates to the issue of making takfīr upon the Tawāghūt Murtaddīn, and the three principles concerning that.

And this final matter, I consider it from the most important matters of this book, which I urge the muslims, in particular the youth to read and examine carefully, to benefit from it and know it well.

And that is a virtue which Allāh gives to whomever He wishes, and fear Allāh so that He may teach you.

“And those who strive for Us - We will surely guide them to Our ways.” [29:69].

May peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions.”

Written by ‘Alī Ibn Khudayr al-Khudayr.

13 February 2018 11:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in ARABIC 101.

Warning to all lebanese people who choose to visit Egypt one day!! Do not ever say the following two words over there, one lebanese brother almost got bashed badly for doing so:

1. “Yā Marā” (O woman).
2. “Hal Tarawa'tī” (Did you have breakfast?).

These words have a completely different meaning over there, and I won't mention what they mean!

12 February 2018 09:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Warning to all lebanese people who choose to visit Egypt one day!! Do not ever say the following two words over there, one lebanese brother almost got bashed badly for doing so:

1. “Yā Marā” (O woman).
2. “Hal Tarawa'tī” (Did you have breakfast?).

These words have a completely different meaning over there, and I won't mention what they mean!

12 February 2018 09:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Warning to all lebanese people who choose to visit Egypt one day!! Do not ever say the following two words over there, one lebanese brother almost got bashed badly for doing so:

1. “Yā Marā” (O woman).
2. “Hal Tarawa'tī” (Did you have breakfast?).

These words have a completely different meaning over there, and I won't mention what they mean!

12 February 2018 09:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

:(wrote in “Rawdat al-‘Uqalā” (page 100 (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn Hibbān

”.Befriending evil people causes bad assumptions about good people”

12 February 2018 06:57

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Abu Raihan Al-ifriki This deserves to be written in golden ink
12 February 2018 07:03

Najmus Sakib Subhanallaah ! So true ! <3
12 February 2018 07:09

:(wrote in “Rawdat al-‘Uqalā” (page 100 (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn Hibbān

”.Befriending evil people causes bad assumptions about good people”

12 February 2018 06:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Jāmi’ al-‘Ulūm wal-Hikam” (page 427):

”As for Istighfār from sins, it is to seek forgiveness (from Allāh), and the slave (of Allāh) needs it the most, since he sins in the day and night.”

11 February 2018 08:40

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab al-Hanbalī (رحمه الله) mentioned in “Jāmi’ al-‘Ulūm wal-Hikam” (page 427):

”As for Istighfār from sins, it is to seek forgiveness (from Allāh), and the slave (of Allāh) needs it the most, since he sins in the day and night.”

11 February 2018 08:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Urgent Help Needed

A sister is in desperate need of help and is relying on the Ummah to help her out.

Her husband is in prison and she is taking care of her three children with no support. The sister also suffers from a chronic illness which makes it even more difficult for her.

She is constantly worrying about money as she has to pay off rent and bills. Due to her tough financial situation, she is now in £6500 debt of rent arrears. The court has said, if she is able to pay the landlord £4500 by 14th of Feb, she won't lose her house.

If she doesn't pay the amount by the date then she will definitely lose her house and her and her three children will have no where to go.

Alhamdulillah, some money was given to her by another organisation (Muslims Behind bars) so she now only needs £2300 to pay off before 14th of Feb. she needs another £3000 more to finish of the rest of her debt which makes it a total of £5300

There is ONLY FOUR days to raise this amount so please, please brothers and sisters, put yourself in this sisters' shoes. Imagine how stressed she must be feeling with the thought of losing her home which will leave her family homeless.

Donate every little bit you can and spread the word for the sake of Allāh. She is our Muslim sister and we have to come together to help her out.

<https://www.gofundme.com/muslims-behind-bars>

10 February 2018 18:06

Radwan Dakkak shared Abû Khadijah's post.

Urgent Help Needed

A sister is in desperate need of help and is relying on the Ummah to help her out.

Her husband is in prison and she is taking care of her three children with no support. The sister also suffers from a chronic illness which makes it even more difficult for her.

She is constantly worrying about money as she has to pay off rent and bills. Due to her tough financial situation, she is now in £6500 debt of rent arrears. The court has said, if she is able to pay the landlord £4500 by 14th of Feb, she won't lose her house.

If she doesn't pay the amount by the date then she will definitely lose her house and her and her three children will have no where to go.

Alhamdulillah, some money was given to her by another organisation (Muslims Behind bars) so she now only needs £2300 to pay off before 14th of Feb. she needs another £3000 more to finish of the rest of her debt which makes it a total of £5300

There is ONLY FOUR days to raise this amount so please, please brothers and sisters, put yourself in this sisters' shoes. Imagine how stressed she must be feeling with the thought of losing her home which will leave her family homeless.

Donate every little bit you can and spread the word for the sake of Allāh. She is our Muslim sister and we have to come together to help her out.

<https://www.gofundme.com/muslims-behind-bars>

10 February 2018 18:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I need a break from Da'wah.
Inshā'Allāh I'll be back when Allāh decides...

9 February 2018 13:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I need a break from Da'wah.
Inshā'Allāh I'll be back when Allāh decides...

9 February 2018 13:19

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

You should ONLY speak kind and gentle words to someone at ALL times, not because of what they may have been through, but because this is the sunnah of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم.

9 February 2018 13:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

You should ONLY speak kind and gentle words to someone at ALL times, not because of what they may have been through, but because this is the sunnah of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم.

9 February 2018 13:11

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Very few people think about the feelings of others, even if they may be their own most deeply beloved brothers and sisters — Wallāhi it's so true that Innocent hearts always end up being hurt the most and all the time ☹

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Very few people think about the feelings of others, even if they may be their own most deeply beloved brothers and sisters — Wallāhi it's so true that Innocent hearts always end up being hurt the most and all the time ☹

8 February 2018 18:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) said:

Indeed, what has become prevalent and severe, circulated and widespread, along with the leniency among many human beings concerning it is an enormous matter, in which the scholars of the ummah have remained warning against it and its danger in the past and present, and it is, “Speaking about Allāh without knowledge”.

Allāh the Most High and Exalted has forbidden speaking about Him without knowledge pertaining to Fatāwā and judgements, and He considered it to be among the most severe of forbidden matters, infact He considered it to be the highest level of prohibition, Allāh the Exalted says:

“Say (O Muhammad): ‘(But) indeed the things that my Lord has forbidden are al-Fawāhish (immoral lewd acts) whether committed openly or secretly, al-lthm (evil sins of all kinds) and al-Baghi (oppression), joining partners (in worship) with Allāh for which He has sent down no authority for, and that you speak about Allah that which you have no knowledge of.” [7:33].

The eminent scholar and Imām, Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) says while commenting upon this Āyah:

“So He arranged the Muharramāt in four levels, and He began with the least of them, and it is al-Fawāhish (immoral lewd acts) then secondly He followed with what is more severe than it in prohibition and it is al-lthm (evil sins of all kinds) and ath-Thulm (oppression), then mentioned thirdly what is greater than them in prohibition and it is committing shirk with Him. Then He followed fourthly with what is more severe in prohibition than all of that, and it is speaking about Him without knowledge. And this is general to speaking about Him without knowledge in His Asmā’ was-Sifāt (Beautiful Names and Perfect Attributes) and His Af’āl (Actions), His Dīn, and His Shar’ (legislation) ...” [“Ilām al-Muwaqqi’in” (1/38)].

But if someone says, how does speaking about Allāh cause a more severe harm than ascribing partners to Him, may He be Glorified and Exalted? This may be answered according to the following:

1 — That the foundation for all misguidance in the world and the emergence of Shirk is speaking about Allāh without knowledge.

2 — The harm of Shirk could only fall upon a mushrik on his own without exceeding to anyone else, as long as he wasn’t a caller towards his shirk, but as for the harm caused by speaking about Allāh without knowledge, then it does transgress to others.

3 — That speaking about Allāh without knowledge is slander against Allāh and inventing lies upon Him, and establishing a religion other than His Dīn, along with exterminating the path of His symbols.

So due to all these reasons, this matter has been strictly emphasised in numerous Āyāt in the book of Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic:

Allāh, the Exalted says, “And do not say about what your tongues assert of untruth, “This is lawful and this is unlawful,” to invent falsehood about Allah . Indeed, those who invent falsehood about Allah will not succeed.” [16:116].

Allāh, may He be Glorified says, “Those will have lost who killed their children in foolishness without knowledge and prohibited what Allah had provided for them, inventing untruth about Allah . They have gone astray and were not [rightly] guided.” [6:140].

Allāh, may He be Glorified says, “Say, “Have you seen what Allah has sent down to you of provision of which you have made [some] lawful and [some] unlawful?” Say, “Has Allah permitted you [to do so], or do you invent [something] about Allah ?”” [10:59].

What also supports this, is what has been narrated in the Sahīhayn from the Hadīth of ‘Abdillāh Ibn ‘Amr (رضي الله عنه), that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

“Verily, Allah does not take away knowledge by snatching it from the people, but He takes it away by taking away (the lives of) the religious scholars till none of the scholars stays alive. Then the people will take ignorant ones as their leaders, who, when asked to deliver religious verdicts, will issue them without knowledge, the result being that they will go astray and will lead others astray.” [Agreed Upon].

— Taken from the lecture “The dangers of speaking about Allāh without knowledge”.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The noble Imām and Mujāhid, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) said:

Indeed, what has become prevalent and severe, circulated and widespread, along with the leniency among many human beings concerning it is an enormous matter, in which the scholars of the ummah have remained warning against it and its danger in the past and present, and it is, “Speaking about Allāh without knowledge”.

Allāh the Most High and Exalted has forbidden speaking about Him without knowledge pertaining to Fatawā and judgements, and He considered it to be among the most severe of forbidden matters, infact He considered it to be the highest level of prohibition, Allāh the Exalted says:

“Say (O Muhammad): ‘(But) indeed the things that my Lord has forbidden are al-Fawāhish (immoral lewd acts) whether committed openly or secretly, al-lthm (evil sins of all kinds) and al-Baghī (oppression), joining partners (in worship) with Allāh for which He has sent down no authority for, and that you speak about Allah that which you have no knowledge of.” [7:33].

The eminent scholar and Imām, Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) says while commenting upon this Āyah:

“So He arranged the Muharramāt in four levels, and He began with the least of them, and it is al-Fawāhish (immoral lewd acts) then secondly He followed with what is more severe than it in prohibition and it is al-lthm (evil sins of all kinds) and ath-Thulm (oppression), then mentioned thirdly what is greater than them in prohibition and it is committing shirk with Him. Then He followed fourthly with what is more severe in prohibition than all of that, and it is speaking about Him without knowledge. And this is general to speaking about Him without knowledge in His Asmā’ was-Sifāt (Beautiful Names and Perfect Attributes) and His Af’āl (Actions), His Dīn, and His Shar’ (legislation) ...” [‘Ilām al-Muwaqqi’in” (1/38)].

But if someone says, how does speaking about Allāh cause a more severe harm than ascribing partners to Him, may He be Glorified and Exalted? This may be answered according to the following:

1 — That the foundation for all misguidance in the world and the emergence of Shirk is speaking about Allāh without knowledge.

2 — The harm of Shirk could only fall upon a mushrik on his own without exceeding to anyone else, as long as he wasn’t a caller towards his shirk, but as for the harm caused by speaking about Allāh without knowledge, then it does transgress to others.

3 — That speaking about Allāh without knowledge is slander against Allāh and inventing lies upon Him, and establishing a religion other than His Dīn, along with exterminating the path of His symbols.

So due to all these reasons, this matter has been strictly emphasised in numerous Āyāt in the book of Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic:

Allāh, the Exalted says, “And do not say about what your tongues assert of untruth, “This is lawful and this is unlawful,” to invent falsehood about Allah . Indeed, those who invent falsehood about Allah will not succeed.” [16:116].

Allāh, may He be Glorified says, “Those will have lost who killed their children in foolishness without knowledge and prohibited what Allah had provided for them, inventing untruth about Allah . They have gone astray and were not [rightly] guided.” [6:140].

Allāh, may He be Glorified says, “Say, “Have you seen what Allah has sent down to you of provision of which you have made [some] lawful and [some] unlawful?” Say, “Has Allah permitted you [to do so], or do you invent [something] about Allah ?”” [10:59].

What also supports this, is what has been narrated in the Sahīhayn from the Hadīth of ‘Abdillāh Ibn ‘Amr (رضي الله عنه), that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

“Verily, Allah does not take away knowledge by snatching it from the people, but He takes it away by taking away (the lives of) the religious scholars till none of the scholars stays alive. Then the people will take ignorant ones as their leaders, who, when asked to deliver religious verdicts, will issue them without knowledge, the result being that they will go astray and will lead others astray.” [Agreed Upon].

— Taken from the lecture “The dangers of speaking about Allāh without knowledge”.

8 February 2018 16:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I know the kuffār very well, but let me tell you that no one hates Islām more than those who firmly leave Islām. By Allāh, these Murtaddīn would become so crazy in just meeting another muslim, their Barā’ah from Islām and its people comes before everything else in their life.

— This makes you truly understand the hukm of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم upon the apostate.

8 February 2018 14:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I know the kuffār very well, but let me tell you that no one hates Islām more than those who firmly leave Islām. By Allāh, these Murtaddīn would become so crazy in just meeting another muslim, their Barā'ah from Islām and its people comes before everything else in their life.

— This makes you truly understand the hukm of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم upon the apostate.

8 February 2018 14:31

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Quiz: Why did Allah consider speaking without knowledge worse than Shirk?

8 February 2018 10:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Quiz: Why did Allah consider speaking without knowledge worse than Shirk?

8 February 2018 10:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Wallāhi, we are in much need of Akhlāq”

— The Shaheed, Imām Anwar al-‘Awlaqī (تقبله الله).

8 February 2018 06:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Wallāhi, we are in much need of Akhlāq”

— The Shaheed, Imām Anwar al-‘Awlaqī (تقبله الله).

8 February 2018 06:21

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abu Raihan Al-ifriki I will like the arabic version

8 February 2018 06:36

Radwan Dakkak الوجازة في شرح الأصول الثلاثة

<https://archive.org/download/SK.Ali.al.Khadir/12.pdf> There's a much better laid out version, around 150+ pages — But i think this should be alright to read.

8 February 2018 06:37

Abu Raihan Al-ifriki Jazaka'llahu khayran

8 February 2018 06:40

Fayez Kanaan Do you have the english

8 February 2018 06:45

Muhammad Sauvlat English akhi Radwan Dakkak

8 February 2018 12:53

Radwan Dakkak Sorry, me no english.

8 February 2018 17:33

Fayez Kanaan Lmaooo how did it manage to get translated to german and not english

8 February 2018 17:50

Radwan Dakkak Lol, you think I can translate into german, leh? 😊 Nah, it was translated by some german brothers I know, may Allāh reward them for this great piece of work 😊

8 February 2018 17:58

Fayez Kanaan So its not in english yet? Spewing man

8 February 2018 18:06

Fayez Kanaan Im doing a sharh on this now and it wouldve helped. Im using ibn uthaymeens shar7 atm

8 February 2018 18:07

Radwan Dakkak It's being translated into english atm, but Inshā'Allāh we'll see what happens, there's so much to share akhī...

8 February 2018 18:08

Muhammad Sauvlat Jaxakallah khair

8 February 2018 20:51

“Al-Wajāzah Fī Sharh al-Usūl ath-Thalātha” (289 pages) by the Imām, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) is completely translated into german 📄

Download link — https://drive.google.com/file/d/1hhVg\_vBye5ZdA-84Ox7ahz5xCVhXfAs8/view?usp=drivesdk

8 February 2018 05:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak I provided the link on my post.

8 February 2018 06:10

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak “Al-Wajāzah Fī Sharh al-Usūl ath-Thalātha” (289 pages) by the Imām, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) is completely translated into german 📄 Download link — https://drive.google.com/file/d/1hhVg\_vBye5ZdA-84Ox7ahz5xCVhXfAs8/view?usp=drivesdk

8 February 2018 06:11

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak الوجازة في شرح الأصول الثلاثة

<https://archive.org/download/SK.Ali.al.Khadir/12.pdf> There's a much better laid out version, around 150+ pages — But i think this should be alright to read.

8 February 2018 06:15

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Gabi Deva Danke 😊

8 February 2018 11:25

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Aysha Al-Turkmani Radwan Dakkak habibie I know wallahu a'alam I have this in Arabic somewhere in my eternal drive. But not within my reach. U got the Arabic version for this??

8 February 2018 17:21

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Scroll up some comments. الوجازة في شرح الأصول الثلاثة

<https://archive.org/download/SK.Ali.al.Khadir/12.pdf> There's a much better laid out version, around 150+ pages — But i think this should be alright to read.

8 February 2018 17:25

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Aysha Al-Turkmani بارك الله فيك يا حبيبي

8 February 2018 17:27

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Aysha Al-Turkmani But that's only 81 pages

8 February 2018 17:27

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak I know 😊 “That is what I just said!” 😊

8 February 2018 17:28

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Aysha Al-Turkmani Do u have the 150pages one??

8 February 2018 17:30

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Aysha Al-Turkmani Incase there are اضافات in it
8 February 2018 17:30

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Not on my iPad, only on laptop — Pretty sure It's exactly the same, just the text size is different. If you really want the other file, i'll send u it a bit later.
8 February 2018 17:32

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Aysha Al-Turkmani Ok habibi جزاك الله خيرا ☺☺♥☞
8 February 2018 17:35

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak وإياكم ☺
8 February 2018 17:36

“Al-Wajāzah Fī Sharh al-Usūl ath-Thalātha” (289 pages) by the Imām, Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) is completely translated into german 📖

Download link — https://drive.google.com/file/d/1hhVg\_vBye5ZdA-84Ox7ahz5xCVhXfAs8/view?usp=drivesdk

8 February 2018 05:52

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allāh make us among those who instantly ignite other brother's and sister's Īmān

“My Ēmān would get weak, like Ibn al-Qayyim said, he said about his teacher Ibn Taymiyyah, he said: "When we feel down, we would go to our Shaykh Ibn Taymiyyah - they feel down, they go to Shaykh Ibn Taymiyyah - he said within moments his words would re ignite our Ēmān"

And that's what I have seen from my father, a smile that never leaves his blessed face, may Allāh grant him a long life full of deeds, except in the dark nights when he would cry and weep for Allāh's mercy and forgiveness in Sujūd and Salāh.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

8 February 2018 05:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allāh make us among those who instantly ignite other brother's and sister's Īmān

“My Ēmān would get weak, like Ibn al-Qayyim said, he said about his teacher Ibn Taymiyyah, he said: "When we feel down, we would go to our Shaykh Ibn Taymiyyah - they feel down, they go to Shaykh Ibn Taymiyyah - he said within moments his words would re ignite our Ēmān"

And that's what I have seen from my father, a smile that never leaves his blessed face, may Allāh grant him a long life full of deeds, except in the dark nights when he would cry and weep for Allāh's mercy and forgiveness in Sujūd and Salāh.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

8 February 2018 05:45

Radwan Dakkak added 10 new photos.

□ □ □ □ □

□ □ □ □ □

Took my brother to Forster, and the lake was beautiful — We were like the only muslims in town, but everyone was so chill and laid back.

The people over here are friendly, even when some people called out to us, I told them “We are muslims, whatcha think about that”, and they were like that’s awesome, we started getting compliments lol...

I love chilling near the water, Māshā’Allāh

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

*** SOME ADVICE TO SOME OF US WHO MAY FEEL PROUD ***

Hasan Basri advised some of his students admonishing them about avoiding the state of being proud. He said;

1) Do not deceive yourself into being too proud because you are in a good or righteous environment, for there is no place that is better than Paradise, and our father, Adam (as), experienced there what is known to all.

2) Do not become proud merely because you worship often, for consider what happened to Iblees (Satan) after he spent a great deal of time worshipping.

3) Do not think yourself great because you have met with righteous people, for there is no man more righteous than the Prophet (saw), yet the disbelievers and hypocrites did not benefit by simply knowing him.

~

[Taken from "Gems And Jewels", P. 182]

6 February 2018 21:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

This is the Tawhīd of the Shī'a Rāfidah for those who don't know.

6 February 2018 20:09

Radwan Dakkak shared Sheikh Ahmed Deedat's video.

---

This is the Tawhīd of the Shī'a Rāfidah for those who don't know.

6 February 2018 20:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Some of the most awkward moments is knowing someone upon a Kufr creed, such as believing Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) knows the unseen along with so much shirk, and even after making takfīr upon him, he wants to come close to you, while he knows not to give salāms, subhānAllāh.

There was 1 brelvi mushrik who was reading Qur'ān, and he came across the word رِضْوَان (Ridwān — i.e. Pleasure), so when he saw me, he was like this Āyah reminded me of you, and showed me it 😊

I was like, subhānAllāh this person is very humble and sincere, he wants the Haqq but it's the culture he's blind-following which keeps him upon shirk. May Allāh guide these sincere blind followers to Islām.

6 February 2018 11:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Some of the most awkward moments is knowing someone upon a Kufr creed, such as believing Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) knows the unseen along with so much shirk, and even after making takfīr upon him, he wants to come close to you, while he knows not to give salāms, subhānAllāh.

There was 1 brelvi mushrik who was reading Qur'ān, and he came across the word رِضْوَان (Ridwān — i.e. Pleasure), so when he saw me, he was like this Āyah reminded me of you, and showed me it 😊

I was like, subhānAllāh this person is very humble and sincere, he wants the Haqq but it's the culture he's blind-following which keeps him upon shirk. May Allāh guide these sincere blind followers to Islām.

6 February 2018 11:11

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

May Allāh be pleased with the noble Sahābī and Mujāhid, Mu'āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyān (رضي الله عنه), the king who ruled for 20 years and established the 1st muslim navy, while conquering all of north africa including cyprus!

“The Muslims have unanimously agreed that Mu'āwiyah (رضي الله عنه) is the best king of this Ummah, and he witnessed several battles with the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) such as {Hunayn}, and Allāh has informed (us) in His Book (i.e. The Glorious Qur'ān) that He has sent down His tranquility upon His Messenger and the Believers that day.”

اتفق المسلمون على أن معاوية أفضل ملوك هذه الأمة وشهد مع النبي ﷺ عدة غزوات كحنين وأخير الله في كتابه أنه أنزل سكينته يومها على رسوله وعلى المؤمنين

~ Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

6 February 2018 10:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

May Allāh be pleased with the noble Sahābī and Mujāhid, Mu'āwiyah Ibn Abī Sufyān (رضي الله عنه), the king who ruled for 20 years and established the 1st muslim navy, while conquering all of north africa including cyprus!

“The Muslims have unanimously agreed that Mu'āwiyah (رضي الله عنه) is the best king of this Ummah, and he witnessed several battles with the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) such as {Hunayn}, and Allāh has informed (us) in His Book (i.e. The Glorious Qur'ān) that He has sent down His tranquility upon His Messenger and the Believers that day.”

اتفق المسلمون على أن معاوية أفضل ملوك هذه الأمة وشهد مع النبي ﷺ عدة غزوات كحنين وأخير الله في كتابه أنه أنزل سكينته يومها على رسوله وعلى المؤمنين

~ Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

6 February 2018 10:13

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<http://aswatalislam.net/FilesList.aspx?T=Audio&C=Lectures&T1=Ahmad+Jibril>
<http://aswatalislam.net/FilesList.aspx?T=Audio&C=Lectures&T1=Ahmad+Jibril>

Don't forget the rare old lectures of Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) — I highly recommend the akhawāt to go through the 4 lectures on “Women with legacies”, I've listened to some of part 1 and it's superb.

May Allāh bless the hardworking women of this ummah.

5 February 2018 23:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<http://aswatalislam.net/FilesList.aspx?T=Audio&C=Lectures&T1=Ahmad+Jibril>

Don't forget the rare old lectures of Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله) — I highly recommend the akhawāt to go through the 4 lectures on “Women with legacies”, I've listened to some of part 1 and it's superb.

May Allāh bless the hardworking women of this ummah.

<http://aswatalislam.net/FilesList.aspx?T=Audio&C=Lectures&T1=Ahmad%20Jibril>

5 February 2018 23:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allāh protect us from statements of apostasy, such as “The kuffār are better than muslims”.

Imām an-Nawawī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Rawdat at-Tālibeen” (10/69) under the chapter of apostasy:

“If the teacher of children would state that jews are much better than muslims, because they give their children's teacher his rights, he would become a Kāfir.”

5 February 2018 20:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

May Allāh protect us from statements of apostasy, such as “The kuffār are better than muslims”.

Imām an-Nawawī (رحمه الله) mentions in “Rawdat at-Tālibeen” (10/69) under the chapter of apostasy:

“If the teacher of children would state that jews are much better than muslims, because they give their children’s teacher his rights, he would become a Kāfir.”

5 February 2018 20:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Check this out

5 February 2018 15:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

There was 1 night I went to visit my friend, and we stayed up studying under 3am to submit an assessment, so we went to sleep late. But despite being so tired and in a small home, it was one of the best 2 hours of sleep in my life, we woke up, made wudū’ and prayed the sunnah of fajr which is better than everything in this world and what it contains, then we prayed Fajr together, it was the best feeling u can imagine.

For me, barakah is found in simple things, and it’s those small things that mean the most in life, even if it’s just looking up at the sky in the dark night where stars shine. I can never think twice about anything other than simplicity, the simple life is the best life.

5 February 2018 12:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

There was 1 night I went to visit my friend, and we stayed up studying under 3am to submit an assessment, so we went to sleep late. But despite being so tired and in a small home, it was one of the best 2 hours of sleep in my life, we woke up, made wudū’ and prayed the sunnah of fajr which is better than everything in this world and what it contains, then we prayed Fajr together, it was the best feeling u can imagine.

For me, barakah is found in simple things, and it’s those small things that mean the most in life, even if it’s just looking up at the sky in the dark night where stars shine. I can never think twice about anything other than simplicity, the simple life is the best life.

5 February 2018 12:45

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

SUMMARY OF STANDING UP FOR TĀGHŪT JUDGE:

“As the issue of standing has been briefly touched on, we will now address the contemporary issue of standing up for a Taghut judge. Many scholars and shaykhs have been asked about this issue. The following is a summary of their prominent views:

1. If someone stands up for a Taghut judge out of honour for him, this would be a standing of major shirk and disbelief. This situation is rare to find among our brothers, but we simply mention it here to lay out the different scenarios to the topic.

2. If someone stands up for the Taghut judge out of fearfulness or merely trying to fit in, this would be considered Harām. The reason being is Rasūlullāh has prohibited the act of standing up for people, which may include teachers and shaykhs, so imagine the case with a Taghut judge.

3. If someone stands up for the Taghut judge out of Darūrah (necessity), such as if refusing to stand is punishable which may cause harm for the prisoner, then in this case, it would be Halal to stand up for the Taghut judge, since the well- known Fiqh principle states, necessities permit what is unlawful. However if someone prefers to not stand up and be proud of his Deen, then that’s more rewarding Inshā’Allāh.

These are the three different rulings concerning the issue of standing up for a Taghut judge. We will now mention some practical strategies that one may use in dealing with this situation.

Firstly: One may walk into the court room and remain standing for the complete hearing, so that way he does not have to receive an order of standing up for the Taghut judge.

Secondly: One may walk into the court room and sit down, but just before he thinks he would be called by the judge, he can choose to stand up on his own without being ordered to do so, and this will absolve any blame from him, Inshā'Allāh.

And Allāh knows best.”

— Refer to “To stand or not to stand” (page 17) by BBB.

5 February 2018 10:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

El'iza Junadah What is the dalil for attending court for fear of dhulm/ prevention by choice? Not by force (e.g. handcuffed, dragged etc.)
5 February 2018 14:26

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak I don't understand the question, forgive me. Entering a court room may be permissible or even recommended, if you enter to condemn their disbelief of ruling by man-made laws. Unless you are referring to the one being sentenced, he must attend otherwise he will face a painful sentence, the mere threat of being punished makes one forced, he doesn't have to be physically forced.
5 February 2018 15:31

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

El'iza Junadah Radwan Dakkak the prisons within many parts of the West are not extreme hardship & if it is a short amount of time considering you are not responsible for anyone or anyone has their rights taken away by you imprisoned. To clarify the question, it was, what is the daleel for attending a court trial for the fear that you might face some dhulm and want to prevent it - however you attend by choice, no-one is dragging you or forcing you. The prevention of dhulm I am referring to is both bearable and extreme cases. What is the daleel for going to court trial, not just a court, for the fear of possible dhulm? AMJ mentioned extreme dhulm it is allowed to attend to prevent that harm being placed on you. However what is the daleel for that? As it is a choice, not duress.
5 February 2018 16:55

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

El'iza Junadah Oh sorry Radwan Dakkak, I have just noticed that on the bottom of your post says "he must attend otherwise he will face a painful punishment... the mere threat of being punished makes one forced". I can tell you that the purpose of trials is that your case is being judged, the outcome is not yet fully known, it is up to the judge. Those who attend by themselves, attend out of choice - the outcome or 'painful sentence' is not known. What I am saying, it is not an ultimatum given that if you don't attend you will definitely be punished worse. As for the punishments, they are bearable within these countries. I would like the daleel for your statements above. There is no ultimatums or physical duress - so why is it allowed?
5 February 2018 17:07

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak It returns back to the definition of ikrah, which the scholars disputed on a very wide scale. For example, if you lose most of your wealth, several prominent imams have considered it permissible to commit kufr to take back your wealth, even though u weren't physically touched, but it harmed ur life, and it's intense to live like that. Likewise with prison, it has been considered as ikrah in and of itself by several prominent imams due to the severe hardship, many lose their faith or even kill themselves. It's not necessary to be beaten or physically tortured to be under ikraah, the mere threat of someone wanting to harm you is sufficient according the overwhelming majority of the scholars, rather it was Imam ahmad who was very strict on the condition for ikrah. But Ibn Taymiyyah did try to balance that out by saying it differs from person to person, as someone may be able to bear 50 beatings, whereas another one may not be able to bear a few strikes. Likewise someone may be able to bear a 5 year sentence in some lands, whereas another person cannot, which is basically what Shaykh Ahmad Jibril was stating. Some scholars even mentioned it was considered ikraah for muhammad ibn maslamah to kill ka'b ibn al-ashraf, due to the intense harm he caused for the muslims, as mentioned in the 3rd volume of badaa'i al-fawaa'id by ibn al-qayyim, however he stated this view is weak, as muhammad ibn maslamah never uttered explicit kufr, but it shows the scholars differing on the levels of ikraah. It's not an issue which has 1 opinion, and everyone who differs becomes misguided, and Allah knows best.
5 February 2018 17:20

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Laith Mursaleen Hussain
5 February 2018 20:55

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

El'iza Junadah Ok so the dalil used in this is comes back to the opinions of Ikrah. Although Ibn Taymiyyah alongside many mashayekh, when talking about ikrah, mention physical harms. In the West, there is no fear of that usually. Does fear of only mental/psychological harm hold any standing under the ruling of duress? It is not physical harm, for example, beatings/ lashes/ wealth or family taken away. It would interesting to know.

5 February 2018 22:49

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Rhonda Hayek We always walk into a court room after the judge has entered and we always leave the court room before they call out "all stand" now if the matter was for us then we remain standing after entering. Alhamdulillah not once have we had any problems.

6 February 2018 06:14

SUMMARY OF STANDING UP FOR TĀGHŪT JUDGE:

“As the issue of standing has been briefly touched on, we will now address the contemporary issue of standing up for a Taghut judge. Many scholars and shaykhs have been asked about this issue. The following is a summary of their prominent views:

1. If someone stands up for a Taghut judge out of honour for him, this would be a standing of major shirk and disbelief. This situation is rare to find among our brothers, but we simply mention it here to lay out the different scenarios to the topic.
2. If someone stands up for the Taghut judge out of fearfulness or merely trying to fit in, this would be considered Harām. The reason being is Rasūlullāh has prohibited the act of standing up for people, which may include teachers and shaykhs, so imagine the case with a Taghut judge.
3. If someone stands up for the Taghut judge out of Darūrah (necessity), such as if refusing to stand is punishable which may cause harm for the prisoner, then in this case, it would be Halal to stand up for the Taghut judge, since the well- known Fiqh principle states, necessities permit what is unlawful. However if someone prefers to not stand up and be proud of his Deen, then that's more rewarding Inshā'Allāh.

These are the three different rulings concerning the issue of standing up for a Taghut judge. We will now mention some practical strategies that one may use in dealing with this situation.

Firstly: One may walk into the court room and remain standing for the complete hearing, so that way he does not have to receive an order of standing up for the Taghut judge.

Secondly: One may walk into the court room and sit down, but just before he thinks he would be called by the judge, he can choose to stand up on his own without being ordered to do so, and this will absolve any blame from him, Inshā'Allāh.

And Allāh knows best.”

— Refer to “To stand or not to stand” (page 17) by BBB.

5 February 2018 10:10

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS's post.

Finally an in depth article on this topic! Must read!!

5 February 2018 09:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Preferring to marry a virgin is the recommended sunnah of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم — As he told Jābir “Why not a virgin whom you could play with and she could play with you?”

5 February 2018 08:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Preferring to marry a virgin is the recommended sunnah of Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم — As he told Jābir “Why not a virgin whom you could play with and she could play with you?”

5 February 2018 08:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There are older brothers who have so much life experience and wisdom that you can't find anywhere else, they are so true and amazing, may Allāh bless them, may Allāh bless them, may Allāh bless them!

4 February 2018 22:11

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

There are older brothers who have so much life experience and wisdom that you can't find anywhere else, they are so true and amazing, may Allāh bless them, may Allāh bless them, may Allāh bless them!

4 February 2018 22:11

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Excellent things to look forward too!!

1. New video — Part (2/2) on the Sharh of 3rd nullifier by Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) is almost complete!
2. Subtitles on the lecture of “Ghulāt al-Mukaffirah” by Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) is almost finished as well.
3. Subtitles on the 1st lesson of “Sharh Kitāb al-Haqā’iq Fi-Tawhīd” by Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرته) is mostly complete as well.
4. The 3 hour debate on “guidelines for Takfīr al-Āthir” between Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تقبله الله) and one of the Ghulāt has started to be translated.

We need to push ourselves further, and share the knowledge with the ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! May Allāh grant victory to Islām and Tawhīd, may Allāh allow the Haqq to overcome Bātil!!!! Ya Allāh, give us strength in DESTROYING doubts!

4 February 2018 21:17

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Excellent things to look forward too!!

1. New video — Part (2/2) on the Sharh of 3rd nullifier by Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) is almost complete!
2. Subtitles on the lecture of “Ghulāt al-Mukaffirah” by Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) is almost finished as well.
3. Subtitles on the 1st lesson of “Sharh Kitāb al-Haqā’iq Fi-Tawhīd” by Shaykh ‘Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرته) is mostly complete as well.
4. The 3 hour debate on “guidelines for Takfīr al-Āthir” between Shaykh Abū Bakr al-Qahtānī (تقبله الله) and one of the Ghulāt has started to be translated.

We need to push ourselves further, and share the knowledge with the ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! May Allāh grant victory to Islām and Tawhīd, may Allāh allow the Haqq to overcome Bātil!!!! Ya Allāh, give us strength in DESTROYING doubts!

4 February 2018 21:17

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Excellent way to tell if someone is committing Major Shirk in his oath to other than Allāh!!

The Imām, al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-’Alwān (فك الله أسرته) said:

“It’s possible, the brother says if taking an oath (by other than Allah) is widespread in a land where they worship other than Allah, and the one being taken an oath by is among those who is worshipped besides Allah in this land.

So yes, this is an indication that they take an oath (by other than Allah) out of exaltation (i.e. Major Shirk), however do these people worship other than Allah to begin with or are they Muwahhidun overall?

This is to be observed, he may be originally a mushrik by this person that’s worshipped, so the oath he performs may be from the least of his actions (since he does worse shirk), however this results in the intention which you have mentioned.

Whereas if a man was among the Muwahhiddeen overall, but did some oaths to other than Allah, in this case he would have fell into minor Shirk. But if there's an indication that he intends exaltation as we explained yesterday.

Wherein he takes an oath on the emphasizing matters, ya'ni if he wants to emphasize the matter, he would take an oath by the dead. And if wants to undervalue a matter, he takes an oath by Allah.

And if he wants to take an oath truthfully, he takes an oath by the dead. But if he wants to take an oath whilst lying, he takes an oath by Allah, this is an indication that it's major Shirk, and it's from the shirk of exaltation.

Just like Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned in “Madārij as-Sālikīn” when he spoke about taking an oath by other than Allah, he mentioned it could be major Shirk, he says the hadīth refers to it as being Minor Shirk, but it could be major shirk if there is exaltation tagged along with it, and the exaltation here is clear if this indication is present.”

4 February 2018 21:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Excellent way to tell if someone is committing Major Shirk in his oath to other than Allāh!!!

The Imām, al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرته) said:

“It’s possible, the brother says if taking an oath (by other than Allah) is widespread in a land where they worship other than Allah, and the one being taken an oath by is among those who is worshipped besides Allah in this land.

So yes, this is an indication that they take an oath (by other than Allah) out of exaltation (i.e. Major Shirk), however do these people worship other than Allah to begin with or are they Muwahhidun overall?

This is to be observed, he may be originally a mushrik by this person that’s worshipped, so the oath he performs may be from the least of his actions (since he does worse shirk), however this results in the intention which you have mentioned.

Whereas if a man was among the Muwahiddeen overall, but did some oaths to other than Allah, in this case he would have fell into minor Shirk. But if there’s an indication that he intends exaltation as we explained yesterday.

Wherein he takes an oath on the emphasizing matters, ya'ni if he wants to emphasize the matter, he would take an oath by the dead. And if wants to undervalue a matter, he takes an oath by Allah.

And if he wants to take an oath truthfully, he takes an oath by the dead. But if he wants to take an oath whilst lying, he takes an oath by Allah, this is an indication that it's major Shirk, and it's from the shirk of exaltation.

Just like Ibn al-Qayyim mentioned in “Madārij as-Sālikīn” when he spoke about taking an oath by other than Allah, he mentioned it could be major Shirk, he says the hadīth refers to it as being Minor Shirk, but it could be major shirk if there is exaltation tagged along with it, and the exaltation here is clear if this indication is present.”

4 February 2018 21:05

Radwan Dakkak added 6 new photos.

□ □ □ □ □

□

compiled and published the works of her husband, Shaykh Abū (حفظها الله) Umm Fihr al-Muslimah .Fihr al-Muslim; Student of al-Hāfidh al-‘Alwān, may Allāh free them both soon

4 February 2018 20:53

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allāh curse the Shayātīn!

Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “Verily, Satan places his throne over the water and he sends out his troops. The closest to him in rank are the greatest at causing tribulations. One of them says: I have done this and this. Satan says: You have done nothing. Another one says: I did not leave this man alone until I separated him from his wife. Satan embraces him and he says: You have done well.”

Source: Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 2813

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allāh curse the Shayātīn!

Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “Verily, Satan places his throne over the water and he sends out his troops. The closest to him in rank are the greatest at causing tribulations. One of them says: I have done this and this. Satan says: You have done nothing. Another one says: I did not leave this man alone until I separated him from his wife. Satan embraces him and he says: You have done well.”

Source: Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 2813

4 February 2018 20:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Whoever would love to be saved from Hellfire and entered into Paradise, then let him die with faith in Allah and the Last Day and let him treat people the way he would love to be treated.”

Source: Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 1844.

“The Muslim is the one from whose tongue and hand the Muslims are safe.”

Source: Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 10.

4 February 2018 19:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Whoever would love to be saved from Hellfire and entered into Paradise, then let him die with faith in Allah and the Last Day and let him treat people the way he would love to be treated.”

Source: Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 1844.

“The Muslim is the one from whose tongue and hand the Muslims are safe.”

Source: Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 10.

4 February 2018 19:41

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

“It might not mean much to you, but it might mean the world to someone else.”

4 February 2018 18:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Misk سبجان الله

4 February 2018 18:28

“It might not mean much to you, but it might mean the world to someone else.”

4 February 2018 18:25

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Radwan Dakkak Additional comment, it's also fair to mention the other opinion among Ahlus-Sunnah, even if it's a minority view. There's also another well-known opinion which states, as long as the land is abiding by principles of Islām, outwardly displaying all the rituals such as salah, athān, and ordaining the good and forbidding evil (Not allowing Shirk and Kufr, unlike in many lands today), while its people are adhering to Islam and muslims, then this is called a “Dār Islām”, even if the ruler on his own is considered a Kāfir. And they used some strong evidences such as An-Najāshī who became muslim in “Al-Habasha”, yet that land was called “Dār al-Kufr”, so they mention the ruler himself being a disbeliever or not doesn’t affect the label. So this is to show the other side which differs with the majority opinion that I adhere too. And Allāh knows best 🌱

4 February 2018 17:17

According to most scholars, the land is called “Dār al-Islām” if the rulings of Islām are applied upon it, even if its population are Kuffār | Shaykh Sālim al-Gharīb wrote:

“Undoubtedly, the belief of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā’ah concerning those lands which Kufr has fallen upon, while most of its inhabitants are upon Islām, that this occurrence of Kufr falling upon the rulers along with implementing the rulings of Kufr in it, doesn’t affect the ruling upon the population at all.

So we would remain calling its inhabitants with Islām, who have avoided the Tāghūt and its armies and its Tā’ifah Mumtani’ah (those who resist to comply with Shari’ah by force).

Because there’s no connection between the two whatsoever, between the ruling upon the land (being Dār al-Kufr) and the ruling upon its inhabitants as the Imāms among the ‘Ulamā’ have firmly established.

So the ruling upon the land and its Manāt (the cause which affects it being called “land of Islām” or “land of Kufr”) are the rulings that are implemented in it, as it’s the Madhab of the majority of the scholars, and the ruling upon its inhabitants is in accordance to what they outwardly display, and what’s predominantly found amongst them (whether Islām or Kufr).

For indeed, Khaybar after it was conquered had the rulings of Islām implemented in the city, so it became a land of Islām, even though most of its population are Kuffār, so this is the belief of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā’ah.”

— “Al-Qawl al-Mubīn Fī Hatk Astār Bid’at at-Tawaqquf wat-Tabayyun” (page 4).

4 February 2018 15:03

Radwan Dakkak added 2 new photos.

Stay away from the “Daily KUFR Fawaid” page, it’s run by an apostate madkhalī who thinks he’s a follower of the salaf — They believe it’s part of their ‘Aqīdah to spy against muslim brothers and get them in trouble, may the curse of Allāh be upon them.

4 February 2018 14:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Stay away from the “Daily KUFR Fawaid” page, it’s run by an apostate madkhalī who thinks he’s a follower of the salaf — They believe it’s part of their ‘Aqīdah to spy against muslim brothers and get them in trouble, may the curse of Allāh be upon them.

4 February 2018 14:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“The sharp word against the one who doesn’t make Takfīr on the apostate” by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Sultān al-‘Utaybī (تقبله الله) has been completely translated in “English” (95 pages) with additional bonus Fatāwā 🌱

It will be uploaded shortly إن شاء الله

4 February 2018 13:48

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

“The sharp word against the one who doesn’t make Takfīr on the apostate” by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Sultān al-‘Uṭaybī (تقبله الله) has been completely translated in “English” (95 pages) with additional bonus Fatāwā 📖

It will be uploaded shortly إن شاء الله

4 February 2018 13:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) said:

Not everyone who agrees with the Murji'ah in an opinion becomes a Murji', and not everyone who adopts an opinion from the sayings of the Khawārij becomes a Khārijī, so an individual is not ruled with absolute Irjā' nor as being from the Khawārij...

UNTIL his Usūl coincides with the Usūl of the Murji'ah or the Usūl of the Khawārij. And it could be said about an individual: "He has some Irjā' in this issue, and that other person has some (opinions) from the Madhāhib of the Khawārij"

And beware beware from oppression and injustice when speaking about others amongst the Scholars, Preaches, Reformers and other than them, for indeed justice in speech and actions is from the characteristics of the believers, and it is what Allāh loves and orders.

Allāh(سبحانه وتعالى) said: "And when you speak, be just"

And Allāh(سبحانه وتعالى) said: "Indeed, Allah orders justice and good conduct"

4 February 2018 13:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) said:

Not everyone who agrees with the Murji'ah in an opinion becomes a Murji', and not everyone who adopts an opinion from the sayings of the Khawārij becomes a Khārijī, so an individual is not ruled with absolute Irjā' nor as being from the Khawārij...

UNTIL his Usūl coincides with the Usūl of the Murji'ah or the Usūl of the Khawārij. And it could be said about an individual: "He has some Irjā' in this issue, and that other person has some (opinions) from the Madhāhib of the Khawārij"

And beware beware from oppression and injustice when speaking about others amongst the Scholars, Preaches, Reformers and other than them, for indeed justice in speech and actions is from the characteristics of the believers, and it is what Allāh loves and orders.

Allāh(سبحانه وتعالى) said: "And when you speak, be just"

And Allāh(سبحانه وتعالى) said: "Indeed, Allah orders justice and good conduct"

4 February 2018 13:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

What is the ruling on wearing “Nike” — The Mujāhideen have prohibited it, including our Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

4 February 2018 12:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Click for video:
□

Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) debating one of the Ghulāt in Shām exposes contradictions of Al-Hāzimī in his false understanding of the 3rd nullifier, saying all those who adopted this view have inconsistencies in applying it (which is why he fell into disbelief according to his own principles several times).

Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) mentions “How can he (i.e. al-Hāzimī) make all this rebuke against the likes of ash-Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān, may Allāh hasten his release.

But when he’s asked about who to return back too (for verdicts), he (i.e. Al-Hāzimī) says ‘the Imām ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ibn Bāz’, and ‘our Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Sālih al-‘Uthaymīn’, and so forth. So he has contradictions according to his own principles, he did not apply it upon these people for example (let alone also claiming Saudi Tawāghīṭ rule by Sharīʿah which he didn't openly recant from).”

— A benefit from this is the respect Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) had for Shaykh al-ʿAllāmah Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرته) by making duʿā for him among the Mujāhideen and rightfully giving him the title of “Hāfidh”.

4 February 2018 12:08

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

□
Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) debating one of the Ghulāt in Shām exposes contradictions of Al-Hāzimī in his false understanding of the 3rd nullifier, saying all those who adopted this view have inconsistencies in applying it (which is why he fell into disbelief according to his own principles several times).

Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) mentions “How can he (i.e. al-Hāzimī) make all this rebuke against the likes of ash-Shaykh al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-ʿAlwān, may Allāh hasten his release.

But when he's asked about who to return back too (for verdicts), he (i.e. Al-Hāzimī) says ‘the Imām ‘Abdul-ʿAzīz Ibn Bāz’, and ‘our Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Sālih al-ʿUthaymīn’, and so forth. So he has contradictions according to his own principles, he did not apply it upon these people for example (let alone also claiming Saudi Tawāghīṭ rule by Sharīʿah which he didn't openly recant from).”

— A benefit from this is the respect Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) had for Shaykh al-ʿAllāmah Sulaymān al-ʿAlwān (فك الله أسرته) by making duʿā for him among the Mujāhideen and rightfully giving him the title of “Hāfidh”.

4 February 2018 12:05

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

The scholars state, “ALLAH never gave praise to anyone except that He TESTED them first.”

— The path of the Prophets عليهم الصلاة والسلام.

4 February 2018 11:25

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Feda Hammoud True

4 February 2018 11:34

The scholars state, “ALLAH never gave praise to anyone except that He TESTED them first.”

— The path of the Prophets عليهم الصلاة والسلام.

4 February 2018 11:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Murjiʿah of the past who condemned the ‘Takfīrī’.

“And another (case) is when one of the worshippers saw someone leaving the mosque, he heard one of those that don't have any consideration for the Dīn, nor do they raise a head out of respect for the Lord of creation and the Messenger, the illiterate and honest one, peace & blessings be upon him and his family.

So that man (leaving the mosque) insulted Allāh (سبحانه وتعالى), is there any Kufr above this? So that worshipper stood up and condemned him and made Takfīr upon him.

And the rest of the worshippers (in the mosque) got up and condemned the one who make Takfīr upon the one that insulted Allāh (جل وعلا) — They left the insulter of Allāh (جل وعلا) alone, and condemned the one that made Takfīr upon him! Walā hawlā walā quwatā ilā Billāh.”

— The ʿĀlim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله).

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Murji'ah of the past who condemned the 'Takfīr'.

“And another (case) is when one of the worshippers saw someone leaving the mosque, he heard one of those that don't have any consideration for the Dīn, nor do they raise a head out of respect for the Lord of creation and the Messenger, the illiterate and honest one, peace & blessings be upon him and his family.

So that man (leaving the mosque) insulted Allāh (سبحانه وتعالى), is there any Kufr above this? So that worshipper stood up and condemned him and made Takfīr upon him.

And the rest of the worshippers (in the mosque) got up and condemned the one who make Takfīr upon the one that insulted Allāh (جل وعلا) — They left the insulter of Allāh (جل وعلا) alone, and condemned the one that made Takfīr upon him! Walā hawlā walā quwatā ilā Billāh.”

— The 'Ālim and Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله).

4 February 2018 10:02

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Usūl of the Khawārij

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) says:

All praise belongs to Allāh, may peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, May the blessings and peace of Allāh be upon him in perpetuity, to proceed:

The brother asks about the usūl of the khawārij madhab, since the people today use this phrase and this group in all directions.

And many of them do not differentiate, a lot of the people classify others by assumptions, doubts, and without certainty.

The khawārij are the first group and sect that appeared in this ummah, and the Prophet spoke about them, he said:

“A group of people will appear among you whose prayer, fasting and deeds will make you think little of your own prayer, fasting and deeds. They will pass through Islām like an arrow passes through game.”

The Prophet said, “If I should live up to their time, I will kill them as the people of 'Ād were killed (i.e. all of them).”

The Prophet said, “kill them wherever you find them.”

And these khawārij make takfīr upon sins absolutely, they make takfeer upon the kabā'ir (major sins). So they view the major sinner such as the alcohol drinker, fornicator, consumer of interest, they take him outside of Islām, and they declare lawful his blood and wealth.

They also view the lands of the people of sins and disobedience, or who they believe as sinners when in reality they didn't sin, as lands of war!

They believe in fighting the Imāms of justice, and unleashing the sword against them. They would make takfīr upon 'Uthmān ibn 'Affān, 'Alī Ibn Abī Tālib, and those with them.

For this reason, the Sahābah fought them, except that many of the Sahābah such as 'Alī who took authority in fighting them, did not view they were kuffār.

And that's why 'Alī or any of his companions would not finish off their wounded (in battle), and 'Alī would not allow initiating them in fighting.

He would say, “If they fight you, then fight them”.

And this group is the first sect that appeared in Islām, it appeared during the era of 'Alī, and he is the one who took charge in fighting them.

And this group has remained present until this time, and they still have remnants in 'Omān, who are called al-Ibādhiyyah, and al-Ibādhiyyah are from the khawārij. And in our times, they are Jahmiyyah in the topic of Allāh's names and attributes.

The rawāfidh in the Asmā' (labels) and Ahkam (rulings) of the religion are khawārij in this aspect when it comes to the sahabah (i.e. takfīr upon sins), and when it comes to the rulings of Īmān, they are from the ghuḷāt al-Murji'ah (i.e. no takfīr upon kufr except if he disbelieves in his heart).

They combined between two contradictory beliefs, and this is similar to many people in this day and age, who call others khawārij, while they are khawārij with the scholars and preachers (of tawhīd), and murji'ah with the (apostate) rulers.

So they are defined by the saying, “She accused me of something she has, then sneaked away.”

As for those who call others khawārij for making takfīr upon nullifiers of Islām, this is an oppressive label which Allāh sent down no authority or evidence for.

What necessitates from this is that the Sahābah are khawārij, the Imām of guidance would be khawārij, the 4 Imams would be khawārij, and Ibn Taymiyyah would be from the heads of the khawārij, since he's among those who spoke the most about these matters.

Ahlus-Sunnah unanimously agree that everyone who comes with a saying, action or belief which negates the foundation of Īmān and doesn't unite with it, then he has come with Kufr.

Yes, the scholars may differ on the shurūt and mawānī' (conditions and preventatives of takfīr), and they could differ on the hukm (ruling upon certain individuals), however this is not from the madhab of the khawārij, this is from the madhāhib of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah.

The Sahābah disputed concerning the khawārij, are they kuffār or not. Most of them adopted that they're not kuffār, whereas a group among them made takfīr upon them, such as Abū Umāmah and Ibn 'Umar.

And those who made takfīr didn't call others murji'ah, and those who didn't make takfīr upon them call those who made takfīr as being khawārij.

And the early Imāms differed over making takfīr upon the Rāfidah that insulted (groups) among the companions (i.e. not the clear mushrikeen that came later), takfīr upon the mu'tazilah, and takfīr upon some other sects.

And they were brothers who loved each other, despite their dispute concerning this (takfīr), since this returns back to the shurūt and mawānī' (conditions and preventatives of takfīr), or whether the hukm (ruling upon this action) nullifies the asl of Īmān or not.

For example, the dispute among the Imāms of the tābi'een concerning the disbelief of al-Hajjāj. So al-Hassan al-Basrī, 'Umar Ibn 'Abdil-'Azīz, and Mujāhid the companion of Ibn 'Abbās the well-known mufasssir, viewed that al-Hajjāj was a kāfir, who's an apostate taken outside the fold of Islām.

And al-Hassan al-Badrī would make du'a against him in his lessons, and curse him. There was not a gathering except that he would make du'ā against him and curse him.

Whereas Imām Muhammad ibn Sīrīn and a group of Imāms would differ with them on this, and they viewed that al-Hajjāj didn't come with a nullifier.

But al-Hassan and his companions and those who agreed with him, would not say that this Ibn Sīrīn is a murji'. And Ibn Sīrīn and those who agreed with him would not say that al-Hassan and those with him are khawārij, since this was purely based upon Ijtihād and knowledge, not based upon bid'ah.

For instance, the scholars disputed over the one who abandons Salah, is he a kāfir or not, whilst an Ijmā' has been mentioned from the Sahābah that he's a kāfir.

A group of Imāms after the Sahābah differed concerning that, so they did not make takfīr upon the one who abandons Salāh. So if this was based upon Ijtihād, knowledge and analysis, this is their right as being Mujtahidīn, as it's the Madhab of Mālik, Ash-Shāfi'ee, and Ahmad in 1 narration.

But if this was based upon the pretext that Salāh is an “action”, and the one who abandons actions doesn't disbelieve, then this is a bid'ah, because this contradicts the madhab of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah.

Since kufr can be through actions and abandonment, just like it could be through speech and belief.

Moreover, I'll like to draw towards an important point. That a scholar may agree with the khawārij in an issue based on knowledge and Ijtihād, and he wouldn't be considered a khārijī. And he could agree with the murji'ah in an issue based on knowledge and Ijtihād, and he wouldn't be considered a Murji'.

A scholar is not tagged along with a group, until he adopts an Asl from their Usūl, or until he has many individual traits (of that sect) which resembles the Asl (core principle).

So the one who says that the major sinners are kuffār, this person is from the Khawarij, we will say he is a khārijī.

Or the one who says that the Asl (default position) of all the people is kufr, “so I do not affirm the Islām of anyone until it's proven to me that he's a muslim”, whilst viewing that the (true) lands of the muslims are land of war, then this person is from the khawārij.

On the opposite side to this person is the one who says that the nullifiers of Islām that deal with actions are restricted by juhūd (denial) and Istihlāl (declaring it permissible), then this person is a murji' jahmī.

Based upon this, the discussion concerning the nullifiers of Islām is not the madhab of the khawārij, rather this is an Asl (core principle) from the Usūl of Ahlus-Sunnah, and this is an unanimously agreed upon matter.

The most enormous virtue of Abū Bakr as-Siddīq is fighting the people of apostasy, they would pray, fast, perform Hajj, give charity, testify that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh, yet the Sahabah did not dispute concerning making takfīr upon them.

Because everyone who comes with a nullifier, even if he says “Lā ilāha ilā Allāh” 1000 times in a day, as long as he hasn't made Tawbah from this nullifier, he would be a kāfir.

For the one who testifies that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh, and then testifies that Musaylamah is a prophet, he would be a kāfir by Ijmā', even if he prays, fasts and claims to be a muslim.

And the one who says that Zinā is halāl, or says drinking alcohol is halāl, or says consuming ribā is halāl, then his disbelief is explicitly known in Islām.

A group became defeated due to the pressure of others, claiming that this is the madhab of the khawārij, so they stepped down upon the tenets and constants of the religion!

And one of them would become so frightened from the matters of takfīr, even if it was directed to the Shaytān ar-Rajeem!! Out of fear that he would be called from the khawārij, or their figureheads and so forth.

The Haqq must be conveyed, and let not the amount of rebuke from Fulān or the praise of 'Allān stop you from speaking the truth, whether over here and over there, since the Haqq is Haqq, and Bātil is Bātil, whoever may be pleased or angered with it, because this is the religion of Allāh, the most high and exalted.

And these people who classify others falsely, woe to them, and woe to them! These people who punish in the dunyā, they will be held to account on judgement day, because this is from oppression, and there's no despicable sin that Allāh hastens his punishment than the one who oppresses and cuts off family-ties.

And this is from the transgression against others, while at the same time, it is considered deterring away from the path of Allāh the exalted and most high, and false classifications.

And the Prophet said about slander, “if what you said about him is true, then you've backbit him, but if what you said is not true, then you've slandered him!”

And this is what slander is! And this hadīth was collected by Imām Muslim in his “saḥīḥ” from the hadīth of Abī Hurayrah.

And whoever is confused with anything regarding this, then he should look at the guidance of the Sahābah in their traditions, and let him read the works of the A'immah, and let him read the fatāwā of Ibn Taymiyyah and the books of Ibn al-Qayyim, and let him read from ad-Durar as-Saniyyah by the A'immat ad-Da'wah an-Najdiyyah.

Let him look at who is more deserving of being classified and who is closer towards the path of guidance, and Allāh says:

“Say, "Each [of us] is waiting; so wait. For you will know who are the companions of the sound path and who is guided.” [20:135]

3 February 2018 23:06

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Usūl of the Khawārij

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) says:

All praise belongs to Allāh, may peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, May the blessings and peace of Allāh be upon him in perpetuity, to proceed:

The brother asks about the usūl of the khawārij madhab, since the people today use this phrase and this group in all directions.

And many of them do not differentiate, a lot of the people classify others by assumptions, doubts, and without certainty.

The khawārij are the first group and sect that appeared in this ummah, and the Prophet spoke about them, he said:

“A group of people will appear among you whose prayer, fasting and deeds will make you think little of your own prayer, fasting and deeds. They will pass through Islām like an arrow passes through game.”

The Prophet said, “If I should live up to their time, I will kill them as the people of 'Ād were killed (i.e. all of them).”

The Prophet said, “kill them wherever you find them.”

And these khawārij make takfīr upon sins absolutely, they make takfeer upon the kabā'ir (major sins). So they view the major sinner such as the alcohol drinker, fornicator, consumer of interest, they take him outside of Islām, and they declare lawful his blood and wealth.

They also view the lands of the people of sins and disobedience, or who they believe as sinners when in reality they didn't sin, as lands of war!

They believe in fighting the Imāms of justice, and unleashing the sword against them. They would make takfīr upon 'Uthmān ibn 'Affān, 'Alī Ibn Abī Tālib, and those with them.

For this reason, the Sahābah fought them, except that many of the Sahābah such as 'Alī who took authority in fighting them, did not view they were kuffār.

And that's why 'Alī or any of his companions would not finish off their wounded (in battle), and 'Alī would not allow initiating them in fighting.

He would say, “If they fight you, then fight them”.

And this group is the first sect that appeared in Islām, it appeared during the era of 'Alī, and he is the one who took charge in fighting them.

And this group has remained present until this time, and they still have remnants in 'Omān, who are called al-Ibādhiyyah, and al-Ibādhiyyah are from the khawārij. And in our times, they are Jahmiyyah in the topic of Allāh's names and attributes.

The rawāfīdh in the Asmā' (labels) and Ahkam (rulings) of the religion are khawārij in this aspect when it comes to the sahabah (i.e. takfīr upon sins), and when it comes to the rulings of Īmān, they are from the ghuḷāt al-Murji'ah (i.e. no takfīr upon kufr except if he disbelieves in his heart).

They combined between two contradictory beliefs, and this is similar to many people in this day and age, who call others khawārij, while they are khawārij with the scholars and preachers (of tawhīd), and murji'ah with the (apostate) rulers.

So they are defined by the saying, “She accused me of something she has, then sneaked away.”

As for those who call others khawārij for making takfīr upon nullifiers of Islām, this is an oppressive label which Allāh sent down no authority or evidence for.

What necessitates from this is that the Sahābah are khawārij, the Imām of guidance would be khawārij, the 4 Imams would be khawārij, and Ibn Taymiyyah would be from the heads of the khawārij, since he's among those who spoke the most about these matters.

Ahlu-Sunnah unanimously agree that everyone who comes with a saying, action or belief which negates the foundation of Īmān and doesn't unite with it, then he has come with Kufr.

Yes, the scholars may differ on the shurūt and mawānī' (conditions and preventatives of takfīr), and they could differ on the hukm (ruling upon certain individuals), however this is not from the madhab of the khawārij, this is from the madhāhib of Ahlu-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah.

The Sahābah disputed concerning the khawārij, are they kuffār or not. Most of them adopted that they're not kuffār, whereas a group among them made takfīr upon them, such as Abū Umāmah and Ibn 'Umar.

And those who made takfīr didn't call others murji'ah, and those who didn't make takfīr upon them call those who made takfīr as being khawārij.

And the early Imāms differed over making takfīr upon the Rāfidah that insulted (groups) among the companions (i.e. not the clear mushrikeen that came later), takfīr upon the mu'tazilah, and takfīr upon some other sects.

And they were brothers who loved each other, despite their dispute concerning this (takfīr), since this returns back to the shurūt and mawānī' (conditions and preventatives of takfīr), or whether the hukm (ruling upon this action) nullifies the asl of Īmān or not.

For example, the dispute among the Imāms of the tābi'een concerning the disbelief of al-Hajjāj. So al-Hassan al-Basrī, 'Umar Ibn 'Abdī-'Azīz, and Mujāhid the companion of Ibn 'Abbās the well-known mufasssir, viewed that al-Hajjāj was a kāfir, who's an apostate taken outside the fold of Islām.

And al-Hassan al-Badrī would make du'a against him in his lessons, and curse him. There was not a gathering except that he would make du'ā against him and curse him.

Whereas Imām Muhammad ibn Sīrīn and a group of Imāms would differ with them on this, and they viewed that al-Hajjāj didn't come with a nullifier.

But al-Hassan and his companions and those who agreed with him, would not say that this Ibn Sīrīn is a murji'. And Ibn Sīrīn and those who agreed with him would not say that al-Hassan and those with him are khawārij, since this was purely based upon Ijtihād and knowledge, not based upon bid'ah.

For instance, the scholars disputed over the one who abandons Salah, is he a kāfir or not, whilst an Ijmā' has been mentioned from the Sahābah that he's a kāfir.

A group of Imāms after the Sahābah differed concerning that, so they did not make takfīr upon the one who abandons Salāh. So if this was based upon Ijtihād, knowledge and analysis, this is their right as being Mujtahidīn, as it's the Madhab of Mālik, Ash-Shāfi'ee, and Ahmad in 1 narration.

But if this was based upon the pretext that Salāh is an "action", and the one who abandons actions doesn't disbelieve, then this is a bid'ah, because this contradicts the madhab of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah.

Since kufr can be through actions and abandonment, just like it could be through speech and belief.

Moreover, I'll like to draw towards an important point. That a scholar may agree with the khawārij in an issue based on knowledge and Ijtihād, and he wouldn't be considered a khārijī. And he could agree with the murji'ah in an issue based on knowledge and Ijtihād, and he wouldn't be considered a Murji'.

A scholar is not tagged along with a group, until he adopts an Asl from their Usūl, or until he has many individual traits (of that sect) which resembles the Asl (core principle).

So the one who says that the major sinners are kuffār, this person is from the Khawarij, we will say he is a khārijī.

Or the one who says that the Asl (default position) of all the people is kufr, "so I do not affirm the Islām of anyone until it's proven to me that he's a muslim", whilst viewing that the (true) lands of the muslims are land of war, then this person is from the khawārij.

On the opposite side to this person is the one who says that the nullifiers of Islām that deal with actions are restricted by juhūd (denial) and Istihlāl (declaring it permissible), then this person is a murji' jahmī.

Based upon this, the discussion concerning the nullifiers of Islām is not the madhab of the khawārij, rather this is an Asl (core principle) from the Usūl of Ahlus-Sunnah, and this is an unanimously agreed upon matter.

The most enormous virtue of Abū Bakr as-Siddīq is fighting the people of apostasy, they would pray, fast, perform Hajj, give charity, testify that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh, yet the Sahabah did not dispute concerning making takfīr upon them.

Because everyone who comes with a nullifier, even if he says "Lā ilāha ilā Allāh" 1000 times in a day, as long as he hasn't made Tawbah from this nullifier, he would be a kāfir.

For the one who testifies that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh and that Muhammad is the messenger of Allāh, and then testifies that Musaylamah is a prophet, he would be a kāfir by Ijmā', even if he prays, fasts and claims to be a muslim.

And the one who says that Zinā is halāl, or says drinking alcohol is halāl, or says consuming ribā is halāl, then his disbelief is explicitly known in Islām.

A group became defeated due to the pressure of others, claiming that this is the madhab of the khawārij, so they stepped down upon the tenets and constants of the religion!

And one of them would become so frightened from the matters of takfīr, even if it was directed to the Shaytān ar-Rajeem!! Out of fear that he would be called from the khawārij, or their figureheads and so forth.

The Haqq must be conveyed, and let not the amount of rebuke from Fulān or the praise of 'Allān stop you from speaking the truth, whether over here and over there, since the Haqq is Haqq, and Bātil is Bātil, whoever may be pleased or angered with it, because this is the religion of Allāh, the most high and exalted.

And these people who classify others falsely, woe to them, and woe to them! These people who punish in the dunyā, they will be held to account on judgement day, because this is from oppression, and there's no despicable sin that Allāh hastens his punishment than the one who oppresses and cuts off family-ties.

And this is from the transgression against others, while at the same time, it is considered deterring away from the path of Allāh the exalted and most high, and false classifications.

And the Prophet said about slander, "if what you said about him is true, then you've backbit him, but if what you said is not true, then you've slandered him!"

And this is what slander is! And this hadīth was collected by Imām Muslim in his "sahīh" from the hadīth of Abī Hurayrah.

And whoever is confused with anything regarding this, then he should look at the guidance of the Sahābah in their traditions, and let him read the works of the A'immah, and let him read the fatāwā of Ibn Taymiyyah and the books of Ibn al-Qayyim, and let him read from ad-Durar as-Saniyyah by the A'immat ad-Da'wah an-Najdiyyah.

Let him look at who is more deserving of being classified and who is closer towards the path of guidance, and Allāh says:

“Say, "Each [of us] is waiting; so wait. For you will know who are the companions of the sound path and who is guided.” [20:135]

3 February 2018 23:05

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Looking | What’s the ruling on a woman looking at a man and vice versa?

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) said:

“As for a woman looking at men, then this has 3 situations;

The first situation — That she looks at men out of desire, whether she looks at a man in a newspaper or magazine, or via mobile phones or on the street or a man going to the mosque, or anything other than this. However, to look at a man out of desire, this type is considered Harām by Ijmā’ (consensus), there’s no dispute in it.

Allāh, the Exalted and Most High said, “And tell the believing women to lower their gaze.” [24:31]

And the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “Turn your eyes away.” [Sunan Abū Dāwūd, #2148]

The second situation — That a woman looks at a man with the intention of looking at his body features and his looks, Ya’nī she intends the actual looking (at the opposite gender), and without any desire.

So this was considered Makrūh by a group of scholars, since it may lead to something Harām.

Whereas another group of scholars considered it Harām, because this is the apparent ruling from the evidences. For indeed, Allāh’s statement:

“And tell the believing women to lower their gaze.” [24:31]

This is general, and it hasn’t been restricted to a looking with desire.

Also when the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) prohibited a woman from looking at a man, and prohibited a man from looking at a woman, he didn’t restrict that (looking) to a desire, and there’s not a single narration that mentions, this is only for a desire.

Rather the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “No woman is to describe the details of another woman’s figure to her husband, as if he is looking at her.”

This has two benefits:

The first benefit — The impermissibility of a woman describing another woman to her husband.

The second benefit — The Prophet hanged the reason for this by saying, “It’s like he is looking at her”, so this is an evidence that looking (at the opposite gender) is Harām, because the reason for prohibiting the describing of another woman is “So that he doesn’t look at her”. So if he would look at her, it would be a more severe sin, and this is also from the strongest proofs in prohibiting looking.

Likewise, the hadīth of Az-Zuhri from Nabhān from Umm Salamah, that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

“Are you two blind such that you can not see him?” [1]

And this hadīth is Sahīh according to the most correct opinion among the scholars of hadīth. Nabhān is Sadūq (truthful), At-Tirmidhī authenticated his narrations, and this uplifts his unknownness (Jahālah).

Likewise Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbān and a group of Muhaditheen authenticated his narrations, and he hasn’t come with anything that is objectionable.

And whoever has not been declared reliable (i.e. no statements surrounding the narrator), and one of the eminent Imāms have authenticated his hadīths, and his narration is upright (doesn’t mix up narrations), then his hadīths are to be declared Sahīh, and the narrator doesn’t fall beneath the level of Sadūq (truthful).

The third situation — That a woman looks at a man without intending (looking) at one’s body features, such as a woman looking at a seller with the intention of exchanging Darāhim (silver coins).

Or she looks at the Muftī with the intention of taking a Fatwā, not by looking at his body features. Or she looks at a man on the road with the intention of observing the road and travelling in the right direction, so this type is permissible by Ijmā’ (consensus).

This type is permissible by Ijmā’, since looking (at the opposite gender) wasn’t intended, rather something external was intended.

And this is what the Hadīth of ‘Ā’isha in the Saḥīḥayn is hanged upon, when she would look at the Habasha, while they are playing. ‘Ā’isha (رضي الله عنها) would not look at the individuals or their body features, and she would not look at their characteristics, rather they were at a distance looking at their playing.”

---

[1] Full Hadīth — Nabḥān, the freed slave of Umm Salamah narrated: To Ibn Shihab (az-Zuhri), that Umm Salamah narrated to him, that she and Maimunah were with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), she said:

“So when we were with him, Ibn Umm Maktum came, and he entered upon him, and that was after veiling had been ordered for us. So the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: 'Veil yourselves from him.' So I said: 'O Messenger of Allah! Is he not blind such that he can not see us or recognize us?' So the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: 'Are you two blind such that you can not see him?'" [At-Tirmidhi, #2778].

3 February 2018 09:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Looking | What's the ruling on a woman looking at a man and vice versa?

The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) said:

“As for a woman looking at men, then this has 3 situations;

The first situation — That she looks at men out of desire, whether she looks at a man in a newspaper or magazine, or via mobile phones or on the street or a man going to the mosque, or anything other than this. However, to look at a man out of desire, this type is considered Harām by Ijmā' (consensus), there's no dispute in it.

Allāh, the Exalted and Most High said, “And tell the believing women to lower their gaze.” [24:31]

And the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “Turn your eyes away.” [Sunan Abū Dāwūd, #2148]

The second situation — That a woman looks at a man with the intention of looking at his body features and his looks, Ya'nī she intends the actual looking (at the opposite gender), and without any desire.

So this was considered Makrūh by a group of scholars, since it may lead to something Harām.

Whereas another group of scholars considered it Harām, because this is the apparent ruling from the evidences. For indeed, Allāh's statement:

“And tell the believing women to lower their gaze.” [24:31]

This is general, and it hasn't been restricted to a looking with desire.

Also when the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) prohibited a woman from looking at a man, and prohibited a man from looking at a woman, he didn't restrict that (looking) to a desire, and there's not a single narration that mentions, this is only for a desire.

Rather the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, “No woman is to describe the details of another woman's figure to her husband, as if he is looking at her.”

This has two benefits:

The first benefit — The impermissibility of a woman describing another woman to her husband.

The second benefit — The Prophet hanged the reason for this by saying, “It's like he is looking at her”, so this is an evidence that looking (at the opposite gender) is Harām, because the reason for prohibiting the describing of another woman is “So that he doesn't look at her”. So if he would look at her, it would be a more severe sin, and this is also from the strongest proofs in prohibiting looking.

Likewise, the hadīth of Az-Zuhri from Nabḥān from Umm Salamah, that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

“Are you two blind such that you can not see him?” [1]

And this hadīth is Saḥīḥ according to the most correct opinion among the scholars of hadīth. Nabḥān is Sadūq (truthful), At-Tirmidhi authenticated his narrations, and this uplifts his unknownness (Jahālah).

Likewise Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbān and a group of Muhaditheen authenticated his narrations, and he hasn't come with anything that is objectionable.

And whoever has not been declared reliable (i.e. no statements surrounding the narrator), and one of the eminent Imāms have authenticated his hadīths, and his narration is upright (doesn't mix up narrations), then his hadīths are to be declared Saḥīḥ, and the narrator doesn't fall beneath the level of Sadūq (truthful).

The third situation — That a woman looks at a man without intending (looking) at one's body features, such as a woman looking at a seller with the intention of exchanging Darāhim (silver coins).

Or she looks at the Muftī with the intention of taking a Fatwā, not by looking at his body features. Or she looks at a man on the road with the intention of observing the road and travelling in the right direction, so this type is permissible by Ijmā' (consensus).

This type is permissible by Ijmā', since looking (at the opposite gender) wasn't intended, rather something external was intended.

And this is what the Hadīth of 'Ā'isha in the Saḥīhayn is hanged upon, when she would look at the Habasha, while they are playing. 'Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها) would not look at the individuals or their body features, and she would not look at their characteristics, rather they were at a distance looking at their playing."

---

[1] Full Hadīth — Nabhān, the freed slave of Umm Salamah narrated: To Ibn Shihab (az-Zuhrī), that Umm Salamah narrated to him, that she and Maimunah were with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), she said:

"So when we were with him, Ibn Umm Maktum came, and he entered upon him, and that was after veiling had been ordered for us. So the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: 'Veil yourselves from him.' So I said: 'O Messenger of Allah! Is he not blind such that he can not see us or recognize us?' So the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: 'Are you two blind such that you can not see him?'" [At-Tirmidhī, #2778].

3 February 2018 09:50

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A muslim and muslimah must focus on two matters:

1. Seeking knowledge, primarily Manhaj and 'Aqīdah. You should also know the Farā'id and important matters of Fiqh to implement.
2. Learning Fiqh al-Wāqī' — This means, you must learn about what's happening in the Ummah on the ground (not like those deviants who claim otherwise), striving to learn who are the groups of Haqq, and which groups are apostates, traitors and misguided.

Point #1 is extremely important, as that will help you determine who the truthful scholars and groups of Haqq are, especially in analysing who's strictly adhering to the Qur'ān and Sunnah.

Point #2 is also extremely important, as it will help you when implementing knowledge, and not falling into the trap of being deceived by lying apostates, or even dying under a flag of Shirk, Wallāhul-Musta'ān.

2 February 2018 17:57

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A muslim and muslimah must focus on two matters:

1. Seeking knowledge, primarily Manhaj and 'Aqīdah. You should also know the Farā'id and important matters of Fiqh to implement.
2. Learning Fiqh al-Wāqī' — This means, you must learn about what's happening in the Ummah on the ground (not like those deviants who claim otherwise), striving to learn who are the groups of Haqq, and which groups are apostates, traitors and misguided.

Point #1 is extremely important, as that will help you determine who the truthful scholars and groups of Haqq are, especially in analysing who's strictly adhering to the Qur'ān and Sunnah.

Point #2 is also extremely important, as it will help you when implementing knowledge, and not falling into the trap of being deceived by lying apostates, or even dying under a flag of Shirk, Wallāhul-Musta'ān.

2 February 2018 17:55

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

The mountain terrain of Dağestān is so beautiful

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

The mountain terrain of Dağestān is so beautiful

2 February 2018 17:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Muslimahmimz Mimz ^^ the women back in the days didn't have their arms hanging out of the horses with the music pumping

2 February 2018 16:08

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Sarah Jay I don't think because some do wrong and act inappropriately, the rest of us have to be stopped from the same thing if we're being modest and respectful.

2 February 2018 16:13

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Muslimahmimz Mimz if brother Radwan can correct me if I'm wrong but I think this implies to women who do not act in accordance to shariah

2 February 2018 16:15

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Correct, the Shaykh mentioned those arguments of women riding on camels and showing the weakness of those who prohibit it. And many of the fitan those who prohibit it speak about, is found when walking, does this mean we prohibit walking, etc...

2 February 2018 16:23

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak What you both mentioned is fine.

2 February 2018 16:24

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Muhammad Imran The craziest reason for prohibiting women from driving is because it affects their ovaries..

2 February 2018 16:36

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak LOL I've seen that! Moreover, the Shaykh actually touches on similar crazy reasons, such as "Those who allow a woman to drive lack Ghīrah" or "They are mostly westerners" ☺

2 February 2018 16:38

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abdul Bari I don't mind women driving but as long as there are some regulations. Its better they learn how to drive in case of emergency, or going somewhere, markets or somewhere far for personal reason. Ustad Ebu Hanzala spoke about this issue as well in Turkey. He said quite a statement "Will you let your wife drive a car or let her ride in a minibus or otobus crowded by Men? ofcourse its better for her to drive" However, I wouldn't advice women to drive late at night except for utmost emergency. Because we know at night, Shayateens move around the most. And there are some who don't fear Allah and Audhubillah what can they do to the woman at night. And yes, no Bumping Music or enjoy racing the other gender like they do in Arab countries that I've seen with my own eyes.

2 February 2018 18:31

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Hurayrah its fine if they follow set rules, like covering everything including the face and hands and going for a necessity, not to drink coffee with some sisters at the public cafee :D

2 February 2018 18:34

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abdul Bari Abu Hurayrah lol, but perhaps like once a week its better if they go out with some sisters to eat in restaurants. Can't always stay at home. If not with car, someone to drop them atleast. Please do correct me if m wrong.

2 February 2018 18:36

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Turayrah Abdul Bari as long as those sisters are good for her and the place they're eating at is niqab friendly, or else going to a sisters house is an alternative :D
2 February 2018 18:37

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abdul Bari I like those restaurants with rooms or curtains that cover the dinning table area. Total privacy. Common in Saudi, Afghanistan and other parts of the countries. :D
2 February 2018 18:38

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

El'iza Junadah Is riding camels and horses comparable to driving a car? There's opinions to say it is not allowed to go horse riding without necessity e.g. jihad etc. As riding these animals can affect women's physicality and also not much haya in doing so. The horse and camel is better suited to be compared to a motorbike or moped where the leg positions are the exact same & imitation of men and perhaps women should refrain from riding these except without need. The car doesn't put a woman in that position or affect her physically & also puts her in her own private space where people can only parts of her through the window. When driving also, you generally don't interact with men or other drivers. I don't understand why it wouldn't be allowed? Allahu a'lam
2 February 2018 19:06

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Sarah Jay Safiyyah Huyay ukhti can you elaborate on the physical affects of riding? I've never heard of such before.
2 February 2018 19:40

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Alam Usoof Asking sheiks is a stupid thing, women can ride horses, then they can drive a car.
2 February 2018 23:49

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Alam Usoof Don't equate the Saudi Arab tribe customs as Islam. Islam is progressive, and if you have read the Prophets time and Sahaba times, there was more women working and contributing to Islamic development. Now what we have paid sheiks with there fatwas with no meaning.
2 February 2018 23:52

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ali Alan Nassif Why can't it be approved if you mentioned it haha
3 February 2018 00:02

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Coz it was hot We don't wanna cause issues.
3 February 2018 00:04

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ilyas Mansur yeah like dougies grill in liverpool, sydney. Was the first time i had ever seen it (a private space for sisters in a restaurant) I was so impressed.
3 February 2018 00:24

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ali Alan Nassif That's smart
3 February 2018 01:08

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Abdillah Do you have the pdf for his talk on the Murjia?
3 February 2018 16:00

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Azwajun Mutahhara Do u have pdf of d 10 page booklet?
4 February 2018 01:58

In response to a sisters post which cannot be approved — She asked “can a woman drive a car?”.

The Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقيله الله) wrote a 10 page booklet stating that he has observed the opinions of those who prohibit it and allow it.

However the Shaykh views that what's correct is that it's permissible in accordance with the principles of the Sharī'ah. However if the Imām of the muslims views a Maslaha in preventing it, that's his decision to make.

Note: Even for argument sake, one follows the opinion of that scholar you asked who said it is prohibited, HOWEVER during your circumstances @ the sister, that's a necessity, and the Darūrāt permit what's Harām.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I don't speak about matters of marriage to anyone besides my mother, but I have been posting some general words and reminders here and there for personal benefit, and I'm planning on writing up a Fiqh of marriage according to the Madhab of Imām Ahmad, so people can benefit from the rulings إن شاء الله.

Also, I advise sisters to be careful in who they marry, and don't believe the outward appearance of someone online. The reason I bring this up, is because there are sisters (who know who they are) that immediately ask "Can you marry me" — Never rush into it blindly, get to know the person properly and do background checks, especially if he's from a different country.

This even applies for the brothers who must have Ghīrah over their women. Since I have come across brothers online who recommended their own mahārim for Nikāh, and even shared photos of them, which angered me and forced them to delete it, even if they were fully covered, you don't just send pics like that to someone who you haven't met, which I am not allowed to look at to begin with.

May Allāh reward those who look out for their brothers in Islām, and give everyone the spouse which they are seeking and deserve.

2 February 2018 08:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I don't speak about matters of marriage to anyone besides my mother, but I have been posting some general words and reminders here and there for personal benefit, and I'm planning on writing up a Fiqh of marriage according to the Madhab of Imām Ahmad, so people can benefit from the rulings إن شاء الله.

Also, I advise sisters to be careful in who they marry, and don't believe the outward appearance of someone online. The reason I bring this up, is because there are sisters (who know who they are) that immediately ask "Can you marry me" — Never rush into it blindly, get to know the person properly and do background checks, especially if he's from a different country.

This even applies for the brothers who must have Ghīrah over their women. Since I have come across brothers online who recommended their own mahārim for Nikāh, and even shared photos of them, which angered me and forced them to delete it, even if they were fully covered, you don't just send pics like that to someone who you haven't met, which I am not allowed to look at to begin with.

May Allāh reward those who look out for their brothers in Islām, and give everyone the spouse which they are seeking and deserve.

2 February 2018 08:22

Radwan Dakkak shared Al-risālah's post.

May Allāh reward the translator.

2 February 2018 00:33

Radwan Dakkak shared Digital Mimbar's video.

Soothing Recitation | Surah Al-Qamar - Fahad Aziz Niazi

1 February 2018 22:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Soothing Recitation | Surah Al-Qamar - Fahad Aziz Niazi

1 February 2018 22:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Fatwā | Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) includes the issue of “Khalq al-Qur’ān” (claiming the Qur’ān is created) and “Al-Istiwā” (Allāh being above the ‘Arsh) as from the Masā’il al-Khafiyyah (unclear matters), wherein an individual only becomes a Kāfir if the Hujjah is established upon him [1].

Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned the following in his letter to Ahmad Ibn ‘Abdil-Karīm al-Ihsā’ī:

“Indeed, the words of Ibn Taymiyyah where he said that the specific individual is not called a kāfir, unless the hujjah has been established upon him. What is meant by this are not the matters pertaining to major shirk and (clear) apostasy.

But rather it’s pertaining to specific ‘unclear’ matters, whether it was from the usūl (matters of ‘Aqīdah) or from the furū’ (matters of Fiqh), such as matters related to the Sifāt (attributes of Allāh) or the Qur’ān (i.e. claiming it’s created) or the issue of Al-Istiwā’ (Allāh being above the throne), and other matters similar to this.

He then said, indeed the salaf would state in the likes of these matters, we make general takfīr in it, but as for specific takfīr, if he knows the truth and opposes it, he would disbelieve on an individual sense, otherwise he wouldn’t.

Then he mentioned the scenarios of mu’ānadah (stubbornly opposing the truth after knowing it), such as whoever knows the madhab of the Salaf and the madhab of those who oppose them, then he declares in his books that the madhab of the opposition (to the salaf) is correct while insulting and cursing the madhab of the salaf, so this person is considered the mu’ānid (stubborn opposer of the truth) who’s individually judged upon with kufr.”

~ Refer to “Fatāwā al-A’immat an-Najdiyyah” (3/295-296).

[1] Note: At certain times and places, a specific issue may become clear, while at other times and places, the reality shows it’s unclear. Likewise, it may differ depending upon who the doer of kufr is, such as the scholar who debates on its behalf and blind-follower — Concerning this point are details.

1 February 2018 21:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Fatwā | Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) includes the issue of “Khalq al-Qur’ān” (claiming the Qur’ān is created) and “Al-Istiwā’” (Allāh being above the ‘Arsh) as from the Masā’il al-Khafiyyah (unclear matters), wherein an individual only becomes a Kāfir if the Hujjah is established upon him [1].

Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned the following in his letter to Ahmad Ibn ‘Abdil-Karīm al-Ihsā’ī:

“Indeed, the words of Ibn Taymiyyah where he said that the specific individual is not called a kāfir, unless the hujjah has been established upon him. What is meant by this are not the matters pertaining to major shirk and (clear) apostasy.

But rather it’s pertaining to specific ‘unclear’ matters, whether it was from the usūl (matters of ‘Aqīdah) or from the furū’ (matters of Fiqh), such as matters related to the Sifāt (attributes of Allāh) or the Qur’ān (i.e. claiming it’s created) or the issue of Al-Istiwā’ (Allāh being above the throne), and other matters similar to this.

He then said, indeed the salaf would state in the likes of these matters, we make general takfīr in it, but as for specific takfīr, if he knows the truth and opposes it, he would disbelieve on an individual sense, otherwise he wouldn’t.

Then he mentioned the scenarios of mu’ānadah (stubbornly opposing the truth after knowing it), such as whoever knows the madhab of the Salaf and the madhab of those who oppose them, then he declares in his books that the madhab of the opposition (to the salaf) is correct while insulting and cursing the madhab of the salaf, so this person is considered the mu’ānid (stubborn opposer of the truth) who’s individually judged upon with kufr.”

~ Refer to “Fatāwā al-A’immat an-Najdiyyah” (3/295-296).

[1] Note: At certain times and places, a specific issue may become clear, while at other times and places, the reality shows it’s unclear. Likewise, it may differ depending upon who the doer of kufr is, such as the scholar who debates on its behalf and blind-follower — Concerning this point are details.

1 February 2018 21:38

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

AbdurRahman Umar Ibn Bakr Subhanallah ☺

1 February 2018 20:12

Deniz Topal Hahahaha lol

1 February 2018 21:50

Umm Bilal Ameen

1 February 2018 23:06

Muhammad Deen Ameen

29 April 2018 06:56

May Allāh guide them to Islām.

1 February 2018 19:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abu Misk You full had me for a sec lol

1 February 2018 20:05

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Remember when we were speaking about asking Allāh to guide people, instead of destroy them ☺ I am being nice here.

1 February 2018 20:06

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Maryam Umm Agim Who are these?

1 February 2018 20:12

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Hamzah Yusuf (the mushrik). Johnny Depp (his brother in faith).

1 February 2018 20:14

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Sumayyah Omaira One is a better actor than the other

1 February 2018 20:16

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali mark hanson not sheikh

1 February 2018 20:24

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Mohammed Al Khorassani Akhi please make this public

1 February 2018 20:24

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak It's public on my wall if you wanna share from there.

1 February 2018 20:25

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Btw akhi, edit the word insha'Allah after the du'a, as supplications is made with yaqeen. A little benefit.

1 February 2018 20:25

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali https://m.facebook.com/story.php?

story\_fbid=10211805255590024&id=1328589188&ref=content\_filter

1 February 2018 20:26

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Shared part of this on my TG channel "Ulama Archives" over a year ago. #Misconception "Only a Judge can make Takfīr upon an individual, because he is the one who carries out the punishment on him" This statement is so corrupt!! Yes, it's true that the leader of the Muslims carries out the punishment of Allāh upon an individual, however there are other matters that are obligatory for the general muslims to apply, such as whether he gives Salāms to this "individual" or not, or whether he sends mercy upon this "individual" when he dies or not, or whether he inherits from this "individual" or not, or whether he prays Janāzah over him or not, or whether he marries his daughter to him or not? Is this only exclusive to the Judges? No one prays upon the deceased except the Judges? No one can send mercy upon the dead except for the Judges? It really sounds absurd saying this... Rather Takfīr is obligatory upon all Muslims, if you adopt the view that Tārik al-Salāh [Abandoner of Salāh] is a Kāfir, then you "as a general layman" make Takfīr upon him, and you don't give Salāms to him, and you don't marry your daughter to him, and you don't send Allāh's mercy and forgiveness upon him, and you don't pray Janāzah over him, so this deals

- with all the Muslims, what's exclusive to the Judge is carrying out the punishment of Allāh upon him.
1 February 2018 20:51
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Dee Lulu Did johnny depp revert?
1 February 2018 20:54
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Radwan Dakkak Nah, but make du'ā for him.
1 February 2018 20:59
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Aisha Moubarak Someone fill me on the inside joke? I get one needs hidayah... ok maybe a bit more than that, but why's Johnny here?
1 February 2018 21:42
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Sarah Jay Maybe because of the physical resemblance?
1 February 2018 21:47
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Aisha Moubarak I don't see it ♀ ♀
1 February 2018 21:48
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Sarah Jay I do
1 February 2018 21:49
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Aisha Moubarak I looked again... I see it lol
1 February 2018 21:52
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Mariam Kathrin Shaleena Bründel You can not make dua for a human who is not muslim
Good morning
1 February 2018 23:21
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Radwan Dakkak You're right, however I was referring to du'ā of 'guidance', not du'ā of 'mercy and seeking forgiveness'. Apologies for not clarifying that.
1 February 2018 23:33
- Group: Ummah Of Tawheed
- Sidrat Al-Muntaha Sara Jansen
2 February 2018 08:37

May Allāh guide them to Islām.

1 February 2018 19:57

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There's no better feeling than making your mother and grandmother laugh, and laughing with them ☺☺ Look after them and be a family-man, Wallāhi they will make millions of du'ā for you

1 February 2018 17:44

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

There's no better feeling than making your mother and grandmother laugh, and laughing with them ☺☺ Look after them and be a family-man, Wallāhi they will make millions of du'ā for you

1 February 2018 17:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A kāfirah heard me reciting Qur'ān as she walked past, and I told her "I didn't mean to disturb anyone", so she tells me "Please continue, it's the most beautiful thing, I loved listening to the Qur'ān all the time in dubai".

This was one of the most sweetest things I've heard, I was almost going to cry ☹☹☹ She wanted me to keep reciting 🙏🙏🙏

She didn't laugh at me, insult me, hurt me, or tell me to shut up, she respected the words of Allāh

1 February 2018 17:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A kāfirah heard me reciting Qur'ān as she walked past, and I told her "I didn't mean to disturb anyone", so she tells me "Please continue, it's the most beautiful thing, I loved listening to the Qur'ān all the time in dubai".

This was one of the most sweetest things I've heard, I was almost going to cry 😭😭😭 She wanted me to keep reciting 🙏🙏🙏

She didn't laugh at me, insult me, hurt me, or tell me to shut up, she respected the words of Allāh

1 February 2018 17:15

Radwan Dakkak shared Abu Hurayrah's post.

الله أكبر🔊

1 February 2018 12:50

Radwan Dakkak shared Abu Hurayrah's post.

1 February 2018 12:50

Radwan Dakkak shared Abu Hurayrah's post.

Haqq.

1 February 2018 12:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A muslimah takes a risk in Nikāh, but if she puts her trust in Allah, He will lead her to the truthful innocent man. Allah will make this spouse the source of power, strength and comfort for her, the same way she will be his biggest supporter and comfort zone.

1 February 2018 10:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A muslimah takes a risk in Nikāh, but if she puts her trust in Allah, He will lead her to the truthful innocent man. Allah will make this spouse the source of power, strength and comfort for her, the same way she will be his biggest supporter and comfort zone.

1 February 2018 10:15

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ibrahim Qānit Jazaakah Allah khairan akhi
1 February 2018 08:26

Radwan Dakkak اللهم آمين، وإياكم
1 February 2018 08:28

Abu Qital Maldifi Is this dhalaailu tawheed?
1 February 2018 15:43

Prince Prince Akhi is it available in english
2 February 2018 15:26

Abu Qital Maldifi Do u have English translation of it akhi.?
12 February 2018 17:16

Excellent booklet to teach our children Tawhīd — “50 Q&A in ‘Aqīdah” (11 pages) by Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله).

#Readers | Link to the book — https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B73Fi\_sQc-iNUmVwSIFnQU8xT3M/view

#Listeners | Link to the audio — <https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=VYbaNw5OxC8>

1 February 2018 08:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Khan Tauheed Ahmad Unable to Understand it,akhi do you have English version of this book? Jazak'Allahu khair
2 February 2018 02:11

Excellent booklet to teach our children Tawhīd — “50 Q&A in ‘Aqīdah” (11 pages) by Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله).

#Readers | Link to the book — https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B73Fi\_sQc-iNUmVwSIFnQU8xT3M/view

#Listeners | Link to the audio — <https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=VYbaNw5OxC8>

1 February 2018 08:23

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

<https://www.gofundme.com/muslims-behind-bars>

1 February 2018 08:05

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.gofundme.com/muslims-behind-bars>

1 February 2018 08:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Studying the science of hadīth helps you in so many ways; Not only does it keep you pre-occupied with the noble Prophet and his companions, but the stronger you are in hadīth, the better you are able to distinguish between authentic|weak when you read narrations and books of the scholars.

The following is all about Imām ash-Shāfi’ī (رحمه الله):

“And his strict adherence to the Sunnah reached the point that he used to advise his companions to stick to it, so he used to say:

“Stick to the people of hadīth, since they are the most correct amongst the people.”

And he said “If I see a man from amongst the people of hadith, then it is as if I have seen a man from the companions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

May Allāh وتعالى سبحانه reward them with good, they preserved the foundations for us, so they have an excellence over us.”

And he (i.e. Imām ash-Shāfi’ī), may Allāh have mercy upon him, recited the following verses of poetry:

All forms of knowledge besides the Qur’ān is a pre-occupation — Except for the Hadīth and knowing the Fiqh (jurisprudence) of the religion;

Knowledge is that which contains “he said...” or “he informed us...” — Anything other than that is from the whisperings of the Shaytān.”

~ Refer to “Al-Bidāyah wan-Nihāyah” (10/254) by Imām Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله).

31 January 2018 23:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Studying the science of hadīth helps you in so many ways; Not only does it keep you pre-occupied with the noble Prophet and his companions, but the stronger you are in hadīth, the better you are able to distinguish between authentic|weak when you read narrations and books of the scholars.

The following is all about Imām ash-Shāfi‘ī (رحمه الله):

“And his strict adherence to the Sunnah reached the point that he used to advise his companions to stick to it, so he used to say:

“Stick to the people of hadīth, since they are the most correct amongst the people.”

And he said “If I see a man from amongst the people of hadith, then it is as if I have seen a man from the companions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

May Allāh سبحانه وتعالى reward them with good, they preserved the foundations for us, so they have an excellence over us.”

And he (i.e. Imām ash-Shāfi‘ī), may Allāh have mercy upon him, recited the following verses of poetry:

All forms of knowledge besides the Qur’ān is a pre-occupation — Except for the Hadīth and knowing the Fiqh (jurisprudence) of the religion;

Knowledge is that which contains “he said...” or “he informed us...” — Anything other than that is from the whisperings of the Shaytān.”

~ Refer to “Al-Bidāyah wan-Nihāyah” (10/254) by Imām Ibn Kathīr (رحمه الله).

31 January 2018 23:32

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

How many people out there have a soft spot for mushrikīn, treating them kindly and gently, but when it comes to someone holding firmly onto Tawhīd, they consider him a ‘Takfīrī Khārijī’ who’s worse than the mushrikīn.

This shows a lack of Walā’ and Barā’, ignoring the fact that the worst muslim is better than the ‘best’ kāfir.

Imām Ahmad was attributed to the Khawārij, yet that did not harm him. Imām Ibn Taymiyyah was attributed to the Khawārij, yet that did not harm him. Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb till this day is attributed to the Khawārij, yet all they’re doing is giving our great scholars more hassanāt (good deeds) for their slander and backbiting.

Yes, we make Barā’ah from the deviant path of the Khawārij which makes Takfīr upon others based upon “Sins”, and “Lawāzim” (the consequences of one’s statement), and “Tasalsul” (chain Takfīr), hastening and making blank Takfīr upon muslim populations unjustly, including other major principles and traits.

But why do you think extremism and Fitnah is only found within the Khawārij, don’t you know that the Fitnah and extremism of the Murji’ah was considered by the Salaf as much worse than the Fitnah of the Khawārij?!

And we can see the results of that today, the Murji’ah went in extremes in not applying Takfīr upon individuals who are Tawāghīṭ, mushrikīn and murtaddīn, and other Murji’ah went in extremes in excluding actions from the nullifiers of Īmān, saying one doesn’t disbelieve except via Istihlāl (declaring it lawful) and I’tiqād (belief in the heart), even if he allied with the Kuffār against the whole Ummah of Muhammad and replaced the Sharī’ah!

The Murji’ah have been making over 1,000 excuses (without exaggeration!) and warning against Takfīr upon the Tawāghīṭ and Murtaddīn, but ask yourself O murji’, who you have benefited by making such excuses? By Allāh, the KUFFĀR are using your own Fatāwah against our own brothers, have you no shame?! Are you pleasing Allāh or are you a slave for the Tāghūt?!

Allāh said in Sūrat al-Fath, “So they enter into the religion in multitudes” — Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) said, “And they also leave the religion in multitudes”.

The more you learn about your Dīn, the more Murtaddīn you see! The real FITNAH is in excusing apostate rulers and mushrikīn, as that only results in massacres and humiliation for the Ummah.

May Allāh keep us firm upon the manhaj of Ahlus-Sunnah which is in-between both extremes; The laxation of the Murji'ah and the negligence of the Khawārij.

31 January 2018 21:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

How many people out there have a soft spot for mushrikīn, treating them kindly and gently, but when it comes to someone holding firmly onto Tawhīd, they consider him a 'Takfirī Khārijī' who's worse than the mushrikīn.

This shows a lack of Walā' and Barā', ignoring the fact that the worst muslim is better than the 'best' kāfir.

Imām Ahmad was attributed to the Khawārij, yet that did not harm him. Imām Ibn Taymiyyah was attributed to the Khawārij, yet that did not harm him. Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb till this day is attributed to the Khawārij, yet all they're doing is giving our great scholars more hassanāt (good deeds) for their slander and backbiting.

Yes, we make Barā'ah from the deviant path of the Khawārij which makes Takfir upon others based upon "Sins", and "Lawāzīm" (the consequences of one's statement), and "Tasalsul" (chain Takfir), hastening and making blank Takfir upon muslim populations unjustly, including other major principles and traits.

But why do you think extremism and Fitnah is only found within the Khawārij, don't you know that the Fitnah and extremism of the Murji'ah was considered by the Salaf as much worse than the Fitnah of the Khawārij?!

And we can see the results of that today, the Murji'ah went in extremes in not applying Takfir upon individuals who are Tawāghīt, mushrikīn and murtaddīn, and other Murji'ah went in extremes in excluding actions from the nullifiers of Īmān, saying one doesn't disbelieve except via Istihlāl (declaring it lawful) and I'tiqād (belief in the heart), even if he allied with the Kuffār against the whole Ummah of Muhammad and replaced the Sharī'ah!

The Murji'ah have been making over 1,000 excuses (without exaggeration!) and warning against Takfir upon the Tawāghīt and Murtaddīn, but ask yourself O murji', who you have benefited by making such excuses? By Allāh, the KUFFĀR are using your own Fatāwah against our own brothers, have you no shame?! Are you pleasing Allāh or are you a slave for the Tāghūt?!

Allāh said in Sūrat al-Fath, "So they enter into the religion in multitudes" — Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) said, "And they also leave the religion in multitudes".

The more you learn about your Dīn, the more Murtaddīn you see! The real FITNAH is in excusing apostate rulers and mushrikīn, as that only results in massacres and humiliation for the Ummah.

May Allāh keep us firm upon the manhaj of Ahlus-Sunnah which is in-between both extremes; The laxation of the Murji'ah and the negligence of the Khawārij.

31 January 2018 21:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Extremism is something that causes one to leave the religion, even though his intention is to strictly follow it.

Don't forget that the first Shirk that began in our Ummah was initiated by the Rāfidah, and this was due to their extremism in loving the Prophet's family.

And how many mushrikīn idol worshippers claim to love 'Īsa and Muhammad عليهما الصلاة والسلام, yet end up worshipping them.

You might ask, how can you call them idol worshippers, isn't that only for statues and rocks? Well Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) even said "Do not make my grave an idol that is worshipped" as mentioned in the authentic Hadīth:

"O Allāh! Do not make my grave an idol that is worshipped. The anger on those who took the graves of their Prophets as places of prostration was severe." [Sahih].

May Allāh protect us from all forms of extremism.

31 January 2018 20:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Extremism is something that causes one to leave the religion, even though his intention is to strictly follow it.

Don't forget that the first Shirk that began in our Ummah was initiated by the Rāfidah, and this was due to their extremism in loving the Prophet's family.

And how many mushrikīn idol worshippers claim to love 'Īsa and Muhammad عليهما الصلاة والسلام, yet end up worshipping them.

You might ask, how can you call them idol worshippers, isn't that only for statues and rocks? Well Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) even said "Do not make my grave an idol that is worshipped" as mentioned in the authentic Hadīth:

"O Allāh! Do not make my grave an idol that is worshipped. The anger on those who took the graves of their Prophets as places of prostration was severe." [Sahīh].

May Allāh protect us from all forms of extremism.

31 January 2018 20:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allāh protect all our brothers and sisters from making slips that cause harm for themselves — Look after yourself in order to look after your Ummah.

31 January 2018 16:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allāh protect all our brothers and sisters from making slips that cause harm for themselves — Look after yourself in order to look after your Ummah.

31 January 2018 16:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Hidden_Defect | This is a secret hidden defect unknown to many scholars! The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) says:

"The Hadīth, "Among the things of this world, women and perfume have been made beloved to me, and the coolness of my eyes is in prayer.", this Hadīth outwardly seems authentic, however there's a defect, it has a hidden break in the chain."

31 January 2018 14:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Hidden_Defect | This is a secret hidden defect unknown to many scholars! The Imām, Al-Hāfidh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) says:

"The Hadīth, "Among the things of this world, women and perfume have been made beloved to me, and the coolness of my eyes is in prayer.", this Hadīth outwardly seems authentic, however there's a defect, it has a hidden break in the chain."

31 January 2018 14:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"What is yours is going to come to you even if you are sleeping in your home. Just be patient and make Du'ā, but be patient."

~ Shaykh Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

31 January 2018 00:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"What is yours is going to come to you even if you are sleeping in your home. Just be patient and make Du'ā, but be patient."

~ Shaykh Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

31 January 2018 00:20

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://youtu.be/yGOjJp2V3f8>
<https://youtu.be/yGOjJp2V3f8>

Wonderful video by the noble Imām, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) back when he was in Khurasān 🕊

31 January 2018 00:05

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://youtu.be/yGOjJp2V3f8>

Wonderful video by the noble Imām, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) back when he was in Khurasān 🕊

<https://youtu.be/yGOjJp2V3f8>

31 January 2018 00:04

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

- Abu Hurayrah What about me
31 January 2018 00:38
- Radwan Dakkak You're on the 2nd level of my loved ones 😊
31 January 2018 00:40
- Abu Hurayrah 😊 that's love
31 January 2018 00:41
- Radwan Dakkak Alhamdulillah 😊
31 January 2018 00:41
- Abu Hurayrah When you coming to pick up the book 😊
31 January 2018 00:41
- Radwan Dakkak I'll let u know when Insha'Allāh, just trying to lessen some load off me, before taking on this task, hope u understand.
31 January 2018 00:43
- Abu Hurayrah Hm, understood
31 January 2018 00:44

The same feeling I get whenever I open up a clip and listen to the truthful Imāms and Mujāhideen; Those special green birds, تقبلهم الله جميعاً

30 January 2018 23:56

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B0UPU11RJk4&list=RDyhKoC9paT8s&index=3>
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B0UPU11RJk4&list=RDyhKoC9paT8s&index=3>

Don't let people get to you, because in the end you will know who you are and what others falsely claimed you are. If you're going through a tough time, open your heart to the words of Allah, as this is the true Shifa'.

Find some righteous companions who love to recite Qur'an, and just sit together for hours reciting, you will literally have the best time.

Don't use your blessed efforts in asking what, how and why - Just do it, and then see how u feel. May Allah change your lives for the better.

30 January 2018 22:23

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B0UPU11RJk4&list=RDyhKoC9paT8s&index=3>

Don't let people get to you, because in the end you will know who you are and what others falsely claimed you are. If you're going through a tough time, open your heart to the words of Allah, as this is the true Shifa'.

Find some righteous companions who love to recite Qur'an, and just sit together for hours reciting, you will literally have the best time.

Don't use your blessed efforts in asking what, how and why - Just do it, and then see how u feel. May Allah change your lives for the better.

30 January 2018 22:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

*A Happy And Smiling Face*

Ibn Battaal said:

«إِنَّ لِقَاءَ النَّاسِ بِالتَّبَسُّمِ وَطَلَاقَةَ الْوَجْهِ مِنْ أَخْلَاقِ النَّبِوةِ وَهُوَ مَنْافٍ لِلتَّكْبُرِ، وَجَالِبٌ لِلْمَوَدَّةِ

“Verily, greeting people with a smile and a happy face is from the prophetic manners, it removes arrogance, and attracts love.”

[From Explanation of Saheeh Bukhari, (5/193) |

30 January 2018 21:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

*A Happy And Smiling Face*

Ibn Battaal said:

«إِنَّ لِقَاءَ النَّاسِ بِالتَّبَسُّمِ وَطَلَاقَةَ الْوَجْهِ مِنْ أَخْلَاقِ النَّبِوةِ وَهُوَ مَنْافٍ لِلتَّكْبُرِ، وَجَالِبٌ لِلْمَوَدَّةِ

“Verily, greeting people with a smile and a happy face is from the prophetic manners, it removes arrogance, and attracts love.”

[From Explanation of Saheeh Bukhari, (5/193) |

30 January 2018 21:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

The great Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah Siddīq Hassan Khān (رحمه الله) wrote in his book entitled;

“The noble example in treating women via what’s been confirmed from Allāh and His Messenger” (page 526):

Chapter 435 — What has been narrated in changing women’s names.

Ibn ‘Umar reported, “That a daughter of ‘Umar was called ‘Āsiya (disobedient), so the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) named her ‘Jamīlah’ (beautiful).”

It was narrated by At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Mājah; At-Tirmidhī said the Hadīth is Hassan.

It was also narrated by Muslim concisely, he said: “Indeed, the Messenger of Allāh changed the name of ‘Āsiya, and said: ‘You are Jamīlah’ (beautiful).”

Abū Hurayrah reported, “Zaynab used to be called "Barrah" (good), and it was said that she was praising herself. So the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) changed her name to Zaynab.”

Muhammad Ibn ‘Amr Ibn ‘Attā’ reported that he said:

“I had given the name Barra to my daughter. Zaynab Bint Abī Salamah told me that Allāh’s Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) had forbidden me to give this name.

(She said): I was also called Barra, but Allāh’s Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: Don’t hold yourself to be pious. It is Allāh alone who knows the people of piety among you. They (the Companions) said: Then, what name should we give to her? He said: Name her Zaynab.”

It was narrated by Muslim and Abū Dāwūd.

30 January 2018 20:40

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

The great Imām, Shaykh al-ʿAllāmah Siddīq Hassan Khān (رحمه الله) wrote in his book entitled;

“The noble example in treating women via what’s been confirmed from Allāh and His Messenger” (page 526):

Chapter 435 — What has been narrated in changing women’s names.

Ibn ʿUmar reported, “That a daughter of ʿUmar was called ʿĀsiya (disobedient), so the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) named her ʿJamīlah’ (beautiful).”

It was narrated by At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Mājah; At-Tirmidhī said the Hadīth is Hassan.

It was also narrated by Muslim concisely, he said: “Indeed, the Messenger of Allāh changed the name of ʿĀsiya, and said: ‘You are Jamīlah’ (beautiful).”

Abū Hurayrah reported, “Zaynab used to be called "Barrah" (good), and it was said that she was praising herself. So the Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) changed her name to Zaynab.”

Muhammad Ibn ʿAmr Ibn ʿAttā’ reported that he said:

“I had given the name Barra to my daughter. Zaynab Bint Abī Salamah told me that Allāh’s Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) had forbidden me to give this name.

(She said): I was also called Barra, but Allāh’s Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: Don’t hold yourself to be pious. It is Allāh alone who knows the people of piety among you. They (the Companions) said: Then, what name should we give to her? He said: Name her Zaynab.”

It was narrated by Muslim and Abū Dāwūd.

30 January 2018 20:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Straight out!

“Every human tenderness, love, kindness, warm-heartedness, after the mothers is a delusion & an illusion. Ya Allāh grant our mothers ferdous.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

30 January 2018 08:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Straight out!

“Every human tenderness, love, kindness, warm-heartedness, after the mothers is a delusion & an illusion. Ya Allāh grant our mothers ferdous.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

30 January 2018 08:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Tatār (mongols) came towards a muslim saying — “Allāh loves us, since He gave us victory over you”.

So the muslim replied; Rather, us muslims were like sheep without a shepherd, so Allāh sent dogs like yourself to bring us back to the straight path, not because He loves you.

30 January 2018 00:51

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Tatār (mongols) came towards a muslim saying — “Allāh loves us, since He gave us victory over you”.

So the muslim replied; Rather, us muslims were like sheep without a shepherd, so Allāh sent dogs like yourself to bring us back to the straight path, not because He loves you.

30 January 2018 00:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

{Western Islām} New religion! Campaign for voting as if it's pillar #6. Yet turn a deaf ear & blind eye to oppressed prisoners and Muslim causes.

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

29 January 2018 09:16

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

{Western Islām} New religion! Campaign for voting as if it's pillar #6. Yet turn a deaf ear & blind eye to oppressed prisoners and Muslim causes.

— Shaykh Ahmad Musa Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

29 January 2018 09:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“A man’s elegance begins from lowering his gaze.”

أناقة الرجل تبدأ من غص البصر

29 January 2018 08:59

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“A man’s elegance begins from lowering his gaze.”

أناقة الرجل تبدأ من غص البصر

29 January 2018 08:53

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

We tend to see the translation for the words “Ar-Rahmān” & “Ar-Rahīm” as being “The All-Merciful, the Most-Merciful”.

However, a better translation may be derived from understanding what the names of Allāh mean, so to keep it simple:

1. “Ar-Rahmān” is a name solely restricted to Allāh, and this relates to His essence, so a good translation for Ar-Rahmān would be “The lord of mercy”.

2. “Ar-Rahīm” is also the name of Allāh, and this relates to His actions. Moreover it’s from the أسماء المشتركة (names which may be shared among others), so it’s permissible to call someone “Rahīm” (as humans have the quality of giving mercy). However, Allāh is the possessor of infinite mercy. A good translation for Ar-Rahīm would be “The giver of mercy”.

والله أعلم

29 January 2018 00:15

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

We tend to see the translation for the words “Ar-Rahmān” & “Ar-Rahīm” as being “The All-Merciful, the Most-Merciful”.

However, a better translation may be derived from understanding what the names of Allāh mean, so to keep it simple:

1. “Ar-Rahmān” is a name solely restricted to Allāh, and this relates to His essence, so a good translation for Ar-Rahmān would be “The lord of mercy”.

2. “Ar-Rahīm” is also the name of Allāh, and this relates to His actions. Moreover it’s from the أسماء المشتركة (names which may be shared among others), so it’s permissible to call someone “Rahīm” (as humans have the quality of giving mercy). However, Allāh is the possessor of infinite mercy. A good translation for Ar-Rahīm would be “The giver of mercy”.

والله أعلم

29 January 2018 00:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

A gentle reminder on the dangers of being amazed with yourself.

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) says:

“Many of the people are either accompanied by Riyā’ (insincerity — showing off) and ‘Ujb (being amazed with oneself).

Riyā’ is from the aspect of committing (minor) shirk with the creation, and ‘Ujb is from the aspect of committing (minor) shirk with oneself, and this is the reality of the arrogant person.

For indeed, the one who shows off does not actualise Allāh’s statement, “To you (O Allāh) we worship”, and the one amazed with himself doesn’t actualise Allāh’s statement, “To you (O Allāh) we ask for help”.

So whoever actualises Allāh’s statement, “To you (O Allāh) we worship”, he would be free from Riyā’.

And whoever actualises Allāh’s statement, “To you (O Allāh) we ask for help”, he would be free from being amazed with himself.

It’s reported in the well-known Hadīth, “There are 3 destructive things; Holding onto stinginess, following whims, and someone being amazed with themselves”. [End Quote]

However, what does ‘Ujb (or al-‘Ajab) specifically mean according to the scholars?

Imām ‘Abdullāh Ibn al-Mubārak (رحمه الله) said, “Al-‘Ujb is to see something within yourself which you don’t see from anyone else.”

Imām al-Mahāsibī (رحمه الله) said, “Al-‘Ujb is to praise oneself due to what you have performed or learnt, whilst forgetting that bounties come from Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic.”

The main causes for Riyā’ and ‘Ujb are ignorance of Allāh and forgetting his favour and bounties upon you, exalting oneself and looking at your virtues, and allowing the Shaytān to mislead you.

Imām Yahyā Ibn Mu’āth (رحمه الله) said, “Beware of al-‘Ujb, for indeed being amazed with oneself is a destruction to its people, and al-‘Ujb burns away your good deeds just like the hellfire burns wood.”

May Allāh give us Ikhlās, اللهم آمين.

28 January 2018 22:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A gentle reminder on the dangers of being amazed with yourself.

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) says:

“Many of the people are either accompanied by Riyā’ (insincerity — showing off) and ‘Ujb (being amazed with oneself).

Riyā’ is from the aspect of committing (minor) shirk with the creation, and ‘Ujb is from the aspect of committing (minor) shirk with oneself, and this is the reality of the arrogant person.

For indeed, the one who shows off does not actualise Allāh’s statement, “To you (O Allāh) we worship”, and the one amazed with himself doesn’t actualise Allāh’s statement, “To you (O Allāh) we ask for help”.

So whoever actualises Allāh’s statement, “To you (O Allāh) we worship”, he would be free from Riyā’.

And whoever actualises Allāh’s statement, “To you (O Allāh) we ask for help”, he would be free from being amazed with himself.

It’s reported in the well-known Hadīth, “There are 3 destructive things; Holding onto stinginess, following whims, and someone being amazed with themselves”. [End Quote]

However, what does ‘Ujb (or al-‘Ajab) specifically mean according to the scholars?

Imām ‘Abdullāh Ibn al-Mubārak (رحمه الله) said, “Al-‘Ujb is to see something within yourself which you don’t see from anyone else.”

Imām al-Mahāsibī (رحمه الله) said, “Al-‘Ujb is to praise oneself due to what you have performed or learnt, whilst forgetting that bounties come from Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic.”

The main causes for Riyā’ and ‘Ujb are ignorance of Allāh and forgetting his favour and bounties upon you, exalting oneself and looking at your virtues, and allowing the Shaytān to mislead you.

Imām Yahyā Ibn Mu'āth (رحمه الله) said, "Beware of al-'Ujb, for indeed being amazed with oneself is a destruction to its people, and al-'Ujb burns away your good deeds just like the hellfire burns wood."

May Allāh give us Ikhhlās, آمين اللهم.

28 January 2018 22:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"If education and upbringing is not based upon Tawhīd and disbelief in the Taghūt, and upon Jihad in the path of Allāh and love & enmity for the sake of Allāh, then it will be destined to fail, and the youth will become supporters of the Taghūt and servants of the traitors!"

~ Shaykh Sulaymān ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (حفظه الله).

28 January 2018 21:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"If education and upbringing is not based upon Tawhīd and disbelief in the Taghūt, and upon Jihad in the path of Allāh and love & enmity for the sake of Allāh, then it will be destined to fail, and the youth will become supporters of the Taghūt and servants of the traitors!"

~ Shaykh Sulaymān ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (حفظه الله).

28 January 2018 21:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Be sincere and kill that ego; Follow the evidences.

! يضيغ وقتك إن ناقشت مُعتقداً :: يأن آراءه وحى من الله

"You will waste your time if you argued with someone who believes — That his opinions are revelation from Allāh!"

28 January 2018 20:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Be sincere and kill that ego; Follow the evidences.

! يضيغ وقتك إن ناقشت مُعتقداً :: يأن آراءه وحى من الله

"You will waste your time if you argued with someone who believes — That his opinions are revelation from Allāh!"

28 January 2018 20:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

:advised his students رحمه الله Imam Bukhari

Be delighted, because the people of amusements are busy in their fun and games, manufacturers" are busy with manufacturing, business people are busy with their businesses, and as for you, then ".you are busy with the Prophet and his Companions

[Siyar A'lam an-Nubala v.12 pg.445]

28 January 2018 20:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

:advised his students رحمه الله Imam Bukhari

Be delighted, because the people of amusements are busy in their fun and games, manufacturers" are busy with manufacturing, business people are busy with their businesses, and as for you, then ".you are busy with the Prophet and his Companions

[Siyar A'lam an-Nubala v.12 pg.445]

Radwan Dakkak shared UWS Penrith MSA's photo.

Just realised an admin posted this almost 3 years ago ☹️ The kāfir wrote down his email to finish off the conversation and refute me; But after emailing him, I'm still waiting for a response after almost 3 years...

28 January 2018 19:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Sarah Abdul Qadir She's still alive as an asīrah now? ثبتها الله وفك الله اسرها
28 January 2018 19:39

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak I have no idea, آمين.
28 January 2018 19:43

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Khawala Adam Walaa hawla wa LA qowata illa billah!!! Can I share it?
28 January 2018 20:35

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Khawala Adam May Allah destroy the oppressors. Ameen
28 January 2018 20:35

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Āmīn, Inna lillāhi wa inna ilayhi rāji'ūn, yes please share the message, least we can do.
28 January 2018 20:36

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abou Ilyas ALLAHOUMAH 3ALYKA BI Tawhageet EL3ARAB GJAME3AN.Allahoumah DEMERHOUM DADTMIRA A3Dah elmilah
29 January 2018 23:55

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Umm Hafsa أسيرة عند طاغوت يكبلني بقيد عار وأيام مريرات فيهتك الكلب عرضي، ثم يصعقني كي لا أدافع عن عرضي وعن ذاتي I'm an aseerah with the taghut who shackless me with a chain that disgrace and days that bitter so the dog violates my honour, then he stuns me so that i do not defend my honour and myself الله أكبر
31 January 2018 01:37

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Jazāk Allāhu Khayran for the correction, I understood مرير (bitter) as مرور (passing by), just looked up يصعق which does mean electrocute/stun.
31 January 2018 09:22

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Umm Hafsa وأنت فجزاك الله خيرا
31 January 2018 11:54

**A letter from our ukht in Misr - May Allāh destroy the modern-day Fir'awn of Egypt As-Sīsī**** ☹️

Do not write to me any words in trying to comfort my suffering — Woe to you, and to the deliverers of speeches.

My prison cell has become tightened with scattered lines of poetry — In every corner (of the cell), there are 1000 words.

Enough of your speeches, your disgraceful silence keeps me calm — Are your messages going to really cure my pain?

I'm an Aseerah with the Tāghūt who shackles me — With a disgraceful chain and the days are bitter.

When I wake up, anxiety drinks me and I drink from it — And humiliation strikes me like the whips I receive in my night.

So the dog violates my honour, then he stuns me — So that I do not defend my honour and myself.

He insults me when he strips me and beats me — He takes pleasure in striking me with crooked metal and hearing my cries.

When he drops it out of his hand, I asked him for how much longer — I remain in my shackles naked for hours.

The miscreant coward laughs whenever I cry, and makes a ridicule of — My mother and the honour of my father, and insults my chiefs.

O people, O free ones from our ummah — O everyone whose heart is moved by my words.

O people of honour - if there is any honour left - within yourselves — O every eye that cried from the sadness of the Aseerāt.

Isn't there any free man among you to take my soul — Or eliminate this prison so that my suffering may come to an end.

How cheap are tears and two eyes that shed them — Has disgrace ever been removed by mere shouting slogans.

You cry for my honour, so what chivalry and manhood has remained — Among men whose aching pain is like my pain.

They threaten me with words, which cause tears to flow — As if they did not have enough of the flood of my flowing tears.

So if the free women do not have a hand of support — Then for whom is blood going to be shed on the day of confrontation (in Ribāt).

And to who will my heroes store their power for — If we are here, and the heroism did not bring any benefit.

What a disgrace for you, if your relatives have been violated — And what an unbearable disgrace for the thousands of chaste women.

While you are either COWARDS and SHIVERING — Or totally pre-occupied in the enjoyments (of this world).

O lord give me strength since their determination has slackened — They were not moved by my dishonoured soul and calamity.

O lord be with me, for who besides you knows what — I am living from my humiliation and heart-brokenness.

If the men who are supposed to protect me have lost their masculinity — Then who else am I supposed to call, and what benefit does my calling have!

~ Related by Al-'Iqāb al-Misrī, i.e. Abī Mawaddah (حفظه الله).

28 January 2018 18:20

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

**A letter from our ukht in Misr - May Allāh destroy the modern-day Fir'awn of Egypt As-Sīsī** ☹

Do not write to me any words in trying to comfort my suffering — Woe to you, and to the deliverers of speeches.

My prison cell has become tightened with scattered lines of poetry — In every corner (of the cell), there are 1000 words.

Enough of your speeches, your disgraceful silence keeps me calm — Are your messages going to really cure my pain?

I'm an Aseerah with the Tāghūt who shackles me — With a disgraceful chain and the days are bitter.

When I wake up, anxiety drinks me and I drink from it — And humiliation strikes me like the whips I receive in my night.

So the dog violates my honour, then he stuns me — So that I do not defend my honour and myself.

He insults me when he strips me and beats me — He takes pleasure in striking me with crooked metal and hearing my cries.

When he drops it out of his hand, I asked him for how much longer — I remain in my shackles naked for hours.

The miscreant coward laughs whenever I cry, and makes a ridicule of — My mother and the honour of my father, and insults my chiefs.

O people, O free ones from our ummah — O everyone whose heart is moved by my words.

O people of honour - if there is any honour left - within yourselves — O every eye that cried from the sadness of the Aseerāt.

Isn't there any free man among you to take my soul — Or eliminate this prison so that my suffering may come to an end.

How cheap are tears and two eyes that shed them — Has disgrace ever been removed by mere shouting slogans.

You cry for my honour, so what chivalry and manhood has remained — Among men whose aching pain is like my pain.

They threaten me with words, which cause tears to flow — As if they did not have enough of the flood of my flowing tears.

So if the free women do not have a hand of support — Then for whom is blood going to be shed on the day of confrontation (in Ribāt).

And to who will my heroes store their power for — If we are here, and the heroism did not bring any benefit.

What a disgrace for you, if your relatives have been violated — And what an unbearable disgrace for the thousands of chaste women.

While you are either COWARDS and SHIVERING — Or totally pre-occupied in the enjoyments (of this world).

O lord give me strength since their determination has slackened — They were not moved by my dishonoured soul and calamity.

O lord be with me, for who besides you knows what — I am living from my humiliation and heart-brokenness.

If the men who are supposed to protect me have lost their masculinity — Then who else am I supposed to call, and what benefit does my calling have!

~ Related by Al-'Iqāb al-Misrī, i.e. Abī Mawaddah (حفظه الله).

28 January 2018 18:20

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When someone pleases you, it's only natural to love them so much more. However, many brothers like to be pleased without doing the same for their wife. This is a selfish mentality, since a true man tries his best to fulfil what pleases her soul, never giving her a chance to regret loving him.

The story of never breaking a woman's heart is a wonderful example of this, and it always comes up on my mind سبحانه الله - May Allāh reward that man with Jannatul-Firdaws.

28 January 2018 13:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

When someone pleases you, it's only natural to love them so much more. However, many brothers like to be pleased without doing the same for their wife. This is a selfish mentality, since a true man tries his best to fulfil what pleases her soul, never giving her a chance to regret loving him.

The story of never breaking a woman's heart is a wonderful example of this, and it always comes up on my mind سبحانه الله - May Allāh reward that man with Jannatul-Firdaws.

28 January 2018 13:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Everything that's built upon Halāl will place tranquility and blessings in your life. True pleasure is found in obeying Allāh's commands; Wallāhi our enjoyment in loving for Allāh's sake and pleasing Him is much more than the enjoyment of those who please the Shaytān with their worldly amusements.

28 January 2018 01:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Everything that's built upon Halāl will place tranquility and blessings in your life. True pleasure is found in obeying Allāh's commands; Wallāhi our enjoyment in loving for Allāh's sake and pleasing Him is much more than the enjoyment of those who please the Shaytān with their worldly amusements.

28 January 2018 01:19

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

I will be sharing a small letter by an Aseerah from the land of Kinānah (Misr) tomorrow, Inshā'Allāh Related by Abi Mawaddah.

28 January 2018 00:13

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yhKoC9paT8s>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yhKoC9paT8s>

Mashallah!!! Allahumma Baarik lahu - Surat al-Layl.

27 January 2018 21:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yhKoC9paT8s>

Mashallah!!! Allahumma Baarik lahu - Surat al-Layl.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yhKoC9paT8s>

27 January 2018 21:16

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oT-mo8I5j5I&list=PLS46OqkAU\_ZImF7kSrD5yQwWbpm2AlvAf

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oT-mo8I5j5I&list=PLS46OqkAU\_ZImF7kSrD5yQwWbpm2AlvAf

Surat ash-Shams with nice video effects, subhanAllah his slow|smooth recitation has got me hooked.

27 January 2018 21:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oT-mo8I5j5I&list=PLS46OqkAU\_ZImF7kSrD5yQwWbpm2AlvAf

Surat ash-Shams with nice video effects, subhanAllah his slow|smooth recitation has got me hooked.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oT-mo8I5j5I&list=PLS46OqkAU\_ZImF7kSrD5yQwWbpm2AlvAf

27 January 2018 21:07

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

Duster Eeman اللهم اجعلنا منهم.. الله يحفظهم وفك اسرهم

27 January 2018 21:08

It's not a condition for our beloved brothers and sisters to know all the details of 'Aqīdah, Hadīth and Takfir. These are matters which one can keep learning.

As long as you stick to the clear verses in the Qur'ān and Sunnah, and hold onto the righteous scholars who understand the Manhaj of the Salaf, you'll be on the right track Inshā'Allāh.

27 January 2018 18:49

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

It's not a condition for our beloved brothers and sisters to know all the details of 'Aqīdah, Hadīth and Takfir. These are matters which one can keep learning.

As long as you stick to the clear verses in the Qur'ān and Sunnah, and hold onto the righteous scholars who understand the Manhaj of the Salaf, you'll be on the right track Inshā'Allāh.

27 January 2018 18:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Q. If someone believes ignorance can be an excuse in Major Shirk, is he considered a Kāfir?

A. No, this contradicts the Ijmā' (consensus) of Ahlus-Sunnah as mentioned by the Imāms of Najd. Rather it's pure misguidance and the belief of the Mu'tazilah and Khawārij who come with false principles to call him an absolute Kāfir.

A complete book would be required to easily refute all the false arguments of these Ghulāt al-Khawārij, however Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān (رحمه الله) from the Imāms of Najd summed it up very briefly in his book "Kashf ash-Shubhatayn" (page 28) by saying:

"And thereafter, if it were decreed that a person from the Scholars had stopped short from viewing the kufr of a person from the ignorant blind followers of al-jahmiyyah or the ignorant blind followers of the grave worshippers, it would definitely be possible for us to pardon him regarding that, because he is excusably mistaken.

We do not say that he is a disbeliever because he is not safe from mistakes, and the Ijmā' regarding that is absolutely clear-cut. And it is understandable for him to make a blunder because those who are better than him have made errors."

And there are literally dozens of quotes from the Imāms of Najd which mention him being excusably mistaken who's opinion would be rejected, as this is from the masā'il al-khafiyyah (unclear matters).

والله أعلم

27 January 2018 17:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Q. If someone believes ignorance can be an excuse in Major Shirk, is he considered a Kāfir?

A. No, this contradicts the Ijmā' (consensus) of Ahlus-Sunnah as mentioned by the Imāms of Najd. Rather it's pure misguidance and the belief of the Mu'tazilah and Khawārij who come with false principles to call him an absolute Kāfir.

A complete book would be required to easily refute all the false arguments of these Ghulāt al-Khawārij, however Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān (رحمه الله) from the Imāms of Najd summed it up very briefly in his book "Kashf ash-Shubhatayn" (page 28) by saying:

"And thereafter, if it were decreed that a person from the Scholars had stopped short from viewing the kufr of a person from the ignorant blind followers of al-jahmiyyah or the ignorant blind followers of the grave worshippers, it would definitely be possible for us to pardon him regarding that, because he is excusably mistaken.

We do not say that he is a disbeliever because he is not safe from mistakes, and the Ijmā' regarding that is absolutely clear-cut. And it is understandable for him to make a blunder because those who are better than him have made errors."

And there are literally dozens of quotes from the Imāms of Najd which mention him being excusably mistaken who's opinion would be rejected, as this is from the masā'il al-khafiyyah (unclear matters).

والله أعلم

27 January 2018 17:42

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://justpaste.it/1g9cf>
<https://justpaste.it/1g9cf>

For convenience, I've made a justpaste link so the hadīth benefits may be copied & pasted easily, unlike a pdf.

27 January 2018 17:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://justpaste.it/1g9cf>

For convenience, I've made a justpaste link so the hadīth benefits may be copied & pasted easily, unlike a pdf.

<https://justpaste.it/1g9cf>

27 January 2018 17:18

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

I asked my father about the authenticity of the Hadīths concerning the black flags which come from Khurasān, and concerning some hadīths which mention it comes from the east.

Al-Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) answered:

There are numerous Hadīths which have been narrated from Ahmad, At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Mājah, however nothing from it is authentic.

The best (hadīth) concerning this topic is the hadīth of Thawbān that's narrated by Ibn Mājah in the chapter of Fitan, the chain appears to be authentic, whereas it's defective (weak).

~ Related by 'Abdul-Malik al-'Alwān; The son of Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره).

27 January 2018 17:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

I asked my father about the authenticity of the Hadīths concerning the black flags which come from Khurasān, and concerning some hadīths which mention it comes from the east.

Al-Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) answered:

There are numerous Hadīths which have been narrated from Ahmad, At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Mājah, however nothing from it is authentic.

The best (hadīth) concerning this topic is the hadīth of Thawbān that's narrated by Ibn Mājah in the chapter of Fitan, the chain appears to be authentic, whereas it's defective (weak).

~ Related by 'Abdul-Malik al-'Alwān; The son of Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره).

27 January 2018 17:10

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

[AR] "A refutation against the criminal court" by the Imām al-Hāfidh al-'Allāmah Shaykh Abū 'Abdillāh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله):

<https://justpaste.it/Bttar-Rd-jzaei>

27 January 2018 15:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"The saudi government is an apostate puppet government, which gave its allegiance to the disbelievers.

It protected the Mushrikīn and the grave worshippers, and it ruled by other than what Allāh has revealed, and it made Tahākum (sought judgements to comply with) to the Tāghūt, and it gave approval for those to mock the Dīn, including several other nullifiers.

And every single one of these (nullifiers) became additionally more severe, so it increased in its support for the disbelievers, justifying it and declaring it acceptable [1], moreover even being proud of this (alliance) and openly announcing that.

Furthermore, it must show animosity to those that the Kuffār show animosity too, and to whoever is hostile towards them. And making alliance with those who have Mudāhanah [2] towards them and give their allegiance towards them.

Finally, they punish whoever professes Barā’ah (disavowal) from the Kuffār, or proclaims the truth which they hate, and you can say the same thing for the rest of the nullifiers they fell into.”

~ The Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdul-‘Azīz at-Tuwayla’ī (تقبله الله).

[1] Infact, the apostate scholars of the Tawāghīt have openly proclaimed the ‘obligation’ of allying with the Kuffār against the muslims, and if they don’t, they would be sinful!

[2] Al-Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) says;

“Mudāhanah is a despicable characteristic and it is from the Akhlāq of the Munāfiqīn, and its meaning is to be soft with the people of falsehood, mix with them without forbidding evil on them, with no intention of their rectification or taking them away from their falsehood.”

27 January 2018 14:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“The saudi government is an apostate puppet government, which gave its allegiance to the disbelievers.

It protected the Mushrikīn and the grave worshippers, and it ruled by other than what Allāh has revealed, and it made Tahākum (sought judgements to comply with) to the Tāghūt, and it gave approval for those to mock the Dīn, including several other nullifiers.

And every single one of these (nullifiers) became additionally more severe, so it increased in its support for the disbelievers, justifying it and declaring it acceptable [1], moreover even being proud of this (alliance) and openly announcing that.

Furthermore, it must show animosity to those that the Kuffār show animosity too, and to whoever is hostile towards them. And making alliance with those who have Mudāhanah [2] towards them and give their allegiance towards them.

Finally, they punish whoever professes Barā’ah (disavowal) from the Kuffār, or proclaims the truth which they hate, and you can say the same thing for the rest of the nullifiers they fell into.”

~ The Imām, Shaykh al-‘Allāmah ‘Abdul-‘Azīz at-Tuwayla’ī (تقبله الله).

[1] Infact, the apostate scholars of the Tawāghīt have openly proclaimed the ‘obligation’ of allying with the Kuffār against the muslims, and if they don’t, they would be sinful!

[2] Al-Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-‘Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) says;

“Mudāhanah is a despicable characteristic and it is from the Akhlāq of the Munāfiqīn, and its meaning is to be soft with the people of falsehood, mix with them without forbidding evil on them, with no intention of their rectification or taking them away from their falsehood.”

27 January 2018 14:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Mujāhidīn are the most superior in virtue among the creation, as they have actualised what it means to worship Allāh alone and seek His aid, without relying upon anyone else.

Shaykh ‘Abdullāh ad-Dawsarī (رحمه الله) made a beneficial comment on the Tafsīr of Sūrat al-Fātiḥah:

إياك نعبد وإياك نستعين

“Only you (O Allāh) we worship, and only you (O Allāh) we ask for help”.

He mentioned from the great forms of ‘Ubūdiyyah is Striving Fi-Sabīlillāh. This is an important obligation in our dīn and the pillar to which Islām is safe-guarded and given honour.

Moreover, someone who doesn’t have the determination for striving against those who have harmed Allāh and His messenger with the worst of hostility, this shows that he lacks ‘Love’ for Allāh, which is among the greatest aspects of Tawḥīd.

And a lack of love means a deficiency in one's worship of Allāh, so he must strive fee-Sabeelillāh in order to attain the true love and actualise 'Ubūdiyyah (servitude of submission and worship) in respect to His creator, Allāh.

27 January 2018 13:51

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Mujāhidīn are the most superior in virtue among the creation, as they have actualised what it means to worship Allāh alone and seek His aid, without relying upon anyone else.

Shaykh 'Abdullāh ad-Dawsarī (رحمه الله) made a beneficial comment on the Tafsīr of Sūrat al-Fātihah:

إياك نعبد وإياك نستعين

"Only you (O Allāh) we worship, and only you (O Allāh) we ask for help".

He mentioned from the great forms of 'Ubūdiyyah is Striving Fi-Sabīlillāh. This is an important obligation in our dīn and the pillar to which Islām is safe-guarded and given honour.

Moreover, someone who doesn't have the determination for striving against those who have harmed Allāh and His messenger with the worst of hostility, this shows that he lacks 'Love' for Allāh, which is among the greatest aspects of Tawhīd.

And a lack of love means a deficiency in one's worship of Allāh, so he must strive fee-Sabeelillāh in order to attain the true love and actualise 'Ubūdiyyah (servitude of submission and worship) in respect to His creator, Allāh.

27 January 2018 13:51

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Sometimes, we completely ignore the moon while it shines for us in the dark. This is similar to the kind souls among the believers, their feelings and hearts of light must be preserved the way a pearl is preserved by its hard shell.

27 January 2018 12:00

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Sometimes, we completely ignore the moon while it shines for us in the dark. This is similar to the kind souls among the believers, their feelings and hearts of light must be preserved the way a pearl is preserved by its hard shell.

27 January 2018 12:00

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ahmed Syed May Allah forgive and accept them Ameen Bayah to Haqq.. yaani some political group or saying the haq?

27 January 2018 05:18

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Yeah sure, just gimme a sec

27 January 2018 21:22

Hamad al-Humaydī, At-Tuwayla'ī & Az-Zahrānī enraged Āl-Salūl so much by releasing famous books from prison & giving Bay'ah to the Haqq. Āl-Salūl executed them with 40+ Muwahhidīn!

Source: Shaykh Abū Ibrāhīm Mu'tazz Ibn 'Abdīl-Halīm (حفظه الله).

27 January 2018 04:33

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Ibrahim At-Tounsi Dabboussi Sobhan'Allah Shaykh Faris Al-Zahrani taqaballahuAllah looks a little bit like Shaykh Ahmad musa jibril hafidahuAllah

27 January 2018 05:38

Abdullah Muqdish What is this book akhī?

27 January 2018 09:10

Hamad al-Humaydī, At-Tuwaylaī & Az-Zahrānī enraged Āl-Salūl so much by releasing famous books from prison & giving Bay’ah to the Haqq. Āl-Salūl executed them with 40+ Muwahhidīn!

Source: Shaykh Abū Ibrāhīm Mu’tazz Ibn ‘Abdīl-Halīm (حفظه الله).

27 January 2018 04:32

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It’s Harām for a brother to privately speak to a sister without a Mahram, even if it’s for any need and benefit, and this includes speaking in PM’s or inbox, as this is a secluded private place which several ‘Ulamā’ have considered to be a Khalwa (seclusion like in person) on its own.

Let alone the issue of speaking to someone who’s not related to you, and what possible causes of Fitnah it may cause, even if you’re engaged, she is not lawful to be spoken too privately! I even had to tell off some Jāhil who thought it was okay to speak to aunty while being engaged non-Mahram, he turned out to be a Murtad mocking the Dīn who doesn’t fear Allah anyways.

It hurts alot to know something like this is common everywhere, knowing the Fitnah online in our times is often more than in-person.

How can I hear about brothers messaging someone else’s Mahram, I take an oath by Allāh, Wallāhil-’Athīm I would prefer to be dead than have my own mahram get messaged by a strange man, this causes too much pain...

No one is free from mistakes, but you must never even think of private messaging a non-Mahram, walā hawla wala quwata ilā billāh.

Brothers can only speak to brothers, and sisters can only speak to sisters in private. If it’s in an open setting, like at the shops, then a brother can only mention what he needs and then leave.

The only situation when a person may be spoken too in private, is if there is a mahram actually present, or if it’s a true necessity of someone dying for instance.

May Allāh guide the muslims back to their Dīn, اللهم آمين.

26 January 2018 23:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It’s Harām for a brother to privately speak to a sister without a Mahram, even if it’s for any need and benefit, and this includes speaking in PM’s or inbox, as this is a secluded private place which several ‘Ulamā’ have considered to be a Khalwa (seclusion like in person) on its own.

Let alone the issue of speaking to someone who’s not related to you, and what possible causes of Fitnah it may cause, even if you’re engaged, she is not lawful to be spoken too privately! I even had to tell off some Jāhil who thought it was okay to speak to aunty while being engaged non-Mahram, he turned out to be a Murtad mocking the Dīn who doesn’t fear Allah anyways.

It hurts alot to know something like this is common everywhere, knowing the Fitnah online in our times is often more than in-person.

How can I hear about brothers messaging someone else’s Mahram, I take an oath by Allāh, Wallāhil-’Athīm I would prefer to be dead than have my own mahram get messaged by a strange man, this causes too much pain...

No one is free from mistakes, but you must never even think of private messaging a non-Mahram, walā hawla wala quwata ilā billāh.

Brothers can only speak to brothers, and sisters can only speak to sisters in private. If it’s in an open setting, like at the shops, then a brother can only mention what he needs and then leave.

The only situation when a person may be spoken too in private, is if there is a mahram actually present, or if it’s a true necessity of someone dying for instance.

May Allāh guide the muslims back to their Dīn, اللهم آمين.

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There's NOTHING that angers me more than those who have hurt my brothers and sisters with the worst form of harm.

How dare anyone say a single word with their poisonous tongue against the Muwahhidīn, while the apostate criminals (preachers and 'shaykhs') have harmed them for years and distorted the Sharī'ah of Allāh, giving their Walā' (allegiance) to the Kuffār, and falling into nullifiers of Islām!

Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned in the 38th Risālah from "Ar-Rasā'il Ash-Shakhsiyyah":

"However, today they argue with one misconception, so know the answer to it, and what they say is that all of this is truth, we bear witness that it's the religion of Allāh & His Messenger, except for the Takfīr & Fighting".

I am honest, my heart doesn't break except that the Ummah's tears are in my mind, forget about my voice. This is the voice of those who have left everything behind, and the voice of those silenced orphans, women and children. We cannot even speak a single word against the Murtaddīn without being silenced, slandered and accused.

Wallāhi, if only people would give us a chance to hear us speak, all these years of humiliation and being mocked, where is the justice and mercy of Islām that you speak of, or does that only belong to the Kuffār, while the believers are treated harshly by everyone ☹

26 January 2018 22:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

There's NOTHING that angers me more than those who have hurt my brothers and sisters with the worst form of harm.

How dare anyone say a single word with their poisonous tongue against the Muwahhidīn, while the apostate criminals (preachers and 'shaykhs') have harmed them for years and distorted the Sharī'ah of Allāh, giving their Walā' (allegiance) to the Kuffār, and falling into nullifiers of Islām!

Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned in the 38th Risālah from "Ar-Rasā'il Ash-Shakhsiyyah":

"However, today they argue with one misconception, so know the answer to it, and what they say is that all of this is truth, we bear witness that it's the religion of Allāh & His Messenger, except for the Takfīr & Fighting".

I am honest, my heart doesn't break except that the Ummah's tears are in my mind, forget about my voice. This is the voice of those who have left everything behind, and the voice of those silenced orphans, women and children. We cannot even speak a single word against the Murtaddīn without being silenced, slandered and accused.

Wallāhi, if only people would give us a chance to hear us speak, all these years of humiliation and being mocked, where is the justice and mercy of Islām that you speak of, or does that only belong to the Kuffār, while the believers are treated harshly by everyone ☹

26 January 2018 22:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

If you take your Dīn from Kuffār Murtaddīn like the Muftī of Australia, Shady Suleiman, Yāsir Qādhī, Nu'mān 'Alī Khān, Omar Sulaymān, Muftī Menk and the 100's of other apostates like them - Then just know, you have serious 'Aqīdah issues! You must make Barā'ah and Takfir upon these filthy apostates.

26 January 2018 20:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Click for video:

Shaykh Ahmad Jibril says he would've had 100 facebook accounts if it existed during his time - Then he explains why the good deeds of Abu Bakr as-Siddiq outweighs the whole ummah, subhanAllah!

P.S: Please don't make 100 Facebook accounts...may Allah have mercy upon you.

26 January 2018 18:19

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

---

Click for video:

Shaykh Ahmad Jibril says he would've had 100 facebook accounts if it existed during his time - Then he explains why the good deeds of Abu Bakr as-Siddiq outweighs the whole ummah, subhanAllah!

P.S: Please don't make 100 Facebook accounts...may Allah have mercy upon you.

26 January 2018 18:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

What is the meaning of ح (Hā') and Mutāba'āt in Mustalah Al-Hadīth?

Shaykh Haytham Sayfaddīn (حفظه الله) says:

*Hā': Muhaddithīn place this letter in their chains of transmission when restarting their chain with another of their Shaykhs whom they heard the same Hadīth from.

**Mutāba'āt: Secondary narrations narrated by an author after the main narration which meets the standards of their book.

26 January 2018 15:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

What is the meaning of ح (Hā') and Mutāba'āt in Mustalah Al-Hadīth?

Shaykh Haytham Sayfaddīn (حفظه الله) says:

*Hā': Muhaddithīn place this letter in their chains of transmission when restarting their chain with another of their Shaykhs whom they heard the same Hadīth from.

**Mutāba'āt: Secondary narrations narrated by an author after the main narration which meets the standards of their book.

26 January 2018 14:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

26 January 2018 12:08

Radwan Dakkak shared Mohammad Choc's post.

---

26 January 2018 11:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

It's official, white muslim = automatically a revert.

I finally got the chance to ask someone, "what makes you say revert", the reply was "you look like a european or white aussie with red cheeks".

Interesting, but what happened to the 20,000,000+ born muslims from Russia with highly populated muslim provinces like Dağestān and Şhīshān, who came in 1,000's to defend the muslims in Bilād ar-Rāfidayn and Shām? Count the millions from Bosnia, Albania/Kosovo and elsewhere.

Reminds me of two guys who are even from my own country, they didn't wanna believe I was from the same country. Just staring from top to bottom, saying you're an aussie from bondi mate ☺

To make it even worse, I literally had the best meeting with a revert brother I met in the Masjid, we got along with each other so well, but no; He had to bring the shock, "So when did you revert".

C'mon ya Mr. revert, even you as well ☺

25 January 2018 20:51

Radwan Dakkak is feeling thoughtful.

---

It's official, white muslim = automatically a revert.

I finally got the chance to ask someone, "what makes you say revert", the reply was "you look like a european or white aussie with red cheeks".

Interesting, but what happened to the 20,000,000+ born muslims from Russia with highly populated muslim provinces like Dağestān and Şhīshān, who came in 1,000's to defend the muslims in Bilād ar-Rāfidayn and Shām? Count the millions from Bosnia, Albania/Kosovo and elsewhere.

Reminds me of two guys who are even from my own country, they didn't wanna believe I was from the same country. Just staring from top to bottom, saying you're an aussie from bondi mate ☺

To make it even worse, I literally had the best meeting with a revert brother I met in the Masjid, we got along with each other so well, but no; He had to bring the shock, "So when did you revert".

C'mon ya Mr. revert, even you as well ☺

25 January 2018 20:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Some may find it strange that I love talking and smiling to myself, however the way I see it is that receiving joy and comfort from talking to yourself and remembering Allāh is true contentment - This will help you alot when you're alone.

25 January 2018 08:17

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Some may find it strange that I love talking and smiling to myself, however the way I see it is that receiving joy and comfort from talking to yourself and remembering Allāh is true contentment - This will help you alot when you're alone.

25 January 2018 08:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D8OiwSUQWSU>

My favourite reciter to memorise and revise Qur'an

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D8OiwSUQWSU>

24 January 2018 10:08

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D8OiwSUQWSU>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D8OiwSUQWSU>

My favourite reciter to memorise and revise Qur'an

24 January 2018 09:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

My aunty calls me from her village overseas, and informs me that rumours are spreading that I'm getting paid to make FB posts lol - Who even tells them I got facebook to begin with -.'

24 January 2018 00:08

Radwan Dakkak shared Just Eat Real Food's post.

---

Avoid soda to the best of your ability, or reduce it down slowly.

23 January 2018 23:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

My aunty calls me from her village overseas, and informs me that rumours are spreading that I'm getting paid to make FB posts lol - Who even tells them I got facebook to begin with -.'

23 January 2018 22:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Haha, when someone considers you a mental weirdo and alien for getting excited in reciting Qur'an, but as for those who get crazy over shaytanica musika, they're perfectly fine right?! :D eshhhh hatha ))

23 January 2018 22:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Haha, when someone considers you a mental weirdo and alien for getting excited in reciting Qur'an, but as for those who get crazy over shaytanica musika, they're perfectly fine right?! :D eshhhh hatha ))

23 January 2018 22:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Some people when they get imprisoned, they say "Oh my Lord, release me!". And this is wrong. But rather you should say, "Oh my Lord, make me firm..." Because how many people got imprisoned and came out of the prison after losing his Aqīdah and as deviated, misguided, apostate, corrupt, or as a disgrace to the people of truth. So ask Allāh for firmness firstly and after that there is no problem if you ask for being released.”

~ Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

23 January 2018 21:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Mashallah.

23 January 2018 21:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Some people when they get imprisoned, they say "Oh my Lord, release me!". And this is wrong. But rather you should say, "Oh my Lord, make me firm..." Because how many people got imprisoned and came out of the prison after losing his Aqīdah and as deviated, misguided, apostate, corrupt, or as a disgrace to the people of truth. So ask Allāh for firmness firstly and after that there is no problem if you ask for being released.”

~ Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

23 January 2018 21:09

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS Canada's post.

Mashallah ♥

23 January 2018 21:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

:stated (رحمه الله) Imām Ahmad ibn Hanbal

إياك أن تتكلم في مسألة ليس لك فيها إمام

".[Beware of speaking about a matter in which you have no imām [who is preceding you"

23 January 2018 20:53

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

:stated (رحمه الله) Imām Ahmad ibn Hanbal

إياك أن تتكلم في مسألة ليس لك فيها إمام

”.[Beware of speaking about a matter in which you have no imām [who is preceding you“

23 January 2018 20:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Treat everyone in a way that makes them feel like the most special person to you.

This is how Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم used to treat his companions, so always think about it as following his sunnah.

The reason why I emphasise on connecting this deed to Allāh and his messenger, is so it helps you follow up an action out of conviction. Whereas if someone tells you to do something, you may be a bit stubborn to act upon it (dw - I've probably got some stubbornness too).

23 January 2018 17:02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Treat everyone in a way that makes them feel like the most special person to you.

This is how Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم used to treat his companions, so always think about it as following his sunnah.

The reason why I emphasise on connecting this deed to Allāh and his messenger, is so it helps you follow up an action out of conviction. Whereas if someone tells you to do something, you may be a bit stubborn to act upon it (dw - I've probably got some stubbornness too).

23 January 2018 16:58

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Something that we see flying around everywhere are the words "I love you fillāh", but are we really meeting the minimum requirement of this so called 'love'?

Hence, I would like to share 7 qualities concerning the mannerisms of loving one another for the sake of Allāh, and whether the brotherhood and sisterhood is true or half-true or completely fake.

1. Exchanging salāms, while being cheerful and excited to see each other. Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) says, "Do not belittle any good deed, even meeting your brother (Muslim) with a cheerful face." [Sahīh Muslim; #2626].

What it means by a cheerful face, is that you give each other a good vibe, and a smile that quickly comes but slowly fades away, not those fake ones that slowly come and quickly go away, those are the fake ones as our Shaykh Ahmad Jibril said.

2. Exchanging gifts, and this act of kindness leaves a permanent effect on the person. It takes away all kinds of grudges and jealousy in our nafs, and only strengthens the bond of love.

Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) said, "Give each other gifts and you will love each other." [Al-Adab al-Mufrad, #594]

3. Making du'ā for him, as Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) said, "Whenever a Muslim supplicates for his (Muslim) brother in his absence, the angels say: May the same be for you too." [Sahīh Muslim, #2732]

And as we all know, du'ā continues to take effect during one's lifetime and after you pass away, so keep all your loved ones in your du'ā, Inshā'Allāh those who love you will do the same for you.

4. Informing him about this love, Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) said, "When a man loves his brother, he should tell him that he loves him." [Sunan Abī Dāwūd, #5124].

If you're unsure how to do this, you don't have to get fancy or anything - Basically the next time you meet up with you brother, tell him that "I love you fillāh", and he would respond to you "I love you for whose sake you loved me for".

Or even better, say it in the language of the Qur'ān:

أُحِبُّكَ فِي اللَّهِ

He can reply with - أَحَبَّنِي إِلَيَّ أَحِبَّنِي لَهُ

5. Visiting one another, and the best way to do this is every now and then, not just meet up once every blue moon. And don't take it to the other extreme where you visit each other too often, as you don't wanna end up being tired and bored of each other.

Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) said, "Visit during intervals (i.e. every now and then), that would increase your love for each other." [Sahīh al-Jāmi', #3562].

6. Helping each other, and fulfilling their needs. This is a big one, and can be divided into 3 levels:

- Highest level: Giving priority in fulfilling the needs of your brother over your own needs.
- Medium level: Fulfilling his needs without being requested by him to do so.
- Lowest level: Fulfilling his needs when he requests for help.

Ask yourself what level you're at, because it's very saddening to realise that many people don't even meet the lowest level, Wallāhul-Musta'ān.

7. Concealing their shortcomings, and preserving their secrets, and rightfully giving him advise (private is best) in accordance to the islamic mannerisms and etiquettes.

You should also defend his honour from being spoken against, and overlooking his mistakes, and always having the best of manners with him, never hurting him.

I hope this opens the eyes of some brothers and sisters, and Inshā'Allāh we can be truthful when it comes to what we say, especially words that hold lofty weight.

22 January 2018 20:30

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Something that we see flying around everywhere are the words "I love you fillāh", but are we really meeting the minimum requirement of this so called 'love'?

Hence, I would like to share 7 qualities concerning the mannerisms of loving one another for the sake of Allāh, and whether the brotherhood and sisterhood is true or half-true or completely fake.

1. Exchanging salāms, while being cheerful and excited to see each other. Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) says, "Do not belittle any good deed, even meeting your brother (Muslim) with a cheerful face." [Sahīh Muslim; #2626].

What it means by a cheerful face, is that you give each other a good vibe, and a smile that quickly comes but slowly fades away, not those fake ones that slowly come and quickly go away, those are the fake ones as our Shaykh Ahmad Jibril said.

2. Exchanging gifts, and this act of kindness leaves a permanent effect on the person. It takes away all kinds of grudges and jealousy in our nafs, and only strengthens the bond of love.

Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) said, "Give each other gifts and you will love each other." [Al-Adab al-Mufrad, #594]

3. Making du'ā for him, as Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) said, "Whenever a Muslim supplicates for his (Muslim) brother in his absence, the angels say: May the same be for you too." [Sahīh Muslim, #2732]

And as we all know, du'ā continues to take effect during one's lifetime and after you pass away, so keep all your loved ones in your du'ā, Inshā'Allāh those who love you will do the same for you.

4. Informing him about this love, Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) said, "When a man loves his brother, he should tell him that he loves him." [Sunan Abī Dāwūd, #5124].

If you're unsure how to do this, you don't have to get fancy or anything - Basically the next time you meet up with you brother, tell him that "I love you fillāh", and he would respond to you "I love you for whose sake you loved me for".

Or even better, say it in the language of the Qur'ān:

أُحِبُّكَ فِي اللَّهِ

He can reply with - أَحَبَّكَ إِلَيَّ أَحَبَّتَنِي لَهُ -

5. Visiting one another, and the best way to do this is every now and then, not just meet up once every blue moon. And don't take it to the other extreme where you visit each other too often, as you don't wanna end up being tired and bored of each other.

Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) said, "Visit during intervals (i.e. every now and then), that would increase your love for each other." [Sahīh al-Jāmi', #3562].

6. Helping each other, and fulfilling their needs. This is a big one, and can be divided into 3 levels:

- Highest level: Giving priority in fulfilling the needs of your brother over your own needs.
- Medium level: Fulfilling his needs without being requested by him to do so.
- Lowest level: Fulfilling his needs when he requests for help.

Ask yourself what level you're at, because it's very saddening to realise that many people don't even meet the lowest level, Wallāhul-Musta'ān.

7. Concealing their shortcomings, and preserving their secrets, and rightfully giving him advise (private is best) in accordance to the islamic mannerisms and etiquettes.

You should also defend his honour from being spoken against, and overlooking his mistakes, and always having the best of manners with him, never hurting him.

I hope this opens the eyes of some brothers and sisters, and Inshā'Allāh we can be truthful when it comes to what we say, especially words that hold lofty weight.

22 January 2018 18:02

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.gofundme.com/bk5vap-raise-money-for-funeral>
<https://www.gofundme.com/bk5vap-raise-money-for-funeral>

Help out if you can, they've raised around 1/3 for the funeral.

22 January 2018 14:35

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

When you watch your own brothers and sisters go through trials and hardships, without making the effort to help in any way, shape or form, know that you will be next.

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) mentioned that when you get tested with the trial of prison for instance, don't immediately ask Allāh to free you! Ask Allāh to keep you steadfast! After doing this, you may afterwards ask Allāh to hasten your release, which is exactly what Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) did.

Because how many have you seen claim to be firm upon Tawhīd get tested with prison, then flip over and fall into misguidance, and even apostasy, may Allāh protect us! Shaykh Al-'Alwān mentions that some of these people become deviant, distorted, fussāq and some of the worst people alive.

Therefore if we truly love our brothers, we would try our utmost best to take them out of such trials. Not everyone is firm like Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله), no one is protected from Fitān.

When you see our dear scholars remain firm upon their 'Aqīdah without a single change, such as with Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī (فك الله أسرهم), do you think they remained firm for nothing?

They remained firm due to their unshakable 'Aqīdah and Walā' wal-Barā', along with a strong heart purified by the constant remembrance of Allāh, recitation of Qur'ān, Qiyām al-Layl, Siyām, 'Ibādah, pre-occupying themselves with knowledge and implementing it, having Ikhlās, not corrupting their hearts by frequently sinning or falling into Kabā'ir. Every Mujaddid focused on the important matters of their times, and that's exactly what we see from these pious scholars.

May Allāh keep them steadfast, may Allāh keep them steadfast, may Allāh keep them steadfast, THEN may Allāh free them. How many scholars have we seen in the past preach Tawhīd then start working for the Tawāghīt or stumble upon misguidance, wallāhul-Musta'ān.

22 January 2018 10:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

When you watch your own brothers and sisters go through trials and hardships, without making the effort to help in any way, shape or form, know that you will be next.

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) mentioned that when you get tested with the trial of prison for instance, don't immediately ask Allāh to free you! Ask Allāh to keep you steadfast! After doing this, you may afterwards ask Allāh to hasten your release, which is exactly what Shaykhul-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) did.

Because how many have you seen claim to be firm upon Tawhīd get tested with prison, then flip over and fall into misguidance, and even apostasy, may Allāh protect us! Shaykh Al-'Alwān mentions that some of these people become deviant, distorted, fussāq and some of the worst people alive.

Therefore if we truly love our brothers, we would try our utmost best to take them out of such trials. Not everyone is firm like Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله), no one is protected from Fitān.

When you see our dear scholars remain firm upon their 'Aqīdah without a single change, such as with Shaykh Walīd as-Sinānī (فك الله أسرهم), do you think they remained firm for nothing?

They remained firm due to their unshakable 'Aqīdah and Walā' wal-Barā', along with a strong heart purified by the constant remembrance of Allāh, recitation of Qur'ān, Qiyām al-Layl, Siyām, 'Ibādah, pre-occupying themselves with knowledge and implementing it, having Ikhlās, not corrupting their hearts by frequently sinning or falling into Kabā'ir. Every Mujaddid focused on the important matters of their times, and that's exactly what we see from these pious scholars.

May Allāh keep them steadfast, may Allāh keep them steadfast, may Allāh keep them steadfast, THEN may Allāh free them. How many scholars have we seen in the past preach Tawhīd then start working for the Tawāghīt or stumble upon misguidance, wallāhul-Musta'ān.

22 January 2018 09:02

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_Fatāwā

Q6. What is the correct view concerning the incident of "Thāt Anwāt", did they fall into Kufr, however the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) excused them due to their ignorance, or did they not fall into Kufr to begin with?

A. They did not fall into Kufr or Shirk, and they did not perform it. Rather, they requested and wanted (a tree to hang their weapons on for blessings), but were prohibited on the spot, so they stopped, and did not perform (any Kufr), and them not performing any Kufr was also the opinion adopted by Ibn Taymiyyah in "Iqtidā' as-Sirāt", Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb in "Kitāb at-Tawhīd" and "Kashf ash-Shubuhāt", and Ash-Shātībī in "Al-I'tisām".

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرہ).

21 January 2018 11:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

For the one who asked about the Shaykh's stance.

21 January 2018 10:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Stop putting a space after the letter و - It is so ANNOYING to read!!! Many people be writing stuff like;

و الحق في هذه المسألة ما ذهب اليه الإمام أحمد و الشافعي

21 January 2018 10:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

A True Muwahhidah!

I have received news today of our incarcerated sister, Umm Bara'.

I am never anything short of being amazed by this girl.

In recent weeks she been moved from the Protective Unit to General Population and is now sharing a cell with an elderly lady.

I was told that once again, each time increasing more than the last, she is nothing but smiles and shines with Nur.
Remember, Umm Bara' is the only Muslimah in the entire prison complex and the first Muslimah to ever be put in there.

The elderly lady who she is sharing the cell with was suffering from very bad health due to stress as it is her first time in prison and she was not coping. But since Umm Bara' has been moved in to the cell, this ladies health has increased rapidly and says she finds peace from our Sister's presence in the cell and really enjoys hearing our Sister recite Qur'an and has been learning about Islam from her.

Even the other prisoners in Gen-Pop' have been really kind to her and some have been making a lot of inquiries about Islam.

Umm Bara' is nothing but smiles and thankfulness of Allah and has complete trust in Him no matter the calamities she may face. She says that this is an opportunity Allah has given her to show Islam to those who may not have known otherwise.

Allahu Akbar.

Please don't forget her, and all the Prisoners in your 'Adiyah.

Hearing the condition of Umm Bara' has brought a lot of solace to my own heart as our sisters in

'Aqeedah hold more importance than our sisters in blood; no matter where they are as 'Aqeedah is everything 🌱

Her condition has reminded me of this hadith narrated in Sahih Muslim:
The Rasulullah صلى الله عليه وعلى آله وسلم said: "If Allah loves someone He calls (angel) Jibreel and says: 'I love so-and-so, so you love him.' Jibreel loves him and calls the other angels in Heaven to love that person. They love him, then his love is made upon earth, and he becomes loved."

May Allah continue to keep her firm and hasten her release.
Ameen

- Brother ilyas.

21 January 2018 10:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Stop putting a space after the letter و - It is so ANNOYING to read!!! Many people be writing stuff like;

و الحق في هذه المسألة ما ذهب اليه الإمام أحمد و الشافعي

21 January 2018 07:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Allah tests you to purify you, never to punish you. Forgiving those who have wronged you means to avoid speaking about them.

Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah said, "Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah follow the Qur'an and Sunnah, they obey Allah and his Messenger and follow the truth. They have mercy upon the creation." (Al-Fatawa 1/278).

The scholars also mention that it's a Fardh Kifayah to have Ahlus-Sunnah dominate and humiliate all the people of innovation and boycott them. However, we will remain fair and just by never misquoting our hated opponents or falsely accusing them, "Indeed, Allah does not love the transgressors".

20 January 2018 23:10

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Allah tests you to purify you, never to punish you. Forgiving those who have wronged you means to avoid speaking about them.

Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah said, "Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah follow the Qur'an and Sunnah, they obey Allah and his Messenger and follow the truth. They have mercy upon the creation." (Al-Fatawa 1/278).

The scholars also mention that it's a Fardh Kifayah to have Ahlus-Sunnah dominate and humiliate all the people of innovation and boycott them. However, we will remain fair and just by never misquoting our hated opponents or falsely accusing them, "Indeed, Allah does not love the transgressors".

20 January 2018 23:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#200_Fatāwā

Q5. Some say that Tawassul (i.e. Seeking means of nearness to Allāh) [1] by the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is a dispute in Fiqh, how true is this statement? While providing evidences if possible.

A. Making such unrestricted statements is not correct, rather the dispute concerning Tawassul by the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is partly related to 'Aqīdah (creed), and is partly related to Bida' (innovations).

As for the evidences and listing that, that would take a while, however you should refer to the book "At-Tawassul wal-Wasīlah" by Ibn Taymiyyah, as he has cured and adequately sufficed this matter.

Also the treatise "Al-Wāsiṭiyyah" that belongs to him, which may be found in "Majmū'at at-Tawhīd".

Also the books of the A'immat ad-Da'wah, especially "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah".

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرہ).

---

[1] Tawassul can be permissible, an innovation, and major shirk. An example of permissible Tawassul is seeking nearness to Allāh by one's good deeds, or by the du'ā of the living righteous people and prophets, this is perfectly fine by consensus.

Allāh says, "O you who have believed, fear Allah and seek the means [of nearness] to Him and strive in His cause that you may succeed." [5:35].

An innovated form of Tawassul according to most scholars is calling upon Allāh by the noble status of a prophet or righteous man that has passed, this wasn't performed by any of the Salaf. However, this is an innovation which doesn't reach the level of Major Shirk.

A form of Tawassul which falls under Major Shirk is what the Mushrikīn do of calling upon the dead, seeking their aid and help, etc...

20 January 2018 20:20

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_Fatāwā

Q5. Some say that Tawassul (i.e. Seeking means of nearness to Allāh) [1] by the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is a dispute in Fiqh, how true is this statement? While providing evidences if possible.

A. Making such unrestricted statements is not correct, rather the dispute concerning Tawassul by the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) is partly related to 'Aqīdah (creed), and is partly related to Bida' (innovations).

As for the evidences and listing that, that would take a while, however you should refer to the book "At-Tawassul wal-Wasīlah" by Ibn Taymiyyah, as he has cured and adequately sufficed this matter.

Also the treatise "Al-Wāsiyyah" that belongs to him, which may be found in "Majmū'at at-Tawhīd".

Also the books of the A'immah ad-Da'wah, especially "Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah".

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرہ).

---

[1] Tawassul can be permissible, an innovation, and major shirk. An example of permissible Tawassul is seeking nearness to Allāh by one's good deeds, or by the du'ā of the living righteous people and prophets, this is perfectly fine by consensus.

Allāh says, "O you who have believed, fear Allah and seek the means [of nearness] to Him and strive in His cause that you may succeed." [5:35].

An innovated form of Tawassul according to most scholars is calling upon Allāh by the noble status of a prophet or righteous man that has passed, this wasn't performed by any of the Salaf. However, this is an innovation which doesn't reach the level of Major Shirk.

A form of Tawassul which falls under Major Shirk is what the Mushrikīn do of calling upon the dead, seeking their aid and help, etc...

20 January 2018 20:19

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

The Imāms of Najd tend to be labelled as 'extreme' and disrespectful to the scholars, but rather they were among the most respectful to the Imāms of this Ummah, and Inshā'Allāh I would love to make a separate post proving that in the near-future.

For instance, the following is a book by Shaykh al-'Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān (رحمه الله) refuting whoever makes takfīr upon the great scholar Siddīq Hassan Khān (رحمه الله) entitled;

"Pelting stones by the people of verification and faith in response to the one who makes takfīr upon (Siddīq) Hassan Khān."

The Imāms of Najd knew that it was a great duty to defend the righteous muslim scholars from being called disbelievers, and Ibn Taymiyyah says this is from the most rightful causes, since ignoring this is a clear attack against the Sharī'ah.

20 January 2018 20:14

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

The Imāms of Najd tend to be labelled as 'extreme' and disrespectful to the scholars, but rather they were among the most respectful to the Imāms of this Ummah, and Inshā'Allāh I would love to make a separate post proving that in the near-future.

For instance, the following is a book by Shaykh al-'Allāmah Sulaymān Ibn Sahnān (رحمه الله) refuting whoever makes takfīr upon the great scholar Siddiq Hassan Khān (رحمه الله) entitled;

"Pelting stones by the people of verification and faith in response to the one who makes takfīr upon (Siddiq) Hassan Khān."

The Imāms of Najd knew that it was a great duty to defend the righteous muslim scholars from being called disbelievers, and Ibn Taymiyyah says this is from the most rightful causes, since ignoring this is a clear attack against the Sharī'ah.

20 January 2018 20:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Lately, I have been researching into a topic which deals with the etiquettes of social media. It's something which has been neglected, despite the large amount of muslims using these platforms.

I'm hoping to share a brief article discussing the issue, but alot of the things is really common sense and we should know our boundaries, like pressing a 'love heart' reaction or emoji to the opposite gender's post, that's cringing to see. Causing continuous notifications/likes for someone is also another, and these matters should not be under-estimated, irregardless of the excuse one gives, such as the most common 'good intentions' excuse or "it's just a love heart to the post", no excuses Inshā'Allāh.

Speech can be both written and orally spoken, and what I'll be sharing is some gems from the Tafsīr of Sūrat al-Ahzāb which should enable us to know our limits, and alot of the speech that occurs, whether in person or online returns back to the عرف (customs).

Thus, the scholars mention that appropriate speech is something a mahram would be pleased with seeing or hearing. The same way we have alot of jealousy and hate when people speak to our non-mahram's (even telling them off), we should have the same ghīrah for other people's non-Mahram's, without being hypocritical.

Just because something is widespread (for e.g. Diyātha & Tabarruj is everywhere), it doesn't justify it according to the Sharī'ah, we return back to what Allāh, the messenger and scholars of Islām understood etiquettes in speech between opposite genders.

And Allāh knows best.

20 January 2018 14:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Lately, I have been researching into a topic which deals with the etiquettes of social media. It's something which has been neglected, despite the large amount of muslims using these platforms.

I'm hoping to share a brief article discussing the issue, but alot of the things is really common sense and we should know our boundaries, like pressing a 'love heart' reaction or emoji to the opposite gender's post, that's cringing to see. Causing continuous notifications/likes for someone is also another, and these matters should not be under-estimated, irregardless of the excuse one gives, such as the most common 'good intentions' excuse or "it's just a love heart to the post", no excuses Inshā'Allāh.

Speech can be both written and orally spoken, and what I'll be sharing is some gems from the Tafsīr of Sūrat al-Ahzāb which should enable us to know our limits, and alot of the speech that occurs, whether in person or online returns back to the عرف (customs).

Thus, the scholars mention that appropriate speech is something a mahram would be pleased with seeing or hearing. The same way we have alot of jealousy and hate when people speak to our non-mahram's (even telling them off), we should have the same ghīrah for other people's non-Mahram's, without being hypocritical.

Just because something is widespread (for e.g. Diyātha & Tabarruj is everywhere), it doesn't justify it according to the Sharī'ah, we return back to what Allāh, the messenger and scholars of Islām understood etiquettes in speech between opposite genders.

And Allāh knows best.

20 January 2018 14:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Murji'ah and Kufr Bit-Tāghūt

The Mujāhid, Shaykh 'Ubaydah al-Athbajī (تقبله الله) wrote:

Kufr bit-tāghūt or kufr in those who disbelieve in the tāghūt!?

Millah Ibrāhīm is worshipping Allāh alone and having barā'ah from shirk and its people. He (تعالى) said, "And [mention, O Muhammad], when Ibrāhīm said to his father and his people, "Indeed, I am disassociated from that which you worship. Except for He who created me; and indeed, He will guide me."" (43:26-27).

And He (تعالى) said, "There has already been for you an excellent pattern in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people, "Indeed, we are disassociated from you and from whatever you worship other than Allāh . We have denied you, and there has appeared between us and you animosity and hatred forever until you believe in Allāh alone" (60:4).

The Millah of Ibrāhīm is kufr bit-tāghūt and Īmān in Allāh. Shaykh Muhammad ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb said, "The description of kufr bit-tāghūt is to believe in the invalidity of the worship to other than Allāh, and to leave it (i.e., the tāghūt), to hate it, make takfīr on its people, and to show enmity in them."

As for the Murjah they achieved the description of kufr bit-tāghūt by applying it upon the people of Tawhīd and Jihād; and I shall highlight that for you:

a. Believing in its invalidity

They believe in the invalidity of Jihād except with the permission of the tawāghīt whom we wage Jihād against [saying], "permit me for Jihād."

b. Leaving

They leave Jihād and do not participate in it in any way.

c. Hatred

They hate the people of Jihād from every angle one [is supposed] to hate the mushrikīn.

d. Takfīr

They judge the people of Tawhīd as Khawārij, then some of them adopt takfīr on the Khawārij as their argument to make takfīr on the people of Tawhīd.

e. Enmity

Their enmity towards the people of Tawhīd reached the highest levels of killing [the people of Tawhīd], and the best evidence is the current reality.

Is this the Millah of Ibrāhīm al-Khalīl or the millah of tāghūt al-'amīl (agent of the tāghūt)?

20 January 2018 11:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Khawārij with the Muwahhidīn | Murji'ah with the Murtaddīn!

The Mujāhid, Shaykh 'Ubaydah al-Athbajī (تقبله الله) wrote:

This is the reality of those who falsely and slanderously call themselves "Salafis".

With the people of Tawhīd and Jihād, they are Khawārij Ghulāt. But with the people of apostasy and stubbornness, they are despicable Murji'ah.

I'll give you 1 example of their big one who taught them Sihr, as they say:

"If the lord of the house would beat the tambourine****the habitual nature of everyone within the home would be dancing" (Poetry).

Minor intro: Al-Fawzān in an audio clip says, "Everyone who holds the ideas of Ibn Lāden and views it permissible to revolt against the rulers, then he is a Khārījī"!!

Major intro: Al-Fawzān says, the Khawārij are kuffār according to the correct view.

The person mentioned says (i.e. Fawzān), "The scholars differed concerning the Khawārij, are they kuffār or misguided fussāq (corrupt doers)? There are 2 opinions, and the opinion that makes takfīr upon them is closer to the truth, because the evidences are indicative of their disbelief. But as for praying behind them, it's not permissible due to them being kuffār, unless they enforce their authority on a land - as the jurists mention - then a muslim may pray behind them." (Lessons in Sharh Nawāqidh al-Islām; Page 174).

Conclusion: Everyone who holds the ideas of Ibn Lāden and views it permissible to revolt against the rulers, then he is a kāfir!!

So are the Murji'ah considered Khawārij with the preachers or not? But as for them being Murji'ah with the rulers, they didn't even make takfīr upon their king "fahd" for wearing the cross!! This is clear and doesn't require going further.

20 January 2018 11:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Khawārij with the Muwahhidīn | Murji'ah with the Murtaddīn!

The Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Ubaydah al-Athbajī (تقبله الله) wrote:

This is the reality of those who falsely and slanderously call themselves "Salafis".

With the people of Tawhīd and Jihād, they are Khawārij Ghulāt. But with the people of apostasy and stubbornness, they are despicable Murji'ah.

I'll give you 1 example of their big one who taught them Sihr, as they say:

"If the lord of the house would beat the tambourine***the habitual nature of everyone within the home would be dancing" (Poetry).

Minor intro: Al-Fawzān in an audio clip says, "Everyone who holds the ideas of Ibn Lāden and views it permissible to revolt against the rulers, then he is a Khārijī"!!

Major intro: Al-Fawzān says, the Khawārij are kuffār according to the correct view.

The person mentioned says (i.e. Fawzān), "The scholars differed concerning the Khawārij, are they kuffār or misguided fussāq (corrupt doers)? There are 2 opinions, and the opinion that makes takfīr upon them is closer to the truth, because the evidences are indicative of their disbelief. But as for praying behind them, it's not permissible due to them being kuffār, unless they enforce their authority on a land - as the jurists mention - then a muslim may pray behind them." (Lessons in Sharh Nawāqidh al-Islām; Page 174).

Conclusion: Everyone who holds the ideas of Ibn Lāden and views it permissible to revolt against the rulers, then he is a kāfir!!

So are the Murji'ah considered Khawārij with the preachers or not? But as for them being Murji'ah with the rulers, they didn't even make takfīr upon their king "fahd" for wearing the cross!! This is clear and doesn't require going further.

20 January 2018 11:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Murji'ah and Kufr Bit-Tāghūt

The Mujāhid, Shaykh ‘Ubaydah al-Athbajī (تقبله الله) wrote:

Kufr bit-tāghūt or kufr in those who disbelieve in the tāghūt!?

Millah Ibrāhīm is worshipping Allāh alone and having barā'ah from shirk and its people. He (تعالى) said, "And [mention, O Muhammad], when Ibrāhīm said to his father and his people, "Indeed, I am disassociated from that which you worship. Except for He who created me; and indeed, He will guide me."" (43:26-27).

And He (تعالى) said, "There has already been for you an excellent pattern in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people, "Indeed, we are disassociated from you and from whatever you worship other than Allāh . We have denied you, and there has appeared between us and you animosity and hatred forever until you believe in Allāh alone" (60:4).

The Millah of Ibrāhīm is kufr bit-tāghūt and Īmān in Allāh. Shaykh Muhammad ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb said, "The description of kufr bit-tāghūt is to believe in the invalidity of the worship to other than Allāh, and to leave it (i.e., the tāghūt), to hate it, make takfīr on its people, and to show enmity in them."

As for the Murjiah they achieved the description of kufr bit-tāghūt by applying it upon the people of Tawhīd and Jihād; and I shall highlight that for you:

a. Believing in its invalidity

They believe in the invalidity of Jihād except with the permission of the tawāghīt whom we wage Jihād against [saying], "permit me for Jihād."

b. Leaving

They leave Jihād and do not participate in it in any way.

c. Hatred

They hate the people of Jihād from every angle one [is supposed] to hate the mushrikīn.

d. Takfīr

They judge the people of Tawhīd as Khawārij, then some of them adopt takfīr on the Khawārij as their argument to make takfīr on the people of Tawhīd.

e. Enmity

Their enmity towards the people of Tawhīd reached the highest levels of killing [the people of Tawhīd], and the best evidence is the current reality.

Is this the Millah of Ibrāhīm al-Khalīl or the millah of tāghūt al-'amīl (agent of the tāghūt)?

20 January 2018 10:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Rhonda Hayek Allahuma Ameen Ya Rabb

20 January 2018 00:35

The du'ā he used to make by reciting this Āyah put so much barakah in his life, الله أكبر.

19 January 2018 19:13

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

The du'ā he used to make by reciting this Āyah put so much barakah in his life, الله أكبر.

19 January 2018 19:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Thāhirī_Fiqh

Imām Abū Muhammad Ibn Hazm al-Andalusī (رحمه الله) says that if someone has physical relations on the day of Jum'ah, he must do a double ghusl:

Firstly: To make ghusl from Janābah.

Secondly: To make ghusl again due to the obligation of Jum'ah.

This is an interesting example of where the Thāhiriyyah would get into a bit of exaggeration in understanding the Sunnah. [1]

[1] Side Note: The dominant position among the scholars of Fiqh is that only 1 ghusl is required, since the niyyah can suffice for both.

It's also important to mention that Ghusl is divided into two types:

1. A غسل كامل (complete ghusl), which involves performing wudū' during ghusl, and this renders one in a state of purity (he is ready to pray Jum'ah).

2. A غسل مجزئ (partial ghusl), which doesn't involve performing wudū', but simply washing oneself - This alone doesn't render one in a state of purity and he is NOT allowed to go pray on jum'ah by this partial ghusl (without performing wudū' afterwards).

However, there is 1 exception, and that is if he was in a state of Janābah, and made the ghusl with the intention of uplifting Janābah, since a special exception has been narrated concerning this in the Sunnah (to make him pure). Otherwise, the steps of wudū' are wājib (and not to be left off!), and a mere shower doesn't render someone in a state of purity to go pray Jum'ah, this was discussed by Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) and others.

19 January 2018 18:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Thāhiri_Fiqh

Imām Abū Muhammad Ibn Hazm al-Andalusī (رحمه الله) says that if someone has physical relations on the day of Jum'ah, he must do a double ghusl:

Firstly: To make ghusl from Janābah.

Secondly: To make ghusl again due to the obligation of Jum'ah.

This is an interesting example of where the Thāhiriyyah would get into a bit of exaggeration in understanding the Sunnah. [1]

[1] Side Note: The dominant position among the scholars of Fiqh is that only 1 ghusl is required, since the niyyah can suffice for both.

It's also important to mention that Ghusl is divided into two types:

1. A غسل كامل (complete ghusl), which involves performing wudū' during ghusl, and this renders one in a state of purity (he is ready to pray Jum'ah).

2. A غسل مجزئ (partial ghusl), which doesn't involve performing wudū', but simply washing oneself - This alone doesn't render one in a state of purity and he is NOT allowed to go pray on jum'ah by this partial ghusl (without performing wudū' afterwards).

However, there is 1 exception, and that is if he was in a state of Janābah, and made the ghusl with the intention of uplifting Janābah, since a special exception has been narrated concerning this in the Sunnah (to make him pure). Otherwise, the steps of wudū' are wājib (and not to be left off!), and a mere shower doesn't render someone in a state of purity to go pray Jum'ah, this was discussed by Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) and others.

19 January 2018 17:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Chapter 42: Applying the name (of munāfiq) upon someone who has most branches of nifāq (hypocrisy) fall upon him.

Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) said in "al-fatāwā" (7/352):

"Whoever has īmān and nifāq in him, he is called a muslim, since he doesn't fall under the pure munāfiq.

But if his qualities of nifāq outweigh (the qualities of a believer), he wouldn't be deserving of the title "īmān", rather the title of "munāfiq" would be more suitable for him. [1]

Since if something contains black and white, and the black exceeds the white, it would be more deserving of being called black than white, as Allāh the exalted said:

"They were nearer to disbelief that day than to faith." [3:167]

But if his īmān outweighs (his nifāq), while he has nifāq which he would be deserving of being punished for, he also wouldn't be from the believers that are promised paradise (i.e. Allāh may forgive or punish him)."

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرته).

[1] Being called a munāfiq doesn't necessarily imply takfīr, unless it falls under major nifāq, whereas many branches of nifāq such as breaking a trust falls under the minor nifāq which doesn't take one outside of Islām.

18 January 2018 21:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Chapter 42: Applying the name (of munāfiq) upon someone who has most branches of nifāq (hypocrisy) fall upon him.

Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) said in "al-fatāwā" (7/352):

"Whoever has īmān and nifāq in him, he is called a muslim, since he doesn't fall under the pure munāfiq.

But if his qualities of nifāq outweigh (the qualities of a believer), he wouldn't be deserving of the title "īmān", rather the title of "munāfiq" would be more suitable for him. [1]

Since if something contains black and white, and the black exceeds the white, it would be more deserving of being called black than white, as Allāh the exalted said:

"They were nearer to disbelief that day than to faith." [3:167]

But if his īmān outweighs (his nifāq), while he has nifāq which he would be deserving of being punished for, he also wouldn't be from the believers that are promised paradise (i.e. Allāh may forgive or punish him)."

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرہ).

---

[1] Being called a munāfiq doesn't necessarily imply takfīr, unless it falls under major nifāq, whereas many branches of nifāq such as breaking a trust falls under the minor nifāq which doesn't take one outside of Islām.

18 January 2018 21:00

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Don't be a person who only appreciates blessings when they lose it. When you make sujūd, think about those who can't make sujūd anymore, think about those who are blind, deaf, and without parents. Please be thankful to Allāh, and try your best to avoid using Allāh's blessings, i.e. Hands, eyes and tongue to disobey Him. None of us are infallible, keep repenting from your sins, but remain as much as you can in a pure state, this is better for your heart and Ākhirah. Don't think about it as me telling you this, think about what Allāh wants from you.

18 January 2018 16:53

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Don't be a person who only appreciates blessings when they lose it. When you make sujūd, think about those who can't make sujūd anymore, think about those who are blind, deaf, and without parents. Please be thankful to Allāh, and try your best to avoid using Allāh's blessings, i.e. Hands, eyes and tongue to disobey Him. None of us are infallible, keep repenting from your sins, but remain as much as you can in a pure state, this is better for your heart and Ākhirah. Don't think about it as me telling you this, think about what Allāh wants from you.

18 January 2018 16:50

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Sometimes the videos can be missed due to algorithms, but you can still click the “see first” button on this page under the Follow tab, so that way you won't miss them Inshā'Allāh.

18 January 2018 16:32

---

Radwan Dakkak shared Special Books by Special Kids's post.

Sometimes the videos can be missed due to algorithms, but you can still click the “see first” button on this page under the Follow tab, so that way you won't miss them Inshā'Allāh.

18 January 2018 16:31

---

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LjEwuC6J-Uk>
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LjEwuC6J-Uk>

The athaan is such an important ritual in Islam, and should be learnt the way we learn how to recite Qur'an.

18 January 2018 10:59

---

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zBNUdeWw-wE>
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zBNUdeWw-wE>
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zBNUdeWw-wE>

18 January 2018 10:46

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=noH\_IAZ6vQI
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=noH\_IAZ6vQI
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=noH\_IAZ6vQI

18 January 2018 10:43

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Fatwā | Look at how the Imāms of Najd did not make absolute Takfīr upon those who misinterpreted Allāh being above the 'Arsh if they were ignorant of what Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) believed concerning this, until the Hujjah was established!

Q. Concerning rejecting the Sifāt (attributes) that Allāh described Himself with in His book such as:

"The hand of Allah is over their hands." [48:10].

Then he says, the hand of Allāh is His power.

He also misinterprets the Istiwā' (rising above the throne) as meaning Isteelā' (taking power and dominating), or says that Allāh is everywhere, no place escapes Him, so is this person a Kāfir or not?

A. Whoever believes in this I'tiqād (creed) is an ignorant deviant innovator who has opposed the Salafi 'Aqīdah that the Prophet (ﷺ), his companions and successors who followed excellently came with, such as the 4 Imāms and those who followed them among the scholars.

But as for making Takfīr due to that, then he is not judged upon as a Kāfir, unless he knows that this 'Aqīdah contradicts what the messenger of Allāh (ﷺ), his companions and successors who followed excellently adopted, and Allāh knows best.

~ Answered by the 2 sons of Shaykh al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), i.e. Hussayn and 'Abdullāh in "Majmū' ar-Rasā'il wal-Masā'il an-Najdiyyah" (1/41).

17 January 2018 16:25

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Fatwā | Look at how the Imāms of Najd did not make absolute Takfīr upon those who misinterpreted Allāh being above the 'Arsh if they were ignorant of what Rasūlullāh (ﷺ) believed concerning this, until the Hujjah was established!

Q. Concerning rejecting the Sifāt (attributes) that Allāh described Himself with in His book such as:

"The hand of Allah is over their hands." [48:10].

Then he says, the hand of Allāh is His power.

He also misinterprets the Istiwā' (rising above the throne) as meaning Isteelā' (taking power and dominating), or says that Allāh is everywhere, no place escapes Him, so is this person a Kāfir or not?

A. Whoever believes in this I'tiqād (creed) is an ignorant deviant innovator who has opposed the Salafi 'Aqīdah that the Prophet (ﷺ), his companions and successors who followed excellently came with, such as the 4 Imāms and those who followed them among the scholars.

But as for making Takfīr due to that, then he is not judged upon as a Kāfir, unless he knows that this 'Aqīdah contradicts what the messenger of Allāh (ﷺ), his companions and successors who followed excellently adopted, and Allāh knows best.

~ Answered by the 2 sons of Shaykh al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), i.e. Hussayn and 'Abdullāh in "Majmū' ar-Rasā'il wal-Masā'il an-Najdiyyah" (1/41).

17 January 2018 16:13

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

This is a wonderful clip for all those who have the 'Haqq' and 'Daleel' :))

17 January 2018 08:58

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Two important chapters which contain alot of Ahkām in Fiqh that the Muwahhidin must learn 📖

Sūrat al-Anfāl and Sūrat at-Tawbah

16 January 2018 18:43

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

- Khan Tauheed Ahmad Meshary Rashid Al-Afasy???

16 January 2018 18:41
- Radwan Dakkak It's only a recitation.

16 January 2018 18:47
- AbdurRahman Tawhid <https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=SVVxxkdm3lo>

16 January 2018 18:52
- Abdullah Muqdish Yet don't listen to his recitation bro.

16 January 2018 20:08
- Ibrahim Khan Akhi whete from i can download this book Link plz

16 January 2018 20:33
- Abdullah Muqdish It's not a book brother

17 January 2018 01:57
- Ibrahim Khan Akhi i know but i want a hard copy of this

17 January 2018 02:20
- Abdullah Muqdish Of what?

18 January 2018 00:12
- Ibrahim Khan Biography of prophet (saw) by imams najd

18 January 2018 00:14

Two important chapters which contain alot of Ahkām in Fiqh that the Muwahhidin must learn 📖

Sūrat al-Anfāl and Sūrat at-Tawbah

16 January 2018 18:30

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NI3-G48jdMY>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NI3-G48jdMY>

16 January 2018 18:12

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NI3-G48jdMY>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NI3-G48jdMY>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NI3-G48jdMY>

16 January 2018 18:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Self-Righteous + don't fear Allāh = Takfir upon the ummah.

16 January 2018 16:22

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Self-Righteous + don't fear Allāh = Takfir upon the ummah.

16 January 2018 16:18

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Hidden Sins are the reason why people are going astray while hidden acts of worship are one of the reasons why people become firm and steadfast in Islam.

16 January 2018 05:44

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Hidden Sins are the reason why people are going astray while hidden acts of worship are one of the reasons why people become firm and steadfast in Islam.

16 January 2018 05:42

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

Women who love to be house-wives in one of the most feministic places

16 January 2018 05:40

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Before the righteous predecessors went to sleep, they would think about everything they did that day, and ask Allāh for forgiveness.

We can implement this in our lives, especially online. Think about what you have mentioned or typed every day, and whether it was correct or incorrect, individually.

One reason we regret our sins, is because we want to try our best to change them, and keep our heart pure by continuously doing good deeds, being conscious of Allāh in our actions and speech, which falls under the topic of Taqwā.

Since alot of posts have been made about "people" and "some people", we tend to forget ourselves.

And after observing some my own posts, there were clear faults which wasn't very pleasing to see, such as mentioning a good deed and have it tied to myself, and this is very bad for one's humility and brings about self-conceit, especially the constant use of the word "I" or "my" which should only be used in necessity.

There's no excuse for directly or indirectly praising oneself, even though a big cause for doing so can be due to being surrounded in negative harsh environments. However, forget about us, look at the Mujāhideen who the whole world united upon considering them شر مطلق (absolutely evil in every shape and form) and wouldn't mention a single praiseworthy thing about them. Infact they would be blamed for everything, from being accused of killing to the electricity being cut out, even if a drought occurs in the land and the rain stops, they will be blamed!

Yet despite all the betrayal and oppression (then being blamed for it!), you find them to be among the most humble of creation, the furthest away from praising themselves or symbolising their scholars who have strived for long decades!

15 January 2018 22:15

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Before the righteous predecessors went to sleep, they would think about everything they did that day, and ask Allāh for forgiveness.

We can implement this in our lives, especially online. Think about what you have mentioned or typed every day, and whether it was correct or incorrect, individually.

One reason we regret our sins, is because we want to try our best to change them, and keep our heart pure by continuously doing good deeds, being conscious of Allāh in our actions and speech, which falls under the topic of Taqwā.

Since alot of posts have been made about "people" and "some people", we tend to forget ourselves.

And after observing some my own posts, there were clear faults which wasn't very pleasing to see, such as mentioning a good deed and have it tied to myself, and this is very bad for one's humility and brings about self-conceit, especially the constant use of the word "I" or "my" which should only be used in necessity.

There's no excuse for directly or indirectly praising oneself, even though a big cause for doing so can be due to being surrounded in negative harsh environments. However, forget about us, look at the Mujāhideen who the whole world united upon considering them شر مطلق (absolutely evil in every shape and form) and wouldn't mention a single praiseworthy thing about them. Infact they would be blamed for everything, from being accused of killing to the electricity being cut out, even if a drought occurs in the land and the rain stops, they will be blamed!

Yet despite all the betrayal and oppression (then being blamed for it!), you find them to be among the most humble of creation, the furthest away from praising themselves or symbolising their scholars who have strived for long decades!

15 January 2018 22:14

Radwan Dakkak shared Haytham Sayfaddīn's post.

The first lesson in 'Aqīdah by Shaykh Haytham Sayfaddīn (حفظه الله) is up 📖

Here is a link to the book he is going through (Arabic only) -
<https://ia600703.us.archive.org/18/items/BolghatAl-Mofleheen/BolghatAlMofleheen.pdf>

15 January 2018 18:00

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

This Āyah is incredible.

15 January 2018 17:59

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

This Āyah is incredible.

15 January 2018 17:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Never ignore those hearts ☺

15 January 2018 07:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Love only Allāh & love others for His sake, because one who loves in other than that path will end up getting hurt with what he loves!”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

15 January 2018 07:53

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Abu Hurayrah lol.

15 January 2018 16:03

Never ignore those hearts ☺

15 January 2018 07:47

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Love only Allāh & love others for His sake, because one who loves in other than that path will end up getting hurt with what he loves!”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

15 January 2018 07:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"Allāh will ask the truthful about their truth" [33:8].

If the truthful will be questioned, then imagine how it will be for those who lied?

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

14 January 2018 21:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“How wretched is he whose only gain in life is that which his eyes can see!”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

14 January 2018 21:59

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“How wretched is he whose only gain in life is that which his eyes can see!”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

14 January 2018 21:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"Allāh will ask the truthful about their truth" [33:8].

If the truthful will be questioned, then imagine how it will be for those who lied?

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

14 January 2018 21:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Ahmed Syed Ameen

14 January 2018 18:22

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Rocco Camatti Ameen.

14 January 2018 18:52

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abdul-Razzaq Ibn Hussein Ameen, please how many years is he serving.

14 January 2018 19:16

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Abdul Bari SubhanAllah, and the reason he says this is because he met them, sat with them, spoke with them and was among those murjia traitors. Alhamdulillah Allah guided him. May Allah keep him steadfast.

14 January 2018 21:03

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Khadija Graham-Laube Allahhumma ameen 14 January 2018 22:10
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Alam Usoof Most muftis have sold there soul for few dollars 14 January 2018 22:13
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Daniel Ibraheem Abdul Hakam Allahumma ameen 14 January 2018 22:38
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Sumayyah Omaira May our brothers and sisters be kept strong . 14 January 2018 23:02
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Umm Bilal Ameen allahuma ameen 15 January 2018 01:01
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Umm Bilal I didn't even know he was in prison 😊 15 January 2018 01:01
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Naz Ali All traitors will be humiliated in the end, and as for the lost scholars who will deviate from the true path will try to confuse and lead the ummati on the wrong path, it's a sign of Akhira which we have already been warned about from the teachings left by our beloved leader Prophet Muhammad PBUH 15 January 2018 03:00
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Asma Umm Khalid Ameen yaa rabb 15 January 2018 12:09
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Umm Turaab Ameen 15 January 2018 13:58
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Abou Omar Al Trabolsi Allahuma ameen 15 January 2018 22:54
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Sumaiah Ismail haqq 17 January 2018 02:43
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Em Shaira Aameen 17 January 2018 10:44
Group: Ummah Of Tawheed Ahkam Akram Ameen 18 January 2018 00:20

May Allāh free him.

14 January 2018 18:16

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

AbuMusa Khan Ameen. 14 January 2018 18:22
Issa Khoder Aneen 14 January 2018 18:50
Ibrahim Qānit Amin 14 January 2018 19:05
Ilyas Mansur Allahumma 'Ameen Think of him daily

14 January 2018 22:59

About Omar Al Trabolssi Allahuma ameen

15 January 2018 04:28

Dauda Muhammed Jamiu please any news about him? read he'll appear in court this January

15 January 2018 06:17

May Allāh free him.

14 January 2018 18:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shaykh ‘Abdullah Ibn Hamad al-Hijazi (رحمه الله) was asked about the surpasser, if he gets up before his Imam finishes from the Salam, is his Salah valid?

He answered: If he got up before the Imam finished from the first Salams, then it's invalid, and the Salah would be considered a voluntary one (instead of obligatory).

But if he got up before the Imam finished from the second Salams, then based upon the view that it's wajib (i.e. both salams are required acc. to Imam Ahmad), then it would also be considered a voluntary prayer as well.

Therefore, it's required for the surpasser to abandoning getting up before the Imam finishes the second Salams, to be excluded from the difference of opinion (on the second salam being required or not – i.e. remain on the safe side).

~ Refer to “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (4/403).

13 January 2018 19:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shaykh ‘Abdullah Ibn Hamad al-Hijazi (رحمه الله) was asked about the surpasser, if he gets up before his Imam finishes from the Salam, is his Salah valid?

He answered: If he got up before the Imam finished from the first Salams, then it's invalid, and the Salah would be considered a voluntary one (instead of obligatory).

But if he got up before the Imam finished from the second Salams, then based upon the view that it's wajib (i.e. both salams are required acc. to Imam Ahmad), then it would also be considered a voluntary prayer as well.

Therefore, it's required for the surpasser to abandoning getting up before the Imam finishes the second Salams, to be excluded from the difference of opinion (on the second salam being required or not – i.e. remain on the safe side).

~ Refer to “Ad-Durar as-Saniyyah” (4/403).

13 January 2018 19:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Your palaces in Heaven are built by glorifying & remembering Allāh. Once you stop glorifying him, the angels stop the construction.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Jibril حَفِظَهُ اللهُ تَعَالَى

13 January 2018 18:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Your palaces in Heaven are built by glorifying & remembering Allāh. Once you stop glorifying him, the angels stop the construction.”

— Shaykh Ahmad Jibril حَفِظَهُ اللهُ تَعَالَى

13 January 2018 18:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

What is the meaning of Tahārah?

Tahārah has two meanings:

The first type: And it's the Asl (default meaning), Tahārah from avoiding Shirk, innovations and corrupt deeds.

This Tahārah (purification) is the major aim and objective, since the other Tahārah is not valid except by actualising this Tahārah by avoiding Shirk.

However the other Tahārah (purification) is valid, even if there was innovations present that didn't take him outside the fold of Islām, or sins which doesn't cause him to disbelieve.

But with regards to the presence of Shirk, then his Tahārah is not valid, Allāh the exalted said:

"Indeed, the polytheists are Najas (impure)." [9:28].

Najāсах here is the impurity of shirk, a non-physical Najāsah, and the Najāsah is not sensory (physical) as some of the Thāhiriyyah say, for this is wrong and goes against the evidence of the Qur'ān, Sunnah and what the Major Imāms of the Salaf are upon.

The second type: Tahārah (purification) means to purify oneself, to purify oneself by water or remove filth, and whatever meaning that's tied to that, so Tahārah is removing filth and whatever meaning that's tied to this.

~ The Hāfidh, Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

13 January 2018 13:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

What is the meaning of Tahārah?

Tahārah has two meanings:

The first type: And it's the Asl (default meaning), Tahārah from avoiding Shirk, innovations and corrupt deeds.

This Tahārah (purification) is the major aim and objective, since the other Tahārah is not valid except by actualising this Tahārah by avoiding Shirk.

However the other Tahārah (purification) is valid, even if there was innovations present that didn't take him outside the fold of Islām, or sins which doesn't cause him to disbelieve.

But with regards to the presence of Shirk, then his Tahārah is not valid, Allāh the exalted said:

"Indeed, the polytheists are Najas (impure)." [9:28].

Najāсах here is the impurity of shirk, a non-physical Najāsah, and the Najāsah is not sensory (physical) as some of the Thāhiriyyah say, for this is wrong and goes against the evidence of the Qur'ān, Sunnah and what the Major Imāms of the Salaf are upon.

The second type: Tahārah (purification) means to purify oneself, to purify oneself by water or remove filth, and whatever meaning that's tied to that, so Tahārah is removing filth and whatever meaning that's tied to this.

~ The Hāfidh, Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ).

13 January 2018 13:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"He said, 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Mahdī narrated to us."

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) comments upon this by saying:

"He is the famous Imām, the precise Thiqah (trustworthy and reliable narrator), the one who's noble Imām status is unanimously agreed upon.

He was born in the year 135 AH, he heard from Hishām ad-Dastawāī, Hammād Ibn Salamah, Yūnus Ibn Abī Ishāq as-Sabīī, Mālik Ibn Anas, and Ibn al-Majishūn.

Ash-Shāfi'ī (رحمه الله) said about him, "I do not know anyone who can compete with him in this field (i.e. Hadīth)."

Imām ash-Shāfi'ī says about 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Mahdī, "I do not know anyone who can compete with him in this field (i.e. Hadīth)."

Imām 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī (رحمه الله) said, "The most knowledgeable person in Hadīth is 'Abdur-

Rahmā Ibn Mahdī."

This is what 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī said, and sufficient for you is the testimony of 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī!!

Imām al-Bukhārī said, "I did not consider myself belittled in the presence of anyone, except in the presence of 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī."

And despite that, here he says, "The most knowledgeable person in Hadīth is 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Mahdī."

Imām al-Qawārīrī (رحمه الله) says, "Ibn Mahdī dictated to me 20,000 Hadīths, out of his MEMORY!!!"

Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) says, "If Ibn Mahdī narrates from a person, then that person is Thiqah (trustworthy and reliable)!"

But this is to be held upon most cases, because Ibn Mahdī narrated from al-Mas'ūdī and he has some Līn (slight weakness), and he narrated from 'Imrān Ibn Qattān and he has some Līn (slight weakness).

And Imām Ibn Mahdī passed away in the year 198 AH."

13 January 2018 12:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"He said, 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Mahdī narrated to us."

The Hāfidh, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) comments upon this by saying:

"He is the famous Imām, the precise Thiqah (trustworthy and reliable narrator), the one who's noble Imām status is unanimously agreed upon.

He was born in the year 135 AH, he heard from Hishām ad-Dastawāī, Hammād Ibn Salamah, Yūnus Ibn Abī Ishāq as-Sabīī, Mālik Ibn Anas, and Ibn al-Majishūn.

Ash-Shāfiī (رحمه الله) said about him, "I do not know anyone who can compete with him in this field (i.e. Hadīth)."

Imām ash-Shāfiī says about 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Mahdī, "I do not know anyone who can compete with him in this field (i.e. Hadīth)."

Imām 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī (رحمه الله) said, "The most knowledgeable person in Hadīth is 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Mahdī."

This is what 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī said, and sufficient for you is the testimony of 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī!!

Imām al-Bukhārī said, "I did not consider myself belittled in the presence of anyone, except in the presence of 'Alī Ibn al-Madīnī."

And despite that, here he says, "The most knowledgeable person in Hadīth is 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Mahdī."

Imām al-Qawārīrī (رحمه الله) says, "Ibn Mahdī dictated to me 20,000 Hadīths, out of his MEMORY!!!"

Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) says, "If Ibn Mahdī narrates from a person, then that person is Thiqah (trustworthy and reliable)!"

But this is to be held upon most cases, because Ibn Mahdī narrated from al-Mas'ūdī and he has some Līn (slight weakness), and he narrated from 'Imrān Ibn Qattān and he has some Līn (slight weakness).

And Imām Ibn Mahdī passed away in the year 198 AH."

13 January 2018 12:20

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

One of the most knowledgeable scholars of Hadīth in the history of Islām, Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Mahdī (رحمه الله) said:

"The people of knowledge write down what's for them and what's against them, whereas the people of innovation only write down what's for them."

~ Refer to "Iqtidā' as-Sirāt al-Mustaqīm" (page 13) by Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله).

13 January 2018 11:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Character | Anas ibn Mālik عنه الله صلى reported in Bukhārī and Muslim: I served the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, for ten years.

By Allah, he never even said to me, “Uff!”

He never said, “Why did you do that?”

Or, “Why did you not do that?” [متفق عليه].

Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned in the authentic Hadīth; “The Hellfire is forbidden from every person who is gentle, lenient, easy-going and accessible to people.”

I would like to share a gem from Shaykh Mūsā Jibrīl (حفظه الله) which was shared a couple days ago:

“When the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to eat with Aisha رضي الله عنها he used to take the meat with his hand and put it in her mouth, she would eat the meat and then he would suck on the bones after.

When Aisha used to drink, the prophet used to look for where her lip marks were and put his lips on the same spot and drink. He would swear by Allah for her to drink first so he could look for where she drank from and drink from the same spot.

Why?!

To please his wife!

Have you pleased your wife like that? Sometimes it is the little actions which leave the biggest impact. Learn from the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, an exemplary character in all aspects of life.”

May Allāh preserve Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl's father, "exemplary character in all aspects of life", subhānAllāh - In all aspects of life, from the humility in one's knowledge to the etiquettes in eating and drinking.

Don't forget that a smile may open many hearts to your message:

Ja'ir Ibn 'Abdillāh رضي الله عنه said in Saḥīḥ al-Bukhārī and Muslim; “The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never seen me but smiled in my face.”

12 January 2018 07:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Character | Anas ibn Mālik عنه الله صلى reported in Bukhārī and Muslim: I served the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, for ten years.

By Allah, he never even said to me, “Uff!”

He never said, “Why did you do that?”

Or, “Why did you not do that?” [متفق عليه].

Rasūlullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned in the authentic Hadīth; “The Hellfire is forbidden from every person who is gentle, lenient, easy-going and accessible to people.”

I would like to share a gem from Shaykh Mūsā Jibrīl (حفظه الله) which was shared a couple days ago:

“When the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to eat with Aisha رضي الله عنها he used to take the meat with his hand and put it in her mouth, she would eat the meat and then he would suck on the bones after.

When Aisha used to drink, the prophet used to look for where her lip marks were and put his lips on the same spot and drink. He would swear by Allah for her to drink first so he could look for where she drank from and drink from the same spot.

Why?!

To please his wife!

Have you pleased your wife like that? Sometimes it is the little actions which leave the biggest impact. Learn from the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, an exemplary character in all aspects of life.”

May Allāh preserve Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl's father, "exemplary character in all aspects of life", subhānAllāh - In all aspects of life, from the humility in one's knowledge to the etiquettes in eating and drinking.

Don't forget that a smile may open many hearts to your message:

Ja'ir Ibn 'Abdillāh عنه رضي الله said in Sahīh al-Bukhārī and Muslim; “The Prophet صلى الله عليه never seen me but smiled in my face.”

12 January 2018 07:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

It's never too late to become sincere, allow this tweet to hit home.

“Salaf hid their deeds except in very rare circumstances to get reward from Allāh; Today they tweet them & get the reward from people!”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

11 January 2018 17:17

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

It's never too late to become sincere, allow this tweet to hit home.

“Salaf hid their deeds except in very rare circumstances to get reward from Allāh; Today they tweet them & get the reward from people!”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

11 January 2018 17:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“When you return home from a difficult day, turn to Allāh سُبحانه وتعالى and don't take it out on family members that had nothing to do with it.”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

11 January 2018 16:18

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“When you return home from a difficult day, turn to Allāh سُبحانه وتعالى and don't take it out on family members that had nothing to do with it.”

~ Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله).

11 January 2018 16:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20171217\_1627

Allāhu Akbar, 28 lessons have been uploaded from the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī an-Najdī (رحمته الله) on Sharh Kitāb at-Tawhīd by Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله)

We continuously keep stumbling across new gems from the sincere scholars of the ummah, who only a few years ago were unknown, but today their knowledge is spreading across the horizons, may Allāh accept all their efforts!

Download link below ↓

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20171217\_1627

10 January 2018 19:58

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20171217\_1627

https://archive.org/details/andulsia\_bk\_20171217\_1627

Allāhu Akbar, 28 lessons have been uploaded from the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī an-Najdī (رحمته الله) on Sharh Kitāb at-Tawhīd by Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (رحمه الله)

We continuously keep stumbling across new gems from the sincere scholars of the ummah, who only a few years ago were unknown, but today their knowledge is spreading across the horizons, may Allāh accept all their efforts!

Download link below ↓

10 January 2018 19:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

May Allah guide those who consider the Niqab extreme. When you tell them our beloved sisters are trying to look like 'A'isha and the pure sahabiyyaat, they will respond "that was a different time".

Our sisters are having troubles around the world for simply being a modest woman looking like 'A'isha (receiving fines!), and then you have our own muslims condemning their own sisters for imitating the mothers of the believers because it's a "different time", our modesty and religion is being oppressed from all sides :(

I can completely understand why Shaykh Ahmad Jibril said the following:

"Wallahi-llathee la ilaha illa hu (I swear by Allah, the one who there is no God other than him) I have never seen a niqabi in the US except that I have made dua for her."

We should also make du'a for our sisters covering up for the sake of Allah, especially those in Niqab, may Allah protect them and preserve our Hayaa'.

9 January 2018 21:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

May Allah guide those who consider the Niqab extreme. When you tell them our beloved sisters are trying to look like 'A'isha and the pure sahabiyyaat, they will respond "that was a different time".

Our sisters are having troubles around the world for simply being a modest woman looking like 'A'isha (receiving fines!), and then you have our own muslims condemning their own sisters for imitating the mothers of the believers because it's a "different time", our modesty and religion is being oppressed from all sides :(

I can completely understand why Shaykh Ahmad Jibril said the following:

"Wallahi-llathee la ilaha illa hu (I swear by Allah, the one who there is no God other than him) I have never seen a niqabi in the US except that I have made dua for her."

We should also make du'a for our sisters covering up for the sake of Allah, especially those in Niqab, may Allah protect them and preserve our Hayaa'.

9 January 2018 21:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

There's no better feeling than waiting for some brothers to be released in the next few days ☺

Brothers who may live oceans away! But no matter how hard anyone tries to claim we're far away, we will always prove you wrong.

You can place all the oceans and mountains and barriers of the world in between us, but as long as we see each other as an Ummah, we are automatically connected as 1.

How can you separate between those who look at each other as an ummah which 'must' be protected, infact their driving force is the mirror they look into (their brothers from the ummah).

So before trying to compare us to salt water and fresh water which do not mix in the sea, understand that we are mixed together with an unbreakable bond (the Kalimah).

As for the greetings which have reached me from the other prisoners, may your blessed Salāms be returned back to you from across the oceans, and may the noble angels continue to say Āmīn to your du'ās back to you.

9 January 2018 16:36

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

There's no better feeling than waiting for some brothers to be released in the next few days ☺

Brothers who may live oceans away! But no matter how hard anyone tries to claim we're far away, we will always prove you wrong.

You can place all the oceans and mountains and barriers of the world in between us, but as long as we see each other as an Ummah, we are automatically connected as 1.

How can you separate between those who look at each other as an ummah which 'must' be protected, infact their driving force is the mirror they look into (their brothers from the ummah).

So before trying to compare us to salt water and fresh water which do not mix in the sea, understand that we are mixed together with an unbreakable bond (the Kalimah).

As for the greetings which have reached me from the other prisoners, may your blessed Salāms be returned back to you from across the oceans, and may the noble angels continue to say Āmin to your du'ās back to you.

9 January 2018 16:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://t.me/MannersBeforeKnowledge>

I'm back again my beloved muwahhideen

Shaykh 'Umar Maḥdī Zaydān ↓
<https://t.me/joinchat/AAAAAEs7v0UWwDZOe5oM8g>

Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī ↓
<https://t.me/AMTameemee>

Official channel ↓
<https://t.me/MannersBeforeKnowledge>

8 January 2018 13:29

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Glad tidings to the Strangers | Lol, I found my primary school graduation photos - I was the only Muwahhid surrounded by a whole class of aussie kids

8 January 2018 13:20

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://t.me/MannersBeforeKnowledge>
<https://t.me/MannersBeforeKnowledge>

I'm back again my beloved muwahhideen

Shaykh 'Umar Maḥdī Zaydān ↓
<https://t.me/joinchat/AAAAAEs7v0UWwDZOe5oM8g>

Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī ↓
<https://t.me/AMTameemee>

Official channel ↓
<https://t.me/MannersBeforeKnowledge>

8 January 2018 13:16

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Behind the scenes | We tend to hear about a controversial topic of 'preachers' and 'shaykhs' abusing their power and deen appearance, showing a nice face in public, but are vicious wolves in private, targeting vulnerable women Wallāhul-Musta'ān.

Now this can include every preacher, irregardless of their 'Aqīdah and Manhaj (even though the one with a true Walā' and Barā' is more likely to look after his ummah).

We need to understand that no matter how much da'wah we give, it can have 99 doors of good, but Shaytān can always open that 1 door of evil and destroy everything.

We need to ask ourselves, how can we preach something to the people, telling them to fear Allāh, when us ourselves are not fearing Allāh in private and betraying Allāh and His messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

How can anyone who speaks on behalf of Allāh and His messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) come close to something which would earn him the hellfire.

How can any sane person who looks at the situation of our ummah, our children and sisters slaughtered and humiliated, then decides to prey on vulnerable women of our ummah for his own nafs?!!!! What Īmān and Islām is left within such a heart, where is the Islām within a heart that doesn't think about the ummah?!!! [1].

Also, if anyone comes onto social media in order to score a "wife" by showing off his inner-shakespear or whatever, I would suggest you delete your account, get out of the da'wah scene, re-think your intentions and come back when you start to post for the sake of Allāh.

This social media can be a big Fitnah, and the sisters must realise this, I probably have 100+ messages from sisters which read "My intentions are not bad" or "sorry for messaging you", okay your intentions may be perfectly fine, but how do you know my intentions are not going to be evil, don't you know that women are the biggest fitnah for man?!

So sisters need to also be aware and look after their brothers in Islām. I don't care if you were in serious need to understand something, I'm not going to open up any message that involves speaking to a non-mahram and may result in Fitnah, and these have been my 2 reasons in telling people messaging the opposite gender is Harām in Islām.

As for the married couples, wallāhi trust is absolutely necessary and the key for successful marriages, may Allāh protect us from any fitan, however you must all abide by the rules of not messaging a non-mahram (don't ever bring suspicion about yourself either), and even if you see each other's social media, you should be open to that, ensure the trust is 100% solid, because social media has proven to be a relationship wrecker, where both brothers and sisters are spending so much time on social media instead of their spouses.

I conclude by what Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) once wrote on twitter:

{Buy not with My Verses a small price} [2:41] - How evil is he who gets loved for his deen appearance then invests that for personal worldly gain.

I seek refuge in Allāh from the evils of our nafs, may Allāh increase us in truthfulness and sincerity, O Allāh make the inside of us better than the outside, Āmīn.

---

[1] This is a severe rebuke, not any Takfir. This type of hyperbole has been affirmed when the Sahābah even made lesser mistakes such as not making Rukū' and Sujūd properly, Huthayfa (رضي الله عنه) said if he was to die upon that, he would die upon a different Fitrah that Muhammad was embarked upon!

8 January 2018 11:23

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Behind the scenes | We tend to hear about a controversial topic of 'preachers' and 'shaykhs' abusing their power and deen appearance, showing a nice face in public, but are vicious wolves in private, targeting vulnerable women Wallāhul-Musta'ān.

Now this can include every preacher, irregardless of their 'Aqīdah and Manhaj (even though the one with a true Walā' and Barā' is more likely to look after his ummah).

We need to understand that no matter how much da'wah we give, it can have 99 doors of good, but Shaytān can always open that 1 door of evil and destroy everything.

We need to ask ourselves, how can we preach something to the people, telling them to fear Allāh, when us ourselves are not fearing Allāh in private and betraying Allāh and His messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

How can anyone who speaks on behalf of Allāh and His messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) come close to something which would earn him the hellfire.

How can any sane person who looks at the situation of our ummah, our children and sisters slaughtered and humiliated, then decides to prey on vulnerable women of our ummah for his own nafs?!!!! What Īmān and Islām is left within such a heart, where is the Islām within a heart that doesn't think about the ummah?!!! [1].

Also, if anyone comes onto social media in order to score a "wife" by showing off his inner-shakespear or whatever, I would suggest you delete your account, get out of the da'wah scene, re-think your intentions and come back when you start to post for the sake of Allāh.

This social media can be a big Fitnah, and the sisters must realise this, I probably have 100+ messages from sisters which read "My intentions are not bad" or "sorry for messaging you", okay your intentions may be perfectly fine, but how do you know my intentions are not going to be evil, don't you know that women are the biggest fitnah for man?!

So sisters need to also be aware and look after their brothers in Islām. I don't care if you were in serious need to understand something, I'm not going to open up any message that involves speaking to a non-mahram and may result in Fitnah, and these have been my 2 reasons in telling people messaging the opposite gender is Harām in Islām.

As for the married couples, wallāhi trust is absolutely necessary and the key for successful marriages, may Allāh protect us from any fitan, however you must all abide by the rules of not messaging a non-mahram (don't ever bring suspicion about yourself either), and even if you see each other's social media, you should be open to that, ensure the trust is 100% solid, because social media has proven to be a relationship wrecker, where both brothers and sisters are spending so much time on social media instead of their spouses.

I conclude by what Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) once wrote on twitter:

{Buy not with My Verses a small price} [2:41] - How evil is he who gets loved for his deen appearance then invests that for personal worldly gain.

I seek refuge in Allāh from the evils of our nafs, may Allāh increase us in truthfulness and sincerity, O Allāh make the inside of us better than the outside, Āmīn.

---

[1] This is a severe rebuke, not any Takfir. This type of hyperbole has been affirmed when the Sahābah even made lesser mistakes such as not making Rukū' and Sujūd properly, Huthayfa (رضي الله عنه) said if he was to die upon that, he would die upon a different Fitrah that Muhammad was embarked upon!

8 January 2018 11:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

#Book | Our beloved Shaykh Omer Bejrami (حفظه الله) from Albania translated "Al-Fatāwā Al-Hā'iriyyah" (110 pages) by the Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرهم) into Albanian, may Allāh reward him.

Download link below ↓

<https://ia601502.us.archive.org/8/items/64FETVANasirEIFehd/64-FETVA-Nasir-EI-Fehd.pdf>

8 January 2018 09:06

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

Ibrahim At-Tounsi Dabboussi Oh wallahi, I love that shaykh 😊, May Allah reward him and protect him. He studied in Masr and have a lot of knowledge and baseerah, even though I dont understand the language, there was many lectures/videos of him translated into various languages and around 50-60 of them translated into swedish finished them and they were very beneficial :)

8 January 2018 10:46

#Book | Our beloved Shaykh Omer Bejrami (حفظه الله) from Albania translated "Al-Fatāwā Al-Hā'iriyyah" (110 pages) by the Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرهم) into Albanian, may Allāh reward him.

Download link below ↓

<https://ia601502.us.archive.org/8/items/64FETVANasirEIFehd/64-FETVA-Nasir-EI-Fehd.pdf>

8 January 2018 09:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Nūr al-Hedāyya has 4,412 members just on this group alone, اللهم بارك.

I remember when Nūr al-Hedāyya was first established, and the brother went through alot of difficulties and effort to keep it running smoothly, but Alhamdulillah I'm very pleased to see where it has reached today.

The brotherhood is wonderful, and the events made by the sisters for the Muslimāt and kids is a big success, may Allāh show mercy to you the way you showed mercy to the children and struggling muslims of the ummah.

May Allāh reward all the beneficial and sincere charity organisations with an abundance of good deeds on their scales on Yawm al-Qiyāmah.

If you want to know whether Allāh is pleased with you, look at yourself today and be thankful that your creator continues to guide you towards righteous deeds and good character.

7 January 2018 21:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://youtu.be/ZJy1ajvMU1k>

#Cooking | 5 basic cooking skills which everyone should learn:

1 - How to cut onions (and avoid crying).

2 - How to cook rice correctly.

3 - How to skin and debone salmon (and fish in general - don't cut too far away from the skin).

4 - Importance of sharpening the knife (10x more efficient than a blunt knife - keep finger/thumb behind the handle).

5 - How to cook pasta (very easy to under/over cook).

A very simple and beneficial demonstration (7 mins) in the link below, it's okay to make mistakes when starting:

<https://youtu.be/ZJy1ajvMU1k>

7 January 2018 20:19

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://youtu.be/ZJy1ajvMU1k>

<https://youtu.be/ZJy1ajvMU1k>

#Cooking | 5 basic cooking skills which everyone should learn:

1 - How to cut onions (and avoid crying).

2 - How to cook rice correctly.

3 - How to skin and debone salmon (and fish in general - don't cut too far away from the skin).

4 - Importance of sharpening the knife (10x more efficient than a blunt knife - keep finger/thumb behind the handle).

5 - How to cook pasta (very easy to under/over cook).

A very simple and beneficial demonstration (7 mins) in the link below, it's okay to make mistakes when starting:

7 January 2018 20:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

Shaykh 'Abdullāh Muhammad al-Hussayn Abā al-Khayl was asked: Is Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān from your students?

He replied: Yes, however he surpassed his Shaykhs the way Al-Bukhārī surpassed his Shaykhs.

~ Related by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) in his famous lecture, "The Seerah of Shaykh al-'Alwān".

7 January 2018 20:09

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

Shaykh 'Abdullāh Muhammad al-Hussayn Abā al-Khayl was asked: Is Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān from your students?

He replied: Yes, however he surpassed his Shaykhs the way Al-Bukhārī surpassed his Shaykhs.

~ Related by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) in his famous lecture, "The Seerah of Shaykh al-'Alwān".

7 January 2018 19:46

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

May Allāh protect us from the punishment of Jahannam, both the freezing cold ❄ and burning fire in it

7 January 2018 16:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Paintball bruises on my back makes me feel like doing Hijamah (cupping) 😊

7 January 2018 16:15

Radwan Dakkak shared 7 News Sydney's live video.

---

May Allāh protect us from the punishment of Jahannam, both the freezing cold ❄ and burning fire in it

7 January 2018 16:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<http://www.luxuryandglamor.com/the-famous-chef-jamie-oliver-won-the-court-process-against-mcdonalds-company-proving-that-their-products-are-not-edible/>

Alhamdulillah, I'm so glad for never having a meal at McDonald's (except once at a party when younger) 😊

Jamie Oliver wins court case against McDonald's who claim their burgers are 100 per cent beef, it turns out it is 15 per cent beef and the majority of their meat is unfit for human consumption and should be used for dog food, it's funny how this has not hit the front page news.

Don't do it to yourself. Stop eating McDonald today and read this story on line.

<http://www.luxuryandglamor.com/the-famous-chef-jamie-oliver-won-the-court-process-against-mcdonalds-company-proving-that-their-products-are-not-edible/>

7 January 2018 09:26

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<http://www.luxuryandglamor.com/the-famous-chef-jamie-oliver-won-the-court-process-against-mcdonalds-company-proving-that-their-products-are-not-edible/>

<http://www.luxuryandglamor.com/the-famous-chef-jamie-oliver-won-the-court-process-against-mcdonalds-company-proving-that-their-products-are-not-edible/>

Alhamdulillah, I'm so glad for never having a meal at McDonald's (except once at a party when younger) 😊

Jamie Oliver wins court case against McDonald's who claim their burgers are 100 per cent beef, it turns out it is 15 per cent beef and the majority of their meat is unfit for human consumption and should be used for dog food, it's funny how this has not hit the front page news.

Don't do it to yourself. Stop eating McDonald today and read this story on line.

7 January 2018 09:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#200_Fatāwā

Q4. Is blind-following permissible in matters of 'Aqīdah? Is it also acceptable to say "I am upon the 'Aqīdah of Fulān"?

A. Yes, it's permissible by Ijmā', a consensus was mentioned by As-Saffārīnī in his "'Aqīdah", and it was also mentioned by An-Nawawī.

However, it's necessary to have certitude in 'Aqīdah, (Allāh) the Exalted says:

"So ask the people of knowledge if you do not know." [16:43]

Nothing was obligated except for asking (the trustworthy scholars), then blind-following them in that. And also because the layman doesn't know the evidence or memorise it, as it's above his capability.

"So fear Allāh as much as you can." [64:16]

"Allāh does not burden a soul beyond that it can bear." [2:286]

As for the acceptability of saying "I am upon the 'Aqīdah of Fulān". If you meant by Fulān (i.e. So and so) for example, the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and the Sahābah, there's no objection in doing so.

If you meant other than that, then we must observe who is Fulān. If his 'Aqīdah was in-line with the 'Aqīdah of Ahlus-Sunnah such as Imām Ahmad for example, or Mālik and those similar to them, then there's no objection in doing so, due to the permissibility of blind-following.

But what's preferred over this, is to state that he's upon the 'Aqīdah of the Salaf or Sahābah, and so forth.

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرهم).

6 January 2018 23:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_Fatāwā

Q3. What is the ruling on the Ash'ariyyah of our time?

A. The Ash'ariyyah are two types:

1. Grave worshipping pagans, so these (Ash'ariyyah) are Mushrikīn.
2. Pure Ash'ariyyah, who do not have any kind of major shirk, so these (Ash'ariyyah) take same ruling as the Ashā'irah who preceded them.

And the Ashā'irah of the past are two types:

1. The First Ash'ariyyah, so these are Kullābiyyah, and they are an innovated sect, and are not made Takfīr upon.
2. The Second Ash'ariyyah (who came afterwards), and they are not made Takfīr upon by the Majority of the scholars due to Ta'wīl (misinterpretation).

And a few scholars went towards making Takfīr upon them, such as Ibn Hazm, Ibn al-Jawzī, ad-Dustī, and some of the Hanābilah.

But what's correct is that it differs depending upon the time and place, so if it was a time of where the Sunnah is widespread and openly displayed, or a place where the Sunnah is clear and apparent, like in the time of Imām Mālik (رحمه الله), Ahmad (رحمه الله), and ash-Shāfi'ī (رحمه الله), then someone adopts al-Ash'ariyyah, then this person is a Kāfir.

And if the time was a time of ignorance where bid'ah is widespread and the Sunnah is hidden, such as the time of Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) and Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb (رحمه الله), then no Takfīr is made until the misconception is removed and he stubbornly rejects the text, and Allāh knows best.

Pay Attention: There's a group (of scholars) who are from Ahlus-Sunnah in general, however they agreed with the Ashā'irah (in certain issues), and their situation is unlike the situation of the Ashā'irah from giving precedence to the intellect over the text (Qur'ān & Sunnah).

Rather their situation is giving precedence to the Qur'ān and Sunnah and rejecting giving precedence to the intellect, such as the likes of al-Bayhaqī (رحمه الله), Ibn Fūrak (رحمه الله) and those similar to them.

So what these (scholars) fell into are called slips/mistakes, so whatever falsehood they have would be rejected, and their position would be preserved and their knowledge would be benefitted from.

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرهم).

6 January 2018 23:24

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EM-BBV-8ZOM&list=UUzRAtybailE6MEIZAd5Vblg&index=70>
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EM-BBV-8ZOM&list=UUzRAtybailE6MEIZAd5Vblg&index=70>

Sh. Abū 'Abdīr-Rahmān al-Jazā'irī has 4 beneficial lessons commenting upon the treatise "The legality of being severely harsh against the Rawāfidih" belonging to the Imām, Shaykh al-'Allāmah Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرهم), touching on numerous matters in dealing with the Kuffār in our circumstances.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PPBXIfdVyDk&feature=youtu.be>

Part (2/4) ↓

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ARYUDC00YE4>

Part (3/4) ↓

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=u05zPqTx2cl>

Part (4/4) ↓

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EM-BBV-8ZOM&list=UUzRAtybailE6MEIZAd5Vblg&index=70>

6 January 2018 22:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Another example for the sisters to encourage them to seek knowledge.

Fātima bint Yahyā, a daughter of an Imām and a famous mujtahidah. She used to debate with her father in juristic issues.

She later married, another famous jurist, Mutahhar ibn Muhammad ibn Sulayman ibn Muhammad. And whenever a complicated issue is brought forward to Mutahhar and his students he would approach his wife and seek a solution.

And when he returns his students will say "this is not from you, this is from behind the curtains"

6 January 2018 19:07

Radwan Dakkak shared درع الدين الطاهري's post.

Women must be empowered with knowledge.

6 January 2018 18:28

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

[EN] Walā' and Barā' by the noble Imām, Shaykh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله)

"You will not have any īmān in Allāh or in the last day, until you have animosity to the closest of people to you, if he was hostile to Allāh and His messenger (ﷺ).

"You will not find a people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day having affection for those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger, even if they were their fathers or their sons or their brothers or their kindred." [58:22]

Allāh, the Most High and Exalted says:

"O you who have believed, do not take your fathers or your brothers as allies if they have preferred disbelief over belief. And whoever does so among you - then it is those who are the wrongdoers." [9:23]

This is the millah of Ibrāhīm, which Allāh ordered His Prophet (ﷺ) to follow, and whoever turns away from it, then he has fooled himself.

"There has already been for you an excellent pattern in Abraham and those with him, when they said to their people, 'Indeed, we are disassociated from you and from whatever you worship other than Allāh...

WE DISBELIEVE IN YOU, WE DISBELIEVE IN YOU, WE DISBELIEVE IN YOU

...and there has appeared between us and you animosity and hatred forever until you believe in Allāh alone." [60:4]

And we can look at some aspects of this command among the companions of the Prophet (ﷺ).

It has been narrated in Saḥīḥ Muslim, wherein the Prophet (ﷺ) consulted Abū Bakr (رضي الله عنه) concerning the captives.

Abū Bakr (رضي الله عنه) said, they should be ransomed.

Then he consulted 'Umar (رضي الله عنه), so 'Umar said, O Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ), I am of the opinion that Ḥamzah should be handed over to his brother 'Abbās, and 'Aqīl should be handed over to his brother 'Alī, and hand over such and such to me - a relative to 'Umar - so that we may strike their heads.

So that they know there is no leniency with the kuffār in our religion! And there is no substituting our religion for the kuffār!

Because the kāfir is the worst of creation and living beings! He doesn't have a status on this earth nor any dignity. Whoever despises Allāh, then no one can honor him.

So why do we love them, why do we raise them, why do we bring them closer to us, when Allāh, the Most High and Exalted, has ordered us to expel them, showing animosity towards them and having hatred to them?!

Hence, the greatest description Allāh described our Prophet Muḥammad (ﷺ) and his Ṣaḥābah with was:

"Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allāh, and those with him (Ṣaḥābah) are stern towards the Kuffār, and merciful towards each other."

Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, also said:

"O you who have believed, fight those close to you of the disbelievers and let them find in you harshness. And know that Allāh is with the righteous." [9:123]

Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, said:

"O you who have believed, whoever of you should revert from his religion - Allāh will bring forth [in place of them] a people He will love and who will love Him [who are] humble toward the believers, powerful against the disbelievers; they strive in the cause of Allāh and do not fear the blame of a critic. That is the favor of Allāh ; He bestows it upon whom He wills. And Allāh is all-Encompassing and Knowing." [5:54]

Imām Muslim narrated in his Ṣaḥīḥ from the Hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

"Do not initiate greetings of peace to the Jews and the Christians (when you meet them), and if you meet any of them on the road, force him to go to the narrowest part of the road."

Thus, this is the Book of Allāh and Sunnah of the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) between our hands.

So, O slaves of Allāh, why do we do such a thing when we read the Qur'ān and listen to it?

Furthermore, O slaves of Allāh, we observe the command that Allāh ordered concerning His obedience and the obedience of His messenger (ﷺ) - Yet despite that, many people today give precedence to the obedience of the creation and his systems and commands, over the obedience of Allāh and His messenger.

Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, said in the clear revelation:

"O you who have believed, obey Allāh and His Messenger and do not turn from him while you hear [his order]. And do not be like those who say, "We have heard," while they do not hear.

Indeed, the worst of living creatures in the sight of Allāh are the deaf and dumb who do not use reason. Had Allāh known any good in them, He would have made them hear. And if He had made them hear, they would [still] have turned away, while they were refusing." [8:20-23]

Hence, Allāh the Exalted and Majestic said, clarifying the abode of those who give precedence to the obedience of the creation, over the obedience of Allāh and His messenger (ﷺ):

"The Day their faces will be turned about in the Fire, they will say, "How we wish we had obeyed Allāh and obeyed the Messenger."

And they will say, "Our Lord, indeed we obeyed our masters and our dignitaries, and they led us astray from the [right] way.

Our Lord, give them double the punishment and curse them with a great curse." [33:66-68]

A serious wa'id (torment in the Hellfire), and a severe threat from the Lord of Creation, however where are those who comprehend and ponder over the Qur'ān?

Ponder over the Qur'ān, O slave of Allāh. So that you may become successful and attain happiness in the dunyā and ākhirah.

Moreover, O slaves of Allāh, another stop with the Qur'ān. The Qur'ān commands us, in fact, Allāh has prescribed for us this qitāl, which is fighting the kuffār.

"Fighting has been prescribed for you..." [2:216]

Who prescribed it? Any random person among the people? No, it was prescribed by the lord of creation.

And that there's no honor for a believer, nor any dignity for a believer, nor does the religion of Islām remain, nor does the Sharī'ah of Muḥammad (ﷺ) remain (in authority), except by raising the banner of Jihād and fighting the kuffār.

And if the ḥudūd (punishments) are suspended and the Sharī'ah of Allāh is removed, and the Qur'ān is ridiculed, and Allāh is insulted, and His messenger (ﷺ) is insulted, due to what reason?!

Due to not raising the banner of Jihād. By Allāh, if we raised the banner of Jihād, our religion would remain venerated, and we would be honored.

All praise belongs to Allāh, our religion is venerated, however it is us who were inflicted with humiliation when we inclined towards the dunyā and abandoned striving against the kuffār.”

6 January 2018 15:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

[EN] Walā' and Barā' by the noble Imām, Shaykh Hamad al-Humaydī (تقبله الله)

“You will not have any īmān in Allāh or in the last day, until you have animosity to the closest of people to you, if he was hostile to Allāh and His messenger (ﷺ).

"You will not find a people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day having affection for those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger, even if they were their fathers or their sons or their brothers or their kindred." [58:22]

Allāh, the Most High and Exalted says:

"O you who have believed, do not take your fathers or your brothers as allies if they have preferred disbelief over belief. And whoever does so among you - then it is those who are the wrongdoers." [9:23]

This is the millah of Ibrāhīm, which Allāh ordered His Prophet (ﷺ) to follow, and whoever turns away from it, then he has fooled himself.

"There has already been for you an excellent pattern in Abraham and those with him, when they said to their people, 'Indeed, we are disassociated from you and from whatever you worship other than Allāh...

WE DISBELIEVE IN YOU, WE DISBELIEVE IN YOU, WE DISBELIEVE IN YOU

...and there has appeared between us and you animosity and hatred forever until you believe in Allāh alone." [60:4]

And we can look at some aspects of this command among the companions of the Prophet (ﷺ).

It has been narrated in Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim, wherein the Prophet (ﷺ) consulted Abū Bakr (رضي الله عنه) concerning the captives.

Abū Bakr (رضي الله عنه) said, they should be ransomed.

Then he consulted ‘Umar (رضي الله عنه), so ‘Umar said, O Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ), I am of the opinion that Ḥamzah should be handed over to his brother ‘Abbās, and ‘Aqīl should be handed over to his brother ‘Alī, and hand over such and such to me - a relative to ‘Umar - so that we may strike their heads.

So that they know there is no leniency with the kuffār in our religion! And there is no substituting our religion for the kuffār!

Because the kāfir is the worst of creation and living beings! He doesn't have a status on this earth nor any dignity. Whoever despises Allāh, then no one can honor him.

So why do we love them, why do we raise them, why do we bring them closer to us, when Allāh, the Most High and Exalted, has ordered us to expel them, showing animosity towards them and having hatred to them?!

Hence, the greatest description Allāh described our Prophet Muḥammad (ﷺ) and his Ṣaḥābah with was:

"Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allāh, and those with him (Ṣaḥābah) are stern towards the Kuffār, and merciful towards each other."

Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, also said:

"O you who have believed, fight those close to you of the disbelievers and let them find in you harshness. And know that Allāh is with the righteous." [9:123]

Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, said:

"O you who have believed, whoever of you should revert from his religion - Allāh will bring forth [in place of them] a people He will love and who will love Him [who are] humble toward the believers, powerful against the disbelievers; they strive in the cause of Allāh and do not fear the blame of a critic. That is the favor of Allāh ; He bestows it upon whom He wills. And Allāh is all-Encompassing and Knowing." [5:54]

Imām Muslim narrated in his Ṣaḥīḥ from the Hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

"Do not initiate greetings of peace to the Jews and the Christians (when you meet them), and if you meet any of them on the road, force him to go to the narrowest part of the road."

Thus, this is the Book of Allāh and Sunnah of the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) between our hands.

So, O slaves of Allāh, why do we do such a thing when we read the Qurʾān and listen to it?

Furthermore, O slaves of Allāh, we observe the command that Allāh ordered concerning His obedience and the obedience of His messenger (ﷺ) - Yet despite that, many people today give precedence to the obedience of the creation and his systems and commands, over the obedience of Allāh and His messenger.

Allāh, the Exalted and Majestic, said in the clear revelation:

"O you who have believed, obey Allāh and His Messenger and do not turn from him while you hear [his order]. And do not be like those who say, "We have heard," while they do not hear.

Indeed, the worst of living creatures in the sight of Allāh are the deaf and dumb who do not use reason. Had Allāh known any good in them, He would have made them hear. And if He had made them hear, they would [still] have turned away, while they were refusing." [8:20-23]

Hence, Allāh the Exalted and Majestic said, clarifying the abode of those who give precedence to the obedience of the creation, over the obedience of Allāh and His messenger (ﷺ):

"The Day their faces will be turned about in the Fire, they will say, "How we wish we had obeyed Allāh and obeyed the Messenger."

And they will say, "Our Lord, indeed we obeyed our masters and our dignitaries, and they led us astray from the [right] way.

Our Lord, give them double the punishment and curse them with a great curse." [33:66-68]

A serious waʿid (torment in the Hellfire), and a severe threat from the Lord of Creation, however where are those who comprehend and ponder over the Qurʾān?

Ponder over the Qurʾān, O slave of Allāh. So that you may become successful and attain happiness in the dunyā and ākhirah.

Moreover, O slaves of Allāh, another stop with the Qurʾān. The Qurʾān commands us, in fact, Allāh has prescribed for us this qitāl, which is fighting the kuffār.

"Fighting has been prescribed for you..." [2:216]

Who prescribed it? Any random person among the people? No, it was prescribed by the lord of creation.

And that there's no honor for a believer, nor any dignity for a believer, nor does the religion of Islām remain, nor does the Sharīʿah of Muḥammad (ﷺ) remain (in authority), except by raising the banner of Jihād and fighting the kuffār.

And if the ḥudūd (punishments) are suspended and the Sharīʿah of Allāh is removed, and the Qurʾān is ridiculed, and Allāh is insulted, and His messenger (ﷺ) is insulted, due to what reason?!

Due to not raising the banner of Jihād. By Allāh, if we raised the banner of Jihād, our religion would remain venerated, and we would be honored.

All praise belongs to Allāh, our religion is venerated, however it is us who were inflicted with humiliation when we inclined towards the dunyā and abandoned striving against the kuffār."

6 January 2018 14:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Only Allah knows how much I love him - A man who truly put his words into action. Such truthful brave men in our times are rare to find.

5 January 2018 22:34

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

[AR] Beautiful short talk - Glad tidings of victory by Shaykh Abu Malik at-Tamimi (تقبله الله).

5 January 2018 21:46

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

1 : Believing in democracy as a religion and ideology

Allah ta'ālā says:

وَمَنْ يَتَّبِعْ غَيْرَ الْإِسْلَامِ دِينًا فَلَنْ يُقْبَلَ مِنْهُ وَهُوَ فِي الْآخِرَةِ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ} - آل عمران: ٨٥

"And whoever desires other than Islam as religion - never will it be accepted from him, and he, in the Hereafter, will be among the losers." 'Āli-'Imrān: 85

2 : Judging by the tāghūti international and domestic legislations that nullifies the Sharī'ah of Allah subhānahu

Allah ta'ālā says:

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ يَزْعُمُونَ أَنَّهُمْ آمَنُوا بِمَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ وَمَا أُنْزِلَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ يُرِيدُونَ أَنْ يَتَخَفَتُوا إِلَى الطَّاغُوتِ { وَقَدْ أُمِرُوا أَنْ يَكْفُرُوا بِهِ وَيُرِيدُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَنْ يُضِلَّهُمْ ضَلَالًا بَعِيدًا} - النساء: ٦٠

"Have you not seen those who claim to have believed in what was revealed to you, [O Muhammad], and what was revealed before you? They wish to refer legislation to Taghut, while they were commanded to reject it; and Satan wishes to lead them far astray." an-Nisā: 60

3 : Partaking in writing kufr legislations or amendments of it in the shirki parliament.

Allah ta'ālā says:

وَلَا تَقُولُوا لِمَا تَصِفُ أَلْسِنَتُكُمُ الْكَذِبَ هَذَا حَلَالٌ وَهَذَا حَرَامٌ لِتَفْتَرُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ □ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَفْتَرُونَ عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ لَا يُفْلِحُونَ * مَتَاعٌ قَلِيلٌ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ{ النحل: ١١٦-١١٧

"And do not say about what your tongues assert of untruth, "This is lawful and this is unlawful," to invent falsehood about Allah . Indeed, those who invent falsehood about Allah will not succeed * [It is but] a brief enjoyment, and they will have a painful punishment." an-Nahl: 116-117

4 : Alliances with tawāghīṭ & murtadīn and cooperates with them - like their situation with tawāghīṭ of Iran & others.

Allah ta'ālā says:

يَنْشُرِ الْمُتَافِقِينَ يَأَنَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا * الَّذِينَ يَتَّخِذُونَ الْكَافِرِينَ أَوْلِيَاءَ مِنْ دُونِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ □ ابْتِغَاوْا عِنْدَهُمُ الْعِزَّةَ { فَإِنَّ الْعِزَّةَ لِلَّهِ جَمِيعًا} - النساء: ٣٨-١٣٩

"Give tidings to the hypocrites that there is for them a painful punishment * Those who take disbelievers as allies instead of the believers. Do they seek with them honor [through power]? But indeed, honor belongs to Allah entirely." an-Nisā: 138-139

5 : Coordinating and seeking assistance in tawāghīṭ & their soldiers to fight the muwahidīn in Wilayat Sinai and other places.

Imam Muhammad ibn 'Abdul-Wahhāb rahimahullāh said:

الناقض الثامن مطاهرة المشركين ومعاونتهم على المسلمين والدليل قوله تعالى: {وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّهِمْ مِّنْكُمْ فَإِنَّهُ مِنْهُمْ □ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الطَّالِقِينَ} المائدة ٥١

Eight nullifier: supporting the mushrikeen and helping them against the Muslims, and the evidence is the saying of ta'ālā: "And whoever is an ally to them among you - then indeed, he is [one] of them. Indeed, Allah guides not the wrongdoing people." al-Mā'idah: 51

6 : Denying and delaying a lot of texts from the Book & Sunnah, and more than that, they reject whoever implements it, like establishing jiziyah and fighting kuffār.

Allah ta'ālā says:

وَمَا يَجْعَدْ يَأْتَانَا إِلَّا الْكَافِرُونَ{ العنكبوت ٤٧}

"And none reject Our verses except the disbelievers" al-'Ankabūt 47

7 : Islamization of the rāfidhah (i.e saying they are Muslims) and correcting their religion and getting close to them (in friendship & brotherhood).

Imam Muhammad ibn 'Abdul-Wahhāb rahimahullāh said:

".من لم يكفر المشركين، او شك في كفرهم، او صح منهم كفر".

"Whoever does not hold the mushrikīn to be kuffār, or has doubts about their kufr or considers their ways and beliefs to be correct, has committed kufr".

5 January 2018 19:59

SubhānAllāh I used to think it was wealth until Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl indicated it was knowledge, now I'm back to the opinion it means wealth, thanks to Shaykh Haytham Sayfaddīn's excellent essay.

5 January 2018 19:46

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://sahwatarchives.wordpress.com/2017/12/31/harakat-nour-din-zinki/>
<https://sahwatarchives.wordpress.com/2017/12/31/harakat-nour-din-zinki/>

#Rushing | It has been brought to my attention that I've been rushing into Takfīr 'out of emotions' (since I called 'Abdur-Razzāq al-Mahdī an Apostate).

But if you ask them about the reasons behind my Takfīr, they will dispute among each other cluelessly, and infact they are the ones rushing without verification, and even coming up with doubtful accusations.

As Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) mentioned about these Murji'ah and Jahmiyyah, they are quick to defend and make as much excuses for the Tawāghīṭ (and be soft with them + private Nasīhah), while they don't make such excuses for the preachers and those who uphold Tawhīd (very harsh on Mujāhideen etc..).

Allāh is my witness that I didn't even wish to respond, but because a beloved brother wanted me to clarify this and explain who the Sahawāt are, I've done this for him, and Inshā'Allāh my intentions have now changed to also benefitting the muslims.

No, I did not make Takfīr upon 'Abdur-Razzāq al-Mahdī due to that tweet and in no way ever suggested that, but simply mentioned it was a new fatwa by an apostate shaykh of the Sahawāt, who are well-known for their kufr among the little children of the muslims.

However, if I did intend Takfīr based upon that tweet, then everyone has the right to label me emotional, ignorant and misguided, following a very dangerous path.

In any case, for those who don't know, 'Abdur-Razzāq al-Mahdī was from HTS who were best-friend allies with Ahrār ash-Shām (now independant but still issues fatwas for them and allows allying with Turkey for the US-Turkey backed Euphrates Shield groups), Ahrār is a group exposed for their clear apostasy around 4 years ago, so feel free to have a read on their alliance with the Tawāghīṭ and nullifiers they fell into, wallāhul-Musta'ān:

<https://sahwatarchives.wordpress.com/2018/01/03/everything-you-need-to-know-about-ahrar-ash-sham/>

If you want to know more about their allies, read this below with a sincere heart:

<https://sahwatarchives.wordpress.com/2017/12/31/harakat-nour-din-zinki/>

5 January 2018 19:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Intentions | Imām Sufyān ath-Thawrī (رحمه الله) said there was nothing I struggled more with than my intentions.

Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) mentions some beautiful words:

"Renew your oath, renew your oath every day. Renew your Niyyah every day. Not every day but many times a day, not many times a day but every step of your way, every act of your way.

Every time you say a word, every time you type something, every time you go for a Da'wah event, any time, renew your Niyyah. That is how you get your strength for Sabr, when calamity hits you later on. If hard times pass you in this life and people turn away, do you think anyone is going to help you before Allah?

يَوْمَ يَفِرُّ الْمَرْءُ مِنْ أَخِيهِ ۚ ٣٤ وَأُمُّهُ وَأَبِيهِ ۚ ٣٥ وَصَاحِبَتِيهِ وَبَنِيهِ ۚ ٣٦ عَبَسَ

If they do not help you in this life, you think they are going to help you in the life after? If trials overwhelm you, you are not going to find no one there but Allah and truly Allah is sufficient. That is all you really need.

The question is how to get Allah on your side? You are going to get hurdles and bumps in your Da'wah, the trials and tribulations are like hurdles and bumps, one after another in your Da'wah path. You are not going to find no one but Allah when you get on these hurdles.

So if you want Him to be there for you, make sure that every step of the way before you got to those hurdles, you were doing that which pleases Allah and not what pleases the masses. And not what pleases your friends or what pleases people. Does this please Allah, does this make Allah happy, is this in accordance with the teachings of Islam?"

May Allāh bless us with friends who remind us to purify our intentions and save us from minor

Shirk.

5 January 2018 13:34

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Intentions | Imām Sufyān ath-Thawrī (رحمه الله) said there was nothing I struggled more with than my intentions.

Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl (حفظه الله) mentions some beautiful words:

"Renew your oath, renew your oath every day. Renew your Niyyah every day. Not every day but many times a day, not many times a day but every step of your way, every act of your way.

Every time you say a word, every time you type something, every time you go for a Da'wah event, any time, renew your Niyyah. That is how you get your strength for Sabr, when calamity hits you later on. If hard times pass you in this life and people turn away, do you think anyone is going to help you before Allah?

يَوْمَ يَفِرُّ الْمَرْءُ مِنْ أَخِيهِ ۚ ۳٤ وَأُمُّهُ وَأَبِيهِ ۚ ۳٥ وَصَاحِبَتِيهِ وَنَتْنِيهِ ۚ ۳٦ عِيسَى

If they do not help you in this life, you think they are going to help you in the life after? If trials overwhelm you, you are not going to find no one there but Allah and truly Allah is sufficient. That is all you really need.

The question is how to get Allah on your side? You are going to get hurdles and bumps in your Da'wah, the trials and tribulations are like hurdles and bumps, one after another in your Da'wah path. You are not going to find no one but Allah when you get on these hurdles.

So if you want Him to be there for you, make sure that every step of the way before you got to those hurdles, you were doing that which pleases Allah and not what pleases the masses. And not what pleases your friends or what pleases people. Does this please Allah, does this make Allah happy, is this in accordance with the teachings of Islam?"

May Allāh bless us with friends who remind us to purify our intentions and save us from minor Shirk.

5 January 2018 13:08

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_Fatāwā

Q2. Tawhīd is divided into three types, but is it possible to divide Tawhīd into more than three types? If the answer is yes, what's the proof for that, and how do we respond to those who simply divide it into three types?

A. Yes, it's permissible (to further divide it) if the division was correct without any prohibition found in it. Indeed, there's nothing wrong in using correct terminologies.

A group among the people of knowledge divided Tawhīd into two types, some of them divided it into three types, some of them divided it into four types, and others divided it into five types, and so on.

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرهم).

5 January 2018 00:04

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#200_Fatāwā

Q1. Is there an abridged book in 'Aqīdah?

A. Concerning Tawhīd al-Ulūhiyyah (worship), there are the books "Kashf ash-Shubuhāt" and "Thalāthāt ul-Usūl" by Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb.

With regards to the 'Aqā'id (creed), you have the book "Al-Wāsitiyyah" by Ibn Taymiyyah, and the book "Lum'at ul-l'iqād" by Ibn Qudāmah.

~ The Imām, Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرهم).

4 January 2018 23:46

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

- Zayn Ali crazy sell out sheikh. was thinking if its a sarcastic joke but nope.

4 January 2018 23:14
- Ilyas Mansur The hatred I have for this man... words cannot express it.

4 January 2018 23:22
- Abdullah Muqdish The funny thing is that hizb tahrir members called this murtad and the sahawāt mujāhidīn

4 January 2018 23:45
- محمد ابو سفيان Two words, Ikhwani Murtad.

5 January 2018 00:11
- Ilyas Mansur what do you mean called them? As in by phone or as in called them Murtadeen and sahawāt

5 January 2018 00:13
- Radwan Dakkak He's saying, they label this murtad and sahawāt as mujāhideen.

5 January 2018 00:14
- Ilyas Mansur 🙄🙄

5 January 2018 00:15
- Ali Alan Nassif So might as well wear a cross and impress the Kufur in fear that they may attack us for been a Muslim .... lol

5 January 2018 00:25
- Radwan Dakkak 😊

5 January 2018 00:25
- Abdullah Muqdish Excuse my English, brothers

5 January 2018 02:17
- Ilyas Mansur Nah you're good, akhil kareem It was just how I was reading it for some reason that made me confused :)

5 January 2018 02:20

#Fatwā | Apostate Shaykh of the Sahawāt, 'Abdur-Razzāq al-Mahdī, comes up with a new Fatwā:

"O Hizbut-Tahrīr, you do realise that establishing a Khilāfah is prohibited according to international law. So whoever establishes it in a city, it's as if he's asking the enemies: Come and destroy this city and those within it."

Source: Official Twitter page.

4 January 2018 23:05

Radwan Dakkak shared Gym Memes's video.

ILS (Invisible Lat Syndrome) is a huge phenomena in Australia.

4 January 2018 21:02

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

#Upgrade | Just gotta say; Nur Al Hedayya new logo is looking fleek

4 January 2018 13:40

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abû Khadijah May Allāh reward my man Ibn Shaami. He got some real good skills

4 January 2018 18:22

Najmus Sakib One possible improvement could be the words themselves, which are , at the moment, kind of not really standing out, because of the background .

4 January 2018 19:57

#Upgrade | Just gotta say; Nur Al Hedayya new logo is looking fleek

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Benefit | "Whoever prays 12 Rak'ah in the day and night, a house in Jannah will be built for him." [Muslim].

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan said, yes the rewards and bounty of Allah is immense, however in order to get this reward mentioned in the Hadith, you need to do this continuously, it's not just pray 12 rak'ah in 1 day and never do it again.

Since other narrations have mentioned this Hadith with the wording "Whoever preserves 12 Rak'ah in the day and night".

And what does preserve mean? It means that he's continuously doing it, and Allah knows best.

4 January 2018 10:40

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Benefit | "Whoever prays 12 Rak'ah in the day and night, a house in Jannah will be built for him." [Muslim].

Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan said, yes the rewards and bounty of Allah is immense, however in order to get this reward mentioned in the Hadith, you need to do this continuously, it's not just pray 12 rak'ah in 1 day and never do it again.

Since other narrations have mentioned this Hadith with the wording "Whoever preserves 12 Rak'ah in the day and night".

And what does preserve mean? It means that he's continuously doing it, and Allah knows best.

4 January 2018 10:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Trials | When being faced with trials, you may one day realise what caused this to occur - The Mujahid, Shaykh 'Uthman Aal-Nazih (تقيله الله) said he was afflicted with severe trials in prison for abandoning the serious obligation of migration, subhanAllah.

"And whatever strikes you of disaster - it is for what your hands have earned; but He pardons much." [42:30]

Allah pardons much, so regret your sins, turn back to Him in repentance and Allah will raise your ranks in Jannah, as He did to those before you.

4 January 2018 10:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

#Trials | When being faced with trials, you may one day realise what caused this to occur - The Mujahid, Shaykh 'Uthman Aal-Nazih (تقيله الله) said he was afflicted with severe trials in prison for abandoning the serious obligation of migration, subhanAllah.

"And whatever strikes you of disaster - it is for what your hands have earned; but He pardons much." [42:30]

Allah pardons much, so regret your sins, turn back to Him in repentance and Allah will raise your ranks in Jannah, as He did to those before you.

4 January 2018 10:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

#Thinking | So today, I was reflecting over these words by Ibn Taymiyyah, "Verily, in this world there is Paradise. Whoever does not enter it here will not enter Paradise in the Hereafter."

Now, I'm not going to be explaining the meaning of this statement, however I'll share 1 similarity that came to mind Insha'Allah.

I was telling myself, I always thought this world was a paradise for the Kafir and a prison for the believer, so how is Ibn Taymiyyah saying we must enter the paradise in this world to enter the paradise in the hereafter.

Well, if we return back to the Qur'an, Allah only mentions the word "Sa'aadah" (happiness) once in the Qur'an, but guess where it is referring too? The hereafter, subhanAllah :))

Yes, this world is a prison for the believer, but you can still enter the paradise of this world, and attain true happiness by the Qur'an, something the Kuffar will never ever taste!

But you may ask, I thought happiness is referring to the Akhirah, why are you contradicting yourself? Just hold up, I'll clarify Insha'Allah - The great Muhaddith, Imam Abu Dawud mentioned, "The gatherings of Imam Ahmad were gatherings of Akhirah, he did not mention a single thing from the Dunya".

So we come to learn that the gatherings of the Qur'an and Sunnah are "gatherings of Akhirah", and that's true happiness, but there's an enormous difference between the happiness in this world and the next, which is that this world is full of trials and a prison for the believer, whereas Jannah is eternal bliss without a single problem, infact your sweat will smell like musk, Allahu Akbar!!!

Therefore, if you want to enter the paradise in the hereafter, we need to seek the paradise of this world, which is holding onto the glorious Qur'an and following its true teachings. Open up the Mus'haf and say Alhamdulillah that Allah guided you to the HAQQ!! This is the uncreated perfect speech of Allah.

That was simply my thoughts for today, and Allah knows best.

3 January 2018 22:50

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Thinking | So today, I was reflecting over these words by Ibn Taymiyyah, "Verily, in this world there is Paradise. Whoever does not enter it here will not enter Paradise in the Hereafter."

Now, I'm not going to be explaining the meaning of this statement, however I'll share 1 similarity that came to mind Insha'Allah.

I was telling myself, I always thought this world was a paradise for the Kafir and a prison for the believer, so how is Ibn Taymiyyah saying we must enter the paradise in this world to enter the paradise in the hereafter.

Well, if we return back to the Qur'an, Allah only mentions the word "Sa'aadah" (happiness) once in the Qur'an, but guess where it is referring too? The hereafter, subhanAllah :))

Yes, this world is a prison for the believer, but you can still enter the paradise of this world, and attain true happiness by the Qur'an, something the Kuffar will never ever taste!

But you may ask, I thought happiness is referring to the Akhirah, why are you contradicting yourself? Just hold up, I'll clarify Insha'Allah - The great Muhaddith, Imam Abu Dawud mentioned, "The gatherings of Imam Ahmad were gatherings of Akhirah, he did not mention a single thing from the Dunya".

So we come to learn that the gatherings of the Qur'an and Sunnah are "gatherings of Akhirah", and that's true happiness, but there's an enormous difference between the happiness in this world and the next, which is that this world is full of trials and a prison for the believer, whereas Jannah is eternal bliss without a single problem, infact your sweat will smell like musk, Allahu Akbar!!!

Therefore, if you want to enter the paradise in the hereafter, we need to seek the paradise of this world, which is holding onto the glorious Qur'an and following its true teachings. Open up the Mus'haf and say Alhamdulillah that Allah guided you to the HAQQ!! This is the uncreated perfect speech of Allah.

That was simply my thoughts for today, and Allah knows best.

3 January 2018 22:49

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

O Allāh, take away any type of love in my heart for 'praise' which I don't truly deserve to begin with, and increase me in humility, and forgive me for not fulfilling your commands correctly ☹

3 January 2018 14:20

---

Radwan Dakkak shared his post.

4 years from today, the biggest acts of betrayal occurred.

3 January 2018 13:50

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“I would travel for days to meet a man and the first thing I would notice about him is his prayer. If he would establish the prayer perfectly and on time, I would stay with him and hear the knowledge he had. If I found him to be careless concerning the prayer, I would leave him and say to myself that for things other than the prayer, he would be even more careless.”

~ Abu al-Aliyah رحمه الله

3 January 2018 12:22

Radwan Dakkak shared At Tawheed's video.

May Allāh grant him Hūr al-'Ayn in Jannat al-Firdaws.

1 January 2018 19:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"To an atheist, the universe is the most exquisite masterpiece ever constructed by nobody."

G.K. Chesterton

31 December 2017 08:46

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

31 December 2017 08:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

[EN] The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) refutes Sahawāt & apostate allies who fight and accuse Mujāhideen of Ghuluw and being Khawārij

“Student: Our Shaykh, what are your thoughts on the recent vicious assault upon the Mujāhideen, especially in Ash-Shām, and what is your advice for the Mashāyikh, students of knowledge, and the rest of the muslims, and Jihādī groups over there.

Shaykh: Victory comes from Allāh alone, few numbers and strength doesn't prevent it from occuring, nor the plots by the people of deceit and betrayal.

The trajectories by the people of wretchedness, destruction and disgrace have all began aiming at slandering the allies of Allāh and trying to alter Islām today, degrading them, betraying them and fabricating lies against them.

A group among them have been exposed for stealing support funds and donations for the Mujāhideen.

Another group have been exposed for inciting the killing of the Mujāhideen.

Another group have been exposed for financing factions that call for democracy.

Another group have been exposed for theorizing partitions (dividing the country into separate states).

Another group have been exposed for being agents for the Tawāghīt (apostate rulers) and puppets of the west.

"They plan, and Allāh plans, and Allāh is the best of planners" [8:30].

Evil plans are only confined to its people, and these people will never succeed, and they will be the fuel for their Fitnah.

I call upon those involved in being agents, or Sahawāt, or calling others innovators without due right, describing the opponents with ghuluw (extremism) and being from the Madhab of the Khawārij, or accusing them of killing the muslims and inciting that, to make Tawbah to Allāh and apologise to the muslims for these betrayals and filthy acts!!

And whoever doesn't make Tawbah among them, and it has been confirmed that he was involved in these crimes, and his wretchedness and guilty offence has been verified, then I view that it's a necessity upon the truthful men to expose the agents and those who spread corruption, and standing up to confront their destructive project, and to repel their campaigns of transgression and defamation.

This is considered Jihād, from the greatest forms of Jihād. And beware of trusting them or supporting them, when the true realities have been exposed.

Since the wealth of the muslims that goes through their path, will be given to suspicious factions that has doubts in its affairs.

It could go towards fighting the Muwahiddīn under the pretext of fighting the Ghulāt, and for the Maslaha (benefit) and repelling Mafsadah (harm).

I call upon the people of knowledge and Mashāyikh to stand in the ranks of the Mujāhideen, supporting them and giving them directions, and that their judgement upon the people of Thughūr (those who defend the borders) is based on knowledge, insight of the reality on the ground, and being in contact with their leaders, not by listening to their opponents and those who are ignorant among them.

And the people of Thughūr (those who defend the borders), due to their virtue, and their enormous status, and their great deeds, they are the most befitting of people concerning your justice and verifying what is mentioned about them.

Especially since the world powers have all united in fighting them, and misrepresenting their image, reputation, and fabricating accusations against them.

And I call upon the fighting factions to unite upon the Qur'ān and Sunnah, separating and distancing themselves from the calls of Jāhiliyyah, of secularism and democracy.

Allāh, the Exalted said:

"And hold firmly to the rope of Allah all together and do not become divided." [3:101]

And the unity of the Jihādī groups is strength, and today they are in greater need of doing this, and if their ranks aren't united, then their word must be united (of Tawhīd), so that they aren't a vulnerable piece of cake to the enemies of Islām.

If the muslims aren't brought together by the truth, then they will be divided by falsehood, and if the flimsy thread is stitched up together, it would become a strong rope."

31 December 2017 00:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

[EN] The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) refutes Sahawāt & apostate allies who fight and accuse Mujāhideen of Ghuluw and being Khawārij

“Student: Our Shaykh, what are your thoughts on the recent vicious assault upon the Mujāhideen, especially in Ash-Shām, and what is your advice for the Mashāyikh, students of knowledge, and the rest of the muslims, and Jihādī groups over there.

Shaykh: Victory comes from Allāh alone, few numbers and strength doesn't prevent it from occurring, nor the plots by the people of deceit and betrayal.

The trajectories by the people of wretchedness, destruction and disgrace have all began aiming at slandering the allies of Allāh and trying to alter Islām today, degrading them, betraying them and fabricating lies against them.

A group among them have been exposed for stealing support funds and donations for the Mujāhideen.

Another group have been exposed for inciting the killing of the Mujāhideen.

Another group have been exposed for financing factions that call for democracy.

Another group have been exposed for theorizing partitions (dividing the country into separate states).

Another group have been exposed for being agents for the Tawāghīṭ (apostate rulers) and puppets of the west.

"They plan, and Allāh plans, and Allāh is the best of planners" [8:30].

Evil plans are only confined to its people, and these people will never succeed, and they will be the fuel for their Fitnah.

I call upon those involved in being agents, or Sahawāt, or calling others innovators without due right, describing the opponents with ghuluw (extremism) and being from the Madhab of the Khawārij, or accusing them of killing the muslims and inciting that, to make Tawbah to Allāh and apologise to the muslims for these betrayals and filthy acts!!

And whoever doesn't make Tawbah among them, and it has been confirmed that he was involved in these crimes, and his wretchedness and guilty offence has been verified, then I view that it's a necessity upon the truthful men to expose the agents and those who spread corruption, and standing up to confront their destructive project, and to repel their campaigns of transgression and defamation.

This is considered Jihād, from the greatest forms of Jihād. And beware of trusting them or supporting them, when the true realities have been exposed.

Since the wealth of the muslims that goes through their path, will be given to suspicious factions that has doubts in its affairs.

It could go towards fighting the Muwahiddīn under the pretext of fighting the Ghulāt, and for the Maslahah (benefit) and repelling Mafsadah (harm).

I call upon the people of knowledge and Mashāyikh to stand in the ranks of the Mujāhideen, supporting them and giving them directions, and that their judgement upon the people of Thughūr (those who defend the borders) is based on knowledge, insight of the reality on the ground, and being in contact with their leaders, not by listening to their opponents and those who are ignorant among them.

And the people of Thughūr (those who defend the borders), due to their virtue, and their enormous status, and their great deeds, they are the most befitting of people concerning your justice and verifying what is mentioned about them.

Especially since the world powers have all united in fighting them, and misrepresenting their image, reputation, and fabricating accusations against them.

And I call upon the fighting factions to unite upon the Qurʾān and Sunnah, separating and distancing themselves from the calls of Jāhiliyyah, of secularism and democracy.

Allāh, the Exalted said:

"And hold firmly to the rope of Allah all together and do not become divided." [3:101]

And the unity of the Jihādī groups is strength, and today they are in greater need of doing this, and if their ranks aren't united, then their word must be united (of Tawhīd), so that they aren't a vulnerable piece of cake to the enemies of Islām.

If the muslims aren't brought together by the truth, then they will be divided by falsehood, and if the flimsy thread is stitched up together, it would become a strong rope."

31 December 2017 00:13

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

محمد ابو سفيان As sallam alaikum akhi
30 December 2017 18:41

Abu Qital Maldifi May Allah accept his deeds♥♥♥♥♥
30 December 2017 21:42

Radwan Dakkak وعليكم السلام ورحمة الله وبركاته اشلونك
30 December 2017 22:01

Radwan Dakkak آمين
30 December 2017 22:01

محمد ابو سفيان You all good bro
30 December 2017 22:32

Radwan Dakkak Yes, Alhamdulilāh - Been spending time running around in the sun, then took family to the beach.
30 December 2017 23:01

محمد ابو سفيان Alright brother enjoy yourself and take care, I just wanted to know if you been well
30 December 2017 23:09

Radwan Dakkak Shukran, that's nice of you akhī - Allāh Yehmeek.
30 December 2017 23:15

محمد ابو سفيان Allah yabarrek feek ya ghalee
30 December 2017 23:17

#Rare_photo ☺☺☺Shaykh Humūd Ibn 'Uqlā' Ash-Shu'aybī 🕌

Очень редкая фотография шейха Хамуда бин Укъ'ля аш-Шу'айби [1925-2002], да помилует его Аллах обширной милостью!

Radwan Dakkak is feeling fabulous.

---

Hot sunny day with a cool breeze, just the way I like it ☺

30 December 2017 13:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Shaykh Ahmad Jibril said, once you know who the righteous scholars are, you will know who the misguided scholars are.

The righteous scholars are those who fear Allah and are firmly established in knowledge and know 'Aqidah of the Salaf, inside and out.

For example, Imam Ahmad in terms of his knowledge of 'Aqidah, Fiqh, Hadith, Adab was exceptional - But in his biography, he was also known for his Taqwa as if the hellfire is between his eyes, also for safe-guarding his tongue from gossip and backbiting, loving for his brother what he loves for himself, remaining firm upon harm and torture, lowering his gaze, his justice, avoiding worldly amusements, treating his family with honour and so much more.

There's a reason why the scholars say to follow someone who's known for Taqwa and Knowledge, because if he truly fears Allah, he would never deceive or lie about the religion of Allah, he would proclaim the clear truth with fairness, without hastening to a conclusion, pushing an agenda, and concealing what is mentioned against him.

And the reason why you search for someone who's most knowledgeable, is because he would know the 'Aqidah of the Salaf, inside and out like the names of his children, and would know more things others won't know. And if he doesn't know something, his fear of Allah will allow him to have humility and say "I don't know".

We need to appreciate the truthful people of knowledge and honour them, not listen to the misguided preachers or ignorant individuals that speak without knowledge online and elsewhere.

May Allah allow us to clarify the truth for the muslims, and bring benefit to the ummah through the very little knowledge Allah has blessed us to learn, from the works of the classical and contemporary scholars, Ameen.

30 December 2017 10:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Q. Why do you condemn the shia for using taqiya when sunnis also believe in it?

A. To keep it very simple, Sunnis only believe in Taqiyyah (concealing one's faith or saying what they don't believe) in a situation of Darūrah (necessity) and Ikrāh (compulsion - to say Kufr etc...), otherwise it's considered lies and deception which is Harām.

This is unlike the Rāfidah Mushrikīn, may Allāh curse them all, who believe it's a fundamental tenet of their religion, wherein they have numerous narrations attributed to their Imāms which state, "9/10 of the religion is Taqiyyah, whoever doesn't practise Taqiyyah has no religion."

Whereas the belief of Ahlus-Sunnah is that Taqiyyah is only allowed in times of necessity and compulsion, just like drinking alcohol and eating pig is allowed during times of necessity, so there's an enormous difference between Sunnis and Shi'as.

Shi'as have numerous narrations in their books which state, "Taqiyyah is my religion and the religion of my forefathers".

Can you imagine a Sunni saying "Eating pork and drinking alcohol is my religion and the religion of my forefathers", or "whoever doesn't eat pork has no religion".

So this is the difference between Sunnis and Shi'as on Taqiyyah, and to even take it further, the Imāms of Ahlus-Sunnah have even stated, that not doing Taqiyyah - even if one was to be killed - then he is better than the one who does Taqiyyah and says Kufr, but both options are allowed.

Where are the Shi'a from this? Infact, they are treacherous cowards who believe in doing Taqiyyah at all times, and are well-known throughout ALL of history for allying with the Kuffār against the muslims, let alone their beliefs of Kufr and Shirk which only becomes worse as time goes by, may Allāh destroy them and their allies among the Kuffār.

29 December 2017 21:26

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

I'm taking a break from posting until the beginning of next year Insha'Allah.

Got a very painful injury, and takes around 1 week to heal by the permission of Allah.

23 December 2017 08:45

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

خروج المطلقة من بيت زوجها من الأمور الشائعة بين المسلمين والله المستعان

المصدر: مجموع الرسائل والمسائل النجدية

22 December 2017 21:20

Radwan Dakkak shared Abû Khadijah's post.

Alhamdulillah, share the message around for this new project

22 December 2017 20:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Whenever I feel exhausted from writing, the Qur'ān is what brings life to my soul - I can't understand how a muslim can neglect the Qur'ān in their life :(

22 December 2017 17:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The great Imām, 'Ikrimah (رحمه الله) said:

"مَا رَأَيْتُ أَقْلَ عَقْلاً مِمَّنْ يَعْلَمُ
مِنْ نَفْسِهِ السَّوْءَ ، وَيُحِبُّ مِنَ النَّاسِ
أَنْ يَصِفُوهُ بِالْعِلْمِ وَالصَّلَاحِ"

“I have not seen anyone with lower intellect than someone who knows his evil nature, and wishes that people describe him with knowledge and righteousness.”

~ Refer to "Tanbīh al-Mughtarīn" (1/33).

22 December 2017 17:33

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The great Imām, 'Ikrimah (رحمه الله) said:

"مَا رَأَيْتُ أَقْلَ عَقْلاً مِمَّنْ يَعْلَمُ
مِنْ نَفْسِهِ السَّوْءَ ، وَيُحِبُّ مِنَ النَّاسِ
أَنْ يَصِفُوهُ بِالْعِلْمِ وَالصَّلَاحِ"

“I have not seen anyone with lower intellect than someone who knows his evil nature, and wishes that people describe him with knowledge and righteousness.”

~ Refer to "Tanbīh al-Mughtarīn" (1/33).

22 December 2017 17:10

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Rizwan Hanif Abu Zar
23 December 2017 02:40

Whenever I feel exhausted from writing, the Qur'ān is what brings life to my soul - I can't understand how a muslim can neglect the Qur'ān in their life ☹

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Has anyone ever thought how stupid those 26 arab leaders look when they stand together, like they did on the Quds issue?

On the other hand, you have Erdogān sending Trump and Israel threats and an army that doesn't go beyond twitter and facebook.

22 December 2017 12:18

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Has anyone ever thought how stupid those 26 arab leaders look when they stand together, like they did on the Quds issue?

On the other hand, you have Erdogān sending Trump and Israel threats and an army that doesn't go beyond twitter and facebook.

22 December 2017 12:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://youtu.be/0xLRQohZtuo>

I have now learnt that you can laugh without smiling 😊

You may find this a bit unusual, but hey the words of Imām Anwar al-'Awlaqī (تقبله الله) clicked to me, wherein he mentioned that the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) wouldn't overburden his companions with knowledge, especially in a time where they may get bored.

And I looked to myself and said SubhānAllāh, I talk way too much and the last thing I want is for people to get bored

In addition to that, you may ask a genuine question, is this beneficial? Well, the way I look at it, is since the Ummah is going through tough times, muslims are going to feel sad - Therefore, anything that places happiness in a muslim's heart and a smile on their face is ofcourse beneficial, and hopefully that could give them an extra push to their day

That's just my opinion, it may be completely wrong lol, but I hope I receive some Ajr for the good intentions whether my understanding is mistaken or not 😊

<https://youtu.be/0xLRQohZtuo>

22 December 2017 10:04

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

---

<https://youtu.be/0xLRQohZtuo>

<https://youtu.be/0xLRQohZtuo>

I have now learnt that you can laugh without smiling 😊

You may find this a bit unusual, but hey the words of Imām Anwar al-'Awlaqī (تقبله الله) clicked to me, wherein he mentioned that the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) wouldn't overburden his companions with knowledge, especially in a time where they may get bored.

And I looked to myself and said SubhānAllāh, I talk way too much and the last thing I want is for people to get bored

In addition to that, you may ask a genuine question, is this beneficial? Well, the way I look at it, is since the Ummah is going through tough times, muslims are going to feel sad - Therefore, anything that places happiness in a muslim's heart and a smile on their face is ofcourse beneficial, and hopefully that could give them an extra push to their day

That's just my opinion, it may be completely wrong lol, but I hope I receive some Ajr for the good intentions whether my understanding is mistaken or not 😊

22 December 2017 09:40

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak You love someone for their imperfection. Moreover, the righteous wife doesn't rehear her husband's sins for breakfast, lunch and dinner
21 December 2017 20:24

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali go indonesia or malaysia
21 December 2017 20:35

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak What's that supposed to mean
21 December 2017 20:36

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali dont limit yourself finding a spouse in Australia there are other countries where western influence is limited
21 December 2017 20:38

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Oh you're right, I hate western influenced women xD
21 December 2017 20:38

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali yes im high on panadol
21 December 2017 21:30

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali ur screenshots are not as good as Ali Akyuz ones
21 December 2017 21:46

Best advice for the brothers who are searching for Hūr al-'Ayn in this Dunyā, when they aren't angels either

21 December 2017 20:23

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Radwan Dakkak You love someone for their imperfection. Moreover, the righteous wife doesn't rehear her husband's sins for breakfast, lunch and dinner
21 December 2017 20:12

Abū Yahyā Al-Maghribī May Allāh (جلا وعلا) bless you & grant u the best in the dunya & ākhirah akhī al-kaīm.
21 December 2017 21:36

Radwan Dakkak SubhānAllāh, Allāhumma Āmīn ☺ Keep making du'ā for your brothers, because the Malā'ikah will return those precious words back to u 🕌
21 December 2017 21:39

Ilyas Mansur Ameen
21 December 2017 22:55

Best advice for the brothers who are searching for Hūr al-'Ayn in this Dunyā, when they aren't angels either

21 December 2017 20:05

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

'Love is a matter of great importance, and it deserves attention and knowledge, because creed and matters of faith largely revolve around it.'

#Love_fesabeelillāh #Know_who_you_Love coz #Love_is_Blind

21 December 2017 19:58

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

#Beneficial_Cure

Imām Abū Muhammad Ibn Hazm al-Andalusī (رحمه الله) wrote in his book "Al-Akhlāq was-Siyar" (1/190):

إن استحققت عيوبك ؛ ففكّر فيها لو ظهرت إلى الناس

"If you belittle your shortcomings, then think what would happen if it was to be shown to the people."

21 December 2017 19:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

#Beneficial_Cure

Imām Abū Muhammad Ibn Hazm al-Andalusī (رحمه الله) wrote in his book "Al-Akhlāq was-Siyar" (1/190):

إن استحققت عيوبك ؛ ففكّر فيها لو ظهرت إلى الناس

"If you belittle your shortcomings, then think what would happen if it was to be shown to the people."

21 December 2017 19:21

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl once mentioned in a lecture on "Imām Baqī Ibn Makhlad" that the righteous in the past all had 4 common qualities:

1 - Seeking knowledge the classical way.

2 - Lots of worship.

3 - Sincerity.

4 - Always caring for the ummah.

Proving this through your heart and actions is extremely difficult for many of us, but let me re-assure you all, that being surrounded by Fitan will give you 1000x more rewards for striving and remaining firm upon the Dīn.

However, this doesn't mean you are allowed to remain in the state you are in! For indeed, that's no excuse whatsoever when the angels take your soul as mentioned in the Qur'ān, may Allāh guide us all.

21 December 2017 18:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl once mentioned in a lecture on "Imām Baqī Ibn Makhlad" that the righteous in the past all had 4 common qualities:

1 - Seeking knowledge the classical way.

2 - Lots of worship.

3 - Sincerity.

4 - Always caring for the ummah.

Proving this through your heart and actions is extremely difficult for many of us, but let me re-assure you all, that being surrounded by Fitan will give you 1000x more rewards for striving and remaining firm upon the Dīn.

However, this doesn't mean you are allowed to remain in the state you are in! For indeed, that's no excuse whatsoever when the angels take your soul as mentioned in the Qur'ān, may Allāh guide us all.

21 December 2017 18:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

No one can place anything above the importance of learning 'Aqīdah and Manhaj, which is what separates a believer from all the deviant sects out there, which is why it takes priority over every science.

However, once you have established strong foundations in your Tawhīd, you should also make the effort to learn other sciences such as Fiqh and Hadīth, as we are in need of true men and women who fear Allāh to teach the ummah these important sciences.

You can never stop learning new matters related Tawhīd, but don't be stuck in this field, where you don't know anything else - As a matter of fact, if you study other sciences, your understanding of Tawhīd will increase.

بارك الله فيكم

21 December 2017 14:56

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

No one can place anything above the importance of learning 'Aqīdah and Manhaj, which is what separates a believer from all the deviant sects out there, which is why it takes priority over every science.

However, once you have established strong foundations in your Tawhīd, you should also make the effort to learn other sciences such as Fiqh and Hadīth, as we are in need of true men and women who fear Allāh to teach the ummah these important sciences.

You can never stop learning new matters related Tawhīd, but don't be stuck in this field, where you don't know anything else - As a matter of fact, if you study other sciences, your understanding of Tawhīd will increase.

بارك الله فيكم

21 December 2017 14:38

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

محمد إبراهيم حسين Assalaamu alaykum akhi who is this Muhaddith? Is there a biography of him so we know him better?

1 January 2018 03:18

Radwan Dakkak Short biography of the Imām, Shaykh Musā'id Ibn Bashīr (فك الله أسرہ):
“Do you know who is the Shaykh, the Muhaddith, the Faqeeh, Abū Usāmah Ibn Bashīr al-Sadīrah? All praise belongs to Allāh, the lord of mankind, and peace and blessings be upon the most noble of messengers, our master Muhammad, and upon all of his household and companions, to proceed: The Shaykh, the Faqeeh, the Muhaddith, Musā'id Ibn Bashīr Ibn 'Alī al-Hassanī al-Sharīf, most famously known as Hāj al-Sadīrah, was born in the year 1944AD which similarly corresponds to the year 1363AH. He was born in "al-'Aslāt", then his family moved to the western area of "al-Sadīrah", and over there, he met the Shaykh, the Muhaddth, the Faqeeh, the Wara' (devoutly pious), Shaykh al-Fakī 'Umar al-Fannūjī, when he was 9 years old, so he resided with the Shaykh and studied alot from him. And Shaykh 'Umar travelled around the countries for Da'wah and knowledge, so he travelled to al-Maghrib al-'Arabī, whilst Shaykh Musā'id was at a young age, and he received an Ijāzah from Shaykh al-Kittānī, and he attended his lessons and listened from him. Moreover, Shaykh 'Umar travelled to Egypt, and he was among those who received knowledge by the hands of Shaykh Muhammad al-Badawī, and Shaykh Musā'id learnt from him 'Ulūm al-Qur'ān (sciences of the Qur'ān), and Fiqh, and Hadīth, and the islamic sciences. And Shaykh Fakī 'Umar is a man of high enthusiasm in teaching and reading all the way till the end of his life, may Allāh have mercy upon him. Shaykh Musā'id recited the Qur'ān upon him with the Riwayah (recitation) of Warsh and ad-Dawrī. And he recited upon him in the Mālikī Fiqh, "Al-'Ashmāwiyyah", and "Ibn 'Ashūr", and "Akh'dharī", "al-'Uzyah", and "al-Mayārah al-Sughrāh" and "al-Kubrah", and "Ar-Risālah" by Ibn Abī Zayd (Al-Qayrawānī) with its Sharh, and "Mukhtasar Khaleel", and "al-Mudawanah al-Kubrah". And in the Sunnah, he recited upon him the 6 books of Hadīth, and "Fath al-Bārī", and "al-Mu'jam al-Tabarānī al-Saghīr", and al-Muwatta' through several narrations from it {Al-Qa'nabī, and Ash-Shaybānī, and Al-Laythī}, and "Al-Sunan al-Kubrah", and "Mukhtasar Ibn Hamzah", and "Al-Arba'een al-Nawawiyyah", and "al-'Ajlūniyyah", and other than that, so we don't extend the speech. And he recited upon him in 'Aqīdah, "al-Wāsiṭiyyah", and "at-Tahāwiyyah", and (he read) the Ash'arī books of creed. And in al-Mustalah (al-Hadīth) he recited upon him, "Mizān al-I'tidāl" by al-Dhahabī. And he also studied under Shaykh 'Abdul Wahhāb al-Sarāj and Shaykh Muhammad Ahmad 'Umar al-'Abbāsī, the Imām of al-Masjid al-Kabīr at the time, and studied under Shaykh Majthūb Mudathir al-Hijāz. Shaykh Musā'id recited Saḥīh al-Bukhārī and Tafsīr upon Shaykh Majthūb Mudathir Al-Hijāz, and he was a Shaykh of the Tījāniyyah sect in Sūdān, Shaykh Musā'id said about him, "He has a concern for narrations and knowledge, except that he was extreme in at-Tījāniyyah (a wicked sect in Africa). And likewise with Shaykh Ibrāhīm Ibn Inyās al-Kūlakhī, Shaykh Musā'id said, "Shaykh Zuhayr al-Shāwish pointed to me to exclude the likes of these from my Ijāzah's (as they are deviant shuyūkh), and there's no need to mention much about the likes of these and their likes". Also Shaykh Muhammad Najīb al-Mutīī, who passed away in Madīnah in the year 1986AD, and he resided for a while in Sūdān and he wanted to establish a school for Ahlul Hadīth, and he wasn't successful in doing that, so he went back to al-Hijāz and appointed a teacher in Jiddah university, Shaykh Musā'id recited upon him the 6 books of Hadīth, except some portions from (sunan) Ibn Mājah, Shaykh Musā'id said about him: "I recited the 6 books of Hadīth upon him, except some portions from (sunan) Ibn Mājah", and he was zealous to the Ash'arī creed and also zealous to Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله), whilst he had some Tasawwuf (Sūfī inclinations), but he wasn't among the extreme ones. Continued ↓

1 January 2018 08:12

Radwan Dakkak And he also travelled to al-Hijāz and resided there for years, so he met Shaykh 'Alī al-Hindī and Shaykh Muhammad al-Mukhtār al-Shinqīti, the father of the Dr. muhammad Mukhtār, and also the Shaykh al-Musnad al-Muhaddith Muhammad Yāsīn al-Fādānī, Shaykh Musā'id heard the 6 books of Hadīth from him, Shaykh Musā'id said: "I recited and heard the 6 books of Hadīth and many of the Musalsalāt (Hadīths that are narrated from a Shaykh returning all the way back to the Rasūl) under Shaykh Muhammad Yāsīn al-Makki al-Fādānī from the inhabitants of Jāwah." And Shaykh 'Abdul Fattāh al-Shinqīti, Shaykh Musā'id said: "Shaykh 'Abdul Fattāh al-Shinqīti who resides in al-Hafā'ir in Makkah, I recited upon him, Mustadrak al-Hākim, Alfiyyat Ibn Mālik, Al-Shātibiyyah with at-Taysīr by al-Dānī". And Shaykh 'Abdullāh al-Lahjī al-Yamanī al-Hadramī al-Makkī: He went through "al-Minhāj" with him and the Shāfi'yyah books, and he gave me an Ijāzah, just as many of the Scholars gave him an Ijāzah, such as Shaykh 'Abdillāh Ibn al-Siddīq al-Ghimārī, and he travelled towards him to al-Maghrib and met him in Cairo in the year 1988AD, Shaykh Musā'id said: "And he gave me an Ijāzah and I recited upon him Sahīh al-Bukhārī and other than it". And he (i.e. Shaykh Musā'id Ibn Bashīr) met with Shaykh al-Albānī, the Shaykh heard Sahīh Al-Bukhārī more than 65 times as he narrated to me by his own words, and he heard it one complete time in Kuwait in 8 days with Shaykh 'Abdul Haqq al-Hāshimī, just like he heard the Musnad of Imām Ahmad completely twice, and this is very difficult to occur, may Allāh preserve him and reward him with good. Just like he heard the books of the Sunnah in Saudi arabia and kuwait and syria and egypt and other places, and he has lessons almost daily in his home, and he had an institute which the government Sūdānī security forces closed down. After they imprisoned him for a long time, he travelled around Sūdān for Da'wah for the sake of Allāh and spreading the teachings of Hadīth and the Prophetic Sunnah, and reviving the Sunnah of the Salaf in the attentive gatherings. And the Shaykh has a cartilage disease, and despite this, he is able to bear sitting down for a long time to listen, and I was with him in 1 of the years, when he visited the (saudi) kingdom, and he heard Muwatta' Mālik in al-Madīnah al-Nabawiyyah, a group of students of knowledge gathered around him, and the Shaykh is an aspiration with regards to hospitality and chastity and safe-guarding his tongue and preserving knowledge and understanding it, calm nature, he is a lover of goodness and lover of gatherings of knowledge and its people, he is stern against the people of falsehood. And after all of this knowledge and virtue and lofty status, he was faced with arrest more than once. One occasion is when he went to egypt on a trip for treatment in the year 2009, he was arrested at the airport prior to his departure to Sūdān {with an order by the Sūdānī government} for 15 days, he was prevented from taking medicine and his eyes were closed, and he was prevented from Salāh, and they would not allow him to pray with a loud voice at all, nor to pray in congregation. The Shaykh said that he faced beatings by the hands that confined him, and he was once hit by a metal instrument without being struck with an affliction, and he said: "They stripped me from my clothes naked completely 4 times, and they made me face torture by electricity, however the doctor prevented them from using it with me after they consulted him concerning my health situation". And he alluded towards the fact that they would only allow him to pray {the way they liked him too}, so loudly reciting was prohibited, and likewise praying in congregation, and at the place of his confinement, he said: "My eyes were blind-folded from cairo airport and throughout the whole time of my confinement, and my eyes wouldn't open except that I would see a painful view, they threatened to afflict me with it if I do not give in". Continued ↓
1 January 2018 08:12

Radwan Dakkak And when he was released, the Shaykh said: "I came to know by the order from the egyptian security offices who apologised to me, under the pretext that they had false information about a Sudanese man {they mentioned his name to me} who was the reason behind my arrest". Moreover, the Shaykh was arrested after the incident that occurred outside the american embassy in "Khartūm" prior 2 years to when the monotheist muslims came out in defence of their prophet, he was arrested for more than 8 months consecutively, and his eye-sight was almost taken away if it wasn't for Allāh's kindness to him. And he was beaten on his head severely, and he was also imprisoned more than once during his youth days, and for a period of several months consecutively. This is who the Shaykh, Al-'Allāmah, Al-Muhaddith, al-Faqeeh, Musā'id Ibn Bashīr al-Sadīrah is, O Allāh protect him and free him from the prisons of Sudān's Tawāghīṭ. This is a portion of the Shaykh's biography, may Allāh free him, which was written by one of his students." [1] ~ It was narrated to you by your brother, Abū Zayd al-Sudānī. [2] _____ [1] Translator's Note: The Shaykh was imprisoned on October 2012 and was released mid-2013, and he remained defending the righteous Mujāhideen and speaking the truth until he was arrested again and is still in prison till this day, may Allāh preserve him and hasten his release. [2] Here is a link to the Arabic text ➡ <https://justpaste.it/mosaad>
1 January 2018 08:12

محمد إبراهيم حسين Jazakallah khair akhi
1 January 2018 08:12

Radwan Dakkak وياكم
1 January 2018 08:13

Muhammad Sauvlat Is this book a refutation of shaykh tarefe?
1 January 2018 13:36

أهكذا العلم يا طريقي؟

قال الشيخ المحدث مساعد بن بشير حفظه الله:

سبحان الله أهكذا العلم يُتخذ سلعة حسب شهوة الطواغيت ألا توجه هذا الخذلان لساداتك آل سعود وبقية الحكام الذين تراهم يا طريقي شرعيين ولا يجوز الخروج عليهم؟ ليتك سكنت تحت مظلة الإستضعاف إنها الخيانة منك ومن كان على مثل سؤتك إنها المشاركة لهؤلاء الطواغيت في كل صغيرة وكبيرة لا والله فإن وزركم أكبر وأعظم من هؤلاء الخونة الخشب المسندة إن النفيسي خير منكم وأنصح لله من هؤلاء الباعورين ؟ المنعمين الذين لا يريدون أن ينفروا ويصدون عباد الله بهذه الفتاوى طنا منهم بأنهم يؤدون واجبا صحيحا في الإستعباد لله ، لكن الصحيح أنهم يمكنون لهؤلاء الحكام دسائس اليهود قاتلهم الله أنى يؤفكون،إن شاء الله سيظهر الحق وستندمون وتحسرون إن من أسوأ الناس خساسة العلماء عند إنحرافهم يصحون كما قال الله تعالى :

مثلهم كمثل الكلب إن تحمل عليه يلهث أو تتركه يلهث) ...

يا عباد الله يا أهل الجهاد لا يضركم من خذلكم ولا من ناؤكم ..إنها سنة الله وسينكشف البهرج وستعلمون حينها حين لا مناص..،أما ترون المؤامرات أما ترون هؤلاء الخنائي وأشباه الرجال من حكامكم كيف يُساقون للمؤتمرات المعلومة المآلات يؤدون عملا هو تأخير عجلة الإسلام .واستعير من الإمام الذهبي كلمات نفيسات يتحدث فيها عمن ظنَّ أن تسويد الوجه بالمداد سيجعله في صفوف الجهادية والربانيين والعلماء الأخيار .؟ كذلك أنتم ممن أدخلتم أنفسكم حكاما على أهل الجهاد الذين خرجوا على المألوف وتركوا الدعة والأموال والجاه والبهرج وسكنوا في الجبال وتسربلوا السلاح ليلا ونهارا يحمونكم من أن لاتباعوا في سوق النخاسين وأن لا تُساموا أكثر ممن أنتم فيه..إنهم هم الملوك ملكوا أنفسهم ودفعوا بجهدهم وطاقاتهم مع العراقيين التي جابهتهم من أهل العلم الزائف .قال الذهبي: فإن أنست يا هذا من نفسك فهما وصدقا ودينا وورعا وإلا فلا تتعن ، وإن غلب عليك الهوى والعصية لرأي، ولمذهب فبالله لا تتعب ،وإن عرفت أنك مخلط مخبط مهمل لحدود الله فأرحنا منك فيعد قليل ينكشف البهرج وينكب الزغل ولا يحيق المكر السيء إلا بأهله ، فقد نصحتك فعلم الحديث صلف فأين علم الحديث؟ وأين أهله ؟ كدت أن لا أراهم إلا في كتاب أو تحت تراب. رحم الله الذهبي.. أين المجاهدون أين العكارون أين الأسود أين الذين حموا بيضة الدين أين الذين باعوا أنفسهم رخيصة لله الكبير المتعال أين الذين هم الطائفة المنصورة ..دعوني من الأزهر ومفتي آل سعود والمقدسي وأبي قتادة الطريق طويل ليس محفوقا بالورود والياسمين وبريطانيا وأمريكا والفنادق والمنتديات والطيران من بلد وإلى آخر..هكذا وطنوا أنفسهم بأن هذا هو الطريق لنصرة الدين ..إنه محفوف بجز الجماجم والطرد والتضييق إنه محفوف بنزع الروح من الحلقوم.. ليس كرفقات ولا عمانم ولا مجرد لحى إنه كما قال مولانا سبحانه وتعالى

( ما كان لأهل المدينة ومن حولهم من الأعراب أن يتخلفوا عن رسول الله ولا يرغبوا بأنفسهم عن نفسه ذلك بأنهم لا يصيبهم ظمأ ولا نصب ولا مخمصة في سبيل الله ولا يطنون موطناً يعيط الكفار ولا ينالون من عدوِّ نيلاً إلا كتب لهم به عملٌ صالحٌ إن الله لا يضيع أجر المحسنين )

يقينا لو صدقوا أنهم لا يعرفون هذه المصطلحات والمفردات القرآنية فبواقعهم يعلمونها من ناحية اللغة ليس إلا ..فغضوا الطرف إنكم من نمير فلا كعبا بلغتكم ولا كلابا... لا أقول الفحش لكنكم في هذا اساتذة فتمموا البيت فهذا الذي تفعله الماسونية والموساد والجمعيات التي تستقطب هؤلاء العياقرة ليقوموا بدور الذب، جُبدوا له ،عما قريب ينكشف المخبوء سنة الله في عبادہ ،كثيرا ما إنكشف المستور..وهذا الذي قاله الذي لا ينطق عن الهوى من جلدتنا ويتكلمون بألسنتنا..، ما أوتينا إلا من الجيوب الداخلية الطواير ، المافيا المأجورة وخاصة التي لها صلة بالعمل الجهادي فهؤلاء أشبر لأنهم يلبسون ويدلسون لا بد من أن تتخصص فئة ترد عليهم والبقية الباقية تنطلق لما نديها له ربها اللهم أكفيهنم بما شئت

21 December 2017 13:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Aishah Humaira source of this news?

21 December 2017 10:36

إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون

spent much of his time (رحمه الله), The hadīth scholar from Hind, Shaykh Muhammad al-A'thamī and refuting the ignorant orientalist, he (صلى الله عليه وسلم) defending the ahādīth of the Prophet .has passed into the mercy of Allāh today

:From his best works are

The History of the Quranic Text .1

On Schacht's Origin of "Muhammadian" Jurisprudence .2

Studies in Early Hadīth Literature .3

21 December 2017 08:19

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

May Allah have mercy on his soul. محمد ابو سفيان

إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون

spent much of his time , (رحمه الله) The hadīth scholar from Hind, Shaykh Muhammad al-A'thamī and refuting the ignorant orientalists, he (صلى الله عليه وسلم) defending the ahādīth of the Prophet .has passed into the mercy of Allāh today

:From his best works are

The History of the Quranic Text .1

On Schact's Origin of "Muhammadan" Jurisprudence .2

Studies in Early Hadīth Literature .3

21 December 2017 08:05

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) says:

To conclude:

What's incumbent upon the people of knowledge who have the capability of issuing verdicts, is to not leave the opportunity for those ignorant individuals that act knowledgeable (to speak).

Rather, they must rise to remove doubts and falsehood, by clarifying the truth through solid evidence, and eliminating the component of confusion, and not leaving the people in a puzzled state of mind, where they are muddled up in their affairs.

And this is an enormous trust which has be given to the people of knowledge, for indeed Allāh has taken a covenant from them, and prohibited them to conceal knowledge, Allāh the Exalted says:

"And [mention, O Muhammad], when Allah took a covenant from those who were given the Scripture, [saying], "You must make it clear to the people and not conceal it." But they threw it away behind their backs and exchanged it for a small price. And wretched is that which they purchased." [3:187]

~ Taken from his exceptional lecture, "The dangers of speaking about Allāh without knowledge".

20 December 2017 22:58

Radwan Dakkak shared Abū Khadijah's post.

Your ukht needs support.

20 December 2017 22:57

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) says:

To conclude:

What's incumbent upon the people of knowledge who have the capability of issuing verdicts, is to not leave the opportunity for those ignorant individuals that act knowledgeable (to speak).

Rather, they must rise to remove doubts and falsehood, by clarifying the truth through solid evidence, and eliminating the component of confusion, and not leaving the people in a puzzled state of mind, where they are muddled up in their affairs.

And this is an enormous trust which has be given to the people of knowledge, for indeed Allāh has taken a covenant from them, and prohibited them to conceal knowledge, Allāh the Exalted says:

"And [mention, O Muhammad], when Allah took a covenant from those who were given the Scripture, [saying], "You must make it clear to the people and not conceal it." But they threw it away behind their backs and exchanged it for a small price. And wretched is that which they purchased." [3:187]

~ Taken from his exceptional lecture, "The dangers of speaking about Allāh without knowledge".

20 December 2017 22:44

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I never liked people uploading photos of themselves at Hajj, but who in their right mind puts a "merry Christmas" frame with santa to their profile picture with the ka'bah in the background?!!!

20 December 2017 21:07

---

Radwan Dakkak is feeling positive.

---

I rarely go to the doctors, but I went to do a blood test and checked my health, and the results were excellent, Alhamdulillah the awesome doctor loved it so much 😊 Always nice to learn something new, also came to realise my height was 177cm 😊

20 December 2017 10:51

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

A beneficial book related to matters of ruling by other than what Allāh has revealed.

20 December 2017 10:40

---

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

The Perfect Personality Trait For Intelligent People

Being aware you could be wrong is a fundamentally important personality trait, new research reveals.

People who are intellectually humble are better able to assess evidence and they also tend to stick to their principles, once established.

In other words, the humble show more integrity.

Professor Mark Leary stated:

“There are stereotypes about conservatives and religiously conservative people being less intellectually humble about their beliefs.

We didn’t find a shred of evidence to support that.”

The conclusions come from a series of four studies investigating intellectual humility.

They found that intellectually humble people were:

- more likely to be non-judgemental,
- better able to evaluate evidence,
- and less likely to ‘flip-flop’ on political issues.

Professor Leary said the personality trait was valuable:

“Not being afraid of being wrong – that’s a value, and I think it is a value we could promote.

I think if everyone was a bit more intellectually humble we’d all get along better, we’d be less frustrated with each other.”

Intellectual humility is just as important in business as it is in politics, Professor Leary thinks:

“If you’re sitting around a table at a meeting and the boss is very low in intellectual humility, he or she isn’t going to listen to other people’s suggestions.

Yet we know that good leadership requires broadness of perspective and taking as many perspectives into account as possible.”

- Something beneficial I stumbled across, and this is exactly what Islām teaches us. It enables us to analyse all matters in a fair gentle manner, and speak the truth even if it's against us.

19 December 2017 21:54

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

The Perfect Personality Trait For Intelligent People

Being aware you could be wrong is a fundamentally important personality trait, new research reveals.

People who are intellectually humble are better able to assess evidence and they also tend to stick to their principles, once established.

In other words, the humble show more integrity.

Professor Mark Leary stated:

“There are stereotypes about conservatives and religiously conservative people being less intellectually humble about their beliefs.

We didn't find a shred of evidence to support that.”

The conclusions come from a series of four studies investigating intellectual humility.

They found that intellectually humble people were:

- more likely to be non-judgemental,
- better able to evaluate evidence,
- and less likely to ‘flip-flop’ on political issues.

Professor Leary said the personality trait was valuable:

“Not being afraid of being wrong – that’s a value, and I think it is a value we could promote.

I think if everyone was a bit more intellectually humble we'd all get along better, we'd be less frustrated with each other.”

Intellectual humility is just as important in business as it is in politics, Professor Leary thinks:

“If you're sitting around a table at a meeting and the boss is very low in intellectual humility, he or she isn't going to listen to other people's suggestions.

Yet we know that good leadership requires broadness of perspective and taking as many perspectives into account as possible.”

- Something beneficial I stumbled across, and this is exactly what Islām teaches us. It enables us to analyse all matters in a fair gentle manner, and speak the truth even if it's against us.

19 December 2017 21:42

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

After praying Salāt al-Istikhārah in 3 authentic ways, I'm hoping to give the precious ummah of Muhammad a special gift.

I haven't come across a single scholar or person of knowledge address this issue, which has held me back fearing my Lord, until being able to reach a firm conclusion with Allāh's help.

#Coming_Soon قريباً قريباً

18 December 2017 22:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

After praying Salāt al-Istikhārah in 3 authentic ways, I'm hoping to give the precious ummah of Muhammad a special gift.

I haven't come across a single scholar or person of knowledge address this issue, which has held me back fearing my Lord, until being able to reach a firm conclusion with Allāh's help.

#Coming_Soon قريباً قريباً

18 December 2017 22:03

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The cousin of Khadijah, Waraqa Ibn Nawfal who was a scholar well-versed in the previous scriptures said to Rasūlullāh (ﷺ).

"Never did a man come with something similar to what you have brought but was treated with hostility." [Agreed Upon]

If you aren't treated with hostility, then doubt the path you're following, because it's definitely not the Haqq.

18 December 2017 19:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The cousin of Khadijah, Waraqa Ibn Nawfal who was a scholar well-versed in the previous scriptures said to Rasūlullāh (ﷺ).

"Never did a man come with something similar to what you have brought but was treated with hostility." [Agreed Upon]

If you aren't treated with hostility, then doubt the path you're following, because it's definitely not the Haqq.

18 December 2017 19:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

There's nothing I can emphasise more on than analysing, scrutinising, studying and clarifying the most important matters concerning 'Aqīdah and Manhaj.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى has preserved this religion and allowed a small group of truthful believers in every era to confront Bātil and spread the Haqq.

The truthful Mujāhidīn and scholars of Tawhīd have strived immensely hard to perfect their Usūl (principles) and Qawā'id (fundamentals), which made them so consistent and accurate in their Tafrī' (application of those principles).

They remained firm and humble upon the same Manhaj from beginning to end without stepping down on their principles whatsoever, unlike those who continuously stumbled and deviated in different ways as time went past.

They devoted their lives on remaining upon the same Manhaj as the Imāms of Najd, the head of them being the reviver of Tawhīd, Shaykh al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله).

Furthermore, Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله) didn't come with anything new, but rather he followed the same path as those who came before him, such as the reviver of Tawhīd, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) and his student, Imām Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله).

Moreover, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) only stuck to the same Manhaj as the 4 great Imāms, such as Imām Abū Hanīfah, Imām Mālik, Imām ash-Shāfi'ī, and Imām Ahmad, may Allāh have mercy upon them all.

And the 4 great Imāms only took their 'Aqīdah from Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his students among the Sahābah (رضي الله عنهم) and their students among the Tābi'een (رحمهم الله).

Allāh has preserved the true Manhaj and 'Aqīdah of Rasūlullāh in every single era and raised Imāms among them to be followed by Ahlus-Sunnah, and this is the greatest and largest Ummah that will enter into Jannah, may Allāh use us and not replace us, Āmin!

There's nothing I have read and studied from the Imāms of Ahlus-Sunnah among the Salaf and Khalaf, except that it goes in-line with the Manhaj and 'Aqīdah that I'm upon today, all praise and thanks returns back to Allāh for His guidance.

17 December 2017 20:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There's nothing I can emphasise more on than analysing, scrutinising, studying and clarifying the most important matters concerning 'Aqīdah and Manhaj.

Allāh سبحانه وتعالى has preserved this religion and allowed a small group of truthful believers in every era to confront Bātil and spread the Haqq.

The truthful Mujāhidīn and scholars of Tawhīd have strived immensely hard to perfect their Usūl (principles) and Qawā'id (fundamentals), which made them so consistent and accurate in their Tafrī' (application of those principles).

They remained firm and humble upon the same Manhaj from beginning to end without stepping down on their principles whatsoever, unlike those who continuously stumbled and deviated in different ways as time went past.

They devoted their lives on remaining upon the same Manhaj as the Imāms of Najd, the head of them being the reviver of Tawhīd, Shaykh al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله).

Furthermore, Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله) didn't come with anything new, but rather he followed the same path as those who came before him, such as the reviver of Tawhīd, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) and his student, Imām Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله).

Moreover, Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) only stuck to the same Manhaj as the 4 great Imāms, such as Imām Abū Hanīfah, Imām Mālik, Imām ash-Shāfi'ī, and Imām Ahmad, may Allāh have mercy upon them all.

And the 4 great Imāms only took their 'Aqīdah from Rasūlullāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and his students among the Sahābah (رضي الله عنهم) and their students among the Tābi'een (رحمهم الله).

Allāh has preserved the true Manhaj and 'Aqīdah of Rasūlullāh in every single era and raised Imāms among them to be followed by Ahlus-Sunnah, and this is the greatest and largest Ummah that will enter into Jannah, may Allāh use us and not replace us, Āmin!

There's nothing I have read and studied from the Imāms of Ahlus-Sunnah among the Salaf and Khalaf, except that it goes in-line with the Manhaj and 'Aqīdah that I'm upon today, all praise and thanks returns back to Allāh for His guidance.

17 December 2017 20:10

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

https://t.me/joinchat/AAAAAE3\_GldL9igZcTLHtA

[EN] !! Sunnah Studies TG channel !!

Brothers and sisters, my apologies, but we will move this to a broadcast channel instead.

https://t.me/joinchat/AAAAAE3\_GldL9igZcTLHtA

16 December 2017 21:01

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

https://t.me/joinchat/AAAAAE3\_GldL9igZcTLHtA

https://t.me/joinchat/AAAAAE3\_GldL9igZcTLHtA

[EN] !! Sunnah Studies TG channel !!

Brothers and sisters, my apologies, but we will move this to a broadcast channel instead.

16 December 2017 20:41

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Imām Abū Hāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله) mentioned that one should not wander about his day randomly without a timetable.

Rather, everyday you must have a journal or list of what to do, otherwise you will be wasting so much time.

It's all about putting your mind to it, praying Salāh on time and reciting Qur'ān will help you alot, placing Barakah in your time.

If you're having struggles with Salāh itself, I can completely understand that, and one practical way which may help (I'm sure there are better ways) is printing a monthly calendar and marking off the prayers you have completed in that day, until you get into a routine and reach a stage where you're constantly praying obligatory prayers on time and even voluntary (Sunnah) prayers! Since if you only pray obligatory prayers, there's a very high chance you will miss some, unlike the case if you keep up the voluntary prayers.

This is what I've observed, and Allāh knows best.

15 December 2017 23:01

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Imām Abū Hāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله) mentioned that one should not wander about his day randomly without a timetable.

Rather, everyday you must have a journal or list of what to do, otherwise you will be wasting so much time.

It's all about putting your mind to it, praying Salāh on time and reciting Qur'ān will help you alot, placing Barakah in your time.

If you're having struggles with Salāh itself, I can completely understand that, and one practical way which may help (I'm sure there are better ways) is printing a monthly calendar and marking off the prayers you have completed in that day, until you get into a routine and reach a stage where you're constantly praying obligatory prayers on time and even voluntary (Sunnah) prayers! Since if you only pray obligatory prayers, there's a very high chance you will miss some, unlike the case if you keep up the voluntary prayers.

This is what I've observed, and Allāh knows best.

15 December 2017 22:58

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

[HD] NEW VIDEO RELEASE!!

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) refuting the Sahawāt and deviants who condemned the Mujāhideen on their ruling upon the Nusayriyyah.

15 December 2017 18:40

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

□

[HD] NEW VIDEO RELEASE!!

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) refuting the Sahawāt and deviants who condemned the Mujāhideen on their ruling upon the Nusayriyyah.

15 December 2017 18:24

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

This guy is awesome

15 December 2017 17:41

Radwan Dakkak shared Special Books by Special Kids's video.

This guy is awesome

15 December 2017 17:02

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

I am still trying to understand!

What did Mūsā (عليه السلام) see from the girl of Madyan, in order to exhaust 10 years of his life to pay her Mahr!

This deserves to be reflected upon!

The answer is in Allāh's statement, the Exalted:

"She walks with shyness" [28:25]

How beautiful is Hayā' (shyness).

The Messenger (ﷺ) said:

"Hayā' (shyness) does not bring anything except good" [Agreed upon].

14 December 2017 20:00

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

_____

AbdurRahman Umar Ibn Bakr Ameen

15 December 2017 05:32

Radwan Dakkak Jazāk Allāhu Khayran for the beautiful du'ā.

15 December 2017 08:09

AbdurRahman Umar Ibn Bakr Radwan Dakkak Ameen Akhi 😊😊

15 December 2017 08:09

I am still trying to understand!

What did Mūsā (عليه السلام) see from the girl of Madyan, in order to exhaust 10 years of his life to pay her Mahr!

This deserves to be reflected upon!

The answer is in Allāh's statement, the Exalted:

"She walks with shyness" [28:25]

How beautiful is Hayā' (shyness).

The Messenger (ﷺ) said:

"Hayā' (shyness) does not bring anything except good" [Agreed upon].

14 December 2017 20:00

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

😊😊😊

13 December 2017 21:13

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Imam Abu Hanifah (may Allah be pleased with him) is from Ahlus-Sunnah, and it's a matter of Ijtihad to classify the Ahnaf to "Murji'at al-Fuqaha" which Ibn Taymiyyah did, whereas others disagreed and said it's simply a linguistic dispute.

But in any case, there's no difference between Ahlus-Sunnah and Murji'at al-Fuqaha' when it comes to Eman and Kufr and applying Takfeer upon individuals, except for the "reasoning" given off.

Ahlu-Sunnah define Eman as "belief, speech and actions", therefore whoever falls into an act of Kufr is due to the act itself.

Murji'at al-Fuqaha' define Eman as "belief and speech", and say that actions is extracted from belief, therefore whoever falls into Kufr is due to him nullifying his belief, and this is simply a wrong reasoning, but the end result is the same as Ahlus-Sunnah.

This is unlike the pure Murji'ah and Jahmiyyah who exclude actions from Eman completely, and don't call those that fall into an act of Kufr as Kuffar, unless they declare it lawful.

This is a brief summary, and basically what the shuyukh such as Shaykh Humud al-'Uqla' and Sulayman al-'Alwan have mentioned.

13 December 2017 19:48

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

_____

Hamzah Ibn Yahya and "revolutionised" (tfeh) by a sodomite named tom ford...

13 December 2017 19:18

Radwan Dakkak what u mean by revolutionized.

13 December 2017 19:19

Hamzah Ibn Yahya nah i was being sarcastic, before calling the guy out for being a sodomite i verified the info and part of what i read said he revolutionized the brand , sorry i should of used better grammar 😊

13 December 2017 19:45

Abu Hurayrah You in a cave?

13 December 2017 19:47

Mazen Ibrahim Fake Gucci is popular amongst lebos

13 December 2017 21:08

Abū Ḥafṣ Al-Ḥanbalī Well, if you're in Australia its close enough to being in one to be honest. 😊

13 December 2017 21:39

Zayn Ali yes mostly lebos who are mostly materialistic. not racist. fact.

13 December 2017 22:35

AbdurRahman Umar Ibn Bakr I heard the owner of Gucci is homosexual. I heard that from mufti menk lecture. He was saying how many of these owners of these brand name companies are actually homosexuals and Unfortunately Muslims spend their money supporting them.

14 December 2017 01:25

Ali Alan Nassif Lmaoooooooooooo

14 December 2017 01:44

Abdul Bari I want to know which cave is that.

14 December 2017 02:00

Abu Aysha Al-Turkmani Where Have U been living habibie?? Lol. Even an alien like me who lives on a different planet in a cave knew this LOL. And I hate brands and know nothing about them except what I get told

14 December 2017 16:02

Zayn Ali 100% brother u. visit some masjids n many ppl (wont mention race.. no need to) will be proudly wearing names of faggots on their bodies.

14 December 2017 16:12

Zayn Ali ppl who boost abt wearing crap like this will also be proudly eating at a maccas resturant while chanting death to israel ☹

14 December 2017 16:13

Abdul Bari Omar Latif Wikipedia is blocked where I am.

14 December 2017 17:32

I used to hear some people mention the word "Gucci", but I just realised that it's a fashion brand lol - Apparently it's popular among lebos

13 December 2017 18:48

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The ruling on kissing (one's wife) for the Sā'im (one fasting) has a difference of opinion:

1) Completely Harām, because it is a means to Ejaculation and Breaking the Fast.

2) There's a difference between the young and old man, according to the Hadīth of Abī Hurayrah(رضي الله عنه) that's reported by Abī Dāwūd, and it is Defective and isn't authentic, and it is Mawqūf upon Ibn 'Abbās(رضي الله عنه) and others, and there's no authentic Hadīth (from the Prophet) regarding the differentiation, even the Mawqūf report (upon Ibn 'Abbās) has been negatively criticised, because a man asked Ibn 'Abbās(رضي الله عنه) about kissing (his wife) while he recently got married, and Ibn 'Abbās(رضي الله عنه) asked him: Are you able to control yourself? He replied: Yes, so Ibn 'Abbās said: "Kiss".

3) There's a difference between the one who is able to control himself and the one who isn't able too, according to the Hadīth of 'Ā'isha(رضي الله عنها): "The Messenger of Allāh(صلى الله عليه وسلم) used to kiss and embrace while he was fasting, but he was the one amongst you who had most control over his desire."

4) It's Recommended, and this was stated by Ibn Hazm (رحمه الله).

5) It's Permissible at all times, even if it results in what it incurs from it, as long as it's not intercourse.

- If the Sā'im (one fasting) emits prostatic fluid (المذي), then his fast isn't broken, only if he emits seminal fluid (المني).

~ Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (حفظه الله).

- {Extra Benefit} The issue of committing sins such as backbiting & other than that for the one fasting, does it break his fast? [1].

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (حفظه الله) said: There's a difference of opinion:

1) Sins during the day of Ramadān are greater than other than it, because of the sanctity of the time, just like the sanctity of the place in al-Haram [i.e. Makkāh], however it doesn't break the fast, and this is what's correct.

2) That it breaks the fast, and that was chosen by Ibn Hazm(رحمه الله), but it's questionable, and what's correct is the first view.

---

[1] Benefit: Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) said, "If backbiting broke the fast, none of us will have a fast".

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) comments upon this by saying, that he said this out of humility, since Imām Ahmad is well-known for safe-guarding his tongue, may Allāh have mercy upon him.

13 December 2017 16:00

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The ruling on kissing (one's wife) for the Sā'im (one fasting) has a difference of opinion:

- 1) Completely Harām, because it is a means to Ejaculation and Breaking the Fast.
- 2) There's a difference between the young and old man, according to the Hadīth of Abī Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) that's reported by Abī Dāwūd, and it is Defective and isn't authentic, and it is Mawqūf upon Ibn 'Abbās (رضي الله عنه) and others, and there's no authentic Hadīth (from the Prophet) regarding the differentiation, even the Mawqūf report (upon Ibn 'Abbās) has been negatively criticised, because a man asked Ibn 'Abbās (رضي الله عنه) about kissing (his wife) while he recently got married, and Ibn 'Abbās (رضي الله عنه) asked him: Are you able to control yourself? He replied: Yes, so Ibn 'Abbās said: "Kiss".
- 3) There's a difference between the one who is able to control himself and the one who isn't able too, according to the Hadīth of Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها): "The Messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) used to kiss and embrace while he was fasting, but he was the one amongst you who had most control over his desire."
- 4) It's Recommended, and this was stated by Ibn Hazm (رحمه الله).
- 5) It's Permissible at all times, even if it results in what it incurs from it, as long as it's not intercourse.

- If the Sā'im (one fasting) emits prostatic fluid (المذي), then his fast isn't broken, only if he emits seminal fluid (المني).

~ Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (حفظه الله).

- {Extra Benefit} The issue of committing sins such as backbiting & other than that for the one fasting, does it break his fast? [1].

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (حفظه الله) said: There's a difference of opinion:

- 1) Sins during the day of Ramadān are greater than other than it, because of the sanctity of the time, just like the sanctity of the place in al-Haram [i.e. Makkāh], however it doesn't break the fast, and this is what's correct.
- 2) That it breaks the fast, and that was chosen by Ibn Hazm (رحمه الله), but it's questionable, and what's correct is the first view.

---

[1] Benefit: Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) said, "If backbiting broke the fast, none of us will have a fast".

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته) comments upon this by saying, that he said this out of humility, since Imām Ahmad is well-known for safe-guarding his tongue, may Allāh have mercy upon him.

13 December 2017 15:56

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

There's nothing that strengthens us together as an Ummah than to unite upon Tawhīd. For someone to divide the brotherhood and sisterhood over minor matters really comes from a lack of maturity.

There are brothers on Tawhīd I may have disagreements with, but if you ask me about them, I wouldn't be able to find except perhaps a single shortcoming I see in them.

We have a new Manhaj in our times, and that is "If I disagree with you on 1 minor issue, I'm going to search for every mistake and shortcoming you have made in your life".

Obviously they don't say this But their hearts and actions do, which says alot about them, wallāhul-Musta'ān.

#Unity_upon_Tawhīd #Sisterhood #Brotherhood

13 December 2017 15:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

There's nothing that strengthens us together as an Ummah than to unite upon Tawhīd. For someone to divide the brotherhood and sisterhood over minor matters really comes from a lack of maturity.

There are brothers on Tawhīd I may have disagreements with, but if you ask me about them, I wouldn't be able to find except perhaps a single shortcoming I see in them.

We have a new Manhaj in our times, and that is "If I disagree with you on 1 minor issue, I'm going to search for every mistake and shortcoming you have made in your life".

Obviously they don't say this But their hearts and actions do, which says alot about them, wallāhul-Musta'ān.

#Unity_upon_Tawhīd #Sisterhood #Brotherhood

13 December 2017 15:19

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

<https://justpaste.it/1ei28>

#64_Fatāwā

Q36. What is the ruling on the one who says: "O messenger of Allāh, call upon Allāh to forgive me"?

And is this like saying: "O messenger of Allāh, intercede for me"? And what's the ruling on the one who says that this saying [statement #1] is a bid'ah and isn't major shirk?

A. This issue has Tafsīl (i.e. requires a detailed explanation), so it's divided into two categories:

1. If he supplicated with this du'ā & he is far away from his grave (i.e. the Prophet's grave), then this is Major shirk without any doubt, because there's no misconception in that.

2. If he supplicates near his grave, then he is also upon two categories:

A) That he asks for his intercession or help or victory & similar to that, then this is also Major Shirk.

B)) That he says "Ask Allāh for me" or "Intercede for me by (the permission of) your Lord" and it's from the same type (both sayings are the same), so the people of knowledge have two sayings regarding this:

- So the Imāms of the Da'wah al-Najdiyyah view it as Major Shirk, from among the types of Shirk that Quraysh used to do "These are our intermediaries with Allāh", "Except that they bring us closer to Allāh in position".

- And among the later scholars are those who view it as an innovation & Munkar (despicable evil) & a means to Shirk, however it's not disbelief, because they have a misconception which is his life in the grave (i.e. He's alive in the grave) & that he hears the Salām for whoever gives him Salāms & similar to that.

So according to themselves they aren't calling upon the absent (Ghā'ib) or an incapable person (i.e. Dead etc.), and they do not call upon him by anything from the Attributes of Divinity like asking for help, intercession & similar to that, so (according to him) it's just like asking for a supplication from him during his life, and this isn't Shirk by Ijmā', and he is right now alive in his grave, so this is their misconception.

And what appears to be most correct in my view is that it's Major Shirk, however he is excused [1] from this by Ignorance & Ta'wīl (misinterpretation), because of their strong Shubha (misconception) in this situation, and Allāh (جل وعلا) knows best. [2]

~ The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره).

---

[1] Translator's Note: He is excused because this matter returns back to the branch issue of denying the text, and misinterpreting the reality of a particular act.

There are 3 conditions that must be met when making du'ā; He must be alive, present and capable.

Now, if we hear someone near the grave of the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) say "O messenger of Allāh, ask Allāh to forgive me", he has only uttered this due to misinterpreting the life of the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) in the grave, thus it's necessary to clarify his doubts before making Takfīr upon him.

Since, he has met the conditions of du'ā, which is that he's present (near the Rasūl), and he's also asking for something which he's capable of doing (if he was alive), except that he misinterpreted the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) being alive, which is why we say he has "Ta'wīl al-Hāl" (a misinterpretation of the reality) and is excused before having the matter clarified to him, and this is what Imām 'Abdullāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله) alludes too in "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (1/236), by saying Imām Ibn Hajr al-Haytamī was mistaken on this issue, and considered him to be from the sincere "Muslim scholars".

It's also important to mention, that unlike other acts of clear Major Kufr which by principle are not given any excuse except for Ikrāh, the Shaykh views that this particular issue is differed upon whether it's Major Shirk or Minor Shirk, open to misconceptions which makes it fall under the "Unclear Matters", and as Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسره) said in Sharh Nawāqidh al-Islām, if a particular nullifier is differed upon (whether it's Kufr or not and open to doubts), then the individual is excused by Ignorance and Ta'wil until the Hujjah is applied upon him.

Even though Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (حفظه الله) views it as Major Shirk, he stated many Scholars agreed with Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah that it's a bid'ah and minor Shirk, but not Major. He mentioned that you will find this in the books such as "Siyānatul Insān" and "Majmū' al-Rasā'il wal-Masā'il" by the great Imām of Najd Shaykh 'Abdul Latīf Ibn Hassan Āl al-Shaykh.

As for those who went into extremes in this issue, such as Al-Hāzimī and Al-Ghāmīdī, they even ended up making Takfīr upon other Ghulāt for simply disagreeing on this issue, let alone their Takfīr upon the Imāms of Tawhīd and Mujāhidīn who perfected their Tawhīd.

Sh. Khālid al-Ghāmīdī stated whoever claims there's a difference of opinion on this issue being Major Shirk is a Kāfir Mushrik without any excuse, wallāhul-Musta'ān. He has so much inconsistencies and extremism in his works, he says apostasy is feared for those who permit photography and video taking, even for lessons of knowledge and battles!

Sh. Ahmad al-Hāzimī even takes it a step further and claims, whoever says to a Mujāhid who's actually alive!! "If Allāh accepts you and gives you permission, ask Him to intercede for me", then this person is a Kāfir Mushrik by Ijmā', walā hawlā walā quwattā ilā Billāh.

May Allāh purify the Ummah from the extremism of the Ghulāt al-Khawārij, who even went further than the Khawārij of the past that made Takfīr upon major sins, these Khawārij of our time make Takfīr upon minor sins (mistakes) and even lawful matters that giants disputed!

[2] Link to the Fatwā ➡ <https://justpaste.it/1ei28>

13 December 2017 12:10

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://justpaste.it/1ei28>

<https://justpaste.it/1ei28>

#64_Fatāwā

Q36. What is the ruling on the one who says: "O messenger of Allāh, call upon Allāh to forgive me"?

And is this like saying: "O messenger of Allāh, intercede for me"? And what's the ruling on the one who says that this saying [statement #1] is a bid'ah and isn't major shirk?

A. This issue has Tafsīl (i.e. requires a detailed explanation), so it's divided into two categories:

1. If he supplicated with this du'ā & he is far away from his grave (i.e. the Prophet's grave), then this is Major shirk without any doubt, because there's no misconception in that.

2. If he supplicates near his grave, then he is also upon two categories:

A) That he asks for his intercession or help or victory & similar to that, then this is also Major Shirk.

B)) That he says "Ask Allāh for me" or "Intercede for me by (the permission of) your Lord" and it's from the same type (both sayings are the same), so the people of knowledge have two sayings regarding this:

- So the Imāms of the Da'wah al-Najdiyyah view it as Major Shirk, from among the types of Shirk that Quraysh used to do "These are our intermediaries with Allāh", "Except that they bring us closer to Allāh in position".

- And among the later scholars are those who view it as an innovation & Munkar (despicable evil) & a means to Shirk, however it's not disbelief, because they have a misconception which is his life in the grave (i.e. He's alive in the grave) & that he hears the Salām for whoever gives him Salāms & similar to that.

So according to themselves they aren't calling upon the absent (Ghā'ib) or an incapable person (i.e. Dead etc.), and they do not call upon him by anything from the Attributes of Divinity like asking for help, intercession & similar to that, so (according to him) it's just like asking for a supplication from him during his life, and this isn't Shirk by Ijmā', and he is right now alive in his grave, so this is their misconception.

And what appears to be most correct in my view is that it's Major Shirk, however he is excused [1] from this by Ignorance & Ta'wil (misinterpretation), because of their strong Shubha (misconception) in this situation, and Allāh (جل وعلا) knows best. [2]

~ The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره).

[1] Translator's Note: He is excused because this matter returns back to the branch issue of denying the text, and misinterpreting the reality of a particular act.

There are 3 conditions that must be met when making du'ā; He must be alive, present and capable.

Now, if we hear someone near the grave of the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) say "O messenger of Allāh, ask Allāh to forgive me", he has only uttered this due to misinterpreting the life of the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) in the grave, thus it's necessary to clarify his doubts before making Takfīr upon him.

Since, he has met the conditions of du'ā, which is that he's present (near the Rasūl), and he's also asking for something which he's capable of doing (if he was alive), except that he misinterpreted the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) being alive, which is why we say he has "Ta'wīl al-Hāl" (a misinterpretation of the reality) and is excused before having the matter clarified to him, and this is what Imām 'Abdullāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl Wahhāb (رحمه الله) alludes too in "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (1/236), by saying Imām Ibn Hajr al-Haytamī was mistaken on this issue, and considered him to be from the sincere "Muslim scholars".

It's also important to mention, that unlike other acts of clear Major Kufr which by principle are not given any excuse except for Ikrāh, the Shaykh views that this particular issue is differed upon whether it's Major Shirk or Minor Shirk, open to misconceptions which makes it fall under the "Unclear Matters", and as Shaykh 'Alī al-Khudayr (فك الله أسرهم) said in Sharh Nawāqidh al-Islām, if a particular nullifier is differed upon (whether it's Kufr or not and open to doubts), then the individual is excused by Ignorance and Ta'wīl until the Hujjah is applied upon him.

Even though Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (حفظه الله) views it as Major Shirk, he stated many Scholars agreed with Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah that it's a bid'ah and minor Shirk, but not Major. He mentioned that you will find this in the books such as "Siyānatul Insān" and "Majmū' al-Rasā'il wal-Masā'il" by the great Imām of Najd Shaykh 'Abdul Latīf Ibn Hassan Āl al-Shaykh.

As for those who went into extremes in this issue, such as Al-Hāzimī and Al-Ghāmidī, they even ended up making Takfīr upon other Ghulāt for simply disagreeing on this issue, let alone their Takfīr upon the Imāms of Tawhīd and Mujāhidīn who perfected their Tawhīd.

Sh. Khālid al-Ghāmidī stated whoever claims there's a difference of opinion on this issue being Major Shirk is a Kāfir Mushrik without any excuse, wallāhul-Musta'ān. He has so much inconsistencies and extremism in his works, he says apostasy is feared for those who permit photography and video taking, even for lessons of knowledge and battles!

Sh. Ahmad al-Hāzimī even takes it a step further and claims, whoever says to a Mujāhid who's actually alive!! "If Allāh accepts you and gives you permission, ask Him to intercede for me", then this person is a Kāfir Mushrik by Ijmā', walā hawlā walā quwattā ilā Billāh.

May Allāh purify the Ummah from the extremism of the Ghulāt al-Khawārij, who even went further than the Khawārij of the past that made Takfīr upon major sins, these Khawārij of our time make Takfīr upon minor sins (mistakes) and even lawful matters that giants disputed!

[2] Link to the Fatwā ➡

13 December 2017 12:09

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

اللهم آمين

13 December 2017 09:28

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS's post.

اللهم آمين

13 December 2017 09:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Our sister Zeinab Umm Baraa (فك الله أسرها) shared the following:

Ibn Qayyim Al-Jawziyyah (Rh) on how to achieve patience during difficult times:

1. Thinking of the good reward that lies ahead. The more you believe in the rewards that are waiting for you, the easier it becomes to have patience. If it were not for the anticipation of the rewards, no goals or objectives pertaining to this life or the hereafter would have been achieved. Human nature loves instant gratification, but reason and maturity make us think of the long-term outcome, which helps to strengthen our patience in enduring whatever faces us, whether there is no choice or otherwise;

2. Expecting and hoping for a time of ease. This hope in itself offers a measure of immediate relief;

3. Thinking of Allāh’s countless blessings. When we realise that we cannot enumerate the blessings of Allāh, it becomes easier for us to exercise patience in facing the current adversity, because the present troubles are like a raindrop compared to vast ocean of Allāh’s blessings and favours;

4. Thinking of previous blessings of Allāh. This will remind us of Allāh’s care, and strengthen our hopes ad expectations of a time of ease to come.

Reference: pg. 15/48 An abridgement of his original work entitled, “Uddat as-Sâbireen wa Dhâkirat ash-Shâkireen”.

13 December 2017 08:50

Radwan Dakkak is feeling excited.

So who was the one that told me Erdogân is preparing an army for Israel?

13 December 2017 08:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

رحمه mentioned that Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (فك الله أسرہ) Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān prohibits a woman from travelling with her wicked brother, so imagine the case with travelling الله .with wicked strangers as is the case today and is taken lightly

The Shaykh mentions that many of the men in this day and age cannot be trusted, whereas those who can be entrusted with a woman are few, this relates to the honour of women, so we must take .this seriously

Some of the Salaf said, "You can entrust me with the treasures of the Earth, but don't entrust me "with a black slave woman

Allāh says, "Man was created weak", many of the Mufasssireen said, i.e. In the presence of .women

12 December 2017 21:38

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

رحمه mentioned that Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (فك الله أسرہ) Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān prohibits a woman from travelling with her wicked brother, so imagine the case with travelling الله .with wicked strangers as is the case today and is taken lightly

The Shaykh mentions that many of the men in this day and age cannot be trusted, whereas those who can be entrusted with a woman are few, this relates to the honour of women, so we must take .this seriously

Some of the Salaf said, "You can entrust me with the treasures of the Earth, but don't entrust me "with a black slave woman

Allāh says, "Man was created weak", many of the Mufasssireen said, i.e. In the presence of .women

12 December 2017 21:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Assalam Alaekom I thought they were only 14

13 December 2017 06:57

Straight to the face! I mean, point

12 December 2017 19:06

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Straight to the face! I mean, point

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

One of the reasons many brothers and sisters who are firm in their Tawhīd don't like to study Fiqh in gradual steps or according to a Madhab is coz they see alot of Kufr and misguidance within many teachers of Fiqh, therefore run away from studying a particular Madhab which is not correct.

For example, today I was listening to Sh. Muhammad 'Abdul Wāhid al-Azharī al-Hanbalī start the chapter of transactions, and he's very knowledgeable in Hanbalī Fiqh, but SubhānAllāh around 13 mins into the clip, he says the rulers are not sinful for not ruling by the law of Allāh by "CONSENSUS", since they are doing so in steps and it's a necessity, Allāhul Musta'ān.

And this is only a tiny fraction of the things these teachers come up with, another one by the name of Al-Hassan al-Kettānī even made a tweet saying that if calling towards Tawhīd and Sunnah will result in the defeat of the muslims, splitting their ranks and having the Kuffār overpower them, the wise thing to do is remain silent about Tawhīd and Sunnah!! Lā Hawlā walā Quwwatā ilā Billāh...

This is what happens when you solely focus on Fiqh and throw Tawhīd out the window, you will end up falling into so much misguidance and Kufr without realising.

Our beloved scholars put the study and implementation of Tawhīd before everything, and this is why they've remained firm like mountains, despite many of them also being experts in every other science such as Tafsīr, Fiqh and Hadīth, as they would focus on every field, not just 1 SubhānAllāh.

12 December 2017 17:19

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

One of the reasons many brothers and sisters who are firm in their Tawhīd don't like to study Fiqh in gradual steps or according to a Madhab is coz they see alot of Kufr and misguidance within many teachers of Fiqh, therefore run away from studying a particular Madhab which is not correct.

For example, today I was listening to Sh. Muhammad 'Abdul Wāhid al-Azharī al-Hanbalī start the chapter of transactions, and he's very knowledgeable in Hanbalī Fiqh, but SubhānAllāh around 13 mins into the clip, he says the rulers are not sinful for not ruling by the law of Allāh by "CONSENSUS", since they are doing so in steps and it's a necessity, Allāhul Musta'ān.

And this is only a tiny fraction of the things these teachers come up with, another one by the name of Al-Hassan al-Kettānī even made a tweet saying that if calling towards Tawhīd and Sunnah will result in the defeat of the muslims, splitting their ranks and having the Kuffār overpower them, the wise thing to do is remain silent about Tawhīd and Sunnah!! Lā Hawlā walā Quwwatā ilā Billāh...

This is what happens when you solely focus on Fiqh and throw Tawhīd out the window, you will end up falling into so much misguidance and Kufr without realising.

Our beloved scholars put the study and implementation of Tawhīd before everything, and this is why they've remained firm like mountains, despite many of them also being experts in every other science such as Tafsīr, Fiqh and Hadīth, as they would focus on every field, not just 1 SubhānAllāh.

12 December 2017 17:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Listening to the lives of the prophets and righteous is amazing, since there's not a single lesson that happened in the past except that we can learn from it - If you have true trust in Allāh, you would believe that He has an answer to everything.

One thing that caught my interest, is that it's amazing how you read about those who literally hit rock-bottom, due to a struggle, but then picked themselves up and established strong foundations upon those rocks until they reached the summit (peak of the mountain), SubhānAllāh!

But I also realised something else, that what helped them achieve such outstanding goals was due to positive encouragement and support from their true brothers and sisters fillāh.

I'll give an example Inshā'Allāh of the best of creation to walk the face of the Earth, our noble Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Now, revelation came down to the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) in different ways, and at times, it would come very intense upon him!

When the first verses of the Qur'ān were revealed to Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) by the angel Jibrīl (عليه السلام), he then ran home to his wife Khadijah Bint Khuwaylid (رضي الله عنها), telling her "Cover me! Cover me!" due to the intensity of the wahī (revelation) that he received, SubhānAllāh!

After soothing and comforting him for a while, the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) calmed down and related to her his intense experience, but Khadijah (رضي الله عنها) put all his fears to rest:

"Do not worry", she said, "for by Him who has dominion over Khadijah's soul, I hope that you are the Prophet of this nation. Allāh would never humiliate you, for you are good to your relatives, you are true to your word, you help those who are in need, you support the weak, you feed the guest and you answer the call of those who are in distress."

She then took him to her cousin, Waraqa Ibn Nawfal (رضي الله عنه) who was a scholar well-versed in the previous scriptures, and he confirmed to the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) that his experience was Divine and he was to be the Last Prophet.

The point behind mentioning this is that even the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) had a source of comfort to return back too, and this gave him the determination to speak the truth that Allāh ordered him to speak (despite the harm and false accusations he was faced with), whilst Khadijah (رضي الله عنها) was side by side with him, supporting him in every possible way, from sacrificing all of her wealth for the cause of Islām.

And look at how Allāh has raised her ranks as being 1 of the 4 greatest women to walk the face of this Earth, along with the amazing Āsiyah Bint Muzāhim (عليها السلام), Maryam Bint 'Imrān (عليها السلام), and Fātimah Bint Muhammad (رضي الله عنها).

I didn't mean to turn this into the life of Muhammad with Khadijah, but Alhamdulillah he truly loved her so much, that he would remember her so much after she passed away, and 'Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها) once felt jealous of her, and this is human nature, which even the mothers of the believers weren't free of, let alone other righteous women, and the reply the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) gave to her about Khadijah is well known to everyone:

"She believed in me when no one else did, she accepted Islām when people rejected me; and she helped and comforted me when there was no one else to lend me a helping hand."

So let's communicate with one another, and encourage positivity and righteousness, we don't need negativity and complaints, may Allāh have mercy upon us, Āmīn!

11 December 2017 23:24

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Listening to the lives of the prophets and righteous is amazing, since there's not a single lesson that happened in the past except that we can learn from it - If you have true trust in Allāh, you would believe that He has an answer to everything.

One thing that caught my interest, is that it's amazing how you read about those who literally hit rock-bottom, due to a struggle, but then picked themselves up and established strong foundations upon those rocks until they reached the summit (peak of the mountain), SubhānAllāh!

But I also realised something else, that what helped them achieve such outstanding goals was due to positive encouragement and support from their true brothers and sisters fillāh.

I'll give an example Inshā'Allāh of the best of creation to walk the face of the Earth, our noble Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Now, revelation came down to the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) in different ways, and at times, it would come very intense upon him!

When the first verses of the Qur'ān were revealed to Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) by the angel Jibrīl (عليه السلام), he then ran home to his wife Khadijah Bint Khuwaylid (رضي الله عنها), telling her "Cover me! Cover me!" due to the intensity of the wahī (revelation) that he received, SubhānAllāh!

After soothing and comforting him for a while, the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) calmed down and related to her his intense experience, but Khadijah (رضي الله عنها) put all his fears to rest:

"Do not worry", she said, "for by Him who has dominion over Khadijah's soul, I hope that you are the Prophet of this nation. Allāh would never humiliate you, for you are good to your relatives, you are true to your word, you help those who are in need, you support the weak, you feed the guest and you answer the call of those who are in distress."

She then took him to her cousin, Waraqa Ibn Nawfal (رضي الله عنه) who was a scholar well-versed in the previous scriptures, and he confirmed to the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) that his experience was Divine and he was to be the Last Prophet.

The point behind mentioning this is that even the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) had a source of comfort to return back too, and this gave him the determination to speak the truth that Allāh ordered him to speak (despite the harm and false accusations he was faced with), whilst Khadijah (رضي الله عنها) was side by side with him, supporting him in every possible way, from sacrificing all of her wealth for the cause of Islām.

And look at how Allāh has raised her ranks as being 1 of the 4 greatest women to walk the face of this Earth, along with the amazing Āsiyah Bint Muzāhim (عليها السلام), Maryam Bint 'Imrān (عليها السلام), and Fātimah Bint Muhammad (رضي الله عنها).

I didn't mean to turn this into the life of Muhammad with Khadijah, but Alhamdulillah he truly loved her so much, that he would remember her so much after she passed away, and 'Ā'isha (رضي الله عنها) once felt jealous of her, and this is human nature, which even the mothers of the believers weren't free of, let alone other righteous women, and the reply the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم) gave to her about Khadijah is well known to everyone:

"She believed in me when no one else did, she accepted Islām when people rejected me; and she helped and comforted me when there was no one else to lend me a helping hand."

So let's communicate with one another, and encourage positivity and righteousness, we don't need negativity and complaints, may Allāh have mercy upon us, Āmīn!

11 December 2017 23:18

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

May Allāh guide the blind ignorant hearts, and destroy any arrogant individual who doesn't make Barā'ah from Hamās, the Syrian rebels and their apostate allies such as Muhaysinī and Jawlānī, and all those who betrayed the Ummah.

11 December 2017 07:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

May Allāh guide the blind ignorant hearts, and destroy any arrogant individual who doesn't make Barā'ah from Hamās, the Syrian rebels and their apostate allies such as Muhaysinī and Jawlānī, and all those who betrayed the Ummah.

11 December 2017 07:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Q. Is there a limit to how much Thikr we can make?

A. There's no limit to how much Thikr you can make, unless it reaches the extent where it exceeds the uttering of permissible speech, so in this case one should refrain from going to such extremes.

Moreover, if there's a specific number of Thikr narrated in the Hadīths, whether it's after Salāh, the morning and evening Athkārah, then it's not prescribed to add extra Thikr to that number specified by the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Likewise, what many Sūfī sects do of fabricating Ahādīth on Thikr and going into exaggeration in making Thikr in their gatherings is also incorrect and innovation within the Dīn, may Allāh guide them.

But in general cases, there's no limit to how much Thikr you can make, and as the Scholars of Hadīth have verified, that it's confirmed from some of the Sahābah that they made Thikr in the 1000's!

Imām Abū Nu'aym (رحمه الله) narrated in "Al-Hilyah" (1/383) that Abū Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) said:

"I seek forgiveness from Allāh and repent to Him 12,000 times each day."

Imām 'Abdul Ghani al-Maqdisī (رحمه الله) also narrated in his book "Al-Kamāl" that Abī ad-Dardā' (رضي الله عنه) would make Thikr of Allāh 40,000 times each day.

Similar words have been narrated from Khālid Ibn Mi'dān (رضي الله عنه) and others, so keeping your tongue moist with the Thikr of Allāh is recommended and the practise of the Sahābah, may Allāh be pleased with them.

Finally, as a point of benefit which may be nothing new to you, but Imām An-Nawawī (رحمه الله) and others have stated that the Qur'ān is the greatest form of Thikr, may Allāh make us all from أهل القرآن (people of the Qur'ān).

والله أعلم

10 December 2017 22:07

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Q. Is there a limit to how much Thikr we can make?

A. There's no limit to how much Thikr you can make, unless it reaches the extent where it exceeds the uttering of permissible speech, so in this case one should refrain from going to such extremes.

Moreover, if there's a specific number of Thikr narrated in the Hadīths, whether it's after Salāh, the morning and evening Athkār, then it's not prescribed to add extra Thikr to that number specified by the Rasūl (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Likewise, what many Sūfī sects do of fabricating Ahādīth on Thikr and going into exaggeration in making Thikr in their gatherings is also incorrect and innovation within the Dīn, may Allāh guide them.

But in general cases, there's no limit to how much Thikr you can make, and as the Scholars of Hadīth have verified, that it's confirmed from some of the Sahābah that they made Thikr in the 1000's!

Imām Abū Nu'aym (رحمه الله) narrated in "Al-Hilyah" (1/383) that Abū Hurayrah (رضي الله عنه) said:

"I seek forgiveness from Allāh and repent to Him 12,000 times each day."

Imām 'Abdul Ghānī al-Maqdisī (رحمه الله) also narrated in his book "Al-Kamāl" that Abī ad-Dardā' (رضي الله عنه) would make Thikr of Allāh 40,000 times each day.

Similar words have been narrated from Khālid Ibn Mi'dān (رضي الله عنه) and others, so keeping your tongue moist with the Thikr of Allāh is recommended and the practise of the Sahābah, may Allāh be pleased with them.

Finally, as a point of benefit which may be nothing new to you, but Imām An-Nawawī (رحمه الله) and others have stated that the Qur'ān is the greatest form of Thikr, may Allāh make us all from أهل القرآن (people of the Qur'ān).

والله أعلم

10 December 2017 22:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

MY HEART IS FINALLY AT REST ♥

I got no words, except to thank Allāh for everything, for protecting me, for making me stronger, for making me get through it all, and remaining a Muslim with Ēmān like iron.

After a life full of silenced suffering, harshest form of restriction, oppression and abuse, the burden in my heart is relieved, all thanks to Allāh for giving us the courage to confront the problem and putting it to an end.

Wallāhi, Wallāhi, Wallāhi silence is the biggest guilt!! Any form of falsehood must be confronted with determination, otherwise you will live a life with a broken heart, sadness and depression which only pleases the Shaytān.

Ya Allāh, forgive my shortcomings and allow me to instantly ignite everyone's Ēmān, place happiness in their hearts, and put a smile on their blessed faces.

Ya Allāh, make my tongue truthful and fair, and allow me to chase my dreams to what I love ♥

10 December 2017 20:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

MY HEART IS FINALLY AT REST ♥

I got no words, except to thank Allāh for everything, for protecting me, for making me stronger, for making me get through it all, and remaining a Muslim with Ēmān like iron.

After a life full of silenced suffering, harshest form of restriction, oppression and abuse, the burden in my heart is relieved, all thanks to Allāh for giving us the courage to confront the problem and putting it to an end.

Wallāhi, Wallāhi, Wallāhi silence is the biggest guilt!! Any form of falsehood must be confronted with determination, otherwise you will live a life with a broken heart, sadness and depression which only pleases the Shaytān.

Ya Allāh, forgive my shortcomings and allow me to instantly ignite everyone's Ēmān, place happiness in their hearts, and put a smile on their blessed faces.

Ya Allāh, make my tongue truthful and fair, and allow me to chase my dreams to what I love ♥

10 December 2017 20:27

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Beware Of Hypocritical Humility

كما قال بعضهم : استعيزوا بالله من خشوع النفاق. قالوا : وما خشوع النفاق؟ قال : أن ترى الجسد خاشعًا والقلب ليس بخاشع. ونظر عمر رضي الله عنه إلى شاب قد نكس رأسه فَقَالَ له : يا هذا ، ارفع رأسك ، فإن الخشوع لا يزيد عَلى ما في القلب . فمن أظهر للناس خشوعًا فوق ما في قلبه ، وإنما هو نفاق عَلى نفاق.

The Salaf would seek refuge from hypocritical humility, just like (it has been reported that) some of them would say:

“Seek Allāh’s refuge from hypocritical submissiveness.”

It was said: “And what is hypocritical submissiveness?”

They said: “That you see the body in submissiveness while the heart has no humility.”

● [Narrated by Ibn Abī ash-Shaybah in his al-Muṣannaf, 7/243 no. 3571’, and Imām Aḥmad in az-Zuhd, pg. 135’ and Ibn al-Mubārak in ad-Durr al-Manthūr]

‘Umar b. al-Khaṭṭāb عنه رضي الله عنه saw a young man with his head lowered so 'Umar said to him:

"O this one raise your head for indeed humility is not more than what is present in the heart, so whoever displays submissiveness more than what's present within the heart, then this is only hypocrisy on top of hypocrisy."

● [Narrated by al-Qurṭubī in his Tafsīr, 1/375]

10 December 2017 19:03

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Beware Of Hypocritical Humility

كما قال بعضهم : استعيزوا بالله من خشوع النفاق. قالوا : وما خشوع النفاق؟ قال : أن ترى الجسد خاشعًا والقلب ليس بخاشع. ونظر عمر رضي الله عنه إلى شاب قد نكس رأسه فَقَالَ له : يا هذا ، ارفع رأسك ، فإن الخشوع لا يزيد عَلى ما في القلب . فمن أظهر للناس خشوعًا فوق ما في قلبه ، وإنما هو نفاق عَلى نفاق.

The Salaf would seek refuge from hypocritical humility, just like (it has been reported that) some of them would say:

“Seek Allāh’s refuge from hypocritical submissiveness.”

It was said: “And what is hypocritical submissiveness?”

They said: “That you see the body in submissiveness while the heart has no humility.”

● [Narrated by Ibn Abī ash-Shaybah in his al-Muṣannaf, 7/243 no. 3571’, and Imām Aḥmad in az-Zuhd, pg. 135’ and Ibn al-Mubārak in ad-Durr al-Manthūr]

‘Umar b. al-Khaṭṭāb عنه رضي الله عنه saw a young man with his head lowered so 'Umar said to him:

"O this one raise your head for indeed humility is not more than what is present in the heart, so whoever displays submissiveness more than what's present within the heart, then this is only hypocrisy on top of hypocrisy."

● [Narrated by al-Qurṭubī in his Tafsīr, 1/375]

10 December 2017 19:01

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS's post.

Last call for tickets! May Allah guide us all.

9 December 2017 22:04

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

معنى " بياك " في قولنا " حياك الله وبياك "

قال الفراء: أصل بياك بؤأك فخفف وقلب. ومعنى بؤأك: أسكنك منزلا في الجنة وهبأه لك وقال غيره: بياك عجل لك ما تحب وقال آخر بياك تغمذك بالتحية وقال آخر استقبلك بما تريد.

ابن الجوزي/ غريب الحديث

9 December 2017 19:12

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Radwan Dakkak Shaykh Usama said to his first wife “Najwa” the day he married her: “You are for me a precious pearl that must be protected, and I will be the hard shell that protects you, just like how the hard sea shell protects its pure pearl.” (Growing Up bin Laden, P. 40)
9 December 2017 10:05

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Zayn Ali these days instead of protecting we wish harm so that we are free of them 🤖
9 December 2017 12:39

A man must protect his wife in every possible way

9 December 2017 10:05

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Radwan Dakkak Shaykh Usama said to his first wife “Najwa” the day he married her: “You are for me a precious pearl that must be protected, and I will be the hard shell that protects you, just like how the hard sea shell protects its pure pearl.” (Growing Up bin Laden, P. 40)
9 December 2017 10:04

Easa Mohamed 🤖
9 December 2017 10:19

Ad-dahhak Al-Qannas Akhi, do you have pdf copy of this book? i really need it
9 December 2017 22:35

A man must protect his wife in every possible way

9 December 2017 09:58

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The same way you seek knowledge with your friends, it's just as important to discuss good manners with each other.

This can be done through numerous ways, such as advising each other on avoiding non-beneficial speech which contains gossip, joking and backbiting (even if it was permissible!), and also how to interact with those who differ in an upright mature manner etc...

It's not very nice to see brothers speak harshly to others or compel them to abide by what they have learnt from some prominent scholars.

If a beloved scholar mentions something, a person is free to disagree and hold onto his own position, and we can have a sensible discussion Inshā'Allāh, who knows perhaps their position is stronger than ours and we may learn something new.

However, if the scholars have agreed upon an issue, then in this case, it's obligatory to adhere to this position, but we politely show the other individual the Haqq, not be rude.

By Allāh, someone who is sincere and well-mannered but has very little knowledge is better than the one with alot of knowledge and has arrogance in his heart.

You don't need to look further from the great Salaf which everyone loves to ascribe too, wherein Imām 'Abdullāh Ibn al-Mubārak (رحمه الله) said:

نحن إلى قليل من الأدب أحوج منا إلى كثير من العلم

"We need a little amount of manners, more than we need a great amount of knowledge."

~ Sharh Al-Adab Al-Mufrad (2/392).

8 December 2017 19:17

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The same way you seek knowledge with your friends, it's just as important to discuss good manners with each other.

This can be done through numerous ways, such as advising each other on avoiding non-beneficial speech which contains gossip, joking and backbiting (even if it was permissible!), and also how to interact with those who differ in an upright mature manner etc...

It's not very nice to see brothers speak harshly to others or compel them to abide by what they have learnt from some prominent scholars.

If a beloved scholar mentions something, a person is free to disagree and hold onto his own position, and we can have a sensible discussion Inshā'Allāh, who knows perhaps their position is stronger than ours and we may learn something new.

However, if the scholars have agreed upon an issue, then in this case, it's obligatory to adhere to this position, but we politely show the other individual the Haqq, not be rude.

By Allāh, someone who is sincere and well-mannered but has very little knowledge is better than the one with alot of knowledge and has arrogance in his heart.

You don't need to look further from the great Salaf which everyone loves to ascribe too, wherein Imām 'Abdullāh Ibn al-Mubārak (رحمه الله) said:

نحن إلى قليل من الأدب أحوج منا إلى كثير من العلم

"We need a little amount of manners, more than we need a great amount of knowledge."

~ Sharh Al-Adab Al-Mufrad (2/392).

8 December 2017 18:53

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

While I was getting ready for Jum'ah today, I was just saying to myself, how amazing is the religion of Islām - Everything we do, from our thoughts, speech and actions, we have an angel on our right shoulder recording each good deed we will receive on our scale for judgement day.

Islām touches on all walks of life, it's the most encouraging Dīn in attaining Taqwā (God-Consciousness) from all the abundant amount of rewards one receives from doing something so simple!

اللهم لك الحمد

O Allāh, all praise belongs to You.

Allāh is truly Al-Karīm (Most generous).

8 December 2017 14:32

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

While I was getting ready for Jum'ah today, I was just saying to myself, how amazing is the religion of Islām - Everything we do, from our thoughts, speech and actions, we have an angel on our right shoulder recording each good deed we will receive on our scale for judgement day.

Islām touches on all walks of life, it's the most encouraging Dīn in attaining Taqwā (God-Consciousness) from all the abundant amount of rewards one receives from doing something so simple!

اللهم لك الحمد

O Allāh, all praise belongs to You.

Allāh is truly Al-Karīm (Most generous).

8 December 2017 14:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Arrogant hearts usually end up falling into misguidance, whether they realise this or not.

When someone does not fear Allāh, he will not know his limits, forces others to adopt his ignorant views and thinks he is someone worthy of having an opinion.

How many people have I seen who have no knowledge in the science of Hadīth read from some of the books of the Salaf weak and rejected narrations (or even second hand translations), and then make Takfīr upon the great Imām, Abū Hanīfah (may Allāh be pleased with him).

I can tell everyone for a fact, that everything I've read and studied from the famous works and letters of Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl Wahhāb (رحمه الله), his beloved students and descendants among the Imāms of Najd, is that they are upon a completely different creed than these ignorant Khawārij, which I can bring over 100 quotes showing that!

Many of these extremists have realised this, so they have openly come out making Takfīr upon Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله) and the Imāms of Najd for having "Kufr", may Allāh have mercy upon us.

Little do they know, making reckless Takfīr without Haqq can have the Kufr bounce back upon them to be "Kuffār" as the Hadīth mentions, and take them further away in the darkness.

As the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Suyfān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) stated after mentioning a narration where the Khawārij made Takfīr upon Imām Mālik (رحمه الله), he said if they make Takfīr upon these guided Imāms and their peers, then imagine the case with us (general muslimen), no doubt they would be more hasty in making Takfīr upon us.

May Allāh make us among those who fear Allāh, and grant us fairness and balance in our Dīn, Allāhumma Āmīn.

8 December 2017 08:55

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Arrogant hearts usually end up falling into misguidance, whether they realise this or not.

When someone does not fear Allāh, he will not know his limits, forces others to adopt his ignorant views and thinks he is someone worthy of having an opinion.

How many people have I seen who have no knowledge in the science of Hadīth read from some of the books of the Salaf weak and rejected narrations (or even second hand translations), and then make Takfīr upon the great Imām, Abū Hanīfah (may Allāh be pleased with him).

I can tell everyone for a fact, that everything I've read and studied from the famous works and letters of Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله), his beloved students and descendants among the Imāms of Najd, is that they are upon a completely different creed than these ignorant Khawārij, which I can bring over 100 quotes showing that!

Many of these extremists have realised this, so they have openly come out making Takfīr upon Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله) and the Imāms of Najd for having "Kufr", may Allāh have mercy upon us.

Little do they know, making reckless Takfīr without Haqq can have the Kufr bounce back upon them to be "Kuffār" as the Hadīth mentions, and take them further away in the darkness.

As the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Suyfān as-Sulamī (تقبله الله) stated after mentioning a narration where the Khawārij made Takfīr upon Imām Mālik (رحمه الله), he said if they make Takfīr upon these guided Imāms and their peers, then imagine the case with us (general muslimen), no doubt they would be more hasty in making Takfīr upon us.

May Allāh make us among those who fear Allāh, and grant us fairness and balance in our Dīn, Allāhumma Āmīn.

8 December 2017 08:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

#Weak_Hadīth {Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, "Verily! The world is accursed and what it contains is accursed, except remembrance of Allah and what facilitates it, the scholar and the seeker of knowledge.}

~ Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (حفظه الله)

Note: Shaykh 'Abdul 'Azīz ibn Ibrāhīm al-Khudayr said this Hadīth was narrated by al-Tirmidhī & it is Mudtarib [Inconsistencies in the chain], it has 'Abdul Rahmān ibn Thābit who Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) said about him "He's not strong" & Yahyā ibn Ma'īn (رحمه الله) said "He is weak in Hadīth". Likewise, Al-Tirmidhī (رحمه الله) graded it "Hassan Gharīb", i.e. Weak.

8 December 2017 08:29

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

#Weak_Hadīth {Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, "Verily! The world is accursed and what it contains is accursed, except remembrance of Allah and what facilitates it, the scholar and the seeker of knowledge.}

~ Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (حفظه الله)

Note: Shaykh 'Abdul 'Azīz ibn Ibrāhīm al-Khudayr said this Ḥadīth was narrated by al-Tirmidhī & it is Mudtarib [Inconsistencies in the chain], it has 'Abdul Rahmān ibn Thābit who Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) said about him "He's not strong" & Yahyā ibn Ma'īn (رحمه الله) said "He is weak in Ḥadīth". Likewise, Al-Tirmidhī (رحمه الله) graded it "Hassan Gharīb", i.e. Weak.

8 December 2017 08:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

?upon the Manhaj of the Salaf in his gradings (رحمه الله) Is Imām Ibn Taymiyyah

In brief, at times Ibn Taymiyyah would go along the principles of the Salaf in defecting the ḥadīths, as he did in his book "Ar-Radd 'ala al-Akhnāṭ", but generally speaking Ibn Taymiyyah would follow the principles of the later scholars

It's worthy of mentioning that many principles that were inserted into the science of ḥadīth by the .Usūliyyīn and Fuqahā' have no basis whatsoever and completely contradict the Manhaj of the Salaf

But despite that, we still benefit from the knowledge and final gradings of Imām Ibn Taymiyyah, Ibn Kathīr, Ibn Hajr, Al-Nawawī, Ibn al-Salāh etc...as they are Imāms of this science and many times bring quotes full of proof from the Salaf

However, during the era of Ibn Taymiyyah, the ones who strictly followed the Salaf in their and also the student of Ibn Taymiyyah's (رحمه الله) principles was his student, Imām Ibn 'Abdīl Ḥadī (رحمه الله) student, Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab

The default basic principle regarding the gradings of those upon the later Usūl is that we don't solely rely upon it, but benefit from it and appreciate them, while holding firmly upon the gradings of those upon the early Usūl who are more precise and stress on referring back to the Salaf

7 December 2017 22:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

?upon the Manhaj of the Salaf in his gradings (رحمه الله) Is Imām Ibn Taymiyyah

In brief, at times Ibn Taymiyyah would go along the principles of the Salaf in defecting the ḥadīths, as he did in his book "Ar-Radd 'ala al-Akhnāṭ", but generally speaking Ibn Taymiyyah would follow the principles of the later scholars

It's worthy of mentioning that many principles that were inserted into the science of ḥadīth by the .Usūliyyīn and Fuqahā' have no basis whatsoever and completely contradict the Manhaj of the Salaf

But despite that, we still benefit from the knowledge and final gradings of Imām Ibn Taymiyyah, Ibn Kathīr, Ibn Hajr, Al-Nawawī, Ibn al-Salāh etc...as they are Imāms of this science and many times bring quotes full of proof from the Salaf

However, during the era of Ibn Taymiyyah, the ones who strictly followed the Salaf in their and also the student of Ibn Taymiyyah's (رحمه الله) principles was his student, Imām Ibn 'Abdīl Ḥadī (رحمه الله) student, Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab

The default basic principle regarding the gradings of those upon the later Usūl is that we don't solely rely upon it, but benefit from it and appreciate them, while holding firmly upon the gradings of those upon the early Usūl who are more precise and stress on referring back to the Salaf

7 December 2017 22:34

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Sunan an-Nasāṭ is the most authentic book after Bukhārī and Muslim. He really excels in the prestige of the narrators, as Imām az-Zanjānī (رحمه الله) mentioned, "Indeed, An-Nasāṭ has a criterion in the narrators that is stricter than the criterion of al-Bukhārī".

7 December 2017 22:05

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Sunan an-Nasāṭ is the most authentic book after Bukhārī and Muslim. He really excels in the prestige of the narrators, as Imām az-Zanjānī (رحمه الله) mentioned, "Indeed, An-Nasāṭ has a criterion in the narrators that is stricter than the criterion of al-Bukhārī".

7 December 2017 22:01

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

□

SISTERS ONLY

For the akhawāt in Sydney, invite your sisters fillāh and grab your tickets for this sisterhood get-together.

Also yā ikhwān, share the message around to your mahārim and get the sisters involved to help these families who are doing it tough.

7 December 2017 12:13

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

---

□

SISTERS ONLY

For the akhawāt in Sydney, invite your sisters fillāh and grab your tickets for this sisterhood get-together.

Also yā ikhwān, share the message around to your mahārim and get the sisters involved to help these families who are doing it tough.

7 December 2017 12:12

Radwan Dakkak shared a Page.

---

facebook.com

Brothers Behind BARS UK

Support brothers behind bars new page, liking and sharing will raise awareness, which is the least u can do, if not donate.

7 December 2017 10:21

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

al-Makhzumi said: "My son, beware of useless talk, [too much] jesting, laughing and kidding with brothers."

● [روضة العقلاء صفحة ٨٦٢]

7 December 2017 10:15

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

---

Click for video:

□

11 reasons why the rulers are Kuffār by Shaykh Fāris az-Zahrānī (تقبله الله).

6 December 2017 22:16

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

---

Click for video:

□

Message to the soldiers of the Tāghūt by the Imām, Shaykh Fāris az-Zahrānī (تقبله الله).

6 December 2017 21:57

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Someone can spend years taking notes & researching to author a book, while the reader can finish reading it in 1 day - Be grateful

6 December 2017 20:39

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Someone can spend years taking notes & researching to author a book, while the reader can finish reading it in 1 day - Be grateful

6 December 2017 20:38

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The mother of the believers, 'A'isha رضى الله عنها narrated that:

Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "The most hated person in the sight of Allah, is the most argumentative person." [Agreed upon]

6 December 2017 19:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The mother of the believers, 'A'isha رضى الله عنها narrated that:

Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "The most hated person in the sight of Allah, is the most argumentative person." [Agreed upon]

6 December 2017 19:11

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Group: Ummah Of Tawheed

Khan Saima pondering over the creation of Allah subhanhu wa ta'ala and glorifying him, is a form of Ibadah and one of the mean of seeking his pleasure.. "Verily! In The Creation Of The Heavens And The Earth, And In The Alternation Of Night And Day, There Are Indeed Signs For Men Of Understanding. Those Who Remember Allâh (Always, And In Prayers) Standing, Sitting, And Lying Down On Their Sides, And Think Deeply About The Creation Of The Heavens And The Earth, (Saying): "Our Lord! You Have Not Created (All) This Without Purpose, Glory To You! (Exalted Be You Above All That They Associate With You As Partners). Give Us Salvation From The Torment Of The Fire". [Qur'an 3:190-191]

6 December 2017 05:36

Sometimes, I just feel like having birds fly me away from everyone to relax on a boat while pondering over the skies and waters

5 December 2017 18:39

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Shafeeu Ibrahim Radwan Dakkak my beloved brother can you please accept my friend request? May Allah bless you. Ameen

5 December 2017 21:04

Sometimes, I just feel like having birds fly me away from everyone to relax on a boat while pondering over the skies and waters

5 December 2017 18:37

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Thanks guys for the advice, that's what brothers and sisters are there for, to look out for one another.

Forgive me for the swearing :) I don't show respect to arrogant cowards in this Dunya ^^

5 December 2017 13:37

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

[CD] More than 2,000 Audio Fatāwā on various topics by the Muhaddith, Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره).

Download link below

<https://drive.google.com/drive/mobile/folders/0B7xYiTAXmspwaHNuN1FPTHF1cnc>

5 December 2017 09:36

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abdullah Husain AsSalaamu'alaikum habibi, do you have a page or link with his works translated into English?
5 December 2017 10:35

Ash Malik arabic?
5 December 2017 13:52

Umm Abdur-Rahmān Hassan Khalīf F
8 December 2017 22:28

For those who don't have it, this is "Fatāwā As-Salāh" (331 pages) by Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) touching on more than 440 matters.

Download link below

<http://saaid.net/book/21/14070.pdf>

5 December 2017 09:22

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abdulrahman Mosh Arabic or english?
5 December 2017 09:26

Radwan Dakkak عربي أخي
5 December 2017 09:28

Radwan Dakkak No english, no spanish, it just came out in arabic lol.
5 December 2017 09:29

Ibn Abdur-Rahmān Al-Atharī I thought you once posted this book back then. Or is that a different one and this is a new one?
6 December 2017 03:01

New book, "Fatāwā As-Siyām" (276 pages) by Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسره) containing over 300 matters.

Download link below

<http://saaid.net/book/21/15605.pdf>

5 December 2017 09:22

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Being absent from your partner.

The following incident has been narrated in many classical books:

رواه الإمام مالك في الموطأ عن عبد الله بن دينار قال: خرج عمر بن الخطاب من الليل فسمع امرأة تقول تطاول هذا الليل واسود جانبه وأرقني ألا خليل الأعبه فوالله لولا الله أني أراقبه لحرك من هذا السرير جوانبه فسأل عمر ابنته حفصة : كم أكثر ما تصبر المرأة عن زوجها؟ فقالت: ستة أشهر، أو أربعة أشهر. فقال عمر: لا أحبس أحداً من الجيوش أكثر من ذلك

Imaam Malik has narrated in his "Muwatta", on the authority of Abdullah bin Dinar: "Umar Ibn Al-Khattaab went on patrol on a night, and he heard a woman saying:

"This night stretches out and it is dark, and that I am without a companion to be intimate with has made me so sleepless. Were it not for my fear of Allaah, the sides of this bed would have been moving!"

..So Umar asked his daughter Hafsa: "How long can a woman remain without her husband?" She said: "Six months... or (actually) Four months." So Umar declared: No person should be sent on a military expedition for longer than that."

[Tafsir Ibn Katheer, 1/235].

4 December 2017 20:31

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Even the french occupiers ordered muslims to celebrate the Mawlid!!

The historian, 'Abdur Rahmān Ibn Hassan al-Jabartī said:

"The 2nd day in the month of Rabee' al-Awwal on the year 1213 (AH) commenced....

And on this day, the french military commander asked about the Mawlid of the Prophet; And the reason why they didn't celebrate it as a tradition?

So Shaykh al-Bakrī apologised in neglecting the affairs and suspending the circumstances (of being unable to celebrate it). But he didn't accept that (apology) and said:

You must do that, and he gave him 300 French Riyāl for assistance, and ordered the hanging of ropes with lamps, and the french gathered on the day of Mawlid, playing and beating their drums!!"

The historian, 'Abdur Rahmān Ibn Hassan al-Jabartī also stated:

"So when the command of (celebrating) Mawlid and assemblies was established (for everyone), and the permission to do that by the french; of what they saw of abandoning the ordinances of the religion, free-mixing between men and women, following desires, entertainments and committing Harām acts, this mawlid (of 'Alī al-Bakrī) was also celebrated."

~ Refer to "Tārīkh 'Ajā'ib al-Āthār Fit-Tarājum wal-Akhbār".

4 December 2017 11:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Even the french occupiers ordered muslims to celebrate the Mawlid!!

The historian, 'Abdur Rahmān Ibn Hassan al-Jabartī said:

"The 2nd day in the month of Rabee' al-Awwal on the year 1213 (AH) commenced....

And on this day, the french military commander asked about the Mawlid of the Prophet; And the reason why they didn't celebrate it as a tradition?

So Shaykh al-Bakrī apologised in neglecting the affairs and suspending the circumstances (of being unable to celebrate it). But he didn't accept that (apology) and said:

You must do that, and he gave him 300 French Riyāl for assistance, and ordered the hanging of ropes with lamps, and the french gathered on the day of Mawlid, playing and beating their drums!!"

The historian, 'Abdur Rahmān Ibn Hassan al-Jabartī also stated:

"So when the command of (celebrating) Mawlid and assemblies was established (for everyone), and the permission to do that by the french; of what they saw of abandoning the ordinances of the religion, free-mixing between men and women, following desires, entertainments and committing Harām acts, this mawlid (of 'Alī al-Bakrī) was also celebrated."

~ Refer to "Tārīkh 'Ajā'ib al-Āthār Fit-Tarājum wal-Akhbār".

4 December 2017 10:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Ahibati fillāh, please be mindful of the words that you speak.
Be wise.
Be smart.
May Allāh preserve you.

4 December 2017 08:51

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Ahibati fillāh, please be mindful of the words that you speak.
Be wise.
Be smart.
May Allāh preserve you.

4 December 2017 08:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Thanks to Allāh, I had the chance to teach Tajwīd for my first time to a group of Sri-Lankan teenagers, since their Hāfidh teacher was overseas, and it was literally one of the best things I've ever experienced.

I simply decided to teach in my own style, and subhānAllāh I received 1,000,000% attention and joy throughout the whole lesson - I would deeply touch on each point on the slides, from talking about intentions, manners before knowledge, loving each other for Allāh's sake, how to give loving advice and warnings, encouraging one another in Sabr and Haqq, expectations in attending Qur'ān class, remaining upon wudū', virtues of Qur'ān, true happiness, Basmalah, Isti'āthah, major and minor mistakes in recitation, brief Tafsīr of Sūrat al-Falaq, hassad, Sihr, and so much more.

So much excitement with authentic knowledge, they had a blast! We would recite Qur'ān, then have exciting discussions in-between, it brought life to our hearts with angels surrounding us ﷻ They kept insisting on me to return next time to teach ☺

Teaching and lecturing is my life passion, I love Islām and the Muslimeen so much alhamdulillah, every muslim & muslimah deserve the best quality of teaching with tranquility in their hearts

3 December 2017 23:59

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Thanks to Allāh, I had the chance to teach Tajwīd for my first time to a group of Sri-Lankan teenagers, since their Hāfidh teacher was overseas, and it was literally one of the best things I've ever experienced.

I simply decided to teach in my own style, and subhānAllāh I received 1,000,000% attention and joy throughout the whole lesson - I would deeply touch on each point on the slides, from talking about intentions, manners before knowledge, loving each other for Allāh's sake, how to give loving advice and warnings, encouraging one another in Sabr and Haqq, expectations in attending Qur'ān class, remaining upon wudū', virtues of Qur'ān, true happiness, Basmalah, Isti'āthah, major and minor mistakes in recitation, brief Tafsīr of Sūrat al-Falaq, hassad, Sihr, and so much more.

So much excitement with authentic knowledge, they had a blast! We would recite Qur'ān, then have exciting discussions in-between, it brought life to our hearts with angels surrounding us ﷻ They kept insisting on me to return next time to teach ☺

Teaching and lecturing is my life passion, I love Islām and the Muslimeen so much alhamdulillah, every muslim & muslimah deserve the best quality of teaching with tranquility in their hearts

3 December 2017 23:35

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) and Al-Hāfidh Ibn Rajab (رحمه الله) both mention that the topic of Asmā' and Ahkām is the most important issue, as it relates to Ēmān, including and excluding someone from the Dīn, and it was the first matter that this Ummah differed upon.

Despite our beloved scholars writing books on so many different sciences, such as arabic grammar, fiqh, hadīth, tawhīd etc...

They really put an extra emphasis in clarifying the most important matters related to the principles of Takfīr and Tafsīq etc...

May Allāh reward them for their service to Islām and holding firmly upon the methodology of the Salaf.

The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسره) stated that the enemies fight against Tawhīd under the pretext of "Takfīr", and they also fight against Jihād under the pretext of "Terrorism".

3 December 2017 10:45

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

<https://theintercept.com/2015/06/09/abu-taubah-case/>

Retraction: I take back my praise of Abu Tawbah.

I used to advise brothers and sisters to learn from his Arabic classes, as they are beneficial for beginners.

However, after receiving evidence and confirmation, I must warn against this Murtad, as he has worked for the CIA and entrapped brothers, without openly repenting from that till this day, may Allah deal with him.

If someone wishes to benefit from the Arabic lessons, then that's up to them, Wallahul Musta'an.

<https://theintercept.com/2015/06/09/abu-taubah-case/>

2 December 2017 23:49

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://theintercept.com/2015/06/09/abu-taubah-case/>

<https://theintercept.com/2015/06/09/abu-taubah-case/>

Retraction: I take back my praise of Abu Tawbah.

I used to advise brothers and sisters to learn from his Arabic classes, as they are beneficial for beginners.

However, after receiving evidence and confirmation, I must warn against this Murtad, as he has worked for the CIA and entrapped brothers, without openly repenting from that till this day, may Allah deal with him.

If someone wishes to benefit from the Arabic lessons, then that's up to them, Wallahul Musta'an.

2 December 2017 23:49

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

[EN] Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān refuting those misguided deviants who condemned the Mujāhideen for executing 3 Nusayriyyah

"The brother is asking "what is the basis behind ruling the Nusayriyyah with apostasy when they haven't even entered Islam to begin with?"

Everyone who utters the Shahadatayn even if he is committing shirk or one of the nullifiers like the Nusayriyyah, Druze, 'Alawiyyah, Baha'iyyah, Isma'iliyyah, Batiniyyah and the likes of these extreme groups.

For they are to be dealt with as apostates because they uttered the Shahadah and whoever utters the Shahadah has entered into Islam, even if he doesn't abide by Islam he is considered an apostate (i.e. we don't call them muslims, but give them the hukm of apostasy for saying the Shahādah and negating it at the same time).

As such, when Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) was asked about a Jew mocking saying, "I bear witness that there's no deity worthy of worship except Allāh, and I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah" while he was mocking and didn't truly believe it sincerely, Imām Ahmad replied by saying, "He is a murtadd."

He came back to Imām Ahmad (رحمه الله) concerning him and mentioned that he is only mocking, how can he enter into Islam while he says that out of mockery? Imām Ahmad replied, "He is a murtadd and he is to be dealt with like the apostates."

Since these people come with and utter the Shahadah they are considered apostates even though this Shahadah doesn't benefit them while they are committing shirk and the enormous nullifiers, and they are sunk deeply into the nullifiers of Islam so they are dealt with as apostates.

However, whoever says that he will deal with them as kuffār asliyyīn then he must adhere to his principles because there's a group of brothers who lack knowledge and they object the view that they are people of apostasy.

While I don't know any dispute amongst the scholars, I don't know anyone from the scholars who said they are kuffār asliyyīn; this is from the statements of the later scholars and no consideration is given to it.

Based on the statements of the Salaf they are considered apostates and they don't consider them kuffār asliyyīn. However, a person must adhere to his principles and not mix up rulings of the Shari'ah when he says, "I don't consider them apostates, I consider them kuffār asliyyīn," he must adhere to his principles, meaning if he captures a Nusayri and the Nusayri utters the Shahadah it's obligatory according to ijma' to not kill him.

So he cannot be a person of whims who plays around with the Shari'ah and with rulings of the Din wherein one time he mixes up something without proof then adopts something else.

If he would say, "I don't say they are apostates, I say they are kuffār asliyyūn," it is incumbent that if you capture him and he says the Shahadah and enters into Islam that you don't kill him. Yes, he could be a possessed slave, this is another issue, but as for killing him then it is not permissible.

Based upon the view which we re-iterated numerous times, support and mention the agreement of the early scholars in it is that these are people of apostasy. And based on this he is from the tawāif mumtani'ah (groups that forcefully abstain from abiding by an ordainment of the religion). So, whenever a Nusayri is captured he is to be executed even if he utters the Shahadah because he is from the tawāif mumtani'ah.

Moreover, I want to draw attention to another important matter. At times people don't differentiate between the one who is grabbed for apostasy and the one who affiliates himself to the tawāif mumtani'ah (resisting groups).

The individuals who affiliate themselves to the tawāif mumtani'ah (resisting groups) there is no need to seek their repentance, whenever one of them is captured it is permissible to strike his neck without seeking repentance from him because he falls under the tawāif mumtani'ah.

Therefore, there is no objection to those who executed the Nusayriyyin who don't even know their own religion. Those who ascribe to the Sunnah that say, "No repentance was sought from them," no repentance needs to be sought from them.

No one from the scholars mentioned that repentance is sought from the tawāif mumtani'ah, this has no basis to it. This has no basis to it.

Some people are ignorant and speak and this is our calamity today. He is ignorant and doesn't understand, yet speaks.

There is a difference between the individual who is living under a state or under a group that came with a nullifier, this is the one scholars said is to be asked to repent.

But if he was from the tawāif mumtani'ah there is no repentance to be sought from him and it's not worth anything for him. He is originally part of a tawāif mumtani'ah; whenever he is captured he is to be executed.

If he came as a Muslim who repented before being captured then yes, in this case we accept it from him with the condition that we verify the validity of his Islam. At times he may deceive us and lie. He'll claim to be a Muslim whilst lying then attacks us.

So, from our rights is to protect ourselves such as placing him in prison until we can verify the validity of his Islam. This has been done by the Sahabah in the case of Tulayhah al-Asadi, who killed a group amongst the Sahabah.

He killed Zayd ibnul-Khattab, 'Ikrimah, was from among the tawāif mumtani'ah, claimed Prophethood and turned back from the Din of Allah.

If he was to be captured it would have been obligatory to execute him according to the agreement of the scholars.

However he reverted back to Islam and repented before being captured so the Sahabah accepted his Islam. No one objected to him with anything even though he killed and shed blood and claimed Prophethood.

So, no one amongst the Sahābah objected to him since he repented before being captured. However, if it has been affirmed that he's from the groups of these criminals who repent then afterwards attack the Muslimin, we must not be deceived.

Therefore, we keep them until we verify their repentance and whenever their lies or wickedness is displayed to us, it becomes permissible to kill them.

And if we capture one of them it becomes permissible to kill them absolutely, it is not a condition that we say, "do you repent?" This is not stipulated.

If someone did this we wouldn't rebuke him, however if he killed a man and then someone comes to object to that saying, "Why wasn't repentance sought from them?" This is not correct and it has no basis because he is from the tawāif mumtani'ah. They kill and attack the Muslimin.

And even if he repents when he was captured, it's permissible for us to kill him, since this is after he has repented because he reverted to Islām after he was captured.

Therefore, the one who doesn't understand the difference between the tawāif mumtani'ah and individuals (who apostate), I advise him not to speak about these matters.

Because some people object to the killing of three Nusayriyyin saying "why wasn't repentance sought from them", and what's astonishing from his ignorance and misguidance, he arranges on top of this that those who killed them are Khawārij.

He didn't just stop (at rebuking them), it's clear that he has a grudge in himself, he doesn't speak with knowledge, it's clear that this person has a sick heart.

He speaks with a grudge, if he intended the haqq, say for argument sake that they made a mistake, why are they Khawārij?! He did not even kill a Muslim by mistake, why would he be a Khārijī? Why would he be a Khārijī?

If a Muslim kills a Muslim by mistake he is not a Khārijī, he may have made a mistake. Usāmah killed a man out of tawīl (misinterpretation), he wasn't considered a Khārijī, or innovator, or misguided. The Prophet didn't even compel him to pay blood money!

So, if someone kills someone out of tawīl how can it be said that he's a Khārijī? How about this guy who you can hear say "I'm a Nusayrī", he says "I'm a Nusayrī" therefore there is no need to stipulate seeking repentance from him whilst he's part of a tāifah mumtani'ah.

They kill women, they subdue women, they kill children, mutilate them, they side against Allāh and His messenger, they are hostile to Islām, they associate partners with Allāh, they testify that divinity belongs to 'Alī, they don't know the prayers, they don't even affirm its obligation, and even the one who affirms its obligation doesn't perform it!

If a man came along and struck the neck of this person he would be a doer of good, and even if he made a mistake according to the manhaj of these people, he's not considered a Khārijī by the agreement of the scholars!

And not everyone who says a statement from the statements of the Khawārij becomes a Khārijī. It's not valid to classify someone as being from the Khawarij until he says an asl (core principle) from their principles, or he has many individual traits (of the Khawārij) wherein these individual traits would be upon the same level as the asl (core principle).

If someone says a statement from the statements of the Khawārij mistakenly, then it's considered oppression and transgression to call this man a Khārijī, so how about the case if he was correct?!

However, at times you find a group of people who have enmity, he wants to exploit the Sharī'ah, knowledge and the Dīn just to oppose certain groups because he has distortions and misguidance.

So, whoever he doesn't like straight away he may say that these are Khawārij, these people are this and that. If he is unable to say this or that, he will come with other phrases, the most important thing is that he comes with phrases that the general masses won't accept and run away from (i.e. scaring them).

Whereas on the contrary, you can say that this man has such and such, he's a Murji for example, or a Jahmī, or one of the stooges, or one of the despicable individuals, or one of the ignorant people, he deceives people, he hasn't understood the issue.

Even in a sharī point of view he hasn't understood it to begin with. He hasn't understood the difference between the individual who is grabbed for apostasy and the tawāif mumtani'ah (those in the resisting groups).

And that's why all the nullifiers of Islām that were authored, such as the ten nullifiers of Islām by Shaykh Muhammad ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb and what ibn Taymiyyah mentions from the nullifiers of Islām, and what is mentioned by those who came before and after him, they mostly speak about the individual who is grabbed for apostasy.

And what has been narrated from 'Umar, "Why didn't you seek their repentance?" Because this was one grabbed for apostasy, they wouldn't speak about the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah.

The tāifah mumtani'ah is taken from the sīrah of Abī Bakr as-Siddīq, and ibn Taymiyyah clarified it explicitly in the chapter of jihād from "al-Fatāwā", he said about these groups: "There's nothing wrong in finishing off their wounded and following those who run away amongst them (in battle)".

This is what concerns the tāifah mumtani'ah, the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah differs to the rulings upon the individual cases of apostasy so this person didn't differentiate between the rulings on the tāifah mumtani'ah, and other than them.

Moreover, there's also another important issue that even the individual who's grabbed for apostasy if his apostasy is explicitly clear-cut, there's a dispute whether he's to be given a period to repent or not, there are different opinions among the scholars. Meaning, if someone makes a mistake he wouldn't be a Khariji to begin with.

Ya'ni, there's a difference of opinion. For example, al-Bukhārī is from the aimmah of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā'ah, he doesn't view that the apostate is to be given a period to repent, he doesn't view this, and many others, a group among the scholars, say it must be on the spot, ya'ni, it's not necessary to give three days as 'Umar said.

Yes, the mathhab of 'Umar is the mathhab of the vast majority of the scholars and this is what Imām Ahmad adopted, he said, "He is given three days to repent, so he either repents or is killed."

However, there's a group of scholars who said it's to be done on the spot, you say "you either return back to Islam or not", if he doesn't return back to Islām he is to be executed on the spot; this is the view of a group among the scholars, it's an opinion of a group among Ahlus-Sunnah.

The issue is not related to the mathhab from the mathāhib of the Khawārij, so that a person goes into a spasm at times and speaks, saying they are Khawārij, and frightening the people from them. Consequently, even if it was a mistake for argument sake, there is no relation whatsoever to this view with the mathhab of the Khawārij."

~ The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته).

1 December 2017 15:06

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Click for video:

Exclusive translation coming soon!

Shaykh al-'Alwan before being imprisoned (on Oct 3rd, 2013) exposing the Sahawat alliance uniting against the Mujahideen and labelling them with Ghuluw and being Khawarij - He calls upon the disbelieving democratic and secularist factions and all those who falsely accuse the Mujahideen to repent to Allah for their betrayal.

30 November 2017 22:28

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Exclusive translation coming soon!

Shaykh al-'Alwan before being imprisoned (on Oct 3rd, 2013) exposing the Sahawat alliance uniting against the Mujahideen and labelling them with Ghuluw and being Khawarij - He calls upon the disbelieving democratic and secularist factions and all those who falsely accuse the Mujahideen to repent to Allah for their betrayal.

30 November 2017 22:22

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Imām 'Abdul Qāhir Al-Baghdādī (رحمه الله) mentioned the names of 20 sects of the Mu'tazilah in his book "Al-Farq bayn al-Firaq", then he mentioned:

"Every single one of them made Takfīr upon each other".

History repeats itself. Look at the Mu'tazilah Khawārij of our times who didn't simply make unjust Takfīr upon the Imāms of Tawhīd and Mujāhideen on false claims, but their own shuyūkh and laymen ended up splitting into so many sects making Takfīr upon each other.

Then 'Abdul Qāhir spoke about the Mardāriyyah sect, who are the followers of 'Īsa Ibn Sabīh al-Mardār, and he studied under Bishr Ibn al-Mu'tamar:

Shaykh 'Abdul Qāhir al-Baghdādī (رحمه الله) says concerning al-Mardār:

"He went into extremes in Takfīr, to the extent that Ibrāhīm Ibn al-Sundī asked him once about the whole world, so he made Takfīr upon them.

So Ibrāhīm told him: The Jannah which is as wide and spacious as the heavens and the earths isn't to be entered by anyone except you and three others who agreed with you?

So al-Mardār was humiliated and didn't answer."

~ Refer to "al-Milal wan-Nihal" (1/68-70) and "al-Farq bayn al-Firaq" (1/164-166).

30 November 2017 21:43

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Imām 'Abdul Qāhir Al-Baghdādī (رحمه الله) mentioned the names of 20 sects of the Mu'tazilah in his book "Al-Farq bayn al-Firaq", then he mentioned:

"Every single one of them made Takfīr upon each other".

History repeats itself. Look at the Mu'tazilah Khawārij of our times who didn't simply make unjust Takfīr upon the Imāms of Tawhīd and Mujāhideen on false claims, but their own shuyūkh and laymen ended up splitting into so many sects making Takfīr upon each other.

Then 'Abdul Qāhir spoke about the Mardāriyyah sect, who are the followers of 'Īsa Ibn Sabīh al-Mardār, and he studied under Bishr Ibn al-Mu'tamar:

Shaykh 'Abdul Qāhir al-Baghdādī (رحمه الله) says concerning al-Mardār:

"He went into extremes in Takfīr, to the extent that Ibrāhīm Ibn al-Sundī asked him once about the whole world, so he made Takfīr upon them.

So Ibrāhīm told him: The Jannah which is as wide and spacious as the heavens and the earths isn't to be entered by anyone except you and three others who agreed with you?

So al-Mardār was humiliated and didn't answer."

~ Refer to "al-Milal wan-Nihal" (1/68-70) and "al-Farq bayn al-Firaq" (1/164-166).

30 November 2017 21:41

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Youtube also deleted this Seerah lesson of Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan related by his student, Shaykh Abu Sufyan al-Sulami.

30 November 2017 20:55

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Phone call between Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan when he got released with his student, Shaykh Abu Sufyan as-Sulami who got banned from crossing the border.

Youtube is deleting everything from the shuyukh, alhamdulillah I got basically all the lessons and clips backed up.

30 November 2017 20:51

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Ijazah from Shaykh Sulayman al-'Alwan to his student, Shaykh Abu Sufyan as-Sulami.

30 November 2017 20:50

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Shaykh Abu Sufyan al-Sulami phone call with his Shaykh al-'Allamah Sulayman al-'Alwan, part 3.

30 November 2017 20:49

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Shaykh Abu Sufyan al-Sulami phone call with his Shaykh al-'Allamah Sulayman al-'Alwan, part 2.

30 November 2017 20:48

---

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Shaykh Abu Sufyan al-Sulami phone call with his Shaykh al-'Allamah Sulayman al-'Alwan part 1.

30 November 2017 20:47

---

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"The muslims only conquered the world and took control over it, by the justice of 'Umar, the Fiqh of Mu'ādh, the Hadīth of Abī Hurayrah, the Zuhd (abandoning the dunyā with piety) of Abī Dhar, and the courage of Khālid.

They did not conquer it by the signals of Ibn Sīnā, nor by the sharpness of Ar-Rāzī, nor by the optics of Ibn al-Haytham, and nor by the music of al-Fārābī."

~ The Imām, Shaykh Nāsir al-Fahd (فك الله أسرہ).

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

:wrote in his book al-Jawāb al-Mufīd (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn al-Qayyim

أن العبد ليأتي يوم القيامة بسيئات أمثال الجبال، فيجد لسانه قد هدمها من كثرة ذكر الله تعالى وما اتصل به

That a slave will come on the day of judgement with sins the size of mountains, whilst finding out" that his tongue has demolished it due to the frequent remembrance of Allāh, the Exalted, and what ".is connected to it

30 November 2017 14:28

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

:wrote in his book al-Jawāb al-Mufīd (رحمه الله) Imām Ibn al-Qayyim

أن العبد ليأتي يوم القيامة بسيئات أمثال الجبال، فيجد لسانه قد هدمها من كثرة ذكر الله تعالى وما اتصل به

That a slave will come on the day of judgement with sins the size of mountains, whilst finding out" that his tongue has demolished it due to the frequent remembrance of Allāh, the Exalted, and what ".is connected to it

30 November 2017 14:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I love BBQ, so tasty 😊

30 November 2017 10:14

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I love BBQ, so tasty 😊

30 November 2017 10:11

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

30 November 2017 04:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

□

Q. Why do many scholars mention that Al-Bayqūnī (رحمه الله) started his poem with al-Basmalah when I can't find it?

A. This was answered by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān al-Sulamī (تقبله الله) in his Sharh of "Al-Bayqūniyyah".

After advising the student of knowledge to return back to the explanations of the poem by his teachers and shuyūkh, such as Al-Hāfidh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهِ) and the Imām Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālidi (فك الله أسرهِ), he then states regarding the Basmalah:

"Perhaps it has not been written in some manuscripts".

But here is the Basmalah mentioned in this screenshot taken from the poem al-Bayqūniyyah, published by "Dār al-Mughnī".

29 November 2017 20:55

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

□

Q. Why do many scholars mention that Al-Bayqūnī (رحمه الله) started his poem with al-Basmalah when I can't find it?

A. This was answered by the Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Sufyān al-Sulamī (تقبله الله) in his Sharh of "Al-Bayqūniyyah".

After advising the student of knowledge to return back to the explanations of the poem by his teachers and shuyūkh, such as Al-Hāfidh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرہ) and the Imām Shaykh Ahmad al-Khālidi (فك الله أسرہ), he then states regarding the Basmalah:

"Perhaps it has not been written in some manuscripts".

But here is the Basmalah mentioned in this screenshot taken from the poem al-Bayqūniyyah, published by "Dār al-Mughnī".

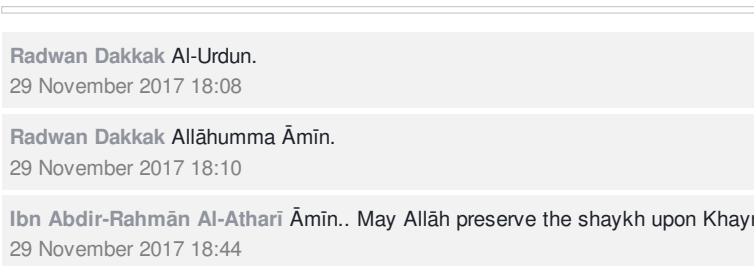

29 November 2017 20:52

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Our beloved brother Nūr ad-Dīn (حفظه الله) reciting Sūrat al-Hāqah in Salāt al-'Ishā'.

29 November 2017 18:09

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Shaykh Al-Muhaddith Khālid al-Hāyek (حفظه الله) made some arrangements in his library

29 November 2017 17:42

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

No one disputed judging by the apparent

Imām Ibn 'Abdīl Barr al-Andalusī (رحمه الله) mentioned in his book, "At-Tamhīd" (10/185):

وقد أجمعوا أن أحكام الدنيا على الظاهر وأن السرائر الى الله عز وجل

"They have unanimously agreed that the rulings in the dunyā are judged by the apparent, and that the secrets (within the heart) are left to Allāh, the exalted and majestic."

Imām Ibn Battāl (رحمه الله) mentioned in his book, "Sharh Sahīh al-Bukhārī" (16/122):

وقد أجمعوا أن أحكام الدين على الظاهر، وإلى الله السرائر

"They have unanimously agreed that the rulings of the dīn are judged by the apparent, and the secrets are left to Allāh".

Imām al-Qurtubī (رحمه الله) mentioned in his book, "Al-Jāmi' Li-Ahkām al-Qur'ān" (12/203):

وأجمع العلماء أن أحكام الدنيا على الظاهر وأن السرائر الى الله عز وجل

"The scholars have unanimously agreed that the rulings in the dunyā are judged by the apparent, and that the secrets (within the heart) are left to Allāh, the exalted and majestic".

Al-Hāfidh Ibn Hajr (رحمه الله) mentioned in his book, "Fath al-Bārī" (12/273):

"وكلهم أجمعوا على أن أحكام الدنيا على الظاهر والله يتولى السرائر وقد قال ﷺ لأسامة: "هلا شققت عن قلبه

"They have all unanimously agreed that the rulings in the dunyā are judged by the apparent, and Allāh takes care of the secrets. The Prophet (ﷺ) said to Usāmah: Did you open up his heart?"

There is nothing left after all this, except distortion and misguidance of those who take the path of the Murji'ah and Jahmiyyah.

28 November 2017 20:51

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Sūrat al-Fātiha #Repost

The Imām, Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdul Wahhāb (رحمه الله) said:

“And as for His statement: {not of those who have evoked [Your] anger or of those who are astray} [1:7].

So the ones who have evoked (Allāh's) anger upon them (المغضوب عليهم) are: The Scholars who do not act upon their knowledge.

And those who are Astray (الضالون) are: Those who act without knowledge.

So the first group: Is a description of the Jews.

And the second group: Is a description of the Christians.

And when many people read in the Tafsīr, that the ones who have evoked (Allāh's) anger upon them are the Jews, and that the Christians are those who are astray, the Jāhil (ignorant one) thinks that's exclusive to them, while he is reading what His Lord has obligated for him to supplicate with this du'ā, and seek refuge from the path of those who hold these traits!!

So Yā SubhānAllāh! How can Allāh teach him it, and chooses it for him, and obligates for him to supplicate to His Lord with it at all times, while there is no warning for him from it?! And nor does he imagine that this action of his is having bad assumption of Allāh.”

~ Tārīkh Najd by Ibn Ghannām (page 491).

28 November 2017 18:51

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“The one who abandons Salāh is to be dealt with like the Munāfiqeen, and with regards to the Munāfiqeen, it's not necessary to have their wives separate from them, because they outwardly display Islām and conceal Kufr, such as 'Abdillāh Ibn Ubayy, the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) never ordered his wives to separate from him.

Likewise with the Munāfiqeen, and if a man doesn't pray, then there are two situations:

- His wife is not certain that he doesn't pray, in this case it's not permissible for her to separate from him.

- But if she was certain that he doesn't pray, then it's incumbent upon her to separate from him (since he's a Kāfir Munāfiq), however she does not have the right to force others to do that, and the proof for this is that Huthayfa (رضي الله عنه) was informed by the messenger of Allāh (صلى الله عليه وسلم) about the names of the (12) Munāfiqeen, he would refrain from praying over them, however he wouldn't prevent anyone (amongst the Sahābah) from praying over them at all, since this would result in many objectionable issues.”

~ The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرته).

28 November 2017 18:07

Radwan Dakkak shared CARMAFIA's video.

Do you know what I mean? Hhahahahahaha 🤔🤔🤔

28 November 2017 16:47

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Abshir! Glad tidings to our brother 'Alī, may Allāh preserve him. He is not the first and he won't be the last who is falsely accused for holding onto the true meaning of Lā ilāha ilā Allāh.

We live in a time where people change like a chameleon, but those who remain steadfast upon Tawhid will be the successful ones in the Dunyā and Ākhirah, and the Mushrikīn will be forgotten in the Dunyā and Allāh will punish them in the Ākhirah, for indeed Jahannam is their abode.

28 November 2017 14:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Abshir! Glad tidings to our brother 'Alī, may Allāh preserve him. He is not the first and he won't be the last who is falsely accused for holding onto the true meaning of Lā ilāha ilā Allāh.

We live in a time where people change like a chameleon, but those who remain steadfast upon Tawhid will be the successful ones in the Dunyā and Ākhirah, and the Mushrikīn will be forgotten in the Dunyā and Allāh will punish them in the Ākhirah, for indeed Jahannam is their abode.

28 November 2017 13:39

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

---

Thinking about death, punishment in the grave, resurrection and hellfire is beneficial to a muslim and muslimah in so many ways.

It helps you realise this life is short and pushes you to strive for righteousness, avoiding sins and eliminating bad intentions (big fitnah online is minor shirk - seeking fame, showing off etc...).

Allāh has given us a wonderful blessing of being able to think, and today I was thinking about this Āyah where Allāh said:

"It is only those who have knowledge among His slaves that fear Allāh" [35:28].

Pondering over this verse has really made me understand the meaning of only those with knowledge fear Allāh, showing the immense virtues of knowledge.

For example, recently I pondered over a verse in the Qur'ān where it said, "If you thank Me, I'll give you more" - This verse touched me in so many ways that I couldn't stop saying "Shukran Ya rabb" in everything, especially after reading Imām Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله) saying that when he acquires knowledge, he thanks Allāh, then Allāh gives him much more, subhānAllāh.

Look how pondering over one verse relates to another, the benefit from mentioning this, is that pondering over Allāh's verses is considered seeking knowledge, and it will never be beneficial knowledge unless you implement it in your life.

Therefore, the one who doesn't have knowledge will not implement this in his life, thus he doesn't truly fear Allāh. Likewise with the ignorant person who says or does something without knowledge, and how many of them are there Ya Allāh!

This is why Imām al-Bukhārī (رحمه الله) said, knowledge comes before speech and actions.

May Allāh make us among those who seek knowledge to purify our souls and place Taqwā in there.

O Allāh, don't make us among those who turn back to you only when our souls are about to be taken on our death bed.

O Allāh, enlighten the eyes and hearts of the muslimmeen and muslimaat in our Ummah, and bring them towards righteousness.

28 November 2017 10:15

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

---

Thinking about death, punishment in the grave, resurrection and hellfire is beneficial to a muslim and muslimah in so many ways.

It helps you realise this life is short and pushes you to strive for righteousness, avoiding sins and eliminating bad intentions (big fitnah online is minor shirk - seeking fame, showing off etc...).

Allāh has given us a wonderful blessing of being able to think, and today I was thinking about this Āyah where Allāh said:

"It is only those who have knowledge among His slaves that fear Allāh" [35:28].

Pondering over this verse has really made me understand the meaning of only those with knowledge fear Allāh, showing the immense virtues of knowledge.

For example, recently I pondered over a verse in the Qur'ān where it said, "If you thank Me, I'll give you more" - This verse touched me in so many ways that I couldn't stop saying "Shukran Ya rabb" in everything, especially after reading Imām Abū Hanīfah (رحمه الله) saying that when he acquires knowledge, he thanks Allāh, then Allāh gives him much more, subhānAllāh.

Look how pondering over one verse relates to another, the benefit from mentioning this, is that pondering over Allāh's verses is considered seeking knowledge, and it will never be beneficial knowledge unless you implement it in your life.

Therefore, the one who doesn't have knowledge will not implement this in his life, thus he doesn't truly fear Allāh. Likewise with the ignorant person who says or does something without knowledge, and how many of them are there Ya Allāh!

This is why Imām al-Bukhārī (رحمه الله) said, knowledge comes before speech and actions.

May Allāh make us among those who seek knowledge to purify our souls and place Taqwā in there.

O Allāh, don't make us among those who turn back to you only when our souls are about to be taken on our death bed.

O Allāh, enlighten the eyes and hearts of the muslimmeen and muslimaat in our Ummah, and bring them towards righteousness.

28 November 2017 10:14

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

The voice of some people is like silk to your ears.

That's how I feel about the Mujāhideen and Shuyūkh who fear Allāh 🤲

One thing about arabs is that we love to play with words on our tongues, unlike the westernised arabs who speak english ☹

27 November 2017 20:34

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

The voice of some people is like silk to your ears.

That's how I feel about the Mujāhideen and Shuyūkh who fear Allāh 🤲

One thing about arabs is that we love to play with words on our tongues, unlike the westernised arabs who speak english ☹

27 November 2017 20:33

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Lol, may Allāh free our brothers in the UK and expiate their sins.

26 November 2017 12:22

Radwan Dakkak shared Aanis Bhat's video.

Lol, may Allāh free our brothers in the UK and expiate their sins.

26 November 2017 12:22

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Abdulrahman Mosh This was translated by At-Tibyan publications
26 November 2017 08:12

Radwan Dakkak Yep, over 13 years ago.
26 November 2017 08:13

Abdulrahman Mosh Yes that's right
26 November 2017 08:19

Najmus Sakib (y)
26 November 2017 10:18

Wisam Haddad a very good book
26 November 2017 11:01

Ash Malik arabic?
26 November 2017 12:15

Abu Ali Hussain Hassan Muhammad Yahya
28 November 2017 11:28

[English] "Verily, the victory of Allāh is near" - An excellent book which touches on the matters of ruling by other than what Allāh has revealed by Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم).

26 November 2017 07:26

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Repost for 2017

#valentinesday
#mothersday
#fathersday
#mawlid

Only love once a year! #jokers

25 November 2017 21:07

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Repost for 2017

#valentinesday
#mothersday
#fathersday
#mawlid

Only love once a year! #jokers

25 November 2017 21:06

Radwan Dakkak shared Brothers Behind BARS Canada's post.

Like and support the page, perhaps your awareness will place Barakah in it to benefit the muslimmeen.

25 November 2017 19:20

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I've been downloading all the books/audios/videos from the Shuyūkh and Imāms of Tawhīd in Arabic, and Alhamdulillah despite all the links being deleted online for particular works and trying to search for many months, there are people that have saved it who upload it on social media (telegram etc...).

If you care about knowledge, you would be saving everything beneficial you come across, especially in these times of knowledge being taken away and Munkar being promoted by the Shayātīn (devils) of mankind.

24 November 2017 09:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I've been downloading all the books/audios/videos from the Shuyūkh and Imāms of Tawhīd in Arabic, and Alhamdulillah despite all the links being deleted online for particular works and trying to search for many months, there are people that have saved it who upload it on social media (telegram etc...).

If you care about knowledge, you would be saving everything beneficial you come across, especially in these times of knowledge being taken away and Munkar being promoted by the Shayātīn (devils) of mankind.

24 November 2017 08:17

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

What is the ruling on attending weddings without being invited?

The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) mentioned:

“The brother asks about attending weddings without being invited, and also with regards to the woman who isn't invited but goes to weddings, and she doesn't know whether those getting married are pleased with that.

Because whoever knows that the couple getting married will be pleased with that, then it's perfectly fine to attend, even though this isn't recommended, however it would be permissible, because he knows that they're pleased with it.

But if he doesn't know that they'll be pleased with it, then he is prohibited from attending, and this is the Tufaylī (one who leeches) which the Fuqahā' spoke about, that even the Fuqahā' of the Hanābilah as it's mentioned in "al-Mughnī" adopted the view that whoever attends invitations (such as weddings) without being invited, then his testimony is rejected!

And this was the opinion adopted by Imām Ibn Qudāmah (رحمه الله), and considered this person as the Tufaylī (one who leeches), as he eats from the food of the people without being invited, and because this violates the rights of the people and entering their homes without an invitation.

Therefore, one must be warned from going to the homes of people without an invitation, not knowing that they'll be pleased with that.

Likewise, a woman is not to be given allowance to go to weddings without an invitation whilst they are not pleased with that, these people are Tufayliyyūn (leeches), and in the Madhab of Imām Ahmad, their testimony is rejected.”

23 November 2017 23:04

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

What is the ruling on attending weddings without being invited?

The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) mentioned:

“The brother asks about attending weddings without being invited, and also with regards to the woman who isn't invited but goes to weddings, and she doesn't know whether those getting married are pleased with that.

Because whoever knows that the couple getting married will be pleased with that, then it's perfectly fine to attend, even though this isn't recommended, however it would be permissible, because he knows that they're pleased with it.

But if he doesn't know that they'll be pleased with it, then he is prohibited from attending, and this is the Tufaylī (one who leeches) which the Fuqahā' spoke about, that even the Fuqahā' of the Hanābilah as it's mentioned in "al-Mughnī" adopted the view that whoever attends invitations (such as weddings) without being invited, then his testimony is rejected!

And this was the opinion adopted by Imām Ibn Qudāmah (رحمه الله), and considered this person as the Tufaylī (one who leeches), as he eats from the food of the people without being invited, and because this violates the rights of the people and entering their homes without an invitation.

Therefore, one must be warned from going to the homes of people without an invitation, not knowing that they'll be pleased with that.

Likewise, a woman is not to be given allowance to go to weddings without an invitation whilst they are not pleased with that, these people are Tufayliyyūn (leeches), and in the Madhab of Imām Ahmad, their testimony is rejected.”

23 November 2017 23:04

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

NEW VIDEO RELEASE!!

Explanation of the 3rd nullifier lesson (1/2) by the noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) 📺

23 November 2017 16:36

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

[HD] NEW VIDEO RELEASE!!

Explanation of the 3rd nullifier lesson (1/2) by the noble Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) 📺

23 November 2017 16:27

Radwan Dakkak added a new photo.

Sumaiah Ismail English ?

23 November 2017 15:34

Ibn Haneefah English?

24 November 2017 02:08

Abu Bakr Al-Janabi Its true sh. Turki was indeed the head of IS reasearch center may Allah accept him

24 November 2017 19:32

#New Excellent explanation on the 3rd Nullifier from the Mujāhideen (153 pages), posted recently by the committee that Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) and Shaykh Abū 'Alī al-Anbārī (تقبله الله) were in:

https://ia601500.us.archive.org/12/items/puretawheed1\_gmail/%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%A8%D8%A7%D8%B9%D8%AB%20%D8%B9%D9%84%D9%89%20%D8%A5%D8%AA%D9%85%D8%A7%D9%85%20%D8%A7%D9%84%D9%86%D8%A7%D9%82%D8%B6%20%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%AB%D8%A7%D9%84%D8%AB.pdf

23 November 2017 14:32

Radwan Dakkak added a new video.

Click for video:

Wrong understanding of Takfir according to the Murji'ah by Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān (فك أسره الله).

23 November 2017 10:39

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=udCxM-v4dyM>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=udCxM-v4dyM>

The ruling on attending weddings without being invited!!!

23 November 2017 09:48

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"If the evidence by which to prove the disbelief of this government is strength and imprisonment, then the government will be victorious because it possesses this evidence when I do not, but if the evidence to prove the disbelief of the state is the Qur'ān, Sunnah, sound knowledge and proofs, then I will be victorious without a doubt.

And I challenge all the scholars of this state, and at the head of them the muftī, for an open debate on this matter, and I swear by Allāh that I will prove the disbelief of this state by means of the Book, Sunnah, consensus and sayings of the scholars from all the schools of thought, and even from the scholars of this state such as Shaykh Muhammad ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb (rahimahullāh) to Shaykh ibn Bāz (rahimahullāh).

I had written the third part of "at-Tibyān fi Kufrī man a'ān al-Amrikān" and it was entitled, "The Cooperation of the Sa'ūdiyyah Government in the Crusaders Campaign", and I mentioned in it over thirty quotes taken from the scholars of this state - the first, second and third - all affirming its disbelief and apostasy from Islām, and the handwritten copy is with the intelligence service"

~ (Shaykh Nāsir ibn Hamad al-Fahd in his letter from prison).

22 November 2017 20:37

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Shaykh 'Abdullāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (3/47-48):

"What's well known: Is that the attributes of every described thing, conforms with its essence and coincides with its true-reality; So whoever doesn't comprehend from the attributes of the Lord whom "There's none like unto Him" except what coincides with the creation, then he has gone astray in his intellect and religion, and how excellent is what some (Imāms) have said:

If a Jahmī says to you: How did He rise (above the throne)? Or, how did He descend down to the lowest heaven? Or how are His hands like? And what's similar to that, then say to him:

"How is He like regarding His self (essence)?"

So if he replies, no one knows anything of Him except for Him, the essential nature of the Creator (Allāh) cannot be picked up by the intellect of humans, then say to him:

Having knowledge about how the attribute (of Allāh) is like, necessitates having knowledge about how the one (Himself) being attributed to it is like, so how is it possible to know how the attribute is like, for the one being described, when we don't know how He is like?!

Rather the essence (of Him) and attributes are only known in general (by what Allāh and the Rasūl described Him with), in a way that's required (to affirm).

Infact, these created things (that we have heard of) that will be in Jannah, it has been authentically narrated from Ibn 'Abbās (رضي الله عنه) that he said: "Nothing in this world resembles what's in Jannah, except for its name".

And Allāh, may He be Glorified said that: "And no soul knows what has been hidden for them of comfort for eyes". [32:17]

And the Prophet (ﷺ) said: "Allah said, 'I have prepared for My pious worshipers such things as no eye has ever seen, no ear has ever heard of, and nobody has ever thought of'" [Agreed Upon]

So if the enduring pleasure of Jannah, which is a creation from the creation of Allāh almighty, also unable to know how it's like, then what you do think about the Creator, may He be Glorified and Exalted?!

And this soul that's in the human being, the one with sound mind knows the confusion amongst the people concerning how it functions, along with the textual evidences refraining from explaining how it's like, so wouldn't the sound minded one take this into consideration pertaining to speaking about how Allāh, the most high is like?

Despite the fact that we certainly assure that the soul is within the body, and that it gets extracted from it (when the individual passes away), and it gets raised to the heavens, and that it can be drawn out (of the body by the angel) in a pleasant fashion during the time of extraction (death), as the authentic textual evidences have mentioned."

22 November 2017 20:11

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Shaykh 'Abdullāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله) mentioned in "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (3/47-48):

"What's well known: Is that the attributes of every described thing, conforms with its essence and coincides with its true-reality; So whoever doesn't comprehend from the attributes of the Lord whom "There's none like unto Him" except what coincides with the creation, then he has gone astray in his intellect and religion, and how excellent is what some (Imāms) have said:

If a Jahmī says to you: How did He rise (above the throne)? Or, how did He descend down to the lowest heaven? Or how are His hands like? And what's similar to that, then say to him:

"How is He like regarding His self (essence)?"

So if he replies, no one knows anything of Him except for Him, the essential nature of the Creator (Allāh) cannot be picked up by the intellect of humans, then say to him:

Having knowledge about how the attribute (of Allāh) is like, necessitates having knowledge about how the one (Himself) being attributed to it is like, so how is it possible to know how the attribute is like, for the one being described, when we don't know how He is like?!

Rather the essence (of Him) and attributes are only known in general (by what Allāh and the Rasūl described Him with), in a way that's required (to affirm).

Infact, these created things (that we have heard of) that will be in Jannah, it has been authentically narrated from Ibn 'Abbās (رضي الله عنه) that he said: "Nothing in this world resembles what's in Jannah, except for its name".

And Allāh, may He be Glorified said that: "And no soul knows what has been hidden for them of comfort for eyes". [32:17]

And the Prophet (ﷺ) said: "Allah said, 'I have prepared for My pious worshipers such things as no eye has ever seen, no ear has ever heard of, and nobody has ever thought of'" [Agreed Upon]

So if the enduring pleasure of Jannah, which is a creation from the creation of Allāh almighty, also unable to know how it's like, then what you do think about the Creator, may He be Glorified and Exalted?!

And this soul that's in the human being, the one with sound mind knows the confusion amongst the people concerning how it functions, along with the textual evidences refraining from explaining how it's like, so wouldn't the sound minded one take this into consideration pertaining to speaking about how Allāh, the most high is like?

Despite the fact that we certainly assure that the soul is within the body, and that it gets extracted from it (when the individual passes away), and it gets raised to the heavens, and that it can be drawn out (of the body by the angel) in a pleasant fashion during the time of extraction (death), as the authentic textual evidences have mentioned.”

22 November 2017 20:08

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

How sad is seeing someone seek knowledge and give Da'wah and then belittle others who have very little knowledge of Islām, Lā Hawlā walā Quwatta ilā Billāh.

Don't ever think your "giving of Da'wah" is the only way, and I'll prove this with a practical example of my younger brother.

My brother is a hard working guy, and let me tell you what he did when he finished school. He was working 2 jobs (70-80 hours a week), and on top of that, behind everyone's back including mine, he was studying a university degree and TAFE course, all at the same time.

Infact, he went to another state to live on his own at 18, but came back for family. Due to personal reasons, he needed a break, so he went on a holiday by himself to Indonesia, Malaysia and even Vietnam (a second time), and on a side note the kids in indonesia he spent alot of time with were absolutely well-mannered, they would kiss their mum's hands consecutively, and even give massage to my brother's feet in the Masjid and were generous humble people, these children even found it shocking that my brother didn't memorise Sūrat al-Baqarah or Sūrat Yāsin etc...They were incredible, Allāhumma Bārik.

But the main thing I wanted to mention here, is that despite my brother having very basic knowledge of the religion, he loves Islām and Muslims, and infact more people have entered into the fold of Islām through his hands than mine, even though he refers back to me for questions!

This proves that not everyone is going to have the same role in the Ummah, and you must encourage each other to do the best in the fields you are strong in. Don't ever think 'seeking knowledge of the Dīn' is the only form of Da'wah, yes it's one of the greatest obligations, but if it's going to place arrogance in your heart and look down upon others and speak negatively about them, then that's a blameworthy characteristic my brother, not a praiseworthy thing to have in you.

Even though I wasn't intending Tableeghi's in my post, but they have even looked down upon me for thinking I'm some kind of Dunyā lover just because I don't pray in Jamā'ah in their area, only if they knew the reality of someone's situation before jumping the gun, but there's no need for us to explain anything, and this is what I learnt from Shaykh Ahmad Jibrīl, he never complained once about trials, pain and the Qadar of Allāh, he would only relate something from prison for a lesson to be learnt from it, as he practised beautiful patience, may Allāh preserve him and his father.

22 November 2017 15:37

Radwan Dakkak shared a link.

<https://t.me/alAlwaan>
<https://t.me/alAlwaan>

5 channels for the Scholars of Tawhīd are back after being disabled:

The Imām, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) ↓
<https://t.me/Tameemee>

The Imām, Shaykh Humūd al-'Uqlā' (رحمه الله) ↓
<https://t.me/alOglaa>

The Imām, Shaykh Musā'id Ibn Bashīr (فك الله أسرهم) ↓
<https://t.me/Musaaid>

The Imām, Shaykh 'Abdul 'Azīz at-Tuwayla'ī (تقبله الله) ↓
<https://t.me/Tuwaylee>

The Imām, Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir al-'Alwān (فك الله أسرهم) ↓
<https://t.me/alAlwaan>

22 November 2017 10:36

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

“Trying to defend the Islamic rights of women through feminism is like trying to restore khilafa through democratic elections. They both come as a reaction to oppression, but they both end up becoming oppressive... Because they are man made.”

— Crushing response by an Ukht Fillāh.

22 November 2017 08:41

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

“Trying to defend the Islamic rights of women through feminism is like trying to restore khilafa through democratic elections. They both come as a reaction to oppression, but they both end up becoming oppressive... Because they are man made.”

— Crushing response by an Ukht Fillāh.

22 November 2017 08:32

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Feminists are one of the most evil despicable creatures I have met in my life, she will call you:

1. Controlling.
2. Abusing.
3. Misogynist.
4. Arab Superiorist.
5. Colourist.
6. Extremist.

Just for saying "Allāh said" and the "Rasūl said". May Allāh destroy these Kāfirāt who have long tongues - They don't believe in the Qur'ān and Sunnah, but rather want to try be the man instead of behaving themselves and remaining as feminine under the authority of man!

Islām is a religion and feminism is a religion, so choose one and abandon the other, don't be a yo-yo and jump back and forth in the religion like a hypocrite.

21 November 2017 21:50

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Feminists are one of the most evil despicable creatures I have met in my life, she will call you:

1. Controlling.
2. Abusing.
3. Misogynist.
4. Arab Superiorist.
5. Colourist.
6. Extremist.

Just for saying "Allāh said" and the "Rasūl said". May Allāh destroy these Kāfirāt who have long tongues - They don't believe in the Qur'ān and Sunnah, but rather want to try be the man instead of behaving themselves and remaining as feminine under the authority of man!

Islām is a religion and feminism is a religion, so choose one and abandon the other, don't be a yo-yo and jump back and forth in the religion like a hypocrite.

21 November 2017 21:50

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

I have been watching some videos uploaded by Kuffār reacting to some Islamic talks (such as on the angels of Allāh, the purpose of life etc...), and I must say, this is an excellent form of Da'wah.

And even if we say the talks being reacted too are by Murji'ah, moderates and whatever you wanna call them, a wonderful quote by Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) pops up in my mind, wherein he said it's better for deviants to call the Kuffār to Islām in their lands, even if they eventually adopt that deviant creed, as it's much better than remaining upon their Kufr and rejecting the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

And just to add to this quote, I know many people who entered Islām due to the grace of Allāh alone, however the means Allāh provided for them may have been through a misguided or apostate speaker, yet afterwards these reverts carry on to learn the correct 'Aqīdah, so this is something wonderful to see, people entering into Islām in multitudes, but unfortunately those raised upon Islām are leaving the religion in multitudes, look at how Allāh can replace a people for others, may Allāh protect us.

21 November 2017 20:17

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

I have been watching some videos uploaded by Kuffār reacting to some Islamic talks (such as on the angels of Allāh, the purpose of life etc...), and I must say, this is an excellent form of Da'wah.

And even if we say the talks being reacted too are by Murji'ah, moderates and whatever you wanna call them, a wonderful quote by Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله) pops up in my mind, wherein he said it's better for deviants to call the Kuffār to Islām in their lands, even if they eventually adopt that deviant creed, as it's much better than remaining upon their Kufr and rejecting the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

And just to add to this quote, I know many people who entered Islām due to the grace of Allāh alone, however the means Allāh provided for them may have been through a misguided or apostate speaker, yet afterwards these reverts carry on to learn the correct 'Aqīdah, so this is something wonderful to see, people entering into Islām in multitudes, but unfortunately those raised upon Islām are leaving the religion in multitudes, look at how Allāh can replace a people for others, may Allāh protect us.

21 November 2017 20:12

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

**Can you afford her Mahr****

We all talk about Jannah (including myself), but we need to start acting like we really want it.

We will never reach the high ranks of Jannah until we pay the Mahr to enter it, and this Mahr my brothers is to abandon this Dunyā, not gold and silver.

21 November 2017 17:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

This is a perfect example of appreciation, I absolutely loved this so much - It can also apply to us, SubhānAllāh if we complain about whatever problems we have, we would be among the oppressors (as Allāh has blessed us in so many ways):

Q. "If you could make the decision between being hearing or being deaf, what would you choose?"

A. "I would stay being deaf because I like where my life is leading right now.

I have no problem in changing who I am today. I'm proud of myself of how I've accomplished today."

Question to dad's son:

"If you could change 1 thing about your dad, what would you change?"

Son responds: "Nothing!".

How amazing is this, unlike those who deny their creator by saying, "it's cruel to have evil in this world, no one should be deaf", well as the Scholars of Islām state, this world is their Jannah, and what a deluding enjoyment and pathetic 'Jannah' this world is for the Kuffār, Alhamdulillah our Jannah in the Ākhirah is the best 🕌

21 November 2017 16:15

Radwan Dakkak shared Special Books by Special Kids's video.

This is a perfect example of appreciation, I absolutely loved this so much - It can also apply to us, SubhānAllāh if we complain about whatever problems we have, we would be among the oppressors (as Allāh has blessed us in so many ways):

Q. "If you could make the decision between being hearing or being deaf, what would you choose?"

A. "I would stay being deaf because I like where my life is leading right now.

I have no problem in changing who I am today. I'm proud of myself of how I've accomplished today."

Question to dad's son:

"If you could change 1 thing about your dad, what would you change?"

Son responds: "Nothing!".

How amazing is this, unlike those who deny their creator by saying, "it's cruel to have evil in this world, no one should be deaf", well as the Scholars of Islām state, this world is their Jannah, and what a deluding enjoyment and pathetic 'Jannah' this world is for the Kuffār, Alhamdulillah our Jannah in the Ākhirah is the best 🕌

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Commentary of the Hadīth: "The most prevalent kind of usury (ribā) is going to lengths in talking unjustly against a Muslim's honour."

Imām al-Taybī (رحمه الله) said:

أدخل العرض في جنس المال على سبيل المبالغة ، وجعل الربا نوعين متعارف وهو ما يؤخذ من الزيادة على ماله من المديون ، وغير متعارف وهو استطالة الرجل اللسان في عرض صاحبه

"He included honour within the types of wealth as a hyperbole, and divided Ribā into two types, the common meaning: Which is what's taken in addition to his wealth from the debtor. And the uncommon meaning: And it is speaking in a lengthy fashion with one's tongue concerning the honour of an individual..."

Al-Qādhī 'Iyādh (رحمه الله) said:

الاستطالة في عرض المسلم أن يتناول منه أكثر مما يستحقه على ما قيل له ، أو أكثر مما رخصوا له فيه ، ولذلك مثله بالربا وعده من عداده ، ثم فضله على سائر أفرادها ، لأنه أكثر مضرة وأشد فسادا ، فإن العرض شرعا وعقلا أعز على النفس من المال ، وأعظم منه خطرا ، ولذلك أوجب الشارع بالمجاهرة بهتك الأعراض ما لم يوجب بنهب الأموال

"Going in excessive lengths in speaking about the honour of a muslim, is that he mentions things about him more than what's fitting concerning what's been said about him, or to mention more than what he was permitted to speak about him, and this is why he (the Prophet) named it as Ribā and considered it as one of its types, then he gave it precedence (of being the worst) over the rest of its individual types, because it's the most harmful and a worse corruption, for indeed the honour is given more dignity over one's self from wealth according to the Shari'ah and intellect, and it's more enormous than it in severity, and that's why the legislator (Allāh) obligated the public exposure of the one who violates one's honour, unlike with the case of someone who steals wealth (unlawfully)."

What he means by public exposure is that Allāh has commanded the one who violates honour to be publicly stoned to death, unlike with the one who steals wealth.

21 November 2017 14:59

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Important Rule: It's necessary to differentiate between the one who makes Takfīr upon the Mushrikīn and has complete Barā'ah from them and their Shirk (whilst giving an exception to some individuals that require Hujjah according to him), and someone who's Asl (default position) is not making Takfīr upon the Mushrikīn and having Barā'ah from them, and rather opposing the Imāms of Tawhīd and Jihād.

The Khawārij of our time don't differentiate between the two, and even claim making Takfīr upon both is known in the religion by necessity (this necessitates Takfīr upon all Imāms of Najd and Ahlus-Sunnah).

The misguided deviant, Ahmad al-Hāzimī is well-known for bringing refutations of the Imāms of Najd against the likes of the Jahmī Dāwūd Ibn Jirjīs who didn't even consider what the grave worshippers do at the graves from calling for help and invoking the dead as nullifiers of their Tawhīd, and infact was a very harsh enemy against the Da'wah of Tawhīd that Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahnāb (رحمه الله) came with.

Then Al-Hāzimī applies these statements used by the Scholars against the Jahmiyyah such as al-'Irāqī (Dāwūd Ibn Jirjīs) upon noble scholars of our time who absolutely reject Shirk and disbelieve in the Mushrikeen (but exclude some individuals due to mixing up the Mawānī' of Takfīr).

21 November 2017 10:09

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

Important Rule: It's necessary to differentiate between the one who makes Takfīr upon the Mushrikīn and has complete Barā'ah from them and their Shirk (whilst giving an exception to some individuals that require Hujjah according to him), and someone who's Asl (default position) is not making Takfīr upon the Mushrikīn and having Barā'ah from them, and rather opposing the Imāms of Tawhīd and Jihād.

The Khawārij of our time don't differentiate between the two, and even claim making Takfīr upon both is known in the religion by necessity (this necessitates Takfīr upon all Imāms of Najd and Ahlus-Sunnah).

The misguided deviant, Ahmad al-Hāzimī is well-known for bringing refutations of the Imāms of Najd against the likes of the Jahmī Dāwūd Ibn Jirjīs who didn't even consider what the grave worshippers do at the graves from calling for help and invoking the dead as nullifiers of their Tawhīd, and infact was a very harsh enemy against the Da'wah of Tawhīd that Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahnāb (رحمه الله) came with.

Then Al-Hāzīmī applies these statements used by the Scholars against the Jahmiyyah such as al-'Irāqī (Dāwūd Ibn Jirjis) upon noble scholars of our time who absolutely reject Shirk and disbelieve in the Mushrikeen (but exclude some individuals due to mixing up the Mawānī' of Takfir).

21 November 2017 10:07

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

"If the first inward thought is not warded off, it will generate a desire, then the desire will generate a wish, and the wish will generate an intention, and the intention will generate the action, and the action will result in ruin and Divine wrath. So evil must be cut off at its root, which is when it is simply a thought that crosses the mind, from which all the other things follow on." [Al-Ihyā']

~ Imām Abū Hāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله).

20 November 2017 21:58

Radwan Dakkak updated his status.

"If the first inward thought is not warded off, it will generate a desire, then the desire will generate a wish, and the wish will generate an intention, and the intention will generate the action, and the action will result in ruin and Divine wrath. So evil must be cut off at its root, which is when it is simply a thought that crosses the mind, from which all the other things follow on." [Al-Ihyā']

~ Imām Abū Hāmid al-Ghazālī (رحمه الله).

20 November 2017 21:55

Radwan Dakkak posted in Ummah Of Tawheed.

Explanation of the Rule: "Whoever doesn't make Takfir upon the Kāfir" (Lesson 1/2)

The Mujāhid, Shaykh Abū Mālik at-Tamīmī (تقبله الله) said:
بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

In the name of Allāh, Al-Rahmān Al-Raheem, all Praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of Mankind, May the most perfect and complete Peace and Blessings of Allāh be upon the most noble of Prophets and Messengers, our Prophet Muhammad, with the best Prayers and the most commendable of Salutations be upon him and his household.

Glory be to you (O Allāh), we have no knowledge except that which you have taught us, Indeed you are the All-Knowing, All-Wise.

O Allāh grant us Fiqh in the religion, and teach us its true interpretation, O Allāh teach us that which benefits us, and allow us to benefit from what you have taught us, and increase us in guidance, piety, righteousness, correctness and right direction O Lord of Mankind.

My beloved noble brothers, we will be studying in today's class, a matter from the enormous matters, and it is a matter which has been affirmed by the Scholars of the past and present, and this issue has caused confusion to some people, and a type of confusion has occurred in it.

So by the permission of Allāh during these classes, we will try to lay out the Principles for this matter according to Pure Islamic Foundations, so that Allāh (سبحانه وتعالى) may inspire and reveal to us the path of success and correctness.

A fundamental rule from the fundamental rules of the Sharī'ah which was affirmed by the Scholars, and it is the Rule:
"Whoever doesn't make Takfir upon the Kāfir, or doubts in his disbelief, or corrects his ways, is a Kāfir".

And before starting to clarify the rulings and matters related to this Rule, I would like to use a particular approach with you in these lessons, and it is from the long-practised disciplined approaches, and it is laying out the foundations, then diving into the sub-branch issues (applications).

Meaning, that I will mention to you right now the firmly established Usūl (principles) that we will mention as we're speaking, from matters that fall under this Rule, for indeed if a person precisely understands the Usūl (principles), he will be fine with the application.

And as it's determined by the Scholars of Usūl, the "Asl" (core foundation) is what other things are built upon from it, and the "Far'" (sub-branch) is what's built upon something else.

Is there a difference or not? There's a difference, the Asl is what other things are built upon from it, whereas the Far' (sub-branch) is what's built upon something else.

So if a person's Ta'sīl (principles) are valid, his Tafrī' (application of those principles) will be correct. And if there's a fault in the principles, what would the result be? An error in the application, and this is why the Scholars say, "Whatever is built upon falsehood, is falsehood".

So if the Asl (core foundation) is correct, then it's necessary that what's built upon it is going to be correct. And if the Asl (core foundation) is corrupt, then what's built upon it is also going to be corrupt.

The First Principle from the established Usūl which we'll bring forth in our discussion on the matters related under this Rule, the first principle: Is that the one who falls into Major Shirk in the Clear Matters, is a Kāfir Murtad, whether he was ignorant or had a misinterpretation.

Now, we will mention these Principles, and it must be accompanied with us under every issue that we speak about this Rule, so these Principles that we're going to mention right now must be present with us.

The Second Principle: The Rule of whoever doesn't make Takfīr upon a Kāfir (becomes a Kāfir), is an agreed upon Rule amongst the Righteous Predecessors of the Ummah and the Great Imāms.

And this Ijmā' is a consensus upon it in general, and there are precise details which we'll clarify Inshā'Allāh while speaking about the issues related to this topic, it consists of Tafsīl (elaboration) and Clarification.

Therefore we say: Verily the Scholars have affirmed that whoever doesn't make Takfīr upon a Kāfir becomes a Kāfir, however when does he disbelieve? This is what we'll be going through Inshā'Allāh while studying this Fundamental Rule.

Therefore this Rule isn't upon that supposed absoluteness (i.e. Left unrestricted) as some think, rather there are Guidelines and Conditions, Inshā'Allāh we'll clarify it soon.

The Third Principle: Indeed, this Rule isn't as some claim as being an innovation from Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله).

Because there are those misguided individuals who say: That this rule was invented and innovated by Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله تعالى), and this isn't correct, and it is a feeble claim void of proof, infact it is a pure fabrication and lie.

Rather this Rule is affirmed by the Scholars of the Past, and the one who reads, and examines the statements of the Scholars would see that this Rule is Apparent in their Foundations (laid out).

Hence, this Rule has been mentioned from Sufyān Ibn 'Uyaynah (رحمه الله), and also Imām Ahmad Ibn Hanbal (رحمه الله), and Abū Zur'ah (رحمه الله), and Muhammad Ibn Sahnūn (رحمه الله), and also Abū Bakr Ibn 'Ayyāsh (رحمه الله), and Yazīd Ibn Hārūn (رحمه الله) and a large group from the Imāms of the Salaf.

And likewise Shaykh al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah (رحمه الله), Al-Qādī 'Iyādh (رحمه الله), A'immat al-Da'wah (i.e. Imāms of Najd) and other than them who have mentioned this Rule.

Therefore this Rule isn't as some say, as being an innovation from Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil Wahhāb (رحمه الله), rather it is a Rule which the Salaf of the Ummah have spoke about in the past.

And the one who examines their statements and narrated quotes from them, he would find that manifestly apparent while going through these quotes that are mentioned from them, and we will shortly move to these quotes Inshā'Allāh, and we'll stop at it with some pauses (to address it).

The Fourth Principle: That the one who falls under this nullifier is committing Kufr, what is this nullifier? "Whoever doesn't make Takfīr upon the Kāfir", he is committing Kufr according to the Consensus of the Scholars.

